Experts to Discuss Groundwater Strategies for California's Severe Drought

Special Report from Groundwater Resources Association of California

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - As parched California faces another severe drought with no end in sight, water resource experts from local, state and federal governments will gather in Sacramento to discuss groundwater management strategies during this prolonged water crisis. Groundwater Resources Association of California (GRA) in partnership with the U.S. Society for Irrigation and Drainage Professionals (USCID) will host a two-day issues forum in Sacramento.

"With roughly 30 percent of water delivery being provided by groundwater it is essential this valuable resource is managed properly," said GRA President Ted Johnson. "Another issue of significant concern is how the drought exacerbates the possibility of contaminated groundwater. With less water available to dilute the contaminants, the threat to public health increases," stated Johnson.

The conference titled, "Groundwater Issues & Water Management: Addressing Sustainability & Drought" will be held March 4-5, 2014, at the Lions Gate Hotel at McClellan Park. Speakers will address a wide range of issues that are linked to groundwater resources and management challenges including the interaction between surface and groundwater as well as water recycling, groundwater recharge, salts and nutrients, contaminants and well maintenance.

Congressman Bera Tours Sacramento County Farms and Businesses Impacted by Drought

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Congressman Ami Bera recently toured local dairy and cattle farms in Elk Grove and Rancho Murieta, as well as companies in Folsom that rely on the local clean water supply, to survey and bring attention to the local impacts of California's drought. Bera brought a representative from the United States Department of Agriculture Natural Resources Conservation Service along for the farm tours so that the federal agency could learn more about the drought's impact on Sacramento County.

"California's historic drought is hurting many Sacramento

County small businesses and farmers, which impacts not only individuals, but our entire local economy," said Bera. "I'm doing everything I can to both help those being affected in the short term, and to find long-term solutions for securing water access and storage that add to our water supply rather than taking from it."

Bera visited Walter Hardesty Beef, Van Steyn Dairy, and Van Vleck Ranch. The ranchers raised concerns about having to cull their herds to stay afloat as production costs rise. Though ranchers are no strangers to drought, the current drought conditions are worsened, the say, by several dry years in a row. The Sacramento County Farm Bureau helped arrange the tours.

It is reported that at least count, 10 communities have less than 60 days of water and water deliveries to 750,000 acres of farmland and 25 million people have been halted. Recently Governor Jerry Brown declared a state of emergency due to the dwindling water supply which was followed by a visit from President Barack Obama who provided $200 million in relief dollars.

"The length and severity of this current drought is unpredictable," said Johnson. "California needs to prepare for the worst, hope for rain and be smarter about water management and usage. Our groundwater is a key part of California's water supply, and that is what will be discussed at the conference."

Batter Up! Senior Softball Capital of the World

By Jan Dalske

SACRAMENTO REGION (MPG) - Sacramento is the “Senior Softball Capital of the World”. This is what Larry Campbell, the Commissioner of the Golden Seniors Softball League would tell you. And he is convinced this statement is true. The Golden Seniors Softball League includes many areas that are within 60 miles of the city of Sacramento. The region they cover is not just where they play their games, at the baseball park in Carmichael Park, off of Fair Oaks Blvd, and Grant Avenue. The region covers the cities where they travel from to get to their games. The players come from Penn Valley near Grass Valley, Placerville, Marysville, and Magalia, near Paradise, Elk Grove and South Sacramento, Roseville, Lincoln, and Davis, as well as all of the Sacramento metro area.

This large region is the Senior Softball Capital of the World! It started with the introduction of baseball in New York in 1847. Baseball had several creators, but it was Alexander Cartwright Sacramento has a long history of being a strong baseball town. Baseball has always been very popular in Sacramento schools and with the Sacramento Solons. The Sacramento Solons were a minor league baseball team based in Sacramento, California. They played in the Pacific Coast League during several periods (1903, 1905, 1909–1914, 1918–1960, 1974–1976). The current Sacramento River Cats began play in West Sacramento in 2000.

who conceived the standardized rules for this new unorganized game. The introduction of those new rules enabled baseball to be played by consistent guidelines in many different cities and communities. His rules included the layout of the diamond, the foul lines, the distance between bases and the pitcher’s plate, the number of balls and strikes, etc. The standardized games grew in popularity, so much so that it became America’s favorite pastime sport. So, after Baseball began to flourish in New York in 1847, what happened in our state in 1848, just one year later?

