RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - A new exhibit of fine art is open for viewing now through July 30 at Rancho Cordova City Hall, with the theme "Black and White". The Artists Reception was held in the opening week of the show, on April 13.

Black and white work lines the walls, the medium varying nearly as much as the subject matter with the vision of each individual artist. Pieces by artist Heather McCray demonstrated graphic pen and ink lines with pencil to add depth. McCray likes fantasy and is drawn to mythical creatures and fairies. She took a class in Zentangle, a method that involves making detailed designs by the use of repetitive line and pattern work. "The idea is that you're zoning out," McCray said. "You're reaching a Zen state with this way of kind of tangling your lines and creating these patterns." She decided to try combining the sharp, more realistic work with the Zentangle style and showed her results in her three works at the show, titled The Manticore, The Huntress, and Hidden Beauty.

McCray's interest in art was awakened when she was 6 years old by Mrs. Goldsmith, her art teacher from kindergarten through 8th grade. "We'd suddenly start seeing all these colors, or we'd start seeing

Patrouille de France Soars High at Mather

By Shelly Lembke

MATHER, CA (MPG) - Mather Airport played host last Saturday, April 15 to France's top military pilots when the "Patrouille de France" came to town. A crowd of at least 5,000 spectators and French and American dignitaries turned out to see the French pilots and aircraft perform during the historically significant show.

The Mather event was the only west coast appearance of the French Air Force's elite military jet demonstration team, during its 8 U.S. city run. The day was sponsored by the City of Rancho Cordova and the California Capital Airshow (CCA). The Patrouille de France, in conjunction with the City and CCA, orchestrated the single performance in honor of the 100th anniversary of the US entering World War I, and as a lead in to the centennial celebrations of

Mitchell Middle School Student Volunteer Recognized

Young Man Who Has Given Finally Gets

By Shelly Lembke

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The Cordova Community Council recently awarded Rancho Cordova student Anthony Lacayo at the group's 18th Annual Volunteer Awards in March. Lacayo attends Mitchell Middle School and has served as a volunteer for the last three years during the Folsom Cordova Unified School District's Family Engagement Summer Academy.

Lacayo first attended the Academy himself as an elementary school student, and decided to give back to the community once he was old enough. "He decided to volunteer to make a difference for elementary students in the program," according to Kathy Escobar, Multimedia Communications Specialist for the Folsom Cordova Unified School District.

Since then he has spent most of his last few summers as part of the Counselor in Training (CIT) program, a feature of the district's program design.

"Anthony is the reason why we created the CIT component of the summer program," said Linda Burkholder, the district's Director of Family Engagement and Support Services. "We now have more than 20 middle and high school students serving as CITs every summer. The younger students in the Summer Academy often tell me they want to be CITs like 'Mr. Anthony' when they get to middle school. He inspires his younger siblings and peers to get involved in science."

In addition to his many hours of volunteer work as a CIT for the school district, Lacayo has managed to find time to help with another integral organization in Rancho Cordova, the Police Activities League (PAL). Escobar elaborated on the law enforcement group's appreciation of Lacayo's service. "PAL is sending him to a leadership conference in southern California in the summer, in recognition of his passion for service and his work on the Youth Leadership Council."

The Family Engagement Summer Academy offered by the Folsom Cordova Unified School District is geared to help families grow together by using "reading, science, games and fun adventures," says the district's website. The summer day camp is funded in part by grants and donations from the community. It provides recreational opportunities, hands-on art and science projects, reading, technology, field trips and includes a Parent Academy with activities for adults, too. ★

Meet the Machines at Mather Sports Center

Kid-Friendly Fun for the Whole Family

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The Mather Sports Center and the Cordova Recreation and Parks District (CRPD) are bringing a unique tactile experience to area youngsters. The free event, Meet the Machines, features more than 30 distinct machines and vehicles for kids to come and explore.

"This free event allows children of all ages to learn about the vehicles they see on the road and television every day. Some examples include fire trucks, police vehicles, ambulances, helicopters, tow trucks, garbage trucks, school buses, Segways and military vehicles," according Vivian Vivian Cazanis, Communications Manager for the Cordova Recreation and Park District.

Kids are invited to touch, climb and explore each unique machine, but there's more, according to Cazanis. "In addition to machines, children can visit the Kids Zone filled with bounce houses, games, balloon animals and face painting. The first hour of the event is horn-free to accommodate children with special needs and sensitive ears," she said.

Now an annual event, this year the exhibit takes place Saturday, May 13 from 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Mather Sports Center, 3755 Schriever Avenue, Mather. For more information, contact the CRPD at 916-842-3300 or visit their website at www.crpdc.com. ★

Walnutwood Teacher Receives Award

By Shelly Lembke

Rancho Cordova, CA (MPG) - Walnutwood school instructor Jessica Cisneros-Elliott teaches students a little differently than most of her peers do and she was recently recognized for her abilities and talents by local media outlet ABC10 as their Teacher of the Month.

Cisneros-Elliott is an independent study teacher at the Folsom Cordova Unified School District's (FCUSD) alternative education school Walnutwood. It is her ability to motivate her students that has drawn praise for her efforts. Independent study students work largely on their own outside of a classroom environment. Keeping them engaged and involved while being responsible for advancing their own educational goals, can be challenging.

