A Great Day To Be A Kid

The 25th Kid's day Event featured an all-star line-up of talent on the Kid's Day Stage, including fun and educational performances by the kid-friendly performers from Radio Disney, Magician Trevor Wyatt, children's dance performances and Zippy the Clown.

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - They jumped. They danced. They giggled. Children of all shapes and sizes with their adults in tow enjoyed a day of fun during the 25th Kid's Day in the Park celebration last Saturday. Thousands of festival-goers got up close to baby animals, pirates and princesses, jumped about in a giant birthday cake and decorated one another, got their teeth, vision and hearing tested, earned a free bike helmet and so much more during what is the best day of the year to be a kid in Rancho Cordova. Organized by the Cordova Community Council, Kid's Day has become one of the largest free children's events in the region. Honored earlier this year by the Sierra Sacramento Valley Medical Society with its Community Medical Service Award, Kid's Day was the place for children to earn a free bicycle helmet by completing a safety course offered by the Rancho Cordova Police Activities League. The Sierra Sacramento Valley Medical Society Alliance donated hundreds of bike helmets to children during the event. Great children's health is an objective of Kid's Day, and healthcare providers of all kinds presented free hearing, vision and school readiness screenings for toddlers, reaching deep into the community to get

Orchard Chosen as New SMUD CEO

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Arlen Orchard, general counsel, has been named to succeed John Di Stasio as the Sacramento Municipal Utility District's (SMUD) general manager and chief executive officer. Orchard, a 24-year SMUD veteran, verbally accepted the offer from the SMUD Board of Directors to fill the GM position after a national search. The appointment was finalized when the SMUD Board of Directors issued a formal approval at its April 3rd meeting. Orchard assumed his new position April 12th. Di Stasio's last day as GM and CEO was April 11th. Di Stasio announced his retirement last fall after working at SMUD for more than 32 years. "I am honored to be chosen by the Board of Directors and humbled to be given the opportunity to run this great organization," said Orchard. "That the Board chose from among the internal candidates speaks highly of the excellent work of SMUD's staff over the years." Orchard says the focus on the customer and the community will continue to power SMUD forward. "The utility industry and SMUD have many opportunities and also face many challenges. The guiding principle of delivering the best possible service and reliability at the lowest possible rates will continue to make SMUD a key community leader," said Orchard. "SMUD attracted many strong candidates, each eager to lead one of the most progressive utilities in the world," said Genevieve Shiroma, president of SMUD's Board of Directors. "After many interviews, followed by thorough deliberation, it became clear that Arlen was the best choice to navigate SMUD through the increasingly complicated legislative and regulatory environment, while keeping our power generation running, making progress reducing our carbon footprint, and ensuring that electric rates remain affordable," Shiroma said. "Arlen's expertise as SMUD's general counsel for more than a decade will serve our customer-owners very well." Orchard moves to SMUD's top post after serving as general counsel for SMUD since 2001. In that capacity, he served as SMUD's top lawyer. Orchard joined SMUD in 1990 as a staff attorney and served as assistant general counsel before accepting the general counsel post. He serves on the Board of Trustees for the Northwest Public Power Association and as the general counsel for the California Municipal Utilities Association. He also serves on the Boards of Directors of Capital Stage, a nonprofit professional theater company, the Greater Sacramento Urban League and the Sacramento Metro Chamber of Commerce. ★

Kaiser Medical Center Receives Top Safety Score

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Kaiser Permanente Sacramento Medical Center has received the top score of "A" by The Leapfrog Group in its annual safety report, which examined and graded more than 2,500 hospitals throughout the United States. The Leapfrog Group, an independent national nonprofit run by employers and other large purchasers of health benefits, released its Hospital Safety Scores on Tuesday after examining publicly available data on patient injuries, medical and medication errors, and infections at U.S. hospitals, which were then assigned A, B, C, D, or F grades for their safety records.

"We're extremely pleased to be recognized by an "A" ranking because it affirms that patient safety is a top priority for Kaiser Permanente," said Ron Groepper, area manager and senior vice president for Kaiser Permanente, Sacramento. "This couldn't have happened without the dedication of our physicians, nurses and staff who work hard every day to provide world-class care to our patients." A total of 19 Kaiser Permanente hospitals in Northern California received "A" scores, including the Roseville and South Sacramento medical centers.

