Spending Your Money

California faces a projected deficit next year even if the U.S. avoids a recession. Despite the expected shortfall, policymakers say they'll maintain spending on social programs though advocates are calling for more.

The Legislative Analyst's Office recently said in its annual forecast that Gov. Gavin Newsom and the Democratic Party-controlled Legislature are facing a $24 billion projected budget deficit for the next fiscal year.

If the state enters a recession the outlook is even worse, with revenues predicted to fall short by $30 billion to $50 billion. The governor signed a record-breaking $308 billion budget in June.

The legislative analyst attributes the projected shortfall to California's reliance on those whose incomes often ebb and flow with the price of stocks, real estate and other investments.

"Those are the same people who get a lot of their income from financial investments," said Legislative Analyst Gabriel Petek. "That volatility then gets transmitted directly to the state budget."

The governor will present a proposed budget in January and then a revision in May. The budget, which the Legislature must approve, will fund state government for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

H.D. Palmer, spokesperson for the state Department of Finance, declined to comment on whether social spending cuts might be proposed.

He did say, however, that the governor's priority was to not scale back programs that people have come to depend on, or to begin new ones.

Marysville Improves Public Safety with New Equipment

City of Marysville News Release

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) - In an ongoing effort to improve public safety, traffic enforcement and special assignments the City of Marysville announced that several new pieces of police and fire equipment have been brought into service.

The Marysville Police Department received City Council approval in June of 2022 to replace its aging Harley Davidson enforcement motorcycle. The 2005 unit, originally purchased with grant funding from the California Office of Traffic Safety (OTS), has been used for traffic enforcement and special detail assignments. With eighteen years of service, the unit served well beyond its expected useful life. Police personnel identified funding within the State of California Supplemental Law Enforcement Services Fund (SLESF) to fund a replacement. SLESF is provided through State of California legislation to be spent specifically on front-line law enforcement services. By pairing SLESF funding with the trade-in value of the 2005 model, the Police Department was able to purchase a new 2022 Harley Davidson. The unit was put into service and made its official debut on the day of the 71st Annual Marysville Christmas Parade. The 2022 motorcycle is assigned to traffic enforcement, which is aggressively focused on improving public safety by curbing traffic infractions prevalent in Marysville due to the high traffic levels on and around state routes 20 and 70.

The Marysville Fire Department took delivery of two new Pierce Type 3 fire engines. The new engines were purchased to replace aging engines manufactured in 1982 and in 1991, both of which were purchased by the City in used condition. Type 3 apparatus are designed to provide rapid deployment in rural and/or mountainous communities. Both new engines are four-wheel-drive, hold up to 500 gallons of water, carry up to 4 firefighting personnel and are equipped with vital rescue and life-saving equipment. The new engines will allow the City of Marysville to provide better vegetation and wildland firefighting

Yuba Water recognizes board director Brent Hastey for his dedicated service

Yuba Water News Release

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) - The Yuba Water Agency Board of Directors recognized Brent Hastey on December 21 for his dedicated service to the agency. Hastey served on Yuba Water's board from 1993-2001 as a Yuba County supervisor and from 2015 as an elected representative of South Yuba County. His term will conclude at the board's first meeting in January.

"Brent has been at the forefront of many transformative initiatives in Yuba County," said Yuba Water Board Chairman Gary Bradford. "From advancing critical flood risk reduction work, to pushing for improved water and wastewater infrastructure in the south part of the county, championing the agency's Water Education Program and so much more, he's a tremendous asset to our community."

chairman of Yuba Water's board from 2017-2019, where he successfully oversaw a significant period of growth for the agency. He also served on several formal and ad hoc committees, where his vision and leadership helped guide decisions on workforce development, the agency's financials and reserves policy, its Community Impact Grant and Loan Program and other efforts.

During his tenure, Hastey also played an important role in shaping the agency's Water Education Program, which aims to improve the quality of life and economic prosperity for the people of Yuba County and promote stewardship by helping students, residents and visitors develop an increased understanding of the region's water and natural resources.

Additionally, Hastey is highly regarded by the broader California water community for his comprehensive and collaborative leadership on water issues, primarily through his work with the Association of California Water Agencies, the largest statewide coalition of public water agencies in the country, and the Northern California Water Association. He was elected as ACWA's vice president in 2016, president in 2018 and he served as immediate past president in 2020, each two-year terms, and all positions

Some program expansions in later fiscal years could be delayed if there isn't enough revenue to support them, he said. The goal is to avoid the kind of drastic program reductions enacted during the Great Recession that took years for the state to restore.

The state's Democratic legislative leaders have said they are not inclined to cut recently expanded programs, such as the extension of free health care to low-income undocumented immigrants, which began with older adults this year and is slated to open up to all ages in January 2024. The expansion is expected to cost more than $2 billion annually.

The budget is in a much stronger position than it was during the state's last fiscal crisis, said Phil Ting, the Assembly budget committee chair from San Francisco.

"We have a significant amount of cash available, both in terms of reserves, but also in terms of liquidity," Ting said. "So this is a very different situation than the state faced in 2008-2009, where they were running out of cash."

The governor, nevertheless, has signaled he is being cautious. Newsom in October said he had vetoed 169 bills and saved taxpayers billions. Seventy-five of those vetoes were directly budget related, with many including boilerplate language that the state was facing "lower-than-expected revenues" and that it was "important to remain disciplined when it comes to spending, particularly spending that is ongoing."

Among the bills vetoed by the governor earlier this year were proposals to expand government-funded care for new mothers, expand free transit programs for California students and create grants for graduate students in mental health who commit to working at certain California-based nonprofits.

Newsom, whom voters elected to another four-year term, has used surpluses to pay down debts, build reserves and provide direct payments to millions of Californians.

Recently Moody's Analytics rated California one of the states most prepared for a recession, citing its reserves.

Nevertheless, California's budget enacted in June 2021 committed to $3.4 billion in new ongoing spending and is expected to grow to $12 billion in the 2025 budget year. The budget enacted in June of this year committed an additional $2.3 billion, expected to grow to nearly $5 billion by the 2026 budget year, the Legislative Analyst's Office said.