Gold was discovered in Northern California. This discovery created a steady influx of young men, including Alexander Cartwright. Thousands of young men made the hard journey across the plains to Northern California, where Sutter’s Fort, located in Sacramento, was the hub. Alexander Cartwright was among the early gold miners. He was in our area for several years before moving on to Hawaii. It is believed that he must have introduced baseball to the gold miners, who were in need of an occasional break from the hard and tedious work of gold mining. California became a new state in 1849

Introducing: the first Golden Senior Softball team: 1976- They were the world’s 1st weekly baseball league of four teams of 80+ years/ age players. At that time, the only teams at their senior level of play who would play against them were young women’s teams and leagues. In appreciation and honor of those 1976 young women’s teams who helped them get started, the 75+years/ age league invites all female softball players of any age who want to join them on Thursday AM to please come and feel welcome. The league’s mission is to have more fun while playing softball with many friends who have senior aches and pains like they do, and to try to remember their turn at bat while socializing. The Golden Seniors Softball League consists of three different levels of players.

As baseball players age, their game evolves into fast pitch softball, then co-ed slow pitch softball, and finally senior slow pitch softball. If any men age 50 to 95 or women age 45+ in 2014 would like to play senior slow pitch softball in the evenings after work or during weekday mornings during the season, you can email Larry Campbell at larrywc23@gmail.com or call him at 916-485-4843 with your name, age, phone number and mailing address. Larry is also looking for any and all 75+ and 80+ Golden Geezers to come help them expand to 9 teams! There will be three practice games in February, with one game against each division opponent, weather permitting. ★

By Bob McGarvey

The corrective legislation that was passed by the House and the Senate and then sent to the White House has been signed by the President. The cost-of-living (COLA) cut that had affected all Veterans (including disabled Veterans) has been rescinded and COLA will be given to the Veterans. Congress is still trying to find ways to “save” money but will cut from other programs. Fortunately they didn’t repeat themselves and cut everything across the board like they did last year.

I am still looking for more information which may give the

Here Are a Few Follow-ups...

VFW and other Veterans’ organizations use of the Riverview Elementary School as their office and address. Another option is that they can use what was the multi-purpose room for their meetings, etc. They have to go to the Folsom Cordova Unified School District (FCUSD) official site on-line or go to the FCUSD office and get the “Facilities Use Application Form.” The form is headed with “Application for the Use of School Facilities” and when completed, they can use the school. I will pass on more news as I receive it.

Another program that is moving forward is the “Veterans Village” at Mather. We have put Phase 1 together as much as we can at the moment. We are now waiting for both the Continuum of Care award which helps with program operation and the 9% Tax Credit application which can’t be submitted until March 5th. Mercy Housing, the Veterans Resource Center, Sacramento County, and the City of Rancho Cordova are working together to begin building Phase 1. When Phase 1 is actually begun, then Phases 2 and 3 will follow much faster. Getting something started seems to be the hardest part of any project.

Phase 2 will have a smaller budget than Phase 1 or 3, but $3.5 million isn’t exactly peanuts. We are looking for help from some of our businesses in Rancho Cordova who have shown strong support for Veterans. If companies like AeroJet can provide grants or support in Washington D.C., it will definitely help. When the finances are there, we will be able to get some of the homeless Veterans off the streets. ★

Sacramento Baroque Soloists Seduce With The Chaconne

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Traveling from the New World to Spain and then to spread throughout Europe, the musical form chaconne--with its hypnotic bass line--became an accompaniment and provocation for dancing. Sacramento Baroque Soloists explore the scope of this seductive, mystical dance along with its counterparts, thepassacaglia and the bergamasca, in their last concert set of the season, March 15,16, and 22.

The Soloists will be joined by soprano Anne-Marie Dicce, who will perform vocal chaconnes of Monteverdi and Charpentier, as well as selections from Handel's Nine German Arias. The ensemble will also perform chaconnes, passacaglias, and bergamascas by Uccellini, Merula, Lully, and Purcell.

Dicce is a co-founder of the early music group Bach Collegium San Diego and performs regularly with that group as a soloist. She returns to her native Sacramento to perform for the first time with Sacramento Baroque Soloists.

Dicce will be joined by Sacramento Baroque Soloists violinists Lisa Marie Lawson and Marieke Furnee, cellist and guitarist Michael Lawson, and harpsichordist Ellen Schinnerer Deffner.

Sacramento Baroque Soloists, formed in 2001, is Sacramento's leading instrumental baroque ensemble. The group performs on period-style instruments music written between1600 and 1800. In their twelfth season, the Soloists expanded to three venues, adding the popular Harris Center in Folsom.

