Steve Smith Sutter County's New Administrative Officer

Sutter County, Ca.

The Sutter County Board of Supervisors has appointed Steven M. Smith, a 10-year veteran of the County Administrative Office, as County Administrative Officer.

Smith was serving as the interim County Administrative Officer since the position became vacant in January. The appointment was made by unanimous vote on Tuesday, August 27, and it became effective August 31.

In thanking the Board for the appointment, Smith told them: "I am also thankful for the support and hard work of my colleagues in the County Administrator's Office both past and present and for the tremendous support of the department heads and employees of the County."

Steve Smith came to work for the County Administrative Office in 2009, under then CAO Larry Combs. Hired as a Deputy CAO, he was working as the Assistant County Administrative Officer under former CAO Scott Mitnick.

His primary focus up until the past year has been on development of the County's budget. He has worked with every department and every department head in the past decade.

Prior to joining Sutter County, he spent seven years working for Contra Costa County, first as Assistant Director of Nutritional Services for the Health Services Department at Contra Costa Regional Medical Center and later, after earning a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree, as Administrative Services Officer in the Building Inspection/Conservation and Development Department.

He said one of his priorities is to ensure the County does everything it can to support commercial and residential development identified in the Sutter Pointe Specific Plan for south Sutter County, while ensuring the development pays for itself. Developers have indicated they may break ground next year.

Other priorities include sorting out the homeless situation, consolidating County offices (including opening 850 Gray Avenue for Health and Human Services), securing funding for continuation of fire services in the unincorporated areas of the Yuba City basin, and building on positive relationships with the cities of Yuba City and Live Oak, and the County of Yuba.

Msvl Money to Burn

by Lou Binninger

For a "disadvantaged city" Marysville has money to burn on consultants and engineering firms when local professionals offer their expertise for free or at much lower costs. It seems nowadays that county and city administrators though paid $150-300 thousand dollars annually bring little to the job other than hiring consultants with exorbitant fees.

Marysville appears to be hooked at the hip with EKI Environment and Water that has struck gold working for the little city. EKI proposes to run Ellis Lake like an aquarium by using 2 compressors, 25 aerators and chemicals spending a fantastic $695 thousand to start and then $45,000 annually. Yet there are no guarantees of a clean lake. In fact, the water will not be fit for swimming.

Next, EKI wrote a $400,000 Water Resources grant to put a well in Gavin Park where EKI receives up to $79,900 for design and administrative services. A local contractor / well-driller could do the job for less than $10,000. It wouldn't take $400,000 to put wells and pumps in every park in the city. (The parks have been dry for years due to the unaffordable rates of California Water Service. The option is to put wells in each park.)

Having EKI do the engineering and oversee installing a well and pump to run sprinklers for $400K is like hiring an industrial engineer to oversee the housekeeping of your 900 square foot apartment. EKI charges from $85/hr for secretaries up to $286/hr for a Chief Engineer plus mark-ups on subcontractors.

How did Marysville marry EKI? Does former Public Works Director Dave Lamont come to mind? He works there now after leaving Marysville with $3 million in California Water Resources fines for not filing 11 quarterly waste water reports. He also is the one who began pumping ground water full of minerals leading to the Ellis Lake algae outbreak and lobbied against using Yuba River water for the lake. The Riverfront Park Boat Ramp was allowed to become unusable under Lamont, as well.

Both EKI proposals for the Ellis Lake rehab and for the Gavin Park well are seriously flawed. EKI's estimate of more

Tax Wars

by Lou Binninger

As Yuba County residents wait for a Judge Stephen Berrier decision on the legality of the Measure K sales tax measure, Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association and Californians are benefitting from rulings elsewhere supporting Propositions 13 (1978) and 218 (1996) requiring a 2/3s vote of the populace for new taxes.

Meanwhile voters in El Dorado County, east of Sacramento, rejected a parcel tax to benefit the fire district in a special election. The effort to add $94 per parcel a year needed a 2/3s vote but received only 38% approval. The money would have added a third firefighter on four of six engines.

The El Dorado Taxpayers Association requested three considerations to endorse the measure but the campaign consultant hired with tax dollars recommended against any concessions. The association wanted to make sure the measure would be fairly portrayed and would protect taxpayers.

First, the citizens requested not to have a special election but to place the measure on the March 2020 primary ballot to get more voter input, be less expensive and refine the measure. Second, the people wanted a sunset date on the measure to require reauthorization and accountability to the voters as to how the money had been spent. And third, taxpayers requested an independent oversight committee with defined responsibilities.

The taxpayers association was supportive of fire fighters but mentioned that in November 2018 Sacramento voters passed a sales tax increase guaranteed to fund community services. However, less than six months later the city manager, with support of employee unions, proposed diverting the money to fund pensions. With this in mind the El Dorado association therefore opposed Measure B.

Maybe some voters got a look at El Dorado firefighter salaries. In 2018, the fire chief earned $282,565; two division chiefs received 228,920 and 221,040; a fire captain $209,260; a firefighter/paramedic $209,228; seven made more than $200,000. Twenty-five employees made more than $150,000. Fifty-three were paid over $100,000 a year.

At one time property taxes paid for public safety. What has changed? Certainly salaries if you ask retired public safety employees that started their careers in the 80's. Salaries were

Grazing animals help with wildfire prevention

Demand has risen steadily for livestock to provide grazing services to attack weeds as a wildfire-prevention measure. The California Wool Growers Association says it has more requests from private landowners and public agencies than its members can fulfill. University of California Cooperative Extension says it plans to create a statewide database to match landowners with ranchers whose sheep, goats or cattle could provide grazing services.

Fish-habitat restoration projects continue

More projects are planned this fall to enhance habitat for juvenile salmon in the Sacramento River. The projects, to add side channels, will complement other habitat work. For example, crews added 12,000 tons of gravel to the river earlier this year, to develop new spawning habitat for Chinook salmon and steelhead trout. Water rates paid by Sacramento Valley farmers include a restoration fund to help pay for the habitat work.

Marketers report rising demand for organic avocados

As demand for avocados has risen, so has demand for avocados grown organically. The California Avocado Commission reports organic fruit represents about 10% of the current year's avocado harvest, and that the proportion has been increasing. Most organic avocados have been transitioned from conventional production--a process that takes about three years before the fruit can be sold as organic.

Forecast expects smaller walnut crop

Weather during the growing season has contributed to an expected smaller California walnut crop, according to government estimates. The U.S. Department of Agriculture forecast walnut production down about 7% compared to a year ago. The USDA says rainy winter and spring weather delayed the walnut bloom, and that local weather conditions resulted in "variable crop development" around the state. California farms produce the entire U.S. walnut crop.

