MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) - Not to make light of what we have all been going through this year, but sometimes when you get a bunch of lemons dropped on you, you just gotta make lemonade and that's exactly what some of our local artists have been doing. Now, more than ever, art is necessary to bring joy, to bring wonder, to bring a glimpse of hope during this time that is so challenging and difficult.

Yuba Sutter Arts & Culture is proud to announce not one, but two outstanding pandemic-inspired art programs coming up in December. First up is COVID Stories - Making Art in A Pandemic, a two-venue art exhibition organized by Visual Artist-in-Residence, Tina Linville. For several months, Tina has led an art mentorship program for local emerging artists. This show will feature the work of program participants and a few others including Ash Arroyo, Sara Cabigas and Jhet Cabigas, Kathleen Childers, Rachelle Dannible, Sue Graue, Laura Lake Peterson, Joe Lloyd, Tina Linville, Alexandra Sprowls and Amelia Villagomez.

An Opening Reception for COVID Stories will be held December 5, 2020 from 10am - 2pm in Yuba Sutter Arts & Culture's Gallery, 624 E Street, Marysville and simultaneously at Four Fourteen Gallery, 414 4th Street, Marysville. The show will continue to be available for viewing by appointment at both locations through January 31, 2021. Masks and social distancing will be required in the galleries.

And then, get ready for a Corona Comedy Concert featuring satire and music with Joe Moye and Tom Galvin. The concert will be streamed live on Yuba Sutter Arts & Culture's Facebook page and its YouTube channel on December 6 at 7pm. The pandemic has inspired the creation of all forms of artwork around the world as artists seek to make sense of the senseless. Joe and Tom are two of our favorite local artists, musicians and poets and they have

$2 Million Now Available in Sutter County COVID-19 Relief Grants

Sutter County Press Release

SUTTER COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Sutter County's community support program has resulted in grants totaling almost $2 million to 104 small businesses and 31 non-profit agencies impacted by COVID-19.

The Sutter County Board of Supervisors authorized the Small Business Economic Resiliency Grant program in response to the financial losses encountered by businesses during the pandemic. The program was possible because of federal funding authorized in the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Recovery Act signed by President Trump in the summer after bi-partisan approval in Congress. The Yuba-Sutter Economic Development Corporation administered the program.

"We're very proud of this program and our partnership with Yuba Sutter Economic Development Corporation to get money into the hands of our local businesses and non-profits who were impacted as a result of COVID-19," said Ron Sullenger, chair, Sutter County Board of Supervisors.

Altogether, Sutter County has authorized up to $4 million to go toward community support programs to help our County recover. In addition to the small business and non-profit programs, Sutter County has given $145,875 to the Yuba Sutter Food Bank to help with home food delivery for vulnerable people and to respond the greater need for food distribution due to COVID-19's impact on the local economy. The Sutter County Superintendent of Schools is administering an $800,000 program to provide support to families who have increased child care costs due to school closures. ★

Marysville Fire Awarded Grant for New Emergency Equipment

City of Marysville

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) - Marysville Fire Department was awarded a Regional $86,000 grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety (OTS) for new extrication equipment. Known as the "jaws of life," first responders use these specialized tools to reach crash victims trapped inside a vehicle. The grant will support equipment for the Loma Rica and Marysville Fire Department.

So far this year, Marysville Fire Department has responded to 136 crashes in which 9 required extrication.

"The faster we are able to reach someone who is injured, the faster we can get them the help they need," said Marysville Fire Department, Fire Chief, Ron Karlen. "New extrication equipment allows us to do just that because they are lighter and easier to operate." "Emergency response is a critical ally for traffic safety," OTS Director Barbara Rooney said. "This much-needed funding provides first responders with the necessary tools to assist crash victims."

Delays in extrication can negatively impact the patient's critical "golden hour" of survival. The "golden hour" for Emergency Medical Services is the core principle of helping individuals with critical injuries: 1) get to the patient quickly, 2) treat what can be treated on scene, and 3) transfer the patient to a hospital.

Anything that can be done to reduce each of these time periods aids in recovery and survival.

Funding for this program was provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety, through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. ★

News Outlook

By Josh F.W. Cook

Last week, an advertisement in this prestigious and respected journal of local importance invited people to hear a message from Dr. Russell Nelson, President of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The short video message launched an international effort to share stories of gratitude on social media and tag each post with the marker #givethanks. So far, there have been over 5 million stories shared with that hashtag. The Church is inviting everyone who believes in the power of gratitude to share stories of Thankfulness this week. In times of depression, annoyance, sadness, despair, and frustration, the premise is that focusing on gratitude is actually a tool to heal. In my Military Chaplaincy training, I did graduate work at the Jesuit University of San Francisco, and my first Chaplain Assistant assignment was with a Jewish Rabbi, Captain Matt Friedman. In the military, the pluralistic (lots of faiths, not just one) approach to religious practice taught me to appreciate and study many faiths' thoughts and ideas. I thought today I would take some time to share the best thoughts I found from the various religions I encountered while in uniform. I am ever thankful to all of the Soldiers and Airmen who shared how they connect to God. Below are some thoughts on gratitude from other faiths I have come to respect and admire. Catholicism gives us these: "Let us remember the past with gratitude, live the present with enthusiasm, and look forward to the future with confidence." Spoken by Saint John Paul II, and St. Theresa of Calcutta offered: "The best way to show my gratitude to God is to accept everything, even my problems, with joy." From the wisdom of the Sikh, we find these two quotes: "Attitude of gratitude brings you opportunities beyond your concept. And when the prayer becomes the vibration of the soul, mind, and self, we can create a miracle." And for the more orthodox Sikh, the words of Siri Guru Granth Sahib Ji: "In the most horrible hell, there is terrible pain and suffering. It is the place of the ungrateful." From Judaism and

