Rowing is among skills taught at the Aquatic Center.

Story and photos by Susan Maxwell Skinner

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - "Hey, my little girl can drive a boat," shouted a dad as his teenager confidently trimmed sailboat sheets on Lake Natoma.

His daughter was among more than 2000 children who recently mastered maritime skills during camps at the Sacramento State Aquatic Center. Straddling Gold River, Fair Oaks and Orangevale borders, the facility is jointly run by Associated Students Inc. and CSUS, in association with the California State Parks Department. With Lake Natoma's 449 placid acres as a playground, the center has hosted children's courses for 30 summers.

Week-long classes include stand-up paddling, canoeing and rowing. Water-skiing and wake-boarding classes are run on nearby Folsom Lake. Bathed by sun and cool American River water, the students are seldom out of swimsuits and flotation vests. On designated parent nights, moms and dads are invited to share the sport and marvel at their kids' new skills. "Teaching safe watersports is the center's aim," says center director Brian Dulgur. "We want everyone to enjoy our incredible Californian resources and be responsible aquatic enthusiasts."

Most center instructors are college students, also on summer break. First aid, CPR and lifeguard certification are hiring prerequisites but a love for sport

Honoring Grandparents with Butterfly Release

Story by Shauna Boyd

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Sunday, September 8 is national Grandparents Day, and two local non-profits are observing the day with a Grandparents Day Butterfly Release. Sacramento Children's Museum (SCM) and Snowline Hospice are hosting the Butterfly Release ceremony at 11:30 am at the museum, which is located at 2701 Prospect Park in Rancho Cordova.

SCM's mission is to inspire a love of life-long learning by providing a space for children to play, create, and explore. Snowline's mission is to help patients through end-of-life care and support their families through the grieving process. The Grandparents Day Butterfly Release is a way to support two great causes at the same time while also recognizing the vital role grandparents play in children's lives.

SCM's director of museum advancement Meghan Toland said, "We Participants will release Monarch and Swallowtail butterflies in honor of grandparents' important role in their lives.

chose Grandparents Day so important to us at the bringing kids in every day. because grandparents are museum - we see them

Board of Equalization to Hold Taxpayers' Bill of Rights Hearing

By Brenda Fleming, California State Board of Equalization

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The annual Taxpayers' Bill of Rights Hearing will be held by the California State Board of Equalization (BOE) on August 27, 2019. The hearing provides taxpayers, assessors, and other local agencies the opportunity to provide comment on any items discussed in the State Board of Equalization's 2017-18 Taxpayers' Rights Advocate's Annual Report for the purposes of correcting any problems described in the report. Taxpayers may also comment on BOE-administered programs or local property tax issues.

Individuals may also present their concerns regarding agency services or other issues related to the administration of its tax programs, including state and county property taxes, alcoholic beverage tax, and tax on insurers. With respect to the alcoholic beverage tax, individuals may present their ideas and recommendations regarding legislation which may improve voluntary compliance and the relationship between taxpayers and government.

The Taxpayers' Bill of Rights Hearing is held in accordance with The Morgan Property Taxpayers' Bill of Rights and California Taxpayers' Bill of Rights provisions. The BOE has a Taxpayers' Rights Advocate to ensure taxpayers' rights are protected and to facilitate resolution of property tax problems. More information on the BOE's Taxpayers' Rights Advocate Office (TRA Office) and the Taxpayer's Bill of Rights Hearing is available at <http://www.boe.ca.gov/tra/>

Taxpayers are invited to share their experiences with problems encountered to bring it to the attention of the BOE and TRA Office for assistance with resolution.