"Ms. Cisneros-Elliott embodies the very best of our teachers: She has the ability to find what is important to individual students, then inspires them to continue reaching for their goals," said FCUSD Superintendent Deborah Bettencourt.

A well-seasoned instructor, Cisneros-Elliott has been with the FCUSD for seven years, spending the last six at Walnutwood. "We're so proud that she is being recognized for her hard work and dedication to student achievement." ★

Folsom Zoo Sanctuary Gets a Hand

FCUSD Student Project Benefits Animals

By Shelly Lembke

Rancho Cordova (MPG) - Last fall, Folsom High teacher Pam Goldman led 30 of her students to the Folsom Zoo Sanctuary in pursuit of learning. The students are part of the Principles of Engineering (POE) class that she teaches. The visit to the Folsom Zoo was part of the course curriculum, allowing students to begin designing habitats and providing enrichment items for animals living at the facility. Once the design review phase is complete, students will move on to the building and installation of their individual design projects at the Zoo.

"Students created a detailed design proposal including CAD drawings and supply lists and they recently met with engineers for the review of their designs," stated Goldman. The yearlong Zoo Project, which is funded by grants, is designed to teach students about identifying the animals' needs while utilizing their engineering skills, according to Folsom Cordova Unified School District (FCUSD) spokesperson Kathy Escobar.

"This project is an example of the kind of engaging, hands-on learning opportunities our schools and teachers provide," said Kathryn Allaman, FCUSD Assistant Superintendent of Secondary Education. "Thanks to community partnerships and initiatives that support programs like this, these students are applying the knowledge they gain in the classroom with real-world experience, while also making a tangible impact in the community." ★ shadows, or we'd start seeing other aspects of things," McCray said. "Her penchant for getting you to open your eyes, and how to see the world, and how to translate that into art, was just phenomenal."

Robin Moyher's black and white mosaic in this show also featured Zentangle – in fact, that was its title. Moyher's commissioned work, Serenity, was unveiled recently at the VA Medical Center at Mather. Other artists in this show have incorporated Zentangle into their work, including Rick Sloan of the Cordova Recreation and Park District Board with his pen and ink art titled, Whimsical Journey.

Ann Greitzer's three realistic pen and ink portraits brought her into this show for the first time. In fact, she had not been in a show since her art college days. Greitzer said she looked around at what artists were doing now and one of those things was urban sketching: going out into the urban environment with easel or sketchbook and drawing what is there. "What's even harder than that?" Greitzer asked herself. "To me, what's harder than that is trying to draw the human figure accurately. It takes years to be able to do." So that's what she is working on now.

Chief Counsel for the Board of Parole Hearings.

Greitzer pointed out that a lot of artists prepare to make a living in some other field than art, and return to art later in life. "So I'm kind of getting back into what I used to do when I was a young girl," Greitzer said. "Then I used to draw every day and I really loved it." She said she now spends about an hour and a half each day practicing art, working it around her family life and her job at Franklin Templeton.

The local art community will hold an interactive workshop for artists 7-8:30 p.m., Monday, May 15, at City Hall. Artists are invited to bring a sample of their work – framed, unframed, finished or in progress. And Another Thing ...

McGarvey. They were surprised like the other jet teams who are all actually welcomed by elected officials. The main focus of the Patrouille de France pilots, and Guy Michelier, Consul Honoraire de France Sacramento, was to commemorate 100 years ago in which these two allies, the U.S. and France, fought together against Germany in WWI. As they flew, the show displayed more color in the sky than was really expected, and the weather was perfect for the show. We were only one of eight places in the whole country where they performed. It was quite an honor.

Onto another thing, and that is the shrinking number of Members of Congress who have a military background. In 2013, there were 85 veterans of the 435 Members of Congress, and only 19 veterans of the 100 United States Senators. It will be interesting to see how much support the VA and our veterans in general will receive now that the presidential election is over. I am looking for the number of veterans who are in the 2017-2018 Congressional seats. When I get those numbers, they will be passed on to you.

When was the last time you were able to look for a moment at the smile of a child? Our granddaughter can be looking at a bird or a garbage truck, and why a garbage truck is so great to a 22-month-old child I don't know, but that and maybe a cartoon will bring on that smile. Children that young and who are able to enjoy such simple things, makes me glad I can see her. Her face is like a porcelain doll when she is smiling. You have to cherish moments like that, and then you must go on. But like Dr. Seuss said, "Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened."

Another thing that can be enjoyed (or not) is the rain, which doesn't seem to want to quit until more records are reached and then beaten. We'll have to wait a while before this rainy season is over, but when you are talking about October 1 through September 30, then there are still over five months to go before all is said and done. Hopefully, when the snow begins to melt, the water will be handled with some care instead of letting our reservoirs go almost empty. Some of the governments' prophets who make predictions and then decisions like that don't help anyone. Keep your fingers crossed that the melting snow won't cause any damage, nor will it be wasted away. I guess I can end with a quote from Albert Einstein, "Two things are infinite: the universe and human stupidity; and I'm not sure about the universe."

From Councilman Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time. ★

There are so many things that could be the focus of attention in this column, but since there are so many, I decided to pick a few. So here goes.