Rabbi Jonathan Sacks we have this: "Thankfulness has an inner connection with humility. It recognizes that what we are and what we have is due to others and above all, to God." For the more Protestant leaning of the Christians, the Episcopal Rev. Canon Heather L. Melton "If you are never enough, or never have enough, all you do is grapple with trying to overcome scarcity and get enough or be enough. But, if we live a life of gratitude and give thanks that we are enough and that we have enough, we'll find a lifestyle of abundance." Understanding that religiosity is on the decline, I would invite you to consider the number of people who believe religion helps them cope with and find meaning in life. I am one of the believers, and for the last column during Thanksgiving month, I wanted to share that if the current state of the world has you feeling unsure or unhappy, grab onto gratitude and share a few of the things that are going right in your life with someone else. Do it in person or on digital media. Together, we can create a bubble of hope and happiness that will give others a place to start.  Josh F.W. Cook is an educator and public administrator. ★

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) - The Marysville Fire Department was dispatched to the area known as Hollywood Trailer Park for a vehicle fire with spread to the vegetation on Thursday, October 15, 2020, at 6:33 p.m. Crews arrived on scene to find vehicles on fire with vegetation involved off Simpson Lane. Additional resources were requested and assisted with containing the fire from numerous agencies from Yuba and Sutter County and CAL FIRE. The fire took approximately four hours to contain and eight hours to extinguish.

The clean up process of the impacted area(s) would not have been as successful as it was without help from our community, volunteers, businesses and staff. A local nonprofit group, SAYlove, volunteered with clean up on October 31, 2020. Recology provided several dumpsters for hauling off debris and waste for free. City staff from multiple departments have spent numerous hours removing burned out vehicles and trailers, which were towed to the local recycle facility through the Marysville Police Department vehicle abatement program. Staff have also been working on garbage clean up and vegetation removal to assist with getting vehicles out and creating staging locations for future cleanup. Staff continue to provide support resources to individuals inhabiting existing encampments and cleanup continues with vehicle abatement and garbage removal. The council approved Emergency funding to continue the cleanup and site security. We are in the process of blocking off vehicle access temporarily while we come up with long term solutions. ★

Tribal Lawsuit Hits Home

By Seti Long

GRIDLEY, CA (MPG) - A woman with familial roots in Gridley and her husband have recently been sued by the Berry Creek Rancheria of Maidu Indians, for $38 million in damages. The Lawsuit filed October 22nd by the tribe against former Gold Country Casino employees Deborah Howard (Brown) and Jesse Brown, alleges that the two carried out a pattern of fraud and money laundering, to the tune of $1.3 million. Howard, who worked as Chief Financial Officer and Brown, as Tribal Administrator for the casino are accused of hiding their relationship and resulting marriage from the tribe during their employment, while allegedly misappropriating tribal assets together. This was done in four ways: 1) Howard issued a secret credit card to Mr. Brown on which they would make more than $1.3 million in personal expenditures; (2) Misappropriating over $200,000 in cash withdrawals over the course of five holiday seasons that were meant to provide Christmas gifts to tribal youth; (3) Skimming more than $1.1 million of cash receipts from the Smoke Shop operated by Berry Creek before depositing the remainder of the funds into the Tribe's bank account; and (4) giving themselves upwards of $250,000 in unauthorized payroll distributions by manipulating the system. The pair is accused of using tribal funds to bankroll trips to Las Vegas, lavish hotel stays, concert tickets, Ultimate Fighting Championship (UFC) tickets, trips to Disneyland and more. Business owned by Howard and Brown, the Exchange restaurant in Oroville and the Makeup Room and Company in Gridley are both mentioned in the suit, the tribe claiming that they were established with misappropriated funds. Subsequently, the writing is on the wall for the two businesses. While the fate of The Exchange is not 100 percent clear, The Makeup Room and Company located in downtown Gridley, which is comprised of a boutique and salon providing hair, nail, massage therapy and aesthetician services, will be closing and liquidating inventory. The salon services portion of the business will continue to operate as usual. Cindy Stowe of Cindy's Country and More plans to open a clothing boutique in the building and combine forces with the salon portion, creating a new downtown business, Cindy's & Co. ★

Fog Causes Deadly Crash

Authorities actively investigate the scene of a 10-car pile-up that occurred on Hwy 99 north of Gridley that left wreckage and debris strewn across the roadway for nearly 24 hours. Photo by Dave Garner