Concerts will be performed Saturday, March 15 at 7:30 p.m. at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 1430 J St., Sacramento; Sunday, March 16 at 3:00 p.m. at Rudolf Steiner College, 9200 Fair Oaks Blvd., Fair Oaks; and Saturday, March 22 at 7:30 p.m. at Harris Center, Folsom Lake College, 10 College Pkwy., Folsom. # Humor, Intrigue, Romance, Science Abound In “Arcadia,” Opening Feb. 28 At ARC Theatre

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Sex, science and the genesis of chaos theory are woven seamlessly with wit and intrigue in "Arcadia," Tom Stoppard's brilliant, highly acclaimed masterpiece. The play runs Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays from Feb. 28 through March 9 at American River College (ARC) Theatre.

Set in the same room at Sidley Park, England, but separated by two centuries, this labyrinthine tale bends time and truth as the Regency and modern Coverly families debate the nature of physics... and physical love. Amidst all the debates, duels and dancing, 13-year old Thomasina makes a scientific discovery that in 1809 could change the way people understand the world... if they could fully comprehend her theories.

Meanwhile, in 1990, researchers visiting the modern Coverly family are piecing together clues from the earlier century and coming up with a humorously inaccurate picture of what those Regency folks were up to!

Often heralded as one of the greatest plays of our time, “Arcadia” is directed by Tracy Martin Shearer, with set, light and costume designs by Elly Award-winners Kathy Burleson and Gail Russell. Thus, the show will be a feast for the eye and ear in addition to engaging your mind and your heart long after the final curtain has come down.

All performances of “Arcadia” will be at the American River College Theatre, 4700 College Oak Drive, Sacramento, California. Sat/Sun parking is free in Lot “D” at the corner of College Oak and Myrtle, adjacent to the theatre. Thurs/Fri parking is $1. The Friday, Feb. 28, 8pm performance will be interpreted for the hearing impaired. TCOYD will be hosting its 152nd national event in Sacramento, CA with an all-star cast of diabetes experts for a day that will ignite motivation, offer hope and change the life of anyone with diabetes!

Steven Edelman, MD, Endocrinologist and Founder and Director of TCOYD, was diagnosed with diabetes at the age of 15. Edelman was told that blindness, kidney failure and amputations were likely to occur after several years and that his life expectancy wouldn't exceed 20 years. That was not a prediction that he was willing to settle for. Edelman went into medicine with a mission of improving his health, the health of others and the medical system behind it all. At the age of 58 he is living well with diabetes and had dedicated his medical career to educating and empowering others with this disease.

What makes TCOYD stand apart from any other organization is that they are strong advocates of change, believers in a cure for diabetes, and proponents of possibility. TCOYD brings the medical world and the patient world together in order to engage in conversations that make a difference, that improve lives and health at a very deep and lasting level. It is the only program of it's kind in the United States and abroad.

Join TCOYD at the Sacramento Convention Center on Saturday, March 8, 2014 from 9:00am – 5:00pm. Learn, laugh and live better with leading diabetes experts, get one-on-one advice from endocrinologists, diabetes educators, dietitians, pharmacists and personal trainers and receive the most cutting-edge type-specific information on diabetes care and management by attending TCOYD's individualized type 1 or type 2 track.

SPACE IS LIMITED: pre-registration is recommended.

Registration fees: $20 per person ($15 per person for groups of 2 or more) on or before 12 noon

PST Wednesday, March 5, 2014. Day-of event registration is $25 and begins at 7:30am at the Sacramento Convention Center. FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE IS AVAILABLE BY CALLING TCOYD. To register or to get more information, call 800.99.TCOYD (800.998.2693) or visit www.tcoyd.org.

*Steven V. Edelman, MD, Founder and Director of Taking Control of Your Diabetes (TCOYD). Edelman, an internationally recognized leader in diabetes treatment, research and education says, "It is my conviction, that health care in this country will improve when people living with diabetes are informed and empowered to take an active role in their own condition." # Congressman Bera Tours Sacramento County Farms and Businesses Impacted by Drought

Bera also visited Kikkoman Soy Sauce manufacturing plant and Gekkeikan Sake factory in the City of Folsom. Both companies located in the area because of its direct access to clean surface water and agricultural products in the valley. Both companies are conserving water in ways that have yet to impact production, but have concerns if the drought situation does not improve. The drought is anticipated to cause price increases for the agricultural products that are essential to the production of soy sauce and sake, such as rice, soy, and wheat.

In addition to the tours this week, Bera held a Drought Resources Workshop Tuesday with representatives from the USDA and Small Business Administration to inform local famers and small business owners about the resources available to them from the federal government. Those who were unable to attend the workshop but need help can call Bera's office at (916) 635-0505 or visit his Drought Relief Resources page at bera.house.gov/drought-relief for more information.

