School Reopening Plan

Newsom Puts Tight Deadlines on Districts, Legislature

Schools must offer in-person instruction to students in transitional kindergarten through second, as well as students most at risk of disengaging from school, by Feb. 16, followed by third- through sixth-graders by March 15. MPG file photo

By Ricardo Cano, CalMatters.org

The record $89.5 billion education budget Gov. Gavin Newsom unveiled Friday includes $2 billion in grants aimed at nudging schools to reopen classrooms for its youngest students by mid-February and $4.6 billion for summer school to address students' learning.

The governor's push to reopen schools, though, comes as many of the state's large, urban districts have delayed or scaled back plans for in-person learning amid the state's worst surge in coronavirus cases since the pandemic initially closed schools almost a year ago.

School districts will also be under tight deadlines if they wish to receive the full $450 to $750 per student in grant funding. In order to get the full amounts, districts will have to submit to the state by Feb. 1 plans outlining the safety and testing measures for in-person learning with approval by their local employee unions, according to trailer bill language describing the program.

Schools then must offer in-person instruction to students in transitional kindergarten through second, as well as students most at risk of disengaging from school, by Feb. 16, followed by third- through sixth-graders by March 15.

Schools – and the governor – are under intense pressure from parents and communities to reopen campuses as they near the anniversary of their initial March 13 closures. In California, reopening schools has been left to local superintendents, schools boards and employee unions, resulting in a patchwork of school reopenings that's created a divide between private and public schools.

Newsom also is putting the Legislature under a time crunch by asking lawmakers to push through his proposed school-reopening grants in the next two weeks and the $4.6 billion learning loss plan by end of March, ahead of the traditional summer deadlines.

Aided by better-than-projected state revenues, Newsom's budget plan pays down two-thirds of the schools' $11 billion in deferrals. It also marks the most significant involvement by the governor in the state's charged school reopening debate since he introduced reopening guidelines in July that effectively kept most schools closed to start the year.

During his budget presentation Friday, Newsom affirmed his position that schools should be open for in-person instruction if done safely and spoke of his youngest children's struggle learning remotely.

“Those kids are falling through the cracks, and we have all the support in the world,” Newsom said. “I can't imagine what's happening for millions of other children. This is why this is so important.”

But the governor's reopening plan has come under criticism both from local

Health Departments and Providers to Accelerate Vaccinations

California Department of Public Health

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG)

The state issued vaccine recommendations to local public health departments and providers focused on accelerating the pace of COVID-19 vaccine administration. The recommendations clarify the state's vaccine prioritization process and that after appropriate efforts to reach highest priority groups, health departments and providers may offer doses to lower priority groups when high-priority demand subsides, or when doses are about to expire.

“California's health care providers have done incredible work thus far in vaccinating hundreds of thousands of Californians,” said Governor Gavin Newsom. “On behalf of our state, I thank our hospitals, doctors, nurses, and others for joining us in this all-hands-on-deck commitment to safely and quickly Vaccinate All 58. When Californians join together, our spirit of resiliency and innovation always wins. By continuing to take the precautions we need to get through this surge, and by ramping up safe and equitable vaccinations, we can and we will get through this darkest part of the tunnel to the light.”

To maximize vaccine administration and reduce the potential for waste, local health departments and providers should immediately administer COVID-19 vaccines to individuals in all tiers of Phase 1a. In addition to frontline health care workers, this includes a wide range of people in health care settings such as community health care workers, public health field staff, primary care clinics, specialty clinics, laboratory workers, dental clinics and pharmacy staff.

Local health departments and providers should make special efforts to administer vaccine to vaccinators and consider partnering with others to provide vaccinations for individuals in prioritized tiers. They may also allocate doses on the assumption that immunization will be accepted by some but not all who are offered the vaccine, and then continue to offer vaccinations in progressive priority tiers. For example, if a county has maximized use of the vaccine to administer individuals in Phase 1a, they should move to Tier 1 of Phase 1b while continuing to offer vaccines to those in higher priority groups.

Yuba-Sutter Toys for Tots Brings Christmas to 2,313 Local Kids!

By Bob Harlan, Yuba-Sutter-Colusa United Way

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) - Despite the significant influence of the COVID-19 virus this Christmas season, the Yuba-Sutter Toys for Tots organization was successful in providing 2,313 disadvantaged Yuba-Sutter children with 4,343 gifts, 432 books and 2,356 stocking stuffers!