The state has $37 billion in specific reserve funds. That includes about $23 billion in a rainy-day fund voters agreed to strengthen in 2014 at the urging of then-Gov. Jerry Brown. The state also has $900 million in a reserve account for safety net programs. The rest of those reserve funds are in school-specific and general operating reserves.

But, Palmer noted, the state can only draw down the rainy-day fund by half in any year. The Legislative Analyst's Office has advised the Legislature to slow down or pause program expansions before dipping into reserves.

Ting's office contends the state has billions in unspent federal and state dollars in its coffers that could address a potential deficit. Using that money would avoid cuts to programs but delay other projects.

Anti-poverty advocates said in interviews they plan to continue pushing for program expansions, arguing the precipice of a downturn is the time to bolster social spending, not cut it.

Nearly 30% of California residents live in or near poverty, according to the Public Policy Institute of California. Experts expect poverty rates to increase after the end of a boost in federal cash aid, which came in 2021 in the form of an expanded child tax credit included in the American Rescue Plan Act.

Advocates are proposing that California mimic that federal expansion by opening up the state's Young Child Tax Credit, currently a $1,000-a-year credit for low-income families with children under age 6, to include all children in low-income households.

They estimate 1 million children live in families that would qualify, at an additional cost of $700 million a year.

Advocates said they also want the state to create an unemployment benefits program for undocumented immigrants and to include all low-income immigrants, regardless of immigration status, in its food assistance program.

"We know the projected budget shortfalls make it more challenging, but the past few years highlighted why something like this is so important," said Sasha Feldstein, economic justice policy manager at the California Immigrant Policy Center. "People who are excluded from our safety net have been the most adversely impacted from the COVID-19 pandemic and are the most harmed during times of economic downturn."

Lawmakers and Newsom this year allocated money to expand the California Food Assistance Program, a state version of food stamps, to include undocumented immigrants age 55 and older; the benefits are expected to become available late next year. Newsom vetoed a bill that would have tested an unemployment benefits program for undocumented immigrants, citing costs.

The projected shortfall is the state's first major fiscal challenge since Newsom's office predicted a $54 billion shortfall in May 2020, when the country was in the grips of the COVID-19 pandemic. After financial markets rebounded and the federal government provided unprecedented stimulus, the anticipated shortfall resulted in surpluses.

The Federal Reserve began hiking interest rates in March 2022 to cool inflation. Then housing sales, initial public stock offerings and stock markets fell. All are important sources of personal income tax revenue.

In California, personal income withholding fell even as the job market recovered.

Over the last decade, California has increasingly relied on some of the state's highest earners to fund its budget which, among other things, takes aim at poverty and some of the nation's starkest income inequality.

Much of the state's general fund is paid for by its progressive personal income tax, which voters in 2012 raised on the state's highest earners after Brown warned of cuts to health and education. In 2016 voters extended those higher income tax rates through 2030 while also allowing a temporary sales tax to expire. The increases, meant for education and healthcare spending, have also paid for increased social safety net spending.

About 49% of the personal income tax paid in California in 2020 came from just 1% of tax filers, according to the state's finance department. And in the past decade, taxes collected from the most volatile form of income — capital gains — have doubled, making up a larger share of the state's revenue and tying the state's budget to particularly unstable economic cycles.

To address that, voters approved changes to the state's rainy-day fund in 2014. The changes serve as a check on spending, directing California to capture additional dollars in reserve when capital gains tax receipts are high.

Building reserves large enough for a state to ride through a recession is difficult, said Donald Boyd, a state finance expert at the University of Albany in New York.

"As a practical matter, it is very hard to build a rainy-day fund that's big enough to get you through a rainy season," Boyd said. "You need huge amounts of money to offset the effects of even a modest recession." ★

Yuba River Endowment Launches $50,000 Scholarship Fund

Smart Marketing News Release

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG)

The Yuba River Endowment launched on December 9, 2022, a 2023 scholarship fund that will award up to $50,000 in $2500 individual awards, to up to 20 students.

“Starting a scholarship has been a priority since we formed the Yuba River Endowment,” said Endowment Board Member, Mike Filice. “It was important to the Board that as many Yuba County students and residents as possible are eligible to apply, and that any avenue of study was respected.”

The scholarship application is now live at www.FarmersGivingBack.com, and will close on January 31st, 2023. The application is open to any Yuba County resident, or student attending a Yuba County high school; who plans to attend, or continue at, a trade school, junior college, or college in the fall of 2023. No minimum GPA is required.

The application requests background on the student’s work experience, extracurricular activities and future plans. The student must submit two letters of recommendation, a copy of their transcript and submit answers to two questions, 1) Explain your future education and career goals and why you are pursuing these goals; and 2) Our Endowment’s mission is to give back to Yuba County residents. Tell us about your connection to Yuba County – a favorite memory, your favorite places, a pivotal experience, family heritage... you decide!

Chosen applicants will be interviewed in February and the winners will be announced in April, 2023.

The Yuba River Endowment is a non-profit organization created by Yuba County farmers to benefit the residents of Yuba County. The Endowment is comprised of farmers who have a right to water that flows on the Yuba River. In some years these farmers are able to both farm their own land and transfer a portion of their water to drought-stricken areas of the state. A portion of the proceeds from these water transfers goes to the Endowment. Since formation in late 2019, the Endowment has donated over $400,000 to support Yuba County ag education, provide food resources, veteran’s support, and much more. ★

Bill to Prevent FEMA Clawbacks of Disaster Aid to Become Law

From the Office of Doug LaMalfa

WASHINGTON, D.C. (MPG) - The week of December 19, 2022, legislation crafted by Representative Doug LaMalfa (R – Richvale) to prevent the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) from taking back disaster assistance funds that it considers duplicative with legal settlement claims will be signed into law. H.R. 539, the Preventing Disaster Revictimization Act, was a joint effort between Representative LaMalfa and Transportation and Infrastructure Committee lead Republican Sam Graves (R-MO), who sponsored the bill. Despite the work of Congressmen LaMalfa and Graves to get the legislation unanimously passed out of the U.S. House of Representatives in June 2021, the Senate had not passed the bill until it was included in the National Defense Authorization Act last week.