Bera is also working in Congress to preserve Sacramento County's water supply. He has helped lead the fight against the misguided Bay Delta Conservation Plan to build tunnels under the Delta, and a recent partisan water grab bill. Both would take already-scarce water from Sacramento County and send it to other parts of the state. He also voted in January to reauthorize the Emergency Drought Relief Act and helped secure funding for upgrades to the Folsom Dam that will increase its water storage capacity to help during future dry periods and give us greater flood protection. ★

Congressman Ami Bera, M.D. represents Sacramento County. For more updates on Rep. Bera visit <http://www.bera.house.gov>.

City of Rancho Cordova Invitation to Public Bid

Kilgore Soffit Repair Project

Sealed Proposal will be received at the office of the City Clerk, City of Rancho Cordova, 2729 Prospect Park Drive, Rancho Cordova CA 95670, up to the hour of 2:00 P.M. on March 18, 2014 and will be publicly opened and read for performing the work to repair the dry rot and soffits on the roof at the Rancho Cordova Police Department as follows:

Hornet Abatement- This project will install a sprayed chemical deterrent and close the edge opening of the edge roof tile.

Eave edge soffit board-The 1x4 edge board on the soffit lining the eave vents has deteriorated and several sections require replacement. 1x4 edge soffit boards that are worn and damaged by the elements and previous rodent activity will be removed and replaced in kind.

Fascia Boards-The Fascia boards of the soffit edge were originally nailed. Many of the nails have loosened, or fallen due to weather impacts to the boards and the condition presents a hazard should board fall or are impacted by strong elements such as wind. Fascia Boards will be secured with screws to ensure safety to occupants.

Soffit Lighting and Painting- Soffit lighting is old incandescent lighting and presents an on-going consumption expense and a high replacement cost. Old technology lighting will be replaced to lower operating cost LED lighting that also reduced dramatically the replacement frequency and costs. After this, the soffit will be painted for protection and maintenance and to avoid any future dry rot.

A Sweet Delivery With an Important Message

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The Regional Water Authority (RWA) and Girl Scouts Heart of Central California (GSHCC) are partnering to provide an important message with Girl Scout cookie deliveries this year - please conserve water.

The Sacramento region is experiencing record-breaking dry conditions, and the Governor has declared a statewide drought emergency. Folsom Lake, a major water supply for people and wildlife, is expected to continue to drop to historically low levels as dry conditions persist.

To help raise awareness about these unprecedented conditions and how to use water wisely, Girl Scouts in Sacramento, Placer, El Dorado and parts of Yolo counties will be distributing as many as 70,000 water conservation tip cards with cookie deliveries in February and March.

“With these historically dry conditions, it’s important to find every opportunity to educate the public about the actions they can take to save water,” said RWA Water Efficiency Program Manager Amy Talbot. “We’re delighted to partner with Girl Scouts to let the public know that making small changes can save hundreds of gallons of water, keeping more in the lakes and rivers that make our region unique.”

Tip cards invite readers to consider how they can save water inside and outside their home while enjoying their Thin Mints, Lemonades, Caramel deLites and Peanut Butter Patties. Suggestions include:

- Keeping showers to five minutes or less
- Fixing leaky toilets, faucets and sprinklers
- Installing high-efficiency toilets, showerheads, faucets, dishwashers and clothes washers

“Girl Scouts has a long tradition of public service and conservation,” said Liz Williams, GSHCC’s Assistant Vice-President, Girl Experience. “Water efficiency is an important topic in California, especially this year. We welcome the opportunity to partner on reminding the public about ways to use water efficiently.”

More information and tips for using water wisely are available at BeWaterSmart.info.

The Regional Water Authority is a joint powers authority representing two dozen water providers and affiliates in the greater Sacramento area.

Through the Girl Scout Leadership Experience, girls Discover their interests and talents, Connect with others, and Take Action to improve the world around them. The council is headquartered in Sacramento and serves more than 28,000 girls in 18 counties* in Central California. # Slim Randles’ HOME COUNTRY

... He Makes Pyramids In The Backyard

One of the great pleasures of hanging around down at the live-stock auction barn each Saturday morning is being able to take your dog along.

Why do we go to the sales barn? We love agriculture, and it’s part of living here to see who buys what and rejoice in their good fortune, even if our own grass is stressed to the limit by whatever varmint we’re currently feeding. Or, it could be that we figure we’ve already lived too long, and if the right horse or cow comes through there, and we buy it, our wives will see to it that we don’t suffer in agony for untold years.

