Keeping It Going

Gov. Gavin Newsom discusses the next phase of the state's COVID-19 response at a press conference in Fontana on Feb. 17, 2022. The press conference took place in one of many warehouses where PPE supplies are stored. Photo by Alisha Jucevic for CalMatters

For weeks, Gov. Gavin Newsom teased that California would soon enter a new phase of its response to the coronavirus pandemic, one in which the state shifted its perspective to how to deal with an endemic disease that will likely be a regular part of our lives.

But when that moment arrived Thursday, (February 17) Newsom made clear that the new strategy did not mean the fight was over. His long-awaited announcement came with no eulogy to the pandemic, no lifting of additional health restrictions and, despite growing calls from conservative critics, no end to the state of emergency that began nearly two years ago.

During a press conference at a San Bernardino County warehouse where his administration stores personal protective equipment, Newsom said early rhetoric envisioning a war against the virus was misguided. He could not offer a final destination for the battle, he said, only a direction in which the state would keep moving.

"We have all come to understand what was not understood at the beginning of this crisis – that there is not an end date, that there is not a moment where we declare victory," Newsom said.

What Californians did get from the governor was an acronym, SMARTER, for the state's priorities as it prepares for a future that may include more variants and surges.

It's a reflection of the tricky political dance awaiting Newsom as people increasingly seem done with a virus that is not yet done with them.

A poll released this week by the Los Angeles Times and the UC Berkeley Institute of Governmental Studies found that, by a margin of two to one, California voters believe the coronavirus situation is improving.

Yet even as the rate of new cases has fallen precipitously from the peak of the omicron surge, down about 90% from a month ago, it is still at roughly the same level as the height of the delta wave last summer. "We are moving past the crisis phase into a phase where we will work to live with this virus and we will maintain a readiness posture," Newsom said.

While he overwhelmingly beat back a recall last year by leaning on his forceful response to the pandemic, enthusiasm appears to be waning for the governor's approach. The L.A.

Sacramento Rescinds Local Health Orders

Sacramento County
Special Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - In alignment with the State, effective immediately Sacramento County is rescinding the July 26 health order requiring all individuals to wear face coverings indoors and the Jan. 6 health order directing all public meetings be held virtually.

As per the California Department of Public Health (CDPH) order, all unvaccinated individuals will continue to be required to wear face-coverings in all indoor public settings. Statewide indoor masking requirements regardless of vaccination status will remain in effect for public transportation; healthcare settings; congregate settings like correctional facilities and homeless shelters; long-term care facilities; and in K-12 schools and childcare settings.

Public Health continues to recommend the use of masks in public settings as an effective tool to prevent the spread of the virus, especially in crowded settings. Continuing to mask indoors remains the safest way to protect those who are unable to be vaccinated.

Please remember some individuals may continue to wear masks in public spaces for a variety of reasons, even if they are vaccinated, and as mandates or advisories fade. Someone may be immunocompromised, prefer to wear a mask, or have a family member who is immunocompromised or too young to be vaccinated. Please be kind and conscientious of your fellow community members and the decisions they make to protect themselves.

Vaccinations continue to be the most effective tool in slowing the rate of spread and mitigating severe symptoms of COVID-19. For a list of vaccination clinics, visit the Sacramento County Public Health Vaccination website, call 2-1-1 or visit MyTurn.ca.gov. Homebound residents can contact 2-1-1 to request in-home vaccination services. ★

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - United Way California Capital Region's Women United action group is inviting community members to its 20th anniversary luncheon on March 25 from 11am-1pm at the Croatian American Cultural Center in Sacramento, where influential professional women from across the state will gather to raise awareness and funds to support local foster youth. The event, which takes place during Women's History Month, will celebrate the power of women working together to prepare local foster youth for adulthood and will include stories of youth whose lives have been changed over the past 20 years. The event will include lunch, presentations by local foster youth who participated in a writing partnership with nonprofit 916 Ink called "Find Your Voice," and information about how to get involved. Tickets and sponsorships will benefit United Way California Capital Region's programs for foster youth. Ticket sales end on March

"This is a remarkable opportunity to celebrate what women in our community have done together for local foster youth over the past two decades," said Dr. Dawnté Early, president and CEO, United Way California Capital Region. "As we move into a new decade of work, we face new challenges, but we know that this powerful group of women will continue to find new ways to meet the most pressing needs of foster youth in our community so they are prepared for success in adulthood."