FISHIN' TALK

by Boots Johnson

Dan "Boots" Johnson has fished and hunted in California for more than 75 years. Anyone with questions or comments can email him at boots3@syix.com

Last week was a tough week for the Johnson Family. My son Kevin passed away on September 4th at the young age of 60. He loved to fish and had a passion for fast cars and drag racing. Peace is with you, Son.

The cattish caught at Collins Lake a week or so ago, which was not weighed, probably would have been a record for that reservoir. Hilario Sandoval, who lives in Vacaville, caught the monster in the evening using chicken liver. The buzz up at the lake is the fish probably weighed over 30 pounds. Congratulations and kudos to Hilario!

Salmon fishing in the ocean waters has been a good bet and just ask Ted Johnson. He and a group of local anglers returned last week from a party boat trip out of Sausalito. Seven salmon were caught along with halibut.

There is hope out there that raising the water in the Feather River will boost the salmon bite. Raising the water will bring fresh water out of Oroville Reservoir which will raise the temperature.

Jackson Meadows Reservoir and Prosser Reservoir both had trout plants last week. Jackson Meadows and Prosser are located in Sierra and Nevada counties.

We have a report from Lake Tahoe. The mackinaw and kokanee fishing has been exceptional. The mackinaw is holding down over three hundred feet. Some rainbow trout have also been caught. These fish are holding at around 50 feet.

Expect the kokanee salmon bite to come to a close soon. The fish are going into spawning mode and will be there any day now.

Closing thought: "The journey through life travels quickly so enjoy the good times."

Angel Has Fallen

Starring: Gerard Butler, Frederick Schmidt and Danny Huston. Rated: R, Runtime: 2 hours, 1 minute.

After the fall of Olympus and London it was only natural that the target should shift from the President of the United States to his lead security officer. Well, Mike Banning isn't going to stand for that. He might get shot for it or blown up for it stabbed a few times, but he will certainly not stand for it.

Angel has Fallen, earns three out of five, Dad Finding Monkeys. The story is the standard bureaucracy failing in the face of a shadow attacker with the lone hero seeing the truth of things and fighting for justice while proving his own innocence. The acting is about as good as can be expected and the production value is very well done. The intent of this film is to give you eight dollars worth of entertainment. You get a solid eight seventy-five with this movie. There is a good chance another Fallen movie will be made, all depending on the box office totals of this episode. One thing Hollywood can do is recycle a story until the sun swallows the earth. Heaven forbid an original story see the flickering light of a dark movie house.

If You Have the ‘Will’ to Fish, We Have the Way!

The Rooster Tails Fishing Club monthly breakfast will be held at the Auburn Elks Lodge at 195 Pine Street in Auburn on Friday, September 20, 2019. This free event is open to club members, spouses, and non-member guests. Doors to the Lodge open at 7:00 a.m. to share fresh brewed coffee. A fantastic $15 wide-selection buffet breakfast is served at 8:00 am, followed at 9:00 am with special guest speaker, Craig Newton, owner of Will Fish Tackle in Auburn. Craig will talk about how to use a wide selection of fishing gear.

Craig would be considered by many marketing-people as a successful ‘niche business’. Craig and his business associates cater to expert as well as novice fishing enthusiasts with a wide selection of fishing-gear and personalized one-on-one advice on how to use it. Will Fish is also a resource of the latest fishing reports from their many customers, fishing guides, and tackle suppliers. Will Fish is also a great place to meet other anglers for fun and informative conversations. At any given time, several Rooster Tail Fishing club members meet to arrange fishing outing for both fresh and salt water fishing. In addition, Craig spends many hours personally testing the latest lures and baits. He knows what works and where to use it unlike trying to find advice at a big-box sporting goods store. Choosing the right species-specific tackle is not akin to going to the grocery store where you know exactly what to buy. Becoming an expert fisherperson takes time on the water, dedication to increasing fishing knowledge and acquiring the right species-specific tackle.

The Newton’s purchased Will Fish Tackle in April 2017 following Craig’s passion for fishing and the outdoors. For more information go to www.willfishtackle.com or call 530-887-0839

The 30 year old, 200+ members Rooster Tails Fishing Club of Northern California, Inc. is a non-profit organization that meets the third Friday of each month to educate, entertain, and enhance fishing experience. Unlike many bass and fly fishing clubs that concentrate on very specific types of fishing, the Rooster Tails Fishing Club provides a balanced mix of fishing techniques presented by fishing experts targeting a variety of fish species on multiple types of waters. For more information contact Jim, Club Chairman, 530-887-0479, or visit the club’s web site at www.roostertailsfishing-club.org.

Nevada City’s 54th Annual Constitution Day Parade

Welcomes Famous Marching Presidents and First Ladies

Nevada City, Ca. California’s 54th Annual Constitution Day Parade anchors a week-end of festivities on September 14 and 15, 2019 in this culturally-rich, scenic Gold Rush town.

Founded by the late Col. William H. Lambert, Nevada City’s Constitution Day Parade has been held since 1967. It is one of the oldest and largest Constitution observances in the West, quite possibly in the entire United States. The event mixes fun and history and, since 1988, features the Famous Marching Presidents (and their First Ladies), a non-profit organization whose mission is to preserve and celebrate the importance of the United States Constitution and the Presidents elected to represent its citizens.

Although recognized in different ways, it wasn’t until 2004 that the law establishing the present national holiday was created with the passage of an amendment by Senator Robert Byrd to the Omnibus spending bill of 2004.

Before this law was enacted, the holiday was known as “Citizenship Day.”

This means that Nevada City’s Constitution Day Parade predates the actual national holiday by thirty-eight (38) years, giving attendees a unique and spirited view of American ingenuity, while commemorating the document that recognizes the first citizens as well as the democratic process.

Famous Marching Presidents

This year, the Famous Marching Presidents provides 45 individuals the opportunity to be President for a day, assuming not only costumes, but the role of the president they are acting as—of course, there are no presidential privileges, but a great deal of reverent, and respectful fun is had while providing an educational view of our democracy, not to mention the grand spectacle of forty-five (45) marching presidents in appropriate regalia with their first ladies and requisite secret service agents.

Art and Artifacts Part of Tradition

Nevada County artist and cultural icon R.L. Crabb joined the Famous Marching Presidents in 1993 and has created the Famous Marching Presidents logo annually ever since, with the Official Seal established in 1996. This year, the logo gives a nod to Apollo 11 and the 50th anniversary of the first humans landing on the Moon, July 20, 1969.

In The Spirit of the West

Other Constitution Day activities include musical performances, a re-enactment of the signing of the Constitution and living history demonstrations of Revolutionary War soldiers drilling and firing, along with drums, regiment marching and ongoing demonstrations by the Delaware Regiment of the Brigade of the American Revolution.

John Paris in Concert “Creativity of Souls”

Marysville, Ca. — “Whose soul gives no light shall never become a star,” wrote poet and painter, William Blake, over 200 years ago. Pianist, John Paris’ soul shines brightly and especially so when he is on stage sharing his deep and abiding love of music and virtuosity with his always appreciative audiences.

