Another Covid Winter?

By Katy Grimes, California Globe

It appears some politicians and members of the media are trying to foist another Covid winter on America. In California the pandemic never really ended. California Gov. Gavin Newsom still clings to his autocratic emergency powers under his March 4, 2020 Covid State of Emergency order, so why not perpetrate another crisis?

Hysterical and misleading headlines from mainstream media tell the story:

SacBee: California hospital ICU's

see 20% jump in COVID-19 patients since last week, state data show. "As of Wednesday, there were 346 patients in hospital intensive care units, accounting for roughly 13% of available beds," the Sac Bee health care writer reports, but she omits what the 346 ICU patients are hospitalized for.

A quick look at Sacramento County Public health Covid statistics (below) shows about 12-13 Covid "cases" a day are reported, 13 Covid patients in the ICU and 13 recent deaths. It took 3 minutes to look this up.

Here is another headline from the SacBee health reporter: California's 'triple-demic' of viruses is on the rise. Here's how to care for a sick loved one.

The advice in this 605 word article is useful to anyone who hasn't ever had the flu: drink plenty of fluids, take Acetaminophen and Ibuprofen for the fever, and get plenty of rest.

What is this "triple-demic" of viruses? COVID-19, the flu and respiratory syncytial virus.

"According to CDC data, the hospitalization rate in all kids for the week of Nov. 12 was twice as high as any other flu season on record," ABC 7 reported. "The American Academy of Pediatrics and the Children's

$647 Million to Cover Overdue Utility Bills

CSD News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Gov. Gavin Newsom on November 22 announced the release of $647 million in funding to help over 1.4 million California households struggling to pay their overdue energy bills.

The awarded funding will eliminate all past due energy debt accrued by residential customers between March 4, 2020 and December 31, 2021, providing real relief to households that have suffered the economic impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic and increased energy debt.

Over the last year, California has distributed over $1.6 billion in financial assistance for bill credits through the California Arrearage Payment Program (CAPP) to reduce or eliminate overdue electric and gas bills.

"California has made unprecedented commitments to help vulnerable households stay afloat as the cost-of-living increases," said Governor Newsom. "By providing utility relief that will eliminate over 1.4 million Californians' overdue energy bills, we're helping families who continue to struggle with higher costs."

Governor Newsom and the California Legislature established the 2022 California Arrearage Payment Program (2022 CAPP) to address 100 percent of past due energy bill balances incurred by residential customers during the program's COVID-19 pandemic bill relief period covering March 4, 2020 to December 31, 2021. Thirty-three energy utilities applied for 2022 CAPP funding on behalf of over 1.4 million eligible residential customers.

Participating state energy utilities are required to apply a 2022 CAPP bill credit to their customer accounts within 60 days of receiving funds.

"Once again, we are leading with our values by working to ensure that our neighbors economically impacted by the pandemic can keep their lights on," said California Health and Human Services Agency Secretary Dr. Mark Ghaly. "Many of us fell behind as the pandemic continued, and our commitment to further address energy debts is another way we are lifting up all Californians."

CAPP is administered by the Department of Community Services and Development (CSD). Under the first round of CAPP funding in 2021, over 1.5 million residential and commercial energy utility customers received a CAPP bill credit to reduce TubaChristmas Concert During the Christmas Stroll!

YSA News Release

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) - How many times does an event need to recur before it is considered a tradition? Case in point is the annual presentation of a TubaChristmas at the Sutter Theater Center for the Arts. Even during the construction phase, musicians have been gathering in the Russ and Donna Clark Theater to perform holiday favorites on brass instruments. Certainly, the local version of the event has achieved "tradition" status.

Come out and enjoy some great brass band holiday music in a free concert at the Sutter Theater Center for the Arts, during the Christmas Stroll, Saturday December 10th starting at 6:30pm, 754 Plumas Street in Yuba City. The performance will also include a community sing-along. Musicians interested in participating should arrive at 11am to register. Rehearsal is from 12-4.

2022 is the 48th anniversary for TubaChristmas concerts which occur worldwide. The event celebrates those who play, teach, and compose music for instruments in the tuba family, including the tuba, sousaphone, baritone, and euphonium, though some participants bring rarer members of the family such as the helicon, ophicleide, serpent and double bell euphonium. The idea was conceived in 1974 by Harvey Phillips as a tribute to his music teacher and mentor William J. Bell who was born on Christmas Day, 1902. The first TubaChristmas was conducted by Paul Lavalle at New York City's Rockefeller Plaza on Sunday, December 22, 1974.

TubaChristmas has been held locally for several years at the Sutter Theater Center for the Arts, even during the construction phase, and always to coincide with the Christmas Stroll on Plumas Street. The ad hoc, all volunteer band is led by local professional musician and music educator, Deanna Weisman, who will be playing euphonium for the concert. Deanna has a Master of Art in Education degree and has been teaching for 24 years, currently in the Marysville Joint Unified School District. She is the band manager for the Yuba Sutter Big Band and has played with the Oroville Community Band and the Shasta and Yuba College Concert and Jazz bands, the Nevada City Concert Band and the Ukuladies.

