"The Citizen's Academy will offer our residents an insider's look at the Academy participants will learn about the divisions at RCPD, laws of arrest, patrol procedures, investigations, and other topics. ## California Capital Film Office Opens at Rancho Cordova

By Maria Kniestedt,
City of Rancho Cordova

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG)

- Los Angeles-based DTLA Entertainment Group, LLC, the City of Rancho Cordova, and Rancho Cordova Travel & Tourism are pleased to announce the formation of the California Capital Film Office at Rancho Cordova (CCFO), which opened its doors on August 19, 2019, at 9841 Horn Road in Rancho Cordova. The mission of the California Capital Film Office (CCFO) is to support, attract, and promote film, television and multimedia projects to Rancho Cordova and the region.

"We want the California Capital Film Office to be the one-stop resource in Rancho Cordova and the greater Sacramento region for the film industry nationwide. Our office will provide the necessary logistical services to the industry and bring economic and cultural benefits to the region," said Ricky Borba, Executive Director of CCFO.

CCFO will cultivate the film industry in the region, including developing a database that will serve as a resource for production companies that wish to film in Rancho Cordova and surrounding areas and to provide residents, organizations and business owners with opportunities to partner with those production companies. The database would include buildings, land, period vehicles, animals, props, period costumes, actors and background actors (extras), as well as businesses to provide essential services to production companies and studios, such as catering, hotels and vehicle rentals.

"When a film comes into an area, it means jobs and revenue for local businesses, especially hotels and restaurants. It is exciting that the City of Rancho Cordova and Rancho Cordova Travel & Tourism is supporting the formation of a regional film office to attract the film industry. We look forward to working with them and other regional partners," said Charles Lago, director of CCFO.

"We are pleased to partner with DTLA Entertainment Group and the California Capital Film Office," said Amanda Norton, Economic Development Manager for the City of Rancho Cordova.

New RC Police Officer Borge Joins the POP Team

By Ashley Downton,
City of Rancho Cordova

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - RCPD has a new Problem Oriented Policing (POP) Officer to support the Folsom-Olson-Zinfandel (FOZ) area. Her name is Officer Shannon Borge.

Officer Borge became interested in a career in law enforcement when she was working as a court reporter at the Downtown Courthouse. Her family is dedicated to public service. She is one of five members currently in law enforcement and several have served in the military.

In 2015, Officer Borge graduated from the Sacramento County Sheriff's Office Academy and began working for the Sheriff's Office. She has worked at the Main Jail, Courthouse, Crime Scene Investigation, and Patrol, and she is also a member of the Sheriff's Office Honor Guard Detail. In April, she joined RCPD as a patrol officer.

"Rancho Cordova is close to my home and where I shop, and I have friends who live and own businesses here," said Officer Borge. "It's a great city with a hometown feel."

In July, Officer Borge was selected as the new POP FOZ Officer. Officer Borge's goal is to build relationships with businesses, employees and customers and develop long-term solutions to address concerns in the area. One of her first focuses is starting a Business Watch to bring neighboring businesses together in partnership with RCPD.

"The FOZ area is one of the most highly visited shopping centers in the City of Rancho Cordova," said Officer Borge. "RCPD hopes to continue creating a safe and enjoyable experience for those who do business, shop and dine there."

The new POP FOZ Officer position is funded by the City of Rancho Cordova's Community Enhancement Fund, a ½ cent, voter-approved sales tax that supports local priorities. For the 2019/2020 fiscal year, the Community Enhancement Fund provides an additional $1.4 million in funding to the $22 million+ annual police budget.

Officer Borge was introduced to the community at the Neighborhood Watch meeting on Tuesday, August 20. If you have questions or feedback about the FOZ area, please contact Officer Borge at sborge@ranhocordovapd.com. ★

Cake4Kids Still Cooking One Year Later

Story and photos by Trina L. Drotar

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - In 2018, Cake4Kids arrived in Sacramento, thanks to Mary Barnes' efforts. Barnes is the Sacramento ambassador for the Sunnyvale-based non-profit. She has grown her area volunteers into a force of nearly 100 strong. Two dozen gathered on August 3rd to celebrate the one year anniversary of the first cake delivery in Sacramento to Opening Doors.

Since that first delivery, Barnes and her volunteers have made 135 deliveries to more than two dozen agencies throughout the region. The group averages 2.5 deliveries per week, and Barnes said that volunteers are eager to bake more cakes, cupcakes, and cookies.