Yuba Sutter Arts has enjoyed a long collaboration with John who graces the stage of the Burrows Theater several times each year. The “Creativity of Souls” concert will be held on Saturday, September 14 at 7pm at The Burrows Theater at Yuba Sutter Arts, 630 E Street in Marysville. General admission tickets are $10. Plenty of free parking is available on the side streets and in the adjacent Umpqua Bank and Bank of America parking lots.

John is a beloved instrumental and choral music instructor at several Yuba-Sutter schools. He has enjoyed an extensive musical career working with the likes of Merv Griffin, Jerry Lewis, the Minneapolis Symphony and the Moody Blues. While jazz runs through his veins, John has managed to combine this passion with original new age music on his moving solo piano excursions reminiscent of the improvisational style of Keith Jarrett.

Each one of John’s concerts is a personal journey. There is always plenty of joy to be found in John’s playing, writing, and arranging. There are moments of reflection in John’s style, and even that is done in a way that is thoughtful and uplifting. His arrangements are the epitome of “feel good” music, and can only serve to brighten a gloomy day, and heighten one that’s already fantastic! There’s a familiarity to the music John performs, and that only adds to the already blissful listening experience. The music reflects a treasure of warmth, nostalgia and feeling that very much deserves to be heard.

John has just released his newest CD titled “Jazzy Kid Songs” which will be available for sale at the concert along with his other recordings. John is known for his virtuosity, and two years ago he played at Carnegie Hall in New York where he was awarded the ‘Best Jazz Album of the Year’ by Enlightened Piano Radio.

Come support live music in the community and hear a great and very gifted local musician

August 27, 2019

Rachel Lynn Marker of Yuba City passed away peacefully of complications relating to Juvenile Diabetes August 27, 2019. She was born in Wisconsin January 27, 1970. She is survived by her husband of 24 years Patrick Marker along with her two children Mason and Rylee Marker, her parents Ron and Susan Sullenger of Live Oak, three sisters, Stacie Bond of Newport Beach, CA., Melissa Sullenger of Yuba City and Stephanie Pliha also of Newport Beach, CA. Additional survivors include six nephews and a niece all in California, a step daughter and grandson in Tennessee.

Rachel attended Yuba City High School and after graduation began working in Mortgage Banking and later Advertising Sales with local radio station KUBA.

After giving up her own career to be a full-time wife and mother, she discovered a hidden talent for crafts that allowed her to turn the “ordinary” into “extraordinary.” Rachel began taking old windows, torn down old barn wood and things that some were discarding, turning them into beautiful sought-after furniture and decorative pieces. She took this opportunity to form her own business she called “Shabby Imperfections” of which she had a waiting list of customer requests and orders. To this day Rachel and her artistic touches are represented in many homes throughout the area.

Rachel had an abundance of challenges in her short life of 49 years, more than most her age yet regardless of her challenges she was never one to complain. Always upbeat and witty, she had an amazing sense of humor and seemingly never met a stranger. Her door was always open to most anyone. Rachel will be missed beyond words by her family and those blessed enough to have been a part of her life.

A Memorial and Celebration of Rachel’s Life will be held September 14, 2019 at Trinity Anglican Church, 929 11th St. Marysville, CA at 11:00am. Food and refreshments will follow the service in the Parish Hall. Any and all those who knew Rachel are welcome to attend.

Insurance Commissioner comes to Nevada County

They say first impressions are the most important. I have to admit what I expected to see when Insurance Commissioner Ricardo Lara showed up at the local town hall meeting on fire insurance and what I saw did not exactly mesh, at least for me.

What I expected was a seasoned insurance man, in the know about the insurance business hardened by years of experience. What I saw was a handsome, strapping younger gentlemen, dressed in peg-legged jeans, cowboy boots and a Nehru type shirt, tight fitting around rather impressive biceps, all indicating this man spent at least some of his waking hours in the gym. Not exactly the fat old guy in a tie and suit that I expected.

Lara’s background as it turns out has little to do with experience in the insurance industry. Born in \Commerce, California, Lara is the son of a formerly undocumented factory worker and seamstress from Mexico. Lara attended Los Angeles Unified School District “Los Angeles Unified School District schools and graduated from San Diego State University, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree and served as student body president. He is currently pursuing a master's degree from the University of Southern California.

A longtime Assembly staffer, Lara worked as Chief of Staff to Assemblyman Marco Antonio Firebaugh (D–South Gate) when Firebaugh served as Majority Leader. Lara later served as Fabian Nuñez's district director during Nuñez's time as Speaker of the California State Assembly” Speaker. He then served as communications director for Assemblyman Kevin de León (D–Los Angeles). (Wikipedia).

All this has to tell you something and you got the feeling he was to be protected and isolated the entire time he was there and he was.

From the onset, a celebrity like aura engulfed the building. Photo ops and handshakes occupied the first 15 minutes and after the obligatory thanks you and introductions from those that do such things, Lara took to the stage in front of a video screen that I imagined would act as a security blanket and guide all in one.

After all, it’s easier for the speaker and audience-distracting if they, the audience, have a TV to watch instead of focusing their entire attention on a speaker. It’ the reason I use no such visual complements when I speak. I WANT the complete attention of the audience.

Not one to jump to conclusions however, I let the cameras and microphones roll and sat back to see what nuggets of wisdom and subsequent action Lara was to bequeath to the room full of anxious homeowners and insurance professionals, dignitaries and wannabes that were in the packed house that was the Foothill Event Center on August 22, 2019.

He started out by what I perceived as a prepping us for a watered down presentation what was to follow by saying the department somewhat has its hands tied and “is trying” to get the insurance companies to do this and that.

Oh boy. Starting with the “poor us” theme didn’t instill a lot of confidence, at least in my mind, and probably a few others in the room as well.

Flipping from slide to slide, Lara attempted to instill some sort of rebound by illustrating some of the problems homeowners were having obtaining, keeping and paying for fire insurance.

Tell us something all of us in the room don’t know sir.

I have to admit I was somewhat taken in by his charm and good looks, as I’m sure others were, and gave him the benefit of the doubt that this was a sincere and caring man in front of me. That said, I caught myself shaking my head thinking “if this is our main defense against the huge conglomerates that are the insurance companies, we’re all screwed.

I kept thinking as the slides slipped by illustrating little but visual lip service, this vegetarian type of presentation resembled the Beyond Meat phenomenon. Beyond Meat is a company that makes vegetarian hamburgers that look and taste like meat but have no real meat in them.

Yea, the evening was kind of like that.

Lara dived into what I perceived as a less than critical “honey do’ list of things the department was trying to implement such as longer notification times for cancellations and such. I’m thinking “we all came tonight because insurance is so damned expensive, not because a 45 days’ notice is too difficult to understand.

