RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - On September 11, 2018, Move America Forward hosted a poignant event commemorating the 17th anniversary of 9/11, honoring both the victims of terror attacks and the troops on the front lines. Move America Forward, the largest pro-troops grassroots organization in the nation, recently moved their headquarters to Rancho Cordova and combined their grand opening and ribbon-cutting ceremony with a Packathon committed to assembling care packages for the troops.

In 2004, Melanie Morgan founded Move

America Forward to pay homage to active military members and as a message of deep gratitude for their service to our country. Morgan said, "I am deeply humbled and grateful for all of our donors who keep us going and allow us to support our troops by opening their hearts and sponsoring care packages for the troops. And to our volunteers who work countless man hours to pack up these boxes, as well as our sponsors who donate tens of thousands of dollars in products which allows us to keep serving our troops year after year."

Rancho Cordova Mayor Linda Budge said that the work done by Move America Forward is "a shining example for us all." Mayor Budge said that the terrible events

September is Alcohol and Drug Recovery Month

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - In recognition that recovery happens and people can change their lives for the better, the Behavioral Health Services, Alcohol and Drug Services presented a resolution to the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors, who proclaimed September 2018 as Alcohol and Drug Recovery Month in Sacramento County.

And recovery does happen. Case in point: DeAnna Lopez, a Sacramento County resident, began using drugs when she was 11 years old. At 15, she was pregnant, unemployed and living in her car. DeAnna could not stop using and did not know how to get help. DeAnna's moment of clarity came when her daughter was born.

Child Protective Services was the first organization to offer DeAnna help, and she gladly accepted. Today DeAnna is 12 years sober and works as a Court Services Supervisor for WellSpace Health. She delivered a passionate speech at the Board of Supervisors meeting, recognizing her daughter and County services for helping her recover from an addiction to drugs. DeAnna is a true success story and is a living testimony that recovery does happen and people do change their lives.

"It is critical that people experiencing substance use disorders receive the support they need," said Sacramento County Alcohol and Drug Services Division Manager, Lori Miller. "The reality is that behavioral health is essential to health, prevention works, treatment is effective, and people recover."

The County recently passed the 2018-19 budget, which included $5.9 million to implement the Drug Medi-Cal Waiver that will provide enhanced drug treatment services.

Sac County provides various alcohol and drug treatment services that range from outpatient treatment, medication assisted treatment, residential treatment, detoxification and Perinatal Services. If you or someone you know suffers from substance abuse or dependency, please call for an assessment at 916-874-9754 or reference the Alcohol and Drug Services Resource list for information.

Officer Involved Shooting in Rancho Cordova

By Sergeant
Shaun Hampton,
Sheriff's Spokesman

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - At 1:44 p.m. on September 17, 2018, the Sacramento County Sheriff's Communications Center received a 911 call regarding a disturbance at a local business, located at the 10000 block of Folsom Boulevard. Two Rancho Cordova Police Department Officers, which is a contract city with the Sacramento County Sheriff's Department, responded to the scene. The initial call for service gave no indication that the suspect was armed or dangerous. Upon the officers arriving, they were fired upon by the suspect and were able to return fire.

The suspect fled from the initial scene on foot and was again engaged by other responding deputies at a secondary scene.

The suspect was taken into custody and transported to a local hospital, where he is currently in stable condition.

During this encounter, two officers were shot by the suspect. One officer, Julie Robertson (28), a three and a half year veteran, was shot in the arm and is in stable condition.

The other officer, Mark Stasyuk (27), was shot by the suspect. He was pronounced dead shortly after arriving at the hospital.

An uninvolved citizen was shot, presumably by the suspect. That citizen appears to be in stable condition at this time.

Deputy Mark Stasyuk was a four and a half year veteran of the Sheriff's Department and was assigned to the Rancho Cordova Police Department as a patrol officer. Deputy Stasyuk leaves behind a wife, mother, father, and sister. He was preceded in death by his older brother.

The investigation into the incident will be conducted by the Sheriff's Homicide Bureau and Professional Standards Division, which is standard practice for any officer-involved shooting that occurs in the Sheriff's Department's jurisdiction. An independent review of the officer-involved shooting will be conducted by the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office. In accordance with the Sheriff's Department policies and procedures, the deputies involved in the shooting will be placed on paid administrative leave pending the investigation.

Climate Change: Governor Jerry Brown, Ignores Energy Jobs

Commentary
by Katy Grimes,
Investigative Journalist

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The doomsday predictions of global-warming alarmists would have us believe there are more droughts, more extreme hurricanes and tornados, that arctic snow caps are melting, and all coastal cities are in danger of rising seas.