By Seti Long

GRIDLEY, CA (MPG) - A major 10-vehicle collision in the early morning hours of Saturday claimed the lives of 3 people and left others severely injured. Just after midnight, at approximately 12:39 am north of Hinaman Drive in Gridley, 5 semi-trucks and 5 vehicles were involved in a chain reaction crash that closed the roads for nearly 24 hours. Multiple agencies responded, including units from Chico CHP, Yuba-Sutter CHP, Gridley PD, Butte County Sheriff's Department, CalFire, Cal Trans and the CHP Multidisciplinary Accident Investigation Team (MAIT) out of Sacramento. Cal Trans put a hard close on the stretch of Highway from Ord Ranch Rd. to Biggs E. Highway as crews addressed injuries and the massive clean up project that kept the roads closed for nearly 24 hours. CHP's MAIT is investigating the incident, but CHP Officer Benjamin Draper says that it could be months before the exact details of how the accident played out are known. Footage from a dash camera of one of the Semi-trucks involved in the accident has since surfaced online and shows a dark somewhat empty Hwy 99 at timestamp 0:45:33. As the video continues, the pockets of fog become dense and the flashers of a vehicle stopped in the roadway ahead are visible for just one second (0:46:21) before the semi crashes into the back of the vehicle at full speed (0:46:22). The video shows there was literally no time for the driver to react. A witness describes a headache causing stench as she unknowingly approached the initial scene of the accident on her way home from Chico. Julie Hilborn says she was unsure if the thickening clouds were fog or smoke, but was forced to come to a complete stop on the highway amidst them with her children in the car. She says, "There was a car on my right pulled off to the side and there was a car to my left with hazards on." Putting on her own hazards, she slowly turned around in the roadway, inching her way through the dense fog at a crawl. It was that action that probably saved her family's life. "If I would have kept going (waiting in the Southbound lane) I would have been in it but thankfully I turned around in time," she continues, "It was the scariest night of my life." The names of the deceased have not yet been released to the public. CHP reminds drivers to be cautious during foggy conditions and is asking that anyone with information regarding this incident call Chico Communication Center Dispatch at (530) 332-1200. ★

by Lou Binninger

Street artist Sabo created a poster of Governor Newsom titled ‘California Psycho.’ A wild-eyed Newsom, mouth agape with a blood-spattered face, ‘Psycho’ posters have been seen around Los Angeles and Northern California. Newsom is the personification of Sabo’s caricature.

No California governor can make laws and retire the legislature. Newsom does it anyway. He is above the law.

All of the colored tier Covid nonsense is a board game of control-freak narcissists gone mad. Self-isolation, socialist distancing and muzzling are destructive to people’s health and prepping them for more government repression.

These rules and mandates are debilitating if followed but have no enforcement authority. Schools have been transformed into child concentration camps by Phuong Luu and the Teachers Unions, but parents can keep children home and school them elsewhere. Needed reforms will not occur in your lifetime. Move on.

Your freedom, small business and your family’s health are entirely up to you. Passivity and compliance lead to a path of no return. The deep state objective is to eliminate resistance, small enterprises and the nuclear family.

Citizens and small business owners do not have to abide by any of these rules. Nor should they be intimidated by the fear-mongering strong-arm tactics of mafia-types in Sacramento or local gofers like Luu. No business need close its doors or follow her mandates.

Box stores and big corporations (airlines etc.) have been co-opted by and sold-out to a totalitarian government to mandate arbitrary rules (muzzles and distancing). Corporations, now an extension of the state regime, have become bureaucratic thugs for financial reward.

However, stores must obey the law. And, there is no law that people must wear a muzzle to shop or stand on an “X”. Likewise, stores cannot demand that a man of the Sikh faith remove his turban or a follower of Judaism discard his yarmulke, nor can they force a Christian to wear a Satanist t-shirt to enter.

Will stores next announce No Blacks Monday, Just Blondes Tuesday, Stuff a Rag in your Mouth Wednesday, or No Bra Thursday? God created the face to express His glory (smile, laugh, and frown) and not just for oxygen and nourishment.

Only the simple-minded believe that a bit of cloth stops bacteria or a virus. Please! This is totalitarian control and manipulation. Masks are simply suppressing freedom of expression and interaction. That’s the idea.

Some stores and corporations are now saying their policies are the law since it is private property and law enforcement cannot do a thing to protect customers on their turf. Really? The Constitution does not protect our rights on their property? The corporations are a sovereign nation? The God-given right to breathe freely is usurped by Sams, Home Depot, Southwest and Walmart?

If a customer is assaulted in the store or on a plane, is there now no law? Will the police be called? Are the laws of no effect on private property? Can a woman be assaulted or a man murdered on private property with no recourse?

Tyranny is using power without being under authority. Newsom and his government are lawless. Now, corporations have embraced that tyranny for profit. This isn’t the first time.

Up to 150 American corporations aided the Nazis during WW II. Standard Oil provided fuel for the German fighting machine, IBM and ITT produced communications and data management systems, General Motors and Ford built vehicles, DuPont assisted with synthetic rubber production and Union Banking gave large loans for equipment purchases.

Our country does not operate on suggestions, guidelines or models. Nor is it a health dictatorship. It is a nation of laws with a Constitution maintained by representatives of the people.

Our health, property and our families are private. Politicians and government bureaucrats treading on those God-given rights risk their lives, their families and their possessions. It may be time for local officials to count the personal cost to them of going further down the totalitarian path.

I always knew certain aspects of the World were Crazy

I always knew certain aspects of the world were crazy but its seems in recent years, more so.

I have always been against career politicians with no business experience running anything that has to do with business, let alone a chief executive spot for an entire country.

Dreamers with no business backgrounds think of all the wish-list things we humans should or could have, and once in power, embark on these pipe dreams using public funds to enact them. More often than not they end up bankrupting whatever government they happen to inhabit. Either that or plunge it so far into debt, a bailout by somebody or something is required.

Sure, free everything sounds great but in reality it cannot be. Just because it SHOULD be doesn't mean it COULD be.

But the insanity doesn't stop with there. Examples of lunacy are everywhere. Obama's job czar, former GE exec. Jeffery Immelt, was hired to help keep American jobs in America. He shuttered the last American GE lightbulb plant and moved it overseas while heading it up.

Newbie rep Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez held a bartender job at a taqueria called Flats Fix in New York, and majored in Economics herself at Boston University. She backs the NEW GREEN DEAL of which, among other lunacies, aims to rebuild almost every building in America and do away with all jet travel in ten years.