The Board of Equalization is the only elected tax board in the country. Its five members include four equalization district members, and the State Controller. Under its constitutional mandate, the BOE oversees the assessment practices of the state's 58 county assessors, who are charged with establishing values for approximately 12.8 million assessments each year. In addition, the BOE assesses the property of regulated railroads and specific public utilities and assesses and collects the private railroad car tax. The BOE's monthly meetings offer taxpayers and other interested parties opportunities to participate in the formulation of rules and regulations adopted by the Board. For more information on the BOE, visit www.boe.ca.gov. ★

Cirque du Soleil to Bring Amaluna to Sacramento in 2020

By Daniel Emmons, Raley Field Media

WEST SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Cirque du Soleil brings Amaluna to Sacramento for a limited engagement. Written and directed by Tony Award-winning director Diane Paulus, Cirque du Soleil's 33rd production is a celebration of love and a tribute to the work and voice of women, featuring a cast that comprises mostly women with an all-female band. The show's title is a fusion of the words ama, which refers to "mother" in many languages, and luna, which means "moon," a symbol of femininity that evokes both the mother-daughter relationship and the idea of goddess and protector of the planet. Amaluna is also the name of the mysterious island where this magical story unfolds.

Recently hailed by the Los Angeles Times as "genuinely fresh," Amaluna will perform under the Big Top at Raley Field January 22 - February 16, 2020.

"We are thrilled to welcome Cirque du Soleil to Raley Field for the first time," says River Cats President Jeff Savage. "Seeing the incredible cast of Amaluna underneath a classic circus big top is something everyone in the Sacramento region should experience."

Tickets start at $54, and will be available to the public for purchase beginning Friday, August 2 by visiting www.cirquedusoleil.com/amaluna or calling 1-877-9CIRQUE (1-877-924-7783).

Amaluna invites the audience to a mysterious island governed by goddesses and guided by the cycles of the moon. Their queen, Prospera, directs her daughter's coming-of-age ceremony in a rite that honors femininity, renewal, rebirth, and balance - which marks the passing of these insights and values from one generation to the next. In the wake of a storm caused by Prospera, a group of young men lands on the island, triggering an epic, emotional story of love between Prospera's daughter and a brave young suitor. But theirs is a love that will be put to the test. The couple must face numerous demanding trials and overcome daunting setbacks before they can achieve mutual trust, faith, and harmony.

Director Diane Paulus, winner of a 2013 Tony Award (Pippin) and recently named as one of Time magazine's 100 Most Influential People of 2014 says, "I didn't want to build a 'women's agenda' show. I wanted to create a show with women at the center of it, something that had a hidden story that featured women as the heroines." Paulus drew from a series of classical influences when creating the concept of the show; including tales from

is the major qualification. "Some staff come back year after year until they graduate from college," says the boss. "Many came through here first as campers, so they've seen how all students are different. Some are super-athletic; some are fearful. You adjust teaching styles for each personality. But my staffers are big kids at heart. They keep things fun and exciting. They also supervise plenty of goof-off time on water slides and swings."

Overnight camps are an option on alternate weeks. "We go out for a sunset paddle," explains Dulgar. "Then we have a Spaghetti Factory dinner and toast s'mores on the barbecue. Campers and counsellors sleep in the open. After a pancake breakfast, we get back to more aquatic fun. By the end of the week, the kids are all pretty exhausted and so is the staff."

S.S.A.C. courses run from early June to mid-August and cost between $350 and $450 per student. Beyond summer, the facility is open for equipment rentals all year. It also hosts rowing championships at regional and national levels. "Lake Natoma is a Gold Field District jewel," considers Dulgar. "Just 25 minutes from the center of Sacramento, we have a unique rural environment that's also a wildlife habitat. From the water, we see animals and some pretty exciting birds. Speed limitations on the lake make it really safe for water sports – that's why people come here from all over the USA. We feel pretty lucky to be here."

The Sacramento State Aquatic Center is located at 1901 Hazel Avenue, Gold River. Summer session bookings for 7 to 16-year-olds open in March 2020. For more information, visit www.sacstateaquaticcenter.com/ ★

Honoring Grandparents With Butterfly Release

The event will include monarch and swallowtail butterflies – both beautiful options to honor grandparents' significant impact on our lives.

... Celebrating grandparents is a great way to bring awareness to Snowline and the Sacramento Children's Museum."

Participants can dedicate a butterfly in name of a beloved grandparent. "You can reserve as many butterflies as you want," said Toland. The event will include monarch and swallowtail butterflies – both beautiful options to honor grandparents' significant impact on our lives.