You get what I’m saying here?

After an hour or so, and without questions, the commissioner left the stage and ended what was obviously a very well prepared presentation. In the old days it was known as the proverbial “dog and pony show”.

Hearing him speak and in speaking with him, I perceived mostly lip service, generalities and prepared responses to the same old questions he was hearing in the green rooms of the many such presentations he was giving on this road show.

After a few more smiling photo ops with those waiting in line to shake the hand of this handsome gent, Lara was whisked away in a waiting black SUV (yea I know) and in his place two topic knowledgeable non-politicians fielded handwritten and prepared questions taken earlier from the audience by staffers.

If there was meat in this dish, we got a taste of it from these two. For more than an hour, they answered honestly and diligently every question handed them, and it was here that we learned at a bit more about the department and its machinations that are taking place addressing this very serious issue.

I have to at least give the Department of Insurance (DOI) some credit for making the effort to address the fire insurance issue in California by these ongoing roadshows, if not really making a lot of real headway on the main issue of insurance costs, but holding the hands of nervous and concerned homeowners. In the final end however, when I think of whom I saw from the DOI at this town hall meeting, then picturing them going up against armies of Ivy League educated CEOs and VPs of huge and powerful conglomerate insurance companies, in reality these DOI folks don’t stand a snowballs chance in hell, or should I say our house’s chance of survival in an out of control wildfire.

than a million dollars to pump Yuba River water is so outlandish as to raise questions about their competence or a bias. Locals estimate pumping river water will cost $10-15 thousand annually.

EKI proposes drilling a 300-foot well and installing a pump to provide up to 175 gallons per minute at Gavin Park. That's like using a 50-caliber gun to kill a rabbit. The current Cal Water Service connection to the park is using just 15-20 gallons per minute.

The city could have a 100-foot well and a 1-horsepower submersible pump installed for less than $7000. This system would produce plenty of water and would not need an engineering firm to oversee the project. Since the water is free to the city this system would irrigate the park for far less than using the prohibitive Cal Water Service.

There are additional concerns with the city decision-making. The Department of Water Resources set a timeline for the city to spend the state's gift of $144,144 for restoring the lake. The city has violated that agreement set for project completion in 2018 and could be looking at more penalties.

If the city paid EKI for services rendered to this point, began Yuba River water deliveries and gave an update to the state they may avoid further state costs and restore / protect their water rights to the Yuba River. Otherwise, the city appears to be headed for another debacle costing millions of dollars.

For the Gavin Park irrigation grant EKI could be paid for its services thus far and then ask Water Resources to amend the grant to include all parks by installing the appropriate sized wells and pumps in each. If the city leaders do not know what they are doing they would be better off in the future utilizing local professionals rather paying extraordinary fees for services not needed from companies out of the area. You don't need an engineer to install a well and pump.

Cost Recovery - Fire Recovery USA

Marysville, Ca.

As of August 1, the Marysville Fire Department instituted a fee recovery program for fires and emergency medical services through Fire Recovery USA. Through this program, the City is able to charge insurance companies, other agencies/ companies and individuals for a portion of the cost for the Fire Department to respond to fires and emergency medical services. The Department is tracking the program's success, including the types of relevant incidents that cost recovery can be instituted, the type and volume of incidents, and the portion that insurance companies will pay for a given incident. Once the Department has sufficient data and conducted further analysis on the program, it will report back to the Council in the last quarter of 2019 with recent results and any further staff recommendations for continued program implementation and success.

THE Brownsville Bailiwick & Beyond

Craft workshops will begin at Books & More next Saturday. They are still in the planning stage but are planned to meet each Saturday from 10 to about noon. The knitting group will meet Sept. 28, Oct. 19 and November 16. Geney Holly will lead a workshop on Christmas cards on Sept 21. There will be a $5.00 fee for materials on that project. We will be lining up other artists and crafters as time progresses. There will be a new list of raffle prizes, too, so come by and buy a few tickets.

The Draft Horse Classic & Harvest Festival, held at the Nevada County Fairgrounds in Grass Valley, starts on Thursday, September 19 and runs through Sunday, September 22. There will be shows, displays, music, crafters, food, beverages and more. Entrance into the fairgrounds and the harvest festival is free. Tickets for the shows can be purchased on the fairground website. The hours are Thursday and Friday, 12:00 pm – 9:00 pm, Saturday and Sunday, 9:00 am – 9:00 pm. Bring the whole family for a day of “Horsin’ Around”.

Brownsville Trunks with Treats, on Thursday, October 31st, will be sponsored by Gold

Eagle Markets, Oregon House Store and Foothill Firefighters Association. There will be a haunted house, bounce house, games, food and beverages. It will be set up in the parking lot of the Foothill Fire Department on Willow Glen Rd. The event will start at 5:00 pm and run until 8:00 pm, rain or shine. Right now, they are looking for help for the set up and tear down, and candy donations. If you wish to bring your vehicle and hand out candy to the “little ghoulies”, there will also be spaces available at Brownsville Mercantile and Books & More parking lots. Dress up, decorate your vehicle and come make this a fantastic Halloween for our Foothill kids.

much lower then and paid for with local taxes.

Now, cities, counties and districts are dreaming up new taxes and fees to get their $100,000 to $500,000 annual salaries depending on where they work in the “Golden State.” Salaries are so exorbitant that smaller, rural jurisdictions cannot keep their employees due to the lure of big money elsewhere.

In the private sector salaries have a governor on them called the bottom line. If the product or service does not produce significant revenue and profit the salaries are changed by the market. Businesses either adjust or close the doors. Employees then go elsewhere and agree to another salary or they don’t work.

In government, now controlled by employee unions, it is an incestuous affair with politicians and unions servicing one another. The citizens that pay the salaries have no say in any salary and pension agreements. It is corrupt particularly when government leaders violate the free speech rights of voters by using tax funds to promote new tax measures. It has become an entitlement system.

Marysville, CA is beginning to charge for 911 responses even after raising an additional 1% sales tax and millions more for public safety. However, the amounts the city council is charging for a response is a mystery. It would be helpful to know what it will cost if 911 is called.

The opponents of Marysville’s sales tax increase were correct. The new revenue went for pensions, health costs and increased salaries.

Public safety was the candy to get the vote. Once money enters the general fund it is fungible and disappears.

Letter to Editors – Facts

To: The Territorial Dispatch, C. Appeal Democrat, and Pioneer Review

This letter was sent to at least three newspapers. The writer refused to give name or location. The Editor felt it was still important for the public to see what nonsense goes on.

Sirs: I finally have to take umbrage at the factually incorrect horse $#!* that you sometimes print. I am a firm supporter of facts and the first amendment. However stupid, short sighted, factually wrong, double barreled idiot nonsense that ignores factual evidence has got to stop. In a recent diatribe one of your so called “Journalists” stated that the pacific garbage patch was a liberal hoax to get more money. Wow, horse $#!* and nonsense.