Yeah, like that's gonna happen. And it isn't the impossible cost that will stop it, although that would too. It's just plain idiotic. I know, I know, sounds great but like many other impossible dreams, it's just, well, impossible.

Cal-Gov. Newsome wants to eliminate all gasoline cars by 2035. The "executive order" actually decrees all new cars will be zero emission by that year. Again, sounds good, but like many other pipe dreams some dream about, it won't happen because it can't be done. I'll bet anyone $1,000.00. Any takers out there?

More than that half the nation thinks pot should be legal. Guess I am old fashion, but a stoned out America is not a good idea. Even a half stoned out America is not a good idea. Try smoking a joint and doing a calculus test. The Chinese are already kickin' our butts when we're sober. It's a slam dunk when half of us are three sheets to the wind from hitting off a bong.

CoVid runs rampant so the authorities say no parties, bars, sports, church services or large gatherings. Except thousands marching in protest is acceptable. No wonder the damn thing is spreading like wildfire. Oh, I forgot, some protestors wore masks.

A good portion of Americans think socialism is a good idea. Gallup poles reflect a 40% thumbs up populace in favor of some sort of socialism. Never mind the train wreck most socialistic countries become. It's said getting into socialism is easy but getting out of it is a nightmare. Wonder why they say that?

Don't worry say some "let us adopt a democratic form of socialism". Never knew a female that was a little bit pregnant. And going to a democratic socialist system (whatever the heck that is) is like adopting a heroin habit because it feels good because I can control it, even though nobody has actually gotten to that "sweet spot".

Socialism spread like a cancer wherever it is let in the door. Close the tent Omar. A camel's nose is approaching.

Saw a college professor on CNBC a month or so back. Told us there is no evidence unemployment bonuses of $600 a week (that's $2,400 a month) has any effect on people wanting to stay at home in lieu of looking for work.

Hummm.....

Wonder if he's noticed the "help wanted" signs blanketing the fast-food restaurant chain stores offering up to $15 bucks an hour, among other retail outlets looking to hire in the worst unemployment environment since the great depression.

Something doesn't add up here professor. So what school IS your degree from?

Harvard it was.

Like I said, the world has gone crazy.

Alliance Makes Climate-Policy Recommendations

In an effort to guide development of federal climate policy, groups from the farm, food, forest, environmental and governmental sectors have allied to offer recommendations intended to support positive change. Known as the Food and Agriculture Climate Alliance, the group released a set of more than 40 recommendations Tuesday. The recommendations stress voluntary, incentive-based programs to promote adaptation in rural communities.

Survey Shows Strong Trust in US Farmers

Trust in American farmers has increased during the pandemic, according to survey results released by the American Farm Bureau Federation. The nationwide survey showed nearly nine in 10 respondents trust farmers, up 4% from a survey taken earlier in the year. The survey also gauged Americans' attitudes about agricultural sustainability practices, and found nearly 60% rated farmers' practices positively.

Winemakers Expect Smaller 2020 Vintage

While they continue to evaluate the impact of wildfire smoke on crop yields, California winemakers say they expect high quality wines from the 2020 vintage. A new report from the Wine Institute describes this year's harvest as "challenging," with smaller-than-average yields due to an August heat spell and the intense wildfire season. Vintners in several regions say wildfire smoke ruined some grapes, but report high quality on the grapes that were harvested.

USDA Reports on Turkey Production, Consumption

Americans will eat about 16 pounds of turkey per person this year, an average the U.S. Department of Agriculture says has remained fairly stable for the last few years. California ranks eighth in the nation in turkey production. Most California turkeys are marketed fresh. The USDA says wholesale prices for frozen birds have risen this year, though retailers often offer special prices on turkey for the holidays.★

Anderson Parolee Arrested for Insurance Fraud After Fleeing Scene of Crash

By Ricardo Lara, Insurance Commissioner

REDDING, CA (MPG) - Donn Lurrinda Hayden, 36, of Anderson, was arrested on multiple felony counts of insurance fraud, filing a false police report, and witness intimidation for allegedly reporting her vehicle stolen after a crash and fleeing the scene, likely in an attempt to avoid DUI charges while on parole.

In January 2020, Hayden filed a police report and insurance claim stating her 2006 Ford Mustang was stolen while she was drinking at a bar in downtown Redding. Police discovered Hayden's vehicle abandoned and crashed in an embankment, with severe front-end damage, approximately one mile from the downtown area. Police also discovered a trail of Hayden's personal belongings leading away from the crash scene and a lone suspect who matched Hayden's description was witnessed fleeing the scene on foot.

An investigation by the California Department of Insurance revealed that several hours after the vehicle was discovered, Hayden called the Redding Police Department and her insurance company to report the car stolen. She made multiple inconsistent statements to investigators of the nights' events, and stated that she was "buzzed" from drinking when an unknown person stole her vehicle.

During an investigation, Hayden's parole agents identified her voice in the background of a 911 call made by a bystander at the crash scene. Hayden was heard on the 911 recording yelling aggressively at the bystander to end the call. It was determined Hayden fled the scene of the crash and made a false report of vehicle theft. Her insurance company was forced to pay over $6,500 for the loss of the vehicle and by fleeing the scene of the crash, Hayden evaded a

DUI investigation.

Hayden received enhancements to the charges because she is on parole for a violent felony. She was booked at the Shasta County Main Jail and the case is being prosecuted by the Shasta County District Attorney's Office.

