Air Show Director Darcy Brewer Soars to the Challenge

By Shelly Lembke

MATHER, CA (MPG) - Darcy Brewer, the director of the hugely popular California Capital Airshow (CCA), recently sat for Q&A that was a little unusual. She generally fields questions about the CCA, but offers the public a special insider's look at her position and how she handles her enormous responsibilities.

Q: Can you please tell me about your position with the airshow?

A: My official title is Executive Director, which for an organization with so few staff always seemed a bit funny to me. The image in my head of a non-profit ED usually includes a mop and a variety of cleaning supplies (it's just THAT glamorous). But in reality, this position does have a great amount of responsibility/ accountability as my primary job is keeping everyone together and informed...over 1,000 volunteers, 20+ members of the California Capital Airshow (CCA) Board of Directors, a six-county region of residents.

Q: What does an average day entail on the off-season?

A: Good question, but there never seems to be an 'off season'! With Show preparation taking place two to three years in advance and such a varied duty roster, ya' just never know what's gonna pop up from day to day. Aside from the regularly scheduled meetings we are always surprised with an unexpected opportunity.

Q: What does an average day entail during the event?

Suspect Attacks Officer, K-9, Causes Freeway Shutdown

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - A little after 6:45 p.m., May 8, 2017, the Sheriff's Communication Center received a 911 call regarding an assault that was occurring in the 10800 block of Olson Drive in Rancho Cordova. The caller stated the suspect was hitting and choking a female inside her vehicle, and attempting to pull her out of the vehicle.

A Rancho Cordova Police Officer responded and contacted the 32-year-old male suspect. The suspect walked away from the officer after repeated directives. The suspect began to physically fight with the officer when the officer attempted to detain him. The altercation continued across Olson Drive, and into a parking lot of a motel. During the struggle, the officer fell into a bed of river rock. The suspect picked up a river rock and struck the officer over the head, causing injury. The officer drew his firearm and fired at the suspect.

The suspect fled south towards Highway 50. He was located on the north side of the westbound lanes of Highway 50 by a Sheriff's K-9 Unit and a second patrol deputy. The K-9 was deployed at the suspect. The suspect struck the K-9 with a large rock, and then attempted to strike the deputies. Both deputies fired at the suspect. The suspect was struck by the gunfire. The suspect went to the ground and deputies detained him. They immediately began life saving measures on the suspect. Sacramento Metro Fire responded and transported the suspect to a local hospital. The suspect later succumbed to his injuries and was pronounced deceased at the hospital.

The Rancho Cordova Police officer was transported to a local hospital with head trauma, where he will be treated for his injuries. The K-9 dog was transported to a veterinarian to be treated for wounds incurred during the assault by the suspect.

The identity of the suspect in this case will be made available by the Sacramento County Coroner's office, after notification has been made to his next of kin.

The investigation into the incident will be conducted by the Sheriff's Homicide Bureau and Professional Standards Division, which is standard practice for any officer-involved shooting that occurs in the Sheriff's Department's jurisdiction. Independent review of the officer involved shooting will be conducted by the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office and the Inspector General.

The officers involved in the shooting are 12 year, 11 year, and 9 year veterans of the Sheriff's Department. In accordance with the Sheriff's Department policies and procedures, the officers involved in the shooting will be placed on paid administrative leave pending the investigation. One officer is assigned to the Rancho Cordova Police Department and the other two are assigned to patrol. Source: Sacramento County Sheriff's Department/Rancho Cordova Police Department. ★

Raley's and Sunridge Plaza Coming Soon, Finally

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - After years of waiting and drivers by reading a "Coming Soon" sign at the corner of Douglas Road and Sunrise Boulevard, the retail shopping plaza is well and truly on its way to opening. The commercial development known as Sunridge Plaza, located at the southwest corner of the intersection will offer shoppers around 92,000 square feet of retail and a 40,000 square foot Raley's.

The 13.5 acre site has never been developed before, so architects and builders worked in conjunction with City of Rancho Cordova departments to generate the right feel and aesthetics for the burgeoning neighborhoods that are also being created in the newer developing areas of Rancho Cordova. The project screamed to a halt due to the housing and economic bust that led to California's deep recession, but the City has seen significant turnaround as the economy has recovered and grown. Rancho Cordova

Construction of Sunridge Plaza is well underway, but no opening dates for the Raley's and other parcel retailers have yet to be announced.

City Councilmember David Sander said, "Sunridge Plaza has also become a catalyst for new development. The City has seen significant movement in the nearby area as a result of the center's progress."

The lengthy process of development began in earnest with the public announcement of pending construction back in 2015. Grading plans, frontage and on site improvements

“They not only overcame a lot, but they also gave a new dimension to the U.S. Air Force,” said Rancho Cordova resident Bud Turner after attending the event. “Let’s get these pages back in the history books!”