“There are thousands of victims of wildfires in Northern California and even more across the nation who are reeling after natural disasters,” said Rep. LaMalfa.

“They are applying for federal assistance in good faith to help them rebuild their lives and they shouldn’t be punished for FEMA’s mistakes. In the aftermath of a wildfire, tornado, flood, earthquake, or other disaster, people’s focus is on rebuilding their lives. The federal government should be helping them, not seizing money because of bureaucratic mistakes and revictimizing them all over again.”

H.R. 539 also includes a provision crafted by Representative Sam Graves to require that FEMA waives debts related to disaster assistance for recipients when the agency later determines it mistakenly overpaid them. Under current law, FEMA can come back weeks, months, or even years later to seek repayment of funds it awarded victims, even when the agency is at fault for making the error and the funds were appropriately used in the wake of a disaster. The bill also requires FEMA to report to Congress on its efforts to minimize similar errors in the future. ★

These new units not only benefit Marysville residents, but also provide assistance to the communities of District 10, Hallwood and Linda, which are regional automatic and mutual aid partners. They will also improve the City’s ability to assist local and state he held while simultaneously serving on Yuba Water’s board of directors.

“Yuba Water is a premier leader in coming up with solutions that affect the entire state, and Brent is an extension of that,” said ACWA Executive Director Dave Eggerton in remarks honoring Haste earlier this year. “He is a tremendous asset to the California water community and one of the finest leaders in the water business and local government.”

Haste previously served on the boards of Reclamation District 784, the Yuba County Local Agency Formation Commission, the Regional Council of Rural Counties, the Sacramento Area Council of Governments and the California Community College Trustees. He is also a South Yuba County Rotary Club member and served as Governor for Rotary District 5180 in 2020.

for this agency and during my initial years as general manager,” said Yuba Water General Manager Willie Whittlesey. “His deep understanding of and connections in the California water world have been so beneficial in helping us advance our missions and do some really unique, out-of-the-box thinking about how to best position Yuba Water and Yuba County for the future.”

“It has been one of the honors of my life to serve Yuba Water Agency,” Haste said.

“I truly believe that there is more potential here in Yuba County than in any place in this world, potential that will be filled through the team at Yuba Water,” he continued. “This agency will continue to lead, and I don’t see the momentum of its efforts slowing down.”

The South Yuba County board seat will be filled on Jan. 3 by incoming director-elect Wayne Bishop.

Indians Shine Bright on Big Stage

Story by Steven Bryla

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Marysville Indians glistened in the bright lights of the Golden 1 Center in their 77-62 win over the Lathrop Spartans on Thursday, December 22.

The boys and girls teams for Marysville and Lathrop both played one another at the home of the Sacramento Kings and the contests were exciting for the outstanding support that showed up inside of the arena.

Marysville head coach Stand Easter expressed to the Dispatch that the potential distraction of playing inside a National Basketball Association arena was obvious, so he stressed it the previous week to his team that they can be nervous and there is no avoiding it.

“Have your moment and let’s get past it because it’s just basketball at the end of the day on a bigger court,” Easter said.

Easter added he couldn’t tell his team was nervous from the opening tip because they got off to a great start.

The Indians opened the game with early control up 7-2 in the early going, but junior forward Josiah Arrington picked up two fouls in the first 2 minutes and 39 seconds of play, which caused one of the primary big men of the team to sit for a majority of the first half.

Arrington did get back into the game in the second quarter and quickly picked up his third foul of the half and sat the remainder of the half.

Easter exclaimed to the Dispatch that this was Arrington’s best game throughout the season so far because he was so effective when he was in and added that it was challenging to keep Arrington on the floor because of the foul trouble.

“He’s (Arrington) truly our only big guy, he rebounds really well and has soft hands to be able to finish around the rim,” Easter told the Dispatch.

Arrington had seven points, eight team-high rebounds and two assists in the game.

Marysville took a 42-36 lead at the half and were led by senior guard Amrin Mann with 19 of his game-high 29 points.

Mann was effective on flushing six three-pointers from the outside with his smooth shooting stroke.

Mann mentioned to the Dispatch that his favorite part of the experience at the Golden 1 Center was the locker room because it looked exactly how it’s portrayed on the NBA 2K video game.

Mann expressed his team was effective with good ball movement, making shots and teamwork even though the Indians are missing a couple players on their roster currently.

Mann added that he is ecstatic that he is finally able to play on the same team as his best friend, Indians senior guard Josh Brown Jr.

Brown added 10 points, four rebounds and six assists against Lathrop.

Brown added to the comment of great ball movement of Mann by exclaiming that everyone on the Marysville roster can shoot, so getting his teammates involved is easy.

The Indians contained the Spartans’ best player in forward Ahmad Jacquet to 18 points total and allowed Jacquet only eight in the second half.

Marysville extended their lead 60-48 at the end of the third and were able to extend it a little more in the final minutes of the game to win their ninth contest of the season.

The Indians conclude their challenging preseason schedule this week as they compete in the second annual Coach Corn Classic at Yuba College that is held Wednesday to Friday with stellar competition that includes Elk Grove, Oakmont and El Camino.

Brown expressed to the Dispatch that the goal of the team was to win a section title. If Marysville were to win a section title, they will see the Golden 1 Center again as that is where the CIF Sac-Joaquin Section finals will be played. ★

Jordan demands FBI turn over all communications with Twitter as probe of censorship heats up

23 Dec 2022 | House Judiciary Committee Republicans led by incoming Chairman Jim Jordan demanded Friday that FBI Director Chris Wray turn over records of all communications and payments the law enforcement agency had with Twitter, signaling aggressive investigations of social media censorship next year. Jordan’s office said the release of internal files by Twitter’s new owner, Elon Musk, had unmasked an “ongoing surveillance operation” that exceeded FBI investigative authorities and that resulted in a “coordinated misinformation effort between the FBI and Twitter to suppress and censor free speech.” “We are investigating politicization and abuses at the Federal Bureau of Investigation, as well as Big Tech’s censorship of conservatives online,” Jordan, R-Ohio, and Rep. Mike Johnson, R-La., wrote Wray in an oversight letter. “Newly released information shows the FBI has coordinated extensively with Twitter to censor or otherwise affect content on Twitter’s platform.”