Gov. Newsom orders curfew for most California counties

Gov. Gavin Newsom has ordered a curfew for all California counties in the purple tier amid climbing coronavirus cases. The curfew will affect 41 of the state's 58 counties – and more than 94 percent of the state's population. The curfew, which the state is calling a “limited Stay at Home Order,” stops short of a full lockdown. It will be in effect from 10 p.m. to 5 a.m. starting Saturday. The restrictions between those hours will be similar to the stay-at-home order that was in effect in March. That means all non-essential work, movement and gatherings will have to stop in all purple tier counties. The curfew is set to remain in effect until Dec. 21 at 5 a.m.

Pennsylvania congressman claims state's mail-in ballots are unconstitutional - suit | 21 Nov 2020 | Congressman Mike Kelly of Pennsylvania, one of President Trump's top House allies, filed a lawsuit Saturday aimed at throwing out 2.6 million mail-in votes in his home state – claiming the state law allowing them is unconstitutional. Meanwhile, Republicans in Michigan are attempting to delay that state's scheduled Monday certification, days after a dramatic battle over the election results in Detroit's Wayne County drew Trump's attention. The Kelly lawsuit seeks to halt the certification of the results of the Nov. 3 election in the Keystone State, The Philadelphia Inquirer reported. Joe Biden's 81,000-vote victory (sic) in Pennsylvania is set to be officially declared on Monday. The case parallels a Friday filing by the Trump campaign itself that asked a federal court to halt statewide certification so that 1.5 million mail-in ballots in seven disputed Pennsylvania counties can be examined for evidence of the fraud and irregularities that Trump insists occurred there.

Nevada: Total Ballots Cast: 1,327,394, Total Presidential Election Votes: 1,405,376 | 21 Nov 2020 | More votes were cast in the 2020 presidential election than there were ballots cast. From Nevada's own state election site: Total Ballots Cast: 1,327,394. Total Presidential Election Votes: 1,405,376.

Evidence Shows 'More Than Double' the Vote Margin in Swing States Is From Illegal Ballots | 19 Nov 2020 | Trump campaign lawyers Rudy Giuliani, Sidney Powell, and Jenna Ellis gave a blockbuster press conference on Thursday in which they ran down the legal case for the president's repeated claim that he won the 2020 presidential election. Giuliani insisted that the evidence the campaign has collected suggests that “more than double” the margin of votes required to flip the election in six swing states are provably illegal, meaning Trump will have won them when only legal votes are counted. Ellis insisted that the legal challenges are not aimed at reversing the preliminary election results, however, but at restoring election integrity. “In the states that we have indicated in red, Georgia, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Wisconsin, Nevada, and Arizona, we more than double the number of votes needed to overturn the election in terms of provable, illegal ballots,” Giuliani, the former mayor of New York, said. Giuliani insisted that the amount of evidence Team Trump has compiled suggests that Democrats cooked up a voter fraud scheme across the country.

Trump Campaign Lawyers: There is a Pattern of Planned Voter Fraud in Multiple States | 19 Nov 2020 | Speaking to reporters from the Republican National Committee in Washington D.C. Thursday afternoon, Trump campaign attorney Rudy Giuliani presented evidence he says suggests a pattern of planned voter fraud that was perpetrated in multiple states. “As we started investigating, both our investigations and the very brave and patriotic American citizens that have come forward, extraordinary number of people, extraordiganry number of witnesses, and what emerged very quickly is it's not a singular voter fraud in one state. This pattern repeats itself in a number of states. Almost exactly the same pattern, which to any experienced investigator, procesturtor, would suggest there was a plan from a centralized place to execute these acts of voter fraud specifically focused on big cities and big cities, as you can imagine, big cities controlled by Democrats and particularly focused on big cities that have a long history of corruption. The number of voter fraud cases in Philadelphia could fill a library,” Guiliani said, flanked by Attorneys Sidney Powell and Jenna Ellis.

In sworn statement, prominent mathematician flags up to 100,000 Pennsylvania ballots | 19 Nov 2020 | In a sworn declaration, a respected mathematician says his analysis of election data and phone interviews with Pennsylvania voters raises questions about as many as 100,000 absentee ballots requested in the key battleground state where President Trump and Joe Biden are separated by just about 82,000 votes. Williams College Professor Steven Miller, a Yale and Princeton trained math expert, said he analyzed Pennsylvania ballot data collected by former Trump campaign data chief Matt Braynard as well as 2,684 voter interviews conducted by a phone bank and found two concerning patterns. One involved possible votes that were not counted, the other ballots that appeared to be requested by someone other than a registered voter. “I estimate that the number of ballots that were either requested by someone other than the registered Republican or requested and returned but not counted range from 89,397 to 98,801,” Miller said in the sworn statement provided to Just the News.

Giuliani Alleges 'National Conspiracy' by Democratic-Controlled Cities to Steal Election | 19 Nov 2020 | President Donald Trump's personal attorney Rudy Giuliani claimed on Thursday that Democratic nominee Joe Biden's projected win in the 2020 election was a result of a “national conspiracy” by Democrats. The former New York City mayor told reporters at a press conference in Washington that he has evidence, which he cannot release, of an alleged scheme to steal key battleground states for Biden. “There's no doubt about it. This was not an individual idea of ten or 12 Democrat bosses. This is a plan. You'd have to be a fool not to realize that. They do the same thing in exactly the same way in 10 big Democrat-controlled, in most cases crooked, cities,” Giuliani said. ★

Wine Grape Remains Biggest Cash Crop in Sacramento County

By Laurie Slothower, Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - During her presentation of the 2019 Sacramento County Crop and Livestock Report at the Nov. 17 Board of Supervisors meeting, Agriculture Commissioner, Chris Flores reported that the gross value of all agricultural products in Sacramento County was a little more than $460 million in 2019. The number represents the gross production value of all agricultural commodities and does not reflect actual profits or losses.