The National Geographic Society and a few others with real reputations to maintain stated about 9 million tons of trash wash into the pacific every year. Where do you think it goes? All the ships that lose cargo, all the plastic bags in the rivers, do you think they just disappear? This is your chance to state the truth. There is a shit load of plastic in the water and we gotta clean it up.

I am willing to bet you 50,000 dollars that we can take a trawl out to where the pacific garbage patch that you stated does not exist and trawl up a bunch of plastic. We can set the parameters in public forum if you accept the wager.

I am an environmentally conscious progressive democrat, by your book that is 4 kinds of stupid, c'mon, take the bet. We will each post a check for 50k at a local bank that I will cash and send 10k to whomever provides the boat. Do it. A chance to show those stupid liberals and tree huggers. Do it.

Disclosure: I have seen the evidence. Taking this bet will cost you 50k or you can nut up and admit you were wrong, when you see all the evidence available and come to a new conclusion

Editors Note:

I do not believe that we ever said that the Pacific Garbage Patch was a hoax. I say this because I know it exists. The problem with people like you is you want to feel like you are doing something noble by stopping people from using plastic bags and straws. When you do all of this nonsensical feel good things you are accomplishing nothing. The problems causing the Pacific Garbage Patch are coming from China, Indonesia, the Philippines, Vietnam, Sri Lanka and Thailand.

If you moved to one of these countries you might really be able to make a difference. There are some facts for you.

“Middle-Class Joe”

Vice President Joe Biden ran point in the government, while his family members waded deep into the political swamp, making millions for the Biden family. Joe is also worth millions and gets richer by the minute. Many people didn't know that for decades Joe had full hip swamp waders with suspenders hanging in his senate office closet. This, along with the dirt that Ruddy G. was supposed to get on “Middle-class Joe's” son Hunter, from the Ukraine, before international politics got to murky; and Ukraine's current prosecutor general Yuriy Lutsenko decided not to play ball.

The Washington law firm Oldaker, Biden (Hunter) & Belair, earned $1.76 million in lobbying revenue in the first half of 2006. Joe's son Hunter (the lobbyist) had to change jobs to protect his father's bid for president. He then became the president of Paradigm Companies LLC, a hedge fund group, for a short period of time. His tenure stopped when he and his uncle, Joe's brother James, were sued for defrauding the hedge fund for millions of dollars. Apparently, Hunter's salary of $1.2 million wasn't enough.

In 2010, brother James, who at the time had no prior, construction experience, was hired as vice president and then became a partner of Hill International, a mid-sized construction company that had a history of losing money. Under the subsidiary, HillStone International, they received a $1.5 billion dollar government contract to build 100,000 homes in Iraq, which turned out to be the company's most profitable job. When asked about how it all happened, Hill's president stated, “it doesn't hurt to have the vice-president's brother as a partner.”

In 2014, Hunter Biden was added as a director to Ukraine's largest private gas producer ($50,000/month), which was under investigation for corruption. During that time, Vice President Biden intervened, by threatened to withhold $1 billion in foreign aid to the Ukraine, if they didn't fire the prosecutor that was looking into the gas company's fraudulent activities. Was that the work of “Middle-class Joe” or “Sleepy-creepy Joe?”

Ed Chow, a senior fellow at the Center for Strategic and International Studies, a U.S. think tank, stated about the Biden's and the Ukraine, “It maybe sends the wrong message that Westerners are just hypocritical.”

“And the beat goes on ... La de da de de, la de da de da.”

Ref. The Rest of the Story

In defense of our director Flohr

On August 26 the Territorial Dispatch published a piece written by Buck Weckmann, in which he rudely expressed his opinion of our irrigation director, Dr. Flohr.

Apart from disagreeing with his assessment completely, I would like to point out that she is an elected official and really should not be referred to in a public forum with such language. Freedom of opinion is a beautiful thing, but publishing slander and hate speech not so much...

Secondly, in her position as representative of the irrigation customers of Dobbins and Oregon

House, we notice that she is doing a great job!

She is relentlessly confronting NYWD with its unwillingness to provide clear information to the public:

She asks for numbers to be backed up by research, sources or science, which seems totally reasonable for a board of directors making big decisions.

She proposed a proper budget discussion with public participation instead of rubber stamping a multimillion dollar budget proposal.

And she advocates for continuing delivery of irrigation water to customers that pay for it and count on it, both for agricultural business and for fire protection in this dry area.

The management refuses to share any documents with her, a member of the Board of Directors, so she has to rely on multiple Public Information Requests to do her job.

Somehow it is hard for me to understand what interest Mr. Weckmann, a domestic customer, has in how our irrigation division's director represents us, her constituents.

THINK About It!

By Charlie McNiff

The faces of four U.S. presidents, George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Teddy Roosevelt and Abraham Lincoln carved into Mt. Rushmore (white conquerors according to the Regressives) peer southward toward a reservation housing vanquished Lakota Indians, who mostly live out forgotten, impoverished lives.

MINNESOTA STAR TRIBUNE EDITORIAL SPEWS ‘WHITE SUPREMACY’

‘Regressive’ Faction Targets Mt. Rushmore

Well now, isn't this special...the ‘Regressives’ (recently begat by Progressive Democrats... who were begat eons ago by Liberals) now want to tear down (blow up?) the nation's iconic sculpture of four of our presidents at Mt. Rushmore in South Dakota.

The Regressives are a growing part of the Democrat Party...and they sure like to make a lot of noise. Yes, you can lump the AN-TIFA crowd that wear the black masks who bully people at demonstrations and have sent numerous people to the hospital with injuries...that included a free lance reporter that wound up with a brain injury. What a bunch of cowards.

The same is true most recently with the hoodlums in New York City that were caught on camera throwing buckets of water on policemen trying to arrest a person.

These isolated episodes of anarchy must be curtailed or the little bonfires could turn into firestorms.

The following article posted by Leslie Eastman is just another example where the Regressives want to change our country by demolishing the past. Mt. Rushmore should be a line in the sand that the Regressives dare not pass.

“Friday August 16, 2019, New York Times executive editor Dean Baquet revealed plans to shift its focus after the Russian collusion failed. Now the publication will focus on portraying President Donald Trump as racist.

Part and parcel with that approach is the paper's development of “The 1619 Project.” The creators hoped the project would alter our view of our founding to make the introduction of slavery the real beginning point of American history. Conservative pundit Byron York has this analysis of “The 1619 Project” in The Washington Examiner:

The basic thrust of the 1619 Project is that everything in American history is explained by slavery and race. The message is woven throughout the first publication of the project, an entire edition of the Times magazine. It begins with an overview of race in America — “Our democracy's founding ideals were false when they were written. Black Americans have fought to make them true.” — written by Times writer Nikole Hannah-Jones, who on Twitter uses the identity Ida Bae Wells, from the crusading late 19th-early 20th century African American journalist Ida B. Wells.