Convinced the sky is falling, Henny Penny and a band of gullible friends march off to tell the king, only to meet their end at the hands of a wily fox. ‘The sky is falling!’ Henny Penny said, in a silly tale about a chicken who believes the world is coming to an end.

Does this sound familiar? The defacto leader of ‘The Sky is Falling’ Chicken Little Party, Gov. Jerry Brown warned in 2016, ‘If Trump turns off the satellites, California will launch its own damn satellite,’ after he called Trump a ‘fraud’ at the Democratic National Convention for his continued denial of global warming.

When President Donald Trump pulled the United States out of the Paris Climate Accord, California Gov. Jerry Brown said the world is only just beginning to feel the environmental harm inflicted by the Trump administration. ‘He has set in motion initiatives that will cause damage,’ the Los Angeles Times reported Brown said, comparing the planet under Trump's climate policies to a person who has just fallen from the top of the Empire State Building. ‘You are falling down four stories, but have 80 to go,’ he said. ‘Maybe you are not damaged yet, but it is certain you will die.’

“The governor said his overriding concern is that global progress has stalled. ‘This is real,’ Brown said. ‘It is far more serious than anybody is saying.’”

Global Warming hypocrite Tom Steyer warned: ‘If Trump pulls the US out of the #ParisAgreement he will be committing a traitorous act of war against the American people.’ Remember that Steyer made his billions on coal and oil.

The LA Times' Evan Halper falsely reported, ‘Coal plants have continued shutting down at a brisk pace since Trump took office.’

Sorry Evan Halper... Even NPR disagrees.

When President Trump announced his decision to withdraw from the Paris climate agreement, he said he was putting American jobs ahead of the needs and desires of other countries.

My favorite money quote: ‘I was elected to represent the citizens of Pittsburgh, not Paris,’ Trump said in June 2017.

Trump said the agreement was ‘very unfair’ for the U.S., especially the U.S. coal industry, NPR reported. And he reported good news for the battered industry: the development of new mines.

Yet doubling down once again, last week California Gov. Jerry Brown signed two bills making it all-but-impossible for the Trump administration to drill for oil in federal waters off California by banning any new infrastructure to support the projects.

Apparently Gov. Brown

hates the people of California who need jobs. Under his leadership, California has not only lost hundreds of thousands of voters and residents through outbound migration to Texas, Arizona, Nevada and Florida, the state has shifted to a part-time economy. Other than Silicon Valley, Hollywood, and a threatened agriculture industry, Democrats in California have shunned manufacturing jobs, and replaced them with part-time, minimum wage workers who need welfare to make ends meet.

There is one exception: Oil industry jobs. California boasts 360,000 jobs in the oil industry. Yet to hear Gov. Brown talk, he despises the oil industry.

Following the latest bill signing, Brown said in a statement: ‘California's message to the Trump administration is simple: Not here, not now. We will not let the federal government...destroy our treasured coast.’

The climate change hysteria is so vast, CBS reports, ‘UN says number of hungry people worldwide is growing, with climate change partly to blame.’ The UN claims climate change is ‘wreaking havoc on crop production’ in much of the developing world, the United Nations said Tuesday, CBS News reported.

California politicians have gloated over being the first state to enact such aggressive green energy and greenhouse gas busting policy, but have yet to produce any proof that these oppressive and business-killing laws have had any ‘green’ results.

How To Power The Future

I spoke with Daniel Turner, founder of Power The Future, and organization dedicated to the men and women who ‘power the future’ through energy jobs. Turner and Power The Future are an all-of-the-above supporter of energy production. Hear! Hear! This is exactly what California needs, not Gov. Brown's recent approval of Senate Bill 100, setting a 100 percent clean electricity goal for the state, and issued an executive order establishing a new target to achieve carbon neutrality – both by 2045.

Ironically perhaps, Brown kicked off his 2018 Global Climate Action Summit, Wednesday, and welcomed China's 120-plus attendees – the largest country delegation at the event –

As Daniel Turner points out, China is the world's number one polluter, exempt from the sacred Paris Climate Accord, and the land of forced child labor in coal mines. It's odd Brown would welcome this, yet he rolled out the red carpet for the Chi-Coms.

Turner and I discussed several issues:

Brown never addresses that energy costs in California are among the highest in the nation, and only continue to increase due to the California's mandates of renewables in electricity production.

