Career Waitress Serves Community for 35 Years

Story and photos by Steve Liddick

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - If you stop off for dinner some evening at Rudy's Hideaway, Lobsterhouse and Grill, on Folsom Boulevard in Rancho Cordova, chances are excellent you will run into Jean Payne. In fact, if you had gone to Rudy's anytime in the last three-and-a-half decades it is likely you would have seen the friendly British import.

"It will be 35 years in April," the Citrus Heights resident and career waitress said. Long ago it was common to have the same job for a working lifetime. In this era of job insecurity, 35-years of continuous employment is a newsworthy span of time. Most people today either leave the job for another one or—more likely—their job leaves them.

"Too lazy to look for another job," she said with a chuckle.

Absolutely no one would describe Payne as "lazy," least of all her employer. She has been at Rudy's through two ownerships and three managers, including the original owner, the late Rupert "Rudy" Rudis, then his son, Rich, and the current owner, Steve Ryan, who can't say enough good things about Jean.

"She's always here early," Ryan said. "If we're real busy, Jean never complains if she is assigned extra tables."

The admiration is mutual. Payne said she and Steve have a great employee-employer relationship.

"I could have retired years ago, but they treat me good," Payne said, traces of her British accent still present.

She came to the U.S. as a nanny in 1962. She stayed in that job for just two years and has been in this country ever since. "I wanted to travel," Payne said. America is as far as she got.

Her work at Rudy's is hard sometimes, but it is also recreational because of her relationship with customers. "I enjoy the job. I go down to socialize more than anything else."

Ron Radford is also a long-time Rudy's waiter. "Eighteen year May First," Ron said. "It's a pleasant place to work." Most of the other employees have also been there for a long time, although Payne holds the record. Especially unique when you realize that personnel turnover is estimated at 200-percent in the food service industry.

Jean Payne (center) has worked at Rudy's Hideaway restaurant in Rancho Cordova for 35 years. Ron Radford (at left) has been a waiter at Rudy's for 18 years. Owner Steve Ryan (at right) says it would be a very different place without them.

Free Financial Management Workshops

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG)

- A series of free financial management workshops is being offered as a community service by the Rosemont Community Association, open to all interested in learning how to better handle their money and make it stretch further. The workshop leaders are financial professionals who are members of the Financial Professionals of Northern California and who work in the specific subject areas.

The next workshop is set for Wednesday, April 27th, and will cover buying a home and mortgage planning. Future workshops will cover investing basics, estate planning, insurance and financial risk management, retirement planning and social security, identity theft, and wealth planning and hiring professional help. Each workshop stands alone so you need to register for each session to assure that there is space and materials for you. The workshops are from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at Atonement Church, 9242 Kiefer Blvd., and will run through October. These programs are supported by a grant from State Farm.

Previous sessions covered debt, credit and budgeting; tax planning; and education and college planning. Some sessions may be conducted again depending on interest.

To see the schedule of sessions and to register go to the RCA web site www.rosemontca.org and click on the lead article regarding these free workshops.

Volunteers Make a Difference in Rancho Cordova

The Rancho Cordova City Council and City staff presented a special plaque to the VINS this week for its outstanding service to Rancho Cordova. Photo courtesy City of Rancho Cordova RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - National Volunteer Week is about inspiring, recognizing, and encouraging people to seek out imaginative ways to engage in their communities.

Rancho Cordova has hundreds of volunteers that support local businesses, nonprofit organizations, annual events, service clubs, and more.

The City of Rancho Cordova created a volunteer program in 2012 to give citizens another opportunity to give back locally. The program logged over 4,000 service hours last year, which is the highest since the program was formed.

This year, the City highlighted its Volunteers in Neighborhood Services (VINS) that formed in 2007 and has doubled in size the past few years.

The volunteer group has approximately 25 members and help with City ribbon cuttings, Council Meeting receptions, Cordova Pride Program, community trash clean-up events, residential feedback with City ordinances and other community service projects. Plus, they have reported over 400 hours from their group alone this past year!

The Rancho Cordova City Council and City staff presented a special plaque to the VINS this week for its outstanding service to Rancho Cordova.

A ‘Welcome Home’ Event Celebrates Vietnam Veterans

By Patrick Groves

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The war in Vietnam was a nightmare for most, but its memory brought together veterans in the Rancho Cordova City Hall where they finally received the “welcome home” not extended to them during the conflict.

The City of Rancho Cordova honored about 100 Vietnam veterans at the April 4th city council meeting. The city became partners of the United States Vietnam War Commemoration program launched in 2008 by an act of Congress. The Commemoration has honored Vietnam veterans since 2012 and will continue until Veterans Day 2025. The Commemoration and its partners honor veterans who served between 1955 to 1975, the timeframe of the Vietnam War.