All Long Term Services Will Soon be Available

Californians will be able to access Cal Long Term Care Compare to compare quality performance and facility information. MPG file photo

Cal Healthcare Compare News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Beginning in 2023, Californians will get easy access to data on over 19,000 long term care services and facilities in California, thanks to a $1 million grant from the California Department of Aging for the expansion of the Cal Long Term Care Compare website.

Through this funding, Californians will be able to access Cal Long Term Care Compare to compare quality performance and facility information for over 1,000 nursing homes, as well the following services and facilities in their area: home health agencies, hospices, adult residential care programs, adult day health centers, long term care hospitals, inpatient rehabilitation facilities and more.

The public website will be updated over a two-year period to include comparative information, such as facility location, number of beds, resident information, services, and resident feedback, for these additional long term care options. In addition, the website will be updated to include several tools designed to guide Californians through the decision-making process, from determining their long-term care needs to selecting the right provider in their area. As part of this effort, overall website accessibility, such as Spanish translation services and ADA compatibility, will be improved so that even more Californians can access this vital information.

Cal Long Term Care Compare is a free website that offers an unbiased, one-stop snapshot of how local long term care services and facilities compare to each other and to statewide averages on a variety of quality metrics.

“Searching for long term care services can be a difficult, anxiety-ridden challenge. We know that many individuals and families struggle with just understanding the difference between the various long term care options — such as nursing homes versus hospice,” said Dr. Bruce Spurlock, Executive Director of Cal Healthcare Compare. “We hope that this free site will lessen the apprehension and provide individuals and families with reliable, objective information and educational material so that they can be more confident in the decisions they make.”

Created by Cal Healthcare Compare, a multi-stakeholder nonprofit, the user-friendly website offers a quick reference about some of the most pressing issues consumers need to weigh before choosing the long term care facility best suited to their unique needs. Funded by California health plans, data analysis informing the posted measures are produced by researchers from the UC Davis Center for Healthcare Policy and Research and the Betty Irene Moore School of Nursing. ★

Former U.S. Army Special Operations Officer to Speak at Meeting

FRTPP News Release

YUBA CITY, CA (MPG) - November 23, 2022, the Feather River Tea Party Patriots announced Lt. Scott Bennett, Former U.S. Army Special Operations Officer and Psychological Warfare Analyst will be the Special Guest Speaker for their meeting, December 5, 2022.

After discovering and exposing massive corruption within the Obama White House, Lt. Bennett was unlawfully imprisoned by the Obama Administration. In performance of his sworn military officer’s oath, Lt. Bennett filed intelligence analysis reports exposing illegal terrorist finance corruption and money-laundering operations involving the Clinton Foundation, the Department of Justice (Eric Holder, Lanny Breuer, Loretta Lynch, Kevin Downing), the Muslim Brotherhood, and US Central Command.

The compilation of reports and letters to Congress, and synthesized intelligence materials (unclassified) is told in his book “SHELL GAME.” A book signing is scheduled from 5:00 pm to 6:00 pm, prior to the meeting.

Former Lt. Bennett was a frequent visitor to the Trump White House and various trips to the middle east, including Iran, Ukraine, and Russia. He worked with General Michael Flynn’s team and others in Washington DC examining the evidence and affidavits from technical experts who provided proof of not only election fraud, but of treason, espionage, and cyber warfare attacks. The materials provided by military personnel, cryptologists, attorneys, and analysts prove beyond any doubt the November 3, 2020, election was a corrupt fraud and act of high treason. He sat down with experts over several weeks and saw amazing things, documents, videos, and other materials that both enraged and nauseated him. So damaging were the materials they were analyzing, the CIA hacked into their phones and computers, planted microphones, set up “honey traps,” and broke into their hotel rooms searching for their evidence. As a result, they were moved around to different hotels every few days surrounded by Navy SEALs, U.S. Marshalls, and Special Forces soldiers.

Former Lt. Scott Bennett will give a briefing on Ukraine with a slide presentation on biochemical labs; a video of Biden’s domestic terrorism briefing; and the next steps in the Trump situation and how Americans can respond and prepare for the possible scenarios over the next six months to a year. Q and A to follow.

Everyone is welcome. There is no membership and no cost to attend. Doors open at 5:00 p.m.; come early to register, get an autographed copy of his book, “SHELL GAME”; socialize with like-minded patriots; and get a good seat.

The meeting will be Monday, December 5, 2022, at Crossroads Community Church, 445 B Street, Yuba City, 6:00pm – 8:30pm.

Another Covid Winter?

Hospital Association say cases of the flu, COVID-19, and RSV are overwhelming the health system.”

However a look at the CDC Covid dashboard shows hospitalizations are static. Of the 331.9 million Americans, there are 19,480 hospitalizations:

Here’s part of the motive: “Declaration of a national emergency would give providers additional funding as well as more flexibility from regulations to deal with what they call a ‘crisis.’”

The COVID-19 pandemic is over and has been over except for political motivations – and government funding.