In 2017, A Los Angeles Times Report Found That Despite California Using 2.6% Less Electricity Than In 2008, Residential And Business Customers Pay $6.8 Billion More For Power Than In 2008. ‘Although California uses $2.6% less electricity annually from the power grid now than in 2008, residential and business customers together pay $6.8 billion more for power than they did then.’ (Ivan Penn and Ryan Menezes, ‘Californians Are Paying Billions For Power They Don't Need,’ Los Angeles Times, 2/5/17)

Since 2008, Electric Rates In California, Adjusted For

Inflation, Have Increased 12% While Declining Almost 3% Elsewhere In The United States. Los Angeles Times

The other important issue we discussed is the vast untapped energy resources in the Monterey Shale Oil Reserve. Since Jerry Brown was reelected Governor in 2011, I've been writing about California's Monterey Shale formation:

‘California sits on two-thirds of America's shale oil reserves. The Monterey Shale Formation is four times the size of the Bakken Shale Reserve in North Dakota, which is now the largest oil producer in the country behind Texas. Along the Western side of the San Joaquin Valley in the middle of the state, the Monterey Shale Formation encompasses several hundred miles, where water has dried up and unemployment is the highest in the state.’

A study found that exploiting Monterey shale could generate up to 2.8 million new jobs and add 14 percent to the state's GDP by 2020, near the peak of production. Instead, California's Governor wants to ban the sale of internal combustion passenger vehicles in the state, and has signed legislation to mandate 100% renewable energy by 2045.

Most countries around the world think that it's a good thing to have cheap energy. But in California, we have plenty of cheap energy available, just not the political will to access it. The state is awash in ultra cheap natural gas, yet in California, our corrupt government finds a way to create an energy shortage, and charge rate payers the highest rates in the country.

It's as if Gov. Jerry Brown is trying to destroy California. ★

SMUD Cares Volunteers Makeover Sacramento Children's Home Crisis Nursery

In 2017, SMUD Cares volunteers donated nearly 18,000 hours and nearly $500,000 to local nonprofits. This year, SMUD Cares volunteers are on pace to match or exceed those totals with projects such as this one. Photo courtesy SMUD

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Led by SMUD CEO Arlen Orchard, more than 100 SMUD employees descended upon the Sacramento Children's Home Crisis Nursery to makeover its indoor and outdoor facilities. Volunteers turned an overgrown field into a play area complete with a nature trail, sand boxes and picnic tables. They revamped the playground, installed new landscaping, and painted and decorated the interior rooms as part of its employee giving campaign.

“It's a great day to be out here giving back to the community,” said SMUD CEO Arlen Orchard. “I am so proud that our employees share the value of volunteerism and are committed to improving our community. I can't think of a better way than to make improvements that will benefit children and families for years to come.”

The Sacramento Children's Home Crisis Nursery provides emergency childcare to children ages 0 to 5 and wrap-around services to support families in need. They serve more than 1,000 children throughout the year.

“We're grateful that SMUD Cares understands the importance of a peaceful and playful respite for families in crisis. Their work will help ease the transition for children who we care for,” said Todd Koolakian, Director of Philanthropy for the Sacramento Children's Home Crisis Nursery.

SMUD's day-of-service kicks off the SMUD Cares employee giving and volunteer program where more than 750 employees donate time and money toward local nonprofits.

In 2017, SMUD Cares volunteers donated nearly 18,000 hours and nearly $500,000 to local nonprofits. This year, SMUD Cares volunteers are on pace to match or exceed those totals with projects such as this one.

SMUD Cares supports a wide variety of nonprofits through community service, payroll deductions and other fundraising efforts. Last year, SMUD Cares arranged and supported over 90 volunteer efforts and coordinated employee service on 121 local nonprofit boards.

SMUD Cares is just one part of SMUD's larger corporate citizenship program, which includes all the ways SMUD gives back to the community it serves. As a community-owned utility, SMUD is committed to supporting the Sacramento region through increasing corporate giving, encouraging employee volunteerism, supporting education and promoting economic development. 9/11 Memorial Ceremony and Tribute to Troops

Move America Forward Hosts Packathon to Assemble Care Packages

Volunteers assemble care packages for troops stationed overseas. Care packages distributed by Move America Forward include an assortment of food items such as coffee, jerky, granola bars, and a variety of candy and snacks.

of 9/11 motivated many more people to enlist in the military because they were so inspired by those brave men and women who are willing to sacrifice everything to protect their fellow Americans.

While deployed overseas, Sergeant James Menard received a care package from Move America Forward. He spoke of how meaningful it is to receive a tangible symbol of love and support from people back home. Menard said, “The power to help those in need has never been more important than it is today. These care packages show our troops that someone at home cares.”

The event’s featured speaker was Richard Hannaford, a 9/11 survivor. He was on the 84th floor of World Trade Center Tower 2 at the time of the attack. After the first plane hit Tower 1, the first detail he noticed that told him something was wrong was a piece of paper floating by the window. He looked out the window and saw more pieces of paper floating in the air. He looked across to Tower 1 and saw that it was smoking; that was when he knew they had to get out. He described it as “pandemonium.”