United Way's Women United, founded as United Way's Women in Philanthropy in 2002 with 35 members, has grown to 250 members and is now part of a global United Way network of more than 75,000 women taking action and impacting change. Local members have raised $2 million for United Way's foster youth programs, also offering hundreds of life skills workshops and holding special events to showcase career opportunities and bring foster care professionals together to address current needs in the California capital region. Since 2011, the group has helped nearly 1,500 foster youth open bank accounts called Individual Development Accounts, a type of matched savings account, so they can leave the foster care system with money they have earned. By Thomas J. Sullivan

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Members of the Sacramento Tall Club (STC) affiliated with Tall Clubs International (TCI) are seeking outstanding eligible high school seniors throughout Sacramento, Yolo, Placer and El Dorado counties to apply for their competitive annual academic scholarship.

While scholarship application materials were provided to county board of election departments in the four counties by STC in January, the club is taking an extra step this year to ensure that it gets the general word out to interested high school seniors throughout the geographical region, said Barbara Kerrin, STC scholarship chair.

"There are dozens of private and public high schools within the Northern California region whose students can and should apply," Kerrin said. "By distributing information broadly to the communication department of county boards of education throughout the region, we avoid any individual high school districts of accusing us of favoritism."

Every year, Sacramento Tall Club awards academic scholarships to qualified and talented high school seniors who meet the tall club height requirements (at least 5'10" for women and 6'2" for men.) The annual STC scholarship award is dedicated in memoriam of former STC members many of whom were big supporters of young scholars and their many talents and merits. Scholarship amounts can vary year to year.

Part of the scholarship application for each young person is to write an essay titled "What being tall means to me."

"Their essays are quite reflective and thoughtful about the personal challenges we as tall people, often face," Kerrin said.

Completed typed essays and all application materials submitted by area high school students graduating in the 2021-22 school year is March 1, said Barbara Kerrin, STC scholarship chair.

Local STC scholarship winners also compete for annual scholarships awarded by both Tall Clubs International (TCI) and by the non-profit Tall Clubs International Foundation. Annually, the TCI Foundation awards additional multiple student scholarships of up to $1,000 each.

While grade point average and test scores are especially important scholarship evaluation criteria, so too are participation in school activities and community involvement, Kerrin said.

"Just being tall doesn't alone qualify you," she said.

General membership itself in the social Sacramento Tall Club itself is open to men that are over six feet and women that are nearing that mark.

Ekaterina (Katia) Griffin, a graduate of William and Marian Ghidotti Early College High School in Grass Valley was one of three 2020 STC scholarship winners. Griffin attends the University of California San Diego and is studying chemical engineering.

In 2019, Nicole Hensley, a graduating senior from Bella Vista High School in Orangevale received a

$1,000 academic scholarship from the Sacramento Tall Club Scholarship award and was a Tall Club International (TCI) scholarship winner.

"We wish all our applicants all the best in the preparing of their applications, and in their overall scholarship search," Kerrin said. The 2020 STC scholarship winner will be notified later in March by the club membership.

Kerrin said all signed STC scholarship applications should be submitted with a good headshot photo, preferably a senior graduation photo. Partial applications are not accepted.

"If you want to know whether or not your STC scholarship application has been received, you MUST send in a self-addressed stamped envelope," Kerrin said. "We will not answer any requests via email to whether we have received an application or not."

Applicants may view STC scholarship application guidelines, sample essays and view photos of current and past winners on the club website at www.sacramento-tallclub.org/scholarship/

The club has a donations link to contribute to its scholarship fund at www.sacramento-tallclub.org/scholarship/contribute-to-our-scholarship-fund/ so the amount of student scholarship awards can be increased.

Completed scholarship applications can be submitted electronically to: scholarship@sacramento-tallclub.org or by mail to: STC Scholarship Application, c/o Sacramento Tall Club Scholarship, 8712 Brigham Way, Sacramento CA 95826.

