Story and photos by Margaret Snider

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - On March 14th, a stand was set up in front of Rancho Cordova City Hall, and 15 volunteers took turns getting their heads shaved as a token of solidarity with six local children who have suffered from cancer. The volunteers ranged in age from 5- to 60-years-old.

Emily Marler, 16 and now cancer free, is one of those six and was there to support the cause. She is a two-time survivor, the first a rare type of liver cancer she developed at age 12. She was treated with aggressive chemotherapy, and after a year and a half of being cancer free, developed acute myeloid leukemia. Emily received a bone marrow transplant and was in complete isolation for a year and a half.

"It may not have been a great thing to go through," Emily said, "but I'm glad that I went through it because if I didn't, I wouldn't be who I am today, and I'm proud of who I am today."

Other honorees are Timothy B., 6, in remission; Dalton W., 5, in treatment; Thomas R., 8, no evidence of disease; Karyn Pearl S., 5, cancer free; and Kitauna G., 17, in treatment.

St. Baldrick's Foundation began fundraising for childhood cancer in 1999, and Rancho Cordova joined in for the first time in 2015, taking in around $14,000. Contributions reached $9,000 on the day of this year's event, and more will be applied to the total as it comes in through the end of March.

Teamsters Endorse Scott Jones for Congress

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Teamsters Joint Council 7, representing 100,000 working men and women in 22 local unions in Northern California, the Central Valley, and Northern Nevada, has endorsed Sheriff Scott Jones for Congress in the 7th district.

"We are endorsing Scott Jones because of his strong stance against the Trans Pacific Partnership and commitment to protecting American jobs," said Rome Aloise, President of Teamsters Joint Council 7. "With 10,000 good-paying union jobs in California's vital dairy industry at stake, we need someone in this seat whose word we can count on. We are confident that Scott Jones is the right person for the job."

Sheriff Scott Jones

Local Teamsters members work in trucking, warehousing/distribution, freight, food processing, dairies, solid waste/recycling, public services, beverages, and more.

"I am very happy to receive the endorsement of the Teamsters," said Jones. "These are men and women who work hard every day to provide for their families. They are rightfully worried about federal policies that do not value their vital contribution to our nation's economy. They deserve to have a representative who values the job they do and will work to protect middle class working families who are under so much pressure in the current economy."

Sheriff Scott Jones is challenging incumbent Congressman Ami Bera in the 7th congressional district. Jones is the current President of the California Peace Officers Association and sits on many professional and community boards, including Make-a-Wish. Jones has a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice from CSU Sacramento, and a Juris Doctor (Law) degree from Lincoln Law School. He is also a graduate of the West Point Leadership Program, as well as the FBI's National Executive Institute.

Community Celebrates New Performing Arts Theater

$22 Million State-of-the-Art Facility Long-Awaited by Rancho Cordova Students and Community

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Students, families, alumni and community leaders on Thursday, March 17th, celebrated the grand opening of Cordova High School's $22 million state-of-the-art Performing Arts Theater, a long-anticipated resource that will benefit not only generations of student performers, but will serve as a sought-after gathering place for the Rancho Cordova community.

The 35,000-square-foot facility features a 464-seat theater and modern rehearsal and classroom space for Cordova High's band, choir, and drama programs. Dressing rooms, an orchestra pit and full audio, visual and lighting amenities will provide students, teachers, and community members with the professional tools they need to put on high quality productions. The project, which broke ground in May 2014, was financed through bond proceeds previously approved by Rancho Cordova voters.

their parents,” said BJ Yu, owner of KP International Market. The free single or group glossy photos will be taken in the KP International Market’s Food Court, located at 10971 Olson Drive, off the U.S. 50 Zinfandel Exit in Rancho Cordova. Source: KP International Market ★

Project 680 Collects Hoodies and Polos for Homeless Students

By Margaret Snider

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Homeless students in the Folsom Cordova Unified School District need supplies. Right now the call is out for new uniform polo shirts for elementary school children in black, navy, and white. New hoodies, especially in children’s small and medium sizes, and youth/adult medium and large may be in uniform or other colors. The items or donations can be dropped off at Rancho Cordova City Hall by March 31st.

