Celebrating America

"The flag of the United States is one of the most recognizable symbols on earth, more so than our monuments or presidents. From its creation, the flag has stood for freedom, liberty, and the prosperity of the United States. It was designed to accommodate the growth of a budding nation. Stars have been added, but it has retained the same significance. When you take your flag out to fly, hold it carefully, as it is a representation of our whole nation!"

– Author Unknown

Commentary by Elise Spleiss

There was a time not so long ago when our flag, I believe, did not have as much meaning as it does today. It was just a part of our lives, and we took it for granted. I know I did.

Growing up in the 50s and 60s, I assumed it would always be around, always representing my country, and always respected by our citizens. But unfortunately this did not happen, and the flag began to be treated badly. Allowed to fly unmanaged, never folded or brought in at night, many became dirty and tattered. Disgruntled groups burned flags in protest. Yes, this is legal, but still sad. And our flag began appearing on inappropriate items.

I never realized it, but we are not supposed to wear a flag in any form, yet so many different items with this precious image are created to be wrapped around us and worn on our body and feet. We have rugs we walk on, napkins to wipe our faces, and even cloth on which we sit bears this precious image.

This misuse remains, but on Sept. 11, 2001, we found ourselves with a renewed respect and appreciation for our flag.

Following a catastrophic attack on our American values and freedom, our pride suddenly—once again—exploded.

We saw our American flag on homes, on posters in businesses of every kind, and on numerous pieces of clothing—which was still inappropriate. I think we just did not know, but maybe for a moment it was all right.

Of course, many of us remember those mammoth flags fluttering from the windows of cars and trucks. Today I'm beginning to once more see the fluttering flags attached to the windows of vehicles.

It felt good then, but it's too bad it had to take a national disaster to bring us a renewed appreciation of our flag.

Remember the photo taken of three firefighters raising the flag above the rubble of the World Trade Center—raising the Flag at Ground Zero? It was reminiscent of the famous 1945 WWII photo of six Marines raising Old Glory over Iwo Jima. Thomas E. Franklin, the photographer of the new photo, said of it, "This was an important shot. It told of more than just death and destruction. It said something to me about the strength of the American people and of these firemen having to battle the unimaginable."

One of the three firemen in the photo, Dan McWilliams remembered that as the flag was being raised, other fire personnel yelled, "Good job" and "Way to go!" He said, "Every pair of eyes that saw that flag got a little brighter." I think this pretty much confirms what our flag means to us.

It has been over 10 years since 9-11, so why is this topic becoming important again? I believe it's because everywhere we look today in this country, we see on TV, hear on the radio, and read in print how our borders, our language, our American culture, and our way of life are being compromised in the name of political correctness. We are being led to believe that when we're too proud of our own way of life, of our freedom and uniqueness, we are insulting another's way of life. This is when it gets dangerous.

We still welcome all who desire to come to this country with integrity as they embrace our culture alongside their own. We welcome them as they learn our language, and come to appreciate and love the American way of life that already exists here as much as we do. We learn from each other.

This is what our flag means to me. What does it mean to you? ★

Fireworks and Fun on July 3rd

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The Independence Day celebration starts early in Rancho Cordova; it's a two-day event full of family-friendly activities.

Independence Day fun gets a jumpstart on July 3rd when the Fourth of July Festival opens its gates at 4 p.m. with a full carnival, free Kids Zone with plenty of fun activities, beer gardens complete with musical entertainment, and more. Festival food, exhibits, pedal boat rides on the Hagan Park ponds, plus a spin for the kids on the Bobble Lagoon and Swan Lake boats make it a night to remember.

The BMX Freestyle Team will present three exciting shows on the hour beginning at 6 p.m. Watch their breathtaking tricks and get a free bicycle helmet autographed by the riders. 27 Outlaws will play country tunes in the Beer Garden at 6 p.m.

At 8:15 p.m., head to the outdoor Main Stage concert venue for music under the stars from Journey Unauthorized, a tribute band that is the next best thing to the real thing! Be sure to bring a blanket or lawn chairs, and be ready when the band rolls the crowd into the concert-ending fireworks mini show—an eye-popping treat for the senses to get you warmed up for the Fourth of July.

Rotary Honors Rancho Cordova Police Officer

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Rancho Cordova Police Sergeant Steve Dutra is the recipient of the "Service Above Self Award" that is given annually by the Sacramento Rotary for outstanding community service by a public official.