Taking a page from Dr. Anthony Fauci who warned families to get Covid tested ahead of Thanksgiving gatherings, California Health and Human Services Secretary Dr. Mark Ghaly said, “I think there’s ways that we can really improve how we do it, rather than spend our time talking about whether we should or shouldn’t,” referring to family gatherings.

The Los Angeles Times reporters took the hysteria one step further:

“In California, however, coronavirus-positive hospitalizations have been increasing. As of Wednesday, there were 2,782 coronavirus-positive patients in hospitals, up 84% from the autumn low of 1,514 on Oct. 24.”

There are 40 million residents in California, and 2,782 are Covid-positive in the hospital?

“Nationally, hundreds of Americans are still dying every day of COVID-19, which remains a leading cause of death. And there are signs that transmission is once again on the upswing,” the LAT reports.

But the CDC reports, COVID-19 was the third leading cause of death after heart disease and cancer.

For perspective, on any given day, approximately 740 Californians die of all causes, totaling about 270,000 California deaths annually.

According to the California Department of Public Health, as of November 21, 2022, there are zero deaths from Covid.

But at the top of their chart, the CDPH shows 96,701 total Covid deaths. This is the cumulative total since February 1, 2020, through November 22, 2022, according to the CDPH’s data.

The state of California wants people to believe that Covid patients are dropping like flies at 12 per day. But that is the average over the entire almost 3-year Covid pandemic since February 2020.

It’s feeling like Groundhog Day with public health officials and media breathlessly talking about Covid “cases,” rather than focusing on the vulnerable groups of people.

Throughout the pandemic, there was too heavy of a focus on an uptick in cases, as Stanford’s Dr. Scott Atlas reported, “especially in places where governors either have reinstated or have further enforced restrictions. When we see this focus on more cases, it doesn’t really matter how many cases – it only matters who gets the cases. We know that the infection-fatality rate for people under 70 is 0.04 percent – that’s less than or equal to the seasonal flu,” he said.

A physician told the Globe that because doctors even can have a difficult time getting good data through their hospitals, trends are far more important numbers than raw numbers to study, as it gives more context.

For the average American, faith in government authority was significantly eroded because of how Covid was handled, managed and grossly mismanaged. It’s still going on with politicians and the State of California inundating the people with advertisements pushing Covid vaccines and masks by the California Department of Public Health (CDPH). These ads are everywhere – radio, television, online ads, social media, iHeart radio, Sirius radio – even radio hosts are being paid to read the CDPH ads... it’s difficult to escape the commercials.

The governor and Legislature are also seeking to punish physicians and surgeons for “unprofessional conduct” for advocating for the potential benefits of early treatment with off-label drugs, or those who dare to ask questions about COVID vaccine safety. Under AB 2098 doctors will be subject to disciplinary actions by the Medical Board of California and the Osteopathic Medical Board of California if they do not adhere to the “approved COVID treatment consensus.”

Fortunately, a group of California physicians has filed a complaint and motion for a preliminary injunction in Hoeg, et al. v. Newsom, et al., asking the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of California prevent AB 2098 from going into effect.

Will there be another Covid Groundhog Day? The Californians I talk to say “oh, Hell no.”

‘Let It Snow’ Christmas Concert

YSAC News Release

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) -

John Paris is returning to the Sutter Theater Center for the Arts for his annual Christmas Concert! John will be joined by fellow musicians, Skye and David Boles and Megan Fowler. The concert will be held on Friday, December 9th at 7pm at the Sutter Theater Center for the Arts, 754 Plumas Street in Yuba City. Doors open at 6. Tickets are $20 and are available at yubasutterarts.org or at the door if space is available.

Those of you who know John understand the joy and beauty he brings to an audience and his very spiritual approach to the music whether playing his own compositions or his arrangements of Christmas classics. John recently retired but was a beloved local instrumental and choral music instructor for many years. He has enjoyed an extensive musical career working with the likes of Merv Griffin, Jerry Lewis, the Minneapolis Symphony, and the Moody Blues. While jazz runs through his veins, John has managed to combine this passion with original new age music or eliminate their past due energy bill. While this provided significant relief for customers, not all residential arrearages were covered by the original program. With today’s awards, 2022 CAPP will eliminate all remaining eligible past due energy debt accrued by residential customers during the COVID-19 pandemic bill relief period of March 4, 2020 to December 31, 2021.

“California households, through no fault of their own, continue to suffer from the economic impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic and cost of living increases, including energy expenses,” said CSD Director David Scribner. “The state was able to mobilize quickly to address historic levels of energy debt through CAPP in 2021, and building on last year’s success, we have done it again in 2022 to effectively and efficiently deliver critical financial assistance to Californians in need.”

'Kids of Caltrans' Aims to Get Drivers to Move Over, Save Lives

Caltrans News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The young faces of the families of highway workers are reminding you to move over a lane or slow down for their loved ones who help keep our roads safe. The "Kids of Caltrans" provide the personal, impactful messages behind the new public awareness campaign from the California Department of Transportation (Caltrans), in partnership with the California Office of Traffic Safety (OTS) and the California Highway Patrol (CHP), that kicked off today at Sacramento's Golden 1 Center.