This weekly auction is a treasure house for our dogs. It’s a dog’s day out, a chance to scrounge under the bleachers for dropped hot dog portions and the occasional sweet bun crust. It’s a chance for them to get reacquainted with dog buddies and to check out any new pickups in the parking lot whose tires have not yet been properly baptized.

My coonhound loves it. She had done her munching, scrounging and socializing and was curled up under my truck, waiting for me, as we were getting ready to leave. Dud’s blue heeler was flitting around in the bed of his pickup truck, guarding against anything that might deign to trespass. And Doc had a new dog, of non-obvious parentage, on a leash, which meant he was not yet broken in to sales barn etiquette. Once he got used to it, and had been introduced to the other dogs, he’d fit right in and the leash would be history.

“What kind of dog is that, Doc?” we asked.

“Why, he’s an Egyptian shepherd.”

“I never heard of an Egyptian shepherd. Does he work cattle?”

“Nope.”

“What’s he do?”

Doc grinned, “He makes pyramids in the back yard.” ★

CORDOVA HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS

Lancer Earn Home Playoff Game

Story By Mike Bush

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - In addition to winning the Capital Athletic League title, the Cordova High School boys basketball team landed a first-round playoff game.

The Lancers earned the No. 8 seed in the CIF Sac-Joaquin Section Division II playoffs. Cordova (18-8) hosted Rocklin, the No. 9 seed that finished in third place in the Sierra Foothill League on Wednesday at the Lancers' gym. The Thunder (15-12) and Lancers did not face each other during the regular season. "They have good size, well-coached team," said Cordova head coach Fletcher Johnson of Rocklin. "They can run, they like to bang inside, rebound and kick it inside. They get outside, and run and pass well."

Behind SFL champion Del Oro, which went 10-0 for the title, the league was a battle among the other five schools that included Rocklin, Johnson noted.

"I thought it was a very strong league," Johnson said. "That league is real competitive with some good rivalries. They (Rocklin) are playoff tested, and they are ready."

Teams are battling for their playoff lives in the first two rounds. Boys and girls basketball teams that make reach the semifinals in each division automatically receive a Nor Cal playoff berth. The Nor Cal playoffs start after the section title games are played March 7 and 8.

"In the playoffs, you play one game at a time," said Johnson, who is in his third year as head coach and 18th in the program. "(If Cordova won its first round game) you only get one day in between games. We're not taking Rocklin lightly."

In practices toward the end of last week, Johnson said his players were working on executing the basics of the game in preparing for Rocklin.

"Practices have been cool," Johnson said. "We've broke it down, and work on the little things. When you reach the playoffs, you have to make sure you take care of the little things, have hard execution and that the intensity stays high. Most of the time it comes down to that one possession."

Lancers' backcourt and rebounding

The Thunder will have to deal with the Lancers' potent backcourt that led the way to winning the CAL title. Junior guard Jordan Roberson, who is averaging 21 points per game. Guard Lamar Brewer follows with 8.9 points per game, and guard Nathaniel Hendrix 8.7 points per game, and guard CJ Coles an even eight points per game.

Senior guard Marquis Bolden and Brewer are the driving forces in rebounding for the Lancers. Bolden has pulled down 150 this season and Brewer 111. Center DeMario Newman is next with 91, Lewis 85 and Hendrix 79.

If Cordova defeated Rocklin, it will play the Folsom-Grace Davis/Vallejo game. Grace Davis of Modesto and Vallejo played an outbracket game last Friday, and the winner played at Folsom, which is the No. 1 seed, also on Wednesday. Cordova would host a second round game tonight – Friday – only if Folsom lost its first round game to Grace Davis or Vallejo. ★

Lancers Fall in Cal Games

Story By Mike Bush

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - In its Capital Athletic League finale, the Cordova High School girls basketball team walked off Whitney's court with a win.

The Lady Lancers took command in the second half that led to a 46-40 win over the Lady Wildcats on Feb 18. The win concludes Cordova's season with a 4-6 record in CAL and 10-17 overall.

Behind 34-33 after three quarters, Cordova used a variety of defenses to slow down Whitney. On offense, Lancer players Brianna Clark, Cauje Curney and Andalea Ware combined to score all of the team's 13 points. In addition, Curney registered four of her game-high 13 assists in the final eight minutes.

"We pressed, trapped and played half-court defense," Cordova head coach Raymond Bradley said. "We were trapping them on every possession."

Clark and Monique Newton scored 10 points each for the Lancers, who were behind 26-21 at halftime before their fourth quarter rally.

Cordova 62, Antelope 39

In its Feb. 13 home game finale at the Lancers' gym, Cordova fell behind in the first quarter, 15-6, as Antelope increased its lead to 30-20 at halftime.