Sheriff Scott Jones Signs the Taxpayer Protection Pledge

Scott Jones

Sheriff Scott Jones for US Congress

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Sacramento County Sheriff Scott Jones announced that he signed Americans for Tax Reform's "Taxpayer Protection Pledge," a pledge to oppose all new tax increases when elected to Congress.

"As Sheriff, I took a solemn pledge to protect and serve my community. It is with that same commitment that I sign the Taxpayer Protection Pledge to oppose all tax increases. Especially at a time with record high inflation, Americans, and especially Californians, are overtaxed and are often an afterthought when Congress decides where to spend their hard-earned tax dollars. I firmly believe that Americans should keep more of their own money, not send more and more to Washington politicians who continue to spend with impunity," said Sheriff Jones.

Sheriff Jones accomplished a strong record of leadership at the Sacramento County Sheriff's Office, stewarding the Department's recovery from the worst financial crisis of its history, becoming a regional leader in the fight against gangs, and hiring a record number of women, minorities, and veterans. As one of the foremost experts on law enforcement in California, Sheriff Jones has been an advocate for investing in public safety and a vocal opponent of the 'Defund the Police' movement. In Congress, Jones will be an advocate for fiscal accountability, border security, and restoring criminal justice to America's communities. A nationally recognized law enforcement leader, Jones has testified before Congress, and has presented at two White House conferences on law enforcement, immigration, and safety issues.

California's 3rd Congressional District includes the Counties of Placer, Nevada, Mono, Sierra, Inyo, Plumas and Alpine and portions of Sacramento, El Dorado, and Yuba Counties. It is an open seat and Republicans hold a 7-point registration advantage.

Keeping It Going

Times poll found voters were nearly evenly split on his handling of the coronavirus, with 39% of respondents giving Newsom excellent or good marks and 40% giving him a poor or very poor rating.

That tension is concentrated in a fight over the state of emergency that Newsom declared on March 4, 2020, giving his administration broader authority to address the pandemic. He has issued dozens of executive orders under those powers, some of which remain in effect.

Earlier Thursday, before Newsom rolled out his plan, state Senate President Pro Tem Toni Atkins announced that a Senate committee would consider a resolution to end the state of emergency at a hearing on March 15.

Republican legislators gloated. They point to the ongoing emergency as a symbol of what they regard as Newsom’s overbearing and dictatorial approach to the pandemic. In recent weeks, they have repeatedly and unsuccessfully tried to bring up the resolution, which has sat on the shelf for more than a year, for a vote on the Senate floor.

“It’s been 715 DAYS since Newsom began his one-man rule. He has completely side stepped the checks and balances put in place to bring accountability to government,” Senate Republican Leader Scott Wilk of Lancaster tweeted Thursday. “It’s time to bring an end to this madness.”

But their effort is unlikely to go far. In the same statement announcing the hearing, Atkins, a San Diego Democrat, defended Newsom’s emergency powers, noting that many states of emergency in California for wildfires and other natural disasters continue for years to assist with recovery and seeking federal aid.

A representative for Atkins said the hearing would give Democrats a platform to lay out what the state would lose by ending the emergency and what would not change – namely, a mask mandate for schools that Republicans have railed against, which was issued under a separate public health law.

“I understand we are all tired of living life in an emergency,” Atkins said, “but ending the emergency must be done responsibly to ensure there are no unintended consequences so we can continue to meet the need of our state’s residents in an unpredictable future.”

Dr. Mark Ghaly, Newsom’s secretary of health and human services, made a similar argument in a call with reporters. He said the state continues to rely on emergency orders to manage the coronavirus, including a waiver that let medical facilities staff up with temporary workers during the omicron surge.

The document laying out Newsom’s SMARTER plan pointed to other provisions that have allowed the administration to use state fairgrounds as testing sites and sidestep the normal procurement process to more quickly buy millions of home test kits for schools.

“As we move out of the mindset of an emergency, we need to make sure the tools that help us manage an emergency well are available,” Ghaly said. “These are the tools that have allowed us to protect Californians in quite an incredible way. We are still using them today.”