Due to the virus, Yuba-Sutter Toys for Tots was unable to have its own giveaway through its long-standing “toy store” format where about 150 parents can select gifts for their children.

Instead, they beefed up their support of other local organizations to make sure their needs were filled for 2,313 children. The major drives that received the bulk of the gifts were SoYouCan, CHiPS for Kids and the Yuba-Sutter Salvation Army. Seven other organizations also received toys.

To replace Yuba-Sutter Toys for Tots “toy store” format, they teamed up with Yuba-Sutter Salvation

Army to provide a drive thru for 500 local families, providing toys and volunteers on December 22 at the Habitat for Humanity parking lot in Marysville.

“Toys for Tots is a pure form of giving, as we had NO overhead this year thanks to the donation of storage space, distribution and sorting space and an incredibly large number of generous businesses and individuals” said Bob Harlan, local coordinator of Yuba-Sutter Toys for Tots.

“In fact, we even get $13,000 in gifts from the Toys for Tots Foundation at no charge. That's in addition to the toys purchased with donated monies and the incredible donations from the very caring general public,” Harlan said.

The organization goes into hibernation until mid-year when planning and fundraising begins for the campaign which runs through almost all the fourth quarter of 2021.

“Christmas time 2021 should be a huge relief with, we hope, the virus in the rear-view mirror,” Harlan said. ★

Sees Candy is 100 years old this year. See's started back in 1921 when Mary See and her son Charles, moved to Los Angeles. Charles had dreams of opening a chain of chocolate shops using his mother's recipes and when they finally opened up their first shop at 135 Western Avenue North, in was at the time the outskirts of L.A. See's began delivering candy by mail in 1922, long before e-commerce was a thing, and in 1928 See's offered the first motorcycle delivery service in Los Angeles. By 1958, the candy company made history as the first confectionary enterprise to receive melted chocolate at their factories via tanker truck, a method still used today. Less than 1% of the buildings that burned down in Paradise have been rebuilt. Perhaps we will see the houses that were lost in Paradise coming to Plumas Lake and Linda. Seems like that is where the future growth is coming. In 2008 Yuba County topped the nation in most growth occurring all at once, Yuba Supervisors Dan Logue, Don Shrader, and John Nicoletti were successful in changing the General Land Use plan. The Multifarious Mystery of Marysville's Missing Monuments

By David Read, Yuba Sutter Arts

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) - The Ghost of Stephen J. Field Theatre presents "The Multifarious Mystery of Marysville's Missing Monuments." There is mystery afoot in California's Oldest Little City. What has happened to the statues honoring the indigenous Maidu who lived in the region for 10,000 years? What about the Murphy sisters, survivors of the infamous Donner Party? Where is the acknowledgement of the Chinese who represented more than one-quarter of Marysville's 19th century population? And how about the African American mountain man who led the first intact wagon train into Marysville? And then there was the opportunistic attorney who was the catalyst for the creation of the city, and who was named by Abraham Lincoln as the first Supreme Court Justice from the great American West.

Join local actor and historian, Chuck Smith, in the form of ghost host Supreme Court Justice Stephen J. Field, as he surveys highlights of the region's remarkable history and makes an informed argument for art in public spaces. This presentation aims to prompt a spirited debate about the need for greater public acknowledgement of our local history with murals and monuments allowing residents and visitors to learn about these fascinating historic characters.

Chuck has led several history-based presentations channeling the ghost of the fascinating and accomplished former resident, Stephen J. Field. In addition to

Manager Maupin Spends $4K to Influence Election

Fearful of losing his job, Jeff Maupin, the General Manager of the Brownsville based North Yuba Water District, spent $4,126.93 of the NYWD's money to have Crystal Martin public relations firm, Smart Marketing, print and mass mail 2,500 newsletters to the District's voters. This newsletter featured a photo of the North Yuba Water District Board, Doug Neilson (incumbent), Eric Hansard, Fred Mitchell (incumbent) and Gary Hawthorne (incumbent), on the front page. It is illegal for a taxpayer subsidized public agency to promote its incumbents for reelection. Manager Maupin has undermined the ability of the Yuba County Elections Department to administer a fair and honest election. Is it time for a reckoning? Is it time for Manager Maupin to be dismissed for so flagrantly breaking the law yet again? Paid for by Charles Sharp

Felony EDD Fraud Charges Filed

By Shelly Orio, Office of Sacramento County District Attorney

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - On January 4, 2021, nine felony counts of EDD fraud were filed against Walter Lee Dawson in Department 62 of the Sacramento Superior Court.