“It brought back a lot of emotions and I had a hard time keeping it together up there,” said Jerry Hayes, a United States Air Force veteran who served between 1969 and 1973.

Hayes, 64, said public sentiment toward veterans has changed greatly since his tour of duty. While he remained stateside during his service, he had run-ins with people against the war. Once during a seven hour flight layover he considered changing out of his uniform into civilian clothes to prevent being targeted.

“I couldn’t believe how people were jeering at us as we got off the plane,” he said.

He said his favorite memories from the war were his down time, like watching the sunset from the Tacoma Narrows Bridge in Wash, while he was stationed at McCord Field Air Force base.

“The pressure cooker of the war was enough to drive anyone insane,” he said.

The city currently has a two year partnership with the Commemoration, from 2015 to 2017. The partnership entails two events per year must be dedicated to Vietnam War veterans, said Stacy Delaney, an Air Force veteran in the city manager’s office.

“When Vietnam veterans returned from the war — in California or elsewhere — I think they did not receive the recognition they deserved,” Delaney said. “What we were hoping for with this event is to say ‘welcome home.’”

A little more than 3,000 Vietnam veterans live in Rancho Cordova, according to U.S. Census estimates. In Sacramento County there are a total of about 90,000 veterans including those who served during Vietnam, according to CalVet.

City Councilman Robert McGarvey, a former Vietnam serviceman himself, presented each veteran with a lapel pin designed by the Commemoration. The pin features an eagle representing courage, honor and dedicated service and other recognizable symbols on the front and the message “A Grateful Nation Thanks and Honors You” on the back.

“I think the generation who didn’t really honor veterans and called them ‘baby killers’ kind of grew up,” McGarvey said. “I think when we had the Gulf War in ’91 people started paying more attention to veterans.”

McGarvey said he makes a point to represent the needs of veterans living in Rancho Cordova through his position on the city council. He served in the Air Force between 1965 and 1967.

“It takes a while to get these things done, but it’s worth it,” he said.

Marilyn “Sue” Mellow, 70, was another Air Force veteran honored at the meeting. Mellow said the ceremony made her proud to be a member of the Rancho Cordova community, where she has lived for the past 30 years.

“I thought it was an extremely nice gesture,” she said. “I’m very proud of that pin and on Memorial Day, Veterans Day and other special occasions I’ll be wearing it.” ★

MEMORIAL NOTICE

David Michael Dacy

October 16, 1957 to April 4, 2016

David Michael Dacy, 58, of Rancho Cordova, CA, passed away Monday, April 4th after an 8- year battle with Alzheimer's. David was born in Chico, CA on October 16, 1957 to Michael and Kay Dacy. David graduated from Cordova High School of Rancho Cordova in 1975. He married Dawn Elizabeth Burnett on April 18, 1981. David took great pride in his work at Home Depot, Target Corporation, and his own construction business. In his spare time, David loved playing softball, camping, hunting, trips to Idaho, and doted on his four-legged children, Abby Normal and Charlie Brown. He loved living by the river and taking his dogs on long walks. David was a true outdoorsman. David's father, Michael William Dacy, whom he loved very much, predeceased him in January 2000. David is survived by his loving wife, Dawn Dacy of Rancho Cordova, mother, Kay Dacy and brothers Kevin (Patty), John (Randee), Bob (Beth) and numerous nephews, nieces, great nephews and great nieces. David's greatest achievements in life was adoring his loving wife Dawn, being an awesome big brother and son, being a fun and crazy uncle, being a constant friend, and his incredible smile that could light up a room. David loved life and always rolled with whatever came his way. Our family is grateful for the love, support and care given by so many, especially during the last few years.

A celebration of Dave's life will be April 22 at 1:00 PM at the Mather Sports Complex, 3755 Schriever Ave, Mather, CA 95655. We will celebrate David's life, have a meal, and hit some balls out in the ball park. Dress casual with your baseball attire (preferably SF Giants), and bring your bats and baseball gloves. In lieu of flowers, Dawn asks you to consider making a donation to the UCSF Aging and Memory Center, Aphasia Group (www.memory.ucsf.edu and select DONATE).

Some of the regulars ask to be seated in Payne's service area. "People seek her out," Steve Ryan said. "Same with Ron." Ron Radford has been a waiter at Rudy's for 18 years. "We know people who don't come in if Ron isn't here. Both are very good at remembering customers' names, their kids, their parents, their dogs."

