CITRUS HEIGHTS, CA (MPG) - What used to be California's part of Historic U.S. Route 40 along Auburn Boulevard relived its glory days this past weekend as approximately 250 classic vehicles made a public showing at Grand Oaks Shopping Center. The Citrus Heights Chamber of Commerce helped host the March 26 car show, Highway 40 Car & Bike Show, to promote the opening of new business and show organizer, Classic Registration Service of Citrus Heights, announcing their new services beginning this April. Tim Newey, husband and helper to new business owner Marleen Newey, said, "Classic Registration Service will be available to provide Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) authorized services such as issuing registration, license tags, plates, title transfers, out of state transfers and vin verifications on the spot." The Neweys, along with fellow classic car aficionado, John Cano, also staff the Hot Rod Bookstore, the new waiting room for the clients, "which opened about 6 months earlier and sells a great selection of Hot Rod t-shirts, metal signs, art, books and magazines." The business, which is now open, is located at 7975 Auburn Blvd, Citrus Heights between Rollingwood Blvd and Antelope Road—close to Rusch Community Park. Newey said, "The retail locale had been vacant for about 10 years and now we operate from where the old Radio Shack in town use to be."

Council Issues Proclamations and Approves Past Debt Repayment

Story by Shaunna Boyd

CITRUS HEIGHTS, CA (MPG) - At the March 24 meeting, the Citrus Heights City Council issued a proclamation recognizing the accomplishments of the San Juan High School boys' varsity basketball team after winning their first league championship since 2012. Councilmember Bret Daniels said, "I know this was an emotional win for all of you with the recent passing of fellow teammate Devin Johnson. I really want to commend the team for their outstanding team spirit and support for one another, which led to this tremendous win." Head Coach Freddie Bryant said, "This is a special class, especially for me," as he announced it would be his last season coaching at San Juan after eight years. He thanked the students for their hard work and the families for their support.

The Council also recognized March as Women's History Month, and Councilmember Jeannie Bruins read the proclamation, stating that generations of women have been leaders in fighting for a "more just society for all," knowing that "their gender was no obstacle to what they could accomplish."

"Despite their contributions, the role of women in history has been overlooked and undervalued .... So, this month we want to honor the pioneering women and their victories," said Bruins. Members of Citrus Heights Soroptimists and the Citrus Heights Women's Club accepted the proclamation in honor of their work in the community.

During councilmember comments, Councilmember Steve Miller said that many in the community want to do something to help during the "tragic" situation in Ukraine. One option is to donate to an upcoming protective gear drive for Ukrainian citizens, which will be held on Saturday, April 16 from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM at the Sunrise Marketplace at Birdcage. Requested items are tourniquets, bandages, combat gauze, decompression needles, burn and sterile bandages, medical tape and dressings, tactical clothing and boots, flashlights, sleeping bags, etc. These items are not for the Ukrainian military, but for civilians who are in danger

New Citrus Heights DAR Member

By Thomas J. Sullivan

CITRUS HEIGHTS, CA (MPG) - Marla (O'Donnell) Oxley, a long-time Citrus Heights resident, and retired high school French teacher, is the newest member of the John A. Sutter branch of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) in Citrus Heights. Oxley is the proud descendant of five different American Revolutionary War patriots whose history she continues to uncover. Her journey to officially submit her membership application to the DAR began in the early 1980s in the pre-Internet, long-distance telephone days, when Oxley was contacted by a distant relative, Joe Dilsaver, who was then looking into her family history. Oxley, 69, grew up on Watson Way in Citrus Heights, attending Mariposa Elementary School in the early 1960s, the old Sylvan Junior High School before its demolition, and was one of the first group of graduating students who spent all four years at Bella Vista High School.