Dawson was arrested on December 3, 2020, when Sacramento Probation Officers and Sheriff's Deputies conducted a probation compliance search and recovered a Glock style pistol with no serial number, multiple rounds of 9 mm ammunition, approximately $58,000 in cash, approximately 3.8 pounds of marijuana, and packaging material consistent with marijuana sales. Dawson was arrested and charged with felon in possession of a firearm, felon in possession of ammunition, and possession of marijuana for sales charges in Sacramento Superior Court case number 20FE019364.

During the search, nine EDD debit cards issued in different names were also recovered as were approximately 20 additional EDD documents in various people's names. After Dawson's arrest, a joint investigation by the District Attorney, Probation Department, Sheriff's Office, and the California Employment Development Department Investigations Division revealed that approximately $219,000 had been fraudulently acquired by Dawson when he obtained the nine EDD cards. Dawson, who has prior strike convictions for residential burglary and attempted residential burglary, was arraigned today on an amended felony complaint that added nine felony counts of EDD fraud. With the additional charges, Dawson faces a maximum sentence of 19 years, 4 months in state prison.

The Sacramento District Attorney will continue to investigate and prosecute EDD fraud, which cheats rightful recipients out of much needed assistance and costs Californians billions in lost tax dollars. ★ school leaders who say it would do little to help districts most impacted by the virus, as well as teachers unions pushing against reopening schools as cases climb.

Los Angeles Unified superintendent Austin Beutner said Monday that the governor's plan "falls well short of what's needed to help our schools" because it neither sets across-the-board safety standards nor sets a requirement for when schools should reopen. "It leaves the definition of a safe school environment and the standard for reopening classrooms up to the individual discretion of 1,037 school districts across the state, creating a patchwork of safety standards in the face of a statewide health crisis," Beutner said. "And it reverses a statewide commitment to equity-based funding of schools."

Beutner, leader of the state's largest school district, and six other superintendents from large, urban districts raised concerns about Newsom's reopening plan ahead of its release. The superintendents pushed back against the proposed $2 billion coming out of the state fund earmarked for K-12 schools and community colleges. In a Jan. 6 letter, they said the proposal shuts many of their schools and students out of grant funding because they reside in communities with some of the state's highest case rates.

The nonpartisan Legislative Analyst's Office also raised concerns about the reopening plan, writing that the "proposal sets unfeasible time lines" in an analysis of the governor's budget.

Suzanne Kitchens, president of the California School Boards Association, praised Newsom's budget plan for easing the financial strain on schools by paying down most of the deferrals, as well proposing a 3.84% cost-of-living adjustment for schools, but added that "we have work to do on both the school reopening and summer school plans."

"While some schools will undoubtedly take advantage of the incentives to reopen schools this spring, others are not in a position to do so given community health concerns, local standards, funding, resource staffing, and capacity limitations," Kitchens said.

Newsom's budget does not propose extending the school funding protections that held attendance-based funding flat this school year. The proposal assumes in-person learning as the "default mode of instruction" during the 2021-22 school year for funding purposes.

As California schools begin the new semester, most will remain learning remotely, many indefinitely. Some of the state's districts, such as San Francisco, have yet to come to agreement with their local teachers union on how to reopen schools. Others, such as Oakland, have said they planned to reopen campuses once their counties reach the orange tier at the request of their unions — a requirement more stringent than what state public health officials allow for in-person learning.

A key distinction between Newsom's reopening plan and legislation Democratic lawmakers introduced last month is that the governor's effort does not establish a requirement for when schools have to reopen.

Assembly Bill 10, which legislators plan to advance this month, would require that schools offer in-person instruction starting in March once their county moves out of the state's purple tier. The bill is in response to the fact that many school districts, primarily those in Bay Area counties, stayed closed after they had clearance from public-health authorities to reopen.

Teachers unions have pushed back against Newsom's plan and AB 10, saying schools should not reopen without extensive health and safety measures and until after the state's current surge.

"We are in the middle of a devastating COVID-19 surge, and any discussion of returning to in-person instruction is premature," Jeff Freitas, president of the California Federation of Teachers, said Friday.

Other highlights from Newsom's education budget include: $315 million to support teacher professional development, such as social-emotional learning and implicit bias training; $300 million in special education funding, with an emphasis on services for infants, toddlers and preschoolers, adding to the $100 million for special-needs students passed last year; $400 million in one-time funds toward preventative and early intervention behavioral health services for students; $15 million to continue developing the state's cradle-to-career longitudinal data system, an effort Newsom championed since his first year in office; A requirement that high school seniors complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, known as FAFSA.