The Lady Lancers stayed within striking distance of the Lady Titans after three quarters, 46-32. But the chances of a fourth quarter rally was stopped by the Titans, who held the Lancers to seven points while scoring 15 for the win.

El Camino 55, Cordova 43

In the Feb. 11 home game, the visiting Eagles jumped out to a 16-10 lead, and 30-22 at half-time. The Lancers were within striking distance, but the Eagles held them to nine points in the third quarter while scoring 11 that helped secure the win. Cordova was led by Curney with 10 points. Ware followed with eight points, Alyssa Wilson and Nikki Jones had six points each, Midori Mekata and Newton five each, and Leila Cooper three.

Looking back and forward

Although Cordova still had a shot of a Sac-Joaquin Section playoff berth until the third to final league game of the season, Bradley feels his players gained confidence that will carry over into their lives on and off the court.

"It didn't turn out the way we wanted to," said Bradley, "but the girls became more confident."

Bradley loses three seniors on this year's team – Newton and her sister Monae Newton, and Kayla Hontz. There are 12 players on this year's team. Next school year, Cordova returns to the Sierra Valley Conference for all sports as part of the section's league realignment cycle for 2014-18. The Lancers played in the SVC from the mid-1990s to 2010 when it was Division II. But the conference is D-IV, although school enrollment numbers are used to determine which division a school will play in for basketball play-offs. Cordova will join Rosemont, Union Mine, El Dorado, Galt and Liberty Ranch, Galt's second high school, in the SVC.

"We're excited about next year," Bradley said. "(Returning to the SVC) should benefit us. We should be fine." ★

MARCUS SMART, OKLAHOMA STATE
Smart was sensational in his return from a three-game suspension, scoring 16 points and adding 10 assists, six steals, three rebounds and two blocks in Oklahoma State's much-needed 84-62 win over Texas Tech on Saturday. Then, on Monday night, Smart scored 17 points and had eight rebounds, seven assists and five steals in the Pokes' 76-54 victory at TCU. The Cowboys, once ranked in the top 10, had lost seven straight games — the final three with Smart serving a suspension for pushing a fan in the final seconds of a loss at Texas Tech on Feb. 8.

MONTREZL HARRELL, LOUISVILLE
Russ Smith hit the game-winning shot, but Harrell, a sophomore forward, was Louisville's best player as the Cardinals recorded a 58-57 win at Cincinnati in a battle of American Athletic Conference heavyweights. Harrell scored 21 points and grabbed 10 rebounds — his seventh double-double of the season — to help Louisville move into a tie with Cincinnati (in the loss column) in the American.

KENNY GAINS, GEORGIA
Gaines poured in a career-high 27 points (on 9-of-14 shooting) to lead Georgia to a dominating 73-56 win at South Carolina. The Bulldogs have won five of their last six and sit alone in third place in the SEC with a 9-5 record in league play.

DEANDRE KANE, IOWA STATE
Kane continues to make a strong case for Big 12 Player of the Year honors. The senior guard scored 20 points, grabbed six rebounds and handed out five assists in Iowa State's 71-60 win at TCU. A fifth-year transfer from Marshall, Kane is averaging 16.3 points, 6.6 rebounds and 6.0 assists.

STEPHEN HOLT, SAINT MARY'S
Holt enjoyed a career day, scoring 35 points — nearly half of his team's total — to lead Saint Mary's to a 76-54 win at Santa Clara. The senior guard, who scored only seven points in a loss to San Francisco two days earlier, hit 14-of-17 from the field (including 4-of-6 from 3-point range).

JABARI PARKER, DUKE
Parker scored 19 points — the final two on a huge bucket in the lane with 1:31 remaining — and grabbed 10 rebounds to help Duke beat Syracuse 66-60 at the Carrier Dome. This was the second meeting of the two ACC powers in the last three weeks. Syracuse won the first game, 91-89 in overtime.

LEVI RANDOLPH, ALABAMA
Randolph scored a total of 24 points as Alabama went 1-6 in a season-killing seven-game stretch from Jan. 30-Feb. 20. The junior guard scored 33 on Saturday night to lead the Crimson Tide to an 80-73 win over Missouri. Randolph connected on 11-of-15 from the field, including 5-of-7 from 3-point range.

NIK STAUSKAS, MICHIGAN
Stauskas delivered in the clutch to help Michigan complete the season sweep over Michigan State. The sharp-shooting guard scored a game-high 25 points (on 9-of-13 shooting) and also had a team-high five assists to lead Michigan to its 11th Big Ten win of the season. Stauskas, who leads the team in scoring (16.7 ppg), had 19 points in the Wolverines' win in East Lansing in late January.