"Our highest priority is to provide safe, effective, and efficient care," said Rob Azevedo, MD, the physician in chief of Sacramento Medical Center. "The 'A' grade reflects the commitment our hospital has made to provide an integrated, technologically enabled approach to patient care."

The Leapfrog Group is a coalition of public and private purchasers of employee health coverage founded in 2000 to work for improvements in health care safety, quality and affordability. It is an independent advocacy group working with a broad range of partners, including hospitals and insurers. Since 2006, the organization has published an annual list of Top Hospitals in the U.S. using national measures of health-care quality, safety, and efficiency. This is the third year it has published the Hospital Safety Scores, which use 28 measures of publicly available hospital safety data to produce a single score representing a hospital's overall capacity to keep patients safe from infections, injuries, and medical and medication errors.

To see all hospital scores as they compare nationally and locally, visit www.hospitalsafetyscore.org, the Hospital Safety Score website, which also provides information on how the public can protect themselves and loved ones during a hospital stay. Local hospitals' scores are also available on the free mobile app, available at www.hospitalsafetyscore.org. ★

Rancho Cordova Chamber Continues Growth

By Jane S. Daly

March was a banner month for new memberships, reports Tammy Sullivan, the membership director. Seventeen new members were added to the Chamber rolls.

One of the unique features of Rancho Cordova is the variety of restaurant choices available. You can eat around the world without leaving the city limits. For example, there are numerous pizza choices, including new members Mama Mia’s Pizza and Steve’s Pizza. You can partake of Euro Asian food at Mints, then step into Oz Korean BBQ via Samurai Sushi. El Puerto Restaurant, All The Cart Café and Catering, and Beach Hut Deli, all new members, are part of our international dining experience.

Other new members include Bell Brothers Plumbing, Comcast, Design Work Custom Tables, Folsom Ready Mix, Enterprise Car Sales, Farmers

Insurance – Lipscomb, Junk King, Merlone Geier, and USA Productions.

Occasionally members discontinue their membership for a number of reasons. Many of them come back to the Chamber with a renewed interest in Chamber programs and events. For example, Ingrid Rosten, President of Rosten Consulting said, “Chamber membership provides me the opportunity to connect the dots in my community—government, academic and private industry—in support of growing business innovation and entrepreneurship, the engine of economic growth.” Ingrid is also a graduate of Leadership Rancho Cordova.

The Chamber offers more than mixers and luncheons for new members and ‘old.’ Business owners and managers who want to avoid litigation and other legal issues can attend an informative breakfast seminar presented by Murphy Austin Adams Schoenfeld LLP, highlighting important ways to protect your business so it can thrive. June 12 at City Hall.

Every quarter, the Chamber puts on a free lunch to help businesses do business with SMUD. One of our members recently won a $250,000 contract with SMUD.

As always when looking for a product or service, check the Chamber online directory at www.ranchocordova.org or call 273-5688. ★

City Clerk of the Year is Rancho Cordova’s Mindy Cuppy

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Rancho Cordova’s City Clerk, Mindy Cuppy, was named City Clerk of the Year by the City Clerks Association of California at its annual conference in Pasadena last week.

Cuppy was given the award at the conference that was attended by more than 200 of her peers from California, Oregon, Washington, and Alaska. Also in attendance were Donna Silva (left), Rancho Cordova’s Finance Director; Cuppy’s husband, Jon; and Stephanie Snyder, Rancho Cordova’s Senior Management Analyst.

A City Clerk administers elections and city records and is the compliance officer for federal, state, and local statutes such as the Brown Act. During her five-year stint as Rancho Cordova’s

City Clerk, Cuppy has initiated an electronic agenda packet and added document and agenda managements systems that save staff time and improve access. She has obtained grant funds to offset system changes, managed the recordkeeping for the City’s Kilgore Cemetery, coordinated staff action on records retention and file clean-up, and been a member of the City Manager’s closest leadership circle.

Mayor Dan Skoglund said, “Mindy has totally embraced her position, raising the standard and elevating services. Her many contributions have spilled over to the entire City organization and into our community . . . she is very deserving of the honor of City Clerk of the Year.” ★ kids off to a healthy start. The Sacramento County Department of Health and Human Services discussed a wide array of family resources with parents while their kids snuggled up with baby animals in a special petting zoo.

Rancho Cordova Arts helped children decorate a giant birthday cake, while the Rancho Cordova River City Concert Band brought out a bevy of drums for kids to play. The newly-formed Rancho Cordova Athletic Association, representing a wide range of youth sports leagues in the city, threw and kicked balls and ran around with kids while serving up information about how children can sign up for organized play and be active.