Patrick Henry's Militias

Commentary
by Lou Binninger

Politicians have been complicit in Yuba-Sutter Health Officer Phuong Luu's prohibition of public gatherings to suppress freedom. Good communists justify stopping meetings and dissent by saying it is for your own good or the good of others.

That has always been the case in troubling times. Prior to technological advances social and political movements survived on gatherings. In colonial times the venue was the church, inn or pub. The persecuted early church used homes.

In the ramp-up to the Revolutionary War, patriots moved their Second Virginia Convention from the capitol of Williamsburg to avoid harassment from pro-British Virginia Governor John Murray Earl of Dunmore. The gathering was relocated March 20, 1775 to St. John's Episcopal Church in Richmond.

Delegate Patrick Henry, a lawyer and farmer, presented resolutions to establish a militia in every county for a defense of the colony. Henry's opponents urged caution and patience until the British Crown replied to Congress' latest petition for reconciliation.

After Henry's plea for a militia, on April 20, 1775, one day after the Battles of Lexington and Concord (and well before news of those events reached Virginia), Governor Lord Dunmore ordered the removal of the gunpowder from the armory in Williamsburg to a Royal Navy ship.

This action sparked local push-back, and militias began mustering throughout the colony. Patrick Henry led a small company toward Williamsburg to force return of the gunpowder to the colony's control. The matter was resolved without conflict when a payment of £330 was made to Henry for the powder. Dunmore, fearing for his life, later retreated to a naval vessel, ending royal control of the colony.

Dunmore's gunpowder move was similar to the current democrat-communist promise to remove guns after taking office. It caused Henry's militias to quickly form a defense of the colony. Read excerpts from Henry's convention plea to fight below:

"Our petitions have been slighted; our remonstrances have produced additional violence and insult; our supplications have been disregarded; and we have been spurned, with contempt, from the foot of the throne. In vain, after these things, may we indulge the fond hope of peace and reconciliation? There is no longer any room for hope. If we wish to be free, if we mean to preserve inviolate those inestimable privileges for which we have been so long contending, if we mean not basely to abandon the noble struggle in which we have been so long engaged, and which we have pledged ourselves never to abandon until the glorious object of our contest shall be obtained, we must fight! I repeat it, sir, we must fight! An appeal to arms and to the God of Hosts is all that is left us!

Three millions of people, armed in the holy cause of liberty, and in such a country as that which we possess, are invincible by any force which our enemy can send against us. Besides, sir, we shall not fight our battles alone. There is a just God who presides over the destinies of nations; and who will raise up friends to fight our battles for us. The battle, sir, is not to the strong alone; it is to the vigilant, the active, the brave. Besides, sir, we have no election. If we were base enough to desire it, it is now too late to retire from the contest. There is no retreat but in submission and slavery! Our chains are forged! Their clanking may be heard on the plains of Boston! The war is inevitable and let it come! I repeat it, sir, let it come.

Gentlemen may cry, Peace, Peace but there is no peace. The war is actually begun! The next gale that sweeps from the north will bring to our ears the clash of resounding arms! Our brethren are already in the field! Why stand we here idle? What is it that gentlemen wish? What would they have? Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!"

YOUR ONE MINUTE NEWS DIGEST

- A poor deluded snowflake letter writer to the mainstream media blats his lip at the fact that Trump has not conceded the 2020 election. Has he forgotten that the Democrats still haven't conceded the 2016 election? Selective outrage.
- A snowflake Democrat ends a prayer from the congressional podium with "amen, awoman." Since amen loosely translated means "that's all, folks" what in the blue blazes does "awoman" mean?
- If our rivers were being polluted by industry, as they are by the homeless, could you imagine the apoplexy, fines, jail-time and literal lynching that would be coming out of the mouths of the environmentalists? Hypocrites.
- What else is new? The mainstream media and its minions are raising their voices to the wind complaining that Trump is not doing what they say he should with the vaccine. A reminder. If the Democrats had control, they would still be arguing over whether there was enough "diversity" on the team tasked with developing a vaccine.
- Money for climate change and gun control is included in the Wuhan Chinese virus bill out of Congress. Why not money to research the cause of hang nails?
- Professional ball players are taking to the fields earning their 6 and 7 figure incomes as "essential workers." At the same time hair salon workers, restaurant employees or pastors are unable to feed their families or pay their bills. Aren't politicians the cat's meow?
- Our national motto, selected in 1776 by John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, has been and is now "E Pluribus Unum." Out of many, one. The Democrats have conveniently forgotten our motto by their insistence on celebrating and requiring diversity in our daily lives while suppressing Diversity of thought.

