Paying Tribute to the Fallen

Families, friends and neighbors came out to honor those who gave their lives for our nation. (At right) Mayor Bob McGarvey speaks to the crowd. Photos by Rick Sloan RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - An audience of 400 paid tribute to American men and women who have given their lives in defense of the country during a moving Memorial Day Observance held at the VA Medical Center at Mather Monday.

A group of 30 veterans were honored with the dedication of memorial bricks, which will be installed at the Veterans Memorial Plaza, located in front of the medical center – an annual tradition. They will join more than 2,000 which have now been placed at the plaza.

Hosted for the 13th straight year by World War II veteran Robert Burns, Lt. Col., US Army (Ret.), the gathering was an emotional mix of music, tributes and friendly rivalry among veterans from different service branches.

But if they could not agree upon which branch was superior, the audience was in complete agreement

The Elephant in the Room

Commentary
by Doug Brewer

Last year the California State Supreme Court issued a ruling on whether a person working for a company is classified as an employee or independent contractor in a case now commonly called the Dynamex decision. In the Court's ruling, they changed the criteria for determining if a person is an employee or could be considered an independent contractor from what was called the Borello standard to an overly simplified but problematic ABC test.

The ABC test makes perfect legal sense in the simplistic way it segregates employees from independent contractors but does not consider the economic or social impact of doing so. Our "progressive" legislature likes the ABC test as a means to capture the revenue from the 2 million plus independent contractors in our state impacted by this ruling. Employee unions also like the decision as it affords them the opportunity to organize and represent greater segments of private sector employees. Through all the rhetoric and attention to the Dynamex decision, few leaders are focused or aware of an as yet, undiscussed, cost.

Our Country prides itself as a land of opportunity, a place where if you work hard, you can realize your dream of owning your own business. History is full of examples of individual success coupled with collaboration and cooperation with others. The creativity and entrepreneurial spirit these individuals exhibited continues to be held in high regard.

The State Supreme

Court's Dynamex ruling, the resulting discussion and most of the proposed solutions for the Dynamex decision threatens this entrepreneurial spirit. It also undermines our core values of opportunity and independence. Individuality, unconventionality and creative life management are not supported by turning independent contractors into employees. Further, these values are not encouraged, usually suppressed and often punished when exhibited by employees.

Assembly Bill 5, (Gonzalez), does just that. It doesn't make much difference if surgeons, insurance agents or other industries are selectively excluded. The Elephant in the Room is how the current approach to codifying the Dynamex decision, effectively undermines the hopes and dreams of a large class of individuals in our economy. These individuals include seniors supplementing their incomes, stay-at-home parents contributing to household finances, entrepreneurial students in college reducing student loan costs, and those who support themselves in the gig economy while developing that one amazing Idea.

For a brief moment, there was a ray of hope and redemption for our legislature, found in Senate Bill 238 (Groves). The bill proposed to use the Federal standard to define employment using criteria more definitive than the Borello standard making it difficult for the employers to game the system and retains independent contractor status for the many individuals across our economy. Unfortunately, SB 238 failed passage in the Senate Labor and Employment Committee on a partisan vote.

If AB 5 is approved in the Assembly as is anticipated, the members of the State Senate, including State Senator Richard Pan, who serves as a member of the

Join the Shriners Hospital Walk for LOVE™

By Catherine Curran,

for Children

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - There are walks, and then there is the Walk for LOVE™, a celebration of family, friends and community organized as a benefit for Shriners Hospitals for Children — Northern California. On Saturday, June 8, walkers of all ages will gather at the Northern California Shriners Hospital, 2425 Stockton Boulevard, for the 3rd Annual Walk for LOVE — a 1.5-mile fun walk and community celebration.

T-shirt pick-up begins at 8 a.m. The walk begins at 9 a.m. Fezzy, the official hospital mascot, and a host of Shriners will lead participants along a course dotted with entertainment stations that loops through the medical center campus. This year's event includes a 5k race for those who prefer a longer, more competitive venue.

After crossing the finish line, the celebration continues with a family festival that includes a complimentary barbecue, music, entertainment and a special teddy bear clinic for kids lovingly dubbed as Fezzy's Rescue Squad.

"The Walk for LOVE is organized to celebrate the care provided by Shriners Hospitals for Children and to thank the community for embracing our mission. We are grateful to the many individuals from all walks of life who support our hospital through volunteerism and monetary donations. The Walk for LOVE is a reflection of a caring community united by the belief that people can make a positive difference in the lives of others," said Alan Anderson, Director of Development at the Northern California Shriners Hospital.

about the purpose of the day: paying homage to Americans who have died in service of their country over the generations. U.S. Rep. Ami Bera, D-Elk Grove, and a host of city dignitaries took part in the observance, as well.