The butterflies are locally and sustainably sourced, and they will be transported to the museum on ice – putting them into a temporary hibernation until they are woken up at the event. Participants will wake the butterflies by warming them in their hands during the dedication, and then the butterflies will be ready for release after the ceremony.

Grandparents are an important part of all our lives, so Toland explained that the event is not just for children – all ages are encouraged to attend. She also emphasized that the dedications do not have to be in remembrance: "It's to remember those we don't have any more and also to celebrate those still in our lives every day."

Toland said they expect to release 400 butterflies, so they are anticipating a large turnout at the event. After the Butterfly Release, a celebration will feature games, activities, face painting, and food vendors.

Proceeds from the event will benefit SCM's educational programs and Snowline's Healing All Together (HAT) grief group, which helps children and their families deal with grief after losing a loved one. Because it can be difficult for kids to verbalize their emotions, HAT helps kids express their grief through art, motion, music, and play. SCM works in partnership with Snowline, which hosts the HAT program at the museum twice a month.

Butterflies for the event must be reserved in advance on the website, and people are already signing up. The deadline to reserve a butterfly is Friday, September 6 and the cost is $10 per butterfly, or $15 for a butterfly and admission to the museum. To reserve a butterfly – or to sign up as a vendor or sponsor – visit www.sackids.org. ★

Seeing How Much the People of Rancho Cordova Contribute to Help the Veterans is Really Heartwarming

I went to Mather Veterans Village on Thursday, August 8 and saw how the wonderful people from Rancho Cordova Whisker Warriors brought pet food, toys, beds and "pet clothes" to support the veterans who live there in taking care of their pets. I'm sure there are a few cats, but the pets I saw were dogs. Being able to see how much the people of Rancho Cordova contribute to help the veterans is really heartwarming. One veteran I talked to had been homeless for over four years, and he said he didn't know what he was going to do. Things were past desperate for him and his dogs. But then he heard that he needed to go to Building 800 at Mather, and he could find out what was being done for veterans in Rancho Cordova. He went there and was given the help and guidance he needed. He was one of the homeless veterans who accepted the directions he was given, and he is very thankful that he now lives in one of the new apartments at Mather Veterans Village.

Since the village opened in 2016, residents have been able to live again in a home. Some former residents have moved on with the help they received at the village, and they can remember being homeless only as a difficult but past memory.

Changing from veterans to general information, I currently serve on the Sacramento-Yolo Mosquito and Vector Control District Board of Directors. I need to update everyone with information about the mosquitoes that carry the West Nile Virus and have become very active as of late. As District Manager Gary Goodman discussed, typically, our activity tends to decline once we are in August as the temperatures slowly get lower and the winds tend to pick up. But this year, what is usually normal could be an anomaly. There were seven positive test pools and five positive dead birds last week, which makes it the most active week this year.

Placer, San Joaquin and other surrounding districts in Northern California are starting to see more activity as well. Just remember the seven District D's of mosquito prevention: drain standing water, dawn and dusk are times to avoid being outdoors, dress in long sleeves and long pants when outside, defend using mosquito repellent, doors and windows need to be kept in good working order, and district personnel can be called at 1-800-429-1022 to address any mosquito problem you may be experiencing.

I remember when my wife and I purchased our first home in Rancho Cordova in March of 1967, there were many more open fields in our community. I remember the ground spraying for mosquitoes seemed to be very active. Today, the ground spraying is much more selective than it was in the past. When we lived on Silverwood Way in the White Rock area, Highway 50 was Folsom Boulevard, and its nickname was "blood alley." Especially on Sunday afternoon and evening, the traffic was tremendously active.

When the concrete for Highway 50 as we know it today was being poured, it was right behind our backyard. They made temporary water pools along the highway as it was being poured, and the pool right behind our backyard broke and flooded our backyard. It was also a perfect place for mosquitoes to breed. They took care of that error very quickly, but the mosquitoes took advantage of it while they could. Just remember to pay attention around your home, as empty places could fill with standing water and provide a place for mosquitoes.