First, let's talk about this last weekend in which we were privileged to welcome the "Patrouille de France" Aerobatic Demonstration Team. Their performance was superb and different from the other flyers who have come to Rancho Cordova and have been part of the "California Capital Airshow" at Mather Airport. Each one has their own way of distinguishing themselves from others. The Patrouille de France had eight jets that performed. As you know, the "Thunderbirds" has six jets, the "Snowbirds" from Canada has nine jets, the "Blue Angels" has six jets, and the "Patriots" also has six jets.

The French team arrived on Thursday night, and there were three City Council Members who were there to welcome them: Mayor Donald Terry, Vice Mayor Linda Budge, and myself, Councilman Bob

Soaring High at Mather

Mather Air Field, which opened in 1918.

The Patrouille de France flies Dassault/Dornier Alphas, used as light attack jets in combat and also training missions. The planes have been co-developed and manufactured in France by Dassault Aviation and Dornier Flugzeugwerke in Germany. Other craft were also on display for visitors to see up close, as well as a variety of exhibits. Food trucks and merchandise to commemorate the event were available for purchase.

California Capital Airshow Executive Director Darcy Brewer called the event, "a tribute from our French allies to the American heroes of World War I and a rare opportunity to experience this world class air force up close and personal."

The Patrouille de France performance serves as a herald for this year's 2017 California Capital Airshow, taking place September 9 and 10 at Mather. The CCA was established in 2004 and is dedicated to community enrichment and educational youth programs and scholarships, encouraging aeronautical science and engineering.

Treasures Hit the Road

Carmichael Park Foundation volunteers preview antique bric a brac. An April 23 fundraiser at the La Sierra Center will offer expert appraisals for family treasures.

by Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - A local take on television's Antiques Roadshow will hit town on April 23rd. Collectors may bring treasures to an "Antiques, Bubbles and Brunch" affair at the La Sierra Community Center. Carmichael Parks Foundation will host the 10 am to 2 pm fundraiser.

The event follows the 2016 debut when 300 supporters lined up with relics at the Milagro Centre. This year's move to La Sierra allows greater space and the gathering will spotlight local restaurants as food providers. Beer and champagne will also flow. The $45 admission provides brunch, wine mimosas and appraisal for two items. A $100 VIP ticket offers early admission and two-item evaluation.

Proceeds will enable park beautification and provide scholarships for sport, reading and language programs at the park district. For information, visit www.carmichaelparkfoundation.org. Tickets may also be purchased at Carmichael Park headquarters: 5750 Grant Avenue. ★

Tax Freedom Day Late Again for California

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Californians who have filed their income tax returns by the April 18 deadline will unfortunately have to wait eight days longer than the rest of the nation until they've collectively earned enough money to pay off their total tax bill for the year.

Tax Freedom Day, calculated annually by the Tax Foundation, is the day when Americans have earned enough money to pay their taxes at the federal, state and local levels.

Nationally, Tax Freedom Day lands on April 23, but for California

it lands on May 1.

"For some lawmakers, this terrible distinction seems to be a badge of honor," said Board of Equalization Vice Chair George Runner. "With liberal politicians recently voting to increase gas and car taxes, I fear this day will come even later next year for hardworking taxpayers."

According to the Tax Foundation, Americans will pay $3.5 trillion in federal taxes and $1.6 trillion in state and local taxes, for a total tax bill of $5.1 trillion, or 31 percent of national income. That's more than Americans will collectively spend on food, clothing and housing combined.

Compared to other states, California's Tax Freedom Day is one of the latest in the nation. Only Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey and Connecticut have later dates.

George Runner represents more than nine million Californians as an elected member of the State Board of Equalization. For more information, visit www.boe.ca.gov/Runner. ★

Slim Randles' HOME COUNTRY

"I Was Planning to Spend All Day Friday Getting Ready for Saturday and Now I Can't" look on his face. "What do you mean by that?"

"Today is Saturday."

"Well," Steve said, shaking his head, "that flat wrecks this day all to pieces."

"Hey," said Dud, "it's a pretty day. You have all day long to enjoy it."

"But don't you see?" Steve said. "I was planning to spend all day Friday getting ready for Saturday and now I can't."

"Now that sounds kinda dumb," Dud said, "and I realize that, but Steve does have a point. I mean, we think in terms of time ..."

Doc groaned.

"...yea, verily ... time and space and the continuum thereof, henceforth and forevermore. That's why, when our pal Steve here thought about Saturday, it was as though Saturday lay in the future, where things are to happen that we, as mere mortals, are loath to know ..."

"Dud," said Steve, "you been watching Nova again?"

Dud blushed. "It was a good show. It concerned the string theory and fusion and the way all these marvelous things come together to make up our lives and Einstein and the total something-or-other. I forget all the little stuff, but it was pretty good. Had to do with the Big Bang and all that junk. Do you realize that when you look at a star at night, it might not be there? That star might have blown up and died a million years ago."

"So how can you tell if it's still there?" asked Steve.

"Have no idea," Dud said. "Might have talked about that while I was up getting coffee."

Steve grinned and tossed off the last of his coffee.

"Well, I'd better be getting along. I'm running late as it is."

"So what are you up to today, Steve?" said Doc.

