A formal grand opening public celebration is planned by the company for Saturday, July 15 and Sunday, July 16, said store manager, Mia Bruzenak.

Special events include a free pet wash with bandana, free treat samples, drawings for gift cards and a Pet Food Express tote with every purchase while supplies last.

The store will also host pet adoptions from 11 am to 3 pm on both days.

Customers can also register for a canine basic obedience class sponsored by 4 Paws 2 Freedom which will be offered on Saturdays starting July 22nd through August 26th at either 11 am or 12:30 pm. The non-profit 4 Paws 2 Freedom, based in Rancho Cordova, also provides service dog training courses for veterans and first responders dealing with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD).

Pet Food Express offers its pet customers an assortment of fresh, raw healthy foods, wholesome treats, healthcare supplies and stimulating toys. Bright signage and a Citrus Heights-themed wall mural invite customers to browse well-stocked aisles with familiar brands.

In the back of the store, pet customers and their owners are invited to take advantage of a refreshing self-service washing station, perfect for beating the summer heat.

Located in front of the Walmart grocery store and just adjacent to the Lowe's Home Improvement Center, the new Pet Food Express was once the location of a Men's Wearhouse clothing store.

Pet Food Express, established in 1986, is headquartered in Oakland, Calif. Other locations are in Roseville, Sacramento and El Dorado Hills.

PRIDE Industries Holds "Hire A Veteran Day"

By Thomas J. Sullivan

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - National "Hire a Veteran Day" will be observed on Tuesday, July 25, 2023. And if you're a recent military veteran in the Sacramento area, ready to take the next step in your career, then register now for a special veterans' hiring event at the PRIDE Industries Career Hub at 7011 Sylvan Road on Tuesday, July 25th in Citrus Heights from 10 am to 2 pm.

"It's our first time locally hosting this event in Citrus Heights," said Charles Smith, PRIDE Industries (PRIDE) recruitment manager/talent acquisition in a telephone interview from his Texas office. "It's a corporate event for us and we're eager to spread the word about this special event."

Since 1966, PRIDE Industries has provided employment recruiting services to the military, serving 17 major bases across the country. The company also counts hundreds of veterans of all ranks among its management team and on its board of directors.

PRIDE Industries also partners with multiple government and private organizations including the Department of Veterans Affairs, and the State of California Employment Development Department (EDD) to support the professional development of active and former service members who are ready to build or transition into rewarding civilian careers.

The national "Hire A Veteran Day" aims to inspire employers to recruit and hire veterans by recognizing the unique skills and values that former soldiers, sailors, airmen, Marines and Coast Guardsmen bring to the workforce. Roughly 200,000 military members retire or separate from the armed services every year, according to the Department of Labor.

"PRIDE is dedicated to helping our military veterans of all abilities find sustainable employment," Smith said. Through its contractual relationship with the U.S. Army, PRIDE is looking to fill between 300 to 400 positions in the greater Sacramento area at its upcoming July event.

Through its veterans employment advantage program, run by a team of fellow veterans, PRIDE is eager to help connect vets to needed job support services, job coaching, and employment to get them quickly on a path towards success in the civilian workforce.

West Coast Sourdough Coming to Stock Ranch

CITRUS HEIGHTS, CA (MPG) - The pleasing scent of freshly baked sourdough bread will soon fill the air in Citrus Heights where the new location of West Coast Sourdough will open in Stock Ranch.

San Francisco-based West Coast Sourdough has announced plans to open in Citrus Heights at 6920 Auburn Boulevard, Suite 150 across from Applebee's Restaurant.

Karndee (Kay) Uppal, president of West Coast Sourdough, said the Citrus Heights space is about twice the size of a typical store, and the additional space will allow the franchise to incorporate a new menu which will offer Peet's Coffee beverages.

The sandwich company signed a lease for a 2,400-square-foot end space where other nearby tenants include Crumbl Cookies and Sport Clips, a hair styling salon. The plaza also includes Costco and a Walmart Superstore.

Uppal, in additional responses by email, said the franchise struck a partnership with Peet's Coffee to sell its coffee and coffee-style beverages in its new locations.

When the site in Citrus Heights popped up, West Coast Sourdough saw an opportunity to roll out the new concept.

an intake session for support services and/or employment, resume writing assistance, describing vocational training opportunities and job placement assistance which includes roles with PRIDE Industries and its employment partners. Scholarships for military children are also available.

Smith said PRIDE is also in the process of hiring a dedicated veterans' liaison to work in the Citrus Heights office.

"We're constantly looking for ways to improve our veterans' outreach program. We're especially proud to be a very veteran-friendly employer."