From Mayor Bob McGarvey. God bless, and see you next time. ★

CHEERS & JEERS

By Damian Holbrook

Cheers to Fear the Walking Dead

for going with the nuclear option. Radioactive zombies? Yes, please! The recent introduction of walkers made even wonkier by a reactor meltdown may be the creepiest twist the AMC show (with Karen David, pictured) has ever come up with!

Cheers to Pearson

for giving Gina Torres the floor. USA's Suits spinoff about ex-Manhattan litigator Jessica Pearson's new life in Chicago politics is a gritty, gripping forum for the exquisitely watchable Torres to flesh out a character fans have been fascinated with for years.

Jeers to The Orville's

delayed return. Now that the sci-fi dramedy starring Seth MacFarlane and Adrienne Palicki is charting a course from Fox to Hulu for its third season, it's been reported that new episodes won't hit our orbit until late 2020. In TV time, that's light-years away!

Jeers to Camille Grammer

for being 9021-over-the-top. Instead of returning to The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills smarter and more sensible than her first stint, "Saint Camille" was shady, snippy and stormed off the reunion in such a bonkers could be an option for a network comeback. Or maybe it will become an element of Disney's streaming service.

Question: Since the pilot Triangle starring Mike Vogel wasn't picked up for the fall, is there any chance we will see it later this year—Rickey

Matt Roush: ABC didn't pick the show up for mid-season, either, officially passing on the project, so it's not going forward. (For the record, Triangle would have been a Lost-like adventure about a family shipwrecked in the Bermuda Triangle and discovering a secret world inhabited by disappeared travelers from throughout history.)

Matt Roush: I'm so disappointed that Who Wants to Be a Millionaire has been canceled. Any chance someone else might bring it back?

This differs from the typical "will someone rescue my favorite canceled show" question because we're now talking about the world of syndication, which involves complicated issues of ownership and distribution. It was Disney's call to suspend production after 17 seasons. I'm thinking the company may be merely resting the franchise for a while, and I'd be surprised if Millionaire doesn't return in another form on another platform after some time has passed. Given the success of ABC's summer game shows in prime time, that

RANCHO SPORTS

Bumbaca Building Lancers From Ground Up In First Year

Lancers Cross Country Hoping Hard Work Pays Off

By James Darnell

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - After a summer of hard work, the Cordova Lancers' varsity football team is ready to hit the ground running - literally and figuratively.

Since the beginning of June, the team has taken part in a strength and conditioning program three times a week, with an average of 15-20 athletes participating each session according to head coach Josh Gruver.

Gruver, who is in his fifth season at the helm of the cross country program, stated that the turnout has been by far the most impressive he's seen during the summer months since he's been a part of the program.

With summer plans, vacations, or students simply wanting some time away, seeing that kind of continued dedication every week in the last few months has been very encouraging, according to the coach.

"Summer has gone really well," Gruver said. "We've had one of our biggest turnouts to date, and have seen some great results."

Additionally, the coach said the team has independently organized group runs on their own time, participating in 4-6 mile runs multiple times a week throughout the summer. All the hard work has Gruver feeling confident entering the season.

"We're definitely looking at one of our largest teams since the '80s," he said. "We have about 32 kids on the roster, and we're looking really strong."

Top returning runners include a pair of seniors in Temara Fletcher and Gavin Sullivan, as well as junior Michaela Laret. According to Gruver, he expects at least three runners to advance to state meets this year, with 10-12 others competing for a CIF Sac Joaquin Section title.

The Cordova Lancers' cross country team will get moving soon, with their first meet of the season taking place on Saturday, August 24, at Sierra College. ★

By James Darnell

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Despite taking over a team that reached the second round of the CIF Sac Joaquin Section IV playoffs last season, Cordova varsity football head coach Jason Bumbaca is just fine starting from the ground up.

The Lancers, who previously ran a spread offense under former head coach John McCoy, will now be employing a punishing veer attack, specializing in running the ball whether it be by the tailback or quarterback, and gashing defenses through the air when they're caught peeking into the backfield too long. According to Bumbaca, it should be quite a weapon for his team this season.