"Getting ready for Sunday."

NOTICE OF REQUESTED RATE INCREASE FOR COST OF CAPITAL FOR GOLDEN STATE WATER COMPANY'S APPLICATION NO. 17-04-002

SUMMARY
On April 3, 2017, Golden State Water Company (GSWC) filed Application No. 17-04-002 with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) requesting an increase in rates to establish its authorized cost of capital and rate of return for utility operations for 2018, 2019 and 2020. GSWC's application requests an increase in the rate of return of 0.77% from the current percentage of 8.34% to 9.11% for 2018, 2019 and 2020.

Overall, the proposed changes to the cost of capital will increase GSWC's currently authorized revenues by $12.1 million (4.0%). If approved, GSWC's request will increase rates beginning on January 1, 2018.

GSWC is required to file a cost of capital application every three years. The authorized cost of capital determines the amount of money GSWC is allowed to recuperate in rates as a return on the money it has invested. This request is subject to adjustment per the Water Cost of Capital Mechanism, which allows for automatic annual adjustments to the return on equity and embedded cost of debt in the cost of capital. GSWC's proposed cost of capital request is summarized in the following table:

Year	Cost Factor	Cost	Capital Structure (Weight)	Weight Cost
2018-2020	Long Term Debt	6.60%	43.0%	2.84%
	Common Equity	11.00%	57.0%	6.27%
				9.11%

CUSTOMER IMPACT
The increase in annual revenues will vary by ratemaking area. The following table shows the proposed increase in 2018 for each of the ratemaking areas served by GSWC.

CPUC PROCESS

This application will be assigned to an Administrative Law Judge (Judge) who will determine how to receive evidence and other related documents, necessary for the CPUC to establish a record upon which to base its decision. Evidentiary Hearings (EHs) may be held where utilities, consumer advocacy groups, and other entities which have been given official status as parties, will present their testimony and may be subject to cross-examination by other parties. These EHs are open to the public, but only those who are parties may participate. The hearings and documents submitted in the proceeding become part of the formal record. The Judge relies upon the formal record when writing a proposed decision to present to the Commissioners for their consideration.

Globalist Influence in the Trump Administration

Commentary
by Harold Pease, Ph. D

The most globalist and influential political action organization in the United States is the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR). The Donald Trump Administration is the most clean of CFR influence in many decades, perhaps since Calvin Coolidge. Traditionally this organization claims either the president or the vice president in every administration, and always the Secretary of State, and ambassadorships to the United Nations, Russia and China. Under Trump it claims none of these posts. Moreover, CFR members largely fill the majority of presidential cabinets. Normally, they have highly placed members in both major political parties and thus for almost 100 years they win every presidential election. They are the moneyed elite capable of bringing to candidates the millions of dollars that are needed to win. They are in both political parties and they own the major media outlets. Thus their influence over presidential candidates for a hundred years is never really covered, but all presidential candidates know of their influence and power.

No candidate for president gets to office without CFR approval, until now.

Over the decades they have been called the shadow government, the secret combination, the moneyed establishment, the eastern establishment and now just the establishment. They have hated only two presidential party nominees Barry Goldwater in 1964 and Donald Trump in 2016. The first they destroyed, the second they seek to remove or destroy.

President Woodrow Wilson was the first president to reference a secret influence over politics at the highest level. In his The New Freedom (1913) he wrote of his experience with a hidden force: "Since I entered politics, I have chiefly had men's views confided to me privately. Some of the biggest men in the United States in the field of commerce and manufacture, are afraid of somebody, are afraid of something. They know that there is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive that they had better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it."

A hundred years later, Secretary of State, Hillary Clinton, identified the CFR as her source of direction when she addressed them in their new D. C. "sub-center down the street." She told them: "I am delighted to be at these new headquarters. I have been often to the mother ship in New York City but it is good to have an outpost of the Council right here down the street from the State Department. We get a lot of advice from the Council so this will mean that I won't have as far to go to be told what we should be doing and how we should think about the future."

In the presidential campaign the establishment media portrayed Donald Trump as a joke—certainly not a serious candidate, not a real conservative, a flip-flopper on the issues, anti-women, anti-immigration, insulting to everyone, a braggart, only into himself, least likely to beat Hillary Clinton, only attractive to white males, and not in touch with reality with respect to the Middle East, and more. They were wrong. A third of these charges would have easily destroyed previous candidates. As president they work to obstruct everything he does. He is vilified in virtually every national press outlet.

Unfortunately Trump's CFR record, although the best ever, is no longer pure. CFR Lieutenant General H. R. McMaster replaced General Michael Flynn as National Security Adviser and Neil M. Gorsuch as U.S. Supreme Court justice, is imminent. Gorsuch was first listed as a CFR member in the 2007 Annual Report and thereafter for five years. He is not currently listed. Gorsuch must be questioned regarding this affiliation. Membership in the CFR is by invitation only following a period of observation making certain that your loyalty to the values of the organization are impeccable. Those values are empowerment of the United Nations, internationalism, world government, nation building and eradicating national borders—each out of harmony with the Constitution as created by the Founders.