Steve Ryan was asked what life would be like for him if Jean and Ron suddenly left Rudy's. He looked as though he had been struck by lightning and could not immediately come up with the words. When he did, it was clear that such a loss would seriously impact business. Payne has served some of her regulars scores of times over the many years she has worked at Rudy's and has gotten to know many of them very well. "I know their grandchildren," she said. Before moving to northern California all those years ago, she held the same job in Laguna Beach and in celebrity-packed Newport Beach. Her customers there included John Wayne, Rock Hudson, Rose Marie,

Dean Martin, Frank Sinatra, and gravel-voiced actor Andy Devine, about whom she says, "he was such a nice man." Her husband, Robert, is also retired. That is another reason she continues to work. "We can't be home at the same time," she said with a laugh. "You wouldn't want to be together 24/seven." Don't expect to find Jean Payne at work on Sundays, Mondays, or Thursdays. "Those are my days off," she said. Even a career girl who loves her job has to have some time off. ★

FAIR OAKS CEMETERY

18th ANNUAL MEMORIAL DAY EVENT

SATURDAY, MAY 28TH, 2016 @ 10:00AM

Honoring Pearl Harbor Survivors

The Eighteenth Annual Memorial Day and Avenue of Flags Ceremony will be held Saturday, May 28, at the Fair Oaks Cemetery, located at 7780 Olive Street, Fair Oaks. The formal ceremonies start at 10am. This year's theme is to honor the "Survivors of the Attack on Pearl Harbor", and with special emphasis on our Pearl Harbor Veterans.

The Fair Oaks Cemetery will be decorated with hundreds of flags lining its roadways as "The Avenue of Flags." We will also be adding more names to the Veterans Memorial Wall.

The laying of the wreath at the memorial in honor of over seventeen hundred veterans who are buried in the cemetery, will be done by VFW Post 6158 and American Legion Post 383.

The musical program will consist of Pipers, a Drummer and Recorded Music by a local disc jockey. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the ceremony by the Orangevale/Fair Oaks Grange & Fair Oaks Historical Society.

And Another Thing ...

Genius Is Often Just Perseverance

“Genius, that power that dazzles mortal eyes, is oft but perseverance in disguise.”
- Henry W. Austin

There are many things we have been able to do here in Rancho Cordova that seem to surprise many people because many of us were told that we would never be successful as a city. But Henry W. Austin’s phrase seems to fit. Genius is often just perseverance, and the people of Rancho Cordova know how to persevere.

The money we spent on Folsom Boulevard so far is $20.5 million. There is money from grants, Measure A, gas tax, and many other smaller sources, but look at what we have accomplished in the last 13 years. What Folsom Boulevard looked like when we began was a completely different boulevard. Now, Phase 4 of the plans for Folsom Boulevard will be another $5.5 million. That will be a total of $26 million. Some of the plans will include side-walks from Kilgore Road to Sunrise Boulevard, and then from Rod Beaudry Drive to the Rancho Cordova Public Library. The plans can be found on our website at cityof-rancho-cordova.org, and you can also learn more by listening to this past Monday’s City Council meeting.

Four of your Council members went to Washington D.C. with the Cap-to-Cap group from the six counties that comprise the Sacramento Region. It was the 46th time they have been going to talk to Congress Members and our U.S. Senators to get their support for the plans we bring with us. I have talked about that in the past, but you do accomplish much more when you talk to your elected officials face-to-face and bring the completed plans with you to present to them. That was how we received Congressional support to build the International Bridge over the Folsom South Canal to Sunrise Boulevard.

I was on the transportation team at Cap-to-Cap, and we met Congresswoman Doris Matsui in her office and the Undersecretary of Transportation to see what we are doing to improve the whole Sacramento Region. It was a very good meeting, and we accomplished our goals. There is more that needs to be done, but you have to be willing to spend some of your time to complete what the cities and counties need.

And another thing that perhaps you may want to do is to go to Washington D.C. and see the beautiful history of our country, if you haven’t been able to do so. The monuments that have been there for a long time, and the new ones, are all worth seeing if you can. I don’t know when I will be going back to D.C. but I hope it won’t be too long because the history of our country and what people have done to save it is worth experiencing.

From Councilman Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time. ★

Sacramento County DA Reports

50 Years to Life and for First-Degree Murder and 15 Years to Life for Second Degree Murder

CASE: Luther Frazier

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Kevin Greene, Homicide Unit
The Honorable Helena Gweon sentenced Luther Frazier to 50 years to life in prison. On March 10, 2016, a jury convicted Frazier of first-degree murder. The jury also found true a use of a firearm allegation.

Frazier purchased heroin from the victim, Shaun Blechinger, over several months. After a while, Frazier allowed the victim to use his car in exchange for heroin. When the victim wrecked Frazier's car, he would not pay for the damage. Frazier then stole his father's gun and went over to the victim's residence to collect the money. The two of them met outside in an alley, where they exchanged words. When the victim was walking back to his apartment, Frazier shot him six times, killing him.