House GOP locates emails, texts showing Pelosi office directly involved in failed Jan. 6 security

21 Dec 2022 | House Republicans gathered a trove of text and email messages showing House Speaker Nancy Pelosi’s office was directly involved in the creation and editing of the Capitol security plan that failed during the January 6, 2021, riot and that security officials later declared they had been “denied again and again” the resources needed to protect one of the nation’s most important homes of democracy. The internal communications were made public Wednesday in a report compiled by Republican Reps. Rodney Davis, Jim Banks, Troy Nehls, Jim Jordan and Kelly Armstrong that encompasses the results of months of investigation they did of evidence that had been ignored by the Democratic-led Jan. 6 committee. The lawmakers were authorized by House Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy to do their own probe.

Biden Regime Delays Paychecks to National Guard Members for Christmas After Announcing Another $45 Billion Giveaway to Ukraine

23 Dec 2022 | Earlier this week, Senate Republicans, under the leadership of Mitch McConnell, came to an agreement with Democrats on a 1.7 trillion spending bill to avoid a government shutdown. The bill gives another 44.9 billion to Ukraine – where it disappears into the ether. According to Roll Call, “The package includes 858 billion in defense spending, a nearly 10 percent increase over the previous fiscal year, and 787 billion in non-defense spending, close to an 8 percent increase. It also would provide roughly 85 billion in supplemental funding for Ukraine and disaster relief.” But despite the price tag, the bill does not secure the open US border with Mexico. And the bill does little to help working Americans or their families. National Guard members were informed this week that their check will not come in until after Christmas.

FBI paid Twitter $3.5M ‘to do its bidding’

21 Dec 2022 | The FBI handed nearly 3.5 million of taxpayers m-ney to Twitter to pay its staff to handle requests from the bureau as it sought to ban accounts. A Twitter employee wrote in a February 2020 email that the company’s Safety, Content & Law Enforcement (SCALE) had “collected 3,415,323” in less than two years from the FBI for “law-enforcement related projects.” The email, which was revealed by journalist Michael Shellenberger, stated that SCALE had instituted a “reimbursement program” in exchange for devoting staff hours to “processing requests from the FBI.” The emails were entitled “Run the business - We made m-ney!” The accounts the FBI asked Twitter to ban were largely linked to conservatives and “foreign influence operations.”

DOJ snooped on House Intelligence Committee investigators during Russia probe, subpoenas show

19 Dec 2022 | In an extraordinary intrusion on congressional oversight, the Justice Department used grand jury subpoenas to secretly obtain the personal email and phone data of at least two top House Intelligence Committee investigators back in November 2017 just as they and their boss, then-Chairman Devin Nunes, were assembling bombshell evidence of FBI abuses in the Russia collusion probe, Just the News has learned. The subpoenas, obtained by Just the News, show the DOJ demanded that Google turn over personal email and phone data from the two senior staffers on Nov. 20, 2017, and that responsive materials were to be returned to DOJ by Dec. 5, 2017. The subpoenas were delivered during a critical time frame in the committee’s effort to expose the Donald Trump-Russia collusion investigation as having been driven by an uncorroborated political opposition dossier funded by Hillary Clinton. Nunes’s committee was locked at the time in a bitter struggle to force the FBI and DOJ to turn over records to the committee.

White House Can’t Mandate COVID Jobs for Federal Contractors - Appeals Court

20 Dec 2022 | A federal appeals court on Monday struck down a White House rule requiring anyone employed by a federal contractor to be vaccinated against COVID-19 as a condition of government contracts. A three-panel judge of the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals voted 2-1 to affirm a lower court judgment that barred Joe Biden’s September 2021 executive order in three states after Louisiana, Indiana, and Mississippi sued to challenge the rule. These three states sued the Biden administration in the Western District of Louisiana in their capacities as federal contractors themselves, winning an injunction and stay by the district court. In upholding the lower court finding, Judge Kurt Engelhardt, an appointee of former President Donald Trump, said in his majority opinion (pdf) that a broad interpretation of the law could have given Biden “nearly unlimited authority to introduce requirements into federal contracts.”

Chip Roy blows up over $1.7T spending bill in fiery floor speech: ‘Destroying the United States’

23 Dec 2022 | Rep. Chip Roy on Friday blew up at the process that is forcing a quick vote on a 1.7 trillion bill that no one has read and said the Democratic rush job is destroying the country. “We’re spending m-ney we don’t have,” the Texas Republican said Friday morning on the House floor. “Go home and sell your projects, go home and talk about all the pork you’re bringing home. But you’re destroying the United States of America, absolutely destroying this body.” Roy offered several amendments to the mammoth spending bill, none of which were allowed as Democrat leaders pushed for a vote by midday Friday. “...”Everything the American people is watching right now is a complete sham,” Roy added. “It’s a fraud, a fraud being perpetrated on the American people right before their eyes, right as we head into Christmas.” ...Roy also bristled at the idea that more than half of the House members voting Friday might already be home for Christmas. Most lawmakers requested proxy voting Friday, which lets them claim worries about COVID as a reason to vote remotely.

McConnell’s Ukraine comments show why Republican voters flocked to Trump

22 Dec 2022 | Senate Minority Leader Mitchell McConnell (R-KY) is a veteran of the Washington Swamp and a savvy politician who’s been in office since 1985... But his most recent comments about Ukraine are indicative of why Republican voters have grown to loathe the “establishment.” Even more so, it shows why many of them supported former President Donald Trump. McConnell believes the country should keep sending endless billions of taxpayer m-ney to Ukraine. It’s a puzzling statement, given his political experience, and not representative of the sentiment of most Republican voters. “Providing assistance for Ukrainians to defeat the Russians is the No. 1 priority for the United States right now, according to most Republicans,” McConnell said. ★

Lady Indians too much for Bulldogs

GRIDLEY, CA (MPG) - The Marysville Indians girls’ basketball team controlled the tone throughout the battle against the Gridley Bulldogs in a 55-28 victory on Wednesday, December 21.