Some of the children, grandchildren, nieces, and nephews of Caltrans workers featured in the "Move Over" campaign were on hand for the kickoff event, which comes on the heels of last week's National Crash Responder Safety Week. In video messages that will air throughout the state through January 2023, they ask drivers to be alert and move over a lane if safe to do so or slow down to safely pass highway workers.

Sadly, highway workers, law enforcement officers, emergency personnel and tow truck drivers are killed or injured along California's roadways every year.

Moving over and slowing down when passing a vehicle stopped on the roadway with flashing lights in California isn't just a matter of following the law—it is about saving lives. The "Move Over" law exists to provide a safer environment for maintenance and emergency vehicles stopped along roadsides close to fast-moving traffic.

"Not a single person should die on our roadways – let alone in our work zones – so I urge you to do your part, pay attention, move over and save lives," said Caltrans Director Tony Tavares. "Don't let that split second of inattention destroy the lives of so many people ... including your own."

"Making a traffic or emergency stop on the side of the road is one of the most dangerous duties law enforcement officers and other first responders perform," said CHP Commissioner Amanda Ray. "Tragically, too many first responders and highway workers have been killed on the shoulder or median, and dozens more have been seriously injured. Please, move over or slow down when you see our officers and others working on the side of the freeway; not only is it the law, their lives depend on it."

"Caltrans workers are mothers, fathers, grandparents, aunts and uncles who have loved ones who need them to come home," OTS Director Barbara Rooney said. "For your safety, and the safety of all roadside workers and emergency responders, please be alert and slow down."

California's "Move Over" law requires all drivers to move over a lane if safe to do so, and if unable to do so safely, to slow down when they see amber flashing lights on Caltrans vehicles, law enforcement and other emergency vehicles and tow trucks.

"Towing professionals are the ones we rely on when the unexpected happens. We all depend on these Heroes of the Highway to clear our roadways and get traffic safely flowing after a crash has occurred," said Sam Johnson, President of the California Tow Truck Association and the Emergency Road Service Coalition of America. "As a motorist, you can help protect these heroes by paying attention, slowing down, and moving over when you see the flashing lights of a tow truck assisting a stranded vehicle. The California Tow Truck Association along with the Emergency Road Service Coalition of America would like to thank the motoring public for their help with our mission to get each and every one of these Heroes of the Highway safely home to their families at the end of the day."

In 2020, nearly 7,000 work-zone crashes occurred on California roadways, resulting in more than 3,000 injuries and nearly 100 fatalities. Nationally, drivers and passengers account for 85% of those killed in work zones.

Although all 50 states have enacted "Move Over" laws, the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration found that 71% of Americans are not aware of them. In California, failure to obey the "Move Over" law can result in fines up to $1,000, plus points on your driving record.

Since 1921, 191 Caltrans employees have been killed on the job, and one of the biggest hazards to them and anyone working on the roads is from motorists who do not exercise caution. Those 191 employees represent scores of families torn apart by preventable work zone collisions.

SMF Named WSJ's Top Airport

Sacramento International Airport was named the top airport in the nation according to the Wall Street Journal's 2022 Airport rankings. Courtesy photo

Sac County News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Sacramento International Airport (SMF) was named the top airport in the nation according to the Wall Street Journal's 2022 Airport rankings. Compared to the 50 other airports surveyed, SMF received the highest score overall.

The top 50 busiest airports were surveyed and then divided into two sizes - 20 large and 30 midsize. The airports were then measured on 19 categories including experience from on-time performance and security waits to customer-satisfaction scores and ticket prices. The categories ranked were further grouped into three broad categories – reliability, convenience, and value.

SMF ranked highest among all airports surveyed in the reliability category and also ranked high in arrival and departure times, low flight cancellations, quick taxi and security clearance times, and a max walking distance of only 1,213 feet.

"The SMF team consistently provides our customers with a safe, comfortable and enjoyable travel experience," said Cindy Nichol, Director of the Sacramento County Department of Airports. "Living our values every day clearly makes a difference, as we make our customers our top priority. We see each day as an opportunity to improve and accomplish more together by collaborating; communicating and taking pride in what we do."

In 2019, SMF similarly won the top mid-sized airport award - the award was not issued in 2020 or 2021 due to the pandemic.

The Sacramento County Department of Airports is responsible for planning, developing, operating and maintaining the county's four airports: Sacramento International Airport, Executive Airport, Mather Airport and Franklin Field. For more information, visit sacramento.aero ★

The Yin and Yang of California's Job Picture

By Dan Walters, CALMatters.org

When California's monthly report on employment was issued last week — telling us what the situation was in October — Gov. Gavin Newsom quickly issued a celebratory statement.

"California has now fully recovered all jobs that were lost to the pandemic-induced recession, but we know this isn't the finish line," Newsom said, making a plug for his economic programs to counter rising consumer costs and "to help create thousands of jobs and opportunities for Californians throughout the state."

Newsom claimed that "California has recovered 101.1% of the 2,758,900 jobs lost during the recession — the state is now 30,800 jobs above the pre-pandemic level total of February 2020."