"We have an advantage," he said. "Everyone is gearing week to week to play spread teams, then all of the sudden they'll have to play a veer team. They can't replicate the speed of what we run and how we run our veer, and that's really tough for teams to replicate in practice."

Despite coming in and changing things up in a hurry, Bumbaca feels his team is right where they should be one week out from the start of the regular season.

"I think we're on the right timeframe as far as being ready for our first game," he said. "Is the whole offense in? No, not really. We're going to keep adding wrinkles to our offense week by week, but we're trying to get the base of the offense down and in and perfected before we move onto anything else."

One of the main benefactors of the new offensive approach this year figures to be senior tailback Brandon Gray, who previously played wide receiver for the Lancers. Bumbaca feels that Gray brings athleticism to the backfield and is a dynamic player who can break a big play at any time. At quarterback, the team will be deploying two different looks to keep teams off balance. Junior Niko Santana will be relied upon as a running threat in their veer attack, while senior Joey Estrada has a flair for passing the ball downfield.

Defensively this season, senior middle linebacker Dumaurier Hackett figures to produce as a player who is always around the ball and can fill up running lanes in a hurry according to Bumbaca. Santana is also being asked to double dip on defense as a safety/linebacker, and will be relied on to get the defense situated snap to snap. Junior cornerback James Feao will also be playing a key role in coverage, especially when the Lancers match up against teams looking to throw the ball around.

All in all, Cordova appears to be a team that should be in the conversation to repeat as Greater Sacramento League champions, and if Bumbaca has his way, they'll be competing for much more.

"Our goal for this team is winning a league title and a Section title," he said. "We're thinking big; we've got some talented young men on this team, and we're expecting big things from them."

The Lancers open up their regular season next Friday, August 23, when they host Vista del Lago. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:15 p.m. at Cordova High School. ★

Where's The Baby? Look Before You Lock!

The California Office of Traffic Safety (OTS) is asking drivers to not leave children in hot cars and check the back seat before you get out of the car.

By Tim Weisberg,
California Office of Traffic Safety

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The summer heat is here and that means it is even hotter inside the car. The California Office of Traffic Safety (OTS) is asking drivers to not leave children in hot cars and check the back seat before you get out of the car.

Tragically, 52 children died last year after being left alone in a hot car, a 21% increase from 2017 and the highest number in more than 20 years. Since 1998, more than 800 children have died from vehicular heatstroke.

"Cars are well insulated and rise in temperature quickly," OTS Acting Director Randy Weissman said. "Too many senseless tragedies have taken place because parents or caregivers either forgot, thought it would be okay to leave a child in the car, or gave a child easy access to get inside."

The temperature inside of a car can rise nearly 20 degrees in only 10 minutes. Even when it is only 70 degrees outside, the car temperature can reach triple digits in half an hour. A children's body temperature can rise five times faster than an adult, leaving children prone to heatstroke quicker.

Common signs of heatstroke include red, hot and moist or dry skin, lack of sweat, dizziness, nausea, confusion, as well as being grouchy or acting strangely.

The OTS encourages parents and caregivers to take extra precautions to make sure a child is not left or forgotten in the back seat:

Never leave a child alone in a car, even if you are running a quick errand, the child is sleeping or doesn't want to get out; Make it a habit to look in the back seat before you leave the car. Keep a stuffed animal, purse, phone or wallet next to the car seat as a reminder; Check in with a spouse, child care staff or caregiver when there is a change in schedules to verify the child was picked up or dropped off; Always lock your vehicle and keep the keys out of reach. Teach your child that a car is not a play area.

Heatstroke prevention also applies to pets, who face the same risks for heatstroke when left in a hot car. Keep your pets safe by leaving them at home unless you need them with you.

If you see a child or pet alone in a hot vehicle:

Make sure the child or pet is okay and responsive. If not, call 911; Try to find the parents or pet owner. Notify security or use a business or shopping center's PA system to alert the car owner.

The OTS administers funding for traffic safety programs statewide with the goal of reducing crashes that result in deaths, injuries, and economic losses. The OTS is a department under the California State Transportation Agency (CalSTA). ★