The essays go on to cover the economy (“If you want to understand the brutality of American capitalism, you have to start on the plantation.”), the food we eat (“The sugar that saturates the American diet has a barbaric history as the ‘white gold’ that fueled slavery.”), the nation's physical health (“Why doesn't the United States have universal healthcare? The answer begins with policies enacted after the Civil War.”), politics (“America holds onto an undemocratic assumption from its founding: that some people deserve more power than others.”).

During his show today (August 21, 2019), the iconic pundit Rush Limbaugh noted that sister publications would shortly push this message as well.

The first out of this nasty gate is The Minnesota Star Tribune, which just posted an opinion piece that portrays Mt. Rushmore as a monument to white supremacy.

The editorial, penned by Ron Way (a former official of the U.S. Interior Department and its National Park Service) even features the KKK!

But the back story of Mount Rushmore is hardly a rich history of a shared democratic ideal. Some see the monument in the Black Hills as one of the spoils of violent conquest over indigenous tribes by a U.S. Army clearing the way for white settlers driven westward by a lust for land and gold.

As it was in colonial America, the young country's expansion was fueled by “Manifest Destiny” — a self-supreme notion that any land coveted by Euro-Americans was, by providence, rightfully theirs for the taking.

...The sculptures were chiseled by an imported Ku Klux Klansman on a granite mountain owned by indigenous tribes on what they considered sacred land — land that the U.S. Supreme Court said in 1980 was illegally taken from them.

Way continues in this vein, creating the most delusional piece of historical analysis I have ever seen published. Considering I have read books tying ancient Egypt to extraterrestrials, this is a remarkable achievement.

The racialism and fabulism drip from Way's account.

...George Washington and Thomas Jefferson owned slaves.

Abraham Lincoln famously emancipated slaves, but he supported eradicating Indian tribes from western lands and approved America's largest-ever mass execution, the hanging of 38 Dakota in Mankato for their alleged crimes in the 1862 war along the Minnesota River.

Teddy Roosevelt, in his “The Winning of the West,” wrote: “I don't go so far as to think that the only good Indians are dead Indians, but I believe nine out of every ten are ....”

Even the orientation of the monument is racist!

At Mount Rushmore, you may learn that the sculptures are arranged for maximum sun exposure, itself a cruel irony: The faces of the four presidents (white conquerors) peer southeast toward a reservation housing vanquished Lakota, who mostly live out forgotten, impoverished lives in the shadow of their sacred Paha Sapa that, legally, still belong to them.

The approach is working about as well as Limbaugh predicted.

Charlie's Comments: As to sculptor Borglum being a member of the KKK, other members of that group included a number of southern politicians such as Democrat Senators, Robert Byrd and Strom Thurmond, to name just a couple. Oh yeah, and the KKK was formed to be the policing arm of the Democrat Party in the South.

“Why No Tourist?”

The tourism board “Visit Yuba-Sutter” is trying to figure out why tourism is declining in this area. Is it a lack of fine dining, a lack of name brand stores, or the unmanageable traffic mess in Marysville? I think not. In my opinion, the lack of tourism is directly linked to the loss of recreational opportunities. Specifically, the loss of our once scenic and pristine rivers. No one wants to visit an area whose once magnificent rivers are now polluted on a daily basis with human waste and garbage. Tourist are not flocking to visit river banks with makeshift fences and warnings to keep out and protected by packs of unwelcoming dogs. Nor are tourist interested in fishing in polluted waters or floating down a river lined with trash, garbage and third world buildings. Until our rivers are returned to their once magnificent and pristine condition, no amount of money or enthusiasm is going to lure tourist back to this area.

Then and Now

At the North Yuba Water District meeting held August 22, 2019 former NYWD Board President Don Forgunson asked the attorney for NYWD, "

Had anyone ever been convicted of Brown Act violations?" He seemed pleased when she answered not to her knowledge. Didn't Mr.

Forgunson swear an oath to uphold the Brown Act when he became a board director?

Your One Minute News Digest

by Don Rae

- Humans eating meat is destroying the planet. So says a brain-dead snowflake Democrat. For more than a million years man has eaten meat. And for millions of years in the past, animals have killed other animals and eaten meat. Guess what? The earth isn't dead yet.

- DiBlasio is considering deleting gifted and talented programs in the New York City Schools. Brilliant. Hopefully this type of thinking is not going on in any California school district, although

- Many California schools are already on the wrong track in some areas. The powers that be in many districts are teaching kids that being White is racist. Further, they espouse that capitalism is the problem in the USA and that killing jobs and prosperity is what is required to “save the earth.” Going even further, the so-called educators want kids to disregard DNA and pretend there are dozens of genders and that school curriculum should include pretending you are the opposite sex. Now educators want $15 billion in new taxes to assure public schools can continue to teach these crazy theories and add more junk to the indoctrination.

- Hurricane Dorian is a bummer. But think through the weather forecasts which were trotted out every hour since the hurricane began forming. First it was to go one way, then another and finally the “forecasters really didn't know where it was going or how large it would become.” Think about that fact, AOC and your snowflake followers. If forecasters have that much trouble with their “models” day to day and hour to hour, what makes you think that they can forecast accurately what is going to happen with climate and weather 10 to 50 years from now?

- Consider this also. Scientists studying evidence preserved in cave formations found that global sea levels were as much as 52 feet higher more than 3 million years ago than they are today. The findings, based on a scientific analysis of deposits from Arta' Cave on the island of Mallorca, show a time when Earth was two to three degrees Celsius warmer than in the pre-industrial era. Let's see how these findings match (or not) the study of current-day sea-level rise. What sea level rise? Where?

- Further, there is good reason to believe that US temperatures have not warmed at all since the dust bowl days of the 1930s. All the so-called warming is due to “adjustments” made to raw data. In other words, we are being lied to in order that devious people can make huge amounts to money.

- Stephen Franks hits the nail on the head. But he should hit the legislators on the head. Unfortunately by so doing he would only find sawdust in most heads. One reason that California taxpayers are forced to finance the Hollywood super-rich, is to keep them from going to other States? Seriously, isn't it time to tell MGM, Sony, and the rest of the hate America super-rich in Hollywood to put their own money at risk?

- CalPERS is supposed to be a fiduciary looking out for the best interests of its members. The reality is the members of the CalPERS board are nothing more than puppets dangling on strings held by ideological fools who encourage corruption, incompetence and mismanagement. Asset assignment is based on ideology and politics, not fiduciary needs for the members. They invest in social justice/environmental instruments, knowing they will lose money. They lost more dollars than we can count by selling off tobacco and oil stock. How are they going to make that up? And local agencies continue to negotiate higher and higher pensions for public employees to be paid by what?