CASE: Montrell Woods

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Kevin Greene, Homicide Unit
The Honorable Allen Summer sentenced Montrell Woods to 40 years to life in prison. On February 8, 2016, a jury convicted Woods of second-degree murder in the shooting death of Kenny Hernandez. Woods was also convicted of being a felon in possession of a firearm.

On January 22, 2014, Mr. Hernandez was helping family members move into an apartment on Ethan Way when he bumped into Woods. The two got into an argument. Woods then pulled out a .38 handgun and shot Mr. Hernandez in the chest. Mr. Hernandez died while being transported to the hospital; his mother and girlfriend were with him when he passed away.

CASE: Ernest Salmons

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Thomas Asker, Homicide Unit
The Honorable Ernest Sawtelle sentenced Ernest Salmons to 15 years to life in prison. On March 8, 2016, a jury convicted Salmons of second-degree murder.

Salmons was cellmates with Edward Larson at the Sacramento County Jail. On December 14, 2014, Salmons informed jail staff that Mr. Larson was not moving. Mr. Larson was cold to the touch and stiff. Medical personnel responded immediately, but efforts to revive Mr. Larson were futile. There was no apparent evidence of a struggle or blood in the cell. When the cell was processed with a latent blood reagent, significant blood traces were revealed, including a large pool of blood on the floor along the wall next to the bunk. Blood collected and tested by the District Attorney's Crime Lab confirmed it was Mr. Larson's blood.

The coroner concluded Mr. Larson died from blunt force injuries inflicted by an assault. Among other injuries, Mr. Larson suffered lacerations to the liver, and sustained nine broken ribs on his right side and seven broken ribs on his left side.

In an interview with detectives, Salmons indicated he slapped Mr. Larson twice with an open hand and kicked him once. He stated Mr. Larson hit his head a few times by his own volition. ★

SCSO Caps 20th Season with European Masterworks and New CD Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG)

- Conductor Donald Kendrick and the SCSO plan to cap their landmark 20th season on May 14th at 8 p.m. at the Sacramento Community Center Theater with a performance featuring three contrasting choral orchestral works by Haydn, Vaughan Williams, and Dvorák. But the celebration doesn't end there! The evening will also serve as a huge CD release party as the SCSO plans to unveil its 9th professionally mastered CD — Carmina Burana II — at this year-end performance.

Haydn's Harmoniemesse will serve as the evening's main musical fare, complemented by Vaughan Williams' An Oxford Elegy, and Dvorák's Psalm 149 on the first half of the concert.

"The Harmoniemesse will bring back so many warm memories as this was the amazing work that we featured during our first self-funded European tour to Munich, Prague, Vienna, and Budapest in 2004," said Conductor Donald Kendrick. Four outstanding soloists and narrator Phillip Rider will join the SCSO Team on stage for this performance.

"A post concert reception, projected supertitle translations, and Don Kendrick's electric and educational pre-concert talk at 7 p.m. will enhance the evening's enjoyment for our concert attendees," added SCSO Board Member Charlene Black.

According to SCSO President James McCormick, "Our new CD is a live recording of our very well-received Carmina Burana performance on March 5th, 2016 at the Community Center Theater. We're thrilled that the CD will also showcase the American premiere of English composer Jonathan Dove's Psalms for Leo. The amazing 12-page color CD insert promises to add great value to the CD itself."

SCSO European Masterworks tickets are $30 to $45 with a 50 percent discount for students. For tickets, call the Sacramento Community Center Box Office at (916) 808-5181 or visit sacramentochoir.com for both tickets and information.

For more information about this press release, please contact Jeannie Brown, Director of Marketing at (916) 496-0175 or President, James McCormick at (916) 536-9065.

NOTICE TO READERS

California law requires that contractors taking jobs that total $500 or more (labor and/or materials) be licensed by the Contractors State License Board. State law also requires that contractors include their license numbers on all advertising. Check your contractor's status at www.cslb.ca.gov or 800-321-CSLB (2752).

Unlicensed persons taking jobs that total less than $500 must state in their advertisements that they are not licensed by the Contractors State License Board.

DISCLAIMER

Be wary of out of area companies. Check with the local Better Business Bureau before you send any money for fees or services. Read and understand any contracts before you sign. Shop around for rates.

Cooley Pushes Legislation to Reduce DUI Relapse

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Assemblyman Ken Cooley’s AB 2367 passed unanimously out of the State Assembly’s Public Safety Committee this week. AB 2367 creates a state-wide “24/7 Sobriety” program designed to give counties who wish to participate another mechanism to address DUI recidivism.

In California, forty percent of all traffic-related fatalities involve alcohol—this is higher than the rate nationwide. Critically, nearly one-third of those convicted for driving under the influence (DUI) re-offend. More than half of convicted impaired drivers continue to drive on a suspended license and only a small fraction of DUI episodes result in arrest. In an effort to add to the toolkit of options available to judges, this bill authorizes a court to order a person convicted of multiple DUIs to successfully complete a qualified “24/7 Sobriety” monitoring program. 24/7 Sobriety programs require individuals to abstain from alcohol for normally 90-180 days and participants are subject to frequent testing. If they test positive for alcohol use, there are swift, certain and modest sanctions—typically a day or two in jail.