Finding and then competing for civilian positions can be challenging for transitioning veterans. That's where PRIDE Industries can help. Recent veterans may need help in translating their military experience into civilian experience which employers are looking for.

"PRIDE Industries recognizes that veterans bring competitive skills to civilian jobs, along with core values which their military service cultivates: dedication, teamwork, good communication and pride in getting work done," Smith said.

"We're here to help with coaching with job interviews, getting veterans to think professionally and helping them write an effective resume," he said.

PRIDE Industries of Roseville opened its new Youth Employment Services (YES!) program in the newly reopened Career Hub on 7011 Sylvan Road in Citrus Heights in January 2023.

The company and Crossroads Diversified Services, Inc., are two leaders in providing employment training, support, and job creation for people with disabilities combined operations to open their Citrus Heights center last January.

The combination of PRIDE's expertise in serving people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and Crossroads' specialty in mental health-related disabilities has enhanced local employment training and support services for people with disabilities.

In addition to its upcoming "Hire A Veteran Day" event, Citrus Heights PRIDE Industries staff members also help young participants in its YES! program who are between the ages of 16-24 who have spent time in the child welfare, juvenile justice, or criminal legal systems, as well as those who are unhoused, living in concentrated poverty, or facing other barriers to employment.

Open positions in a variety of industries offer competitive wages, comprehensive benefits, and a supportive work environment for people of all abilities in the greater Sacramento area. Occupational positions include administrative, custodial, driver, floor tech, instructor, job coach, landscaping, store worker, supervisor, supply chain, test engineer and warehouse.

"With our one-of-a-kind veteran job support model, we will help you leverage your skills so you can move forward in civilian life with confidence," Smith said.

Fraud Hits California's Food Stamp Program

By Jon Coupal, HJTA

And you thought California's $32 billion in Employment Development Department (EDD) fraud was bad.

A small group of criminals in Detroit has managed to pilfer the SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program) benefits of nearly 8,000 impoverished California families who were shocked when they discovered their EBT cards had been drained. The criminals stealing access to EBT cards run the gamut from low-level organized criminal gangs in Michigan to criminal syndicates as far-flung as Romania journeying to California, specifically to exploit the gaping security flaws in the SNAP program.

So how is it that they managed to siphon off EBT card numbers and pins with alarming ease? First, the United States Department of Agriculture, which implements the SNAP program, has no incentive to prevent fraud. Like the EDD debacle, these bureaucrats seem completely content to just shovel money out the door with no regard for consequences.

Even worse, in recent federal litigation, it was revealed that retailers who accept SNAP/EBT benefits are not obligated to employ advanced point-of-sale systems, the type that generates transaction records in standard grocery stores. In fact, a fraudster could become an EBT retailer by purchasing a point-of-sale terminal on the dark web that's linked to an "approved" retailer. This system has so few guardrails and fraud-detection tools in place that thousands of EBT cards from California were used in a single Michigan city with no "red flags" alerting anyone as to what was happening.

Consider the magnitude of these losses. SNAP boasts an annual budget of a staggering $127 billion. If estimates suggesting that 20% of this amount is lost to fraud are anywhere close to being accurate, it means $33.4 billion vanishing into thin air every year. Rather than deploying those billions toward helping America's most needy families, SNAP is in fact one of the largest funders of organized criminal groups in the world.

The lack of fraud detection and prevention technology within the USDA's SNAP program places an enormous burden on law enforcement as well—as they need to divert significant resources at the federal, state and local level to investigate and hold these groups accountable.

To restore integrity to our public assistance programs taxpayers should demand the immediate implementation of front-end identity verification, advanced point-of-sale systems that generate transaction records, mandating the collection of transaction-specific geolocation information, and enforcing rigorous security standards for EBT transactions. To make this happen, we must upgrade the technology of EBT cards to include chips, similar to that on credit cards. This will make it much harder for criminals to skim data. Secondly, merchants should be required to collect data during transactions. The lack of a paper trail makes it nearly impossible to trace fraudulent activity. Thirdly, we must institute identity verification and eligibility determination requirements. SNAP must be easy to access for those who need it, but impossible to access by criminals.

This issue is more than just a financial matter; it's a moral one. It's time to demand that our political leaders and agency heads not only take notice but take decisive action. They must initiate and enforce measures to secure the SNAP program and to ensure that public funds fulfill their intended purpose: to assist those who need them most.

The combo of sandwiches and Peet's Coffee is likely to be a consistent part of West Coast Sourdough's business model as it looks to future expansion in California. The decision to include Peet's Coffee will depend upon each future location's available space, Uppal said.

