CRPD Receives Recognition for Dedication to Community Health

CRPD wins 'Excellence in Design' Award for fitness course and launches new program at Lincoln Village Community Park. Photo courtesy CRPD

By Cady Nagy-Chow, CRPD

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Cordova Recreation & Park District (CRPD) recently accepted an Excellence in Design award from the California Park and Recreation Society (District 2) for the fitness course addition to Lincoln Village Community Park. Adding to the theme of physical health, CRPD is excited to start offering the Walk With Ease program to the community at Lincoln Village Community Park beginning April 1, thanks to an instructor training grant from the National Recreation and Park Association and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. They received the award on March 7, 2019.

While CRPD's programs have long been centers of health and wellness in the community, parks and facilities had yet to offer a free workout environment. After the Lincoln Village Community Park walking paths were upgraded last year, the Neil Orchard Senior Activities Center members expressed an interest in "gym-quality" equipment to supplement the District's aerobic offerings. Inspired by neighboring parks and recreation agencies and their residents, CRPD launched the Outdoor Fitness Course Project a multi-agency, non-profit partnership between the Cordova Recreation and Park District, the City of Rancho Cordova, and the Neil Orchard Senior Activities Center Advisory Board.

CRPD Park Planner Cristina James, the project lead, spoke to the growing

City Looks to Award Scholarships to Graduating Seniors

By Russell Hartley,
City of Rancho Cordova

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - "I've always felt most happy when I was able to serve others, because that's where I receive the most joy," said George Washington Carver School of Arts and Science student Sorena Munteanu, recipient of the City of Rancho Cordova 2018 Community PRIDE Scholarship.

Funded by City of Rancho Cordova staff, the scholarship presented to Sorena was due to her academic achievements along with her demonstrated commitment to giving back to her community through extraordinary acts of kindness.

Eleven years ago, City of Rancho Cordova employees wanted to find a way to provide opportunities for students to explore educational opportunities after high school, but recognized that attending college can be very costly.

In an effort to highlight graduating students who have been involved in enhancing their community, a scholarship was created and funded by employees at City Hall. This year, the fund will award two $500 scholarships to 2019 graduating high school seniors living in the Rancho Cordova City boundaries who demonstrate pride in their community, volunteer efforts, and ambition to succeed.

In order to be eligible for the PRIDE Scholarship, a student must meet the following requirements:

Be a 2019 graduating high school senior residing in the City of Rancho Cordova boundaries; Have a minimum 3.0 GPA and provide a copy of your transcript; Must be accepted or registered with an accredited college, university, vocational or technical school; Provide proof of enrollment; Provide one letter of recommendation from a community leader, teacher, and/or employer; Write an essay that is no more than 700 words that demonstrates the attributes of good citizenship and service in school and the Rancho Cordova community; also include future academic plans;

Applications must be postmarked, delivered or emailed to City Hall before 5:00 p.m. on April 6, 2019.

RCPD Introduces New Problem Oriented Policing (POP) Officer

By Ashley Downton,
City of Rancho Cordova

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Meet the Rancho Cordova Police Department (RCPD)'s newest Problem Oriented Policing (POP) Officer Jake Guerrero. Officer Guerrero serves residents in Rancho Cordova neighborhoods south of Folsom Boulevard.

In 2013, Officer Guerrero enrolled in and attended the Sacramento County Sheriff's Department Academy. He had a natural desire to pursue a career in law enforcement to improve public safety and support residents in our community.

Officer Guerrero began working for the Sheriff's Department after graduating from the academy. He started at the Main Jail in high security and the classification intelligence unit, before joining RCPD two years ago on patrol.

"I had heard the Rancho Cordova Police Department was a great place to work with motivated people and hard workers," he said. "And an intimate community of people who care about the city and want to see it improve. I wanted to be part of that."

In January 2019, Officer

Guerrero joined the POP Unit with the goal to partner with the Rancho Cordova community to continue to improve quality of life.

"I'm happy to be the newest POP Officer for the Rancho Cordova Police Department," said Officer Guerrero. "I'm excited to build relationships with residents and work with them to proactively solve problems in their neighborhood."