Only their beliefs can be thought and practiced. Their sickness is worse than any foreign virus and far more deadly to the future of America.

- The snowflake lefties act like they believe that people of color are incompetent and incapable of doing anything without their help such as getting government contracts, enrolling in school or obtaining a job unless government forces the issue. This is insulting, but almost universally believed by lefties.
- Change the names of military bases? Destroy the history of a huge part of our country? As a reminder, Bragg, Hood, Benning, Lee and several other Army Posts were named for Confederate Generals one hundred years ago as part of the reconciliation of the North and the South after a reunion at Gettysburg of Union and Confederate veterans. The two sides joined together as Americans, as part of the same nation but with diverse (!) experiences, putting the past behind and respecting each other. Shall we now erase what they did? Haven't we more important and legitimate matters to attend to?
- Another pork bill. And Pelosi seems satisfied that only $600 is going to Americans (remember several months ago she called the $1,000 checks crumbs). It is supposed to be a virus stimulus bill? Why then does Pakistan get $15 million for democracy programs (?) and $10 million for gender programs? What do you think about funds for "Resource Study of Springfield (Illinois) Race Riot?" This riot occurred in 1908. Can you abide the "Statement Of Policy Regarding The Succession or Reincarnation Of The Dalai Lama?" Congress is supposed to represent and care for Americans. Employment Development Department Another Name For Titanic Disaster

By Dan Walters
CALMatters

"Rearranging deck chairs on the Titanic" is an overworked cliché, but it certainly applies to California's Employment Development Department.

The name itself is a farce. There's no evidence that EDD ever developed any jobs, other than employing thousands of bureaucrats to pay out unemployment insurance benefits – and that's been a Titanic disaster.

This week, EDD suspended payments to many Californians in its latest effort to deal with massive fraud that erupted when Congress pumped many billions of dollars into the unemployment insurance system for workers who lost jobs due to COVID-19.

"As part of ongoing efforts to fight fraud, EDD has suspended payment on claims considered high risk and is informing those affected that their identity will need to be verified starting this week before payments can resume," the agency tweeted on Sunday.

The suspensions were ordered a few days after EDD's much-criticized director, Sharon Hilliard, abruptly retired – whether voluntarily or otherwise – and Gov. Gavin Newsom replaced her with veteran apparatchik Rita Saenz.

The fraud scandal is doubly embarrassing for Newsom because the agency was already on the hot seat for failing to deliver timely payments to hundreds of thousands of legitimate claimants and still has a massive backlog of unprocessed claims.

The Los Angeles Times, in a lengthy examination of the fraud scandal, pointed out that EDD had failed to adopt "precautions implemented in other states, including using sophisticated software to identify suspect applications, keeping Social Security numbers out of official mail and cross-checking benefit claims against personal data on state prison inmates."

The agency had a contract with a firm, Pondera Solutions, that had successfully used publicly available data to flag potentially fraudulent claims, but cancelled it when federal funds for the fraud-prevention program expired.

So EDD fell hugely behind on legitimate unemployment claims and approved billions of dollars in fraudulent claims. What else could possibly go wrong?

Two years ago, state Auditor Elaine Howle advised the Legislature that EDD was exposing people to identity theft by placing Social Security numbers on mail. The volume of such mail has exploded during the pandemic but EDD ignored the warning and "has continued to place Californians at risk of identity theft," Howle said in a recent letter to Newsom.

Finally, the surge of unemployment claims has created a gigantic debt.

California borrowed more than $10 billion from the federal government to pay benefits during the recession that began in 2007. The feds hiked taxes on California employers to pay off the debt and by the end of 2019, a year of low unemployment, the unemployment insurance fund had a $3.3 billion balance.

However, during 2020, the state paid out more than $100 billion in benefits, about a quarter in employer-financed regular benefits and the rest in emergency federal aid. The state unemployment fund was more than $20 billion in the red at the end of 2020 and, EDD projects, will end 2021 with a negative balance of nearly $50 billion.

When state unemployment funds dry up, benefits continue with federal loans that states must repay. California's previous $10 billion debt took years to repay, and it now could face a $50 billion debt. The state may hope for loan forgiveness, but if it's not forthcoming, employers will be saddled with new taxes that would make recovery from recession even more difficult.