The point, Crump said, is that you shouldn't quit because you feel you are too far behind others for whatever reason. "If you put the effort in it and it's God's will and you're not trying to do something illegal or immoral, you still can make it, and accomplish something." ★

To her right, a man in a black jacket and a woman in a white robe are watching. Further right, a woman in a yellow jacket and a man in a red jacket are standing. On the far right, a man in a green jacket is holding a green and white striped umbrella. A sign in the foreground reads "COMMUNITY ENHANCEMENT FUND" and "CITY OF CHICAGO". A Little Bit of Kilgore Cemetery History tall grass. Some headstones were vandalized, and some of them disappeared. On occasion, there were scouts who would work on the cemetery, but unfortunately, unless you knew it was there, people would drive by it and not even know it existed. The City Council knew that we had to accept the offer and take on the responsibilities of caring for the cemetery. What an opportunity we were given of working on, repairing, and then being accountable and answerable for a historical site like that. In places such as that, you can walk into history.

After we carefully studied the cemetery, the work began. We rebuilt the sidewalks, the parking, its entrance, and more to make it safe for everyone. Visitors could then spend some quiet time there if they wished to do so. After a few years, the City began looking at the possibilities of using some of the empty property there. Our sub-committee went to other cemeteries to learn how they were taken care of, and how the property was used. While keeping total respect of its' historical areas, we were able to study the empty space of our Cemetery and find the best way to use it.

City Councilman Dan Skoglund was layed to rest there on April 28, 2017. The burial services that were held at Kilgore Cemetery were wonderful. Anyone who goes by the cemetery today is able to look at it and see the reverence, the beauty, and the respect with which it is held.

We may, just by fate, meet someone we think very highly of. Most of us, however, skip the chance and then wish we had made the time. Dexter Perkins said, "History is a kind of introduction to more interesting people than we can possibly meet in our restricted lives; let us not neglect the opportunity." Perhaps you will be fortunate enough to meet a person that you really respect for what they have done or said while they are still alive. But if you don't meet them while they are alive, then as Mr. Perkins said, use history to introduce yourself to them.

From Councilman Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time. ★

Democrats Kill Another Berryhill Attempt at Meaningful Regulatory Reform

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Democrats this week killed a common-sense, regulatory-reform measure authored by Senator Tom Berryhill, R-Twain Harte, which would have started to unwind costly regulatory constraints placed on businesses and individuals in California.

B-181 would have required state agencies to identify and repeal two regulations for every new one created. The California Code of Regulations is 28,000 pages long.

The Berryhill bill would have placed the responsibility of identifying regulations for repeal with the agencies, instead of the Legislature, giving those agencies the freedom to use their regulatory expertise to implement the "one-in, two-out" rule most effectively.

"Something needs to change in this state," Berryhill said. "Businesses are leaving California for friendlier environments, while individuals are frustrated by the government progressively chipping away at their freedoms and their incomes."

Senator Steve Glazer, the Democratic chairman of the Governmental Organization Committee, opposed the measure as an abdication of the Legislature's oversight responsibilities, but graciously offered an olive branch to Berryhill for future attempts at bipartisan regulatory reform.

"It's a little bit of a meat cleaver approach," Glazer said. "I know that comes out of frustration with how things have continued on a path that you're frustrated with. But I don't know if it's the most thoughtful way to look at each one, because each one does matter. I'd love to work with you on finding other ways in which we can deal with this problem. I thank you for your thoughtfulness and leadership on this issue."

Berryhill responded: "I appreciate the chairman's gracious comments and I am eager to work with him on this issue."

Senator Berryhill represents Rancho Cordova and the counties of Amador, Calaveras, Inyo, Mariposa, Mono, Stanislaus, Tuolumne and parts of Fresno, Madera, Sacramento and Tulare.

had to be approved, followed by building permits and the selection and approval of initial businesses to occupy the space. "The City of Rancho Cordova is excited to see construction moving forward on the Sunridge Plaza Shopping Center," remarked Sander. "Sunridge Plaza will provide amenities and shopping options within a short walking, biking, and driving distance for nearby residents. Many new businesses have decided to locate in the center, and we look forward to seeing what additional businesses select Rancho Cordova as their home."

With numerous master planned communities popping up along the Sunrise Boulevard corridor, there will soon be thousands of families and businesses in need of convenient shopping, and the City of Rancho Cordova continues to nurture the businesses that are moving into place to meet those needs.

While Sunridge retail space seems to be filling at a brisk pace, according to the City of Rancho Cordova, the City offers a business fee assistance program which can provide some economic assistance. "The City of Rancho Cordova has a business fee assistance program that provides funds to assist businesses to locate in vacant, underutilized space throughout the City. The program is made possible by a grant from the City of Rancho Cordova's Community Enhancement Fund. Donahue Schriber Realty Group, a commercial real estate developer, received $332,334 as part of the program to support the building and development fees for construction of the new Sunridge Plaza Shopping Center."

The Raley's under construction to include:

- Deli
- Bakery
- Fresh hot foods,

- including a Taco Bar
- Expanded wine, liquor and produce departments
- Expanded produce department
- Café seating area with USB charging stations
- Self-checkouts
- E-Cart department
- Service meat and service seafood department
- Sushi
- Floral department
- Coffee and Espresso

"The City of Rancho Cordova provided a business incentive to help bring the Sunridge Plaza Shopping Center and accompanying Raley's to fruition," said Economic Development Director Curt Haven. "Sunridge Plaza will grow our vibrant community by bringing roughly 30 new businesses and 150 new jobs to Rancho Cordova. The shopping center will provide an upscale atmosphere for the community to meet, dine and shop." ★

Crowdfunding real estate?