Like Marysville attempts every game, they pressured Gridley defensively with the full-court press and it served dividends as they got early stops to start their fast-break attack.

Lady Indians head coach Ike Prince mentioned to Messenger Publishing Group (MPG) that the defensive pressure allowed his team to set the tone.

Marysville (10-2) took a 12-7 lead at the end of the first.

The Lady Indians were able to speed up the game on the offensive end and were led by sophomore guard Demi Boykin, who played in her first game of the season against the Lady Bulldogs.

Prince exclaimed to MPG she still needs to find her rhythm.

“She is just getting into the flow of game reps and nothing can be better than game reps,” Prince told MPG.

Boykin said that she felt great to get out on the floor and get into the flow.

She added that they were able to space the floor effectively as it led to a great game to where their passing was efficient to one another.

Marysville had a 30-15 lead at the half and Boykin had a game-high 18 points

Marysville senior guard Sophia Rogers (1) looks to pass in the key against Gridley in the Lady Indians 55-28 win in Gridley on Wednesday, December 21.

Gridley (9-5) was able to get decent shots on the floor throughout the game, they just didn’t fall through the basket.

One of the Lady Bulldogs leaders is senior forward Ella Sannar, who is a dynamic player that can post up at any point in the paint or run the offense from the top of the key.

Sannar was able to get in her groove in the third quarter where she was able to get five of Gridley’s 10 points in the quarter.

Lady Bulldogs head coach Becca McCray expressed to MPG that Sannar is a great captain to have due to her being able to do a lot on the floor.

Gridley has a break in their schedule until they compete in the Las Plumas Tournament from January 5-7 to conclude in their pre-season, and it gives the Lady Bulldogs time to rest and work on things before their first Butte View League game at Las Plumas on January 10.

“We’re gonna get a lot more conditioning and work on our offense throughout the break,” McCray told MPG.

McCray added the Lady Bulldogs defensively did a great job overall and the Lady Indians were bigger but Gridley had some great moments throughout the night.

Gridley junior guard AnaGloria Luevano expressed some of the good moments that came from throughout the night when they made changes to their offense and looked inside more to the paint.

“We started to click more and see the wide-open passes in the key when defenders were on the outside,” Luevano said to MPG.

Marysville junior forward Krystal Briggs had 14 points and a game-high 11 rebounds on the night. She currently leads the team in field goal percentage with 43% and rebounding with a 10.2 average.

The Lady Indians played the following night at the Golden 1 Center in Sacramento, where they won a nail biter 40-36 over Lathrop. ★

Federal Judge Blocks Newsom's Foolish Gun Law

By Dan Walters,
CALMatters.org

Politicians, being egocentric by nature, sometimes do foolish, even childish, things in their insatiable hunger for attention.

California Gov. Gavin Newsom did a foolish thing last summer when he persuaded the Legislature to pass Senate Bill 1327, which would have subjected makers of guns prohibited by state law to civil lawsuits. It essentially stripped them of their right to defend themselves by making them liable for court fees.

It was patterned on a 2021 Texas law (Senate Bill 8) that made anyone who "who aids or abets" an abortion after six weeks of pregnancy subject to private lawsuits with similar restrictions on mounting a defense.

Newsom more or less admitted that SB 1327 was a stunt aimed at marshaling opposition to the Texas law. The bill even has language that repeals itself if and when the Texas law is overturned in court.

Litigation on the Texas law is underway. This month, the U.S. Supreme Court declared that a lawsuit challenging the law can proceed.

Meanwhile, however, California gun rights groups mounted a legal challenge to SB 1327, and this week, U.S. District Court Judge Roger Benitez, who has issued other pro-gun rights decisions in recent years, blocked the law's enforcement. His order came with some sharp criticism for making it virtually impossible for targets of lawsuits to defend themselves.

"This court concludes that the purpose and effect of (SB 1327) is to trench on a citizen's right of access to the courts and to discourage the peaceful vindication of an enumerated constitutional right," he wrote. "Because the state fee-shifting statute undermines a citizen's constitutional rights, it is this court's role to declare its invalidity and enjoin its threat."

Newsom had once described Benitez as a "wholly-owned subsidiary of the gun lobby and the National Rifle Association" after one of the judge's previous gun control rulings, but after this week's decision, he effusively praised Benitez.

"I want to thank Judge Benitez," Newsom said in a statement. "We have been saying all along that Texas' anti-abortion law is outrageous. Judge Benitez just confirmed it is also unconstitutional. The provision in California's law that he struck down is a replica of what Texas did, and his explanation of why this part of SB 1327 unfairly blocks access to the courts applies equally to Texas' SB 8. There is no longer any doubt that Texas' cruel anti-abortion law should also be struck down."

It should be struck down for the same reasons – that it unconstitutionally limits the right to defend oneself against a lawsuit. But whether it will be is not certain.

There are a few differences in the two laws and one big difference in the underlying issues of abortion rights and gun rights. The Supreme Court, in overturning Roe v. Wade, explicitly declared that there is no constitutional right to abortion while the "right to bear arms" is specifically mentioned in the Bill of Rights.

Given that difference, and the Supreme Court's obvious distaste for severely restrictive gun laws, it's entirely possible that California's law will be permanently blocked while the Texas law survives, at least in some form.

Whatever the outcome, however, the SB 1327 saga is an exercise in political oneupsmanship that makes a mockery of the legislative process. Passing a law in California with the declared intent of shaming a law in Texas while putting Californians in legal jeopardy is political malpractice.

Newsom and the legislators who voted for SB 1327 should be ashamed of themselves. They should be spending their time on California's many serious problems, not trying to tell Texas what it should be doing.