“We are so fortunate to be living in the United States of America, the most wonderful country on earth,” said Burns. “We honor those who have protected our freedoms, giving generously to our nation. Some gave all. And remembering them is what Memorial Day is all about.”

Robert Martinelli, Col., USAF (Ret.), a 30-year veteran who spent three tours of duty at Mather AFB, including as commander of the 323rd Flying Training Wing, and presiding over the closure of Mather in 1993, delivered an emotional keynote. Tracing a century of service at Mather, which was opened in response to World War I, closing at the end of the Cold War and continuing to serve the nation today, Martinelli also outlined the pride and dedication of those who served at Mather. His comments drew a standing ovation.

The Rancho Cordova River City Concert Band provided a musical backdrop with pieces dating back to World War I through the Vietnam War, with plenty of patriotic music, as well. Bagpipers Bill Adam and Bill Welch helped close the program with “Amazing Grace.”

The Memorial Day Observance was produced by the Cordova Community Council with the help of a community-based volunteer committee, Cordova High School Jr. ROTC cadets and assistance from the Veterans Administration Northern California Health Care System. ★

Prioritizing Murderers over Victims?

By Curtis Grima,
Office of Assemblyman
James Gallagher

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - This week, Legislation to keep unremorseful convicted murderers behind bars was denied a public hearing by Sacramento Democrats. Traditionally, all bills are allowed at least one hearing during a policy committee. The Chairman of the Assembly Public Safety Committee was responsible for the unilateral decision to silence victims.

Assembly Bill 665 (Erik’s Law), would reform provisions of current law to ensure that sociopathic, unrehabilitated juvenile murderers would not be provided an automatic parole hearing when they were sentenced to life without the possibility of parole.

Erik Ingebretsen was brutally murdered in 1997 by Nathan Ramazinni, someone Erik thought was his best friend. At sentencing, the judge described the killing as “so serious and the circumstances were as heinous as imaginable.” Erik’s killer will now be eligible for parole after serving just 25 years of his sentence because a new law passed in 2017.

Despite the author’s attempt to offer amendments narrowing the scope of the bill, the Committee still denied a public hearing.

Erik’s sister, Devin Lombardi, expressed frustration by the unilateral decision to deny a hearing. “I’m learning more and more every day just how corrupt the system is in Sacramento,” said Lombardi. “We knew this was going to be an uphill battle, but they didn’t even give us a chance to make our case. It’s just wrong. The rights afforded to me through the California Victims Bill of Rights Act are being trumped by the rights and concerns for premeditated, 1st degree murderers. This is hurtful and beyond devastating for victims.”

Senator Jim Nielsen said, “Some crimes are committed in a matter that is too heinous and inhumane for society to excuse. In the Northstate, the cruelty of Erik Ingebretsen’s murderer cannot, and should never, be pardoned. This individual preyed on the trust of a friend and brutally took the life of a promising teenager from his family and loved ones.”

Gallagher and Nielsen are encouraging the public to call the Committee Chair and demand a formal hearing on the measure. ★

MEMORIAL NOTICE

Elizabeth “Betty” Ann LeFever

July 7, 1939 to May 18, 2019

Elizabeth “Betty” Ann LeFever passed away on May 18, 2019 in Davis, California at age 79.

Betty was born in Portland, Oregon on July 7, 1939, to Nate and Almeda Sikes and moved to Rancho Cordova with her husband Ross LeFever in 1962 as he began work at Aerojet.

Betty’s decades in Rancho Cordova were marked by radical compassion and hospitality, particularly toward those with no one to advocate for them. Over the course of 40 years, Betty cared for 230 foster children in her home, often joyfully responding to calls in the middle of the night saying that a newborn in the hospital needed her care. Children were her passion, and she was a substitute parent, mentor, and advocate for every child that entered her home. Her compassion for others overflowed from her committed Christian faith, and the LeFever family attended Cordova Neighborhood Church for decades.

Betty is survived by her sister, Mary Johnson, of Edgewood, Washington. Betty has three children, Jim of Santa Rosa, California; Tim of Dixon, California; and Alisha of Rancho Cordova, California; as well as four grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held at Kilgore Cemetery in Rancho Cordova at 10am on June 7.