Throughout the confusion, Hannaford pushed everyone to keep moving, even when an announcement over the building’s loud speakers said that everything was okay and that employees should return to their desks. It was 9:03 in the morning when his tower was hit. Hannaford and about six others were in the stairwell when they felt the impact. They kept evacuating and around the 20th floor they began encountering fireman and EMTs rushing up the stairs. “I still remember some of their faces clearly,” said Hannaford. “Some of those men never made it back. It’s our responsibility to remember and honor them and never forget.”

When Hannaford finally reached the street, he said the scene that greeted him is the closest he will ever come to being in a warzone. He said a prayer for the people in Tower 1, some of whom he knew personally. Then, when he about four blocks away, his tower came down.

Hannaford is deeply grateful to be alive, and grateful for the service of the men and women who risk their lives to protect this country. He said, “I think if you don’t remember an event of this magnitude, this wanton and cowardly destruction that targeted innocent people, it could happen again, and that would be really tragic.”

Many volunteers, representatives from the City of Rancho Cordova and the Chamber of Commerce, and 30 troops from the local B.T. Collins U.S. Army Reserve Center attended the event. The Presentation of Colors was enacted by the American Legion Post 233 Color Guard, and the crowd was visibly moved by the display. A large number of elected officials attended the ceremony and presented Move America Forward with Awards and Resolutions recognizing their work. Gold Star Families were given special honors: Diane Layfield, mother of L.Cpl. Travis Layfield, US Marines, killed in action 4/6/2004; Mike Anderson, father of Cpl. Michael D. Anderson Jr., US Marines, killed in action 12/14/2004; and John and Betty Hall, parents of SFC Bryan Hall, US Army, killed in action 4/10/2009.

While Move America Forward sends care packages to all active troops, their main focus is on those stationed in Iraq and Afghanistan who don’t have the same resources and who are living in austere conditions. Since Move America Forward was first founded in 2004, they have sent 38,000 tons of food and other items to the troops. At the time of the event, 2,001 care packages were ready to be shipped out, and another 911 were prepared by volunteers after the ceremony.

If you would like to sponsor a care package, please visit www.MoveAmericaForward.org. ★

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Monday was a rough day for the people of Rancho Cordova with the shooting of two of our Rancho Cordova Police Officers outside of the Pep Boys near McGregor Drive and Folsom Boulevard. Whenever we lose a member of our community family, it affects us all. It was really hard to see the 27-year-old police officer, Mark Stasyuk, lose his life. It was a loss while he was in the line of duty, and in Rancho Cordova, we find out that we know that person or our family member knows one of his family members, and the connections continue. I started last night's City Council Meeting while our Mayor and our City Manager joined the Sheriff at a press conference to announce our loss in Rancho Cordova and at the same time, the loss in Sacramento County. This is what we began the meeting with after the Invocation, "Today, the Sheriff's communications center received a call regarding a disturbance at Pep Boys in the 10,000 block of Folsom Boulevard in Rancho Cordova. There was a shooting at the store and to the west of it. Two deputies were shot. One officer, Julie Robertson, was shot in the arm and her injuries are non-life threatening. Officer Mark Stasyuk, a four and a half year veteran of the department and 27-years-old, was shot in the upper body and was pronounced dead at

And Another Thing ... A Moment of Silence

UC Davis Medical Center. In addition, a bystander was shot whose condition is also unknown." There will be more information as time goes on. It seemed like half of the members of the audience hadn't heard of the tragedy yet. And on to another thing which is related to the police. A question was asked (again) about the contract we have with the Sheriff's Department, why we don't have a police department of our own, and why we are a contract city. There are about 120 contract cities in the State of California, and the reasons are as different as the number of contract cities. In our case, having a contract with the Sheriff's Department provides expansive and cost-effective services to keep the City of Rancho Cordova safe. I think we are very fortunate to have our police officers and the increasing safety they provide us with in Rancho Cordova. I am going back to the beginning story to provide a little more information about the officer-involved shooting yesterday. The suspect has been identified as 38-year-old Anton Lemon Moore (AKA: Anton Lemon Paris) of Rancho Cordova. KCRA provided the picture, which is a mugshot from a previous arrest on April 17, 2016. More information will be provided as time goes on through the Rancho Cordova Police Department's social media channels.