- Catherine Stephani, a San Francisco Board of Supervisors member put forth a resolution, passed unanimously by the Board, declaring the NRA as a Domestic Terrorist Organization. This document thus makes some 5 million Americans, who are members of the NRA, terrorists. What a stupid thing to do. Think of what needs to be done in San Francisco – homelessness, people sleeping on the streets, homeless living in the portable toilets at the waterfront, cleanup crews paid to clean up human waste on the streets and sidewalks, rent higher than gross wages for many. But don't take any actions about these and other horrid conditions in the city. Blame everything on the NRA.

- A note to AOC, one of the most illiterate person's ever to serve in Congress: If the oceans are rising, then why are the Bahamas still above water after being hit by one of the strongest storms in history? Why don't you and your followers go back to a real school and get some education?

- The Amazon rainforest covers parts of nine countries in South America. But the current forest fire is only in Brazil. And these fires are usually set by humans who live in the forest for cleaning out the brush for gardening purposes. This practice has gone on for thousands of years. Guess what snowflakes, the forest grows back eventually. It is instructive to note that pictures you are getting on the internet are not of the current fire, but fires of some years past. Propaganda and lies. Too bad we have folks who are stuck in a low level of human development. Grow up snowflakes. Use critical thinking. Don't always believe what the mainstream media and social media blab about.

- Have you noticed that Shifty Schiff and brain-dead Swalwell have popped back into their holes over the Mueller Report. There's nothing there and it cost us millions to discover that simple fact. Remember how often and loudly these creeps claimed to have the evidence. Well, snowflakes, where is the evidence? Produce it. Since you both have lied through your eye teeth for so long, you should both resign immediately.

- Poor Prince Charles. He's been crying about plastics since 1970. But we don't find mounds of plastic containers blocking our doorways, as he suggested.

San Fran Officials Designate NRA a Domestic Terrorist Organization

by Stephen Frank

The NRA kills no one, but protects the Second Amendment rights of all American citizens. Planned Parenthood KILLS over 300,000 babies every year—mostly children of color. Yet the San Fran Politburo—known as the Board of Supervisors—has unanimously declared the NRA as a domestic terrorist organization, but continues to support the genocide promoted by Planned Parenthood. That is how a totalitarian State operates—it opposes freedom and supports the death of opponents.

“The San Francisco Board of Supervisors unanimously passed a resolution Tuesday declaring the National Rifle Association a domestic terrorist organization and urging other municipalities, states and the federal government to do the same.

The resolution calls out the NRA for inciting acts of violence and spreading “misinformation and propaganda” and encourages the city to assess and limit contracts with vendors affiliated with the NRA. It stops short, though, of putting in place any enforcement mechanisms or new regulations.”

This is only a short step from the Politburo demanding the names of NRA members and rounding them up. That is the next step. Sounds extreme? These folks are extremists.

“Cover It!” Utility Box Mural Project Update

Marysville, Ca.
Have you noticed all the new utility boxes being painted with beautiful mural designs in Yuba City? Two years ago, Yuba Sutter Arts (YSA) introduced the “Cover It!” Utility Box Mini-Mural Project as part of its Arts Everywhere initiative. The “Cover It!” program is designed to support art in public places and to enhance neighborhoods through the creation of these mini-murals. With the tremendous artistic talent in Yuba-Sutter, there has been no shortage of great ideas for mini-mural subjects ranging from our ethnic diversity, our agricultural heritage, our Veteran community, the natural beauty of Yuba-Sutter and more.

As a result of an ongoing collaboration with the City of Yuba City, YSA was able to contract for twelve additional murals with nine different artists. Each utility box is owned by the City and protects traffic signal equipment.

Here’s the list of the new locations along with the title and artist name:

- Town Square Plumas Blvd. & C Street - “This Land is Your Land” by Lisa Sines
- Gray Avenue at Louise Avenue - “Equal Dot Bracket” by Jeremy Padilla
- Stabler Lane at Poole Blvd. - “Land of the Free Because of the Brave” by Lori Moyer
- Butte House Road at Civic Center Blvd. - “Maidu Woman” by Madelyne Templeton
- Stabler Lane at Queens Avenue - “Yuba-Sutter Proud” by Miranda Norris
- N. Walton Avenue at Sam’s Club - “Rabbits and Flowers” by Madelyne Templeton
- Butte House Road at Harter Parkway - “Flying High” by Rodney Herrera

- Gray Avenue at Ainsley Avenue - “Thank You to Our Veterans” by Abbie Cesena
- Butte House Road at Tharp Road - “Woman with Peaches” by Alondra Bains
- Butte House Road at Yuba Plaza - “A Different Perspective” by Alondra Bains
- Harter Parkway at Colusa Frontage - “Blue Herons” by Alexandra Sprowls and the RVHS Art Club
- Gray Avenue at Queens Avenue - “Cactus” by Madelyne Templeton

A few of these are still under development so please be patient. The designs were chosen by a committee of Yuba City Staff and community members from submissions received by an open Call to Artists. About 50 different concepts were received for consideration.

“When we started this project, we had no idea how popular these little murals would become,”

said David Read, Yuba Sutter Arts Executive Director. “The City of Yuba City has been a great partner, and this just goes to show the power of public art as a real game-changer in a community,” he added. The “Cover It!” Utility Box Mini-Mural Project started with the Art, Wine & Wickets joint fundraiser with the Rotary Club of Yuba City and Yuba Sutter Arts. The money raised helped to cover the cost of the first few boxes.

The mural project will continue to enhance the aesthetics of Yuba-Sutter, promote civic pride, increase pedestrian traffic and extend the reach of public art while creating an attractive environment and allowing art to be introduced to the public in a creative and inventive way. The program goal is to bring beauty to unexpected places such as utility boxes and, in the future, other public infrastructure.

Yuba Water Agency General Manager Curt Aikens gives a speech after receiving ASCE’s 2019 Lifetime Achievement Award during the 2019 Outstanding Individual Awards Banquet on September 4, 2019

YWA General Manager Wins Lifetime Achievement Award

Marysville, Ca.
Honoring his outstanding efforts and professional achievements in civil engineering, Yuba Water Agency General Manager Curt Aikens this week received the American Society of Civil Engineers Sacramento Section 2019 Lifetime Achievement Award.

This award recognizes individuals who, through their innovative efforts and long-term involvement, have advanced or significantly contributed to the field of civil engineering for the benefit of the community.

“I feel privileged to be in a position where we can make such a difference in reducing flood risk for an area that has been hit so hard by flooding in the past,” said Aikens. “We are now well on our way to being one of the best protected urban areas at risk of flooding in all of California.”