“This bill addresses the relationship between alcoholism and repeat DUI offenses,” said Assemblyman Cooley. “24/7 sobriety programs have demonstrated success at combating DUI recidivism rates and California should invest in any program that saves lives.”

24/7 Sobriety began as a pilot program in South Dakota in 2005 and required those convicted of alcohol-related offenses to take twice-a-day breathalyzer tests or wear a continuous alcohol monitoring bracelet. It is now a statewide program in South Dakota, North Dakota and Montana, with pilot programs in several other states.

In addition, Congress recently approved the Fixing America’s Surface Transportation (FAST) Act. Part of the FAST Act provides incentive grants for states utilizing 24/7 sobriety programs.

24/7 sobriety programs have been widely studied by several organizations, including the RAND Corporation, and evidence strongly suggests that the number of repeat driving under the influence arrests and arrests for domestic violence are significantly reduced in jurisdictions operating a 24/7 program.

“The 24/7 Sobriety Program is a novel and promising approach to combatting alcohol-involved crimes,” said Gregory Midgette, a RAND Corporation researcher who testified about the program Tuesday. “RAND’s research has found that swift, certain and modest sanctions can be a credible deterrent to drunk driving.”

Assembly Bill 2367 will now head to the Assembly Transportation Committee.

Assemblyman Ken Cooley represents the 8th Assembly District which includes the communities of Arden-Arcade, Carmichael, Citrus Heights, Rancho Cordova, Rancho Murieta, Rosemont, Wilton and other portions of unincorporated Sacramento County. NOTICE OF PROPOSED EXTENSION OF THE URGENCY IMPLEMENTATION OF STATUTORY SCHOOL FACILITY FEES

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Governing Board of the Folsom Cordova Unified School District will consider input from the public on the proposed extension of the urgency implementation of the statutory school facilities fees on residential, commercial and industrial development.

The statutory fee increase was approved and immediately implemented by an urgency resolution on April 7, 2016, and is levied for the purpose of funding the construction and reconstruction of school facilities necessary to maintain current levels of educational services in the District and to accommodate growth due to development.

Members of the public are invited to comment in writing to: Facilities and Planning, 1965 Birkmont Drive, Rancho Cordova, CA 95742, on or before May 5, 2016; or appear in person at the hearing on May 5, 2016, in the Board Room at the Education Services Center, 1965 Birkmont Drive, Rancho Cordova, CA.

Any person challenging the adoption of the statutory fee increase in court of competent jurisdiction after the conclusion of the public hearing may be limited to only those issues raised at the hearing or in correspondence delivered to the school district prior to the hearing.

The Four Ps from an Organized Gardener

It’s spring! Yay! But if we SHEs (Sidetracked Home Executives) aren’t careful and plan ahead, we can get into a lot of trouble at the nursery. All the more reason to be organized not just with housecleaning, but with gardening. This time of year the nurseries are teaming with flowers that beseech us like friendly puppies at the Humane Society to take them home. And we are like busy bees around

Make It Fun and It Will Get Done!

The Secret to Being Organized

Pam Young’s Corner

Four Keys to Being Organized in Your Garden

those beautiful flowers. After all, we survived winter and we’re sick of gray and ready for sunny colors.

A good rule of your green thumb is Plan, Prepare, Purchase,Plant. If you try to prepare and plant at the same time, you’ll poop out and then those plants that you’ve taken into your care face possible death. Of course it’s not pre-meditated, but the plants will be just as dead.

Death by good intention

Have you ever seen a honey bee that’s got so much pollen on her feet and thighs that she can barely fly? I often wonder if some of them never make it back to their hives they’re so overloaded; kind of like when you’ve eaten way too much.

But like those bees, we can get carried away buying more than we can plant. We fly home with our trunks full of flats of flowers and the optimism we’ll plant them all TODAY. But so often we poop out in the middle of the plant and the remaining purchase is at the mercy of our next planting mood which can easily result in death of the remaining purchase.

Four Keys all start with a P

Key 1 Plan~

Divide your yard into zones. When you divide up a project into manageable parts you won’t get overwhelmed. Figure out what you’d like to have brighten each zone and write down how many of each plant you want. It’ll be like a grocery list. Don’t plan another zone until you’ve finished planting one you’ve planned. I like to add at least one perennial each year (those are the plants that come back) in each of my zones.

Key 2 Prepare~

Prepare the soil and even dig the holes before you head to the nursery. This is a crucial P!