Dear Dave,
I'd like to get involved in real estate investing, but I don't have a lot of cash at present. What do you think of the idea of crowdfunding as a way to invest in real estate?
- Adam

Dear Adam,
I've got a bunch of real estate, and I love it. But I wouldn't go the crowdfunding route as a way to get started in real estate investing. I wouldn't give someone money to buy real estate in a crowdfunding scenario, either. The late Beverly Sills had a great saying: "There are no shortcuts to anyplace worth going." Investing in real estate is wonderful when you do it right. Get out of debt first, pay cash, and find great bargains. When you get in a hurry, and do dumb stuff like go into debt or get mixed up with partnerships in the process, real estate's a horrible investment. I admire your ambition, Adam. But I would advise you to follow my lead on this one. You'll be glad you did!

—Dave

How late is too late?

Dear Dave,
How late is too late to get life insurance?
- Anonymous

Dear Anonymous,
It's pretty easy to get term life insurance – the only kind of life insurance I recommend – up until around age 70. Depending on your overall health situation, there are a few affordable policies available past that point. But once you get into your seventies and beyond it can be difficult to find reasonably priced coverage. I recommend that most people have 10 to 12 times their annual income wrapped up in a good, level term life insurance policy. But honestly, you shouldn't need life insurance at 70 or older. If you've been wise with your money, and saved and invested, you should be self-insured by that point. This means having plenty of cash in the bank to cover burial expenses and enough for a spouse to live on after you're gone.

Less Toxic Alternatives for Pest Control

SACRAMENTO

STORMWATER QUALITY PARTNERSHIP

Now that we're getting into the "spring of things", are you seeing more bugs crawling in and around your home or garden? Although pesticides are commonly used to get rid of pests, they can pollute our creeks and rivers. Toxic chemicals in pesticides can be washed away by rain water or sprinkler runoff sending those pollutants into a nearby storm drain. Once in the drain, those toxins end up in a nearby creek or river, which is home to many plants and aquatic life.

Before you reach for that can of bug spray to defend your garden, please consider these less toxic steps to ward off pests:

Know your Friends

Many bugs are not pests and may actually be beneficial because they control other bugs or pollinate flowers. For example ladybugs, both adults and larvae, are known primarily as predators of aphids. Parasitoid wasps are also keen hunters of aphids and caterpillars. You may not like spiders, but they can also be the best sentry to keep your plants safe. Knowing which bugs are friends or pests is the first step in managing pests wisely. The UC Statewide Integrated Pest Management Program (www.ipm.ucanr.edu) offers ideas about natural enemies to pervasive pests.

Less Is More

Chemicals in your yard kill both good and bad bugs. For pest or weeds, use less-toxic or non-toxic methods to keep garden-friendly bugs on your side and unwanted bugs under control. The Our Water Our World Program offers simple ideas online at ourwaterourworld.org. You can also look for convenient eco-friendly options at your local garden or hardware supply store. The Our Water Our World Program partners with stores to help consumers find less-toxic products for use in their homes and gardens.

Attraction is Essential

Attract and keep beneficial bugs in your yard and let them do the work for you! You should plant flowers and shrubs that attract good bugs to your garden. There won't be a need for chemicals when the good bugs can keep the "bad bugs" under control. Unwanted bugs will always be in your garden but a healthy garden filled with good bugs will minimize pests. The UC Statewide Integrated Pest Management Program (www.ipm.ucanr.edu) has dozens of ideas for finding the right plants to control pests around your home and in the garden.

Choose Plants Wisely

Select pest and disease resistant plants as well as plants that attract good bugs to keep a healthy balance of garden friends close by. Plants like rosemary, zinnia and coyote brush make great additions to the yard. Plants that are native to your area will adapt best to the climate, making them stronger and healthier.

Living Sky High Dreams

A: Delightful chaos. 18-20 hour days (for a more than a week, not just the two event days the public sees), media support begins around 4:30am, daily volunteer check-in, ramp inspection when daylight breaks and pilot briefings -- all prior to gates opening for our fabulous fans.

Q: What personal, professional and educational experiences prepared you for where you are now?

A: I can't imagine what could prepare anyone for the juggling act this project requires -- much like many other unique career choices, you just have to jump in and figure it out. Although college gave me the educational foundation needed, I can look back from this vantage point now and see how important the guest experience training and work ethic learned from my jobs as a student have also played a key role.

Shortly after my college years, I went into the event management industry traveling internationally for decades then much later found my true place in the world when I merged the skills acquired from my first career with my lifelong passion for aviation. Of course being a pilot and vigilant with a checklist doesn't hurt with a project of this size and complexity. Who knew a job like this even existed?

Q: Do you fly?
A: I have been flying since I was 17 years old. I truly believe that you will find no greater sense of excitement, adventure, and personal accomplishment than the feeling of your first flight. I will never forget that day nor the encouraging voice in the tower. Finding a way to share this excitement in my work, every single day - is a dream come true.

Q: What was it like for you when you were first hired for this position?