Visit www.RanchoCordovaPD.com for a map to easily identify and contact your POP officer and neighborhood officer. Simply enter your address, and the officer information will pop up. ★

Riverview STEM Students Succeed In Robotics Competition

City of Rancho Cordova

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Robots haven't taken over yet, but with the expertise and ingenuity of the students at Riverview STEM Academy in Rancho Cordova, an elementary school in Folsom Cordova Unified School District, they may be on their way.

The school's Riverview Rockets robotics team competed in three robotics tournaments in Davis, California and came away winning two design awards and a sportsmanship award. And get this – the team was invited to the state championship at Sierra College and placed 7th in the competition out of 11 teams.

One of our Rancho Cordova students from Riverview STEM, who is on a middle school team called CyborgX with Riverview alumni, earned 1st place in the middle school category and is going on to the world championships!

"This is meaningful to the students because when you teach coding to kids and have a robot responding to your code, it really helps them understand what coding is all about," said Riverview STEM 5th grade teacher Valerie Lanich.

The City of Rancho

Cordova's Community Enhancement Fund has funded the school's robotics program for the past three years.

"It's always very exciting for the City to see our students engaged in new technology that can better prepare them for the future. It's even more exciting to see them continue to excel and achieve such high honors in academic competitions such as robotics," said City of Rancho Cordova City Manager Cyrus Abhar.

"Congratulations to the students of Riverview STEM Academy and to the Folsom Cordova Unified School District for this achievement." ★

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - This week, we attended A few of us were able to go to the National League of Cities Congressional City Conference in Washington D.C. last week. The weather was much better than earlier in the season with the rain, snow and wind. There have been times in the past when the beautiful cherry blossoms seemed to decorate the city with such bright color. This year, however, I half expected to see frozen blossoms instead of the color that was expected. It was too real though for what we expected, so we watched the other breathtaking flowers and unbelievable buildings that can still catch your breath if you aren't paying attention to everything, and that is really hard to do. So, if you are able to go to Washington D.C., it is really worth your while to take the time to see what your country has been building over the centuries. While in Washington D.C., we worked with our federal lobbyists at Simon and Company to speak with federal departments and our elected representatives and their staff about the new Civic Center that we are planning, as well as updating them on some of our City projects they might be interested in. In one day, we had five different and informative meetings:

The Mayor's Corner

National League of Cities

We were able to meet with the U.S. Treasury Department and their Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI) Fund to learn about a New Markets Tax Credit Program. There was a meeting with the National Endowment for the Arts Partnership Division with the Director of Design and Creative Placemaking, and the Grants Management Specialist for Local Arts Agencies Initiatives and Challenge America. We met with Congressman Ami Bera in his office in the Longworth House Building. Unfortunately, our time with him was short because of the time it takes to travel from one meeting to the next, and everyone going into the Longworth House Building had to go through the security as they entered. We will be meeting with him again this week though to pick up on some of the items we weren't able to cover, like the work needed on White Rock Road. We toured the Town Hall Education Arts Recreation Campus also known as THEARC, which is an example of a community center. We met with the team that runs THEARC and learned how this community center operates, and how they partner with non-profits to bring services and a variety of programs to residents. We also saw their theater and Black Box Theater, too. We also met with several program representatives from the U.S. Department of Education, including the Office of Elementary and Secondary Education, the Center for Faith and Opportunity Initiatives, the Office of Congressional and Legislative Affairs, and the Office of Communications and Outreach. We were at the Department of Education longer than the others because we tried to cover so much that it almost felt like a whirlwind. All in all, our trip was very successful, but it will take quite a bit of time to go over my notes and others notes too. I will put more in my column as time goes by. Our annual iFest International Festival is coming up on Saturday, May 11, and I hope you will be able to go to the event and learn about the many cultures and people who are part of Rancho Cordova. You will be able to see costumes and dances, and then taste foods from around the world. Our iFest makes me think of Washington D.C. because of the diversity of people who live here and in D.C. It is interesting as we all can look around and see such different things. Ten people could watch the same thing, and those 10 people could come away with 10 unique takes on it. I am glad we are able to do that here in Rancho Cordova as we have such a diverse community. With our backgrounds from the former Mather Air Force Base and the Aerojet of the past, the 65,000 people who come here every day and work in our wonderful City, the different faith groups and...we have quite a city I would say. From Mayor Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time. ★