Key 3 Purchase~

Take your list and limit what you buy to the amount of holes you’ve already dug. Don’t be tempted while you’re in the beauty of all the colors and fragrances to over-buy your holes! You don’t have to stick to the exact kind of flowers on your list, just the number of plants.

Key 4 Plant~

When you actually get to plant, (which is as soon as you get home from buying the plants, since you’ve already prepared where you want to plant them) you’ll be so happy with yourself for doing all the hard work first. And you won’t have the guilt that comes with unintentionally killing innocent plants out in their tiny pots without water. (It’s just easy to forget when you get tired and the plants are out of sight, out of mind.)

This year I’ve turned one of my pet peeves into an advantage. We have a big meadow and every spring the moles convene like they’re at a great, annual mole convention. Their underground social network rivals Face Book. They seem to converge on our meadow about when the grass starts growing. As I walked through the grass and inspected the hills, I noticed how rich the dirt was and I thought, ‘I should use it when planting flowers in the beds that have a great deal of clay.’ I went to my local nursery and asked what I could add to the mole dirt to make it as good as a commercial potting soil.

On my website, I show you on a video, exactly how to turn mole dirt into luscious potting soil. It’s easy and cheap! Here’s the link to that video. <http://blog.cluborganized.com/being-organized-in-your-garden-0>

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE
NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF MARIE GRACE ZWIERZYNSKI (descendent) ESTATE NO. 34-2015-00183027
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both of Marie Grace Zwierzynski (deceased): A Petition has been filed by Robert Tripp in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting that Robert Tripp be appointed as Executor to administer the estate of the decedent. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows: May 5, 2016 9:00 a.m. in Dept. No. 129 at Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse, 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826. IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Slim Randles' HOME COUNTRY go to celebrate spring. Doc and Dud had their dogs with them, while Bert and Dewey and Steve went stag.

“Digging postholes,” he said. “What? That’s your favorite?”

Dud tried to start a conversation, but the loudspeaker soon drove them outside, where they arrayed themselves on dropped tailgates and waited to hear what Dud had in mind.

“I thought about it a lot,” Dud said, “and I wondered what the favorite part of my job was, and wondered if you fellas ever gave that any thought, too.”

They nodded. Yes, by mutual consent a worthy subject.

“With me,” Dud continued, “it wasn’t so much my job as my hobby. Writing that book.

I’m claiming it as the best part of my job, anyway.”

The assembled were still waiting to read “Murder in the Soggy Bottoms,” as it had yet to see print, and was really a work in progress.

“Of course I’m retired now,” said Bert, “but when I was running the pawn shop, my favorite part of the job happened when a customer found something in there he really needed and ended up paying much less for it than he thought he’d have to.”

“And you made more on it than you thought you would, too,” said Doc. Bert grinned and nodded.

“The best part of the fertilizer business,” Dewey said, “is seeing the difference it makes in the flower gardens around town. Maybe it’s just my imagination, but I kinda like to take a little credit for a prettier town.”

“You deserve it, Dewey,” Doc said kindly. “Well, with me it’s a little different. I have doctoring skills, of course, and it’s good when I can help someone, but these days the most satisfying part of my job is to check someone out thoroughly and find there’s absolutely nothing wrong with them. Now that’s special.”

They looked at the tall cowboy, Steve.

“Digging postholes,” he said.

“What? That’s your favorite?”

“Sure,” and Steve grinned.

“That’s the only job a cowboy ever has where he can start at the top and work down.”

CORDOVA SPORTS

Good Pitching Guides Cordova Baseball

By Mike Bush

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Twice in a week, the Cordova High School baseball team was involved in a one-run game. In Tuesday's Sierra Valley Conference road game at Galt, the Lancers had good pitching and timely hitting that led to a 6-5 win over the Warriors. The win keeps Cordova at 5-5 in the SVC and 6-9-1 overall and still in the hunt for one of the conference's three playoff berths. "It looks like it will come down to who plays the best in the final five games," said Cordova head coach Doug Hughes. On the mound, the Lancers' Jarrett Harris went the distance;

he struck 10 Galt batters, allowed six hits and walked three. At the plate, Logan Appino and Spencer Gudgel had two hits each. Appino also had an RBI.

Bear Creek 12, Cordova 3

In a non-conference road game in Stockton on April 16th, the Lancers had only three hits while the Bruins clubbed 11. "We got beat by a very good Bear Creek team (12-5-1)," Hughes said. "The Bruins hit just about everything we threw up there. Like I told my players after the game, all loses are disappointing but playing good teams like Bear Creek are only going to make us better in the long run."

Cordova 3, El Dorado 2

The other one-run game took place at the Lancers' field on April 14th. The game was in the Lancers' favor, 3-1, going into the top of the sixth inning. The visiting Cougars scored a run but Cordova hung on for the victory. And pitching was also a factor as well. The Lancers' Austin Smith also went the distance, striking out three Cougar batters, walked none and gave up only three hits.