Gorsuch may be promoted as an originalist on the Constitution but as a member of an organization that sees the Constitution as an obstruction to the New World Order, which the CFR promotes, the Senate must know which loyalty is primary and if not the Constitution he must be rejected by all Senators. Should a decision come before him that forces him to choose between two loyalties, internationalism and U.S. nationalism, which will he endorse?

Another concern surfaces; Ruth Bader Ginsburg also has CFR membership and thus two of the nine justices of the highest court in the land could have a higher loyalty. She has made no secret that she views international law (UN law) as constitutional. In fact her loyalty to the Constitution came into question in 2012 when the Egyptian government sought her advice in the writing of a new constitution. She recommended the South African or Canadian models and could not recommend the U.S. Constitution. Two of nine justices who may have a higher loyalty than the Constitution is two too many.

Trump would be better off to avoid all globalist organizations and members in his administration. There are plenty of experts available without globalist sympathy. Still, he has done well in reducing globalist influence in those he chooses to advise him.

Credit Unions in Sacramento County Generate $850 Million Impact

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Credit unions serving members in Sacramento County recently generated an $850 million annual impact to the region's economy, which supported 5,730 local jobs and also produced $55.1 million in savings to those members according to a special report released April 18th by the California Credit Union League.

The economic impact of both locally-headquartered and non-local credit unions serving members across the county in 2016 also contributed to the industry's total statewide impact across California, which was $17 billion. This is equal to the same positive effect as some of the nation's largest corporations in America, including Kraft Heinz, General Mills, Xerox, and Facebook—each having approximately $17 - 18 billion in annual revenue.

As they pump financial benefits back to members through offering better interest rates on loans and deposit accounts, as well as lower or no fees, these 17 credit unions were serving more than 575,000 members across Sacramento County through a mixture of online and mobile banking channels, as well as a network of 84 branches that members can visit in person.

The reports were commissioned by the League and independently completed and published by ECONorthwest, an economic research and consulting firm in Portland, OR. The study looked at balance sheet, regulatory "call report," and operational data to come to its conclusions. ECONorthwest completed an independent analysis of credit unions surveyed and used a "multiplier-effect" model to extrapolate its economic conclusions.

In a separate local quarterly-trends report, 10 credit unions headquartered in Sacramento County collectively hit records in membership (1.26 million members), money lent-out ($11 billion), and deposits ($14.2 billion). These statewide trends in first-mortgages, second-mortgages, HELOCs, business loans, new and used auto loans, credit cards, and other consumer loans give a snapshot of how local consumers are currently spending their money.

"Credit unions' combined ripple effect in the broader economy cannot be ignored as their financially cooperative, not-for-profit model reinvests local dollars back into local economies," said Diana Dykstra, president and CEO of the League, which is based in Ontario, CA. "These reports reaffirm credit unions' efforts to empower their members by helping them make wise financial decisions and thrive."

Household wealth and socio-economic mobility are increasingly seen as being tied to opportunities in financial education, an area many credit unions consider their strength.

"Research shows that up to half of wealth inequality may be caused by differences in financial literacy," states a January 2017 Education, Income and Wealth article published by the Federal Reserve. "As a result, people are more likely to use costly home loan mortgage products, pay higher transaction costs and fees, and use high-cost borrowing options."

USCIS Will Issue Redesigned Green Cards and Employment Authorization Documents

USCIS Special Release

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services today announced a redesign to the Permanent Resident Card (also known as a Green Card) and the Employment Authorization Document (EAD) as part of the Next Generation Secure Identification Document Project. USCIS will begin issuing the new cards on May 1, 2017.

These redesigns use enhanced graphics and fraud-resistant security features to create cards that are highly secure and more tamper-resistant than the ones currently in use.

The new card designs demonstrate USCIS' commitment to continue taking a proactive approach against the threat of document tampering and fraud. They are also part of an ongoing effort between USCIS, U.S. Customs and Border Protection, and U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement to enhance document security and deter counterfeiting and fraud.

The new Green Cards and EADs will: Display the individual's photos on both sides; Show a unique graphic image and color palette; (Green Cards will have an image of the Statue of Liberty and a predominately green palette; EAD cards will have an image of a bald eagle and a predominately red palette); Have embedded holographic images; and no longer display the individual's signature. Also, Green Cards will no longer have an optical stripe on the back.

Some Green Cards and EADs issued after May 1, 2017, may still display the existing design format as USCIS will continue using existing card stock until current supplies are depleted. Both the existing and the new Green Cards and EADs will remain valid until the expiration date shown on the card.

Certain EADs held by individuals with Temporary Protected Status (TPS) and other designated categories have been automatically extended beyond the validity date on the card. For additional information on which EADs are covered, please visit the Temporary Protected Status and American Competitiveness in the 21st Century Act web pages on uscis.gov.

Both versions are acceptable for Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification, E-Verify, and Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE). Some older Green Cards do not have an expiration date. These older Green Cards without an expiration date remain valid. Individuals who have Green Cards without an expiration date may want to consider applying for a replacement card bearing an expiration date. Obtaining the replacement card will reduce the likelihood of fraud or tampering if the card is ever lost or stolen.

For more information about the Green Card application process, please visit USCIS.gov/greencard.