Governors Death Penalty Decision is Affront to Crime Victims, Voters & Jurors

Special Release from the Office of Senator Nielsen

Senator Jim Nielsen (R-Tehama) who served on the California Board of Prison Terms, the largest parole authority in the nation, from 1990 to 2007, issued the following statement: "Victims who survive the horrific murder of child or a parent or a spouse suffer a pain that never completely goes away. When the murderer is convicted and sentenced to death, family members experience a basic sense of justice." "Governor Newsom callously disregards the anguish of these families and rips from them any sense of justice, victimizing them all over again." "The Governor's action today brings back the pain and agony they have been forced to endure. "This executive order is an affront to our system of justice." "A jury convicted these violent criminals. In some trials, 12 people spent weeks, sometimes months, of their lives reviewing witness testimony, physical and DNA evidence, and before determining beyond a reasonable doubt that these murderers committed the most heinous acts against other human beings. "California voters have spoken loudly and clearly, as recently as 2016, that the death penalty serves as a legal and appropriate punishment for those who commit vicious, evil crimes. Special circumstances are always of the most vicious and cruel acts one human can inflict upon another. "The Governor has the authority to delay the implementation of the law but his action is eroding faith of California voters in our democracy and our system of justice." The Original Night Stalker, also known as the East Area Rapist, is awaiting trial for the torture, rape and murder of an estimated 63 people. These calculated crimes were so heinous that he could face the death sentence, if convicted by a jury of his peers. If convicted during Governor Newsom's term, justice would not be served for these victims and their families. Below is a link to the Los Angeles Times' list of "the 13 men executed by California since 1978. "Today, there are 737 just like them on death row. <http://graphics.latimes.com/towergraphic-see-13-men-executed-california-1978> ★

Assemblyman Kiley Announces Resolution to Censure Senators Kamala Harris and Dianne Feinstein

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Assemblyman Kevin Kiley (R-Rocklin) will introduce a resolution that calls on the Legislature to condemn any attempt to disqualify an individual from public office on the basis of their religious beliefs. The resolution will further affirm that the United States Constitution protects people of all faiths from undergoing a religious test in their pursuit of public service. "The United States was founded on the principle of freedom of religion," Kiley stated. "It is very important that our Legislature make a strong, bipartisan statement in support of people of all faiths by adopting this resolution." Senators Dianne Feinstein and Kamala Harris came under fire in recent years for questioning the qualifications of prospective federal judges based on their Catholic faith. In 2017, Feinstein expressed concern over Notre Dame Professor Amy Barrett's nomination because the "dogma" of Catholicism "lives loudly" within her. In 2018, Harris used a similar line of questioning for another Catholic nominee, Brian Buescher. "Attempts by Senators Dianne Feinstein and Kamala Harris to apply religious tests to judicial nominees are both unconstitutional and un-American," Kiley said. "California prides itself on its diversity, but unfortunately our representatives in the Senate have evoked painful memories of a much less inclusive time in our country." Assemblyman Kevin Kiley represents the 6th Assembly District, which includes the Sacramento, Placer, and El Dorado County communities of Cameron Park, El Dorado Hills, Fair Oaks, Folsom, Granite Bay, Lincoln, Loomis, Orangevale, Penryn, Rocklin, Roseville, and Sheridan. Source: From the Office of Kevin Kiley ★

Authentic and Historic Train Ride Experience

Excursion Train Rides Resume on April 6 & 7

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Presenting the only train ride experience behind an authentic, historic locomotive in the Sacramento area, California State Parks and the California State Railroad Museum & Foundation are proud to offer history-rich weekend excursion trains on the Sacramento Southern Railroad that begin on April 6 & 7, 2019. Each weekend through September 2019, guests can enjoy relaxing and memorable excursion train rides along the picturesque Sacramento River and Old Sacramento Waterfront pulled by either the vintage steam locomotive Granite Rock No. 10 or a historic diesel locomotive, depending on the weekend.