"I've not found a lack of agencies to partner with," said Barnes and explained that the process is long, especially since many non-profits have limited staff.

She worked closely with Alison Bakewell, Director of Operations for Cake4Kids, to reach out to agencies by telephone or mail, and they both did a lot of follow up, often waiting to hear back for several months.

One of the agencies she contacted is Next Move Family Shelter. Javier Leon, the organization's Children's Services Coordinator, gave a short presentation to the volunteers.

"I try to make sure the children don't miss out in development opportunities and having fun," he wrote in an email. "Since February 2019, I have been able to get volunteer bakers from Cake4kids to bring cupcakes, one of the biggest highlights of each party! The children look forward to each batch of cupcakes because each volunteer baker adds their own special design on it. Once a volunteer baker made cupcakes with frosting shaped as flowers. Some kids didn't want to eat it because they thought it was so beautiful. I'm very thankful Cake4kids exists to allow children experiencing homelessness to not miss out in having cupcakes at birthday parties."

Leon's statements echo those of other agencies since the purpose of Cake4Kids is to provide children with possibly the only birthday cake they have ever received. Many children are homeless, recent immigrants, in foster care, or victims of human trafficking.

Volunteer bakers are often challenged by requests for perhaps a vegan banana cake topped with vegan chocolate frosting, the request for the first cake delivered to Opening Doors on August 3rd, 2018.

The process to become a volunteer baker includes a mandatory orientation in order to learn more about Cake4Kids, including the demographics served, and resources. Orientations are held most months and are listed on the organization's website. The next Sacramento orientation takes place in September.

Barnes, who is as dedicated to bringing cakes to at-risk children as she is to her full-time employment, said she spent an hour on her birthday meeting with representatives from Guardian Scholars Program at Sacramento State. The program serves transitional foster youth up to the age of 24 who are attending college, a program that Barnes called "amazing," because few foster youth attend college.

Many, she added, don't graduate from high school, but she learned that two who are being assisted by Guardian Scholars are pursuing master's degrees.

To be able to meet face to face with agencies is one of Barnes' goals. She has the opportunity to learn more about the organization, the population it serves, and express Cake4Kids' gratitude for how each organization serves and supports the community.

"It really helps plant a strong relationship from the beginning," said Barnes.

She has expanded the region from the first agency in Arden Arcade and volunteer bakers from Sacramento to agencies and volunteers in Elk Grove, Rancho Cordova, Carmichael, Roseville, and all of Sacramento. She is discussing future plans with agencies in Placer county.

"We can't do it without our volunteers' help," she said, and that she'd like to work hand in hand with a volunteer in the future.

"Our volunteers are everywhere in the Sacramento region. They make my job much easier. They're doing the weekly deliveries. I'm behind the scenes."

Although volunteers bake the goodies, decorate them, and package them according to Cake4Kids' guidelines, they never see the smiles of the children. It doesn't seem to matter to them. They want to bake and bring the joy of a birthday treat to children.

"Another Cake4Kids celebration," Barnes said, "is right around the corner." On September 17th, the public and interested bakers are invited to attend an open house and information session.

One year ago, Barnes said her goal was to reach 100 volunteers, and she's nearly accomplished that feat.

"I'm so appreciative of all the volunteers who have come forward. It was daunting to start this. I believed it and people showed up," said Barnes, adding that she is indebted to the volunteers. For additional information, visit <https://www.cake4kids.org/>. ★

The New California Military Department Headquarters

By Patrick Larenas

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Lieutenant Colonel Ed Landrith is the Construction Project Officer for the new California Military Department Headquarters in Rancho Cordova, and the Chamber of Commerce had the pleasure of learning about the new 238,000 sq ft facility on August 16.

The California Military Department has been administering from a large complex leased just outside of Rancho Cordova at 9800 Goethe Road, Sacramento. The California Air National Guard, California Army National Guard, California Cadet Corps, Military Reserve and other branches and duties are administered by the department, and much of it was being done from other leased facilities as well.

Landrith, a Cordova Class of '88 graduate, said, "The new construction has the purpose of consolidating and integrating the headquarters facility into one 30 acre lot with access to Mather Airport and proximity to the Office of Emergency Services."

Since the economic downturn of 2007, the state had been looking for a way to compensate for the declining federal funding for military construction and ultimately reduce its own costs.