To request an EAD, you must file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization. Visit uscis.gov for more information about EADs. Source: USCIS ★

Legislation to Fix Security Flaw in State's Voter File Passes First Hurdle

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - In a rare moment of bipartisanship, the Senate Committee on Elections and Constitutional Amendments unanimously voted to pass Senator Jim Nielsen's measure to fix a security flaw in the state's voter file.

"Our democracy is an honor system based on trust," said Senator Jim Nielsen (R-Tehama). "We must do everything we can to protect its integrity and keep the trust of the people. This measure will help ensure that trust."

"I thank my colleagues on the committee for their support," added Senator Nielsen.

Senate Bill 682, if passed, would prohibit the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) from giving the Secretary of State electronic information needed to complete the voter registration affidavit for ineligible voters who hold special drivers' licenses for noncitizens.

California's current online voter registration system automatically allows the voter registration of anyone with a driver's license who self-certifies that they are eligible to vote - including individuals DMV knows to be ineligible because they were issued special noncitizen drivers' licenses. These noncitizen drivers' licenses do not establish voter eligibility, yet the online voter registration system only requires a driver's license number. As a result, undocumented residents may be unlawfully registered to vote.

There is no protocol for communication between the Secretary of State and the Department of Motor Vehicles to prevent these registrants from being approved under current law.

"Keeping the voter roll clean and up-to-date is a challenging task. This bill helps fill a gap in the security of the voter roll," said Candace Grubbs, Butte County Elections Clerk-Recorder.

FAIR OAKS CEMETERY

19th ANNUAL

MEMORIAL DAY EVENT

SATURDAY, MAY 27TH, 2017 @ 10:00AM

100th Year Anniversary

The Fair Oaks Cemetery District and the Memorial Day Ceremony Committee are finalizing plans for one of the most popular and inspiring Memorial Day events in the area.

The Nineteenth Annual Memorial Day and Avenue of Flags Ceremony will be held Saturday, May 27, at the Fair Oaks Cemetery, located at 7780 Olive Street, Fair Oaks. The formal ceremonies start at 10 AM. This year's theme is to remember the 100th year Anniversary of the United States' entry into the "Great War" and to honor our Veterans of World War 1, "The War to end all wars," of whom there are eighty-six known veterans buried in the Fair Oaks Cemetery.

Chairman of the Fair Oaks Cemetery District Memorial Day Committee, Tom Askins will be the Master of Ceremonies. The main speaker(s) will focus on the history, facts and results of the United States entry into this war.

The Fair Oaks Cemetery will be decorated with hundreds of flags lining its roadways as "The Avenue of Flags." We will also be adding more names to the Veterans Memorial Wall. The laying of the wreath at the memorial in honor of over eighteen hundred veterans who are buried in the cemetery, will be done by VFW Post 6158 and American Legion Post 383.

The musical program will consist of Pipers, a Drummer and Recorded Music by a local Disc Jockey. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the ceremony by the Orangevale/ Fair Oaks Grange & Fair Oaks Historical Society.

The Fair Oaks Cemetery's Memorial Day Ceremony is a fine example of how we, the community, remember loved ones and say thank you to our veterans and their families for their sacrifices.

RT Financials Showing Positive Trend

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento Regional Transit District (Sac RT) has been relentlessly optimizing business practices over the past eight months to bring its financial house in order, and the positive results are very encouraging. In Fiscal Year (FY) 2017, Sac RT is trending below budget. This has allowed Sac RT to develop a budget for FY 2018 that is expected to be $1.6 million less than the prior year.

Additionally, by working diligently over the past year with rating agencies, last week Sac RT received great news from Moody's, a bond credit rating service, that upgraded Sac RT's bond rating from "negative" watch to "stable" outlook, which will help Sac RT to issue future bonds at a much better interest rate for regional capital projects. The significant transformation that Sac RT has made in the last year, as well as strong political support and strong board governance, is building up RT's long-term financial stability, which will continue to move Sac RT in a new direction. Under the direction of Henry Li, General Manager/CEO, Sac RT committed to strengthening its finances while making the system more clean, safe and convenient for riders. Sac RT has identified innovative revenue sources, strengthened its finances and reduced expenses to fund maintenance and capital investments. By aggressively containing costs and pursuing revenue enhancement opportunities, Sac RT has secured more than $3 million in operating funding, which helped enhance customer services.

"At a time when many public agencies are increasing budgets, we have been able to reduce ours. We are figuring out innovative ways to do more with less," said Henry Li, General Manager/CEO. "Our number one priority is the customer, and the ability to reduce the annual budget without cutting service or increasing fares is a huge victory from where Sac RT was a year ago."

Based on these positive trends, Sac RT projects to add to its fund balance for the first time in three years, and build up an emergency cash reserve of $6 million (with a 2017 year-end goal of $9 to $10 million). This will go a long way towards reducing Sac RT's reliance on its line of credit to pay bills, a goal set by the Board of Directors.

By building strong employee and labor relations, Sac RT has been able to identify ways to reduce the annual increases associated with salaries and benefits that continue to offer value to employees, at a sustainable cost. There will only be a small increase in spending in this category for FY 2018, which is expected to be $1.95 million, or 1.8 percent, a modest amount for an organization that provides over 1,000 jobs to the region.