The event also featured an all-star line-up of talent on the Kid’s Day Stage, including fun and educational performances by the kid-friendly performers from Radio Disney, Magician Trevor Wyatt, children’s dance performances and Zippy the Clown.

Kid’s Day was sponsored by a wide range of community businesses, organizations and health providers, including: Cordova Recreation and Park District, City of Rancho

Cordova, Sacramento County, Assemblyman Ken Cooley, Rancho Cordova Arts, Wells Fargo, Heald College, Sims Metal Management, Councilman Donald Terry, Real Estate America, Sheriff’s Toy Project, Rancho Cordova Rotarians in Action, Rancho Cordova Police Activities League, Folsom Cordova Unified School District, Republic Services, Heritage Community Credit Union, California Carnival Company and Golden State Water Company. ★

Where residents are #1

Eskaton Gold River Lodge was recently selected a “Caring Star” of 2014 as part of an annual nationwide program honoring service excellence based on consumer ratings and reviews posted on Caring.com, the leading senior care website. Only the top 1% (about 400) of assisted living communities nationwide captured the 5-star consumer rating (the highest possible score).

THANK YOU! And may we humbly admit that the reason we are number one is because our residents are number one with us.

Milk Bill Struck Wrong Balance

By Brian Dahle

I did not come to Sacramento to tell people what to do.

California has too many costly regulations—especially on small businesses—and streamlining the bureaucracy that hobbles our state is one of my top priorities. If I see an opportunity to make life simpler for a family business, and especially a family farmer, I’ll grab it almost every time.

But when we change laws—even if we’re relaxing them—we need to make sure the end result is fair to everyone involved and strikes a sensible balance between the public interest and the private burden. A recent bill, AB 2505, that would have allowed small home dairies to legally sell raw milk didn’t pass those tests.

Unpasteurized milk has surged in popularity the past few years. Its fans admire its rich flavor and claim to enjoy dramatic nutritional benefit.

But the science is clear about one thing: Pasteurization kills bacteria and other pathogens—Salmonella, E. Coli, Listeria—that can cause wicked illnesses and even death. Raw milk is a high-risk product. Seventeen states ban its sale for human consumption entirely. The Food and Drug Administration long ago halted interstate sales of raw milk. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention report that food borne illness is 150 times more likely when consuming unpasteurized milk. The American Academy of Pediatrics early this year strongly recommended that pregnant women, infants and children never drink raw milk.

No, the experts from the government and the medical establishment aren’t always right. They don’t always know everything, and they don’t get to make all of our decisions for us anyway. But those risks are serious and real, and it’s appropriate for the law to take them into account. The Legislature recently eased regulations on the sale of “cottage foods,” breads, jams, candies and the like, to allow more entrepreneurs to launch businesses out of their home kitchens, but that law specifically targeted foods that pose little risk. We want to encourage start-ups, not stomach bugs.

Compared with strawberry jelly, milk, even when pasteurized, is prone to spoilage and bacterial contamination. Because of the hazards, dairies are rigorously inspected by the California Department of Food and Agriculture so families can confidently buy a gallon of milk without worrying about whether they’ll land in the hospital. Unlike most states, California also allows retail sales of raw milk, your neighborhood health food store probably carries it, so long as the dairies follow similar safety rules.

The recent raw milk bill, unfortunately, would not have included those safeguards. It would allow sales without inspections and without the fees that support the milk-safety program, which would leave producers who’ve been playing by the rules at an unfair disadvantage.

Proponents argue that small home dairies, at most three cows or 15 goats, don’t have the same risk as big commercial operations. I understand that these small herds produce milk for their owners’ own families, and that their owners care deeply for the animals’ health. But that devotion, as reassuring as it is, is not a laboratory test. And the heightened risks of raw milk are substantial enough that, if it’s being sold to the public, the public needs reasonable protections. You might think a cow or a jug of milk looks perfectly healthy, but dangerous micro-organisms don’t always advertise their presence.

What people choose to eat and drink is their own business. But it’s important to have a level playing field for producers and basic safety assurances for our food supply.

I am more than open to exploring ways to make life easier for micro-dairies and the milk buyers who love them, but it won’t help anyone—including raw-milk producers—if we put more unwitting consumers in the hospital.