"In Citrus Heights we had plenty of room to add the Peet's lineup, but it does get trickier in the spaces that are between 1,200-1,400 square feet," he said. "Our design team are currently evaluating our forthcoming locations to see where there is an opportunity."

What made West Coast Sourdough choose Citrus Heights?

"We have been looking for a home in Citrus Heights for a while," Uppal said. "Some of our corporate team used to work in the area prior to joining our team, and so it has been on our radar for a couple years. The people here in Citrus Heights know their food, care about quality and I simply hope we can meet, or maybe even exceed their expectations."

West Coast Sourdough expects to hire between 15-20 team members, which will be a mix of full and part timers. New sandwich makers are likely to eventually be cross-trained as coffee baristas, he said.

"We will start everyone off in one particular department so they can learn one area of our operation at a time."

West Coast Sourdough, which was founded in 2020, serves sandwiches, soups and salads. Uppal said the franchise currently operates 31 sites throughout California and is expected to grow to 40 locations by the end of the year.

"For the past few years, we've noticed that a large number of people coming into our stores would ask for a hot beverage rather than a cold one, so we thought there was a demand for it," Uppal told the Sacramento Business Journal. "This will also allow us to expand our offerings to include a breakfast sandwich."

"If this goes well, I think this will be part of the model moving forward," Uppal said. "We are also considering retroactively adding some coffee offerings in some of our existing locations."

West Coast Sourdough also has locations in Arden-Arcade, Elk Grove, Folsom, Galt, Roseville, Sacramento and West Sacramento. A Rancho Cordova site is also listed as coming soon on the company's website.

The Citrus Heights location at Stock Ranch is expected to be open and operating around September. ★

Walking Through Every Open Door

Advice and Insights from Diplomatic Consultant W. Bruce Lee

Story by Shaunna Boyd

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - W. Bruce Lee is a man of experience and humility, and he said he attributes his success to always saying yes to the next challenge — accepting the next invitation, undertaking the next assignment, choosing to “always walk through doors that are open for me.”

Lee’s work spans the industries of government, business, and education. He has taught at the University of Phoenix and William Jessup University, worked in the Governor’s Finance Department for the State of California, and worked as a business coach for various national corporations. Lee has served in the halls of government most of his life — running statewide initiatives, twice elected as Mayor of Loomis, and elected as Director of the Placer County Water Agency, among other offices. Currently, he serves as the executive officer of the Phoenix Correspondence Commission, a nonpartisan governmental entity (established by all 50 states) that works to balance State and Federal authority.

In recent years, Lee has turned his skills toward diplomatic consulting—helping communities, businesses, and governments around the world find pathways to success as well as hope for the future.

Born and raised in the Sacramento Region, Lee has traveled the world, advising organizations in places such as Nepal, Singapore, and China. He has worked in South America,

In all nations — regardless of differing systems of government, economy, and cultural standards — the same basic needs exist. And people always seek to overcome challenges, achieve their goals, and better their lives. But Lee has also seen that “there is a human tendency toward selfishness, and selfishness creates greed, which in government will lead to short-term benefits in one’s own self-interest, but does not create any long-term sustainability.” Lee, “and look not at what is right for themselves, but what is right for their constituents, and for their society as a whole.” Practical solutions are needed, so that is where Lee comes in, offering guidance on how governments can provide opportunities that better serve their people, creating stronger communities that support a stronger nation. In business settings, the advice is similarly applied: better products and services create a more satisfied customer base, better employee morale, and a stronger company for the long term.

Whether in a classroom, boardroom, or the legislature of foreign governments, Lee said the core of his work is about “equipping people” and showing them that there are practical solutions to every challenge. He often sees “a lot of activity, with plenty of energy and money to make things happen — but a lack of results.”

While people often want an easy answer, Lee cautions that there is “no one right answer, no magic bullet.” Change takes effort and discipline. There are answers, and while they won’t come overnight, there is always hope for improving the situation — and Lee strives to help everyone find that hope. “We need to exercise sound critical thinking and wisdom in how we approach our problem solving,” said Lee. “We have to take responsibility for ourselves and for our society.” In his life, Lee spends his time and money investing not in himself, but in others, wherever he sees a need: “Wherever I am able to be of benefit, it is my honor and privilege to be of service,” said Lee. “I can offer what I have.” As a deeply religious man, Lee credits God for his many accomplishments. “God has been good to me,” said Lee. “I live in a country where I’ve been able to get a good education and develop useful skills. God has treated me much better than I deserve. And it’s easy to take these things for granted, but it’s essential that we do not.”