Captain Shawn Condit Named Firefighter Employee of the Year

Sac Metro Fire Special Release
By Deputy Chief Eric Bridge

SACRAMENTO, COUNTY, CA (MPG)

Captain Shawn Condit began his fire service career with American River Fire Department on August 4, 1990. In 2000, American River Fire District and Sacramento County Fire Protection District merged to become the Sacramento Metropolitan Fire District, also known as Metro Fire. Shawn is the Truck Captain at Fire Station 109 where he oversees a truck crew of three firefighters. Station 109 is located in the Carmichael community and is unique in that this is where the Hazardous Materials unit is housed. Captain Condit coordinates the Hazardous Materials program for our department.

Throughout his career, Captain Condit has demonstrated leadership on multiple levels. Aside from being an excellent company officer, he has been a leader in the Hazardous Materials Program. His tenure in the program provides the stability needed while offering training opportunities for his crew. Captain Condit and his crew willingly take on new employees and are often called upon by the training cadre to work with academies and probationary employees. When these new individuals spend time with his crew, they are provided with a positive experience and given information that will hopefully move them down the road through the process. In addition to all his regular responsibilities at the station, Captain Condit must maintain his Hazardous Materials certification, putting added responsibility upon himself.

In addition to his hard work at Metro Fire, Captain Condit serves as a Metro Director with the Sacramento Area Firefighters Local 522 union. This is an elected position by his peers. Shawn has held a position within the Union for over 10 years. He is an acknowledged leader within the union, and over the last 10 years he has moved up the ranks, starting out as a shift representative and eventually moving into the elected position he currently holds. He continues to do an outstanding job of representing the union members of our organization.

As Metro Director, Captain Condit represents the membership in many different ways. During our last contract negotiation, Captain Condit demonstrated calm, consistent leadership during the negotiation and confirmation process, acting as the facilitator for these meetings. He allowed for spirited but respectful debate. During these meetings, he is often involved in matters that are sensitive in nature and does not violate confidence. It is this trustworthiness that makes him an excellent Union officer and, by extension, Company Officer.

As a Union leader he takes a positive role in a needed position. Often times, employees are referred to him by management. His ability to listen fully to their problems and then calmly and positively advise them on a course of action tends to benefit both the department and the member. He acts in the best traditions of Union leadership and through this process, the matter is often resolved at the lowest level.

To be a leader, particularly as a firefighter, your work ethic must be self-evident. Since an outstanding work ethic is common at Metro Fire it is difficult to point out where one employee's efforts are better than another, however in the case of Captain Condit he stands out each and every day. Many excellent company officers come to work and do their assignments and perform admirably, but taking a leadership position in the Union and Haz Mat program shows that Captain Shawn Condit is willing to give of himself to this department and its members. He is well respected within the Department, the Union and his crew.

Fire Chief Todd Harms was honored to name Captain Shawn Condit as Metro Fire's 2016 Suppression Employee of the Year.

California's Economic Output Outpaces Nation for Fourth Straight Year

By George Runner, BOE

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - California's Gross Domestic Product (GDP) has grown consistently faster than the nation's as a whole for four straight years. In 2015, the California GDP rose 5.6 percent, while the U.S. GDP increased 3.7 percent (unadjusted for inflation). Also called "economic output," GDP measures the market value of goods, services, and structures that are produced within a particular period, and tends to be related to population, income, spending, employment, housing permits, and other measures of economic activity.

According to the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis, the New York-Newark-Jersey City metropolitan area led the nation with an economic output of about $1.603 trillion in 2015. California was represented by two of the top 10 areas: Los Angeles-Long Beach-Anaheim ($930.8 billion), and San Francisco-Oakland-Hayward ($431.7 billion). The Los Angeles metropolitan area accounts for 37.9 percent of California's GDP, while the San Francisco Bay Area comprises 17.6 percent. The Sacramento-Roseville region accounts for 4.8 percent ($118.8 billion).

San Jose has been the fastest growing metropolitan area within California – and the second fastest in the U.S. – with stronger economic growth than 380 of the nation's 382 metropolitan areas in 2015. With growth rates that ranged from 5.0 percent to 10.4 percent over the past five years, the San Jose area had the largest increase in that time frame – 37.6 percent – more than 60 percent higher than the California average gain of 23.1 percent, for a total GDP of more than $235 billion. The state's second-largest increase was in the Visalia-Porterville area – 32.4 percent – followed by Merced (30.2 percent), Napa (29.6 percent) and Madera (28.1 percent). The Hanford-Corcoran area also finished above the state average (24.2 percent). Both the Chico and Sacramento-Roseville areas had strong showings in 2015, ranking fourth and fifth in the state respectively in GDP growth.

One way to compare economic wellbeing among regions is to calculate inflation-adjusted GDP per capita. Real economic output per capita in the San Jose area was close to twice that of the California average in 2015. Other areas with higher than average per capita real GDP include San Diego, and Napa.

CORDOVA SPORTS

Cordova Baseball Preparing for the Home Stretch

By Mike Bush

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - One more game at its own tournament was on the agenda for the Cordova High School baseball team last week. But once again, Mother Nature had a say in the Lancers' games.