The award came with a $1,000 prize that Sergeant Dutra donated to the Rancho Cordova Police Athletic League (PAL) program.

"I did this because I have seen how instrumental the PAL program is and how it makes a positive difference in the lives of children within the community. At the same time, it provides officers with the chance to be positive role models for youth, and I decided to give back to the program when I was provided with this opportunity," said Sergeant Dutra, who is a supervisor for the Rancho Cordova Police Department (RCPD) and the Sacramento Sheriff's East Patrol Division.

As a member of the RCPD Problem Oriented Policing (POP) detail, Sergeant Dutra oversees PAL in Rancho Cordova, supervises the School Resource Officer and Youth Services Officer programs, oversees the youth alcohol reduction program, and manages the crime prevention specialist program. He routinely attends community meetings and events at night on weekends, and volunteers his time to coach the Junior Giant's baseball team in Rancho Cordova.

"Sergeant Dutra is truly one of those individuals who bring passion to the mission of public service," said Lieutenant Chris Pittman, Assistant Commander of the RCPD and East Patrol Division. "He is a hardworking, thoughtful and accomplished leader within the community, and his can-do attitude makes him a pleasure to be around." ★ 2014 Cordova High Sober Grad Night a Huge Success!

By Sheryl Longworth

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Thanks to the generosity of our numerous supporters and volunteers, Sober Grad Night for the Cordova High Class of 2014 was an enormous success!

203 seniors, which are approximately 50% of this year’s graduating class, had a memorable night safely celebrating their accomplishments at Golfand Sunsplash in Roseville thanks to the generosity of the following donors and sponsors. Without their support, a majority of our students would be unable to afford a Sober Grad ticket because we would have to pass all $20,000 in costs on to our students, which would put the starting price of a ticket at $110. Because of our fund-raisers and donor/sponsor support, the starting price of a Sober Grad ticket is $75 and we have money for scholarships to assist our most financially-challenged students.

The biggest thank you of all goes out to the Sober Grad committee comprised of Connie Farnsworth, Liane Sousa and Stacey Kingsley. I am also extremely grateful to Cordova High Site Captain Laura Sims and Sunsplash Site Captain Gracie Castillo for preparing and keeping their respective ends organized and running as smoothly as possible. I would also like to thank the 40+ volunteers comprised of alumni, family, teachers and Drake Crump of US Bank, that helped out at Cordova High to get the kids safely on the buses and being ever vigilant keeping seniors safe at Sunsplash and for so tactfully and professionally identify and address the few issues that arose. This was definitely a team effort! “The overwhelming positive feedback I have received from the seniors makes the lack of sleep and sore feet all worth it. Knowing that we ensured that our seniors, who had worked so hard to graduate, safely returned home to see their future’s through, was very gratifying,” says Sheryl Longworth, Sober Grad chairperson.

CHS Sober Grad is a subcommittee of Cordova High PTSA, which was organized in April 2006. CHS PTSA works in partnership with a wide array of individuals and organizations to accomplish our agreed-upon goals. We are dedicated to promoting student health, well-being, and educational success through strong parent, family, and community involvement.

If anyone is interested in helping out with the 2015 Sober Grad Night, which will also be at Golfand Sunsplash, or volunteering for any CHS PTSA activities, please contact Sheryl Longworth at cordovahsptsa@gmail.com. “Many hands make light work for all and our students are worth it,” says Longworth. ★

Baja Experience in Rancho Cordova

Costa Vida Fresh Mexican Grill is passionate about their food, their employees, and the customer experience.

By Jane S Daly

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - The Rancho Cordova Chamber of Commerce celebrated the grand opening of Costa Vida Fresh Mexican Grill with a ribbon cutting. Costa Vida franchise is new to Rancho Cordova, which was chosen because of its ‘awesome location.’ In fact, an unnamed employee said “Rancho Cordova deserves us.” Restaurant manager Sebren Green welcomed Councilmember Linda Budge, Chamber President & CEO Diann Rogers, and a host of friends, employees and Chamber members to the ribbon cutting on June 16. Pictured is Mr. Green holding the official welcome proclamation presented by Ms. Budge. The restaurant is passionate about their food, their employees, and the customer experience. When you're craving a satisfying and intensely flavored lunch or dinner served in a contagiously energetic environment – and made by people who believe in creating meals the right way, Costa Vida's your place. ★