Seeing the struggles of communities around the world has broadened Lee’s perspective. He believes that many Americans don’t realize how fortunate they are. “Our social, economic, and political freedoms are hard-won,” said Lee. “Diligence is necessary in their protection, otherwise they may easily slip away.” For many around the world, America is “still the light on the hill,” said Lee. “They see we’re doing things differently, and we need to protect that.”

W. Bruce Lee at the Taj Mahal in Northern India, where he worked to develop leadership training programs and advised on the ongoing relationships between India and Pakistan. Photo provided by W. Bruce Lee Australia, New Zealand, Europe and Eastern Europe, the Middle East, and various African countries —including Cameroon, Rwanda, Ethiopia, Zimbabwe, Tunisia, Uganda, Nigeria, and South Sudan.

Lee has found that all societies are built upon three main systems: economic, government, and culture. And every society is unique in the way these features integrate and reinforce each other. But Lee cautioned that different cultures don’t always support the same economic or governmental systems. So, as an outsider in these countries, Lee said, “I don’t assume.” His first and most important step is to listen: “You tell me what you need, and then I can help to achieve those results.”

Lee explained that in nations with corrupted governments, the surrounding communities are afflicted by “massive deprivation” — overt, lack of opportunity, and no hope for the future. A society in such crisis is not a strong or sustainable system. To have a successful government that can be sustained long-term, “there must not create any long-term sustainability.” And the same can be seen in businesses and local communities. “Throughout the world, the powerful often abuse the powerless,” said Lee. “Whether that power is political, economic, or positional, the ills of the world stem from the motivation of self-interest and greed. The powerful take advantage of their power and use it to benefit themselves at the expense of others.”

Lee cautioned that many people here live lives of privilege and feel no sense of responsibility toward others. But Lee said, “We have a massive responsibility to our community.” Whatever skills each of us have, Lee believes we are called to use them for the good of others, whether that is in construction, farming, teaching, etc. “If it benefits people in a tangible way, inspires them, gives them hope—that’s a blessing,” said Lee.

His advice can be boiled down to a simple message: “Let’s love our neighbors. Let’s not take things for granted. Let us be of good hope, because whatever challenges we may see around us, they are resolvable if we work together in a civilized way, not marred by violence in word or action. ... Let us seek to honor each other and learn from each other. All of that takes commitment and humility.” To learn more about Lee’s work, visit <https://wbrucelee.com/the-work-of-bruce/>. ★

And so the summer begins and the heat hits us big time. So I asked Dr. Susan Smith-Jones who has made extraordinary contributions on the fields of well-being, anti-aging, and balance living to help us out on POPPOFF. Water is the key to staying hydrated. Drink water, and eat lots of water-rich foods. Photo courtesy RÜSTÜ BOZKUS from Pixabay

1. LEAFY GREENS AND SPINACH. While iceberg lettuce may have a higher water content (96%), spinach is usually a better bet with over 91% water. Piling raw spinach leaves on your sandwich, salad, or smoothies provides as much built-in hydration, with an added nutritional punch of lutein, potassium, fiber, vitamin E, and brain-boosting folate.

2. STRAWBERRIES. All berries are good foods for hydration (and rich in vitamin C and polyphenols), but juicy red strawberries are easily the best of the bunch at 91% water. Raspberries and blueberries both hover around 85% water, while blackberries are only slightly better at 88%.

3. GREEN PEPPERS. Bell peppers of all shades have a high water content, but green peppers lead the pack at 93% water, just edging out the red and yellow varieties (which are about 92% water). And contrary to popular belief, green peppers contain just as many antioxidants as their slightly sweeter siblings.

4. CELERY. Coming in at 95% water, celery is a veggie worth becoming your friend. Like all foods that are high in water, celery has very few calories... just 6 calories per stalk. And its one-two punch helps to fill you up and curb your appetite.

5. APPLES. Remember the oft-repeated phrase that an apple a day keeps the doctor away? Well, here's a reminder to show this claim does, indeed hold considerable water. Apples contain an ample supply of water, which accounts for 86% of its total content. They come bearing myriad health benefits including their ability to boost the immune system, improve digestion, promote heart health, healthy skin as well as improved vision.

6. CUCUMBERS. Cucumber, another high-rolling water-rich food, has a 95% water content. Like potatoes, cucumbers are also high in potassium. Cucumbers offer yet another health benefit in the form of Fisetin. Fisetin (a plant polyphenol from the flavonoid group) is an anti-inflammatory agent that's known to support brain health.