A: Delightful chaos again. There is no training manual for this job and there had never been an Executive Director before. All you can do is jump in, try your best to make good choices and figure it out. In fact, I can tell you I still encounter something new every day and I'm sure the lessons learned will likely never end. Work hard, do your very best, ask for help when you need it.

Q: How do you feel the airshow has changed since you took the helm?

A: Well, I'm not sure the major changes had much to do with me. Someone would have energetically led the team, but it was natural for the event to grow and we were fortunate to have the space to grow BIG. We live in an incredibly patriotic community with an enormous veteran population and deeply dedicated educators who clearly understand how what we do relates to science, technology, engineering and mathematics efforts in the classroom -- and history, too.

The performances, interactive exhibits and displays and educational programs are designed to inspire young minds; spark imagination, teach students something that a book, classroom or museum cannot. This alone is a powerful example of how an Airshow can change the world, one kid at a time.

Q: What are your future goals or vision for the event in the coming years?

A: Honor our past, inspire the future and shine a spotlight on our region. The CCA is an exciting, family-friendly non-profit event designed to honor the Sacramento region's rich aviation heritage and veterans. Using the power and magic of flight to inspire young people to pursue education and careers in science, technology, engineering, math, aviation, aeronautics or aerospace. This nonprofit organization gives back to the community through scholarships, charitable group donations, and exciting educational youth programs throughout the year.

While this 501c3 was originally designed to support an annual scholarship, this non-profit organization has grown to serve in a variety of other ways. Ultimately, we hope to reach an endowment level for STEM, Aviation and Aerospace scholarships that will serve and assist the students from our region for many years to come.

Q: Please tell me about you. Where did you grow up and what was that like for you (city, state, family, etc.)?

A: I am a California girl, born in San Francisco. My parents retired to Roseville which brought me to this area more than 12 years ago. I have two remarkable sisters, a brother that I adore and a gaggle of brilliant nieces and nephews. We are all very different from each other and so very close.

Q: How would you describe yourself as a child? As a teen? As a high school student?

A: I was very quiet as a student; I read all the time and had a wild imagination.

Q: What did you want to be when you grew up?

A: A lawyer, a veterinarian, a marine- biologist, a horse trainer, a travel writer and explorer. What I did know is that I would have a hard time sitting still and being inside in an office every day.

Q: You are a professional woman in a very prominent role in this community. What is that like for you?

A: Prominent? Me? Nah. What I do is fun and meaningful. It's a labor of love. It's hard work, we get tired, dehydrated, sunburned and there are never enough hours in the day, but If you could see the smiles on the faces of the kids who come out, the tears of the WWII veterans who are moved by the tribute performances we produce each year, then you would want to be me when you grow up regardless of the long hours and never-ending challenges.

Q: What do you like to do in your free time? How do you recharge your batteries?

A: I fly. Sometimes to actually go somewhere. Sometimes just to go up. I am rarely indoors and enjoy 'chore-therapy' keeping my small hobby farm with some pretty darned cute animals, a greenhouse and garden -- love to cook and surround myself with lots of books. Also, I rarely go anywhere without George, my extraordinary Border Collie.

Q: What inspires you to get out of bed each morning?

A: I never know what will cross my path from day to day and that is exciting. Who will I meet? What new program will we develop to serve our community or for kids to knock their socks off and encourage them to reach for the stars, fear nothing and know no limits or boundaries.

Q: What is your favorite part of your job?

A: Too much to list. The Show itself is too thrilling for words, but the kid's programs throughout the year are the most meaningful to me. I get to spend time with them, get to know their stories, hopes and dreams -- who they are and what they want to become. I see their faces light up as they climb in a plane for the very first time or meet a hero or legend that has used their education to literally change the world. It is magical what happens; to watch their imaginations soar right in front of my eyes. ★

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Aerojet Rocketdyne, Inc., a subsidiary of Aerojet Rocketdyne Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: AJRD), has successfully completed hot-fire qualification tests of an engine that demonstrates the ability to meet reusability requirements for Boeing's Crew Space Transportation (CST)-100 Starliner crew module propulsion system. The tests were conducted on Aerojet Rocketdyne's MR-104J hydrazine monopropellant engine in Redmond, Washington. For NASA service missions to the International Space Station, Boeing's Starliner spacecraft will carry up to four astronauts and time-critical scientific research.

"Our engineers have incorporated a unique design that will allow the MR-104 engine to be used on multiple missions, providing the reliability, cost-efficiency and reusability our customer needs to be competitive in the current commercial space environment," said Aerojet

Rocketdyne CEO and President Eileen Drake. "We look forward to delivering the engines for the crew module and continuing our proud heritage of enabling astronauts to fly to the International Space Station from U.S. soil."

The Starliner crew module propulsion system will use 12 MR-104J engines for reaction control to orient the vehicle during re-entry into the Earth's atmosphere. Prior to re-entry, attitude control is provided by the Service Module Engines, also provided by Aerojet Rocketdyne.