Buck and Appino had two hits each in the game. One of Buck's hits was a double, which plated Appino in the bottom of the third inning. Yesterday, Thursday, Cordova hosted Galt to complete their home-and-home series. Next Tuesday, the Lancers host Liberty Ranch. Game time is scheduled for 4 p.m. ★

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - It may sound like a broken record, but the formula continues to be a winning one for the Folsom Lake College (FLC) baseball team: great pitching, good defense, and timely hitting have propelled the Falcons to a 6-0 record in April. A recent 12-1 rout of Yuba College at Falcon Field was the perfect demonstration of why the Falcons are rolling. Starter Josh Moore allowed just one unearned run on four hits over seven innings. In his last three starts, Moore has pitched 24 innings while allowing just one earned run, an ERA of 0.37. Meanwhile, the offense rapped out 19 hits, highlighted by a pair of three-run home runs. Catcher Mason Allen went deep in the sixth inning giving the Falcons a 9-1 lead, then designated hitter Kale Leach went yard in the eighth inning to make it 12-1. Six Falcon hitters got at least two hits a piece — Mike Majeski and Tyler Kaim each had four — while five Falcons had a least two RBI. The win was the Falcons' sixth straight — they've yet to lose in April — and 10th win in their last 12 games dating back to March 19th. At 15-5, they're currently two games behind Bay Valley Conference leader Laney College and just half a game behind second-place Los Medanos. The remaining four games are all on the road, beginning with Mendocino on Thursday before playing at Contra Costa on Saturday.

Upcoming Sports Schedule:

Fri April 22nd: M/W Tennis at Ojai Tournament (Individual Regional Championships), all day
Sat April 23rd: Baseball at Contra Costa, 12 noon and M/W Tennis at Ojai Tournament (Individual State Championships)

Wins Continue for Lady Lancers

By Mike Bush

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Three wins in four games. That's what the Cordova High School softball produced in seven days. The one game that the Lady Lancers didn't win was on Monday in a Sierra Valley Conference contest. Playing at Liberty Ranch, the hits were there for Cordova (3-3 in the SVC, 7-8 overall), but the Lady Hawks pulled out an 8-3 win. The game was tied 2-2 after the first inning. But Liberty Ranch (record) scored two more runs in the second and three more in the third frames for a 7-2 lead. Cordova scored its final run in the top of the sixth. Cordova finished with nine hits in the game. Leading the offense was Nikki Jones, who went 2-for-4 with a double. Samantha Lutman also went 2-for-4 with an RBI and Traci Mahony also had an RBI. Liberty Ranch had 10 hits. "Liberty Ranch has our number (on Monday)," said Cordova head coach Tracy Cole, whose squad plays the Hawks again this month.

Cordova 22, Galt 6

In an SVC game home game on April 15th, the Lancers had the Warriors' number. Cordova banged out 21 hits in the game that was called after five innings because of the 10-run mercy rule. One of those hits was a grand slam from Mason Pittaro, who clubbed her second home run against El Dorado on April 11th. Mahony and Joycelyn Brown had four hits each for the Lancers; Mahony had a double, three singles and two RBIs while Brown also had two RBIs. Sierra Reyes joined the Lancers' hitting circle by going 3-for-4 that included a double and two RBIs. Other Lancer hitters were Samantha Lutman, Pittaro and Kai'lee Cole with two hits each. game in Sacramento on April 14th, the Lancers led 11-0 after the first inning. The game was called after five innings, also because of the mercy rule. Cordova had 25 hits.

Cordova 8, Rosemont 3

In an SVC home game on April 13th, the visiting Wolverines led 3-1 going into the bottom of the fifth inning. That's when the Lancers' offensive production took command. Cordova, which scored its first run in the first inning, plated seven runs that led to the win. "We batted our whole lineup," said Cole of his team's attack in the fifth frame. "They just let loose." The Lancers had only five hits, plus took advantage of four Rosemont errors to get the win. Reyes, along with Cooper, Brown, Mahony and Cain, had a hit each for the Lancers. On Wednesday, Cordova, which was sitting alone in third place in the SVC, hosted first place Union Mine, which is 7-0. Today, Friday, the Lancers will host El Dorado and next Monday play at Rosemont. Both games are scheduled to start at 4 p.m. ★

ARE YOU A SPORTS WRITER? CALL US! 773-1111

When you have been away for a few days and you're on that long ride home but closing in on familiar territory a certain feeling starts seeping into a temporarily vacated space. The sensation gradually expands as you take that usual turn off the highway and work your way back to the neighborhood. As you pull into the driveway and shut the motor down you feel it and maybe even say it out loud, "It was great to get away, but it's so good to be back home."