Not a Good Idea

Dear Dave,
I’m 23, transitioning jobs, and I make $32,000 a year. I have $11,000 in a 401(k), and about $15,000 in debt. Should I cash out the 401(k) to pay down my debt?
- Cody

Dear Cody,
I don’t think so. When you take money out of a 401(k) they charge you a 10 percent penalty, plus your tax rate. Your tax rate is about 20 percent, so that means you’re going to take a 30 percent hit. While I love dumping debt, your idea would be kind of like saying, “I want to borrow $11,000 at 30 percent interest to pay off my debt.” That doesn’t make a lot of sense, does it?

Dave Says

I never tell folks to cash out a 401(k) or IRA to pay off debt, unless it’s the only way to avoid foreclosure or bankruptcy. You’re not facing either one of those situations, Cody. So my answer is no.
- Dave

You Can do it With No Fees

Dear Dave,
What do you think about making bi-weekly mortgage payments?
- Jeremiah

Dear Jeremiah,
I think it’s an awesome idea. By doing that, you can pay off a 30-year mortgage in about 22.8 years, on average, depending on the interest rate.

However, I would never pay someone a fee to set up bi-weekly mortgage payments. All you do on a bi-weekly schedule is make half a payment every two weeks. Since there are 26 two-week periods per year, that equals 13 whole payments. It’s nothing magical, and it’s not difficult.

Go for it, Jeremiah. Get rid of that house payment as fast as you can. Just don’t pay extra fees to make it happen!
- Dave

Move to the Head of the Line!

Dear Dave,
I owe the IRS $6,000, and currently I’m making monthly payments. Should I roll this debt into my debt snowball, and then really attack it when it gets to the top of the list?
- Jared

Dear Jared,
My advice would be to put the IRS at the very top of your debt snowball. Usually, when it comes to paying off debt, I advise people to arrange their debt snowball from smallest to largest, then start with the smallest one and work their way up. This doesn’t always seem to make mathematical sense, but the truth is personal finance is 80 percent behavior and only 20 percent head knowledge. Paying off some small debts quickly energizes you and gives you motivation. It makes you feel like you can really do it. Besides, if you were such a math genius you wouldn’t have debt in the first place.
But the IRS is a different animal altogether. Their interest rates and penalties are ridiculously high. Plus, they have virtually unlimited power to collect. So put them at the top of the list, and get them paid off as fast as you can!
- Dave

TAX REDUCTION NOTICE

FOR SENIOR CITIZENS/DISABLED PERSONS RESIDING IN THE
ELK GROVE UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

Voters in the Elk Grove Unified School District approved the Community Facilities District No. 1 Bond Election and a special tax to pay for the bonds. The special tax provides that a property owner/occupant who resides in the Elk Grove Unified School District and is 65 years or older (as of July 1) or disabled, as defined by the State Controllers Office, may receive a reduction in the residential tax rate if student-age children do not reside with them.

TO QUALIFY FOR THE REDUCTION

A property owner or renter shall have the option of applying for a Senior Citizen/Disabled Person Tax Reduction, which would allow the school tax to be reduced by 70% for each qualified dwelling unit, if:

- The property owner shows evidence that the dwelling unit is occupied by a citizen that is at least 65 years of age or fully disabled.
- The applicant shows evidence of ownership of the property.
- The applicant shows evidence that student-age (grades K-12) children did not reside in the dwelling unit during the previous 24 months.

Also:

The reduction is allowed only for the residence in which the applicant resides; all others are subject to the full tax.

If the applicant rents his or her home or resides in a mobile home park, the landlord/owner must certify that the entire reduced tax will be reflected in the rent for the exempted dwelling unit(s).

YOU MUST RENEW YOUR STATUS EACH YEAR
(Those currently receiving this tax reduction will receive a renewal reminder notice in the mail)

THE FILING PERIOD FOR THE TAX REDUCTION IS APRIL 15, 2014, TO JUNE 30, 2014

Applications and qualification details for the Senior Citizen or Disabled Person Tax Reduction may be obtained in person or by writing, phoning, or e-mailing:

PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF JAN SUTHERLAND (decedent)
ESTATE NO. 34-2013-00152026

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both of JAN SUTHERLAND (deceased): A petition has been filed by GAIL MEREDITH OTTESON in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting that GAIL MEREDITH OTTESON be appointed as Executor to administer the estate of the decedent. The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. Bond is not required.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows: May 7, 2014, 9:00 a.m. in Dept. No. 129, Room 214 at Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse, 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