Wine grapes were once again the county's leading cash crop, with a value of $175 million, even though harvested acreage, tonnage and price per ton were less last year than previous years. Wine grapes alone accounted for 38 percent of total production value of crops and livestock.

Milk remains the second-highest cash value commodity, at $52.3 million.

The most exported Sacramento County produced crop was pears. Some 5.4 million pounds were exported to 6 countries, including Canada, Ecuador, French Polynesia, Guatemala and Mexico.

The 2019 Crop and Livestock report includes a 50-year lookback of the County's agricultural history. In 1969, the most valuable commodity was cattle and calves. Fruits and nuts comprised only 11.5 percent of all agricultural products grown in Sacramento County 50 years ago. In 2019, fruits and nuts made up nearly half of the county's bounty, at 46.2%.

Every year, the value of specific commodities rises or falls based on weather, supply and demand, and market forces. In 2019, almonds, sweet corn and honey/pollination services (among other crops) experienced increases, while aquaculture, cattle and calves, and cherries (among others) experienced downturns. Cherries alone lost more than $6 million in value because of damage caused by late spring rainstorms.

The 2019 Crop and Livestock report can be found in Sacramento County libraries and on the Sacramento County Agricultural Commissioner's website.

Top 10 Agricultural Commodities in 2019: Wine grape, milk, nursery stock, poultry, pears, aquaculture (fish, crustaceans, mollusks and aquatic plants), cattle and calves, hay (alfalfa), rice, and field corn (corn grown to feed livestock). ★

YOUR ONE MINUTE NEWS DIGEST

by Don Rae

- Under the regime of Newsom, schools and churches are closed, as is Disneyland. But you can go to a stripjoint, liquor stores, and marijuana shops. This selective throw of the dice is insane. But that's what Newsom is. He has forced the State into an economic Depression. Why are we allowing this?
- Violence in the Nation's capital against Trump supporters primarily by BLM and Antifa. This problem is only going to get worse until these idiots are stopped cold in their tracks.
- How was Thanksgiving for you and your family/friends? Did you spot any of Newsom's bureaucrats checking out how many people were at your celebration? How about a knock on your door to let in a snowflake to check if you have sanitized your bathroom after every use? What utter stupidity.
- Insanity rules even the Los Angeles police department. Under the guidance of the local politicians the police have decided not to protect women from sexual assault. It is open season on violating women. The sexual assault unit will be moved out to the geographic bureaus. This latest craziness comes after pets not being protected and a huge increase in murders. Lastly, the Second Amendment doesn't exist in the City of Angeles either. Get out before you become a victim.
- Freedom and democracy are not guaranteed. We need to understand this truth and be ever vigilant about our freedoms. Not “woke”, but awakened.
- Maybe the local mainstream media will wake up. These colored “tiers” are absolutely childish being thought up by 6-year-olds. Can't our elected officials and bureaucrats do better?
- Another divisive article in the mainstream media. Must have a Latino Senator says a “celebrate diversity” diva. No. What we need is an honest senator who is not a radical socialist.
- Fox news reported some 92,000 claims of sexual abuse by members and leaders of the Boy Scouts of America. With the plethora of “ambulance chasing” television ads by lawyers, it is amazing that the list is so short. In some 80 or more years my family has been associated with the Boy Scouts, not a single incident was ever reported or observed.
- In his evening monologue Tucker Carlson clearly explained the improper, if not illegal, behavior of social media companies. He's spot on.

- Fortunately the new business known as Parler Social Media Site will not follow in the footsteps of Facebook and others. Think about that fact as you decide which social media company to use.
- Are you stuck indoors due to the abject fear of the Wuhan Chinese virus and crazy Democrats. If you are, then you are very much aware that television channels are coordinating commercial time. Change channels and you end up with commercials. You find you are spending most of your viewing time listening to sales pitches instead of interesting programming. If they can't get you one way, they'll get you another.
- WHY IS THE LEFT SO FEARFUL OF DIFFERING OPINIONS? Is it because they are well aware how dishonest their own opinions are?
- Another dam on the Klamath River has been approved for demolition. Not only is the recreational activity to be eliminated, but more inexpensive hydro-electric power is to be lost. For decades now the salmon have been waiting for renewed access to their spawning grounds. During this wait they must have figured out their sex life elsewhere. Don't you think?
- The election has revealed some interesting information regarding the post office. Keep in mind the old slogan about “neither rain nor snow nor gloom of night shall....” Seems like there is a lot of “no you can't see” going on at postal facilities. With the states sending mailed ballots to everyone, legal or not, alive or not, residents of the state or not, some visibility of the post office is warranted. Who really knows what goes on?
- The Wuhan Chinese pandemic is being watched by medical “experts” supposedly. And politicians and bureaucrats are taking heed and cracking down on our liberties. Think back to other “experts” in the field of medicine. An example might be the eugenics movement of the early days of the twentieth century. These folks, such as Planned Parenthood founder Margaret Sanger and Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes promoted the idea that the most urgent need in society was to prevent the overfertility of the mentally and physically defective. The progressives were promoting Spartan methods such as abortion and sterilization to keep certain minorities from having children. All in the name of science. Are we seeing progressives acting in the same way today? ★

2021 Fishing Licenses and Related Items Now Available for Sale

By Kirsten Macintyre, California Department of Fish & Wildlife

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - California anglers can now purchase 2021 fishing licenses and related items directly through the California Department of Fish and Wildlife (CDFW) website or authorized license agents. (Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, license sales counters at CDFW offices remain temporarily closed to the public.)