7. TOMATOES. Another water-rich food, the versatile, hearty tomato has a water content of up to 95%. Nutrient-wise, tomatoes are no slouch. Tomatoes contain high amounts of lycopene (a cancer-fighting carotenoid), vitamin A, vitamin C and potassium, just to name a few.

8. WATERMELON. With a water content of 92%, this water-rich food in not only a summertime favorite but also offers high levels of glutathione, one of the body's primary antioxidants and detoxifiers. Don't forget its cousin, the nutrient-rich cantaloupe, which has a 90% water content.

SMF Receives FAA Funding for Relocation of Air Traffic Control Tower

Sacramento International Airport News Releases

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County Department of Airports is excited to announce the U.S. Department of Transportation's Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) will provide funding for the Sacramento International Airport's (SMF) control tower replacement project.

The tower's replacement will be funded through the FAA's $5 billion Bipartisan Infrastructure Law (BIL) funds also known as the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act (IIJA), which was signed into law by President Biden on November 15, 2021. The law authorizes $1.2 trillion for transportation and infrastructure spending with $550 billion of that figure going toward "new" investments and programs.

The FAA has started investing the first $1 billion of $5 billion into the country's air traffic control system. The funding will sustain, repair, or replace hundreds of buildings and pieces of equipment that make flying in the United States the safest in the world.

"We are thrilled, and greatly appreciate the support we've received from everyone involved in this effort," said Cindy Nichol, Sacramento County Department of Airports Director. "This new state-of-the-art tower will be a significant upgrade to the current facility that will enhance working conditions for air traffic controllers at SMF and ensure the continued safe and efficient management of aircraft operations at the Airport.

"Today's announcement has taken over a decade of dedication and collaboration – and I am proud that we have secured this funding to build our new air traffic control tower at SMF," said Congresswoman Doris Matsui. "From the initial planning and design all the way to today's announcement, I have fought to ensure that decisionmakers at the highest levels understood the importance of getting this project to the finish line. Cindy and her team are always looking at new ways to improve the travel experience and safety of our airport. That's why I have been such a strong, long-time advocate for robust federal investments in their work. This new tower will continue to build on that progress and ensure our airport remains the gold standard for the nation."

Congresswoman Matsui is a champion of the Sacramento County Airport System and has long advocated for a new SMF tower – dating back to 2006. She has made numerous requests to secure funding through the annual federal budget, repeatedly urging senior FAA officials to take action and making personal appeals to three different Department of Transportation secretaries. Her unrelenting advocacy has been critical to securing funding for a new tower.

The current tower at SMF is owned and operated by the FAA. It was built in 1967, is 130 feet in height, and is located just south of Terminal B at the Airport. Given that tower is one of the oldest towers in the country, the FAA is prioritizing replacing it with a new, 192-foot tower in a new location on the north side of the Airport.

The new tower will be 100 percent funded with BIL funds, which are fully appropriated. The expected timeframe to complete construction is 2026.

"As we invest in the future of our nation's infrastructure, it is crucial that we prioritize the safety and efficiency of our airports," said Representative Ami Bera. "The building of a new air traffic control tower at Sacramento International Airport is a significant step towards modernizing our aviation infrastructure and ensuring a seamless and secure travel experience for all passengers.

This investment not only enhances the safety measures at SMF but also creates job opportunities and strengthens our regional economy. I'm proud to help secure this critical funding through the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law which will support a safe and resilient transportation system for generations to come."

The new tower will be constructed at a site located on the north side of the Airport. It will stand 192-feet in height and the current cost estimate is between $60 to $80 million.

"SMF remains a point of pride for Sacramento County, and with the recent news of available FAA funding for a new control tower, we can expect that our international airport will continue as the best of its size anywhere in the nation" said Supervisor Phil Serna whose district includes SMF. He continued by emphasizing that "safety and convenience at SMF are our top priorities, and a new state-of-the-art air traffic control tower will further enhance our ability to maximize both for the traveling public."