In October 2017, the construction phase begun and now 80 percent of its structural steel has been erected.

Another reason for the new facility is that the higher seismic standards required for emergency buildings and Department of Defense security standards were not being met by the previous facilities.

The new state owned facility located at 10601 Bear Hollow Drive, Rancho Cordova will feature: sustainable modern LEED certification; low water landscape; Net Zero Energy; photovoltaic energy; and emergency power generation.

For Rancho Cordova this is an important project since, according to Landrith, "The California Military Department employs many civilians and trains them not just to run projects but to run our [CMD] projects."

When the new headquarters begins to operate in the spring of 2021, it will also provide a customer-centric layout for veterans and service members seeking to update their identification badges and other related services.

California Capital Film Office Opens at Rancho Cordova

"With CCFO's new designation as a Qualified Film Production Office and their knowledge of the film industry, Rancho Cordova and the greater Sacramento region will be able to realize the economic value a film brings."

The Sacramento region has rubbed elbows with the movie industry in the past with such blockbusters as, Triple xXx starring Vin Diesel, Phenomenon starring John Travolta, Bad Grandpa with Johnny Knoxville, American Beauty with Annette Benning and most recently Ladybird, which went on to garner several Oscar nominations.

Wendy Bengel, a Los Angeles-based entertainment attorney, and film producer said, "Sacramento is overlooked for shooting film and television, (despite its proximity to Hollywood), because producers do not see the area as filmmaker friendly. With the formation of CCFO, I plan to consider—and will recommend to other producers and clients alike—Rancho Cordova and the region as a viable filmmaker destination."

The Mayor's Corner

"Autumn Leaves" to be Just Around the Corner

By Bob McGarvey

We, like many people, were spring cleaning and found items that were stored away and long ago forgotten. Among those things was a row of textbooks that were very important while I was going to college. One of those textbooks was about the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR). It was one of those government classes that covered international relations and different governments then, but now it is one of the many such books that will be disposed of without any problem. That will give us some needed space. It is amazing how many things you can collect, gather, hold on to, and be sure that they will be important for a never-ending amount of time. They are not! Come to think of it, the book about the USSR lasted longer than the government did. Oh well. Goodbye book(s), and goodbye to some papers I had to write that were about the contents of those books.

By the time you read this, August will only have a little over a week before it will be September, and then it will be time for the "Autumn Leaves" to be just around the corner. I'm not sure what corner, but the weather forecasters said summer's heat will hang around awhile longer. So, when autumn finally finds the corner I was talking about earlier, I'll definitely be ready for cooler fall weather.

You may have seen the news last night on CBS 13 about the California Capital Film Office at Rancho Cordova that is a collaboration among Los Angeles-based DTLA Entertainment Group, LLC, the City of Rancho Cordova, and Rancho Cordova Travel & Tourism. According to the information provided by FOX 40, the CEO of the California Capital Film Office helped produce a film called The Talking Tree in the Greater Sacramento area and believes that the area could provide the people needed for other films. The company is bolstered by the recent success of the film Lady Bird, which was set in the Sacramento region and garnered five Academy Award nominations.

The California Capital Film Office will soon kick off one of its services, which compiles a database about people who want to be paid to participate in a film production. There will be more information about this new and exciting business in Rancho Cordova. Who would have thought!

During Monday's City Council meeting, a question was asked about the streets in Rancho Cordova. There are approximately 240 centerline miles of streets in the City of Rancho Cordova. I didn't know there were that many street miles in our city, but when you think of it, there are many miles that have been added since communities like Sunriver, Stone Creek and Anatolia, to name a few, were developed. The streets that were here when I arrived in 1963 in the United States Air Force were definitely fewer in number than the ones we have today, and they are increasing in number as new neighborhoods are added to our city. So much is going on that it's hard to believe.

From Mayor Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time. ★

CHEERS & JEERS

By Damian Holbrook

Jeers to The Bachelorette's Jed
for his cheating heart. The only thing worse than the aspiring singer's tunes was the fact that he had a girlfriend when he joined the show and still managed to win Hannah's final rose. Good thing she dumped him after learning the truth and used the post-finale special to reconnect with Tyler C.

Jeers to Outlander Outage
Again, Starz's sexy era-jumping romance is set to make time stand still by not launching Season 5 until early 2020, forcing fans to go nearly a year without the life-giving stares between Claire and Jamie. Great Scot, that's too long!