“Walmart has a little section within the kids’ clothing area,” said Melody Granger-Mayer of Cordova Community Council. “They actually have a couple of little racks specifically all grouped together that have the standard polo shirts that the schools use. You can get them other places, but they definitely are the cheapest that we’ve been able to buy.” In 2008, members of the community became aware, through the FCUSD District Liaison for Homeless Services, that there were 680 homeless students in the District. Project 680 took its name from that number, and set out to provide for needs that many of these students have no way of fulfilling. The informal drive in 2008 intended to collect 680 pairs of socks and ended up with 3,144 pairs. Since then there have been other drives to supply clothing, hygiene items and other necessities for the homeless students in the District. “I love that our district goes the extra mile,” said Joe Rich, committee chair of Project 680. “California requires that we provide our homeless students with a full and equal opportunity to succeed in District schools... Succeeding sometimes means more than just enrollment. “Sometimes our parents need help navigating the system and finding the help that is available in our community. So I’m happy to participate in any event where we can stand up with these employees and show these students (and their parents) that this is a caring community.” The plight of homeless children affects more than most people would expect, with the current count within FCUSD at 783 according to the last count available. The challenge is the same throughout Sacramento

County school districts. In 2011, according to the Project 680 website, there were 7,254 homeless children and youths, a jump of more than 50 percent since 2005. As the Project 680 website states, “homeless” is defined as “an individual who lacks a fixed, regular, and adequate residence.” The students that the school district serves in Folsom and Rancho Cordova are living in unstable places like motels, in homes without a parent or legal guardian, in homes without power or water, in RVs in parking lots, in cars, in tents, on the streets, and more. Because Project 680 does not have official nonprofit status, Cordova Community Council provides fiscal oversight for the group. “The Cordova Community Council accepts donations on their behalf,” said Granger-Mayer. “The money that’s collected can then be used to purchase additional items or whatever it is that is needed (for the homeless students).” The final drop-off and celebration for the drive will be 5 to 9 p.m., Thursday, March 31st, at Rancho Cordova City Hall. Refreshments will be served. Project 680 is managed by a volunteer board of community members that consists of Joe Rich, Melody Granger-Mayer, Lorianne Ulm, Sheryl Longworth, and Ryan Lundquist. ★

In December 2015, members of Sacramento Paddle Pushers (kayak club) picked Project680 as their charity for the year. They collected seven bags: 11 hoodies, 62 pairs of socks, 12 bottles of shampoo/body wash, 14 deodorants, six pairs of underwear, and more. Photo Courtesy Project 680 alarming. “More children are lost to cancer in the U.S. than any other disease, more than all other childhood diseases combined,” said Shelly Blanchard, executive director of Cordova Community Council. “Before they turn 20, one in 285 children in the U.S. will have cancer, and worldwide a child is diagnosed with cancer every three minutes.”

The first four to mount the shaving block were Rancho Cordova Vice Mayor Donald Terry and his 5-year-old son Keaton; Zak Ford, vice president of the Folsom Cordova School Board; and Anil Kondakrindi, a Rancho Cordova software engineer and vice president of the Sacramento Telangana

Association. Good humor and jokes at the “shavees” expense accompanied innovative shaving techniques by Breanna Stahl, Megan Thrasher, and Laura Curtes, who undertook the procedure for Terry, Keaton, and Kondakrindi respectively. Jessicah Ford carried out an imaginative process on her brother, Zak Ford. All the hairdressers are from Aveda Salon in Roseville.

Terry gave special thanks to event organizers Ashley Downton, communications specialist, and Lorianne Ulm, community engagement analyst. “Last year I sprung this on Ashley and Lorianne,” Terry said, “who out of the goodness of their hearts put this event together in about ten days... It’s a great testament to our community and to our city that we hosted an event like this.”

Zak Ford joined with Terry to support this Rancho Cordova event. “This is really a minor thing to do for the greater cause,” Ford said. “This is something that’s absolutely heartbreaking and needs to be resolved.”

Emily has plans to attend college, and she hopes to eventually work in a field having to do with animals. “I cherish my life right now,” she said. “I take it one step at a time, and life’s going good for me.”

Zak Ford Accepting Applications for Scholarship

Friends,
Do you know a Folsom Cordova graduating senior looking for something to do over spring break? If so, please let them know about the Daniel Campbell Ford Scholarship! I am accepting applications through Friday, April 8th!

In 2011, I established the Daniel Campbell Ford Scholarship in the Folsom Cordova Unified School District.