The Sacramento County Department of Airports is responsible for planning, developing, operating and maintaining the county's four airports: Sacramento International Airport, Executive Airport, Mather Airport and Franklin Field. Sacramento International Airport offers more than 155 daily nonstop flights on 12 domestic and international carriers to 36 destinations. The regional economic impact of the Sacramento County Department of Airports is more than $4 billion annually. For more information, visit sacramento.aero. ★

The initial Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is currently 6.00% for a new Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC), and is fixed for the first 5 years of the loan which is called the draw period. After the initial 5 year period, the APR can change once based on the value of an Index and Margin. The maximum APR that can apply any time during your HELOC is 12%. A qualifying transaction consists of the following conditions: (1) the initial APR assumes a maximum HELOC of $200,000, and a total maximum Loan-to-Value (LTV) of 70% including the new HELOC and any existing 1st Deed of Trust loan on your residence; (2) your residence securing the HELOC must be a single-family home that you occupy as your primary residence; (3) if the 1st Deed of Trust loan is with a lender other than El Dorado Savings Bank, that loan may not exceed $300,000, have a total maximum Loan to Value (LTV) of 65% and may not be a revolving line of credit. ### SMUD News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - As the mercury rises in Sacramento, residents are seeking ways to stay comfortable in their homes without breaking their budget. While SMUD customers enjoy some of the lowest rates in California, air conditioning needs can drive customer usage and bills during these hot summer months, so SMUD is offering tips on how to stay comfortable in your home while also saving money.

It's easy to keep energy use in check without giving up cooling comfort. One of the easiest ways to save is to pay attention to when you are using energy. Energy rates are cheapest during off-peak hours before 5 p.m. and after 8 p.m. That means customers can save by minimizing energy use during the week between 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Another easy step is to prevent your home from heating up, which can reduce immediate cooling costs and help save on long-term costs from wear and tear on cooling equipment.

SMUD has more energy-saving solutions on its website and offers additional tips to save:

In the summer, use fans and close blinds on windows that get direct sun; Swap out light bulbs for LEDs; Change your air filter and clean your HVAC unit; Use a programmable/smart thermostat to help control HVAC use; For every 2 degrees that you turn up your thermostat, you can save 5-10 percent on cooling costs; Avoid using multiple large appliances at the same time, especially during peak hours; On hot days, BBQ outside or use small cooking appliances like crock pots and microwaves to help keep your house cool; Pre-cool your home before 5 p.m.; Customers can get customized tips, manage their bills and set up alerts on the website.

As the nation's sixth-largest, community-owned, not-for-profit electric service provider, SMUD has been providing low-cost, reliable electricity to Sacramento County for more than 75 years. SMUD is a recognized industry leader and award winner for its innovative energy efficiency programs, renewable power technologies and for its sustainable solutions for a healthier environment. SMUD's power supply is on average about 50 percent carbon free and SMUD has a goal to reach zero carbon in its electricity supply by 2030. For more information on SMUD's Zero Carbon Plan and its customer programs, visit smud.org. ★

Annual Crime Report Shows Californians' Fear Of Increasing Crime Is Justified

By Dan Walters, CALMatters.org

Political officeholders at all levels and of all ideological stripes habitually pursue a time-dishonored practice when releasing data.

If its positive, politicians try to maximize its importance with lavish news conferences and self-congratulatory declarations.

If, on the other hand, the data have a negative cast, they will be released quietly, often late on a Friday afternoon, to minimize media coverage.

California's annual report on crime was released this year on the Friday before what for many would be a four-day, Fourth of July holiday weekend. That's a tipoff that it would not be good news – and, in fact, it received minimal media attention.

The 2022 report revealed that the state's violent crime rate increased by 6.1% since 2021, and property crime was up 6.2%. Homicides dipped very slightly, but robberies jumped by 10.2%.

Attorney General Rob Bonta issued a low-key statement with the data release, saying, "While crime rates remain significantly below their historical highs, property and violent crimes continue to have devastating consequences for communities across the state, and gun violence remains a major threat to public safety." One can be certain that had California seen a drop in crime in 2022, Bonta would have trumpeted it as loudly as possible.

Let's be clear: Neither Bonta nor any other attorney general can have more than a marginal effect on crime rates. Nevertheless, their campaigns often depict themselves as the state's top cop and imply that they do have such authority.

Why crime rates ebb and flow is the subject of never-ending academic and political debate – and is colored by equally erratic public concerns about being victimized.

At the moment, Californians' worries about crime appear to be on the upswing, as indicated by one of the Public Policy Institute of California's periodic polls, conducted just before last fall's election.

"Californians' perception of crime spiked during the pandemic – as did certain types of crime," PPIC found, adding, "nearly two in three Californians call violence and street crime in their local community a problem. This includes 31% who call them a big problem, a noticeable increase from February 2020 (24%)."

The poll found that among racial and ethnic groups, Black Californians expressed the highest level of concern about crime, women were more concerned than men, and Republicans more than Democrats or independent voters.

The data released on June 30 imply that those concerns are rooted in fact. Crime did increase sharply last year, particularly robberies, and it has not gone unnoticed in the media.

The proliferation of cameras in stores and in the hands of cellphone owners has produced a never-ending supply of crime video snippets, such as smash-and-grab invasions of stores, for television newscasts, which then reverberate on YouTube and other online outlets.