By Bob McGarvey

I noticed that part of the last paragraph was missing from last week's column, so here is the "rest of the story." From the photos in the article, to me, it looked like the artist had painted the faces of some of the people who lost everything there. He was able to put a face on the side of a burned truck, or an eight-year-old girl's face on what remained of her lost home, or the 84-year-old Helen Pace in a mural in her likeness. The pictures in the magazine look as if the artist was able to paint the faces of some who were lost, using the ashes that were left after the fire. The story brought me back to last November when the smoke came south and left the citizens of Northern California with a haunting memory of what happened in Paradise.

I'm looking back to Monday's Memorial Day Observance, and I am very glad that we were able to do our part in remembering and honoring what our veterans have done and continue to do for our/their country. The weather was not too hot, not too cold, but it was just right, at least to many of the hundreds of wonderful people who were able to attend the ceremony at the Sacramento VA Medical Center. Thank you all for showing your continued support for our veterans and their families.

The Mayor's Corner

Thank You All for Showing your Continued Support for our Veterans and their Families

The schools in most of the districts in Rancho Cordova are on their last week of school. Like most kids, our grandchildren are ready for summer to arrive with no more teachers, no more books, no more..., or something like that. Like everything else in life, the school year isn't as it used to be. I remember that in the past, the school year ended after Memorial Day in May and didn't start until after Labor Day in September. However, the Folsom Cordova Unified School District, Sacramento City Unified School District and San Juan Unified School District school years end "sometime" in June and start "sometime" in the middle of August.

The two Elk Grove Unified School District elementary schools in Rancho Cordova are the exceptions because they are year-round schools. All four tracks have a couple weeks off in July, and then three of the four tracks, tracks B, C and D, start school again on July 18. Track A will begin on August 19 when track B goes off for a month. With the number of students who are going to Sunrise Elementary School and Robert J. McGarvey Elementary School, only having three quarters of students there at one time probably keeps things better organized.

Going back to Memorial Day, people spoke about what our veterans have done for us in the past and continue to do every day. I am closing with a quote from Ronald Reagan, long before he was Governor or President, when he spoke to the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce on March 30, 1961, "Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it on to our children in the bloodstream. The only way they can inherit the freedom we have known is if we fight for it, protect it, defend it and then hand it to them with the well thought lessons of how they in their lifetime must do the same. And if you and I don't do this, then you and I may well spend our sunset years telling our children and our children's children what it once was like in America when men were free."

From Mayor Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time. ★

Has Trump Driven Democrats Sane?

The Joe Biden polling surge has raised the frightful specter of Democratic rationality.

What if Donald Trump hasn't driven Democrats insane, sending them into a spiral of self-defeating radicalism, but instead made them shockingly pragmatic?

Biden's early strength suggests it may be the latter, that the reaction to Trump is so intense that it has crossed some sort of event horizon from fevered fantasy of his leaving office early via resignation or impeachment to a cold-eyed, win-at-any-cost practicality.

If this is true, one of the exogenous factors that could appreciably increase Trump's odds of reelection -- a zany Democratic nomination contest leading to a nominee much too far left for the American electorate -- may not materialize.

The commonsense play for the Democrats has always been to nominate a nonsocialist with appeal to Obama-to-Trump voters in former Blue Wall states -- if not necessarily Biden, then someone with a similar, relatively moderate profile.

If hardly dispositive, Biden's robust numbers at least suggest that this play is more likely than it seemed in the very early going, when candidates were stumbling over one another apologizing for sundry alleged offenses in the Woke Olympics.

I'm as surprised as anyone. What's extraordinary, though, is that almost every Democratic candidate might have been misreading it as well, and chasing the wrong rabbit down the track.

Certainly, Bernie Sanders dominated the intellectual and policy debate in the wake of his 2016 run, driving other presidential candidates to embrace his signature proposals. And Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez is a genuine political star.

It's only because the center of gravity of the party has clearly moved left that Biden, always a standard liberal, now sounds like a centrist when he calls himself an Obama-Biden Democrat.

Electability is usually a wan, uninspiring rationale for lackluster establishment campaigns, but Trump may have transformed into something more urgent and exciting for Democrats in 2020.

In this scenario, fear and loathing of Trump doesn't drive Democrats into a politically risky dead end-like impeachment -- although that's still possible -- but a sensible appraisal of how to beat him at the ballot box.

In a recent CNN poll, about half of Democrats said it's "extremely important" that a candidate have a good chance of beating Trump, much higher than any other candidate quality. Journalists on the trail have reported hearing the same thing from Democratic voters.

Of course, if we learned anything from 2016, it's that pundits know much less about electability than we think. Biden's paper strength may dissipate.