Newsom did not directly address the criticism over the state of emergency during his press conference. But in an interview with the New York Times, he said “his goal was to unwind the state of emergency as soon as possible.”

California reported its first death linked to the novel coronavirus today. Los Angeles County joined others in declaring local health emergencies, and nurses are asking for more training for health care workers.

Board of Supervisors Declares a Shelter Crisis

By Janna Haynes, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County Board of Supervisors voted on February 15th, to declare a shelter crisis in Sacramento County as an important step towards implementing the Board's directions to open and operate sanctioned encampments (called "Safe Stay Communities").

While adoption of the proposed declaration will allow staff to move with expediency on site selection and development for proposed Safe Stay Communities and most sites will not require additional legal review by the Board, staff will bring all sites to the Board for input on site appropriateness before initiating construction.

In addition, staff will work with the Supervisor in whose district the site(s) are located in to develop a community engagement plan for each site.

In the FY 21/22 County Budget, the Board directed staff to pursue non-traditional options for providing sheltering, including use of sleeping cabins, creation of safe parking opportunities, and use of other shelter options. The benefits of such options include:

They offer non-congregate sheltering, which is not only more private for the occupants but is easier to prevent the spread of disease, including COVID-19; They allow for sheltering of diverse populations as they present, including couples and those with pets; They are quicker and less expensive to build than traditionally built facilities; They are less permanent than traditionally built facilities, allowing a short-term solution in one community and relocation/re-use of the facilities at other sites as needed.

Staff is working on development of construction and operational plans for multiple potential sites for Safe Stay

Communities that could consist of temporary sleeping cabins, safe parking spaces or other emergency facilities. Each community will include on-site security, sanitation services and supportive services aimed at transitioning people out of unsheltered homelessness.

Additionally, the County is continuing to enhance the breadth and depth of outreach and services offered in encampments throughout the County, including the development of Encampment Services Teams that reach out directly to people living unsheltered. These Teams will also serve as outreach points to bring unsheltered into the safe stay communities and provide them with deeper connections to County behavioral health services, connection to benefits like CalFresh, CalWORKs, Medi-Cal, etc., linkages to longer-term shelters, and flexible funding to help support individuals' transition into permanent housing.

Ultimately, all sites should be considered as a stepping stone to stabilize and support individuals on a pathway to permanent housing.

While stable and affordable housing with appropriate services and support are ultimately what ends homelessness, safe stay communities afford the opportunity to provide immediate safe and hygienic locations for people experiencing homelessness to live and access services. They also provide a consistent location for service providers and outreach workers to engage on a more regular basis with occupants.

Additionally, by targeting those living unsheltered in the immediate vicinity of the communities, it is anticipated that the communities will create broader community benefits including a reduction in trash and debris, the mitigation of environmental and health hazards, and the ability to restore land previously occupied by unsanctioned encampments to its intended use.

Revised Final Climate Action Plan Draft Released

By Ken Casparis, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Planning and Environmental Review Division of the Department of Community Development has released a Revised Final Draft of the Sacramento County Climate Action Plan (CAP). The draft released today revises and replaces the draft released in September 2021.

The CAP is Sacramento County's plan to reduce its contribution to climate change while addressing the impact climate change has already had on the area.

Public comments will be accepted through Wednesday, March 23, 2022. Comments can be sent by email to ClimateActionPlan@saccounty.gov.

A Board of Supervisors workshop on the CAP will be held in March 2022.

"We have made changes based on valuable community feedback, and in response to the Board of Supervisors' resolution declaring a climate emergency," said Todd Smith, Principal Planner. "The changes are important, implementable and will help Sacramento County meet its ambitious climate neutrality goal."

Notable work on the CAP includes:

- Incorporated Board of Supervisors' goal of carbon neutrality by 2030.
- Identified steps the County will take within a year to set the 2030 carbon neutrality target.
- Continued coordination with SMUD to ensure that electrification goals can be implemented and are feasible.

These Debt Reduction Strategies are Bad Ideas

Dear Dave,

I've been seeing lots of ads lately for debt consolidation companies, debt settlement companies and the HELOC. Are any of these methods for reducing debt a good idea?