On April 12 th , Cordova was supposed to have played Menlo of Atherton in the 47 th annual Cordova Baseball Easter Tournament at Peterson Field. But rain and field conditions wiped out the Lancers' final game. Cordova head coach Doug Hughes decided to cancel the rest of the tournament that included Menlo, plus Rosemont, Mesa Verde, Redwood Christian, Merced, Enterprise of Redding and Sanger. With the tournament in the books, Hughes and the Lancers turn their attention back to Sierra Valley Conference action. Cordova (5-3 in the SVC, 8-8) is in the middle of the race that includes being tied for second place with El Dorado (5-3 in the SVC, 12-6) and sitting alone in first place is Liberty Ranch (8-0 in the SVC, 13-5).

"I (don't) think anyone (will) run away with the league title," said Hughes going into Wednesday's SVC game against Union Mine (3-5 in the SVC). "All of the teams in the SVC will beat up on each other for the next three weeks. We are up for the challenge and looking forward to it."

As a team, the Lancers are batting .350. Leading the way at the plate is senior Logan Appino, who is batting .604 with 10 RBIs. Trevor Ready follows at .405 and Jeremy Buck .400 and 12 RBIs.

Cordova's Ryan Tipton races toward home plate against Redwood Christian in a pool play game on April 11 th . Tipton and the Cordova baseball team resumed SVC action on Wednesday.

On the mound, Austin Smith has a 2-2 record for Cordova. That includes a 2.75 ERA and 23 strikeouts. Appino follows with 12 strikeouts, 2.80 ERA and 1-3, and Ryan Tipton 2-1 and 12 strikeouts. On Wednesday, Cordova hosted El Dorado. Yesterday, Thursday, Cordova played at Union Mine. Today, Friday, the Lancers play at El Dorado. Cordova continues conference play at Peterson Field against Galt (0-8 in the SVC) next Wednesday, and play the Warriors again, this time in Galt, on Friday, April 28th. Game times are scheduled for 4 p.m.

"As a team, we can accomplish anything," Hughes said. "I can't express how proud I am of these kids. From last year to this year it's like night and day. Not having a JV program the last couple of years, our underclassmen have had to step up and be a huge part of our success, which they have. I'm extremely proud of them. The last seven games should be exciting." ★

Falcon golfers take second; extend overall lead in Big 8 standings Men's Tennis edged by Foothill in NorCal semi-finals Baseball defeats Delta

Men's Golf

With a second-place team finish in Big 8 Tournament #10 at Ancil Hoffman Golf Course on Monday afternoon, the FLC golf team increased their overall lead in the Big 8 standings over second place Sierra to 10 points. The Falcons shot a team score of 388, four shots behind team champion Santa Rosa, but four ahead of Sierra, the Falcons' closest challenger in the Big 8 standings. Sophomore Mason Troike continued his outstanding season with a round of 73 as he attempts to become the Big 8 Conference MVP for the second year in a row. Sophomore Chad VanderDussen was right in the mix with his 74, while Connor Scott pulled off an improbable comeback with his round of 43/36 for 79.

Men's Baseball

The Falcons opened their three-game series against Delta College, the #8 ranked team in California (with a record of 27-7), in Stockton on Tuesday afternoon with a surprising 6-4 victory.

The Falcons were facing undefeated pitcher Alex Patterson, the state leader in wins (10) and fifth in ERA, but were not intimidated as they handed him his first loss of the season. The Mustangs drew first blood when they put together three hits to take a 2-0 first-inning lead, but the Falcons answered right back with a 2-run home run off the bat of designated hitter Kale Leach that tied the score in the second.

Falcon starter Jordan Taylor retired the side in order in three of the next four innings, although the Mustangs managed a run in the fourth to go up 3-2. The turning point for the Falcons came in the sixth inning after Charlie Harber was hit by a pitch and Greg Vaughn singled. Sophomore shortstop Grant Heisinger tied the score with his safety squeeze-bunt RBI single, and after a Carson McCusker fly out, first baseman Jack Rotteveel launched a three-run home run to deep left-center field that put the Falcons ahead 6-3. From there, the bullpen took over to finish off the win for the Falcons, with Grant Dragmire earning the save.

The Falcons (15-20 overall, 6-13 in the Big 8) will host Delta on Thursday afternoon at Falcon Field at 2:30, then finish off the series on Saturday in Stockton.

Men's Tennis

The underdog FLC men's tennis team took on perennial tennis powerhouse Foothill College in Los Altos Hills on Tuesday afternoon in the northern California regional semi-finals and nearly pulled off a stunning upset. Two of the three doubles matches came down to the final game and had a huge impact on the final outcome. As it turned out, Foothill got the upper hand with 9-7 and 8-6 victories at # 2 and #3 doubles that proved to be insurmountable. Staked to a 3-0 lead after doubles, the Owls needed just two more wins (out of the 6 singles matches) to earn the victory. Ironically, when they got those wins at #2 and #4 singles, FLC was leading or tied in three of the remaining matches. With the overall outcome decided, the remaining matches were halted and are not included in the final score.

The Falcons finish as the #4 team in northern California and with the most wins ever at 11-4. The only losses this season were to American River and Foothill, who will play for the northern California championship on Saturday. The Falcons will now focus on the individual singles and doubles competition at the state tournament in Ojai next week. ★