"I walked to Mariposa Avenue Elementary School when you could still walk up to Clearview Drive and then cut through the old grape orchard and enter through the back of the playground," she recalled. She recalls fond memories of the community before its incorporation as a city. Today, she and her husband, Michael, who taught special education, are both retired from the Fairfield Unified School District. They enjoy being grandparents to their two granddaughters, Bronte and Bridgit. "I was contacted by Joe Dilsaver, then in his 80s, who was researching my family tree," she said. "Joe said he was looking for information about relatives of mine, particularly the Hess family tree, and in the pre-Internet era of long-distance telephone charges, we soon started writing back and forth to one another. "He sent me a complete original copy of his research, in the form of a gigantic taped-together, folding pedigree chart which was large enough to cover our living room floor," Oxley said. Oxley joined the internet websites My Heritage and Ancestry.com to do further research into the Hess family tree on her mother's side and

Biden Announces Plans to Accept 100,000 Ukrainian Refugees

Office of Assemblyman Ken Cooley

RANCHO CORDOVA, CA (MPG) - On Monday, March 14th, 2022, the State Assembly sent a bipartisan letter to President Biden urging swift actions to adopt policies to welcome displaced Ukrainians. This letter emphasized the urgency of the matter and recommended the use of humanitarian parole as a mechanism to quickly allow refugees to seek asylum in the United States. The letter, spearheaded by Assemblymembers Cooley, Gallagher, and Kalra, was signed by 67 Assemblymembers from both sides of the aisle.

On March 24, 2022, President Biden announced that the United States would be accepting 100,000 refugees from Ukraine utilizing a number of legal pathways, one such pathway being humanitarian parole. This news is momentous for the many Ukrainians and Ukrainian-American's in the Sacramento region. Vlad Skots, President of the local non-profit Ukrainian American House, has been engaging with California leaders to inform them of the humanitarian crisis being faced by Ukrainian people abroad and at home. This partnership between the Ukrainian-American community and the California Legislature was instrumental in the organization of the letter to the President. Assemblyman Cooley takes pride in the leadership California and its people demonstrated in urging this critical step forward.

Assemblyman Cooley remarks, "Ukraine's national anthem opens with the phrase, 'The Dignity and Freedom of Ukraine has not yet Perished.' With the entire world watching, we are awe-struck to see how a free people fight for their dignity, for their freedom, and to keep their unperishable national identity. We support the fullest possible U.S. partnerships in support of this courageous and determined people."

Assemblyman Ken Cooley represents the 8th Assembly District. For more information, please visit asmdc.org/members/a08/ ★

Effective Oct. 1, 2021, the United States

New Citrus Heights DAR Member

In a 1975 photo, Marla O'Donnell Oxley, standing back row; stands behind her grandmother, Selma Hess Morris. Her mother, Lola Faye Morris, wearing glasses, is to Selma's left. find other relatives who had served during the American Revolution era. She noted the DAR logo was marked beside many of the earliest names on her family tree.

“Several months ago, I found, and submitted an online inquiry. They sent an application asking a lot of questions. Months later, I received emails from Rachelle Yost of the General John A. Sutter DAR branch and another from the Sacramento Chapter,” she said.

The Sacramento chapter of the DAR has 175 members and was organized on November 17, 1921, by a group of 18 Sacramento women who all had the common bond of being direct descendants of American Revolutionary War Patriots.

“I chose the Citrus Heights chapter, since I grew up in Citrus Heights and was the city which I returned to when I retired from teaching at Fairfield High School,” she said.

Oxley attended a local DAR meeting as a prospective member and learned that a genealogical expert would contact her to help formally research her American Revolution era family history.

“Every single step of the way has to be fully proven with official documents. I had to produce birth, marriage, and death certificates for several generations, until I directly linked into my ancestors that are already established Patriots,” Oxley said.

According to DAR records, one of her distant relatives, Peter Hess was born in Pennsylvania in 1755 and at age 23, served during the Revolutionary War as a prison guard in a unit commanded by Col. G. Pennington, New York Company, Pennsylvania volunteers in 1778.

“I originally wanted to pursue the Peter Hess line, but even though Peter is a recognized Patriot, there are some issues with his sons. I descend from his child, Samuel Hess. The problem is that in one of Peter's wills, there is no mention of Samuel, yet in another previously published will, Samuel is there,” she said.

In addition to Hess, Oxley discovered that she was related to four other Revolutionary War-era patriots, and she was advised by Yost to pursue the easiest one first.