From Vice Mayor Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time. ★

The Tuskegee Airmen Close Mather's Centennial at MACC

Story and photos
by Trina L. Drotar

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - A standing room only crowd filled the second floor of Mills Station Arts and Cultural Center (MACC) Saturday, September 15 to hear from Rancho Cordovan George Hudson, one of the original Tuskegee Airmen. Joining Hudson were Perry Woods, the current president of the George S. "Spanky" Roberts, Sacramento Chapter of the Tuskegee Airmen, Inc., and Col. James C. Crump, Jr. USAF (Ret), past chapter president.

Hudson served at Mather Air Force base from 1968 – 1970. During his service, which began in 1945 with the Army Air Corps, he had been stationed in Hawaii, Wichita Falls, France, Germany, Guam, and at Clark Air Force Base on Luzon Island in the Philippines. He was also stationed in Korea when the Korean War began. He's a soft-spoken man who shrugs off his celebrity, saying he's "just one of the guys."

schooler, attended the event because she is currently studying World War II and wanted to "experience living history." She took the opportunity to hear first

She was excited to speak with Col. Crump before the event and greeted George Hudson when he entered the room.

Cheryl Gleason, Cordova Community Council's events specialist, introduced the day's speakers and a short documentary, "Black Wings," shot in the 1980s and provided by KOVR Channel 13. The short film provided a foundation and background.

"The original Tuskegee Airmen were assigned to an all-black unit between March 1941 and November 1949," said Col. Crump, who served from 1954 until 1988. The purpose of the Tuskegee Airmen was "to protect the bombers," he said. "They stayed with the bombers," who later thanked the men for saving their lives.

"I'm glad to see the youth in the house," said Perry Woods, who served three years at Mather and was one year old when Col. Crump received that commission.

He spoke about the George S. "Spanky" Roberts chapter which meets monthly at the Aerospace Museum of California, is open to all interested people, and provides scholarships in many fields.

Woods also recognized Hudson's service in three different wars, thanked Gleason and her staff, and said that the chapter couldn't run without Col. Crump.

"There was a lot of integrity from the men," he said of the Tuskegee Airmen, "and we owe them a debt of gratitude." Hudson and the other Tuskegee Airmen fought the overseas enemy during WWII and returned home to the same prejudice they had left, he added.

"It is important that we never forget their impeccable records."

Hudson, who had been assigned to the 320th bomb wing, retired in 1970 as chief clerk, and said, "If I had the chance, I would do it all over again."

Col. Crump said, "Tuskegee Airmen didn't talk about their experience. I didn't hear about them until I went to the Pentagon in January 1980." He related stories of Brigadier General Benjamin O. Davis, integrity, and the mentoring he received.

"I wouldn't be here now if you hadn't done your job," he said and saluted George Hudson.

The talk was the final event of the two-week "Century of Service – 100th Anniversary of Mather Field," which has included author talks, films, special guests, and an evening of swing band music and dance. The exhibit will move to the California Capital Airshow which kicks off on September 21 and runs for three days at Mather Airport.

"The exhibit has been an overwhelming success in this community," said Gleason, and invited the audience to the next MACC exhibit, "Anne Frank. Her Photos. Her Story.," which opens on October 11 and features talks by Japanese internment survivor Kiyo Sato and Holocaust survivor Bernard Marks.

City of Rancho Cordova Notice of Public Hearing

NOTICE is hereby given that on Monday, October 1, 2018, at 5:30 p.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, the City Council of the City of Rancho Cordova will hold a Public Hearing at the Rancho Cordova City Hall, located at 2729 Prospect Park Drive, Rancho Cordova, to consider the following:

PROPOSED GRANTLINE 208 COMMUNITY FACILITIES DISTRICT NO. 2018-1

The purpose of this public hearing is: The City of Rancho Cordova is considering the formation of a community facilities district (the "CFD") under the authority of the Mello-Roos Community Facilities District Act of 1982, as amended, to fund certain public facilities related to new development within the City of Rancho Cordova.

This Notice contains a brief summary of the proposal, but you are referred to the City Council's resolution "A Resolution of Intention of the City Council to Form a Community Facilities District and Levy a Special Tax in City of Rancho Cordova Grantline 208 Community Facilities District No. 2018-1 to Finance the Acquisition and Construction of Certain Public Facilities in and for such Community Facilities District" adopted August, 20, 2018 and its Resolution "A Resolution of the City Council Declaring its Intention to Incur a Bonded Indebtedness to Finance the Acquisition and Construction of Certain Public Facilities and the Payment of Certain Fees in and for City of Rancho Cordova Grantline 208 Community Facilities District No. 2018-1" adopted August 20, 2018 for the definitive description of the proposal. The Proposal is to subject the property within the CFD to a special tax which will be used to pay for facilities (which may include fees used to pay for public facilities) or benefit to land within the CFD, including paying principal and interest on bonds used to build facilities, and will expire when the bond are retired and all eligible facilities are financed. The proceeds of the bonds will be used to pay for the facilities and other expenses set forth in the resolution referred to in the preceding paragraph. A map showing the land proposed to be included in the CFD is on file with the City Clerk.