The cost of a 2021 annual resident fishing license has been set at $52.66, while a one-day license will cost $17.02.

For the first time, anglers have the option to sign up for auto-renewal of their annual sport fishing licenses, report cards and validations.

“More than a million anglers purchase annual licenses to fish California waters and for many of them, this will be a welcome feature,” said Josh Morgan, chief of CDFW’s License and Revenue Branch. “Signing up for auto-renewal helps ensure that you won’t end up on the water with an expired license.”

Anglers must enroll in the auto-renewal program through CDFW’s online sales website. License agents cannot enroll customers in the auto-renewal program, but customers who make purchases in person from license agents can go online later and enroll themselves.

Not all CDFW products for sale are eligible for auto-renewal at this time, although the feature will be expanded to other items in the future. For more information and a complete list of items available for auto-renewal, please refer to the Frequently Asked Questions about auto-renewal on CDFW’s website.

To unsubscribe or update your subscription, see links at the bottom of this message.

Persons with disabilities needing reasonable accommodation to participate in public meetings or other CDFW activities are invited to contact CDFW’s Accessibility Coordinator at (916) 651-1214, the EEO Office at (916) 653-9089, or send an email to EEO@wildlife.ca.gov. Reasonable Accommodation requests for facility and/or meeting accessibility should be received at least 21 days prior to the event. Requests for American Sign Language Interpreters should be submitted at least two weeks prior to the event, and requests for Real-Time Captioning at least four weeks prior to the event. These timeframes are to help ensure that the requested accommodation is met. If a request for an accommodation has been submitted but due to circumstances is no longer needed, please contact the Accessibility Coordinator immediately. ★

Commentary
by Ted Gaines

As the media focuses overwhelmingly on the drawn-out presidential election, we shouldn’t ignore the defeat of Prop. 15, a massively consequential outcome for Californians. Even in this most liberal state, where sales taxes, income taxes and gas taxes march ever upward, Prop. 15’s loss shows that Prop. 13 taxpayer protections remain important, popular, and necessary.

Once again, Prop. 13’s deep roots proved tough to tear out. Prop. 15 was the latest of many attempts to dismantle the state’s most famous taxpayer reform. Prop. 15 would have eliminated a key business property protection by subjecting these properties to reassessments at least every three years, exposing them to massive tax increases far above the 2-percent cap guaranteed by Prop. 13.

It would have gutted the agricultural industry by requiring reassessments of barns, silos, processing facilities, mature fruit and nut trees, and other property that currently falls under Prop. 13’s protections. Small business owners with “triple net” leases, already reeling from COVID, would have faced a wave of property tax increases as they look to rebound.

California’s business

climate is already terrible – it’s earned CEO Magazine’s worst place to do business “honor” for a decade straight – and Prop. 15 would have certainly made it worse. But besides avoiding the direct damage Prop. 15 would have inflicted on business, its election day defeat is important for the precedent it continues. Prop. 13 is the single most important tax law in California and must be defended completely. Voters sent yet another signal that it cannot be weakened. It can’t be torn down piece-by-piece. It can’t be carved up for special exemptions supposedly aimed only at big business.

Voters know that once Prop. 13 suffers a single chip in its exterior then the entire pillar is primed for collapse. This time it was big (and small) businesses in the crosshairs, but next election cycle it will be homes worth more than $2 million, then homes worth $1 million, then assessments every 20 years, then they will be coming after YOUR home. A Prop. 13 patchwork of gradually shrinking exclusions would soon exist only as a memory.

I’ve spent nearly two decades in public service as a taxpayer advocate and champion of Prop. 13. The law is a savior for overtaxed Californians. It’s saved homeowners and business property owners billions over the past 42 years and provided them with a stable, predictable bill every year, allowing for planning and budgeting and eliminating the tax spikes the led to closed store fronts and seniors losing their homes in the 1970s. Prop. 13’s enduring effectiveness is what makes it a constant target.

A check on taxes is also a check on government growth and a boon for the economy. Defeating Prop. 15 will keep more than $11 billion a year out of government slush funds and in the pockets of business owners who can use it to expand, invest, and hire more employees. That is critical as California businesses scramble to stay alive and rebuild out of the pandemic.

To create a vibrant post-COVID economy, we must be partners in prosperity with our private sector. Defeating Prop. 15 stops our tax climate from getting worse and everyone interested in a thriving California economy should celebrate its loss, for now, but be ready to defend Prop. 13 again in 2022.

Senator Ted Gaines (Ret.) was elected to represent the Board of Equalization’s First District. He is a leading taxpayer advocate and is committed to providing trustworthy and transparent representation for nearly ten million constituents in 30 counties of northern, eastern, and southern California. Newsom Displays Hypocritical Arrogance

By Dan Walters
CALMatters

Gov. Gavin Newsom wasn't born to wealth and privilege but as a youngster he was enveloped in it as the surrogate son of billionaire Gordon Getty.

Later, Getty's personal trust fund — managed by Newsom's father — provided initial financing for business ventures that made Newsom wealthy enough to segue into a political career as a protégé of San Francisco's fabled political mastermind, Willie Brown.

Getty and Brown personify San Francisco's unique culture, one that not only tolerates raffish personal behavior but celebrates it, which is why Newsom's political career didn't suffer when, as mayor, he had an affair with his campaign manager's wife. It would have been a career-buster almost anywhere else.