Another distant family member, Matthew Nutter, helped defend Fort Nutter, which was used by the Virginia state militia from 1776 to 1780 in conflicts with Native Americans. Thomas Nutter served as a captain in the Revolutionary army and died in early 1808.

“I am pleased that I am related to Matt Nutter through the matrilineal line in my family, beginning with my mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother as pictured in the photo along with my daughter Erin and me,” Oxley said.

And there's an unexpected French connection for Oxley who loves the language and led multiple high school student trips to France during her teaching career.

“This line eventually traces itself back to France through Aramantha Mavity, wife of Matthew Nutter (my Patriot), whose mother was Marie Antoinette Raison, daughter of Louis Napoléon Raison de la Genester, Jr., whose father died rather young during the French Revolution. His father was a nobleman, so I surmise that Louis Jr. was sent to Kentucky to escape execution.”

What does her new membership in the DAR now mean to her?

“I can give back in the city which raised me. I have since met women of all ages that share common interests and who, like me, can trace themselves back to the American Revolution,” she said.

Oxley said she also plans to join with her newfound DAR sisters in its many public activities which include cleaning headstones in Sylvan Cemetery and donating paperbacks to local schools for at-risk children learning to read. She wants to enroll in the DAR's genealogical research classes which will qualify her to research the applications of future DAR members.

The National Society Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) is a non-profit, non-political organization. Any woman 18 years old or older, regardless of race, religion, or ethnic background, who can prove lineal descent from a Patriot of the American Revolutionary War is eligible to join.

The John Sutter chapter of the Daughters of American Revolution is located at 6633 Misty Creek Drive, Citrus Heights, CA 95621. ★

Council Issues Proclamations and Approves Debt Repayment

during the ongoing conflict. Donations will be shipped to Poland and then moved across the border to those in need in Ukraine.

The Council held a public hearing on a proposed amendment to the City's business license ordinance to include short-term rentals (STRs), like those marketed on Air BnB and other websites, which offer stays of less than 30 days. Back in 2011, there were around five STRs advertised in the city; now there are 70. The addresses of 52 of these rentals have been identified. Over the last two years, the Citrus Heights Police Department responded to calls for service at 13 of those addresses—with five having more than three calls, and one having 11 calls. As the number of STRs increases, there is the potential for more problems at these locations. Requiring business licenses could give the City some measure of control over the issue, since the owner/operator will have to provide contact information, and the City can revoke the license if an address is a persistent problem. Most of the calls for service involve noise complaints due to loud parties, so the amendment seeks to address that with a limit on overnight guests at the rentals.

Currently, the City does not have any ordinances in place to regulate these rentals and the owners are not paying the required 12% Transient Occupancy Tax (TOT) that owners of hotels and motels already pay. With the number of STRs operating in Citrus Heights, TOT revenue could total $43,000 per year. The business license fees themselves would have a minimal financial impact and would cover the associated administrative time.

Owners of the addresses have been mailed two direct letters informing them of the public hearing, but at the time of the meeting, no comments had been submitted. If approved, the ordinance would go into effect in May and notifications of the new requirements would be sent out.

Vice Mayor Tim Schaefer expressed concern that the regulations wouldn't include any mandatory inspection process to ensure the rentals met safety requirements. He wondered if the City could be liable if someone was injured or killed at an unsafe location licensed by the City. City Attorney Ryan Jones said the liability risk is low, and City Manager Ashley Feeney said the City could require the owners to attest that their rental complies with all safety regulations.

Schaefer also said, “Now we're taking these homes and essentially displacing what could be affordable housing into a short-term rental opportunity.” He worried that an investment company could buy up a bunch of homes to use as STRs, which would mean less long-term rentals available for people in the community.

Councilmember Bret Daniels said he didn't think the calls for service at those addresses were evidence of a significant problem that required a government solution. He asked, “Are we opening a box that doesn't need to be opened?”

Councilmember Steve Miller argued that it is enough of a problem that the City should address it before it gets out of hand. And he asked why the taxpayers of Citrus Heights should subsidize those businesses. Since hotel owners have to obtain a business license and pay TOT, the requirements should be applied fairly to all businesses in that market.

Councilmember Jeannie Bruins agreed: “These people are running a business; they're making an income off of it” and should have a business license just like any other business.