Aikens was specifically recognized for leading Yuba Water Agency’s role in reducing the flood risk for the people of Yuba County, which includes foundational planning and support for the levee improvements for the city of Marysville, and for Reclamation District 784 in the Arboga, Olivehurst and Linda areas. He was also recognized for his role in the development and operations of the Forecast-Coordinated Operations program for New Bullards Bar and Oroville Reservoir water releases, ensuring consistent communications during potential flood events to coordinate releases in an effort to prevent flooding. Additionally, the award highlighted Aikens for the initiation of the new secondary spillway project at New Bullards

Bar Dam, which will significantly reduce flood risk even more, and enhance dam safety.

Aikens has worked for Yuba Water Agency for 21 years and has partnered with local levee maintaining agencies, state and federal agencies, as well as environmental organizations to successfully advance projects to reduce flood risk and significantly improve public safety for the people of Yuba County.

The ASCE Sacramento Section presented the award during its 2019 Outstanding Individual Awards Banquet on September 4, in Sacramento.

South Yuba County Rotary President, Francisco Reveles said, “I had never been part of a shooting sports fundraiser event until last year and it was a blast, literally!” “It is an honor to once again be partnering with the Exchange Club and the Geweke’s Caring for Women Foundation for this year’s event to help raise funds for the Cure,” he added.

In addition to supporting Pink October, profits from this event will also support Rotary youth programs and Exchange Club of Marysville’s Officers of the Year program. The clubs are seeking additional sponsors and raffle item donations to support this event. Please contact David

Marysville, Ca.

Yuba College is honored to be the recipient of The Moving Vietnam Wall Memorial on September 12-16, 2019 at 2088 North Beale Road, Marysville.

The Moving Vietnam Wall Memorial is the half-size replica of the Washington, DC Vietnam Veterans Memorial and has been touring the country for thirty plus years. He vowed to share that experience with those who did not have the opportunity to go to Washington.

Once "The Wall" is constructed on Thursday, September 12 (located in the large grassy area between Bldg 200 (Music) and the West Parking Lot) it will be open 24 hours a day and will be free to the public for viewing. # Cotton Rosser Named 2019 Legend of ProRodeo

Colorado Springs, CO ProRodeo Hall of Fame stock contractor Cotton Rosser has been named the 2019 Legend of ProRodeo. Rosser will be honored at the 12th annual Wrangler Gold Buckle Gala on Dec. 2 at the South Point Grand Ballroom in Las Vegas. “This is a wonderful, great honor to receive,” said Rosser, 91. Rosser was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 1995. Rosser and his son, Reno, operate the Flying U Rodeo and Rosser Rodeo stock contracting companies based in Marysville, Calif. They produce about 50 rodeos a year. “I’m just the PR man now,” Cotton said with a chuckle. “I never imagined my rodeo career would be like this. I’m the richest guy in the world with memories and friends. I’ve loved every minute of the rodeo business and I would do it all over again. It has been a great experience.” Rosser is the 14th man to be honored with the ProRodeo Legend award, following Jake Barnes, Jim Shoulders, Clem McSpadden, Harry Vold, Larry Mahan, Shawn Davis, Dean Oliver, Donnie Gay, Benny Binion, Mel Potter, Neal Gay, Michael Gaughan, and Keith Martin. Rosser is a pioneer in the rodeo industry who was ahead of his time in developing the entertainment side of rodeo. Rosser received the PRCA Donita Barnes Contract Personnel Lifetime Achievement award in 2015. “A lot of rodeos we have, we have had for 60 years, like the Cow Palace, Red Bluff (in California) and Reno (Nev.),” said Rosser, who served on the PRCA Board of Directors for many years. “They even put a statue up in Reno of me (in 2014). It just doesn’t get much better. I have raised a good family and I really tried to help rodeo. Some people say if you’ve seen one rodeo, you have seen them all, and I have always said I don’t think that’s quite true. Rodeo is the greatest sport in the world, and I’m glad to have been a part of it for the last 70 years.” Rosser still rides a horse into the arena, and he wouldn’t have it any other way. “Rodeo is the only thing I know,” Rosser said. “It doesn’t get better than that when you ride into the arena and they play the national anthem and there is a full house,” he said. For more than 60 years, Rosser has been known for his spectacular, flamboyant opening ceremonies at rodeos on the West Coast and for many years at the National Finals Rodeo. Rosser is considered the “P.T. Barnum” of professional rodeo. He has searched out ideas from sources as remote from the sport as ice shows and circuses, looking for that special something he can add to his productions. The other side of Rosser is his history as a top cowboy, who started competing in all of rodeo’s standard events as a teenager and later as a member of his college rodeo team at Cal Poly University-San Luis Obispo. As a professional, he won buckles, saddles and trophies. Among his many titles, one of Rosser’s highlights was winning the all-around title at the 1951 Grand National Rodeo in San Francisco. Rosser purchased the Flying U Rodeo Ranch in 1956, which is now the oldest continuing rodeo livestock company in the United States. In 1985, Rosser was named PRCA Stock Contractor of the Year.

5th Annual Golden Autumn Wine Festival

Coming Soon

A one-of-a-kind wine tasting event, the 5th Annual Golden Autumn Wine Festival, combines quality wines, pleasant entertainment and a soothing country setting on Sunday, September 22 in the shady apple orchard at Bishop’s Pumpkin Farm in Wheatland. This year, the day includes about a dozen wineries from the region that will be on hand to talk about their wines and to provide complimentary tastings. In addition, seven other specialty businesses will showcase complimentary products. “Each year, the event is fine-tuned and expanded to provide a classy atmosphere and first-class wine tasting experience,” said Bob Harlan, Executive Director for the Yuba-Sutter-

Colusa United Way, which organizes the event. “As always, Bishop’s generously offsets most of our costs of staging the event and we are honored to have our presenting sponsors, Sierra Central Credit Union and Sutter Health joining us this year,” said Harlan. In addition to wine tasting, pleasant background music will be provided by the Tu-Tones, a Taco Cart will be on hand to provide lunch at a nominal cost and Bishops will be showcasing their “The Other Side of the Tracks” wine and beer garden in the apple orchard with several craft beers and hard cider for an additional cost. As in past years, many of the wineries will be selling bottles and cases to take home. Parking is free that day and all the rides, features and shops will be open at Bishop’s. As always, there is no entry charge at Bishop’s Pumpkin Farm. The Golden Autumn Wine Festival runs from 11:00 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Tickets are $30.00 per person. Plus, if desired, an additional $5.00 buys a full glass of wine. You can purchase tickets online at yscunitedway.org (click on “Events” tab) or by calling the United Way office weekdays at (530) 743-1847. It is preferred to purchase tickets in advance. The venue is open only to adults ages 21 and over. Proceeds will benefit Yuba-Sutter-Colusa United Way’s 27 partner agencies and Community Impact grant program recipients.