– Brent

Dear Brent,

No. These are all bad ideas when it comes to getting out of debt. There's a lot of buzz these days surrounding all the "quick" and "easy" ways to clean up debt and get control of your finances. But the truth is neither one is ever easy. If something sounds too good to be true, it probably is.

Debt consolidation is basically a loan that combines all your debts into one single payment. Sounds like a great idea at first, right? But then you find out the lifespan of your loans increase, and that means you'll stay in debt even longer than before. The low interest rate that looks so appealing in the beginning usually goes up over time, too. Stretching out the amount of time you're paying off debt, plus adding interest, is just dumb.

Debt settlement companies are awful. These crummy outfits will charge you a fee, then promise to negotiate with your creditors to reduce what you owe. In most cases, they take your money up front, do a bad job "negotiating" your debt and leave you responsible for what's left.

A home equity line of credit (HELOC) is also a bad idea. With a HELOC, you're borrowing against your home. On top of that, you risk losing your house if you can't pay it back on time. All these plans are really just gimmicks that only treat the symptoms of your money problems. They never help you address the root issue of why you landed there in the first place. Personal finance is always 80% behavior, and 20% head knowledge. You have to change your behavior if you want to make a lasting, positive impact on your finances!

Crime, Homelessness Drag Down Newsom's Approval

By Dan Walters
CALMatters

Gov. Gavin Newsom's administration is very gingerly lifting the restrictions on personal behavior that were imposed to counter the omicron surge of COVID-19 – particularly the requirement to wear masks inside public places.

It's the latest wrinkle in two years of Newsom decrees alternatively tightening and then loosening behavioral controls to deal with the pandemic and comes as the governor focuses on getting himself re-elected to a second term this year.

His re-election prospects are high, given the lack – so far – of a viable Republican opponent, the state's very blue political orientation and his easy defeat of a recall attempt last year.

That said, Newsom's overall popularity is less than impressive, as two recent statewide polls found, with crime and homelessness the most erosive factors in his public standing.

The first poll, conducted by the Public Policy Institute of California in January, gave Newsom a 56% approval rating among all adults, markedly lower than his high water mark of 65% in May 2020 but also markedly higher than his low of 44% in September 2019.

The second, conducted in February and released on Tuesday by the Institute of Governmental Studies at UC-Berkeley, puts Newsom's approval rating among registered voters at 48%, just slightly higher than his lowest rating of 46% a year ago. Significantly, 47% of voters disapprove of how he has performed as governor.

"Contributing to voters' more mixed assessment of the governor are growing concerns of how Newsom is handling several festering problems, such as homelessness and crime, that are now plaguing the state," Mark DiCamillo, director of the Berkeley-IGS poll, said in an analysis.

"For example, two in three voters (66%) now rate Newsom as doing a 'poor' or 'very poor' job in his handling of the issue of homelessness. This is up 12 percentage points from 2020, the last time the poll made an assessment. In addition, a 51% majority of voters also downrates the Governor's performance on crime and public safety issues, up 16 percentage points from 2020."

The poll confirms that Californians are increasingly worried about a recent uptick in crime, both violent and property offenses, and are increasingly fed up with the inability of Newsom and other politicians to deal effectively with homelessness that has manifested itself in squalid encampments throughout the state.

Two recent crimes in the Sacramento area even indicate that the two issues could be joined in the minds of voters. A young woman was kidnapped in suburban Sacramento and brutally murdered, allegedly by a homeless man living in the American River Parkway. A young mother was placing her two children in the car after they had visited a park in East Sacramento when she was attacked and beaten, allegedly by a man living in a nearby homeless camp.

Newsom knows that these two issues are big downers for him and has uttered many recent denunciations of criminal activities, particularly smash-and-grab robberies, and promises to clean up urban blight.

Again, Newsom is no danger of being unseated this year. But if crime and homelessness continue to be seen as failures, they will stain his gubernatorial legacy. Moreover, they could adversely affect his fellow Democrats in down-ballot contests.