As set forth above, the City Council, the City Council will hold a public hearing on the establishment of the CFD, the facilities to be finance by the CFD, and the levy of the special tax within the CFD.

The proposal also includes authority to issue up to $35,000,000 in bonds to be repaid by the special tax. Neither the City of Rancho Cordova nor any person outside the CFD has any liability for the special tax or the bonds. The security for the bonds is limited of the property subject to the special tax within the CFD.

In order to confer the authority upon the Rancho Cordova City Council to levy the special tax and to issue the bonds, a public hearing must be held on the proposal, then the City Council will decide whether to form the CFD, and finally the qualified electors within the CFD must approve the proposal by a two-thirds vote. Where the CFD is uninhabited (as is the case here) the qualified electors are, pursuant to law, the owners of property within the CFD.

At the hearing, the testimony of all interested persons or potential special taxpayers for or against the formation of the proposed community facilities district, the authorization to levy the special tax, and the authorization to issue the bonds will be heard. If written protests against the proposed CFD are delivered to the City Clerk at or before the time set for the hearing by either registered voters residing within, or the property owners within, the proposed CFD, they will be counted toward a possible majority protest. Such protests by a majority of the registered voters residing within the CFD or by the owners of a majority of the land area within the CFD which is or will be subject to the special tax, if not withdrawn prior to the close of the hearing so as to reduce the value of the protests to less than a majority, will require the proposed CFD to be eliminated from immediate consideration, and prevent its being included in a subsequent proceedings for at least one year.

If the City Council, after the public hearing, determines that a majority protest under Section 53324 of the California Government Code was not made at the hearing, the City Council may conduct an elected by mailed ballot to levy a special tax and incur bonded indebtedness.

The City of Rancho Cordova encourages interested parties to attend public meetings and comment on the issues being discussed. If you wish to provide testimony and are unable to attend the meeting, written comments that are delivered to the City Clerk's office prior to the time of the hearing will be made a part of the public record. Questions regarding this matter should be directed to the City of Rancho Cordova Finance Department at (916) 851-8730.

NOTICE REGARDING CHALLENGES TO DECISIONS

CHEERS & JEERS

by Damian Holbrook

Cheers to vet Ted Danson

Now that Hulu and Netflix are carrying episodes of NBC's perfect afterlife comedy The Good Place, you have no forking excuse not to be all caught up and ready to root for the devilishly delightful Danson on Emmy night.

Jeers to Mr. Robot

for heading into sleep mode. A yearlong wait between seasons is bad enough, but now that USA has opted to ctrl-alt-del the stellar hacker drama after its upcoming fourth season (in 2019), the idea of losing Christian Slater and Rami Malek's (pictured) twisty dynamic already has us caught in a deep web of depression.

Jeers to Sharp Objects

for sticking it to viewers who cut out early. If you changed the channel at the end of the harrowing limited-series finale, there's a good chance you too missed the surprise mid-credits scene that revealed who helped Amma (Eliza Scanlen, pictured) kill those Wind Gap girls. Not cool, HBO.

Ted Danson in The Good Place.

Cheers to Younger

for growing up so nicely. Buoyed by the dazzling Sutton Foster (pictured, with Peter Hermann) and her to-die-for cast, the gem wrapped its best season by (mostly) shedding Liza's faux-millennial secret and setting the stage for a Team Charles romance plagued by very adult realities. (Season 6 moves to Paramount Network.) Bring. It. On. ★

ASK MATT

BY MATT ROUSH TV Guide Senior Critic

WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT BOSCH?

Question: I am absolutely addicted to Bosch on Prime Video. The work of Titus Welliver is nothing short of perfection, and I would tune in to watch Lance Reddick read the phone book. What are your thoughts? —Rob

Matt Roush: I've been a fan of Michael Connelly's book series for years and was surprised it didn't come to

TV sooner. I agree that Titus Welliver is just about perfect as Harry Bosch, and Lance Reddick makes any show better (Fringe, Lost, The Wire) with his formidable presence. It's a solid adaptation of a terrific franchise and I look forward to each season. That said, I'm not surprised it flies under the Emmy radar. Crime dramas and procedurals, even smartly serialized ones like Bosch, tend to be ignored and/or underestimated in the current drama series boom.

In a simpler and less cluttered time, this would be a standout.