The name, address and telephone number of petitioner is: Gail Meredith Otteson, 61 Vineyard Circle, Sonoma, CA 95476; (707) 431-2289. Publish: April 17, 24, and May 1 2014 SUTHERLAND 140408 05-01-14

If the sale is set aside for any reason, the purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the deposit paid, plus interest. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the beneficiary, the Trustor or the trustee. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 877-484-9942 or 800-280-2832 or visit this Internet Web site www.USA-Foreclosure.com or www. Auction.com using the file number assigned to this case 7037.79373. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Date: April 10, 2014 NORTHWEST TRUSTEE SERVICES, INC., as Trustee Bonita Salazar, Authorized Signatory 1241 E. ## Tapia shines in Lancers' victory

By Mike Bush

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Zachary Tapia helped the Cordova High School baseball team to an important Capital Athletic League victory. The freshman struck out 10 El Camino batters, and gave up four hits in the Lancers' 3-1 win in Sacramento April 25. Tapia walked four batters in going the distance for the win for Cordova

(7-4 in the CAL, 13-10), which started the week tied for second place with Antelope and Rio Americano. The top three teams advance into the Sac-Joaquin Section playoffs.

"He's been working real hard in the bullpen the last couple of weeks," said Cordova skipper Guy Anderson on Tapia, whose record improves to 3-2. "He had his fastball right around 79, 80 (miles per hour); he was throwing it hard. They (El Camino) couldn't keep up with him. He did an excellent job. This was his best performance (of the season)."

Anderson has been pleased with Tapia's improvement during the season.

"He's become a lot more mature," Anderson said.

At the plate, Nigel Robinson had three hits that includes a double. Teammate Jerome Brown was 2-for-3 that also included a double. Jarrett Harris also had a hit in the game.

Cordova broke a 1-1 tie in the top of the fifth inning, and added an insurance run in the top of the sixth inning.

Rio Americano 7, Cordova 4

The Lancers and Raiders combined for 13 hits in their CAL game at the Lancers' field April 23; Cordova had seven.

Robinson went 3-for-3 with a double. On defense, Robinson helped Cordova in recording 10 put outs.

Harris followed with a 2-for-3 performance for the Lancers. Tapia and Robson had a hit each. Robson also had two RBIs. Tylor Myers had an RBI. Robson and Harris had a stolen base each.

Rio Americano 3, Cordova 2

In their first meeting at the Raiders' field on April 21, the two teams combined for 11 hits. But Rio Americano that had a good day at the plate with eight.

Brandon Buck scored both of the Lancers' runs, and had two stolen bases. He and Robinson had a hit each, along with Jerome Brown.

On Monday in a CAL home game, Cordova knocked off El Camino, 17-5. More on this game will be in next Friday's issue.

Cordova hosted Antelope in a battle for one of the league's playoff berths on Wednesday. Today – Friday – the two teams play again at the Titans' field.

Next Monday Cordova plays its final home game of the regular season against Whitney, which occupies first place in the CAL. The squads close out the season against each other at the Wildcats' field on Wednesday, May 7th. First pitch for all games is scheduled for 4 p.m. ★

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - Rancho Cordova City Council Member Donald Terry presents proclamation to Cub Scout Pack 281 in honor of Creek Week Volunteers. Urban creeks can provide a healthy habitat for wildlife, improve water quality, carry storm water to rivers, help to moderate area temperatures, improve air quality, and provide educational play areas for children. The volunteer efforts of Cub Scout Pack 281 and other community volunteers, including businesses and families, are instrumental to ensuring the cleanliness and continued health of our creeks.

Wildflower Wonders

A celebration of California Native Plants

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - This is the tenth annual native plant and habitat event, a showcase of native plants in their natural habitats of our greater Sacramento region. Expert naturalists will provide friendly and knowledgeable interpretation at each exhibit.

Guest Speakers will be featured inside Soil Born Farms' Schoolhouse. Come early, seating is limited.

- 10:30-11:3 a.m. Tom Landis, Monarch Butterfly Waystations
- 12:30-1:30 p.m. Kat Anderson, Gardening in the Wild: How California's Native Peoples Use and Care for our Native Wildflowers; Dr. Anderson is the author of the seminal work "Tending the Wild"
- 2:30 - 3:30 p.m. Dan Gluesencamp, Executive Director of California Native Plant Society- What's growing on with California's native plants: the past, our present, and prospects for the future?