The motion passed 4-1 with Councilmember Daniels dissenting.

The Council also considered whether to move ahead with early repayment of the City's $12 million revolving line of credit. It was taken out in November 2018 to cover operating costs during the projected budget shortfall before the end of revenue neutrality, when the City will begin receiving property taxes. The City has utilized $3.5 million of the funding, most of which was used to purchase the Sylvan Middle School property. But the City doesn't expect to utilize the line of credit for any further funding after ending the last fiscal year with a $3.6 million operating surplus and projecting another surplus this year.

Interim Administrative Services Director Bill Zenoni explained that the terms require full repayment by September 2024, but an early repayment is allowed without penalty starting last March. The City pays interest on the funds utilized from the line of credit, and the current interest payment is $13,200 per month. Repaying the full debt now would avoid future interest costs, amounting to $110,000 in general fund savings.

The City Council voted unanimously and enthusiastically to amend the current budget to allow for immediate repayment of the borrowed funds. ★

A New Universe for Entertainment

Maroon 5 to Perform Opening Concert in June

By Paul Scholl, with information from Atherton Public Relations

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - It wasn't just a tour of an upcoming entertainment center for the region, it was the tour of a new entertainment universe. You could see in these construction stages just how fantastic this venue will be, from the closeness to the stars on stage to the orbit of the VIP skyboxes over every event.

The venue at Hard Rock Live, named Kumi Event Center, is in Wheatland, just a short drive from almost any population center in the region.

Mark BIRTHA, President of Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Sacramento at Fire Mountain, led a tour of local media on March 22, 2022 through the build-out construction area of the concert stage and surrounding support areas. He explained the layout, concessions, and how the bands and performers would access the main stage. "We are excited to provide our guests with authentic experiences that rock in a venue that is filling a great void in the Sacramento region," BIRTHA said.

BIRTHA expressed his enthusiasm for the project saying, "This entertainment center will help revitalize the community." He later commented, "Upcoming events include MMA, and additional concerts will soon be announced. Yuba-Sutter Chamber of Commerce has scheduled a major event for next year."

The 65,000-square-foot facility has state-of-the-art in-house sound and lighting, unrivaled sightlines, a second-floor mezzanine level, VIP skyboxes, and mobile-stage technology, creating intimate experiences for events of varying sizes.

The big announcement was of the opening performers. With a live television audience watching, BIRTHA had the construction crew drop the banner showing which band is coming to the stage in June. "Maroon 5 is the perfect band to help us celebrate Hard Rock Live's grand opening. They are incredible live performers and live music is fundamental to the Hard Rock brand. This new venue will become the place for entertainment and world class amenities for the city of

Grammy® Award-winning, multi-platinum band Maroon 5 are set to headline the grand opening of the brand-new Hard Rock Live in Sacramento on June 3, 2022. The band will launch the opening of VIP skyboxes will seat approximately 20 people each.

Maroon 5's performance is only one of the many shows coming to Hard Rock Live this summer and fall, as the new venue continues to add a variety of acts and a diverse calendar for the remainder of 2022 and into 2023.

The center is also designed to be converted for use during a local emergency, such as the region experienced during the recent fires. "We will be able to provide shelter and food in case of an emergency," BIRTHA said.

The building crew currently employs about 250 construction workers. The venue, when opened, will have approximately 100 employees for shows. They expect to have between 50 and 60 shows per year.

Jodi Goodman, representative from Live Nation said, "This was a natural fit. It is truly more state of the art in Northern California. For Live Nation events it is a really, really great asset. We can see an enormous future together for us." Live Nation, the world's leading live entertainment company, will be the exclusive talent booking agency for the venue.

Stronger and in Good Financial Shape

Dear Dave,

My husband and I are getting a divorce, and everything will be final in less than a month. I haven't worked outside the home in a few years, but according to the terms of the divorce I'll receive $75,000 in cash on the day the divorce is finalized. I also have about $5,000 in debt on a credit card I am responsible for paying. Other than that, I have no debt. Can you give me some advice for moving forward in my life?

– Starla

Dear Starla,

I'm truly sorry to hear you're going through this.