The Market is Still Looking Backwards

The markets continue to bounce up and down seemingly without any rhyme or reason to it. As usual, one day one sector rallies upwards and then very next day gets carpet slammed. Sometimes a sector or stock will run for more than a day, maybe even making a few weeks or a month of it, only to halt its ascent and be thrown into a tailspin for whatever the reason.

Bad news on stock can bring out the hammer, bad news in the entire sector can slam all stocks that are in that sector, the entire market could be having a bad day or just the fact that a stock or sector has been going up a lot could be another reason the bloodletting begins.

Whatever the reason, the Dow Jones Industrial Average is not so far off its all-time high but is dropping again going into the holidays

Other indexes have fared even worse than the Dow. The NASDAQ is off more than 30%. Many individual stocks are off up to 90% or more and not just the obscure no-name stocks. Some very well-loved and well-known names have been literally beat to a proverbial pulp.

Or should I say previously well-loved stocks.

It's almost like if you have a favorite stock that has survived the carnage of 2022 and may have even been up on the year, which is rare, strap yourself in because the 2022 stock market gods will likely slam it down eventually just because.

Of course, we all know it's the nasty inflation and the Federal Reserve's reaction to it that is mostly responsible. Basically to slow inflation the Fed has to slow demand and that means raising interest rates and removing money from the economic system by a variety of complicated programs.

All of that translates into crushing the wants and desires of the American consumer and therefore the means to acquire those wants, which is their money.

Don't feel picked on though. Central banks all over the world are doing the same thing to their consumers.

The inflation is worldwide, so consumers all over the globe must be taken out back and flogged with tighter credit conditions so they don't spend so much.

That decrease in demand will supposedly bring prices down, which of course, is what inflation is.

Making matters worse, as detailed here in Money Matters in previous musings, the supply lines are not getting better. As forecast, they are getting worse. I've covered that before so we won't journey into those weeds but to say you can't shut down the entire globe's economies then expect to turn them on again like a light switch. Of course, the governments of the world probably didn't have that discussion prior to doing it.

So goes having non-business people in government. My opinion of course. They have never run a business so they basically don't know how to, and the world economies are in reality the biggest of businesses.

The bottom line here is the world economies are nowhere near fixed. With many land mines ahead including the vaporous bitcoin implosion, inflation gnawing at consumer pocketbooks, retirement accounts getting crushed, supply lines still clogged up and an employment work imbalance, there is little real evidence, at least in my opinion 2023, will be much better. Investors might consider looking at the guaranteed options that are out there in the investing landscape that will safeguard their money, instead of perhaps continuing to plow money into what appears to be, at least for now, a giant slot machine called Wall Street.

Congressmen's Statement on Exclusion of H.R. 7305

From the Office of Mike Thompson

WASHINGTON, D.C. (MPG) - On Monday, December 19, Reps. Mike Thompson (CA-05), Jared Huffman (CA-02), and Doug LaMalfa (CA-01) released the following statements expressing disappointment after help for fire survivors was left out of the government funding bill.

"It is a sad day when a bipartisan bill that helps people and has broad support in both chambers of Congress can't get through the Senate," said Thompson. "This is terrible for fire survivors throughout California. There are several tax bills that must be considered next year, and I will continue to push that relief for fire survivors be included."

"Along with several California colleagues, I worked hard to pass this legislation, but nobody worked harder than Mike Thompson. I commend Rep. Thompson for the passion and dedication he brought to this effort, and I share his disappointment that Northern California fire disaster victims will not get federal tax relief in this year's government funding bill," said Huffman. "I will keep working in every way I can to support Californians who lost property, homes, and even loved ones in the terrible wildfires that ravaged our region."

"It's appalling that after all this time an agreement could not be made between the House and Senate to deliver wildfire survivors financial relief from abusive taxes. Congressman Thompson and I have led a bipartisan delegation, including our Senators, to fight for Fire Victim Trust beneficiaries' tax-exempt status. The removal of the tax package as a whole was a significant setback by the Senate. I will continue to fight for this bill and we will reintroduce it quickly in the new Congress. I expect there will be a new effort on disaster relief and other tax provisions that were not included," said LaMalfa. "Fire victims need this tax relief to help in rebuilding their lives."

The PG&E Fire Victim Trust was established following California wildfires in 2015, 2017, and 2018. H.R. 7305 was introduced by Thompson, Huffman, and LaMalfa on March 30, 2022.

Congressman Mike Thompson is proud to represent California's 5th Congressional District, which includes all or part of Contra Costa, Lake, Napa, Solano and Sonoma Counties. He is a senior member of the House Committee on Ways and Means where he chairs the Subcommittee on Select Revenue Measures. Rep. Thompson is Chairman of the House Gun Violence Prevention Task Force. He is also Co-Chair of the bipartisan, bicameral Congressional Wine Caucus and a member of the fiscally conservative Blue Dog Coalition. ★

Please help us out by spreading the word of Books & More to your friends and neighbors. We have hundreds of books of many genres, as well as many consignment items: jewelry, tie dye, clothing and some odd pieces that have to be viewed to appreciate. We hope this year to do more than "break even" with our expenses. We never wanted to become rich by running a used book store, but it would be nice to have a bit more business. Spreading the word will help.

Looking at the new year, Books & More will offer their regular weekly groups. On Wednesdays we have a Book Group that chooses a book to read together and discuss it from 1:00 to 2:30. Usually it is a non-fiction book with current issues to learn about. It will be followed by an informal book club that will talk about and share the books we read during the week. Both groups are fairly small and very friendly. So come join us. On Thursday I go to Stone Soup.

Then on Friday mornings we have tried to have a kid's book club, but don't have many "takers". On Saturday we have an art workshop from 10:30 until noon led by local artists, Jani Beckwith and David Giles. For further information on any of these groups, please call 675-3275 after January 4. We will be taking some time off until then.

We won't have a string orchestra, but we will have "live" music at the Ponderosa community center on New Year's Eve. Hope for good weather and a good crowd. We will be serving tri-tip dinner with all of the trimmin's. You might be lucky to win a raffle prize, too. Oh well, the music will be good. Hope to see you there.