Data from the state Employment Development Department (EDD) tell a slightly different story. In February 2020, according to EDD's bulletin for that month, 18,756,900 Californians were employed. The bulletin for October 2022 pegged employment at 18,502,900, or 254,000 fewer.

Numbers aside, California's employment picture has definitely improved from what it was two-plus years ago, when the state's jobless rate had soared from less than 4% of the labor force to more than 16%. Newsom had ordered widespread shutdowns of business to counter the spread of COVID-19, throwing nearly 3 million Californians out of work.

The financial pain to millions of California families was made immeasurably worse when EDD experienced a bureaucratic meltdown that prevented many jobless workers from collecting unemployment insurance payments, sometimes for months. Moreover, under pressure to clear the backlog, EDD workers then swung too far the other way, authorizing tens of billions of dollars in payments to fraudulent applicants.

Although the October report tells us that almost as many Californians were employed as prior to the COVID-19 recession, the state's overall job picture is more complex than those simple numbers.

For one thing, the reports for February 2020 and October 2022 reveal that the state's labor force — the total of Californians either employed or looking for work — has shrunk by nearly a quarter-million persons. The numbers continue a long-term decline in what's called "labor force participation" — the percentage of working-age adults who have jobs or want to work. They also imply that as the state's overall population ages, the pool of potential workers is also shrinking.

Whatever the underlying causes, the labor force decline is one reason why California's employers are having such great difficulty finding enough workers and why they are raising wages — to as much as $18 an hour for fast food workers, for example — to attract more applicants.

"For the past full year and for first time in decades, California has more job openings than job seekers," a new report from the Public Policy Institute of California notes. "While this is good news for people looking for work, it also limits businesses' workforce plans and growth — and wage increases have put upward pressure on prices."

In response, the PPIC report says, some employers are implementing more labor-saving technology, such as ordering kiosks in fast food outlets and GPS-guided machinery in agriculture.

The labor shortage may be having other impacts. The sharp drop in community college enrollment could, for instance, reflect would-be students' opting for higher wages in service industries over education.

We may look back on October 2020 as a high point for employment in California because, economists tell us, a recession may be on the horizon. Some employers, especially those in the high-tech industry, are already laying off thousands of workers in anticipation of a downturn.

California has a history of experiencing a recession of some kind about once a decade and we may be due for another.

The Coming Diesel Shortage

With the price of gasoline skyrocketing to unthinkable heights in the last year or so, the next shoe to drop is the price of diesel fuel. Or should I say the next price to rise.

Not that diesel hasn't increased in price. It has.

Today the national average for a gallon of diesel is $5.29. Last year about this time it was $3.64. But that could be just the beginning.

Bad things are happening in the world of diesel as far as its supply goes, and that equates to a possible increase in price and my guess is its going to be a nasty one.

There are many factors all coming together in the supply chain of diesel, and although you might not own a diesel car or truck yourself, you are nonetheless going to feel the pain.

It might not necessarily be at the pump, but prices will likely rise at just about every other store you go to. That's because it is estimated that 95% of goods travel at some point by a boat, truck or train powered by diesel.

The war in Ukraine has certainly been pinching supplies as Russia is a major exporter of diesel and China will soon implement an export restriction on a variety of goods, diesel being one of them. Add in some shutdowns of diesel refineries both in the U.S. and Europe, and historic low inventories of the fuel worldwide, and it has all the makings of a severe inflationary spike in diesel over and above the bad inflation we are already seeing in other goods.

Estimated costs to the U.S. economy from spiking diesel prices exceed 100 billion.

Transportation fuel is the most common use for diesel which powers most trains, semi-trucks and yes, some automobiles, all using it in lieu of gasoline. A ton of it is used for ocean freighters.

Often called the dirty fuel as it is easier to refine than gasoline, it is most commonly used in large engines and power plants which are the lifeblood of supply lines and power for almost everything we buy.

Making matters worse is a threatened workers strike deadline of December 5th from the railroad unions wanting improved health care and other compensation type demands. If the railroad strike comes to fruition, estimated costs are an astounding two billion dollars a day to the U.S. consumer. If you think supply lines are slow now, just wait and see what happens if the trains stop running.

Europe is preparing for what it knows is coming. Anticipating empty shelves due to fuel shortages, they are prepping for a possible run on cash (aka the banks) as people start to hoard both cash and goods. Many countries expect the same and are acting accordingly before supplies get critical.

More alarming is the fact that diesel is also widely used as heating fuel, mostly along the eastern seaboard, but also warming homes and businesses in a variety of regions worldwide. Should a cold winter be in store, things could get very ugly in many areas of the country and indeed, the world.

With supply chains already constrained due to a variety of reasons from the war, the CoVid shutdowns and a lack of available workers, a spike in the cost in the main fuel used for shipping will likely further stress retailers and consumers in obtaining goods in a timely manner. The result will be even higher prices and lack of availability on many items as shipping costs escalate.