The MR-104J, designed by Aerojet Rocketdyne, was developed and tested under the company's Commercial Crew Transportation Capability (CCtCap) subcontract to Boeing. Similar to other reaction control system engines, the MR-104J includes additional features to increase redundancy that meet critical requirements and improved strength to withstand multiple shocks at operating temperatures. The engine upgrades also provide reusability for Boeing as it certifies Starliner crew modules for multiple missions. Under the CCtCap subcontract to Boeing, Aerojet Rocketdyne will provide propulsion system hardware that includes Crew Module Reaction Control engines; Launch Abort Engines, Orbital Maneuvering and Attitude Control thrusters, and Service Module Reaction Control System thrusters. Boeing will assemble propulsion hardware into the Starliner spacecraft at its Commercial Crew and Cargo Processing Facility at NASA's Kennedy Space Center in Florida.

Aerojet Rocketdyne is an innovative company delivering solutions that create value for its customers in the aerospace and defense markets. The company is a world-recognized aerospace and defense leader that provides propulsion and energetics to the space, missile defense and strategic systems, tactical systems and armaments areas, in support of domestic and international markets. Mark is a CA state worker and his wife is full time mother. For a few years They had discussed starting thier own business but had no idea how the franchise model worked. They wanted to find a business that could help increase thier income; but more importantly, help build a nice retirement plan down the road. Mark spent a lot of time researching online and cold calling corporate franchise offices on thier own and found it very difficult to navigate. Then his mother in-law introduced them to Louis McNerney from The Entrepreneur's Source.

After our first meeting, Lou started to match us with what we were looking for. I was amazed with The Entrepreneur's Source database of companies looking for people like us. They had models from every price range and a wide variety of business concepts. Right away we were interested in a few models, but we kept coming back to one specific model.

Once we made our first contact with the Fantastic Sam's model, we felt it was a perfect fit. Lou was there every step of the way to answer questions and joined us on our discovery call to help us get clarification and address questions we hadn't thought off. Lou helped us bridge that gap we didn't know how to cross to make our dream a reality. My wife and I took a slower approach to sign our franchise agreement. However, we are very confident in our franchise choice

Our journey was a full circle. The first place Lou and I met, a local Starbuck's, was the same place my wife and I signed our franchise agreement with Fantastic Sam's corporate representatives. Thank you Entrepreneur's Source. Most of all, thank you Lou McNerney for your help, energy, passion and communication skills that people like us with no business experience need!

COLOMA, CA (MPG) - On May 20, 2017, California Pioneer History Day is coming back to Marshall Gold Discovery State Historic Park in Coloma. Admission is free, State parking fee is $8 per car. The event opens at 9 a.m. and closes at 3 p.m., with parade at 10 a.m. It is sponsored by the California Pioneer Heritage Foundation and The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Visitors are encouraged to get into the spirit with period costume, if they wish.

Last year more than 5,000 people enjoyed the Day and new features have been added, to include a larger area of activities and events in the park. A log cabin will actually be erected during the day in real time, and will be donated to the Park.

Historic displays and exhibits will demonstrate how the pioneers met their needs, how they traveled and cooked and laundered their clothes. There will be periodic black powder musket firings, and the firing of a replica of the cannon purchased from Captain John Sutter in 1848. Special occasional firings of the "Candy Cannon" will shoot candy to gathered kids, who can also join in with pioneer games. There will be free wagon rides.

Visitors can try their skills making bricks, candles, dolls and other crafts, try quilting and roast a biscuit on a stick. Families can bring food to eat at the picnic area or purchase food at several food stands.

After the parade at 10 a.m., certificates of special recognition will be presented at the stage area, and VIPs introduced.

Then will come the entertainment, which will be continuous from around 10:30 a.m. until 3 p.m. Jeri Clinger, co-founder with her husband Richard of the Galena Street East singing and dancing troop, is one of the organizers of the entertainment for California Pioneer History Day. "Singers will sing songs of that period, ones they might have been singing at some of the mining camps," Clinger said. There will be dancing, musical numbers, and other types of entertainment in two locations on the grounds

The setting at the Marshall Gold Discovery State Historic Park in Coloma is the historic spot of John Sutter's sawmill, where gold was discovered in 1848. "It's a very family oriented day," Clinger said. "It's ideal to help people in California feel the pioneer heritage here."

FAIR OAKS CEMETERY

19th ANNUAL MEMORIAL DAY EVENT SATURDAY, MAY 27TH, 2017 @ 10:00AM

100th Year Anniversary

The Fair Oaks Cemetery District and the Memorial Day Ceremony Committee are finalizing plans for one of the most popular and inspiring Memorial Day events in the area.

The Nineteenth Annual Memorial Day and Avenue of Flags Ceremony will be held Saturday, May 27, at the Fair Oaks Cemetery, located at 7780 Olive Street, Fair Oaks. The formal ceremonies start at 10 AM. This year's theme is to remember the 100th year Anniversary of the United States' entry into the "Great War" and to honor our Veterans of World War 1, "The War to end all wars," of whom there are eighty-six known veterans buried in the Fair Oaks Cemetery.

Chairman of the Fair Oaks Cemetery District Memorial Day Committee, Tom Askins will be the Master of Ceremonies. The main speaker(s) will focus on the history, facts and results of the United States entry into this war.

The Fair Oaks Cemetery will be decorated with hundreds of flags lining its roadways as "The Avenue of Flags." We will also be adding more names to the Veterans Memorial Wall. The laying of the wreath at the memorial in honor of over eighteen hundred veterans who are buried in the cemetery, will be done by VFW Post 6158 and American Legion Post 383.