If there's a political price to be paid for EDD's seemingly endless crises, it will fall on Newsom, especially if a pending recall drive places his career on the ballot later this year.

Inconsistencies I See in America Revolving Around Covid And Politics

We told to shut down the economy and wear masks. Honestly, I am no medical expert. Economics sure, but no medical training what so ever.

I am big on social media however so I see the *storms that blow up between my brothers and sisters on the mask debate. I wear them because I think "what the hell" but media is full of articles from one side saying masks do nothing and from the other side in favor of them. Both have medical experts claiming one way or the other. Does anyone really know?

No not really. And don't tell me otherwise. Like I said, both sides have their medical experts.

Shutdowns have caused untold economic damage. No arguments there. But whether we should have or not is also a screaming fest.

We shut down as did many other countries, yet CoVid is as bad as it ever was and getting worse. Many say it's because not everyone wore masks and not everyone shut down. Well the reality is you likely cannot do any better. At least no here in the states.

Not everyone will comply and that is the reality of it. So blaming others may feel right, but the fact may be you will not be able to do any better so why try it again?

And talking shut downs, while any even small gatherings were banned, thousands were allowed to protest in the street, yelling, spitting and what have you, and apparently that was "for a good cause" so it was allowed.

Huh?

The vaccine is out but like many government run programs, it is rumored to be a mess. Plainly put, there is not enough of it getting to enough people in a timely fashion. Government run. Not a fan.

Political inconsistencies don't take a back seat to CoVid.

Trump claims the election was fraudulent yet he is not backed up by the justice system. Frankly, both sides claim they are right. The inconsistency here is the last few elections the Dems claimed fraud, wanting an audit. Now the Republicans take the stand while the Dems say nope, not proper.

I don't know nor do most if the election was fraudulent or not, but if it was, shame on those that perpetrated it. That in my opinion is worse than the 2008 bailouts of homeowners that bought too much house. What happened to responsibility and reading what you sign?

Senator Chuck Schumer (Dem) says the capital take over was a day in infamy, putting on par with Pearl Harbor.

Really Chuck?

I watched the news and saw a desk or two broken and people mulling around the ivory halls but nothing like the burning and looting we saw earlier in the year. While officers were told to stand down, monuments and businesses were trashed, people harassed, beaten and shot, and whole city blocks occupied.

That, in my opinion, are the days of infamy, or should I say, months of infamy.

Are you listening Chuck?

I can't find any inciteful words from the Potus really, which encouraged a Capitol take over, but they want to remove him before his last two weeks are up.

I would ask: What's the point?

Seems to me I heard a lot more insidious words from BLM protest leaders threatening to "burn down the system" if someone did not "do something". Nothing specific about what exactly should be done mind you. Anyway, that's my take on it.

I could go on but you get the point.

And no, I am not a racist, which is another Goebbels type tactic to incite a radical position. In other words, get the madness of crowds to label you a nasty word if you disagree with something totally unrelated. Works for sheep but not for the intelligent.

Like most political stances, I am sure I'll take a little heat here for today's article but in reality I speak from observation and not from personal preference.

In my opinion, the world has gone a little crazy and hopefully, like the madness of crowds, where people lose their common sense and decency in crowds, yet regain their senses only one by one, we can hope both the planet and our brothers and sisters give us all a break in 2021.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER
ESTATE OF Doris R. Higgins aka
Doris Rae Higgins
Case NO. PRPB20-00137

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate or both of Doris R. Higgins aka Doris Rae Higgins.

A Petition for Probate has been filed by: John Adam Higgins in the Superior Court of California, County of: Yuba

The Petition for Probate requests that (name): John Adam Higgins be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows: January 25, 2021 at 9:00 a.m. in Dept. 4 located at Superior Court of California, County of Yuba, 215 5th Street Ste. 200 Marysville, CA 95901.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58 (b) of the California Probate code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California Law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Communist Cabal and You CLG NEWS UPDATES

Provided by Citizens for Legitimate Government (CLG) See legitgov.org

Commentary
by Lou Binninger

There is a saying that goes something like "There are three types of people: those who make things happen, those who watch things happen, and those who wonder what happened." That can be said of those experiencing the current communist takeover of America. Most citizens are in the last group, with some in the middle group, and a few in the first.

There has been a planned undermining of America for decades that suddenly escalated when Donald Trump announced his run for president. Trump loves America, its people, its ideals and its heritage. The communists and the globalists hate everything he and America stands for. So, Trump needed to be stopped.