How often in American politics has the old candidate promising a restoration won? History shows that Democrats have had better electoral luck when they fall in love with a youthful candidate promising a fresh start. Think Bill Clinton, not Walter Mondale; Barack Obama, not Hillary Clinton.

Biden's electability will have to be proven not just in general election polling matchups with Trump, but day-by-day campaigning during the primaries with more incoming than he's experienced to date.

All that said, Biden's level of support out of the gate has already changed the narrative of the race. It may be that he's understood how Trump is shaping the 2020 landscape better than his more with-it Democratic competitors.

Renaissance Singing Group Serenades Seniors

By Muffy Francke, Renaissance Society

FAIR OAKS, CA (MPG) - On Tuesday, May 7, the Renaissance Society’s Singing for Fun chorus serenaded the residents of Oakmont of Fair Oaks retirement community. The residents were treated to songs that many not only remembered, but enjoyed as a sing-along with the encouragement of Chorus Director Sara Zeigler.

The singers performed such tunes as “When You’re Smiling”, “It’s a Wonderful World”, “Up a Lazy River”, “Jeepers Creepers”, and “We’ll Meet Again”. The Uk-u-Ladies, the group’s ukulele ensemble, provided toe tapping beats to tunes like “Ain’t She Sweet” and “Yes, Sir, That’s My Baby”. There were train whistles for “Chattanooga Choo Choo,” rhythmic maracas for “Lemon Tree,” and chorus member Maryann Frantz entertained with a rousing tap dance during “On the Sunny Side of the Street.” Narrator Bette Carr introduced each song with interesting and fun facts.

Singing for Fun is a class offered by the Renaissance Society, an organization in partnership with the California State University, Sacramento (CSUS), that provides opportunities for lifelong learning and community engagement for older adults. Society members choose to study topics proposed by peers who lead the seminars. There is a veritable smorgasbord of subjects which evolve from semester to semester depending on members’ interests.

Classes are held on the CSUS campus on Fridays and Saturdays during both Fall and Spring semesters. The Society also offers seminars, “birds of a feather” gatherings, book clubs and other activities such as Singing for Fun on other days and other locations.

The Society also hosts a Summer series of presentations where non-members are welcome. The schedule can be found at <https://www.csus.edu/org/rensoc/calendar.html>.

The Singing for Fun group chooses a new slate of songs each semester, rehearses for approximately eight weeks, and then performs for up to five different senior communities. This Spring in addition to the Oakmont show, they also entertained residents at Summerset Senior Living facility in Rancho Cordova, Sunrise of Fair Oaks, Aegis of Carmichael, and the Hart Senior Center in Sacramento.

The chorus has been part of the Renaissance experience for almost thirty years. Each semester, there are about forty participants, many of whom have been singing with the chorus for years. The only requirement besides Renaissance Society membership is to enjoy singing and sharing the joy with others. Director Zeigler emphasized that the group has “fun” in its name so there are no tryouts and no requirement to read music. ★

Toelee Represents Lancers at State Championship Meet

By James Darnell

CLOVIS, CA (MPG) - Cordova senior Faauga Toelee represented the Lancers' track and field team at the CIF State Championship meet this past Friday and Saturday, May 24-25, at Buchanan High School in Clovis, CA.

Last Friday, Toelee participated in the shot put prelims, where she put forth a mark of 40' 1.75", which was good for a 17th place ranking in the prelims. That did not earn Toelee a spot in the finals, but to qualify for the State Championship meet is a great accomplishment for the four-year field athlete.

Her performance in the State Championship meet comes on the heels of a second-place finish in the shot put a week prior within the CIF Sac-Joaquin Section Masters meet, where she put forth a 41' 5" toss. Earlier this season, Toelee recorded a personal record in the shot put with a mark of 44' 9.5", at the Glenn Poole Invitational Track and Field Meet on Glenn Poole Invitational.

Cordova will take part in their final meet of the season this Saturday, June 1, at the Golden West Invitational at Oak Ridge High School in El Dorado Hills, CA. ★

Labor, Public Employment and Retirement Committee, will have an opportunity to fix Dynamex to benefit employers, individual Californians and the state's economy. The lives, livelihood and economic future of hundreds of thousands of Californians who are independent contractors who want to remain so are not being addressed in the current approach to solving the problem our State Supreme Court created with the Dynamex decision. The current way this problem is being legislated is clearly not the balanced, thoughtful, or comprehensive approach this subject matter deserves.

In the rush to implement our State Supreme Court's decision regarding how an employee is defined in our State, our legislators haven't created a solution; they have merely crafted an alternative definition. This alternate decision pleases some select special interests but in doing so, eviscerates our nation's core values of opportunity, independence and creativity.