Cal Expo Announces New Team Members

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Cal Expo announces two key team members: Jennifer Castleberry, of Rocklin, has been appointed by Governor Edmund G. Brown as the marketing and public relations manager of the California Exposition & State Fair. Castleberry was general manager at Modamedia Communications from 2012 to 2014 and senior director of marketing, events and entertainment for the Sacramento River Cats Baseball Club from 2010 to 2012. She was a managing supervisor for Runyon Saltzman and Einhorn from 2000 to 2010, communications director for the Delaware

Department of Health and Social Services from 1998 to 1999, new account acquisition manager at Fleet Bank from 1995 to 1998 and communication director at the Hawaii State Department of Health from 1990 to 1995. She is a member of the American Advertising Federation. Lara N. Popyack, of Rancho Cordova, has been hired as the media director for this summer's California State Fair July 11 - 27. Lara worked as a freelance producer and director in film and television from 2012 to 2014 and as a producer at News10 (ABC) from 2009 to 2011. Prior to that Lara was the promotions and marketing producer at KVIE (PBS) from 2007 to 2009 and project and marketing manager for Nohoch Productions from 1998 to 2007. She is a member of Metro Chamber’s Project Inspire. Castleberry and Popyack are seen as key additions to the Cal Expo team, as the Annual State Fair strives toward new levels of success—both as a celebration of the State’s rich past and a showcase for the State’s prosperous future. ★ Source: State Fair Media Department

July 1, 2014 will be the first day of the 12th “New Year” for the City of Rancho Cordova. Our wonderful community has been around longer than that of course but we are the fifth newest city in California. It is also our City’s birthday, our City’s Independence Day, and the first official day for our new City Manager. July 1, 1776 was also when the first vote was cast for our country’s Declaration of Independence. If you look through your history book(s), you will find some other things that happened on July 1, but I will leave that research up to you. It’s amazing what happened or who was born on July 1. I will be contacting and asking many of our businesses and individuals in Rancho Cordova to sponsor scholarships for the new Folsom Lake College campus that is being built in our City. There are many other great colleges in Rancho Cordova and they are sponsored by many in Rancho Cordova. But I want to help make our businesses aware of our newest college campus. The tax dollars from the School Bond we passed in 2007 is what the Los Rios Community College District is using to build the campus. Folsom Lake College already has some classes on Rockingham Drive in Rancho Cordova and they will continue until the new campus is finished. Classes are scheduled to begin the fall of 2015. I want to inform Rancho Cordova businesses how this new college campus will give them workers with skills they are looking for. There are many people who want a two-year community college degree as their course of study doesn’t need a four-year university/college degree. We received information from Washington, D.C. that the proposal to eliminate Saturday mail delivery has been shelved. That was only one of many ideas that Congress is looking at to add a short-term extension of the Highway Trust Fund which is spending more than it receives in revenues. A Congressional Committee will continue to meet and look at National Disaster Resilience Competition, which means that states in the Hurricane Sandy affected region will have to compete for approximately $180 million to help address critical housing needs. I only used that one example of the many committee meetings that are being held in Washington, D.C. to let you know that I don’t understand why there has to be such competition when we are talking about people. But there is still competition where there are critical housing needs. Our job here in local government takes quite a bit of time and soul searching to reach the decisions we make, so the fact that our hired public servants in Washington, D.C. decided to come up with things like competition for money for housing requires more understanding than I have, but at least a decision was made. “You have to walk in someone else’s shoes” is an old saying that fits pretty well here, but like many other people in our country, I don’t understand why many decisions are not made after all the information is gathered. Decisions need to be made, but they often are not. Oh well, back to Rancho Cordova. Like I said when I began today’s column: Happy Birthday, Happy City New Year, and Happy Independence Day to you all. Enjoy the celebrations that will be happening here in the City of Rancho Cordova! ★ From Vice Mayor Bob McGarvey, God bless, and see you next time.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Bob McGarvey Column June 20

Bob, I enjoy your weekly column in the Grapevine. Some of the time (alright much) I find it hard to agree with you. Last week’s harassment of Jon Coupal’s front page article was one of the ‘much’. Passing a phoney budget just so they don’t get docked pay is nothing to brag about. The state is ethically, morally, financially broke, deeply in debt, the most highly taxed, most anti-business, most illiterate state is nothing to brag about. The budget included 5% increase in welfare, yet GIs got 1%, legislators accepted a 2% raise. Now these same folks are looking to raise taxes again. Questions of the day: Which group in California has the highest criminal rate? By the way in the same paper Rancho had 5 ads adding new taxes! What happened to the city-hood vote rally slogan “NO NEW TAXES”. So far we have managed 26 new taxes (call them what you may fees,etc they are taxes)! Bob, thanks again for your efforts on the part of the city and your enjoyable weekly column. ★ - Lou Meyer