The scholarship, named in honor of my great-grandfather, Daniel Campbell Ford, is awarded to two graduating seniors planning to continue their education at a two-year or four-year college or university. One student is awarded the scholarship from the Rancho Cordova community and one student is awarded the scholarship from the Folsom community. The award amount per student is $1,000.

In addition to offsetting some of the financial costs of college, the scholarship aims to give students a greater appreciation for a family member or other person that has made a sacrifice to provide them with greater opportunity in life.

Daniel Campbell Ford was a coal miner in Tennessee with only a second grade education when he started his family a century ago. Daniel wanted more opportunity for his children and desired that each would receive a quality education. He sold everything he could and moved his family to California, arriving with little more than a dream.

Despite his lack of formal education, Daniel always encouraged his children to take advantage of their educational opportunities. Ford was proud that all 11 of his children graduated from high school – this rate would have been high at the time and nearly unfathomable had he stayed in Tennessee. A few of his children graduated from college and nearly all of his grandchildren graduated from college, many with advanced degrees.

I hope you know of someone who could benefit from this opportunity and will apply by Friday, April 8. Please visit www.DanielCampbellFord.com for more information on the scholarship.

Sincerely,
Zak Ford

And Another Thing ...

Changes in the Neighborhood

In last week's column, I talked about the Performing Arts Theater at Cordova High School and how the stage will be used by students of different schools. The theater is also going to be used for events and performances from the community. The ribbon cutting and the grand opening of the theater last week went very well. Low and behold, the Rancho Cordova Civic Light Orchestra invites everyone to come to their first concert at the theater on Saturday, April 2nd at 7:30 pm. Pete Nowlen will be the Conductor, and they will be featuring violin sensation Ray Anthony Trujillo, performing Mendelssohn's masterpiece Violin Concerto, Bizet's Carmen Suites One & Two, and more. The sound in the theater is unbelievable and allows everyone to hear everything that is said or sung. Visitors will hear every note of music from every instrument. I hope the people who are followers of the Rancho Cordova Civic Light Orchestra, and those who haven't had an opportunity to hear them, will be able to come. It is the annual fundraiser for the orchestra, and the tickets are $20 at <http://newtraditions.brownpapertickets.com/>. Hearing them perform in our new Performing Arts Theater will give the audience an opportunity to see and enjoy what the school bond that they passed in 2012 has given to the community.

In other news, last week we heard that there are some Kohl's stores closing in the country and that the one in Rancho Cordova is on that list. Our staff is working on the future of that shopping center so they can bring in new businesses to replace the one we are apparently losing. The Macy's in Country Club closed its doors last week along with other Macy's stores across the country. On the other hand, we will have the new Viva Supermarket open its doors in Rancho Cordova tentatively on May 5th (Cinco de Mayo) where Raleys used to be. Many people are doing their shopping online instead of going to the store. And when enough people don't go to the store and shop there, the headquarters looks at that store's profit margin and decides if it is worth their while to keep it open. It has happened to many stores, and what we have seen over the years doesn't seem to be stopping. Let's hope that there are enough shoppers both online and in the stores to keep the employees working and the stores open.

My wife and I went over the American River this week on the Sunrise Boulevard bridge and then on the Watt Avenue bridge, and it is quite a sight to see. The last time I remember seeing all those islands under water was in 2011. We also enjoyed seeing the water levels in Folsom Reservoir higher than they have been for quite a while. Sometimes, simple things are among the most enjoyable. We like to point out things like that to our grandchildren. And that reminded me about what Mr. Forest E. Witcraft, a scholar, teacher, and Boy Scout executive said, "A hundred years from now it will not matter what my bank account was, the sort of house I lived in, or the kind of car I drove... but the world may be different because I was important in the life of a child."

From Councilman Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time. ★

Major Injury Collision

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - On Tuesday, March 22nd, Sacramento Sheriff Deputies attempted to make a stop on a 2004 Chevy Silverado for vehicle code violations as it traveled southbound on Bradshaw Road at Oates Drive. Rather than stopping, the suspect vehicle attempted to accelerate away and tried to enter the freeway where it clipped the front of another vehicle. The Chevy then lost control striking a road sign and an overhead street light and proceeded to overturn multiple times.

From the time the Chevy failed to yield, to the time it crashed the vehicle had traveled approximately 300 yards. The other driver did not sustain injuries from the crash; however the driver and passenger of the fleeing Chevy became pinned in their now upside down getaway vehicle.