Both of the Sacramento crimes will be prosecuted by Sacramento County District Attorney Anne Marie Schubert, who is challenging Attorney General Rob Bonta, a Newsom appointee, and calling for a tougher attitude toward crime.

Republicans intend to make crime a centerpiece of their campaign to regain control of Congress and with several California seats up in the air, it could be a decisive factor.

Improvements Made to Carriage Drive and Calvin Drive Intersection

City of Citrus Heights

CITRUS HEIGHTS, CA (MPG) - The Citrus Heights Police Department was receiving numerous complaints about unsafe driving at the Carriage Drive and Calvin Drive intersection, with cars failing to stop at the stop signs.

The City's Engineering Division worked with CHPD to review what was happening, and utilized the Multi-Modal Transportation Safety Program to make the following improvements:

The stop sign at southbound Carriage Dr. was relocated from behind a residential fence and moved closer to the stop bar; Red reflective posts were installed on the stop signs at all three approaches. The result was increased visibility for the stop signs and increased safety for pedestrians, bicyclists, motorists, and nearby residents! STOP by Carriage and Calvin to check out the new stop sign posts. ★

At the Pharmer's Market, Patients Suffer While Middlemen Profit

Commentary
by Sally C. Pipes

Imagine a visit to the local farmer's market. When you're about to pay the farmer for some fruit, a man in a suit and sunglasses interrupts the exchange and offers to negotiate a discount with the farmer.

Cool, right?

Not so fast. The man in the suit didn't tell you who the discount was for. He gets the fruit for less, to be sure, but sells it on to you for the original price. He keeps the difference between his purchase price and yours. You've received no benefit—and the farmer received far less than the price he'd listed.

Oh, to be that man in the suit!

Of course, that's not your typical farmer's market exchange. But that is how prescription drug sales work. And the suited man is called a pharmacy benefit manager.

PBMs serve as go-betweens for drug manufacturers and insurers, helping the latter design prescription drug plans and negotiate prices. PBMs secure considerable rebates, discounts, and other payments from pharmaceutical companies.

A recent report from the Berkeley Research Group found that the majority of drug spending isn't going to the firms that develop and manufacture those drugs. Rather, it's going to entities within the supply chain like PBMs, hospitals, and health plans.

There's also evidence that middlemen are the primary reason that spending on prescription drugs is going up.

Between 2019 and 2020, total gross spending on branded medications increased 6.4%—some $31 billion. Payers including plan sponsors, insurers, the government, and PBMs received 35% of that increase—the largest share of any player in the market. Altogether, these entities received over $140 billion in brand-medicine spending in the form of discounts, rebates, and other payments from pharmaceutical companies that were intended to lower the cost of drugs.

Sharing discounts directly with patients could save between $145 and $800 per patient annually. If all rebates were shared at the point of sale, patients could save $57 billion over 10 years.

Yet those savings rarely make their way to individuals at the pharmacy counter. Even as overall drug spending rises and middlemen rake in cash, millions of Americans can't afford their prescription medicines.

This is proof of a broken system. But it need not be.

PBMs must be held accountable for their role in prescription drug spending. Lawmakers can consider requiring that prescription drug rebates be shared with patients at the point of sale. Employers can demand that their insurers and the PBMs with whom they work rebate the discounts they secure to their beneficiaries at the pharmacy counter.

Ultimately, the stakes in this "pharmer's" market are more than your weekly produce—they can dictate whether someone is able to access medication. In other words, this market dysfunction is a matter of life and death.

CSRMF Press Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The California State Railroad Museum Foundation has named Tim Schroepfer as President & CEO, effective immediately. The Foundation works in collaboration with and provides fundraising support for the California State Railroad Museum located in Old Sacramento State Historic Park and Railtown 1897 State Historic Park in Jamestown. Schroepfer was first hired by the Foundation in 2019 as Director of Events & Marketing then assumed the role of Interim Chief Operating Officer in 2021 before his recent promotion to President & CEO. Schroepfer replaces Cheryl Marcell who left the Foundation in 2021.