Trump saw the corruption, the selling-out of America's assets and soul by both parties, and the quest for a one-world authoritarian government. If Hillary Clinton had been elected, the nefarious objective would have been secured.

President John F. Kennedy witnessed the same evil manipulating the nation. Kennedy openly declared he would stop them and was quickly assassinated in Dallas. Trump comes in the spirit of JFK. He made the same JFK declaration that he would ariht America (MAGA) but instead of killing Trump there has been a 5-year carpet bombing with lies, evil propaganda, and government resistance.

Meanwhile, the churches that could and should have been the bulwarks of righteousness and truth stood for neither and succumbed shamefully without a fuss.

The finely planned and orchestrated takeover included a coordinated media propaganda move calling good bad and bad good. Politicians and bureaucrats undermined the President's reformation of socialist America. Trump's own staff backstabbed him routinely and continually leaked sensitive information. Some department heads were not only insubordinate but committed treason.

BLM, Antifa, and Covid 19 were all used to throw the country into chaos, destroy small businesses, and cancel churches and gatherings. Masks, social distancing, and self-isolation had nothing to do with medical science but everything to do with quashing networking, dissent, and freedom. The next step now occurring is to severely censor all social media so only the Communist re-education information survives.

Gatherings of all types from spontaneous interaction in the marketplace to organized disdain with the cancel culture are forbidden and hindered. Even doctors alarmed at the lies being perpetrated are censored, mocked by the corrupt medical dictatorship and even fired.

Pre-emptive inexpensive medical treatments to prevent Covid patients from needing hospitalization were banned, lied about and delayed by Tony Fauci and Deborah Birx. Hydroxychloroquine (and other cures) was prohibited and declared a dangerous treatment until the election was stolen and then it was declared to be safe and effective.

Allowing medically fragile people with Covid to become seriously ill was a plan to overwhelm the ICUs. It was completely avoidable. Again, the objective was to create fear, panic and chaos.

Devious instigators also needed to generate some Covid death stats which were easy by mismanaging the medically fragile. Communists and the global cabal never have shirked from thinning the herd. If you are not troubled by killing millions of babies annually, then seniors with medical conditions are no great loss.

Then, a coordinated daily drilling of chaotic and misleading Covid stats attempted to portray the common cold as a pandemic. Meanwhile, nearly all deaths from any causes were added to the Covid 'deadly scenario.' Stabbings, shootings, overdoses, heart attacks and cancer deaths were now Covid-caused.

The use of a fraudulent testing system for Covid is quack medicine at its finest. The PCR test shows negative when it is positive and positive when negative. It is lunacy. People with no symptoms and a positive test could close an entire department, business or even a medical office. The government at all levels has been complicit in crushing businesses and killing people.

Cooperative local politicians should receive medals and commendations as good comrades if the communists prevail. If you still can't figure it all out then wait indoors for further instructions.

Petition to recall Gov. Gavin Newsom attracts 1 million signatures in California – Petition needs just 500,000 more signees by mid-March deadline | 08 Jan 2021 | A renewed push to recall California Gov. Gavin Newsom has attracted more than 1 million signatures, with 9 weeks left to collect the remaining 500,000 needed to place the measure on the ballot. Overall, the effort needs roughly 1.5 million people to sign on by mid-March, which would trigger a mid-year election. "The people are being heard loud and clear, and it is not a matter of IF we are going to reach our goal necessary that will trigger a recall election of Newsom, it is just when we cross the finish line," Orrin Heatlie, the Lead Proponent of the official RecallGavin2020.com, said in a statement.

Ex-Capitol Police Chief Says Pelosi, McConnell's Sergeants at Arms Refused Security Measures While New Timeline Proves 'Trump Incitement' Claims Bogus | 11 Jan 2021 | The Washington Post has reported that the outgoing Capitol Police Chief, Steve Sund, believes his efforts to secure the premises were undermined by a lack of concern from House and Senate security officials who answer directly to Speaker Nancy Pelosi and Senate leader Mitch McConnell. The National Pulse can also report the Washington Post's timeline proves it was impossible for Trump speech attendees to have made it to the Capitol in time for the breach. In addition to the fact that Trump openly called for the "cheering on" of Congressman, and "peaceful" protests, the timeline as established from numerous, establishment media reports simply doesn't stack up.