DELON WRIGHT, UTAH
Utah snapped a two-game losing streak and moved back to one game under .500 in league play (7-8) thanks to a big game from Wright. The junior guard scored 22 points, grabbed nine rebounds and added six assists as the Utes coasted to an easy 86-63 win over Arizona State in Salt Lake City.

T.J. WARREN, NC STATE
Warren, the ACC's leading scorer, scored 31 points to help NC State post a 71-64 win over Virginia Tech in Blacksburg. A sophomore forward, Warren connected on 3-pointers on the Wolfpack's first two possessions and scored 17 of his team's 35 points in the first half. He is averaging 23.3 points and 7.1 rebounds.

CAMERON BAIRSTOW, NEW MEXICO
Bairstow was dominant in the Lobos' biggest win of the season. The senior forward scored 26 points (on 11-of-18 shooting) and grabbed nine rebounds to lead New Mexico to a 58-44 win over San Diego State in a showdown of the top two teams in the Mountain West.

TERRAN PETTEWAY, NEBRASKA
Petteway is making a strong push for first-team All-Big Ten honors. The sophomore swingman scored 29 points on Sunday to lead surging Nebraska to a 76-57 win over Purdue. Three days earlier, Petteway scored 26 in the Huskers' 80-67 victory over Penn State. Nebraska has won five straight games and is now 8-6 in the Big Ten.

JOEL EMBIID, KANSAS
Embiid, the potential No. 1 pick in the 2014 NBA Draft, filled up the stat sheet Monday night in Kansas' 83-75 win over Oklahoma. The freshman center scored 12 points (on only five field goal attempts) and had 13 rebounds, three assists, three blocks and four steals to help the Jayhawks secure no worse than a share of their 10th straight Big 12 championship.

Weekend on Tap

SATURDAY, MARCH 1

CINCINNATI AT UCONN
Cincinnati is tied (in the loss column) with Louisville atop the American Athletic Conference standings with three games to play. This team continues to struggle shooting the ball (33.1 percent from 3; 47.2 percent from 2), but a tenacious defense always gives the Bearcats a chance to win. UConn lost at home to SMU on Sunday, but the Huskies had won their previous four games. An NCAA Tournament bid is certain barring a late collapse.

LOUISVILLE AT MEMPHIS
Here's another key game in the American on Saturday. Louisville is playing as well as any team in the nation of late. The Cards have won six straight, five by 15 points or more. Senior guard Russ Smith is providing scoring from the perimeter, and sophomore Montrezl Harrell is doing work around the basket. This will be a huge test for talented young Memphis big man Austin Nichols.

UMASS AT DAYTON
Dayton would love to add another quality win to its NCAA Tournament résumé. The Flyers will have two chances this week, with a trip to Saint Joseph's on Tuesday and this home date with UMass on Saturday. The Minutemen picked up a huge win on Friday night, knocking off VCU at the Mullins Center in Amherst. Derek Kellogg's team should have nothing to worry about on Selection Sunday.

LSU AT FLORIDA
LSU has the talent to be in the NCAA Tournament, but the Tigers lack the profile to earn an at-large invitation. That can change if they somehow find a way to beat No. 1 Florida in Gainesville. LSU will need a big game from the underrated Johnny O'Bryant, and the Tiger guards will have to shoot the ball well from the 3-point line. An upset is not out of the question.

TEXAS AT OKLAHOMA
This is an intriguing battle between two over-achieving teams that are jockeying for position in the rough-and-tumble Big 12. Texas played its way out of the league title chase last week by losing at Iowa State and Kansas, but the young Longhorns have proven that they belong in the NCAA Tournament. Oklahoma lost at Kansas Monday night, snapping a two-game winning streak that included wins at Oklahoma State and vs. Kansas State at home.

SYRACUSE AT VIRGINIA
Surprising Virginia could be in position to wrap up the outright ACC title at home on Saturday. Not bad for a team that in December scored 38 points in a loss at home to Wisconsin; lost at Green Bay; and lost by 35 at Tennessee. Syracuse suffered its first two setbacks of the season last week, dropping a shocker in overtime to Boston College before losing at Duke on Saturday night. The Orange have not played well over the last three weeks.

SAINT LOUIS AT VCU
This game in Richmond begins a tough closing stretch for Saint Louis, which has yet to lose a game in the A-10. After playing VCU, the Billikens host Dayton before ending the regular season with a home date vs. UMass. VCU has struggled of late, losing three out of four following a 7-1 start in league play. All three losses, however, have been on the road. The Rams will be ready for Saint Louis.