“Tim demonstrated his leadership prowess as our Chief Operating Officer and earned the right to step in as President and CEO,” said Jim Hought, Chair of the California State Railroad Museum Foundation Board of Directors. “Even as the pandemic still ruled much of our lives, Tim engineered the return of a sold-out Polar Express train after a two-year hiatus and quickly mastered the demands of running a fundraising and support organization for a world-class museum. Our board of directors expressed unanimous support for Tim's advancement to his new role.”

In his multi-faceted new role as President & CEO, Schroepfer will manage a staff of 26, oversee fundraising, sponsorship, and membership efforts, drive all marketing, social media, and public relations initiatives, and direct the production of the Foundation's high profile community events and activations.

A natural train enthusiast, Schroepfer was born and raised in Sacramento and was a frequent visitor and member of the Museum prior to moving away from the area. Said Schroepfer, “With the Museum entering its 41st year, and Railtown entering its 51st year as a tourist railway, it is an incredibly exciting time to be with the Foundation. It is an absolute honor and privilege to return home and help support our Parks partners.”

Schroepfer has an impressive background in management and the orchestration of large-scale event and theatrical productions for prestigious organizations across the country. Before joining the California State Railroad Museum Foundation, Schroepfer worked as Director of Production & Preservation for Mahaiwe Performing Arts Center in Great Barrington, Massachusetts. Prior to that, he worked as Director of Production for Utah

Shakespeare Festival at Southern Utah University in Cedar City, Utah and as Production Manager for the University California at Los Angeles, School of Theater, Film and Television. Schroepfer earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Musical Theater from University of Stockton (UOP), a Master of Fine Arts in Producing from the California Institute of the Arts, and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst Isenberg School of Management.

“As the Foundation moves toward the new normal, Tim has provided the passion and direction to re-engage our membership through operations and events,” added Thomas Gilbert, Past Chair of the California State Railroad Museum Foundation. “He's the right person at the right time.”

Schroepfer is civic minded and involved in a variety of community organizations and causes, including as Cub Master for Cub Scouts Pack 118 and as an active participant in the Leadership Sacramento Class of 21. Schroepfer is a resident of Elk Grove where he resides with his wife Erica and two active young boys.

The mission of the California State Railroad Museum Foundation (CSRMF) is to generate revenue and awareness on behalf of its destinations, while supporting the preservation, interpretation, and promotion of our railroad heritage.

The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale is $137,129.06. The beneficiary under said Deed of Trust heretofore executed and delivered to the undersigned a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale, and a written Notice of Default and Election to Sell. The undersigned caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 833-561-0243 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this Internet Web site WWW.SALES.BDFGROUP.COM for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case 00000007165780. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder", you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 833-561-0243, or visit this internet website WWW.SALES.BDFGROUP.COM using the file number assigned to this case 00000007165780 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. Ask Toni

Social Security and IRS Scams are Exploding!

Toni King

Reader Alert: I have been informed from clients during a Toni Says® Medicare consultation that they have received either calls on their cell or home phone or by mail from either Social Security or the IRS claiming that they owe money, are being held liable and that their Social Security check has been suspended due to COVID-19 issues.

America is petrified that one wrong move and they can lose everything they have worked so hard for. Let's discuss what you, your friends or an elderly family member should do if you receive a call or something by mail.

Victims are receiving a telephone call from someone claiming to be from the IRS. They are told that they will be arrested if they do not make a payment immediately and asked to wire money, using Money Gram, Walmart, and other wire services. Millions of dollars have been stolen from innocent, trusting Americans.

The IRS will send you a letter not a phone call regarding your IRS account and will not send you an email, text message or reply to anything on social media about your personal tax information.

Below are 5 tell-tale warning signs to tip you off...is it or is not the IRS calling you?

1. IRS will not call you to demand immediate payment about taxes you owe without first mailing you a bill.
2. IRS does not demand that you pay taxes without giving you the chance to question or appeal the amount they say you owe.
3. IRS does not require you to use a certain payment method for your taxes, such as a prepaid debit card.
4. IRS does not ask for credit or debit card numbers over the phone.
5. IRS does not threaten to bring in local police or other law-enforcement to have you arrested for not paying.

What should you do if you receive a call that you are not completely confident whether it was the IRS?

