

Yuba Co. Board Puts Sales Tax on the Ballot

Gretchen Flohr addressing the Yuba Board of Supervisors

Marysville, Ca. — On Thursday, August 9, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. the Yuba County Board of Supervisors unanimously voted to put a 1% sales tax increase on the November 6th ballot. There were approximately 40 people in attendance, mostly county staff and employees. Two residents from Yuba County were the only ones that spoke besides county officials. 5th District Supervisor Candidate Alton Wright spoke and Gretchen Flohr from Oregon House.

Candidate Wright said, "There have been too many missteps made by the County. Voters don't know what to believe and are now pushed into an uncomfortable corner. The Safety Tax is an unacceptable bandaid." While Gretchen Flohr's concerns that not enough of the proposed tax was going to fire departments.

Robert Bendorf Yuba County Administrator commented on Friday, "Thursday's unanimous vote by the Board of Supervisors means voters in the unincorporated parts of Yuba County will have the opportunity to have their voices heard in November on supporting public safety and essential services. Voters will have a chance to establish local control of funding for public safety and essential services; funding that would not be controlled by the state."

Mistler Begins Write-In Campaign

Browns Valley, Ca.
John Mistler ran for Yuba County Supervisor 5th District and came in 14 votes short in the primary. He has begun the Write-In process to win in November.

Mistler said, "I didn't even know that you could do a "Write-In" campaign until some residents of Brownsville contacted me. They were concerned that they did not care politically for either candidate and did not have a good choice in a candidate for November. While a write in means more work and is harder to win; the fact I was only 14 votes short and I still have three months to talk one-on-one with the voters I had a better than normal chance to win. I want to be very clear that I got into the race because the incumbent Fletcher broke the law when he, as a representative of the people, denied the people the right to vote. I think all citizens should take that seriously and I will do whatever I can to bring honest representation to Yuba County. Now if we can only agree to get candidates nights in the 5th district and get Fletcher to attend, to date he has not allowed the voters access to ask direct questions.

The Yuba County Board of Supervisors passed a resolution that will put a sales tax increase on the November ballot. While I do not agree with the tax increase, I do agree with putting it on the ballot. Randy Fletcher should have been consistent and allowed the people to vote on the initiative that he illegally stopped. He wants us to vote on a tax increase but not to vote on sharing profits from water sales."

A "Write-in" campaign is very similar to regular campaign except that instead of drawing a line to connect two dots you must write in the candidate's name, that is considered to be the hard part. In this case it would be Mistler.

Politicians Skirt Law to Skim from Taxpayers

by Lou Binninger

The Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association (HJTA) filed a lawsuit against the County of Los Angeles for "gross misconduct" when it "illegally spent" close to $1 million in taxpayer funds on political advertising. The lawsuit seeks reimbursement to the County Treasury and civil penalties.

County officials funded a campaign consultant and political advertising to push Measure H, a sales tax increase that was on the ballot in March 2017. The English and Spanish radio and television commercials touted homeless programs that Measure H would make possible. The spots used the tag line, "Measure H, Real Help, Lasting Change, Vote March 7," but never mentioning about a tax increase to accomplish the feat.

California law allows public funds to provide voters impartial information regarding the pros and cons of a proposed ballot measure, but it forbids government to "take sides" in elections or give an unfair advantage to one of several competing factions." (Stanson v. Mott (1976) 17 Cal.3d 206, 217.)

The lawsuit also alleges that the County failed to identify itself as the sponsor of its advertising, and failed to file required campaign disclosures and expenditure reports

Government Code Section 8314 says, "It is unlawful for any elected state or local officer, including any state or local appointee, employee, or consultant, to use or permit others to use public resources for a campaign activity, or personal or other purposes which are not authorized by law."

The law is based on the principle that it would be unfair and undemocratic for officials to use taxpayers' money for self-serving political campaigns. However, California officials up and down the state are doing just that, with little fear of being pursued by prosecutors or the state Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC).

Obama's IRS at Fault

by Lou Binninger

Last week, U.S. District Judge Michael R. Barrett approved a $3.5 million settlement on behalf of more than 100 Tea Party Chapters and other groups against the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Hundreds of Tea Party and other conservative organizations had been targeted, harassed, investigated and stonewalled when applying for tax exempt status.