Cheers to Orange Is the New Black for serving its time wisely. After seven seasons, Netflix's prison dramedy starring Taylor Schilling (pictured) locked it down in a series finale full of endings happy, heartbreaking and even hopeful, thanks to the show's real-life fund to support women impacted by mass incarceration.

Cheers to Shark Week
for taking a fun-size bite out of the summer schedule. From the goofy Shark Trip: Eat. Prey. Chum. with Joel McHale and Rob Riggle to the gut-twisting shipwreck tale of Capsized: Blood in the Water, starring Taylor Schilling (pictured) locked it down in a series finale full of endings happy, heartbreaking and even hopeful.

Josh Duhamel (pictured), the yearly salute was awash with reasons to stay in and watch TV. ★

ASK MATT

BY MATT ROUSH TV Guide Senior Critic

Will Supernatural Get A Spinoff?

Question: Are there going to be any spinoff series from Supernatural? – Gloria

Matt Roush: The CW tried to develop at least two Supernatural spinoffs with episodes intended as "backdoor pilots," the most recent being "Wayward Sisters" in January 2018. At this summer's television critics press tour, The CW President Mark Pedowitz acknowledged that these attempts "did not connect." Adding, "I tend to believe at this point, the show's essence and blood is Jared (Padalecki) and Jensen (Ackles)." As for the actors who play the Winchester brothers, Padalecki said, "I do hope we see more of the Supernatural universe," while Ackles conceded, "When you have a show that is so anchored ... around two characters, it makes it difficult to tell the story without those two characters present."

Question: Please tell me that Netflix or Hulu plans to pick up Madam Secretary – or President – when it ends on CBS. – Ruth

Matt Roush: Elizabeth McCord (Te?a Leoni) will indeed already be president when the show returns for Season 6, but her term will be only 10 episodes. This time jump allows the show to give some closure to her story though, which means it's unlikely they'll be shopping it to other platforms. It'll be missed, but better this than an abrupt cancellation.

Lady Lancers Tennis Looking Forward To New Season

By James Darnell

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - After a down year fall, Cordova Lady Lancers varsity tennis coach Jeff Pieczynski is optimistic that this season will go a long way in building the foundation of his program.

With nine returning players and the team currently holding tryouts, Pieczynski feels that the mix of experience and fresh faces will bode well long term. Among the returnees is senior Maria Orlovscia, who the coach says will be a big piece of the puzzle for the team this season going into her fourth year on the team.

"She's a four-year player and I'm excited that she's jazzed up about playing," he said. "She's really been working hard and trying to improve."

Eight other returning players have Pieczynski encouraged if for no other reason than being able to see his players remain dedicated to the sport, and be willing to continue to improve as the program continues to build.

"We've kind of caught that spark with them to where they want to continue to improve and strive to get better and better," he said.

Additionally, senior returnee Kylie Frost has been a big help in bringing some of the tryout players and new players up to speed, according to Pieczynski. Her eagerness to help her teammates and passion for the game has been contagious according to the Lady Lancers' coach.

One newcomer to the program has already caught the attention of Pieczynski in junior foreign exchange student Caroline Brandt. Brandt, a former soccer player, has impressed the coach early on. "In what I've seen so far, she's going to be a quick learner."

As for team goals this year, Pieczynski is hoping to bring a competitive team to the court each and every match, and will look to continue building experience with his young players.

The Lady Lancers will begin their season on August 29 when they travel to Rio Linda High School in a preseason matchup scheduled for 3:30 p.m. ★

By Patrick Larenas

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - On August 15, the Rancho Cordova Chamber of Commerce hosted its 9th Annual Business to Community Expo, and the tree-shaded City Hall building surroundings were filled with bright, colorful booths offering and networking their vital goods and services.

The approximately 800 present were able to eat and snack for free as they perused small, medium and large business enterprises which are the bedrock of our local economy. Attendees came from all over the Sacramento region and elsewhere and were glad to feel a soothing breeze in the shade.

This year the event grew to over 100 vendors.

Diann Rogers, President & CEO, Rancho Cordova Chamber of Commerce said, "This was a fantastic event to showcase our Rancho Cordova business community. Lots of people dropped by before, during and after their lunch hour to explore Rancho Cordova's best in business and services."