Sacramento Metro fire crews were called out to extricate the suspects. Both driver and passenger were wanted felons, the driver being a parolee at large. The vehicle was found to contain thousands of dollars in loose bills and pounds of methamphetamine and heroine.

Both the driver and passenger of the suspect vehicle were arrested at the scene and were transported to UC Davis medical center for treatment.

The ramp to US-50 westbound from southbound Bradshaw Road had been closed for approximately an hour and a half, as money, drugs, and the vehicle were recovered. The Sacramento Sheriff's department is handling their portion of the case whereas East Sacramento CHP is handling the crash portion. No Sheriff Deputies or private citizens sustained any injury from this incident.

Rancho Cordova Recognizes Vietnam Veterans

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Did you serve on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces from November 1st, 1955 to May 15th, 1975? If your answer is yes, then the City of Rancho Cordova wants to hear from you!

Nine million Americans served during the Vietnam War period and 7.2 million are still living. Due to its military history, Rancho Cordova wanted to be a part of honoring these veterans in our community.

veterans and their families know that we appreciate their service and sacrifice to our nation.”

If you would like to be recognized or have questions, please contact Delisa Verdun in the City Manager’s Office at (916) 851-8809 by Friday, April 1st.

CORDOVA SPORTS

Lancers Break Into the Win Column

By Mike Bush

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Back-to-back wins was sweet for the Cordova High School baseball team last week.

Making the short trek to Sacramento to play at Florin, the Lancers wasted little time in posting a 15-5 win over the Panthers on March 19th. The contest was a hitter's fest; Cordova had 12 hits and Florin had nine. But the Lancers' advantage was the Panthers' six errors.

Cordova scored one-third of its runs in the first inning, leading 5-0. Florin rallied in its first at-bat with two runs. The Lancers led the entire game and scored in all but one inning in the contest.

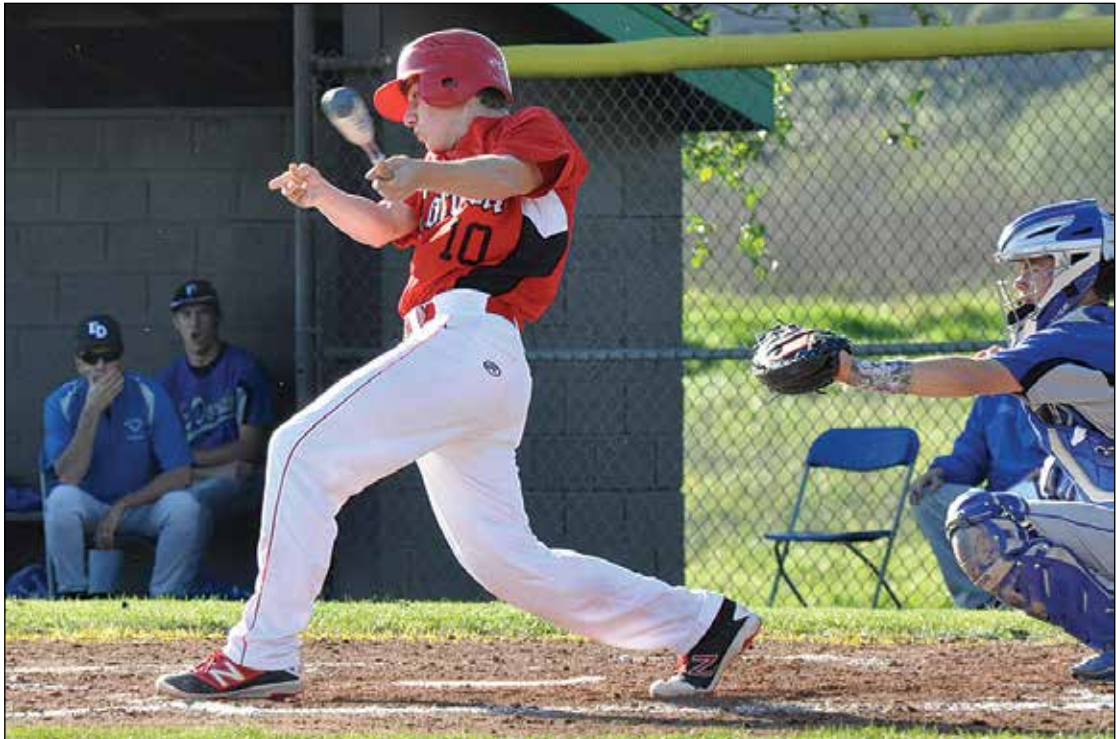

Cordova 7, Galt 1

In a Sierra Valley Conference home game on March 17th, the Lancers led 1-0 until the bottom of the third inning, when they scored three times for a 4-0 lead. Cordova scored a run in each inning. Galt scored its only run in the top of the fourth inning.