The government's intimidation successfully curbed the growing influence of the libertarian and conservative movement that advocated for a smaller government, reducing spending and the national debt, fewer regulations and opposing tax increases. Though many candidates were elected with Tea Party help, President Obama's use of government agencies to trouble private citizens was successful in preventing the activists from derailing his campaign for a second term.

The Tea Party movement began following Barack Obama's first presidential inauguration (in January 2009) when his administration announced plans to give financial aid to bankrupt homeowners. That was a tipping point for many passive people to take action.

Though not an official political party, the Tea Party had impact as hundreds of thousands of citizens grew tired of their political party's impotence and became activists. The movement's name refers to the Boston Tea Party of December 16, 1773, an act of rebellion and protest in the launch of the American Revolution. The 1773 event demonstrated against taxation by the British government without political representation for the American colonists.

Historically, requests for IRS 501(C)3 and 501(C)4 recognition were swiftly determined in a few months based upon answers to standard questions to confirm the entity's tax exempt purpose. However, that changed when Senator Barack Obama became president.

In May 2013, the media began reporting that the IRS flagged Tea Party and other conservative groups for review of their applications for tax-exempt status during and prior to the 2012 election. This led to both political and public condemnation of the agency, and triggered multiple investigations. President Obama said the first he knew of the controversy was by reading it in the media. This is the same response he offered for the shameful Fast and Furious and Benghazi corruption.

Some groups were asked for members' names, their affiliations, and donor lists, which are usually a violation of IRS policy. Groups were also asked for details about family members and about their postings on social networking sites. Names of past and future speakers were demanded. Once one set of questions were answered, another list would arrive in the mail.

The Yuba-Sutter Tea Party Patriots was one of the chapters

Politicians Skirt Law to Skim from Taxpayers

Yuba County Administrator Robert Bendorf and five supervisors have authorized the use of hundreds of thousands of dollars to do exactly what Los Angeles County did – use the taxpayer’s money to convince voters to give wealthy officials more funds.

HJTA complained to the FPPC that LA County should have filed a campaign finance report, but the FPPC refused to act. The county gave TBWB Strategies, a San Francisco consulting firm, a $1 million contract to work on Measure H. So, HJTA filed a lawsuit to challenge the TBWB contract’s legality.

Tax increase measures are a rich cash trough for public relations firms to feed from. Boards and councils are basically copycats willing to all go over the cliff together holding hands. The law and ethics are no hindrance. Officials see no conflict in using the voters’ tax dollars to snooker them.

LA County is also promoting a parcel tax to take more funds to address a deplorable water system that has been ignored for decades. The “parcel tax” on the November ballot will assess 2.5 cents per square foot of “improvements that cannot be permeated by rainwater,” such as driveways. It will lift an estimated $300 million in annual revenue from property owners.

The county will pay a “hired gun” $2 million for “public outreach and education.” The California Taxpayers Association says that an “educational video aired during the (supervisors’) meeting touted the measure as one that would result in ‘better quality of life for everyone in L.A.’ and ended with the statement: ‘Now let’s do this, before the opportunity dries up.’ ”

Sounds like a slanted presentation and biased approach in violation of the law.

Proposition 6 will also be on the November ballot to repeal SB1, the Gas Tax and DMV Fee increase passed by the legislators. The state is now illegally using taxpayer dollars to convince voters to keep the tax. Senator Ling Ling Chang is challenging the use of Caltrans signage at construction sites celebrating the taxes and fees in light of the citizens’ repeal effort.

Government employees, unions and those benefitting by more road construction are opposing repeal of SB1. The same government employees, their family members and unions will vote for Yuba County’s sales tax.

Yuba County has more than 1,000 employees, plus their families all voting for a bigger handful from the voters’ pockets. That’s the danger of a massive government that can basically vote to take whatever it wants when it wants it. Federal, state, county and city employees now are in control.