Dave Ramsey Says

If you're not already connected to a good church, I hope you'll consider finding one. Having caring people of faith around you in times like this can help a lot.

The credit card debt is a small part of your financial picture right now. Still, my advice is to go ahead and pay it off as soon as you receive the settlement money. That way, you'll be completely debt-free and still have $70,000 in the bank.

There's a little bit of a catch, though. You'll need to live for a while like that money isn't there. Use just enough to get yourself settled somewhere else, if that's a consideration, and then start looking for a job so you can eat and pay the utilities. There are tons of places hiring right now, and the money's decent, so it shouldn't be too hard to start generating a regular income soon.

If you'll do this, that big chunk of cash will still be sitting there a year from now when the pain of the divorce has lessened a bit. At that point, you'll be stronger and more emotionally and mentally ready to think about the future and make real plans.

And if you haven't already, cut up that credit card and close the account. The last thing you need right now is an avenue to more debt. God bless you, Starla.

Finally, Progress on Vital Sites Reservoir Project

By Dan Walters
CALMatters.org

Simple logic tells us that as climate change alters precipitation patterns, California must expand its capacity to capture and store water.

Even if the overall amount of precipitation remains unchanged, we will receive more of it in the form of rain and less as snow, which means the natural reservoir of the Sierra snowpack will decline as a water source.

We can prepare for that decline by creating more storage, either in new reservoirs or by replenishing underground aquifers. However, despite the urgency of the situation — one underscored by the current drought — California politicians have been lackadaisical about doing what needs to be done.

Local and regional water authorities have been more diligent. Southern California's recent construction of more storage capacity is one reason it is less affected by the current drought than Northern California.

Belatedly, increasing storage is moving upward on the political agenda. Last week, the federal Environmental Protection Agency invited sponsors of the Sites Reservoir project, which has been on the back burner for decades, to apply for a $2.2 billion loan that would cover roughly 40% of the project's estimated cost.

Along with some state water bond money and commitments from prospective users of the project — Southern California water agencies, mostly — Sites is now in position to put together a financing package to make it a reality.

"We've definitely turned the corner and we have a nice tailwind at our back," said Jerry Brown, executive director of the Sites Project Authority. Brown is not related to former Gov. Jerry Brown, whose Colusa County retirement home, incidentally, is not far from Sites.

It's not going to happen immediately, despite the urgency of the situation. Just assembling the loan package and getting approval could take several years and there are other hurdles to clear. Nevertheless, the strong possibility of a federal loan is a huge step forward.

If it becomes reality, the reservoir would be constructed on the west side of the Sacramento Valley, west of Maxwell. It would have a capacity of up to 1.8 million acre-feet of water, about half the size of the state's Lake Oroville, but unlike Oroville, would not dam a major river.

Sites would be an off-stream reservoir, similar to — and slightly smaller than — the San Luis Reservoir in the Pacheco

Pass west of Los Banos. During periods of high precipitation and runoff, Sacramento River water would be pumped into Sites, then released back into the river as needed for agriculture, residential use or to maintain flows for fish.

As an off-stream reservoir, Sites escapes at least some of the traditional opposition to big water projects from environmental groups, but there is some criticism that it could be used to divert water during low precipitation periods.

"It's just a, kind of, different way of thinking about it," project boss Brown told the Associated Press. "There's a lot of fear and distrust and we have to operate in a way that we, you know, secure trust and address the fears."

The good news about Sites should be kept in perspective. It's just one of many steps that California must take to protect its vital water supply from the potential ravages of climate change.

It's entirely possible that climate change will not only change the mix of precipitation — more rain and less snow — but reduce the overall volume of water that falls on California, thus making more storage even more crucial while forcing us to rethink the entire pattern of water use.

Nothing is more critical to California's future.