When Newsom became governor two years ago, after a stint as lieutenant governor under Jerry Brown, he brought his bubble of wealth and privilege with him to Sacramento. He and his "first partner," Jennifer Siebel, shunned the state's Victorian governor's mansion that Brown had renovated, moved into a multi-million-dollar home in the suburbs and enrolled their children in a tony private school.

Newsom tries, in his public appearances, to associate himself with the lives of ordinary Californians and talks a lot about closing yawning economic gaps. Nevertheless, he still comes across as someone unbound by the usual conventions.

That attitude became jarringly apparent last week when the San Francisco Chronicle revealed that although Newsom had publicly beseeched Californians to avoid social gatherings to battle COVID-19, he attended a birthday party at the very expensive French Laundry restaurant in Napa for a long-time advisor, lobbyist Jason Kinney.

At first, Newsom's office insisted that no social distancing rules were broken, which might have been technically true. Belatedly, however, Newsom recognized that to Californians who are sacrificing social lives, family contacts and often their jobs to fight the pandemic, it was what political types call "bad optics."

On Monday, he said "I made a bad mistake... I want to apologize to you, because I need to preach and practice, not just preach and not practice... We're all human, we all fall short sometimes."

The French Laundry incident came just days after Newsom revealed that his children were back in classes at their private school while millions of other California kids are confined to homebound classes via the Internet. It's the sort of hypocritical arrogance that drives voters up the wall.

As Kevin Faulconer,

the outgoing mayor of San Diego and a potential Newsom challenger in 2022 tweeted, "His kids can learn in person. But yours can't. He can celebrate birthday parties. But you can't. He can dine on a $350 meal at one California's fanciest restaurants during the worst recession in generations. But you definitely can't. Can you believe this? I can't."

The incident also earned Newsom a tongue-lashing about "layers of bad judgment" in the Sacramento Bee, a newspaper that shares the governor's liberal political leanings.

"He just handed more ammunition to Republican leaders who have decried the state's emergency shutdowns of restaurants, gyms and churches," the Bee editorial said. "If the governor can eat out with friends — and if his children can attend their expensive school — why must everyone else sacrifice?"

"Two years into his first term, and nine months into the COVID-19 pandemic, Newsom still can't get his act together. If Newsom can't get his head into the game, perhaps he should make this governor thing a one-term affair and leave the job open for someone with a desire to lead."

Consider what Faulconer and the Bee said as the opening salvos of the 2022 campaign for governor. If Newsom continues to ooze hypocritical privilege, his first term could be his last.

Zuckerberg and Pastor Dinh

Commentary
by Lou Binninger

The United States Senate recently questioned Google, Facebook and Twitter executives about their censoring of conservative speech while enjoying immunity from lawsuits given to neutral communication forums. Senator Ted Cruz of Texas asked Facebook's Mark Zuckerberg if his company assisted the Vietnamese government to suppress free speech, human rights, and persecute its citizens.

American social media companies have provided China and Vietnam with technology to oppress descent and human rights for the privilege of operating in those nations. In other words, these American corporate giants have sacrificed the lives of suffering champions of freedom for a strong stock price.

Digital advertising revenue in Vietnam amounted to around $550 million in 2018, 70% of which went to Facebook and Google. Facebook's revenue from Chinese-based advertisers reached an estimated $5 billion in 2018, or about 10 percent of its total sales, according to Pivotal Research Group.

The Vietnamese people are some of the biggest users of Facebook in the world (7th highest). Facebook compliance Facebook with Vietnamese cybersecurity demands sets a dangerous precedent. Governments around the world see this as an invitation to enlist Facebook in the service of state censorship and privacy invasion.

A stone-faced Zuckerberg told Cruz that Facebook obeys the local laws where ever they operate. He was justifying his assisting the jailing and torture of freedom-seekers. Meanwhile, Facebook and other tech companies are not following U.S. laws.

Last week, while texting with a man in the Central Highlands of Vietnam, he sent a photo. Inquiring about the photo of the lady carrying a load of rice on her head, he responded that she was the wife of a Hre (minority people) pastor falsely accused and imprisoned for 16 years.

The authorities charged him with conspiring with US organizations to overthrow the Vietnamese government. Dinh Diem, 56, and his family live a hand-to-mouth existence in a tiny village. He has no power, no money and no weapons. The government knows there is no plot to overthrow. What they detest is freedom.

In a Communist country freedom and belief in God intimidate authorities. The friend said that there was no one to help the imprisoned church leader, certainly not billionaire 'law-abiding' Zuckerberg.

Pastor Dinh Diem was accused of posting and sharing articles and photographs with content opposing the Communist Party and the state on Facebook.

He was a member of the unregistered organization called Vietnam Inter-faith Council which works to enhance the right to freedom of religions and beliefs. He also belonged to FULRO (United Front for the Liberation of Oppressed Races), an organization of ethnic minorities calling for autonomy of the indigenous people in Vietnam's Central Highlands.

"We strongly condemn the unfair and heavy sentence imposed on Pastor Diem because he has not done anything illegal," the Interfaith Council of Vietnam said.

Zuckerberg, Twitter's Jack Dorsey and Google's Sundar Pichai are a brilliant but spineless trio with poor memories. They can't fathom how any censorship is occurring on their platforms in America. And, they can't imagine accepting any responsibility for being complicit in the imprisonment, torture and murder of millions in Communist countries.

Multi-million dollar mansions in the Silicon Valley are a long way from the dirt floor one-room hovels in the Province of Quang Ngai, Vietnam. Communism or capitalism for these three, whatever. The privileged live above the fray in both systems.