With the Federal Reserve trying to tame inflation and consumers feeling its effect on their pocketbooks, a spike in diesel will further add to the cost of just about everything we buy. This will amplify inflationary pressures and worsen the scarcity of goods we are already facing and in process, make the Feds job of quelling inflation that much harder.

Researchers are on the lookout for pests, 'citrus greening' disease in Southern California

Researchers are combing commercial citrus sites in Southern California to determine whether Asian citrus psyllids are spreading huanglongbing "citrus greening" disease. The insect vectors are known to carry the bacterium that can cause the virus known as HLB. So far, researchers have tested more than 3,000 of the insects collected from 15 commercial citrus sites. Just over 3.5% of the bugs had some level of bacterium. California so far has not had widespread infections in citrus, as has occurred in Florida and Texas.

Study: Farmers who increased online sales were more resilient during pandemic

Farmers who increased use of online sales and marketing were more resilient to economic shocks of the pandemic, according to a new study by researchers at the University of California, Davis. According to the study, published in the journal Agricultural Systems, farmers with a greater diversity of crops and livestock were better able to respond to the pandemic and reported no change or an increase in profitability, compared to farmers with less diverse offerings. Some 46% of 364 California farmers and ranchers interviewed said they relied on online sales.

UC Merced and UC Santa Cruz designated as new agricultural research centers

For the first time in a half century, the University of California has designated additional campuses as agricultural experiment stations. Both UC Santa Cruz and UC Merced are now joining UC Davis, UC Berkeley and UC Riverside as research centers focused on scientific studies related to agriculture and natural resources. The campuses will work closely with UC Cooperative Extension farm advisers, as well as farmers, ranchers, processors and others in food production and agriculture.

Farmers and ranchers to be surveyed for 2002 Census of Agriculture

The 2022 Census of Agriculture is underway. The census provides America's comprehensive database on farming and ranching in every state. The U.S. Department of Agriculture on Nov. 22 began mailing survey codes to agricultural producers across the country. Paper questionnaires will be mailed out in December, and all farm operations that produced or sold $1,000 or more of agricultural products this year are required to participate in the census. All responses are due by Feb. 6, 2023. ★

The Brownsville Bailinick & Beyond

We know that news of the Next Step van, Mountain Transit, has been out there for quite awhile and you are probably wondering when it will happen. One of the hold-ups has been insurance. The next one is waiting to see if our request for a grant is granted. If the grant comes through, we will be a pilot program that will exist on grant money and donations, but if the grant does not come through, we will have to charge for each ride. We are hoping for the grant so that we can get organized and try to plan routes and charges for van rides. It will operate much like a bus with planned routes and times. We should hear about the grant soon and hope to get the van insured withing a week or so of hearing.

The holiday season is "officially" open. I hope you had a good Thanksgiving and now are gearing up for Christmas. It is time to put lights up, check the gift list, and more. On Dec. 3 - 4, Saturday and Sunday, the Peddler's Fair will be at Ponderosa Community Center with plenty of gift ideas, a nice hot lunch and friends and neighbors to visit with. On Saturday, Dec. 3, at Books & More there will be potato soup, either to eat on site or take home, also a bake sale.

Look Back in Time — The New York Flat school closed for the season. The roads are nearly impassible because of deep mud (we are so fortunate).

~ Hope to see you in Brownsville soon. Yvonne ★

California Trucking Company to Pay $71K for Spills into Lake County Waterways

EPA News Release

SAN FRANCISCO, CA (MPG) - The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) today announced a settlement with the owner and operator of Steve Wills Trucking and Logging LLC to resolve claims of violations of the Clean Water Act. Tanker trucks transporting milk from the Steve Wills facility near Fortuna, California, were involved in three separate driving incidents, all of which resulted in discharges of raw milk into waterways. One of the three incidents resulted in the death of a driver.

"Improper transport of goods can negatively impact waterways and compromise the safety of workers," said EPA Pacific Southwest Regional Administrator Martha Guzman. "When companies fail to manage substances that have the potential to impact waterways the local community, environment, and worker safety is put in danger."

On January 19, 2020, a tanker truck carrying raw milk on Highway 20 near Glenhaven, CA overturned down an embankment and released raw milk into Clear Lake. On April 12, 2020, a second incident took place when a truck on Highway 20 near Clearlake Oaks, CA overturned down an embankment and released raw milk into Clear Lake. Finally, on December 11, 2021, a truck on Highway 20 east of Lance Road in Lake County overturned down an embankment into Grizzly Creek, a tributary of Cache Creek.

Drivers were cited for the January 19 and April 12, 2020, incidents. The third incident is still pending the results of an ongoing investigation.

Steve Wills Trucking and Logging agreed to a penalty in the amount of $71,967 to resolve claims that the company discharged to Waters of the United States without a permit, which is a violation of the Clean Water Act.

U.S. law requires the safe management of materials to protect public health, the environment, and limit the need for costly and extensive cleanups. It is unlawful to discharge pollutants into Waters of the United States, except as authorized by a National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System permit issued under the Clean Water Act.

For more information on reporting possible violations of environmental laws and regulations visit EPA's enforcement reporting website.