Look Back in Time – In 1915 Judge Coupe hired Professor A. B. Bainbridges's string orchestra to play at the Grand Ball at Challenge Hotel (wish I were a fly on the wall).

~ Hope to see you in Brownsville soon. Yvonne ★

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE T.S. No.: 22-0048 Loan No.: *****370 YOU ARE IN DEFAULT UNDER A DEED OF TRUST DATED 11/12/2013 AND MORE FULLY DESCRIBED BELOW. UNLESS YOU TAKE ACTION TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY, IT MAY BE SOLD AT A PUBLIC SALE. IF YOU NEED AN EXPLANATION OF THE NATURE OF THE PROCEEDING AGAINST YOU, YOU SHOULD CONTACT A LAWYER. A public auction sale to the highest bidder for cash, cashier's check payable at the time of sale in lawful money of the United States (payable to Attorney Lender Services, Inc.) will be held by the duly appointed Trustee as shown below, of all right, title, and interest conveyed to and now held by the trustee in the hereinafter described property under and pursuant to a Deed of Trust described below. The sale will be made, but without covenant or warranty, expressed or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to pay the remaining principal sum of the note(s) secured by the Deed of Trust, with interest and late charges thereon, as provided in the note(s), advances, under the terms of the Deed of Trust, interest thereon, fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee for the total amount (at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale) reasonably estimated to be set forth below. The amount may be greater on the day of sale. Trustor: STEVEN CORKERY, A SINGLE MAN Trustee: ATTORNEY LENDER SERVICES, INC. Recorded 11/22/2013 as Instrument No. 2013R-014694 in book --, at Page -- of Official Records in the office of the Recorder of Yuba County, California, Date of Sale: 01/12/2023 at 01:30PM Place of Sale: At the front entrance to the County Courthouse, 215 5th St., Marysville, CA 95901 Estimated amount of unpaid balance and other charges: $159,495.59 estimated - as of date of first publication of this Notice of Sale The purported property address is: 1997 BRANDING IRON WAY PLUMAS LAKE, CA 95961 A.P.N.: 016-400-037-000 The beneficiary under said Deed of Trust heretofore executed and delivered to the undersigned a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale and a written Notice of Default and Election to Sell. The undersigned caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county wherein the real property is located and more than three (3) months have elapsed since such recordation. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown above. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Trustee's Sale. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. If the sale occurs after 1/1/2021, the sale may not be final until either 15 or 45 days after the sale date - see Notice to Tenant. Further, no TDUS can be issued until the sale is final. Your bid is subject to being over bid by the Tenant or "eligible bidder" after the sale and if your bid is over bid, your only remedy is to the refund of your actual bid amount without interest or payment of any other costs, expenses or funds of any kind or nature incurred by the initial successor bidder. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (916) 939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this Internet website www.nationwideposting.com for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case, 22-0048. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (916) 939-0772, or visit this internet website www.nationwideposting.com, using the file number assigned to this case 22-0048 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. On January 26, 2023 at 01:30 PM, At the front entrance to the County Courthouse, 215 5th St., Marysville, CA 95901, MTC Financial Inc. dba Trustee Corps, as the duly Appointed Trustee, under and pursuant to the power of sale contained in that certain Deed of Trust recorded on September 13, 2005 as Instrument No. 2005R-021884, on Page 1 of official records in the Office of the Recorder of Yuba County, California, executed by JESUS G. RODRIGUEZ AND BRENDA RODRIGUEZ, MARRIED TO EACH OTHER, as Trustor(s), in favor of BANK OF AMERICA, N.A. as Beneficiary, WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER, in lawful money of the United States, all payable at the time of sale, that certain property situated in said County, California describing the land therein as: AS MORE FULLY DESCRIBED IN SAID DEED OF TRUST The property heretofore described is being sold "as is". The street address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: 4324 TWAIN DR, MARYSVILLE, CA 95901 The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. Said sale will be made without covenant or warranty, express or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to pay the remaining principal sum of the Note(s) secured by said Deed of Trust, with interest thereon, as provided in said Note(s), advances if any, under the terms of the Deed of Trust, estimated fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligations secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of this Notice of Trustee's Sale is estimated to be $202,020.85 (Estimated). However, prepayment premiums, accrued interest and advances will increase this figure prior to sale. Beneficiary's bid at said sale may include all or part of said amount. In addition to cash, the Trustee will accept a cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the California Financial Code and authorized to do business in California, or other such funds as may be acceptable to the Trustee. In the event tender other than cash is accepted, the Trustee may withhold the issuance of the Trustee's Deed Upon Sale until funds become available to the payee or endorsee as a matter of right. The property offered for sale excludes all funds held on account by the property receiver, if applicable. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. # Gallery to Host Artist Reception for Nelson Wheeler and Elana Needles

YSA News Release

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) - January gets underway on the local art scene with new guest artists, Elana Needles and Nelson Wheeler, coming into the Gallery at the Sutter Theater Center for the Arts. Their work runs the gamut from watercolors to mosaics. The free opening reception will be held on January 6, 2023, from 5 – 7pm, in the Gallery, 754 Plumas Street in Yuba City. Free beer, wine, water, and appetizers will be served.

So, what do a couple of art teachers do when they give up those daily classroom visits and retire? They do art, of course, and dedicate their additional available time to nurturing and expanding their many artistic interests. Nelson is passionate about mosaics.

“Having taught art, photography, and yearbook for 25 years, I’ve settled into retirement with renewed enthusiasm for art that I’ve had since childhood. Never expected, however, is my excitement about mosaics that stems from a visit to Mexico ten years ago. I’ve come to see a bowl of broken colored ceramic pieces as I do a palette of oil paints, better yet in that they can be applied to a variety of surfaces and forms, many functional. My mosaics can cover tables, pots, outdoor pavers, benches, and walls. I’m amused by my own visions, eager to create more as I let my hair down,” said Nelson.

Elana retired from teaching art and photography at Yuba City high school. She is pushing herself and exploring new mediums and revisiting some old favorites including paper, mosaics, paint, and driftwood.