Expert naturalists at the wildflower show and exhibits will provide friendly and knowledgeable interpretation at each exhibit. Hundreds of fresh-cut native wildflowers, shrubs, trees, and grasses illustrate each display.

Plant Communities are:

- Oak Woodlands - Shannon Datwyler & students
  - Chaparral - Dave Popp
  - Riparian Woodland - Bonnie Ross
  - Vernal Pools & Ca Prairie - Tara Collins & Glen Holstein
- Other Exhibits:
- Living Wild - author Alicia Funk, grow, eat, live wild.
  - Hawks, Honkers, and Hoots- Where learning takes flight.
  - Ethnobotany - Michelle Stevens & students
  - Soil Born will offer coffee & pastries + Information booth
  - Cordova Creek - exhibit plus walks regarding this magnificent restoration project

Discovery Zone for the whole family will be located outside of the Old Schoolhouse. All day naturalists and volunteers will be there to facilitate your experience!

- Focus on Flowers - several microscopes
- Art table - with flowers in vases posing for the artists!
- Scavenger Hunt table (then go outside to gather for the hunt) Prizes for those who complete!
- Plant Identification and Collection

There will be an on-going drought tolerant native plant gardening workshop, and Elderberry Farms, Cornflower Farms, and Hedgerow Farms will offer a broad assortment of plants for sale. New this year is a professional landscape design table: "Ask a Designer." We'll also have books!

This is a free event but donations are greatly appreciated. Gourmet picnic food provided by the legendary David Hotdogger will be available for purchase. Free Plant! Join CNPS or renew your CNPS membership and choose a plant from Elderberry Farms! To volunteer at Wildflower Wonders, contact Mike Vilhouer at cnps-mike@gmail.com.

Saturday, May 3rd - 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., 2140 Chase Dr, Rancho Cordova, CA 95670, on the American River Parkway at Soil Born Farms.

Around the Horn

• Just how good has the Atlanta Braves' pitching been this season? Of the 20 pitchers in the majors with sub-1.00 WHIPs (walks and hits allowed per inning), four of them wear Atlanta uniforms. Aaron Harang (0.88) leads the majors, Julio Teheran (0.93), Alex Wood (0.97) and Ervin Santana (0.98) have been terrific as well. The quartet is also among the 16 pitchers with an ERA under 2.00.

• On the opposite end to the pitching spectrum lies the Minnesota Twins. Of the 111 pitchers with enough innings to qualify, Kevin Correia (7.33) ranks last in ERA. His Minnesota teammate, Ricky Nolasco is No. 109 with a 6.67 ERA and Phil Hughes is tied at No. 97 with a 5.14 mark.

• It hasn't been a good spring for several former Cy Young winners. Tim Lincecum of the Giants, R.A. Dickey of Toronto, David Price of Tampa Bay, CC Sabathia, of the Yankees and Bartolo Colon of the Mets all proudly display a Cy Young award in their trophy cases. But all five of them rank in the bottom 25 in ERA so far this season.

• When the Angels followed the 2012 signing of former NL MVP Albert Pujols with the 2013 signing of former AL MVP Josh Hamilton, manager Mike Scioscia envisioned the two hitting No. 3-4 in the lineup and producing runs at record clips. But due to injuries and lapses in production, the two have driven in one another just seven times in 2013-14. For a little perspective, Chris Colabello of the Twins has driven in Brian Dozier seven times during that same time period.

AL Player of the Week

Jose Abreu, Chicago
Though technically a rookie by major league standards, Abreu is a veteran of the highest league in Cuba and international play. This past week, Abreu hit five home runs and led the majors with 14 RBIs. His past seven days included home runs off of Justin Verlander, David Price and a walk-off grand slam off of Grant Balfour when the Sox were down to their final out trailing by a run.

AL Pitcher of the Week

Collin McHugh, Houston
Few fans outside of Houston, Naperville, Ind., and maybe followers of Berry College know who McHugh is. But the Mariners and A's found out this week that he is a tough righthander. He made five starts for the Mets and Rockies last season without any positive results. But last week, after 6.2 scoreless innings in Seattle, he tossed 8.2 against the A's in which at one point he retired 19 straight hitters.

NL Player of the Week

Carlos Ruiz, Philadelphia
The Phillies' catcher made a slight mechanical tweak to his swing last week and the result was a monumental statistical jump in his season batting average from .204 to .296. His week included three three-hit games, a .500 average and a league-best eight runs. He had one home run and four doubles to boost his OPS for the week to 1.502.