The musical program will consist of Pipers, a Drummer and Recorded Music by a local Disc Jockey. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the ceremony by the Orangevale/ Fair Oaks Grange & Fair Oaks Historical Society.

The Fair Oaks Cemetery's Memorial Day Ceremony is a fine example of how we, the community, remember loved ones and say thank you to our veterans and their families for their sacrifices.

Grand Opening of State-of-the-Art, Water-Wise Demonstration Gardens at Howe Park

By SSWD

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The public is invited to the Grand Opening Ceremony and Celebration of the Gardens at Howe Park, the Sacramento region's newest water-wise demonstration garden, on Saturday, May 13 at 10:00 a.m. at Howe Park in Sacramento.

The celebration will include a ribbon-cutting ceremony, guided tours, workshop demonstration on highefficiency sprinklers and free gift bags filled with gardening tools for the first 100 attendees.

"We're excited to open our newest demonstrations gardens and highlight the variety of ways people can have beautiful landscapes that are river-friendly and low-water," said Greg Bundesen, Sacramento Suburban Water District's (SSWD) Water Conservation Supervisor.

The Gardens at Howe Park are truly unique in that they showcase four, state-of-the-art, low-water use demonstration landscapes, including:

Sensible Switchover – represents the layout of most Sacramento residential front yards but features low-water plants and low-maintenance solutions perfect for our region's climate.

Wilder Wonders – a wilder, less structured garden filled with color and texture that is designed to provide food and shelter for birds, butterflies and bees.

Water Works – a working rain garden that shows how plants can take in, filter and hold water in the soil.

Effortless Edibles – featuring low-water edibles and aromatics that can provide lots of goodies for your table, and color for your home.

Each of the gardens will feature informational signage that identifies all of the landscape's waterefficient features and plants used.

SSWD customers helped transform the site during hands-on workshops on sustainable landscaping techniques taught by EcoLandscape California instructors.

The project is presented in partnership by SSWD, Fulton-El Camino Recreation and Park District and EcoLandscape California, which served as project manager and provided instruction for hands-on workshops, and is part of the District's ongoing commitment to promoting wise water use and investing in the community.

IRS Tips on What to do After the Tax-Filing Deadline

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Tax day has come and gone for most people, but some taxpayers may still be dealing with their taxes. The IRS offers these tips for handling some typical after-tax-day issues:

Didn't File by April 18?

There is no penalty for filing a late return after the tax deadline if the taxpayer receives a refund. Penalties and interest only accrue on unfiled returns if taxes are not paid by April 18. Anyone who did not file and owes tax should file a return as soon as they can and pay as much as possible to reduce penalties and interest. IRS Free File is available on IRS.gov to prepare and file returns electronically through October 16.

"Where's My Refund?"

The "Where's My Refund?" tool is available on IRS.gov, IRS2Go and by phone at 800-829-1954. Taxpayers need specific information to use the "Where's My Refund?" tool. That information includes the primary Social Security number on the return, the filing status (Single, Married Filing Jointly, etc.) and the amount of refund.

Changing Withholding?

Events – like a change in marital status – during the year may change the exemptions, adjustments, deductions or credits a taxpayer expects to claim on next year's return. Employees can use the IRS's online Withholding Calculator to figure and then adjust their withholding by filling out a new Form W-4, normally with the company's personnel office. Taxpayers who do not have taxes withheld from their pay or don't have enough tax withheld, may need to make estimated tax payments. Taxpayers who are self-employed normally need to make estimated payments that can be adjusted to avoid a balance due in the future.

Need to View a Tax Account Balance or Make a Payment?

Taxpayers who owe taxes can view their balance, pay with IRS Direct Pay, by debit or credit card or apply for an online payment agreement. Before accessing your tax account online, you must authenticate your identity through the Secure Access process. Several other electronic payment options are available on IRS.gov/payments. They are secure and easy and taxpayers receive immediate confirmation when they submit their payment.

Need to Fix an Error on a Return?

Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, must be filed by paper and is available on IRS.gov/forms at any time. Do not file an amended return before the original return has been processed. Taxpayers should file an amended tax return to change the filing status, or correct income, deductions or credits. The IRS generally corrects math errors and mails a request for any missing documents. Use "Where's My Amended Return?" tool to track the status of your amended return. It will take up to three weeks after mailing the return to show up in the IRS system. Processing can take up to 16 weeks.

Need Help Responding to an IRS Notice or Letter?

An IRS notice or letter will explain the reason for the contact and give instructions on how to handle the issue. Most questions can be answered by visiting the "Understanding Your Notice or IRS Letter," on IRS.gov. Taxpayers can call the phone number included in the notice if they still have questions. Taxpayers have fundamental rights under the law. The "Taxpayer Bill of Rights" presents these rights in 10 categories. This helps taxpayers when they interact with the IRS. Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, highlights a list of taxpayer rights and the agency's obligations to protect them. If normal IRS channels don't solve the problem, the Taxpayer Advocate Service is available at 877-777-4778.