The Theater Gallery located inside the Sutter Theater Center for the Arts is also home to several Anchor Artists. See original works of art created by photographer, George Unpingco, metal sculpture artist, Dude Green, and indigenous jewelry, beadwork artist, Jesse Harris, ceramist Drew Sallee and textile artist (think hand dyed scarves), Pam Nowak.

Your purchase of a work of art whether it be an original painting, a greeting card, a pair of earrings, a print, a scarf, a metal sculpture, a mug or a bowl or other original artwork helps support the artist as well as Yuba Sutter Arts & Culture.

Join the celebration of these wonderful artists and their creative work. Purchase a work of art and give an original gift that’s totally unique. For additional information about this exhibition, contact Yuba Sutter Arts & Culture at 530-742-ARTS or write to abbie@yubaustterarts.org ★

Ken Oneto Honored with Farm Bureau’s Hometown Heroes Award

California Farm Bureau News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Ken Oneto, a past president and 28-year board member for the Sacramento County Farm Bureau, has received the California Farm Bureau’s inaugural Hometown Heroes Award for his support of the Young Farmers & Ranchers program.

The award, recognizing Farm Bureau members for outstanding service to the YF&R program, was presented at the California Farm Bureau’s recent Annual Meeting in Monterey.

Oneto, president of KLM Ranches, was lauded for his support of YF&R members who raise crops and provide food for the Harvest for All campaign, a program that contributes millions of pounds of food and thousands of volunteer hours to support local food banks and needy families.

The Hometown Heroes Award was created in honor of Fresno County farmer Randy Rocca, who died in April. The owner of Rocca Ranches and a field representative for Sun-Maid Growers, Rocca was a state YF&R Discussion Meet champion and he remained a devoted supporter of the program after graduating.

The California Farm Bureau works to protect family farms and ranches on behalf of nearly 29,000 members statewide and as part of a nationwide network of 5.3 million Farm Bureau members. ★

All Signs Point to the Divine

Parishioners of the Gridley Mission of the Old Roman Church and witnesses to the event gather around the image of Jesus of the Divine Mercy, now considered to be a holy item by the Archdiocese of the North American Old Roman Catholic Church, Utrecht Succession. GRIDLEY, CA (MPG) - On July 15th between 8 and 9 in the evening, patrons of the North American Old Roman Church Utrecht Succession, Gridley Mission confirm that they witnessed what they believe to be a miracle.

The Gridley Mission has been active for about 4 years, informs Archbishop Ivan Castaneda, who oversees both the mission and chapel. The faithful meet in a small home for most of their services. A large, but simple print of the Jesus of the Divine Mercy was purchased earlier this year by Deacon Raul Madera and his wife to adorn the chamber where they worship and hold Adoration of the Cross Ceremonies. Jesus of the Divine Mercy is the mission's focus for their worship.

According to 9 testimonies verbally shared with Herald reporters, the event regarding the depiction of Jesus of the Divine Mercy transpired as follows:

The framed print of Jesus of the Divine Mercy was initially seen moving on the wall by a teenage boy. The room was darkened as customary during the Adoration of the Cross Ceremony which was taking place at the time. The young man brought the movement to the attention of the small congregation and Archbishop Castaneda. Witnesses, fourteen of them, report seeing the image moving slowly at first, then faster in a more dramatic pendulum motion. Multiple onlookers saw red sparks appear, glimmering around Christ's head, while his halo began to glow. As the light radiating from the halo intensified, the red and blue-white rays issuing from Jesus's heart in the image also began to illuminate with brightly colored light. A visitor to the congregation reportedly began speaking in tongues, crying softly. As the alleged manifestations continued, those in attendance saw other miraculous events transpire.

Archbishop Ivan Castaneda reported seeing Jesus's eyes opening and closing. Others, such as Mother Fatima Jerez, saw Christ's right hand, raised in the depiction of the image, making the sign of the cross blessing those that had gathered around in awe of the celestial display. Archbishop Castaneda confirms he also witnessed this. Eventually, the swinging of the portrait slowly ceased, the light faded, and the image returned to its natural state. The occurrence reportedly lasted around 15 minutes, but due to a state of shock, none recorded the exact time of the phenomenon.

Since July, 14 witnesses that range from ages 7 on up, have undergone the process of having their personal statements transcribed, translated from Spanish to English in some cases, and have had them notarized to properly document the incident. A second manifestation has also been recorded via video, which captured the same picture moving and radiating the image of a cross. The video has joined the compilation of evidence to chronicle these holy events.

In recognition of such a significant event, the 14 parishioners in attendance that July evening have signed the back of the image, and a special mass was held to bless and consecrate the depiction of Jesus the Divine Mercy as Patron of the entire North American Old Roman Church Utrecht Succession. The picture was moved in early November to the Jesus El Buen Pastor Church in San Bruno, California as it is now considered to be a sacred item and Patrimony of the Archdiocese. Four parishioners in San Bruno claim to have seen it illuminate in the same manner as in Gridley, but not swing as it had done while here.

Archbishop Castaneda tells the Herald that "after a lot of praying and debate," the congregation decided to publicize the happening. "We were very hesitant to go public," says Archbishop Castaneda. He sought counsel from an outside pastor, who helped him come to the decision that it should be shared with the world, "because maybe he (Jesus) has a message for his people."

The Church wished to announce the event much earlier but wanted proper documentation in place before doing so. A series of events have prevented the publishing of the account until now.

When confronted with the issue of doubters, disbelievers and that they may be mocked by their community, the witnesses young and old held firm to their declarations. Not one retracted their statements, and it remains clear that they believe what they saw truly happened. Archbishop Castaneda confirms, "We did not make this up and, so I need to be strong and say, well, this is the truth. This is what happened." He continues, "We're not sure why it happened, but it did happen."

Attempts at recreating the events have been unsuccessful - for those involved, all signs point to the divine.

Archbishop Castaneda shares that he's come to this conclusion about the event and his small parish: They might be a small church, a small congregation, nothing "special" about themselves in their eyes, but that God ultimately decides whom he will speak to, when, and how he will inspire. ★