CIA Officer Openly Confesses to Rigging 2020 Election for Joe Biden and Says They Would Do It Again | 28 March 2022 | A CIA officer has confessed that the 'Deep State' rigged the 2020 election in Joe Biden's favor, and has boldly admitted that the agency would do it again. Former CIA officer John Sipher claimed in a stunning Twitter thread that he took "particular joy" in discrediting the Hunter Biden "laptop from hell" narrative and enthusiastically admitted to "shifting" the election away from Trump. Sipher was among the many "intelligence experts" who falsely claimed the Hunter Biden laptop story from the New York Post back in October of 2020 was part of a "Russian disinformation campaign." Redvoicemedia.com reports: A March 18 report from the New York Post mentioned how Sipher was among those "officials" who'd "signed a letter saying that the laptop 'has the classic earmarks of a Russian information operation.'"

Biden admin invents 'Securities and Environment Commission' out of thin air to force climate agenda on US businesses | 28 March 2022 | The Securities and Exchange Commission — a government agency established in the aftermath of the 1929 stock market crash to protect investors and maintain fair markets — may soon become a key player in imposing Joe Biden's climate agenda. In a 3-to-1 vote last week, unelected Democratic bureaucrats who serve as the agency's commissioners voted without authorization from Congress to impose sweeping new rules that require all publicly traded companies to disclose how their business affects "climate change." According to a press release issued by the SEC, the proposed rules would require businesses to disclose their greenhouse gas emissions along with any and all information relevant to "climate-related risks that are reasonably likely to have a material impact on their business, results of operations, or financial condition."

Hunter Biden DID help secure millions in funding for US contractor in Ukraine specializing in deadly pathogen research, laptop emails reveal. — | 25 March 2022 | Moscow's claim that Hunter Biden helped finance a US military "bio-weapons" research program in Ukraine is at least partially true, according to new emails obtained exclusively by DailyMail.com. The commander of the Russian Nuclear, Biological and Chemical Protection Forces, claimed there was a "scheme of interaction between US government agencies and Ukrainian biological objects" and pointed to the "financing of such activities by structures close to the current US leadership, in particular the investment fund Rosemont Seneca, which is headed by Hunter Biden." Intelligence experts say the Russian military leader's allegations were a brazen propaganda ploy to justify president Vladimir Putin's invasion of Ukraine and sow discord in the US. But emails from Hunter's abandoned laptop show he helped secure millions of dollars of funding for Metabiota, a Department of Defense contractor specializing in research on pandemic-causing diseases that could be used as bioweapons. He also introduced Metabiota to an allegedly corrupt Ukrainian gas firm, Burisma, for a "science project" involving high biosecurity level labs in Ukraine. And although Metabiota is ostensibly a medical data company, its vice president emailed Hunter in 2014 describing how they could "assert Ukraine's cultural and economic independence from Russia" — an unusual goal for a biotech firm. ★

Love WITHOUT LIMIT,

A talk on Christian Science

Thursday
April 7
7:00pm PT

Prayer and Healing
Explore the connection

Sponsored by Fujiko Takai Signs, CSB
Christian Science practitioner and teacher
A member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship

Carmichael, CA: Around the world people are looking to prayer for solutions, safety, and well-being. Fujiko Signs, practitioner of Christian Science healing and international speaker, will present an online talk titled, "Love without limit, Life without fear," Thursday, April 7 at 7 PM, online at www.tinyurl.com/yc286hfd and in-person viewing at First Church of Christ, Scientist, Carmichael located at 4949 Kenneth Ave. in Carmichael. The lecture online link can also be accessed directly at the church website ChristianScienceChurchCarmichael.com

The talk will focus on universal healing precepts found in the Holy Bible, especially in Christ Jesus' life and teachings, showing how they are available for anyone to understand and experience through the lens of Christian Science. This live web lecture is free, open to the community, and hosted by First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Carmichael.

"We will explore the relationship between prayer and healing through the universal divine truth that unites us," says Signs. "We will talk about the practical understanding of God as ever-present love so we can make progress, unafraid like trusting children."

Sharing examples of healing from her own life and professional practice of Christian Science, Ms. Signs will explain why Christian Science is both Christian and scientific, meaning that people can prove its effectiveness for themselves, as fully described in the book Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, written by the founder of the Christian Science movement, Mary Baker Eddy.

Ms. Signs will also touch on the life of Mary Baker Eddy, a mid-nineteenth century American woman, who came to understand, confirm, and teach what she felt was original Christian healing. Eddy herself said she was especially inspired by Jesus' demand, "He that believes on me, the works that I do will he do also; and greater works than these will he do, because I go unto my Father" (Found in the Gospel of John 14:12 in the Bible).