Watch Out for Scams

Aggressive and threatening phone calls by criminals impersonating IRS agents remain an ongoing threat to taxpayers. The IRS will never contact a taxpayer via e-mail, text or social media. Any e-mail that appears to be from the IRS about a refund or tax problem is probably an attempt by scammers to steal information. Forward the e-mail to phishing@irs.gov. The first IRS contact with taxpayers on a tax issue will be by mail. Source: Internal Revenue Service

Commercial Food Waste in its Right Place

Sacramento Area Businesses Begin Food Waste Recycling Program

Local restaurants and food providers get on board with WasteRight Sacramento to comply with new state law – Assembly Bill 1826

Local businesses are tackling greenhouse gas emissions with WasteRight Sacramento, a new program to help businesses recycle food waste. All business that produce four (4) cubic yards or more per week of organic waste are required to recycle this material. Businesses such as restaurants, bakeries, grocery stores, hotels, schools, and food distributors, are in some cases now regulated by this new law.

Organic waste, including food waste, are recyclable through composting, mulching, animal feed and by using anaerobic digestion to produce renewable energy. All of these methods to reuse organics contribute to a strong and sustainable economy in the Sacramento region.

Annually, commercial waste haulers in the Sacramento area collect approximately 450,000 tons of commercial garbage. Organic waste, including food waste, makes up 15% of that amount, and is the largest single contributing source to landfills. As food waste decomposes in the landfill it releases potent greenhouse gasses, especially methane that contributes to climate change.

The California Department of Resources Recycling and Recovery notes that 15 percent of America's food waste could annually feed more than 25 million people.

Separate FOOD WASTE from other waste & recycling

Food Waste Means

- Uneaten or Discarded Food
- Vegetables
- Fruit
- Meat
- Bread
- Coffee Grounds
- Tea Bags

Instead of heading to the landfill FOOD WASTE CAN BE USED FOR

WHY we CARE

Organic waste is the single largest material disposed of in our landfills and a major generator of greenhouse gases. Wasteright's goal is to divert food waste for sustainable use instead of sending it to a landfill. Let's make it happen!

WHAT IS FOOD WASTE?

Food waste includes:

- Fruit
- Vegetables
- Meat
- Bread
- Coffee grounds
- Tea bags

WHAT IS ORGANIC WASTE?

Organic waste also includes, plant debris and:

- Food-soiled paper products such as:

CORDOVA SPORTS

Lancers Lose SVC Finale

By Mike Bush

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - One more Sierra Valley Conference win was all that was needed.

But that would not come to pass for the Cordova High School baseball team and its aspirations to earn a Sac-Joaquin Section Division IV playoff berth. Hosting Liberty Ranch in the SVC finale on May 5th, the visiting Hawks swoop past the Lancers 6-0.

The loss put Cordova (7-8 in the SVC, 10-13) in fourth place behind Union Mine (8-7 in the SVC, 16-10), which beat Rosemont 12-7 also on May 5th to grab the final play-off berth. Liberty Ranch (14-1 in the SVC, 20-6) won the conference title and El Dorado (11-4 in the SVC, 19-7) second place. The conference sends the top three schools into the D-IV playoffs, which starts on Monday.

“Plain and simple, we got beat by an outstanding pitcher,” said Cordova head coach Doug Hughes of the Hawks’ Corey Potthoff, who went the distance in the game. “He located the ball well and kept our hitters off balance.”

The Lancers had four hits in the game; Logan Appino, along with Trevor Ready, Zack Guererro and Jeremy Buck, had a hit each. But Cordova was unable to generate runs.

“We had a couple of chances to score but just didn’t get the hit we needed,” Hughes said.

Liberty Ranch’s hits were limited to six in the game. Potthoff struck out one in his quest in shutting out the Lancers.

“The boys were upset about the loss and not making the playoffs,” said Hughes, “but all they wanted was a chance to get into the playoffs, and that’s what we had. Last year, we still had a shot at the playoffs with two weeks left and this year we came within a game. I’m proud of all the kids and the progress we’ve made.”

Going back to the Lancers’ first practice in February, Hughes reflected back on the team’s progress from that point to battling Union Mine for the conference’s final play-off berth.

“At the beginning of our first practice I asked the kids what their goals were for the season,” recalled Hughes. “In past experiences, the answers I would get would be ‘I want to hit .350, I want to have an 8-0 record as a pitcher, I want to hit 10 home runs or I want to have 40 hits.’ With these kids it’s not I, it was we. We want to win one game, we want to play as a team, we want to win league and we want to make the playoffs. These kids aren’t about themselves, they are about the team.”

Cordova 5, Liberty Ranch 0

The Lancers put themselves into the SVC finale with a win over the Hawks at Galt Community Park on May 4th.

Cordova outhit Liberty Ranch 6-3. Appino and Buck had two hits each for the Lancers, and Colby McDonald had the other. Appino and Buck, along with Spencer Gudgel, had an RBI each.

On the mound, Ryan Tipton went the distance for the Lancers. He struck out three and walked three. ★

Strong Showings at SVC Trials for Lancers

By Mike Bush

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - On Tuesday, the Cordova High School track and field program had strong showings at the Sierra Valley Conference trials at Rosemont High School.