IT Expert and Global Defense Contractor Testifies in Italian Court That He and Others Rigged Machines to Switch Votes to Biden in US Election | 06 Jan 2021 | An employee of one of the world largest defense contractors, Leonardo SpA, has sounded the alarm and provided a shocking deposition detailing his role in the most elaborate criminal act affecting a US election. Arturo Delio outlined the scheme that proved successful in using Leonardo computer systems and military satellites located in Pescara, Italy. Recent reports of a hack at Leonardo now appear to have been an orchestrated cover to mitigate blowback on the corporation which is partially owned by the Italian government. A press release by Nations In Action revealed details:

Nations In Action, a government transparency organization, partnered with the Institute of Good Governance to thoroughly investigate and research the election irregularities which yielded the long awaited proof that a flawless plot to take down America was executed with extraordinary resources and global involvement. Americans and elected officials now have proof that the election was indeed stolen. This provides the mechanism for each state to recall their slate of electors immediately or face lawsuits and request all federal government agencies to lock down all internal communications, equipment and documentation from the Rome Embassy. "Make no mistake, this is a coup d'etat that we will stop in the name of justice and free and fair elections," stated Maria Strollo Zack, Chairman of Nations In Action.

Rasmussen: Trump's Approval Rating Rises After DC Protests | 08 Jan 2021 | The Rasmussen poll, one of the most accurate polls of the 2020 election, finds President Trump's approval is actually rising after Wednesday's protests. As Democrats move to impeach and some establishment Republicans call for the 25th Amendment to remove Trump, the poll finds 48% approve of the President's job performance. A source close to the polling firm tells Newsmax that the rolling survey saw Trump's approval soar to 51% on Thursday night. Trump's approval has been up overall, jumping from 45% just before Christmas.

Federal Prosecutor Opens Excessive Force Investigation Into the Death of Ashli Babbitt - Report | 09 Jan 2021 | Michael Sherwin, acting U.S. attorney for the District of Columbia, said that his office has started a federal, excessive force investigation over the shooting and killing of former U.S. Air Force veteran Ashli Babbitt in the Capitol on Jan. 6. Sherwin confirmed the investigation with CBS News. His civil rights section will lead the prosecution, which is being investigated by D.C. police and the FBI.

The Most Definitive Video Yet of Capitol Police Letting the Protesters Enter the Building | 08 Jan 2021 | A protester was shot and killed and a Capitol Police officer died after protesters at a Trump rally poured into the Capitol Building and became violent. Soon thereafter, videos of crowds being allowed in by Capitol Police began to appear. Indeed, two reporters from The Washington Examiner spoke with dozens of people who said that Capitol Police simply allowed them to come into the Capitol Building as they do with visitors. And now there's a definitive video showing that not only were police letting the protesters in, but a phalanx of police watched them let the protesters into the building.

Trump Promises 'Orderly Transition' After Biden Certified as President-Elect | 07 Jan 2021 | President Donald Trump early Jan. 7 promised there would be an orderly transition on Jan. 20, while vowing to continue to fight to better America. "Even though I totally disagree with the outcome of the election, and the facts bear me out, nevertheless there will be an orderly transition on January 20th. I have always said we would continue our fight to ensure that only legal votes were counted," Trump said in a statement. "While this represents the end of the greatest first term in presidential history, it's only the beginning of our fight to Make America Great Again!"

ABC News Political Director Calls for Cleansing of Trump Voters | 07 Jan 2021 | ABC News Political Director Rick Klein called for the "cleansing" of Trump supporters Thursday following the Capitol Hill chaos, which featured the president's loyal followers storming the complex. "Trump will be an ex-president in 13 days. The fact is that getting rid of Trump is the easy part," Klein wrote in a since-deleted post on Twitter, which already banned the president for 12 hours after the riots and teed up a permanent suspension. "Cleansing the movement he commands is going to be something else." Klein's calls for cleansing are reminiscent of leftist demands to reprimand the 74 million Americans who voted for the president in the November election last year. ★

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BID-

DERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on this property.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (866)-960-8299 or visit this Internet Web site <http://www.altisource.com/MortgageServices/DefaultManagement/TrusteeServices.aspx> using the file number assigned to this case 2020-01160-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale.

NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction, if conducted after January 1, 2021, pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (866)-960-8299, or visit this internet website <http://www.altisource.com/MortgageServices/DefaultManagement/TrusteeServices.aspx>, using the file number assigned to this case 2020-01160-CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid, by remitting the funds and affidavit described in Section 2924m(c) of the Civil Code, so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase.