The property address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: VACANT LAND, DOBBINS, CA The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. Total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale is: $55,886.02 In addition to cash, the trustee will accept a cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union, or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, or savings association, or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state. In the event tender other than cash is accepted the Trustee may withhold the issuance of the Trustee's Deed until funds become available to the payee or endorsee as a matter of right. Said sale will be made, but without covenant or warranty, express or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to satisfy the indebtedness secured by said Deed, advances thereunder, with interest as provided therein, and the unpaid principal balance of the Note secured by said Deed with interest thereon as provided in said Note, fees, charges and expenses of the trustee and the trusts created by said Deed of Trust. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (844) 477-7869 or visit this Internet Web site WWW.STOXPOSTING.COM, using the file number assigned to this case 098757-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: Effective January 1, 2021, you may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (855) 313-3319, or visit this internet website www.clearreconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 098757-CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

AND PERMANENT LOCAL HOUSING ALLOCATION
(PLHA) PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD
YUBA COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the Yuba County Board of Supervisors will conduct a public hearing on Tuesday December 13, 2022 at 9:00 a.m., or soon thereafter as the matter will be heard, in the Board of Supervisors Chambers located at 915 8th Street, Marysville, California, regarding the following:

The Board of Supervisors approved and adopted the PLHA 5-Year Plan on August 11, 2020. The Plan distributed the PLHA annual allocation between two (2) eligible activities: a) the pre-development, development, acquisition and rehabilitation and preservation of multifamily, residential live-work, rental housing that is affordable to extremely low, very low, low-or moderate income households, including necessary Operating subsidies; and, b) Homeownership opportunities, including down payment assistance.

Due to alternative funding opportunities that have become available for the projects originally identified in the 5-year PLHA Plan, the County is now amending the Plan to re-allocate PLHA funds entirely towards activity a) the predevelopment, development, acquisition and rehabilitation and preservation of multifamily, residential live-work, rental housing that is affordable to extremely low, very low, low-or moderate income households, including necessary Operating subsidies.

Written comments are welcomed and should be received no later than December 12, 2022 by 6 p.m. Written comments may be sent to the attention of Amanda Sztoltz, Project Manager of Yuba County Community Development and Services at asztoltz@co.yuba.ca.us or by mail at:

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER
ESTATE OF TONY WHEELER ZROFSKY
Case NO. PRPB22-00034

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate or both of Tony Wheeler Zrofsky

A Petition for Probate has been filed by: Tonya M. Kinyoun and Tracy M. Husted in the Superior Court of California, County of: Yuba

The Petition for Probate requests that (name): Tonya M. Kinyoun be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows: December 12, 2022 at 9:00 a.m. in Dept. 4 located at Superior Court of California, County of Yuba, 215 5th Street Ste. 200 Marysville, CA 95901.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58 (b) of the California Probate code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California Law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Added Depth Brings Size and Scoring to Strong Indians Roster

By Steven Bryla

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) - The Marysville boys varsity basketball team added more depth to its strong roster in the offseason as the Indians look to win their third consecutive Pioneer Valley League title.

Marysville is coming off its strongest season since 2014 where the Indians rallied up 24 wins, a PVL title and made it to the second round of the 2021 Division IV CIF Sac-Joaquin Section Basketball Playoffs. Head coach Stan Easter, who is beginning his 11th season at the helm, told the Territorial Dispatch that he recognized the power of being near the top of a division.

"We were chasing other schools for the league title, now we're that school everyone is chasing," Easter exclaimed.

He added that now that Marysville is the team being hunted, they're going to get everyone's best effort. The PVL added three new teams this season: Wheatland, Twelve Bridges and Sutter.

The Indians starting backcourt of senior guards consists of Joshua Brown Jr. and Ambelique Clarke. Senior guard Kayden Ellyson is a valuable sixth man who can keep the flow of the game going when the starters rest.

The three guards accounted for nearly half of Marysville's average points per game total last season. To help expand the roster and add depth, the Indians added size and scoring.

The first addition was senior guard Amrin Mann, who averaged 21.2 points at Sutter last season. Then there's junior Josiah Arrington who transferred from Foothill of Sacramento.

The 6-foot-5-inch forward gives the Indians more size on the floor.

"He's going to be able to help us with rebounding and size,"

Easter said about Arrington.

Easter mentioned to the Dispatch that his favorite defensive scheme is man-to-man but is always ready to adjust for different teams because every matchup presents a new challenge. He added that he wants to speed up the tempo this season. Easter preaches to his players to always make the right basketball play.

The Indians play a challenging non-conference schedule that includes three competitive tournaments that will be played before the end of 2022. Marysville will play in the Gold Dust Tournament at El Dorado High School that begins on Thursday, December 1 and concludes on Saturday, December 3.

Marysville will play in the Les Schwab Classic from December 8-10. The Indians will host their first home game on December 12 against West Campus. Marysville will conclude its tournament schedule when the Indians play in the second annual Coach Corn Classic at Yuba College from December 28-30. In the Coach Corn, the Indians will play 2022 CIF Division II State Champion, Elk Grove.

Easter explained to the Dispatch that he wanted to play against higher division competition to let his team see how they fare against the best of the best.