- Immediately hang up.
- Report to the local law authorities that you have received a phone call which is a scam. Treasury agents are catching fraudsters throughout the United States who have defrauded millions from distraught Americans.

Social Security/COVID-19 SCAM:

In March 2020, local Social Security offices closed to the public due to COVID-19 concerns. However, Social Security employees continue to work. Social Security will not suspend or decrease Social Security benefit payments due to the current COVID-19 Pandemic. Any communication you receive that says Social Security will do that is a scam, whether you receive it by letter, text, email, or phone call."

A Social Security Alert is written on the back of the Social Security envelopes informing the public of a Social Security scam. It states, "!!!!SCAM ALERT!!!!" Scammers are pretending to be government employees. They may threaten you and may demand immediate payment to avoid arrest or other legal actions. Do not be fooled! If you receive a suspicious call:

1. HANG UP! 2. DO NOT GIVE THEM MONEY OR PERSONAL INFORMATION Social Security will NEVER!!

1. Threaten you with benefit suspension, arrest, or other legal action if you do not pay a fine or fee.
2. Promise a benefit increase or other assistance in exchange for payment.
3. Require payment by retail gift card, cash, wire transfer, internet currency, or prepaid debit card.
4. Demand secrecy from you in handling a Social Security-related problem.

Please be extremely alert when talking to telemarketers because one wrong move and you can lose your personal identity to a scammer.

By County Supervisor Sue Frost

Through the generosity of the Citrus Heights Messenger, this column serves to provide an update about matters affecting the community of Citrus Heights.

It may be hard to realize this, but we are already well into 2022. I say this because I find myself reading headlines that make me feel like I am still living in late 2020. As has been the case throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, the rules are made up and the data does not matter. After months of a reinstated, statewide mask mandate, Governor Newsom announced the mandate would be lifted on February 15th. Shortly after, I was elated to see the county's public health officer would follow the state's lead and lift our mask mandate as well. The vexing thing about these decisions however, is that the originally stated thresholds for freedom from such mandates have again been irrelevant to the process.

I think it is great that the requirement of masks indoors is being lifted ahead of schedule but it just goes to show how subjective all of the benchmarks are. At the time the county's mask mandate was reinstated, we were told that it would be lifted when we dropped below a case rate of five per 100,000. When the announcement came that the mask mandate would be lifted, we sat at 63.8 cases per 100,000 which is obviously significantly higher than the previous goal. Again, these guidelines and benchmarks are clearly subjective, and it makes me wonder why any of these false goal lines have continued to be identified – especially when the science we are all supposed to be following continues to change.

Citrus Heights Community Update

Case in point, Sacramento County's most recent mask mandate was put in place to help slow the spread as cases spiked. While the mask mandate was in place however, we saw our highest case rates of the entire pandemic. At the same time, the death rate remained far below what we saw at its peak. With numbers like those, it would seem the mask mandate achieved essentially nothing.

On March 8, 2020, Dr. Fauci made a comment on 60 Minutes, "There's no reason to be walking around with a mask..." – then on April 3, 2020, he and the CDC directed us to wear a mask. As time progressed, we were told to wear 2 masks, that children must mask while playing sports outdoors, and that cloth masks don't work but N95 masks do. We were told that if we get the shot, we can take off the mask and travel, then we were told to put back the mask because it turns out the vaccine does not prevent contracting or transmitting the disease. We've been told we must wear a mask indoors, but if we are sitting at a table in a restaurant, we can take the mask off. Children who are not at-risk are required to wear a mask, while adults who are at-risk can go without a mask.

We clearly have a long way to go to regaining common sense and normalcy. Lifting mask mandates only for the vaccinated did not work last time but that is what we are doing again. As the virus changes and we watch case rates of both the vaccinated and unvaccinated rise and fall together, it is becoming more evident that the need for emergency declarations and knee jerk mandates need to be left behind. Instead, we need to do as we have with all other viruses that mutate too often to be eradicated – we must learn to live with the virus while minimizing its impact on society.

At this point, the only things we should be hearing about mask mandates is when we are discussing studies of how they have impacted our health, the total well-being of students, and how we can better respond to similar outbreaks in the future.