NL Pitcher of the Week

Adam Wainwright, St. Louis
The ace of the Cardinals is off to the best start of his career. He's 5-1 after six starts, losing a tough 2-1 decision to the Pirates back in early April. Last week, the big righthander slammed the door on the Mets in New York with seven shutout innings allowing just four hits and no walks. He followed that performance with eight frames of goose eggs against the Pirates. He currently has a streak of 25.2 scoreless innings.

Farm Report

Kris Bryant, 3B, Chicago Cubs
The second pick in the 2013 draft is well on his way to the major leagues. After winning Player of the Year in college, Bryant was named MVP of the Arizona Fall League last year. At Double-A this summer, Bryant is batting .300 with a 1.009 OPS.

Weekend on Tap

San Francisco at Atlanta
Two division leaders will square off in Atlanta this weekend. Both teams are heavily reliant on pitching, so don't expect much scoring over the three-game series. Last season, the Giants won four of the seven meetings, but the Braves took two of three at home. The Braves plan to welcome Mike Minor into the rotation after beginning the season on the disabled list with a shoulder problem. Julio Teheran and Alex Wood will go for the Braves over the weekend. Tim Lincecum will pitch Friday for the Giants. In 13 career starts vs. Atlanta, Lincecum is 7-6, but just 2-4 at Turner Field.

Texas at Los Angeles Angels
The Rangers are battling the A's for first place in the American League West now, but the Angels certainly believe they are a contender as well. This will be the first meeting between the two this season, and after the Rangers had their way with their rivals last season winning 15 of 19 games, the Angels will be eager to get revenge. The matchup to watch in this series will be in the finale on Sunday as Yu Darvish of Texas will face the highly touted Tyler Skaggs.

Milwaukee at Cincinnati
The Milwaukee Brewers haven't won a season series against the Reds since taking 10 of 19 way back in 2006. The teams split 16 games in 2011, the year Milwaukee won the division. The teams will open May with a four-game set as the Reds attempt to play their way back into the race in the National League Central.

Athlon Spotlight

Best 35-and-Over Team

Last week, I selected the best 25-man roster of 25-and-under players. Now I will give equal time to the graybeards. As with the young guys, the ages are as of Opening Day this season.

Catcher
A.J. Pierzynski, Boston
He's played between 128 and 140 games for 12 straight campaigns and hit below .270 only twice.

First Base
David Ortiz, Boston
I figure Ortiz and Victor Martinez would share first base and DH duties. Neither can field, but both can rake like 30-year-olds.

Second Base
Chase Utley, Philadelphia
He may be injury-prone and showing signs of age, but he is second in the National League with a .360 average.

Third Base
Adrian Beltre, Texas
Just now returning from the disabled list, Beltre should enjoy sharing the run production burden in Texas with Prince Fielder.

Shortstop
Jimmy Rollins, Philadelphia
Sentimentally, it would make sense to make Derek Jeter the starting shortstop, but there's no room for sentiment when it comes to winning a World Series, so Rollins is my guy this season.

Left Field
Carlos Beltran, New York Yankees
The veteran needs regular time off, but he can turn it on and compete with the younger guys for short bursts. He just can't play at an elite level everyday.

Center Field
Ichiro Suzuki, New York Yankees
The Yankees are 7-2 when Ichiro starts, 7-4 when he enters as a sub, and just 1-4 when he doesn't play.

Right Field
Torii Hunter, Detroit
The athletic Hunter is named on this squad for the third consecutive year. Prior to his 35th birthday, he was a .275 hitter. After turning 35 he's hit .290.

DH
Victor Martinez, Detroit
Not a fan of having a DH because I'm an old-school purist, but I'm willing to give the older guys a break and get Martinez's bat in the lineup.

Bench
C Carlos Ruiz, Philadelphia
The Phillies' backstop is a bit streaky, and he's been hot lately. I like his defense better than Pierzynski, but he's not as consistent. He's perfectly suited for a late-inning defensive maneuver.

SS Derek Jeter, New York Yankees
The Yankee Captain is trying to do what few 40-year-olds have accomplished, and that is playing a full season at shortstop.

3B Aramis Ramirez, Milwaukee
Since the early days in Pittsburgh, A-Ram has matured as a hitter and defensively, and especially as a teammate.