Diesel or steam, excursion train ride guests delight in the sights, smells and sounds of an authentic, historic locomotive as it rolls along the levees of the Sacramento River for a six-mile, 45-minute roundtrip excursion. Appealing to all ages, the experience offers guests the chance to enjoy train travel from an earlier era. The train features a combination of vintage closed coaches with comfortable seats, open-air “gondolas” with bench style seating or VIP train ride experiences onboard one of three of the California State Railroad Museum’s first class cars (depending on the weekend): the El Dorado lounge observation car, the Audubon dining car or the French Quarter lounge car from the 1950s that served the famed Southern Pacific “Sunset Limited” service.

Weekend excursion train ride tickets are available and encouraged to book online in advance at www.californiarailroad.museum/visit/excursion-train-rides or can be purchased in-person starting at 10:30 a.m. the day of the train ride (based on availability). Weekend excursion trains depart from the Central Pacific Railroad Freight Depot (on Front between J & K Streets) on-the-hour from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. From July 6 through September 2, an adjusted summer schedule takes effect with trains running on-the-hour from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. (if summer temperatures reach 100 degrees or higher, trains may be cancelled for the remainder of that day).

Regular excursion train tickets cost $12 for adults, $6 for youths (ages 6-17), and ages five and under ride free. For passengers desiring a first-class train ride experience, tickets cost $24 for adults, $16 for youths and are free for children five and under. First-class train tickets often sell out early so guests are encouraged to purchase tickets in advance. Groups interested in reserving the entire VIP car for a regularly scheduled ride need to do so in advance by calling 916-322-7112.

For more information about the weekend excursion train rides or the California State Railroad Museum in general, please call 916-323-9280 or visit www.californiarailroad.museum.

The mission of the California State Railroad Museum Foundation (CSRMF) is to generate revenue and awareness on behalf of its destinations, while supporting the preservation, interpretation and promotion of our railroad heritage. The Foundation provides funding for ongoing support of numerous programs, both at the museum’s Old Sacramento location and at the historic park in Jamestown, California.

SACRAMENTO COUNTY (MPG)

- It may be spring, but it is never too early to start thinking of how you can support those in need during the holiday season or throughout the year. While many celebrate the holidays surrounded by friends, family and gifts under the tree, it is important to remember those who may be without, including local foster children, dependent adults and seniors.

For the last 30 years, the lives of thousands are touched each holiday season by Sacramento County’s Gifts from the Heart Program, an annual holiday gift-giving program that runs from mid-November until early December serving those within the Child Protective Services, and Senior and Adult Services of the Sacramento County Department of Child, Family and Adult Services.

Over 90 local community partners and individuals from businesses, government agencies, service groups and families donate gifts that allow the County to continue to provide gifts year after year.

“Coordinating this program has been truly fulfilling,” said Tanja Edelman, Volunteer and Student Intern Services Coordinator. “The generous gifts and contributions from local community partners and the teamwork of volunteers have made the Gifts from the Heart program possible for 30 years and counting.”

The success of the Gifts from the Heart program not only lies with the kind sponsors but also with the wonderful volunteers who dedicate hundreds of hours, helping to organize and distribute gifts. Each year, a team of over 50 volunteers manages the pick-up, distribution and delivery of gifts from community and private sponsors.

The volunteers, many of whom return year after year, spend weeks in the warehouse organizing toys and gifts to be delivered or picked up by social workers. In 2018, program and community partner volunteers donated over 12,370 hours at an estimated $360,000 value.

Gifts from the Heart provided more than 3,300 gifts to children, teens and seniors in Sacramento County during the 2018 holiday season. The program welcomes all who are interested in participating by sponsoring gifts, becoming a community partner and volunteering time during the season.

However, the holiday season is not the only time you can donate or volunteer to support seniors in the community. Senior and Adult Services welcome year-round donations. In fact this week, Liberty Home Equity Solutions, Inc., a business located in Rancho Cordova, coordinated with the department to set up an office collection of basic necessities for seniors. The staff at Liberty Home Equity Solutions, Inc. put together gift bags that included lotion, toothbrushes, toothpaste, chopstick, crossword puzzles, fuzzy no-slip socks and more for social workers to bring to senior clients in need.