For over 150 years, people around the world have worked to follow Christ Jesus in this practice of Christianity and continue to do so today, experiencing healings of physical ills and personal difficulties.

Fujiko Signs has been a Christian Science practitioner for many years, helping people on a daily basis through this scientific approach to prayer. Based in Tokyo, Japan, she speaks to audiences around the world as a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship.

You must notify each other of any proposed extraordinary expenditures at least five business days prior to incurring these extraordinary expenditures and account to the court for all extraordinary expenditures made after these restraining orders are effective. WARNING-IMPORANT INFORMATION
California law provides that, for purposes of division of property upon dissolution of a marriage or domestic partnership or upon legal separation, property acquired by the parties during marriage or domestic partnership in joint form is presumed to be community property. If either party to this action should die before the jointly held community property is divided, the language in the deed that characterizes how title is held (i.e., joint tenancy, tenants in common, or community property) will be controlling, and not the community property presumption. You should consult your attorney if you want the community property presumption to be written into the recorded title to the property.

If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924d of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (800) 683-2468 or visit this Internet Web site www.servicelinkasap.com, using the file number assigned to this case FHAR.278-019. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. For sales conducted after January 1, 2021: NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (800) 683-2468, or visit this internet website www.servicelinkasap.com, using the file number assigned to this case FHAR.278-019 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. Diane Ebbitt-Riehle, Citrus Heights Chamber of Commerce Executive Director, helped coordinate with Newey and stated, “Since the lockdown, it has become a real challenge to get people to come out to Auburn Boulevard, but Classic Registration succeeded in bringing all these people, and the business owners in Grand Oaks Shopping Center are really excited. It’s been fantastic!”

Tim said they made sure to include the shopping center’s business people by inviting them to be judges for the show’s winners and thus get acquainted with the Hot Rod crowd attending.

‘It was the Cool Place to Be’

By Paul Scholl

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG)
- One of Sacramento’s best has chosen retirement. Phil Cowan, morning radio host of AM1380, will air his last show on April 1, 2022, between 6:00 and 9:00 am.

A retirement dinner event was held Tuesday evening, March 22, at The Ridge Golf Course in Auburn. Of course, it was a sold out event. The event was produced by AM1380 The Answer and its sister stations in Sacramento; 103.9 The Fish, 105.7 The Word, and Money 105.5.

Attendance included Scott Jones Sacramento County Sheriff; Doug LaMalfa, Congressman; Ted Gaines, Board of Equalization; Sue Frost, Sacramento County Supervisor; Suzanne Jones, Placer County Supervisor; Katy Grimes, editor of California Globe, along with their spouses and many other dignitaries, all of whom wanted to show their appreciation for Phil at his retirement event.

Mindi Russell, former CHP chaplain, graced the meal and gathering with an uplifting blessing.

Special guest, Larry Elder, radio talk show host and former candidate for governor, and Cowan presented a short program on the current events of national and state politics. It was the kind of segment the morning listeners loved to hear every morning on Phil’s show.

Especially pleasing for Phil were the many call-in listeners to the program that made their trek to the event to show their love for the man that filled their mornings with entertainment, humor, a daily education on the ever-changing landscape of politics, and the many topics that were the pillars of the host’s life journey. His discussions on music, classic cars and firearms were great entertainment all by themselves. He had never met many of the regular been possible without her”.

Phil Cowan and Paul Robins co-hosted a daily radio show together for many years. A sweet addition to the program was Paul’s send-off message to Phil, along with a few short stories about their friendship, and their famous Harley ride together from Sacramento to New York years ago.

Phil is a local legend, not just for the radio show, but for what he brought to the good people of the Sacramento Region through his life’s body of work. He has been a true friend and supporter to so many it is impossible to describe it all here. Phil will be truly missed. May his retirement be long and joyous and fruitful.★

callers, having only known them from their call-in voices over the years. It was as if they had just gathered at a big family reunion for the very first time.

One caller recently stated, “The reason your show is so great Phil is that it is a show for the people and by the people.”