"Whether we win or lose those games, that will tell me a lot about my group and where we're at," Easter said.

Marysville starts PVL play on January 4 when they host Sutter, Mann's former team. ★

Could Monoclonal Antibodies Replace Opioids for Chronic Pain?

By Lisa Howard, UCD

DAVIS, CA (MPG) - During the pandemic, physicians used infusions of monoclonal antibodies — antibodies made in a lab — to help patients fight off COVID-19 infections. Now, researchers at UC Davis are trying to create monoclonal antibodies that can help fight chronic pain. The goal is to develop a monthly non-addictive pain medication that can replace opioids.

Vladimir Yarov-Yarovoy and James Trimmer, professors in the Department of Physiology and Membrane Biology at the UC Davis School of Medicine, are leading the project. They have assembled an interdisciplinary team featuring many of the same researchers who are also trying to turn tarantula venom into a pain medication.

Earlier this year, Yarov-Yarovoy and Trimmer received a $1.5 million grant from the National Institutes of Health's HEAL Initiative, an aggressive effort to speed scientific solutions to stem the national's opioid crisis.

People can become addicted to opioids due to chronic pain. The CDC National Center for Health Statistics showed an estimated 107,622 drug overdose deaths in the United States in 2021, an increase of nearly 15% from the 93,655 deaths estimated in 2020.

"Recent breakthroughs in structural and computational biology — using computers to understand and model biological systems — have set the stage for applying new approaches to create antibodies as superior therapeutic candidates to treat chronic pain," said Yarov-Yarovoy, the principal investigator for the award.

"Monoclonal antibodies are the fastest growing sector of the pharmaceutical industry and have many advantages over classical small molecule drugs," Trimmer said. Small molecule drugs are drugs that can easily enter cells. They are widely used in medicine.

Trimmer's lab has created thousands of different monoclonal antibodies for various purposes over many years, but this is the first attempt to generate antibodies aimed at pain relief.

Monoclonal antibodies are already being used for migraine

Although it may seem very futuristic, the Food and Drug Administration has already approved monoclonal antibodies to treat and prevent migraine. These new medications act on a migraine-associated protein called calcitonin gene-related peptide.

The project at UC Davis has a different target — specific ion channels in nerve cells known as voltage-gated sodium channels. The channels are like "pores" on the nerve cell.

"Nerve cells are responsible for transmitting pain signals in the body. Voltage-gated sodium ion channels in nerve cells are the key transmitters of pain," explained Yarov-Yarovoy. "We aim to create antibodies that will bind to these specific transmission sites at the molecular level, inhibiting their activity and stopping the transmission of pain signals."

The researchers are focused on three specific sodium ion channels associated with pain: NaV1.7, NaV1.8 and NaV1.9.

Their goal is to create antibodies that can fit into each of these channels like a key into a lock. This targeted approach is intended to stop the channels from sending pain signals but not interfere with other signals sent through the nerve cells.

The challenge is that the structures of the three channels they are attempting to block are incredibly complex.

Software programs help create virtual models

To address this, they are turning to software programs called Rosetta and AlphaFold. With Rosetta, the researchers are designing complex virtual models of proteins and analyzing which ones might best fit the NaV1.7, NaV1.8 and NaV1.9 nerve channels. With AlphaFold, the researchers independently validate proteins designed by Rosetta.

Once they identify several promising proteins, they will create antibodies that can then be tested on lab-created neural tissue. Human testing would be years away.

But the researchers are excited by the potential of this new approach. ★

Indians Earn Double-Digit Win Over Warriors in Season Opener

By Shaun Holkko, sports editor

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) - The Marysville boys varsity basketball team opened the 2022-23 season on Monday night with a double-digit victory against Johnson of Sacramento.

The Indians (1-0) defeated the Warriors (1-4) by a score of 84-67. Marysville created separation in the first half and led by 17 at halftime which was ultimately the difference in the final score. The Indians led 20-12 after the first quarter.

Marysville allowed 19 points in the second period, but scored 28 of their own, to lead 48-31 at halftime. Johnson narrowly outscored the Indians in the third, 16-15. Marysville then outscored the Warriors by one in the fourth at 21-20 and went on to win 84-67.

The Indians were led in scoring by two seniors: Joshua Brown Jr. and Amrin

Mann. Brown recorded a game-high 23 points on 9-of-14 from the field, 2-of-5 from three and a perfect 3-of-3 from the free-throw line. Mann, a transfer from Sutter, tallied 20 points on 6-of-12 from the field, 2-of-4 from behind the 3-point arc and 0-of-2 from the charity stripe.

Brown stuffed the stat sheet as he added seven assists, six steals and six rebounds but also had five turnovers. Another transfer, junior forward Josiah Arrington, led Marysville in rebounding and blocks with seven and three, respectively.

The back-to-back Pioneer Valley League Champions will play three games over the weekend in the Gold Dust Tournament held at El Dorado High School from Thursday, December 1 to Saturday. The Indians begin the tourney on Thursday night at 5:30 against Roseville (1-1). ★