All gifts and monetary donations are tax deductible. To learn more about Gifts from the Heart, becoming a community partner, making a donation or volunteering, email Volunteer and Student Intern Services Coordinator, Tanja Edelman or call at 916-875-2027. ★

Local Nonprofit Crafts Blankets for Mather VA Hospital and Bradshaw Animal Shelter

The group of volunteers from ECMC give back to the community again.

By Libby Brustuen, ECMC Group

MATHER, CA (MPG) - More than 60 employees from local nonprofit ECMC (Educational Credit Management Corporation) recently crafted blankets for the Mather VA Hospital and Bradshaw Animal Shelter.

Employees assembled 50 blankets for the VA hospital and also attached heartfelt notes thanking the Veterans for their service. In addition, 27 pet-sized blankets were created for the Bradshaw Animal Shelter.

Once all of the blankets were complete, volunteers delivered them to the VA Hospital and the animal shelter. At the VA Hospital, employees had the opportunity to deliver the blankets directly to the Veterans, allowing them to visit and spend time with the men and women.

ECMC is committed to making a positive impact on the communities where it has locations through service, charitable giving and good corporate citizenship. ECMC is a nonprofit corporation with a mission to help students succeed through programs promoting financial literacy, college access and college completion. ★

Division of Boating and Waterways Begins Control Efforts for Invasive Plants

By Gloria Sandoval,
CA State Parks

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Division of Boating and Waterways (DBW) is set to begin this year's efforts to control aquatic invasive plants in the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta region and Suisun Marsh.

Pending weather conditions, DBW will begin herbicide treatment next week for water hyacinth, South American spongeplant, Uruguayan water primrose, alligatorweed, Brazilian waterweed, curlyleaf pondweed, Eurasian watermilfoil, coontail and fanwort as part of an integrated plant control program.

Aquatic invasive plants have no known natural controls in the Delta and negatively affect the ecosystem by displacing native plants. They also create safety hazards for boaters and obstruct navigation channels, marinas and irrigation systems.

DBW continuously works with local, state and federal entities to apply the latest science on the Delta's aquatic invasive plants and strategies to control them.

This year, DBW will use new integrated control strategies such as biocontrols and remote sensing to increase the efficiency of treatment efforts and protect the Delta and the public. Herbicides are used in strict adherence to regulatory requirements, permits, best management practices and protocols.

An extensive water quality-monitoring program is carried out by DBW to ensure compliance with all water quality standards, Aquatic invasive plants have no known natural controls in the Delta and negatively affect the ecosystem by displacing native plants.

including drinking water standards.

"We take our responsibility seriously to control aquatic invasive plants in the Delta while at the same time protecting the environment, agriculture, public health and water public and our local, state and federal partners who are helping us manage this challenge.

Our partnerships and frequent communication with state and federal regulators provides valuable guidance on meeting significant regulatory requirements while implementing a successful program."

DBW's decisions to use specific treatment methods are based on their effectiveness for specific plants, locations and conditions.

Herbicide use is carefully controlled and has been reviewed and approved by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, National Marine Fisheries Service, California Department of Pesticide Regulation, the State Water Resources Control Board and County Agricultural Commissioners' offices for local herbicide use restrictions.

All herbicides are registered for aquatic use with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and California Department of Pesticide Regulation.

A summary of this year's treatment season can be viewed online at www.dbw.parks.ca.gov/AIS.

Last year, DBW treated 2,293.42 acres (150 sites) of floating aquatic vegetation and 4,360 acres (71 sites) of submersed aquatic vegetation.

Mechanical harvesting efforts totaled 9.70 acres. The division anticipates 2019 to have wetter conditions compared to 2018. A combination of herbicide, biological and mechanical control methods will be used to help control invasive plants at high priority sites in the Delta. ★

CHEERS & JEERS

By Damian Holbrook

Cheers to Grey's Anatomy
for making it to puberty. Fifteen seasons ago, Meredith (Ellen Pompeo, pictured, with Giacomo Gianniotti) scrubbed in to her internship, and we are still picking, choosing and loving her as the ABC series becomes TV's longest-running primetime medical drama.