Don't Let Your Fireworks Budget Go Up in Smoke

By David Dickstein

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG)

Fireworks come in various shapes, sizes and colors, just like we Americans who will celebrate our country's 238th birthday with them. This rings true whether you're reveling among the masses at a public fireworks display – Rancho Cordova's Hagan Park, Carmichael's La Sierra Community Center and the All American Speedway in Roseville will host three of the region's largest – or if you take to the streets of Woodland and other areas of Yolo County where consumer fireworks are allowed this time of year.

What's new? What's loud? What's colorful? Is that $50 fountain really worth the money and how long is it? The patriotic, pyrotechnic perplexity starts June 28.

With such a wide variety of product out there, how can you ensure that your display will be a Yankee doodle dandy that doesn't have your money literally going up in smoke? Once again the Messenger Publishing Group put each of the new state-approved items to the test, along with other items likely to catch your eye from behind the chicken wire at stands that bear the names TNT and Phantom.

Fireworks are listed by price and rated on a 5-star scale for performance, duration, distinctiveness and overall comparative value. Judges included firefighters of Sacramento Metropolitan Fire District, Station 65 in Rancho Cordova, where the test was conducted.

Let the sparks fly!

New for 2014

• Apache Firedance Premier (Phantom), $49.99 – Phantom gets “Best New Firework” honors for supersizing one of its classic fountains. Scores for seven effects, including some of the best crackles and strobes on the safe and sane market, and height and width that push the 10-foot legal limit. 140 seconds. 5 Stars

• Moondance Premier (Phantom), $29.99 – It's Phantom's value-priced Moondance Fountain on steroids. Terrific height, lots of purple, a real crowd-pleaser. 100 seconds. 4 Stars.

• Sparkling Nights (TNT), $24.99 – TNT's best new fountain is a solid, multi-effect performer with decent burn time for the price. A good mid-show pick. 91 seconds. 3 Stars.

State-approved fireworks in all shapes, sizes and price points are a big fund-raiser for area non-profits from June 28 through the Fourth of July. Photo: David Dickstein.

• Fiery Frogs (Phantom), $24.99 – These fused green-foiled, grapefruit-sized amphibians took five years to migrate to California – they've been sold by Phantom in other states since 2009. Price – you're paying for the novelty – but glimmering eyes and mouth make it a fun item. 50 seconds. 3 Stars.

• Vibrant Voltage (Phantom), $21.99 – Crazy height and some of the prettiest green and orange ever in a fountain. 98 seconds. 3 Stars.

• Zombie Zapper (TNT), $19.99 – Love the intense crackles and the whistle and smokeless color blobs that kick things off, but too fleeting for the money. 45 seconds. 2 Stars.

Don't be a Statistic this Fourth of July!
Here are some safety tips:

- Observe local laws.
- Always store fireworks in a cool, dry place.
- Always read and follow directions on each firework.
- Use only state-approved "safe and sane" fireworks.
- Only use fireworks outdoors, away from homes, dry grass or trees.
- Have a responsible adult present.
- Have a hose ready.
- Light at a safe distance.
- Never attempt to re-light or fix a "dud."
- Never carry fireworks in your pocket.
- Never point or throw fireworks at another person.
- Soak used fireworks overnight before disposing.

• Exploding Pinatas (TNT), $17.99 – Has the ingredients for a winner, with whistle, fish and crackles, but for the same price a wiser buy is TNT's combo deal on the far-superior Mad Dog Fountain. 60 seconds. 2 1/2 Stars.

• Luminescence (Phantom), $14.99 – Starts out as just your run-of-the-mill multi-effect fountain, but then surprises with an eruption of wide-spreading sparks. 73 seconds. 4 Stars.

• Loco Lobo (TNT), $12.99 – Crackles and chrysanthemums are fine, but at this price point, and even lower, TNT has returning items that blow this not-so-crazy wolf away. 46 seconds. 2 Stars.

• Wild Blue (TNT), $7.99 – The most wild thing about Wild Blue is there's no blue. For the money, go with TNT's better, cheaper and longer-burning Rainbow Rays and Little Miss. 33 seconds. 2 Stars.

• Confetti Lights (Phantom), $4.99 for two – Mundane stuff, but good value as a buy-one-get-one. Think of it as a Fourth of July stocking stuffer. 34 seconds. 3 Stars.