Just a few days after the crime report release, for example, a San Francisco TV station aired video of criminals breaking into a Bay Area visitor's rental car in broad daylight, stealing the contents and driving away.

Bonta and the man who appointed him attorney general before he won reelection in November, Gov. Gavin Newsom, have pursued somewhat ambivalent postures about crime. They lament its effects on victims and take some public crime-fighting steps while championing criminal justice reform to reduce traditional punishment of those caught breaking the law.

A day before the crime data were released, Newsom dispatched more California Highway Patrol officers to battle open air drug dealing in San Francisco, a city he once governed as mayor.

In decades past, spikes in crime have had major impacts on California's political atmosphere – helping Republicans become dominant in the 1980s, for example.

Were crime to continue its currently upward path, it could once again become a game-changing political factor.

Why Can't I Collect Survivor Benefits from My Deceased Wife?

By Russell Gloor, AMAC Certified Social Security Advisor

Dear Rusty: I am a 62 year old widower that is still working full time. While my late spouse was in hospice, I was able to get her to apply for Social Security disability and she received one payment before she passed away two years ago. I was told that I could collect a survivor benefit, so I called my local Social Security office, but they told me that I could not collect any type of benefits from my wife and that all the money she paid into SS for all of those years was basically gone for good. Would you please advise what I can do and if this is true? I was also told that Social Security's agents will do everything they can to avoid paying out benefits. Signed: Frustrated Widower

Dear Frustrated Widower: I suspect that the reason Social Security said you were not eligible for benefits as a widower is because you are working full time. At age 62, you are subject to Social Security's "earnings test" which limits how much you can earn while collecting early Social Security benefits. The 2023 earnings limit is $21,240 and, if that is exceeded, SS will take away

$1 in benefits for every $2 you are over the limit. If your earnings are high enough, that could make you temporarily ineligible to collect benefits until 1) your earnings are less, or 2) you reach your full retirement age (FRA) when the earnings test no longer applies.

Assuming you have not yet claimed your personal SS retirement benefit, you are still eligible to collect a survivor benefit from your wife when your earnings are less or after you reach your full retirement age. One strategy you may wish to consider, if you plan to keep working full time, is to wait and claim only your surviving spouse benefit at your FRA (67), thus allowing your personal SS retirement benefit to continue growing until you are 70 when your personal SS retirement benefit will be about 75% more than it would be now. Although your survivor benefit reaches maximum at your FRA, your personal benefit doesn't reach maximum until age 70, so it's possible to collect your smaller survivor benefit from your wife first and claim your higher personal benefit later.

You were apparently given some confusing information when you contacted Social Security. If you haven't already claimed your own SS retirement benefit, you are still eligible for a surviving spouse benefit from your wife but likely cannot collect a widower benefit at this time because you're working full time. However, that doesn't mean you can never collect a survivor benefit; only that you can't collect it at this time because of the "earnings test." The earnings test goes away when you reach age 67, so you can claim only your survivor benefit at that time (or before if you no longer work full time) and allow your personal SS retirement benefit to continue to grow (to age 70 if you like).

From our experience with the Social Security Administration, the skill level of SSA representatives varies but we have never suspected their goal was trying to avoid paying benefits due. Nevertheless, depending on the agent you spoke with, the information provided may have been less clear about the best claiming strategy for you - which is why the AMAC Foundation's Social Security Advisory Service exists. Our advisors are all highly experienced and strive to provide you with complete and clear information which enables you to make an informed choice about how and when to claim the Social Security benefits you are entitled to. I hope we have succeeded. *This article is intended for information purposes only and does not represent legal or financial guidance. Dave Ramsey Says second mortgage to pay for the work?

– Natalie

Dear Natalie,

For starters, I'd suggest cutting expenses any way you can, living on a strict budget and saving as much cash as possible. But taking out a second mortgage? No! You don't want that hanging over your heads.

You might want to get another opinion on the kitchen remodel, too. Sure, a new kitchen would be nice, but would it be a make-or-break kind of thing if you decide to sell your home? Probably not, unless it's in really terrible shape right now. Regardless, there's no way I'd go into debt to make this happen. I mean, your house isn't even on the market yet. There's no reason to fix up a house that's not for sale, especially when you've got just $4,000 to your names.

My advice is to wait and see how the whole job situation plays out before making any big decisions. Then if you end up selling the house and moving, you might take $500 or so from savings to freshen up the kitchen a little bit.