Jeers to Off-Camera chaos.
Between Clayne Crawford's firing and Damon Wayans's threatened exit, Fox's Lethal Weapon can't seem to hold on to its leads, while The CW's Dynasty has lost Nathalie Kelley (Cristal), James Mackay (Steven) and Nicollette Sheridan (Alexis). Both shows are too fun to be undone by behind-the-scenes drama.

Jeers to MTV
for stifling the Scream. Round 3 of the horror adaptation – which was designed to reboot the franchise with a cast including Tyler Posey and Mary J. Blige – wrapped over a year ago and there's still no premiere date. Did Ghostface kill this too?

Cheers to John Mulaney for bringing NBC's Saturday Night Live back to life. After months of uneven hosts, the stand-up comic's second stint

Ellen Pompeo, pictured, with Giacomo Gianniotti scrubbed in to her internship, and we are still picking, choosing and loving her.

helped reset the bar with hilarious sketches, plus a top-notch musical guest in country favorite Thomas Rhett and a welcome visit from alum Bill Hader. ★

ASK

BY MATT ROUSH TV Guide Senior Critic

When Will L&O: Hate Crimes Premiere??
Question: What's the latest with Law & Order: Hate Crimes? Could L&O:HC be the latest in a long line of potential new programs that received a lot of buzz but for whatever reason never made it to air? – Alex

Matt Roush: Recently, it was reported that the SVU spinoff has been indefinitely delayed. A "backdoor" pilot had been planned to air within an episode of SVU this season to launch a spinoff about a Hate Crimes unit, but that's no longer happening during the current season.

I wouldn't count it out from happening eventually, and it may even be encouraging that they didn't rush it to air, giving more time for the development and casting process. It's a very topical but loaded subject, and I'd like to see them get it right. (But with Dick Wolf's company looking to expand the CBS FBI franchise while maintaining so many other productions in New York and Chicago, they clearly have a full plate.)

Question: Why are all of the Hawaii Five-O episode titles in Hawaiian languages? Speaking true Hawaiian is not common. – Don S.

Matt Roush: Isn't that reason enough to do it? Looking past the two white male leads who were built into the formula, Hawaii Five-O has tried from the start to honor and reflect Hawaiian culture, and the episode titles are part of that. I dig it.

Sacramento County DA Reports

Defendant Sentenced for Foothill Farms Murder
DATE: March 19, 2019
CASE: Souksavanh Phetvongkham (Case #17FE005490)

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Matt Chisholm, Homicide Unit
The Honorable Gerrit Wood sentenced Souksavanh Phetvongkham to 56 years to life in prison. On February 5, 2019, a jury convicted Phetvongkham of the first-degree murder of Mario Benitez-Gallegos. The jury also found that Phetvongkham personally used a deadly weapon during the murder. An allegation that Phetvongkham suffered a prior strike conviction for aggravated felony assault was determined to be true at the sentencing hearing.

The victim and Souksavanh Phetvongkham had been friends until a recent falling-out. A mutual friend of the two gave a ride to Phetvongkham. During that ride, the two stopped and picked-up the victim. Phetvongkham and the victim agreed to fight and got out of the car. During the fight, Phetvongkham stabbed the victim multiple times, including a stab wound to the heart. The victim was taken to a hospital by his friend, but he died from blood loss.

Defendant Sentenced for Hotel Room Murder
DATE: March 15, 2019
CASE: Mario Michael Mayorga (Case #16FE022652)

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Caroline Park, Homicide Unit
The Honorable Eugene Balonon sentenced Mario Michael Mayorga to 76 years to life in prison. On February 13, 2019, a jury convicted Mayorga of the first-degree murder of Tina Morales. The jury also found true that Mayorga used a deadly weapon during the murder. Allegations that Mayorga suffered two prior strike convictions for assault with a firearm and assault with a deadly weapon were determined to be true at the sentencing hearing.