Best of the Rest (4-5 Stars)

• Opening Show (TNT), $59.99 – Budget permitting, last year's "Best New Finale" is a 500-gram must-have. The climax at the 2-minute mark is intense. Like, crazy intense. Be no closer than 20 feet away for this one. 130 seconds.

• Delirium (TNT), $49.99 – Fan-shaped 500-gram fountain is pricey, but its intensity and beauty are bona fide stunning. Best fan on the California market. 133 seconds.

• Game Time (TNT), $39.99 – Scores with intense crackle and wide-spreading sparks in the late innings, but not powerful enough to hit it out of the park. Still a gamer. 93 seconds.

• Peacock Tail Fan (Phantom), $34.99 – 2013's "Best New Firework" builds excitement with each dazzling stage. Works out to 65 cents per second, but still a must-have. 54 seconds.

• Alpha Wolf (Phantom), $26.99 – Green and purple droplets, gold shower and crackling stars finale are awesome. No howling whistles despite its name. 83 seconds.

• American Spirit (TNT), $22.99 plus bonus – This fountain of red, white and bluish stars, gold showers and decent whistles and crackles makes the cut because it comes with the pleasing, 90-second Sizzler Fountain. 80 seconds.

• O-Blivion (TNT), $19.99 – This lord of the ring-shaped fountains emits multi-colored chrysanthemums with pine and impressive titanium crackles. 125 seconds.

• Pyropalooza (TNT), $19.99 – Excellent height, crackle and vivid hues – a vivacious visual. 115 seconds.

• Funky Monkey (Phantom), $24.99 – This pyrotechnic primate features red pearls and a solid overall performance. 90 seconds.

• Phantom Phlash Phinish (Phantom), $18.99 – Phantastic Phountain. Second-runner-up for "Best New Fountain" last year has strong duration, altitude, spread, titanium crackle and whistle. 108 seconds.

• King of Bling (Phantom), $18.99 for two – The crackles heard during the final third sound just like popping popcorn. Majestic chrysanthemums and whistle. Great value as a two-for-one. 90 seconds.

• Mad Dog (TNT), $17.99 for two – Emits amazing crackles, whistles and multi-color sparks, but it's the combo deal that keeps this old dog on the list. 80 seconds.

• Serenity (Phantom), $15.99 – Noiseless fountain opens with lovely lava lamp-like lumps (thank you, nitrocellulose!) and peacefully pleases with seven colors and white chrysanthemums. 59 seconds.

• Phantom Night Owl (Phantom), $14.99 – Phantom's best internally glowing fountain (eyes and mouth light up) has four loud screeches and an exciting overall performance. 65 seconds.

• Surfs Up (TNT), $10.99 – Last season's "Best New Fountain" runner-up. Gorgeous globs lead to a wave of multiple effects. Punctuation issues in its name aside, this surfer dude has some of the best and widest-spreading titanium rain and crackles for the price. 58 seconds.

• Twilight Magic (Phantom), $12.99 for two – Last season's "Best New Fountain" is even better now as a two-for-one deal (was $9.99 for one last year). Sophomore fountain has three exciting rotations of crackle-and-whistle and wide-spreading sparks. 57 seconds.

• Luck of the Irish (TNT), $9.99 – This 13-year-old classic features gold and silver spray, red and green balls, crackles and four super-loud whistles. 75 seconds.

• Firecracker Fountain (Phantom), $9.99 – Lives up to its name with a remarkable crackling barrage alongside multi-colored pearls. 76 seconds.

• Lil Red Devil (TNT), $9.99 for two – Packs plenty of heat for the size and price. Ends strong with wide-spreading titanium crackling sparks. This combo deal times five, lit side-by-side together, makes for a great finale. 35 seconds.

• Phantom Dragon Slayer (Phantom), $9.99 for two – Got some white, blue and lemon chrysanthemums, rowdy crackles and red stars going on. 66 seconds.

• Rainbow Rays (TNT), $5.99 – Solid value-priced freshman delivers on height and crackle. Duration is one of the longest in the state at this price point. 56 seconds.

• Little Miss (TNT), $4.99 – This value-priced opening act packs plenty of color plus silver rain and crackles. 40 seconds.

• Moondance (Phantom), $2.99, and Purple Rain (TNT), $5.99 for two – These identical cousins are little dynamos that emit loud crackles, purple pearls and glittering gold and white sparks. 45 seconds.