"We played well defensively and hit the ball well," said Cordova head coach Doug Hughes, whose squad improves to 1-2 in the SVC and 2-4-1 overall.

Union Mine 9, Cordova 5

On March 16th, also a home game, the Lancers led 5-3 going into the top of the seventh inning.

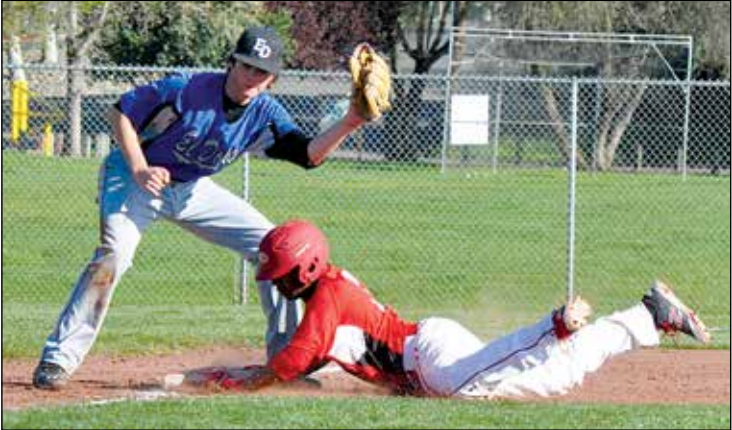

But the visiting Diamondbacks rallied in their last at-bat with six runs. By the end of the game, Union Mine outit the Lancers 15-7.

Prior to the D'backs scoring most of their runs in the final inning, Cordova scored four runs in the bottom of the third inning that gave its lead until the final frame.

"We were up 5-3 and made a couple of mistakes that cost us the game," Hughes said.

Cordova Easter Tournament

According to Hughes, who was hired as the new Cordova baseball prior to the start of the season, this year's annual tournament was cancelled because most of the teams that participated in last year's tourney had already committed to other tournaments and/

or non-league games.

But Hughes noted that "we will have the tournament again next year."

This week, the Lancers have no games because of spring break. But next week, Cordova will return to action that includes two SVC games, plus two more non-league road contests.

On Tuesday, Cordova will play at Liberty Ranch. Then on Thursday, March 31st, the Lancers closes out the first round of SVC action at Rosemont. Both games are scheduled to start at 4 p.m.

On Friday, April 1st, Cordova plays a non-league game at Laguna Creek. Game time is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. On Saturday, April 2nd, Cordova will host Franklin of Stockton at 11 a.m. ★

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Cordova Boys Golf team took on Union Mine at Cameron Park Country Club. Zane and Momin Choudhry tied for first with respectable scores of 40 on par 36. The course was wet with winter conditions but play was played without winter rules. The Cordova team did not win but made individual improvements. Zane and Momin Choudhry will be participating in the Sacramento City Junior Easter Championship.

Herd Races Past Lancers

By Mike Bush

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - In its only non-league game last week, Elk Grove, one of the top ranked teams in the Sacramento region, posted a 17-1 win over the Lancers on March 16th. The Cordova High School softball team wants to quickly forget that contest and focus on upcoming games.

This week, the Lady Lancers have no games scheduled because of the school's spring

Next Tuesday, Cordova returns to action with a non-league game at El Camino. Game time is scheduled for 4 p.m. On Friday, April 1st, the Lady Lancers host Dougherty Valley of San Ramon, with a 3:30 p.m. scheduled time for the first pitch.

Sierra Valley Conference is just around the corner for Cordova. That will be on Monday, April 4th at Galt. Game time is 3:30 p.m. ★

Learning the Hard Way from Mistakes

Way back when you were 18-22 years old did you ever make any mistakes? Do you remember them to this day? Do you wish you could take them back and have those times to do all over again?

It is apparent that there IS crying in college basketball, and once the tears have dried up there will be a number of young players living with their unforgettable miscues.