Mario Michael Mayorga and the victim were in a dating relationship. On November 24, 2016, Thanksgiving Day, the victim checked into a motel near Stockton Boulevard and Mack Road. The victim had Thanksgiving dinner with Mayorga and the two then walked to a friend's house. Another friend drove the two back to the victim's motel room at 1:30 a.m. At 11:30 a.m. that day, motel employees found the victim with multiple stab and puncture wounds

CASE: Michael Gillette (Case #96F07315)

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Stefanie Mahaffey, Mental Health Litigation Unit
The Honorable James Arguelles found true a petition of civil commitment against Michael Gillette as a Sexually Violent Predator (SVP), and ordered Gillette committed to Coalinga State Hospital for an indeterminate term.
On April 21, 1997, Gillette was convicted of lewd acts with a child under 14 years of age. He was sentenced to three years state prison. On January 18, 2013, Gillette was again convicted of lewd acts with a child under 14 years of age. Before he was released on parole for that offense, the People filed a petition to commit Gillette as an SVP. The petition alleged that Gillette had qualifying prior convictions and a mental disorder that caused him to be a substantial danger to the safety of others and likely to engage in violent predatory sexual acts in the future. ★

Salinas Shows Grit in Loss for Cordova

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - As the Cordova Lady Lancers' varsity softball were preparing to enter Greater Sacramento League competition for the first

With a 2-0 lead in the bottom of the second inning, Cordova (2-2 overall at the time of printing) had things going their way. They had already forced two outs defensively within the inning, and were one away from getting another chance to step to the plate themselves and widen their lead.

pitcher Diane Salinas was visibly upset with herself after that play, but she would continue to play through. Her struggles continued in the bottom of the fourth inning as she surrendered four runs on four hits in the inning, giving Rosemont a 6-2 lead. But even then, Salinas kept trying.

Stepping to the plate in the top of the fifth inning with two outs on the board for her team, Salinas did her best to spark the Lady Lancers' offense with an RBI single to centerfield, much to the satisfaction of her coach, who later said her freshman ace was also playing through illness.

"She is so huge for us," Little said of Salinas. "She's under the weather right now, but she's still wanting to compete. I commend her, her character is huge. She's been great for us."

Salinas' numbers weren't great against Rosemont, going four innings while giving up six runs on six hits and recording just two strikeouts, but she found a way to make an impact on the game and her team nonetheless.

Additionally, freshman Kalissa Lee recorded an RBI in the game, with sophomore Taylor McIntire tallying one hit as well. Senior Vivi Luque provided two runs, and freshman Noelle Gifford scampered home once as well for Cordova.

Lady Lancers' freshman pitcher Diane Salinas was visibly upset with herself after that play, but she would continue to play through.

time, it was important for Lady Lancers' head coach Kim Little to find out how her young players would respond to adversity.

Although the outcome of Cordova's 7-3 loss at Rosemont on Thursday, March 14 was not ideal, what Little learned about her team and one of its most important players was perhaps even more valuable than a victory.

They would not get that chance, however, as Rosemont would capitalize with the bases loaded. Rosemont Sophomore Ashley Houston would convert on a three RBI double to left center, giving the Lady Wolverines a 3-2 lead that they would build upon for the remainder of the game.

punctuated by Mickayla Burnett's two-run homer to the opposite field. Araya Corral followed Katie Thompson's single with an RBI triple to make the score 6-4, and suddenly it was a ballgame again.

One inning later, the Mustangs answered with three consecutive two-out walks before a bases clearing triple made it 9-4. Those three walks were the only ones issued all game by the Falcon pitchers, and they all wound up scoring.

Burnett had another RBI in the sixth with her line drive single to right, but that would complete the scoring for the Falcons.

Annual Roseville Gem Show Rocks On

One Step At A Time

CRPD Receives Recognition for Dedication to Community Health

By MPG Staff

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Roseville Rock Rollers 57th Annual Gem, Jewelry, Fossil, and Mineral Show will take place at the Placer County Fairgrounds in Roseville March 23-24. Hosted by the Roseville Rock Rollers, also known as the Roseville Gem and Mineral Society, this year's show features gemstones, jewelry, fossils and minerals and has something for the whole family.

The group was established in 1960 as a group of local "rockhounds," according to show chair James Hutchings. That group, deeply interested in the science and art of the earths' natural beauty in rocks and minerals, first met in homes and then as their numbers grew, expanded to the use of a local school room.