It's good to be in that "happy place" where you have settled down, that place where you keep all of your stuff and know exactly where all of it is (most of it, anyway). You know what you have in your own refrigerator, except for a couple of unrecognizable items that got shoved to the back a couple of weeks ago. It's nice to relax in the backyard for awhile or put your feet up in the recliner in your cozy, homey living room, and it is going to be so fine to sleep in your own bed. You're back in your comfort zone. Nobody in sports seems to have a comfort zone quite like the Golden State Warriors, unless it is the San Antonio Spurs. As the relatively ugly first round of the NBA Playoffs progresses it is rather clear why everybody has tabbed the Warriors and Spurs as the favorites to meet in the Western Conference Finals and ultimately to be crowned champions: Nobody can beat them on their home floors unless they do it to each other. The Warriors lost only twice at home during the regular season, the Spurs only once. The Spurs' loss came at the hands of the Warriors in their penultimate home game of the schedule. That 92-86 Golden State victory, the Warriors' first there after 33 consecutive losses at San Antonio (dating back to Feb. 14, 1997), snapped the Spurs' 49-game home win streak, the second-longest all-time. The longest all-time belongs to the Warriors, also set this year as both teams surpassed the 20-year-old mark of 44 straight set by Michael Jordan's Chicago Bulls. Golden State's 54-game Oracle Arena streak was finally broken late in the year by the Boston Celtics and that pesky little Isaiah Thomas, the former Sacramento Kings point guard and "Pizza Guy." After their second home loss of the year, surprisingly to the lowly Minnesota Timberwolves, the Warriors were faced with the task of winning their final four games, two of them against the Spurs, to break the Bulls' record of 72 victories in a season. The win at San Antonio was No. 72 and the mission was completed at home with a 125-104 blowout over the injury-depleted Memphis Grizzlies, before the usual raucous crowd that has the reputation for creating the most dominating home-court advantage in the NBA. Golden State (73-9) and San Antonio (67-15) are expected to promptly dispose of their first-round playoff opponents, Houston and Memphis, respectively. But they would not face each other until the Western Conference Finals. The Warriors would also have to get past either Portland or the L. A. Clippers, while the Spurs would have to beat either Oklahoma City or Dallas. The two teams last met in the playoffs in 2013. That season the Warriors had won both regular-season matchups in Oakland and took Game 2 of the WC semi's in San Antonio. But the Spurs returned the favor twice, winning Game 3 and the decisive Game 6 at Oracle and eventually reached The Finals, but lost to LeBron James and the Miami Heat. Meanwhile, the San Francisco Giants must be quite happy to be settling into their first extended stay at home of the new season, a 10-game stretch at AT&T Park, after playing nine of their first thirteen games on the road, going 7-6. In their only home series to that point, the Giants took three of four from the L. A. Dodgers. The Giants returned home after losing two of three in L. A. It's the Dodgers the Giants will have to catch in the NL West. The Dodgers have won three straight division titles, but the Giants have won three World Series titles in five seasons, 2010, '12 and '14. The Dodgers have not won a Series since 1988. So there. The Giants went 47-34 at home last year but finished second, eight games behind L. A. In an effort to return to the playoffs, SF has remade its starting pitching rotation, adding free agents Johnny Cueto and Jeff Samardzija to fill in the No.2 and No. 3 slots behind Madison Bumgarner. Cueto is off to an impressive 3-0 start, while Samardzija has been solid in his three starts as the pair gets comfortable in their new home. They have All Star catcher Buster Posey to help them along with that. It has often been suggested that Posey's wear-and-tear due to his time donning the "tools of ignorance" should be reduced, thereby possibly improving his offensive production, by having him play more games at first base. But as one of the best defensive catchers in the game today much of his value revolves around managing the pitching staff. He insists he is a catcher first and he is most at home behind home plate. Home, sweet home is where the heart is. But there is always some exception to any rule. Right now that is the San Jose Sharks. The Sharks, squaring off with the L. A. Kings in the first round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs, were the top road team in the National Hockey League this season. The Sharks finished 28-10-3 on the road, but only 18-20-3 at home after a 5-12 start at SAP Center. The slow start could partly be attributed to an early-season injury to star forward Logan Couture, who missed thirty games in all during the season. Despite winning the first two playoff games at L. A., the Sharks must be wary of the Kings, for it has been the Kings that have knocked the Sharks out of the playoffs in San Jose's last two appearances. In 2013 and 2014, the Kings won seven-game series. In 2014, L. A. became only the fourth team in NHL history to rally from a 3-0 deficit to win a series and in doing so outscored the Sharks 18-5 over the final four games. The Sharks may have to feel a little more at home on home ice to prevent something such as that from happening again. ★