Entering the conference’s finals, which were held yesterday, Thursday, the Lancers’ varsity boys were led by Andrew Roberts, who won the 400 meters with a time of 53.05 seconds. He also took first place in the long jump at 21 feet, 4.25 inches.

Other top finishers for the Lancers were Elijah Morgera, Bryan Estrada and Adam Holman. Morgera took second in the 200 meters at 23.83 seconds and third in the 100 meters at 11.61. Estrada was fifth in the 100 meters at 11.73. Holman competed in the 110 hurdles, taking second place as he was clocked at 17.09.

For the Lady Lancers, Faaulga Toelee was second in the shot put at 36 feet, 2 inches. Ambiance Jackson was sixth in the same event at 29 feet, 10.50 inches.

Advancing to the conference’s finals were Carla Donis in the 100 meters. On Tuesday, she took seventh at 13.76. She also took seventh in the 200 meters at 28.71, and sixth place in the high jump at 4 feet, 2 inches. Bri Anna Samuel was eighth in the latter event at 28.86.

The top eight in each event advanced to Thursday’s finals, except for all field events and the frosh-soph boys and girls’ 3200 meter races.

The top four in each varsity boys and girls’ events advance to the Sac-Joaquin Section Division IV-V meet, which will be held at California State University, Stanislaus in Turlock next Tuesday with the trials and next Thursday with the finals. ★

Berryhill's Fishing License Bill Unanimously Approved

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - A bill authored by California Senator Tom Berryhill, R-Twain Harte, to promote fishing for all Californians unanimously passed the Senate Natural Resources and Water Committee on Tuesday, April 25th.

Currently, fishing licenses are based on a calendar-year cycle, with no extra time or prorated rates given for purchases made later in the season. SB-187, which is supported by groups representing nearly every type of Californian, would make fishing licenses valid for 12 months from the time of the purchase.

“Fishing is important for so many Californians,” Berryhill said. “From anglers who love the sport to people just trying to feed their families, this bill would improve the quality of life for our constituents.”

Recreational fishing contributes more than $4.6 billion annually to California's economy. It is a major source of outdoor tourism, jobs and tax revenue for state and local governments. But sales have plummeted as rates have increased.

In 1980, when licenses were a reasonable $5, California sold more than 2.2 million licenses. Today, the base price for an annual fishing license has skyrocketed to $47.01, while the number of annual licenses sold has decreased a staggering 55 percent.

California has over 2.7 million anglers, yet there is a growing concern that the unprecedented decline in California's fishing sales will threaten funding for fishery and conservation programs, as well as millions of federal dollars tied to the number of licenses sold.

SB187 enjoys a broad coalition of support that includes sport, labor, business, tourism and citizen groups.

“This bill just makes sense,” Berryhill said. “Any bill that unites labor unions, state and local chambers of commerce, anglers, tourism groups and everyday Californians is ready to become law.”

Senator Berryhill represents Rancho Cordova and the counties of Amador, Calaveras, Inyo, Mariposa, Mono, Stanislaus, Tuolumne and parts of Fresno, Madera, Sacramento and Tulare. ★

2016-17 Falcon Athletes Honored in 3rd Athletic Awards Night

The Folsom Lake College athletic department honored their outstanding student athletes and teams Wednesday night during the 3rd annual Athletic Awards Night at the Harris Center Stage One.

Dean/Athletic Director Matt Wright emceed the hour-long event, which included recognition of the 2017 graduating student-athletes, the Scholar Athletes (3.0 GPA or better in-season), and the athletic department’s featured awards: the Scholar Team Award, the Fighting Falcon Award, the Male & Female Athlete of the Year, and finally, the “Falcon of the Year.” Also highlighted was the “Year in Pictures” slide show/video with action and still shots of athletes from all eight FLC sports teams.

Jose Muñoz is an amazing example of what people can do went they want something bad enough. He is the father of two young children, goes to FLC during the day, practices soccer in the afternoon, spends some time with his children

Karina Torres was FLC’s first ever All-American award winner, earning national recognition after her two outstanding seasons at FLC. She was a two-time all-conference winner, named to the CCCAA all-region team, the CCCAA all-state team, and was also a scholar athlete. In her two years at FLC, she scored 25 goals to go along with her 15 assists.

She will attend and play soccer at Chico State on a scholarship in the fall.

Carson McCusker rewrote the record books during his just-completed freshman year at FLC, batting .371 with 15 doubles, 5 triples, 10 home runs, scored 40 runs and had 50 RBI’s. He also finished with an absurd slugging percentage of .694. As a right fielder, his arm was feared by opponents who learned to not try to run on him. On top of all that, his fall semester GPA was 3.5 and he is on track for a 4.0 this spring.

The Falcon of the Year Award is based upon a combination of athletic achievement, academic success, and college/community service. Hannah O’Donnell was instrumental in helping the Falcons reach the state Final Four while scoring nine goals during the 2016 season, earned All-Big 8 Conference, has maintained a 3.5 GPA while at FLC, and has volunteered her time for Folsom Soccer Club’s “Top Soccer” program, which provides activities for local youth with physical and/or mental disabilities. Hannah has accepted an athletic scholarship to continue her collegiate soccer career at Abilene Christian University (Texas) in the fall.