Question: How come the Mary Tyler Moore Show episodes are not in rerun? —Eleanor Matt Roush: In today's digital age, many shows live on through streaming rather than syndication. You can still find many episodes of this beloved series. SundanceTV appears to be the only outlet replaying the episodes on a national basis (and then in the wee hours), and the first three seasons are currently available for streaming on Hulu along with other TV classics.

The Gasoline Tax Hike WON'T Fix Roads

Commentary Karen Juten

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The Gasoline Tax hike won't fix roads. It will go into the General Fund and be spent elsewhere. Just like the last time California raised our gas taxes. The only way that we can get our roads fixed is to have a 100% Lock Box on the Existing Gas Tax.

After repealing this gas tax, we can require that there be a 100% lock-box on the monies. Currently, not a single dime is required to be spent on road repairs and maintenance. That is a giving the State a blank check to be spent on anything they want. If they wanted to fix the roads, they would have designated a special fund to put our money into that could ONLY be spent on road repair. We want to see potholes filled, roads built, and bridges fixed. We want accountability.

The state auditor discovered that more than 3,500 CalTrans employees had no project to work on. CalTrans wasted $500 million dollars a year from this fact alone.

California has a $16 BILLION surplus right now. Why should we be paying more than $700 a year in gas taxes when the state has 16,000 million dollars in SURPLUS?

If we continue at this rate, California will have the highest gas tax in the nation. Today we pay more that $1 more per gallon than most other states (and those states have beautiful roads, by the way). By 2021, we will be paying $2 more per gallon. That adds up to 40 dollars more every time you fill up an average sized gas tank. If it cost you 40$ now it will be 80$ then to fill up your gas tank.

This gas tax not only hit us when we fill up our gas tanks but it hit us when we buy anything at the store. Diesel fuel taxes went up 20 cents a gallon. That means that it costs much more to transport all goods- including food. The cost of living in California is already too high. This new gas, diesel, and car tax makes it even more difficult for families struggling to get by.

Prop 6 requires the voters to approve any future gas taxes, diesel taxes, or vehicle related fee increases. This is the only way to make sure that our hard-earned money pays for road repair and infrastructure. We can require a 100% lockbox on the money to make sure it is spent on asphalt, steel, and concrete workers.

Busy Weekend For Falcon Athletics: Men's, Women's Soccer Both Win; Volleyball Takes 2 Of 3 Matches

Men's Soccer
RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The FLC men opened the busy Friday slate of home athletic events with a dramatic non-conference 2-0 win over Contra Costa on Friday afternoon. Neither team managed to score during the first 90 minutes of play, but Falcon sophomore Arthur de Lima found the goal in stoppage time with a diving header off a corner kick as he narrowly beat the Comets' goalie to the ball. The Falcons had been frustrated all afternoon after controlling possession time by a huge margin, but were repeatedly rejected by the athletic Comets' goalkeeper. The Comets appeared content to sit back and pack the defensive end and it nearly earned them a tie until de Lima came through with his game-winner.
After a brilliant 7-0 start to the season, the Falcons will now focus their attention on Big 8 Conference play, which begins with a trip to Cosumnes River this Friday (Sept 21) afternoon at 4:00 pm.

Women's Volleyball
The Big 8 Conference opener could not have gone much better for the Falcons as they defeated Cosumnes River in straight sets, 25-14, 25-18, 25-23 in Falcon Gym on Friday night. Deonna Robinson again got the Falcons rolling early with six straight service points to give the home team a 7-0 lead. With Kaitlin Bullock and Caitlin Dillon pounding kills and Valerie Hutton and Alicia Wilson blocking the Hawks' attacks, the Falcons were in control most of the night. Setter Kennedy Crawford was stellar as she tallied 21 assists to go with 7 digs. The win improved the Falcons' early season record to 5-0.

On Saturday, the Falcons hosted a three-team tournament that included Hartnell and Butte Colleges in a round-robin format. In the opener against Hartnell, the Falcons lost a close five-set match to the 11th ranked Panthers, 25-23, 18-25, 22-25, 25-22, 8-15. The loss was the first of the 2018 season for the Falcons, but seemed to motivate them for their later match against Butte. The home team got back on track in the their evening match against the Roadrunners with a straight-set victory, 25-20, 25-21, 25-18. Despite the absence of starting setter Kennedy Crawford (quad muscle strain in the early match), the Falcons found their rhythm with Mae Faraimo at setter and Kaitlin Bullock and Alicia Wilson patrolling the net. The 18th-ranked Falcons improved their overall record to 6-1 with the victory.