Coordinated Access Is Eliminating Barriers

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - As part of the Local Homeless Action Plan (LHAP) and in conjunction with the City-County Partnership Agreement, the Coordinated Access System (CAS) has been developed by Sacramento Steps Forward. The CAS is a streamlined system that matches people experiencing homelessness with housing and service options. This process prioritizes limited local shelter and housing resources, so people with the highest vulnerability can be connected to supports as quickly as possible.

In Sacramento, the front door for CAS is 2-1-1 Sacramento. Households can call the Housing Crisis Line at 2-1-1 (select #8) to be triaged to appropriate resources. In addition, trained agencies with Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) access can conduct the individual or family shelter assessment to place a household on the shelter waitlist.

Why is Coordinated Access Critical?

It's an efficient, equitable, client-centered approach to ending homelessness.

Key strategy of the Local Homeless Action Plan; Requirement of the Sacramento City/County Partnership Agreement; CAS connects people who are unhoused with critical resources and services; CAS creates a pathway for people who are unhoused to navigate an end to their housing crisis; Without system coordination, the community is limited in the impact we can make toward addressing homelessness; The system empowers people who are unhoused and providers to have clarity and know the supports available.

What resources are available through the CAS?

CAS is not just a shelter referral resource. People may also be connected to additional resources such as Problem-Solving Access Points (PSAP) and the Coordinated Access Navigational team (CAN). CAN is operated by Elica Health Centers and supports households on the shelter waitlist with problem-solving services and warm handoffs to the shelter. PSAPs are trained agencies that support households in identifying alternative housing options and community support to resolve their housing crisis. This could include mediation, conflict resolution, connections to mainstream resources, and limited financial assistance that directly results in housing being secured or retained. Four designated PSAPs receive referrals from 2-1-1 and can provide housing location services for households with vouchers or identified housing.

CAS by the Numbers – Q1 2023

5,711 Calls Received; 3,975 Households connected to other resources; 1,721 Households currently or at risk of homelessness; 1,023 Referrals to crisis resources; 322 Households enrolled in a shelter; 504 Households exited or diverted from homelessness.

Who is calling, and what services are they referred to?

Nearly 50% of head of households are Black, African American; 11% of callers were transitional-aged youth; 56% of households were female identifying; Average call wait time: 7:54; Average call handle time: 11:40; Most frequent zip codes: 95811, 95823, 95815; Shelter referrals: 452; Average wait to get into a shelter: 14 days; PSAP Referrals: 175; Expenditures: $550,515; CAN referrals: 399; Average wait to enrollment: 2 days

K9 Safely Apprehends Burglar with Multiple Felony Warrants

Sacramento County Sheriff's Dept. News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - On July 7, 2023, the Sacramento County Sheriff's Department announced that Gonzalo Aguilar, who was originally wanted by the California Department of Corrections for a parole violation, has been arrested. Aguilar had multiple felony warrants and an extensive violent criminal history.

During a call for service, deputies attempted to contact Aguilar, when he tried to flee on foot. He ended up forcing entry into a home while the homeowners were still inside. Fortunately, the homeowners ran out of the house to safety, and our deputies were able to surround it quickly. Even after multiple announcements for Aguilar to surrender himself, he refused to exit.

Sheriff K9s began a search of the residence, when they discovered him hiding in the garage between a car and the wall. The K9 safely apprehended him, when he was taken into custody and booked into the Sacramento County Main Jail for burglary, along with his previous charges.

Law enforcement K9s are invaluable to deputies and officers throughout the state. As California lawmakers continue to allow dangerous criminals like Aguilar to roam the streets freely, law enforcement K9s allow deputies to take these violent felons into custody without having to use deadly force. ★

Defendant Convicted of Arden-Arcade Shooting Murder

Sacramento County DA News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - On June 26, 2023, Fard Smithson was convicted by a jury of first-degree murder and felon in possession of a firearm. The jury also found true the allegation that Smithson intentionally and personally discharged a firearm causing death.

Smithson lived with the victim, Keela Cole, and had unreported instances of domestic violence. On July 19, 2021, three friends were at their residence when someone made a joke about the food the victim prepared for everyone. Smithson then got off the couch, went into the kitchen and threw his plate of food in the sink. He rounded the corner and shot the victim in the back of the head two times while she was sitting on the couch. Smithson and the three other individuals immediately fled the scene, and only one returned to call 911. Smithson changed his clothes and returned to the scene hours later claiming he didn't know what had happened.

Smithson faces a maximum sentence of 53 years to life in prison. Sentencing is set for August 11, 2023, at 9:00 a.m. in Department 21 before the Honorable Shelleyanne Chang. ★