OF Michael Cuddyer, Colorado
The versatile Rockie won a batting title last season and before you think that was Coors Field-aided, his batting average at home was .356, but an impressive .311 on the road. He can play second or third in a pinch.

OF Alfonso Soriano, New York Yankees
He's enjoyed a resurgence over the past couple of seasons. In the 82 games with the Yankees since his trade last summer, he's driven in 60 runs and scored 49.

Eligible Next year
Albert Pujols, Los Angeles Angels; Ryan Howard, Philadelphia; Matt Holliday, St. Louis; Jayson Werth, Washington; Rafael Soriano, Washington

Utley: UPI/Brian Kersey /LANDOV; Ortiz: EPA/CJ GUNTHER /LANDOV

Chase Utley (left) and David Ortiz continue to play at a high level into their upper 30s.

Starting Pitchers
Mark Buehrle, Toronto
The steady lefthander, who turned 35 just before Opening Day, immediately goes to the top of the rotation with a 4-1 record and 2.16 ERA. He's posted 13 consecutive seasons of 200+ innings.

Tim Hudson, San Francisco
A 16-game winner seven times, Hudson appears headed for that number again in 2014 with an early 3-1 mark and 2.19 ERA.

Kyle Lohse, Milwaukee
Left hanging during free agency last winter, Lohse signed with the Brewers about a week prior to Opening Day in 2013. He hasn't disappointed fans in Milwaukee with a 4-1 mark holding opponents to a .198 average this season. Since the beginning of 2011, he has a WHIP of 1.134.

Aaron Harang, Atlanta
Not that I'm a believer that this will last through August, but I can't ignore a 0.85 ERA through his first five starts with Atlanta. He's allowed 15 hits, 13 walks and struck out 33.

AJ Burnett, Philadelphia
A.J. has apparently found a new home in Philly. He's posted a 2.73 ERA, but has four no-decisions in five starts.

Bullpen
Koji Uehara, Boston (closer)
The righthander came to the U.S. at age 33. During his time in the States, Uehara has 348 punchouts and just 207 hits allowed and 39 walks.

Joe Nathan, Detroit
With 345 career saves, Nathan has blown two already this season, but his teammates picked him up giving the Tigers wins in both games.

Joel Peralta, Tampa Bay
In 89 appearances last season and in 2014, the setup man has stranded 29 of the 33 runners he's inherited.

Jason Grilli, Pittsburgh
The Pirates' closer owned five career saves going into 2013 when he reeled off 33 before an injury sidelined him for six weeks.

LaTroy Hawkins, Colorado
A member of the 40-something set, Hawkins has recorded a win and/or save for 10 different franchises. He has a win or save against every franchise except the Minnesota Twins, his original team.

Chris Capuano, Boston
I've chosen Capuano as my key lefty over Randy Choate, Javier Lopez and Jeremy Affeldt, all capable.

Turn Back the Clock

May 2, 1954
Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals hits five home runs in a double-header, collecting nine RBIs on the day. An eight-year-old Nate Colbert watches from the stands at Sportsman's Park. Colbert would become the only player to match the five-home run day in 1972 for San Diego.

May 1, 1991
It is big day for baseball milestones. Rickey Henderson collects stolen base No. 939 to break the all-time record held by Lou Brock. Later in the evening, Nolan Ryan of the Texas Rangers no-hits the Toronto Blue Jays, the seventh no-hitter of his career.

Numbers Game

- .385 Batting average for the Brewers' Ryan Braun on the road this season with six home runs in just 39 at-bats. After revelations last season (and subsequent suspension) of his PED use, he has been booed mercilessly on the road.
- .265 Batting average for Braun at home this season with no home runs in 49 at-bats. Perhaps Milwaukee fans should begin treating him rather rudely as well.
- 35 The aggregate run differential for the five AL East teams, which all have given up more runs than their offenses have produced.
- 2 Wins separating the five teams in the American League Central. The Chicago White Sox (currently in fourth place) have 13 wins, the last-place Cleveland Indians have 11. The other three teams have 12 wins making for a tight divisional race.
- 1,646 Games started at DH by Boston's David Ortiz. Last week he set the all-time mark breaking the previous record held by Harold Baines.
- 2006 The last time the Twins won a series at Tampa Bay before taking two of three from the Rays last week.

THINK ANSWER: As of Sunday, April 27, Jose Bautista of the Toronto Blue Jays has one more home run than Miguel Cabrera of Detroit (159-158). Albert Pujols of the Angels is a distant third with 135.