This year's show has dozens of exhibits for attendees, such as jewelry, metal, wire

In addition to exhibits, classes and demonstrations, show goers can pan for gold, purchase equipment, buy raffle tickets, have rocks, gems and mineral identified by experts or make purchases at a silent auction.

Wishing to share the art and science of the mineral world, in the tradition of gem and mineral shows around the world, the Roseville Rock Rollers established their own gem and mineral show around 1962. The society grew, the show grew, and the show and the Society

Department, and our year round Lapidary shop on the fairgrounds," said Hutchings. "The lapidary shop on the Fair Grounds is the heart and soul of our Society, where we teach lapidary arts, jewelry fabrication, conduct mineral identification and mini tail gate rock sales."

Not to be missed are real treasures the group will have on display. "Folks tend to walk by the display cases," he said. "These simple, well lighted boxes contain the best of the best of personal collections of minerals in variety or by theme. The displays are, 'literally' miniature museums showcasing specimens in the possession of individuals who have spent a lifetime collecting the best of the best of their favorite species of rock or mineral," said Hutchings.

popularity with outdoor fitness courses and how the course will benefit the community. "Research shows that working out in nature and sunlight triggers chemicals in your brain that help you sleep better! After we'd heard from residents and read about mental and physical health benefits like that, we were convinced that providing a fitness course was exactly what the community needed," Cristina said.

Beyond the health benefits, the District felt that outdoor fitness courses also provide a welcoming social environment, different than that of a traditional gym. "Having fitness equipment outside makes it feel like an adult playground in some ways. We were able to transition empty space into shared, endorphins-producing space that fosters social connection in both the older and younger generations," Cristina said.

For this project to become a reality, CRPD relied on public outreach to shape the design of the accessible, state-of-the-art, 5-piece course, and funding from the City of Rancho Cordova's Community Enhancement Fund. With a matching amount and in-kind labor provided by CRPD, the Lincoln Village Community Park fitness course came to life and is now able to provide an environment for thousands of residents to engage in an active lifestyle.

Beyond the course, CRPD's new Walk with Ease (WWE) program, developed by the Arthritis Foundation, will contribute to increasing activity in community members daily routine. Studies by the Thurston Arthritis Research Center and the Institute on Aging at the University of North Carolina have shown that WWE helps reduce pain and stiffness associated with arthritis, offers benefits for people managing other chronic conditions, contributes to reduced pain, increased balance and strength, increased levels of physical activity, and improved overall health.

"Walking can offer numerous health benefits to people of all ages and fitness levels. It may also help prevent certain diseases and even prolong your life. This grant from NRPA and the CDC allows us to add a new way for community residents to fulfill daily recommended exercise, and all you need to start is a sturdy pair of walking shoes," District Administrator Patrick Larkin said.

As one of only 40 park and recreation agencies across the country to be awarded the WWE instructor training grant, CRPD's fitness instructors will receive grant-funded training so they may offer the best level of service to the community. "We are extremely grateful to be the recipient of the WWE grant because it allows us to continue to help our community keep fit in mind, body and spirit," Heather Schelske, Recreation Supervisor at the Neil Orchard Senior Activities Center, said.

The Walk with Ease program will be offered three times per week for six weeks by certified and trained instructors. The classes are ideally suited for seniors 50+ who are interested in a low-impact exercise program in their local community, especially those looking to manage a chronic condition. The program is scheduled to begin Monday, April 1 at 10:30 a.m. For more information, visit crpd.com/programs/active-senior.

and glass beading arts, fossils, crystals and minerals, but that's not all. So that attendees aren't rushed, the show also provides a cafeteria. "A very fine hot lunch is available at our own kitchen in Johnson Hall," states Hutchings. The group has put together a menu of very reasonably priced food and beverages will also be available at the show's cafeteria.

moved to the Placer County Fairgrounds where it continues today.

"As the Roseville Gem and Mineral Society has expanded, the show expanded to support the costs associated with its programs, such as the Rookie Rock Rollers, juniors program, the Annual Scholarship program to Geology Students at Sacramento State Geology

"We are looking for the general public who are looking for gem stones, set and unset, handmade, and fine art jewelry, and mineral specimens from every corner of the world! We find the single most striking comment from folks who, by accident, end up at our show is, "I had no idea such things existed in the world!"