There are some USC Trojans who will be haunted every time they step to the free throw line by visions of their missed shots late in a loss in the 2016 NCAA Tournament. There will be a Northern Iowa star who will remember (probably above all of the great moments in his career) his two unwise, hurried shots in the final minute, while some of his teammates will clearly recall panicky turnovers that helped blow a 12-point lead in the closing 45 seconds of regulation that gave Texas A&M the chance to steal the game.

A couple of Stephen F. Austin Lumberjacks will be kicking themselves for not blocking out on a rebound that gave Wisconsin the opening to tip in a missed shot at the buzzer for the win.

The entire No.-2 seed Michigan State team, picked by many to reach the Final Four and possibly go all the way, will forever shake their collective heads when thinking about their performance against No.-15 seed Middle Tennessee State in a first-round defeat. When Denzel Valentine (a Player of the Year candidate) and fellow Spartans seniors Matt Costello, Bryn Forbes and Colby Wollenman --- a legendary group that won 109 games together --- performed the traditional kissing of the mid-court MSU logo after a decisive win over Ohio State on Senior Night, little did they know that their fond memories of their final season would be tarnished by such an abrupt ending.

Closer to home, it was instant bad karma for the Cal Bears when an assistant coach was promptly fired after a long-running investigation into sexual harassment violations (there's a regrettable mistake) came to light on the verge of a potential deep run in the tournament. A No.-4 seed in the South bracket (Cal's highest-ever seeding), it all went wrong in a hurry. Point guard and leading scorer Tyrone Wallace broke his hand in practice and sharpshooter Jabari Bird suffered severe back spasms before the game, and neither played in a first-round loss to No.-13 Hawaii, 77-66. That may have been called an upset, but, under the circumstances, it was no surprise.

Potential NBA draftee Jaylen Brown got into early foul trouble and was limited and ineffective, and fellow freshman star Ivan Rabb had little help against the Rainbow Warriors, who won their first-ever NCAA Tournament game. (It appears that duo are likely to be high NBA picks, though they might be better-served by returning to Cal for a second season. Brown has the powerful body, but is inconsistent and needs work on shooting, while Rabb is more refined in his skills, but needs work on the body).

In what could have been a remarkable dream season for coach Cuonzo Martin's 23-11 Bears, --- don't forget they crushed Oregon at home by 20 and lost on the road at Virginia in overtime (two teams in the Sweet 16) --- it all fell apart quickly on the doorstep of grand success and crumbled into an unimaginable nightmarish finish.

But in a sense, this is a tournament of losers. Out of all of the 68 entrants, just one will conclude its season with a victory and a championship, while the 67 others will forever have thoughts about the "what ifs" and the mistakes made along the way that led to their demise.

As a group, the Pac-12 will not have much to cherish regarding its showing in this year's tournament, thus far. A record seven teams from the conference made the cut, but five (Cal, Colorado, Arizona, Oregon State, USC) lost in the first round. After an opening win over Fresno State, Utah was trounced by Gonzaga of the West Coast Conference, 82-59. All six losses were to lower seeds. With wins over Holy Cross and St. Joseph's, Oregon, the top seed in the West bracket, was to meet defending-national champion Duke Thursday.

Surprises were not exclusive to the Pac-12, however. Lower-seeded teams won 12 of the 32 first-round matchups and three lower seeds won in the second round. All four top seeds in the West bracket played in Anaheim --- Oregon, Duke, Texas A&M and Oklahoma --- reached the Sweet 16. Two double-digit seeds survived to advance and face each other in the Midwest Regional, Gonzaga (11) and Syracuse (10).

That all makes you wonder, again, how St. Mary's College of the WCC might have fared had it been chosen to participate. The Gaels lost a close game at Cal and defeated Gonzaga twice during the regular season, but lost to the Zags in the WCC tournament title game and missed out on the automatic berth.

Playing, instead, in the Not Invited Tournament (NIT), also known as the National Invitational Tournament, coach Randy Bennett's Gaels (29-5) held on to edge New Mexico State, 58-56, and beat the Georgia Bulldogs, 77-65, in games at McKeon Pavilion in Moraga, to reach the quarter-finals. They were to play at Valparaiso (Ind.) Tuesday night for a chance to go to Madison Square Garden for the secondary Final Four.

When it is all said and done, even if St. Mary's was to win the door prize at The Hop, the Gaels will all remember and perhaps shed a tear or two over losing that last go-round against Gonzaga and missing out on their ticket to The Dance. ★