Leo's Amazing Race Celebrates Superheroes

Story by Trina L. Drotar
Photos courtesy
Sacramento
Children's Museum

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The third annual Leo's Amazing Race takes off on September 30 with a twist. It is the year of the superhero! You've seen them on the big and small screens, in the news, and in the pages of comic books. They are as American as, well, the Sacramento Children's Museum and Rancho Cordova.
This family-friendly, business-friendly event is open to teams of four. One adult over eighteen and one child under eighteen must be on each team, said Meghan Toland, Director of Museum Advancement for Sacramento Children's Museum. For families of five with a child under five years, there is a special deal, she said, for the "tiny team member."

Who can't name a superhero with so many to choose from? There are Superman, Spiderman, Ironman, The Incredible Hulk, Wonder Woman, The Incredibles, Supergirl, Ant-Man, Black Panther, Catwoman, Captain America, Fantastic Four, Daredevil, Elektra, Green Lantern, Hawkeye, Aquaman, Iron-Fist, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, Doctor Strange, Wolverine, and there is Batman. Last on the list doesn't mean he's last on the list for Leo, who Toland describes as a "happy, friendly, green guy." The winning team will ride in a licensed replica of the 1966 Batmobile, just like the one used in the television show that aired from 1966 through 1968 and introduced Batgirl to television audiences.

Teams will compete in challenges in businesses around Rancho Cordova in a sort of home-town, family-oriented version of the television show, but with a Sacramento Children's Museum twist. Teams will begin challenges at Sacramento Children's Museum at 2 p.m. before venturing outside. KP International Market and Whimsy Face Painting and Body Art are again part of the race. Code Ninjas and MOD Pizza are new businesses and new to the race. Other businesses on the schedule are Comics and Collectibles and Amazing Athletes of Northern Sacramento. "It's a really fun way to see people engaging in their business and for us to connect with businesses in the community," said Toland when asked about the business participation.

Get ready for some fun. Past challenges have included food eating, balloon twisting, hula hooping, Leo hockey, dancing, and tricycle racing. What challenges are in store this year?

Toland was tight-lipped about most challenges but said that coding and food tasting were confirmed. To find out, you'll need to register your team with a superhero team name you make up, dress up in your best superhero costumes, and show up ready for whatever curves Leo and company toss your way.
Toland said that the registration fee helps support museum programs and exhibits and gets each participant a post-race barbecue meal and play time at the museum until closing. She's expecting 25 or more teams and said that this is a "really fun event for us and our visitors, and participants have a really great time."
Since its debut in 2015 when heavy rain kept many people from participating, the race has grown and Toland expects growth to continue. Prizes differ each year. To encourage costumes and team names, prizes will be awarded to teams for best team name and best costume. In past years, costumes have included the Big Bad Wolf and the Three Pigs, superheroes, and Leos in all sizes. Teams must have completed all challenges and be back at the museum by 4 p.m. in order to qualify for prizes, including that ride in the 1966 Batmobile replica.

"We love superheroes, our visitors love superheroes, and Leo looks good in a cape," said Toland who also does a good job with a hula hoop. For additional information, visit www.sackids.org/leos-amazing-race. If you go: Sunday, September 30, 2-4 p.m. 2701 Prospect Park, Rancho Cordova. ★

Local Education Leaders Endorse Joshua Hoover for Folsom Cordova School Board

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Joshua Hoover, a candidate for the Folsom Cordova Unified School District Board of Education, announced that he has received endorsements from current Folsom Cordova School Board Members Sarah Aquino, Chris Clark, and Zak Ford.

“I am honored to have the support of our community’s most trusted leaders in education,” said Hoover. “Sarah, Chris, and Zak have faithfully served Folsom Cordova students and families for many years and I look forward to following the example they have set.”

Aquino is the Vice President of the Folsom Cordova School Board and is currently a candidate for Folsom City Council. Clark is a representative from Rancho Cordova who was elected to the board in 2016. Ford has served on the board for the past eight years and is stepping down in 2018 at the end of his current term. There will be two open seats to fill when the election takes place in November.

“I am absolutely confident that Joshua will bring fresh ideas and much needed perspective to the district,” said Clark. “His heart for the students in our community is apparent and I believe he would make an excellent addition to the school board.”

Hoover is a Folsom parent who serves as the policy director for California State Assemblyman Kevin Kiley, developing the Assemblyman’s annual legislative agenda and advising him on education issues. Throughout his time in the State Legislature, Hoover has worked on education reforms to expand access to technology in the classroom and ensure every child has the opportunity to receive a quality education. He is also a member of the Russell Ranch Elementary PTA and serves on the Folsom Cordova Special Education Community Advisory Committee. As the father of a child on the autism spectrum, Hoover said he cares deeply about the integration and outcomes of kids with special needs.