MINNESOTA AT MICHIGAN
Minnesota's once-solid NCAA Tournament résumé isn't looking so good nowadays. Heading into Tuesday's home game against Iowa, the Golden Gophers had lost six of eight, with the wins coming against non-NCAA teams Indiana and Northwestern. A split this week against Iowa and Michigan might keep the Gophers in the discussion, but Richard Pitino's team could really use a sweep. Michigan is one game up on Michigan State in the loss column in the Big Ten, and the Wolverines, by virtue of a season sweep, own the tie-breaker.

PITTSBURGH AT NOTRE DAME
Pittsburgh had 16 wins by mid-January and reached the 20-win mark in early February, yet the Panthers are not a certain NCAA Tournament team. With three of their final four on the road — including this never-easy trip to South Bend — the Panthers could be sweating a bit on Selection Sunday.

IOWA STATE AT KANSAS STATE
Here's another tough test (for both teams) in a Big 12 that features very few easy outs. Iowa State beat K-State in Ames in late January, but it will take a huge effort to knock off the Wildcats at the Octagon of Doom. Kansas State is 7-0 at home in league play, highlighted by an overtime win over Kansas on Feb. 10.

KANSAS AT OKLAHOMA STATE
Despite losing seven straight in league play recently, Oklahoma State's NCAA Tournament hopes are still very much alive. The Pokes beat TCU Monday night to improve their league record to 6-9. Beating Kansas at home on Saturday would be huge, but it's not a must win. O-State still has other opportunities to pick up quality wins — vs. Kansas State and at Iowa State to close the regular season followed by at least one game in the Big 12 Tournament.

Ask the Editors

Shocking: A No. 1 seed for Wichita

Do the Wichita State Shockers deserve a No. 1 seed?
Mitch Light: It's easy to look at the Shockers' gaudy record (29-0 through Monday night) and assume they will be a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. But it's not that simple. Take a look at Wichita's résumé: Gregg Marshall's team has only one win against a sure-fire NCAA Tournament team — at Saint Louis on Dec. 1. The Shockers have a few other decent wins — vs. Tennessee, BYU, Alabama and Davidson — but only one of those teams (BYU) is ranked in the top 50 of the RPI. That being said, it will be difficult for Wichita State — assuming it remains undefeated — to not be a No. 1 seed because there aren't many great teams in college basketball this season. The Shockers picked a good season to be great.

David Fox: If Wichita State gets to Selection Sunday undefeated, no question the Shockers deserve a No. 1 seed. And depending on what happens in other leagues, you could make a case a one-loss Wichita State should be a No. 1 seed. We saw last week how tough it is to remain perfect when Syracuse lost at home to an awful Boston College team. Since Wichita State's scare against Missouri State on Jan. 11, the Shockers have defeated teams by an average of 15.5 points. Even teams like Florida and Arizona have played down to overmatched opponents in recent weeks. Even if the Missouri Valley isn't as strong as it normally is, give credit to Wichita State for never even offering a glimmer of hope for an upset for most of the season.

Braden Gall: Do I think Wichita State is one of the best four teams in the nation? No. Do I think Wichita State will finish unbeaten in the regular season and conference tournament? Yes. And if the Shockers can finish the season unblemished then they will absolutely deserve the right to be a No. 1 seed. This team has depth, experience, talent and coaching, and it has non-conference wins over Saint Louis, BYU and Tennessee. Will I be picking WSU to make it back to the Final Four regardless of seeding? No. But an undefeated regular season is a special story that deserves a spot on the first line of the bracket.

Do you believe in North Carolina?
Light: North Carolina has proven to be a solid top-15-ish team that is capable of advancing to the Sweet 16, but I don't believe this team is good enough to string four wins together in the NCAA Tournament and reach the Final Four. There have been some positive signs over the last month — Marcus Paige is playing well; Leslie McDonald has shown he can be a 20-point scorer; James Michael McAdoo has played with aggression — but this is still a flawed team that struggles to shoot the ball (especially from the foul line).

Fox: To me, the most telling moment of North Carolina's run in the second half this season wasn't the win over Duke. It was the 105-72 rout of Wake Forest two days later. Wake isn't a great team, but the Demon Deacons were good enough to beat North Carolina in early January when the Tar Heels were searching for an identity. And after the Duke win, this was the kind of game Carolina would have dropped early in the season. The Heels responded with a convincing win. This isn't one of Roy Williams' finest teams in Chapel Hill, but at least it has dropped the Jekyll and Hyde act from early in the season.