FISHIN’ TALK
by Boots Johnson
Dan “Boots” Johnson has fished and hunted in California for 73 years. Anyone with questions or comments can email him at boots3@syix.com

The word up north is about a huge plant of rainbow trout. The Department of Fish and Wildlife last week dumped 12,000 pounds of trout into Davis Lake. Now that is a bunch of fish and we wonder who knows who. At any rate the plant should be a winner for anglers in that area. Other areas which also received planted trout were Donner Lake, Grace Lake, Gold Lake and Deer Creek.

The trout are on the move at Collins Lake. These fish have been scarce for the last couple of months, but now are being caught in the deep portion of the reservoir with some big trout being reported. This more than likely means near the dam, which has the deepest water on the lake. We are told power bait and lures have been productive.

Stampede Reservoir is brim full of kokanee salmon. Anglers are having great success here and a bunch of people are boasting limits. Reports tell us a few cut-throat trout have also been taken. Best bet is to troll down to 75 or 80 feet.

The weather at Lake Almanor is hot, really hot. This has slowed down the bite in this reservoir located at Chester. However, current weather temperatures have dropped which should bring back the bite until another heat wave hits this popular lake due to show up next week.

Reports tell us the kokanee salmon are still hitting at Stampede Reservoir but have moved into deeper water down around 80 feet. This change will require trollers to switch to darker colors on their lures.

We are told, from a reliable source, that the kokanee salmon at Hell Hole Reservoir have finally grown up in size and anglers are catching fish up to 14 or 15 inches. The land locked salmon are down deep, at or near 90 feet. This means you will need to troll with darker lures here also.

The kokanee salmon are also cooperating at Bucks Lake up near Quincy. Anglers are having success pulling lures behind flashers down around 50 feet.

We are reminded of the advantage of a light wind when trolling. The light wind creates a ripple effect on the surface of the water, which in turn improves the bite.

Boots fishing tip of the week: “The salmon are here, both in the Feather and Sacramento Rivers. Time to go after them now.”

traumatic event to get together and meet other people who have been through the same thing. That way they know they are not alone in how they are feeling. They go to many different kinds of events that enrich their lives. The institute also has a children's camp for the same reason, they can get together to have a great time and connect with other children who are having the same life experience.

Another thing they do that really melted our hearts is they have a special camp for the families of young burn survivors. Often times children can feel left out when they have a sibling with special needs. This camp is designed to help bring all of the family together and make the siblings feel special and noticed. Also help the family reunite on a very fun level while learning to cope with the ups and downs of being part of a family with special needs. This is the only preschool burn camp for that age group in the entire nation.

It is a lot that they do at the Firefighters Burn Institute, and that isn't even all they do. This is where the word firefighter comes into play. When a firefighter gets burned the Firefighter Burn Institute sends over a representative to meet the firefighter as they are transported over to the burn unit at UC Davis. The representative meets with the family and helps to meet their needs during a really hard time. They help with a place to stay close to the hospital, any needs the patient may have.

What an amazing thing this organization does for victims of burns. If you would like to learn more about what they do you can visit their web page @ www.ffburn.org. Thank you Firefighters Burn Institute and thank you to our community for driving by just to put money in our boots! We are looking forward to seeing you out there next year.

The property offered for sale excludes all funds held on account by the property receiver, if applicable. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. Notice to Potential Bidders If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a Trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a Trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. OPINION

Nothing is for Free

It is really annoying to watch these three socialist senators claim they want to provide FREE MEDICARE for all Americans.

This cannot be the Medicare that us seniors have now. It is NOT free now. For those us over 65, a monthly premium of at least $134 is deducted from our social security monthly payments. This year, we must pay an annual deductible is the first $1340 for a hospital bill and the first $183 for doctors bills and then we are responsible for what's left after Medicare pays their part of the claim. Plus prescriptions are extra. So we are looking at over $3100 per year plus the 20% of doctors bills and prescriptions. These amounts go up every year. All this after we paid our whole working lives for this insurance until we reached 65 years old. But the healthcare services are reasonably good.

So NO, MEDICARE IS NOT free ! So what are they selling? It must MediCAID ! Also called Medi-CAL in California. which is healthcare for the poverty stricken. MediCAID and

The annual event known as The Forbestown Daze is held in Forbestown for about 7 hours each first Saturday of August. They have the distinction of hosting “the longest, continuous parade in California”! If all participants walk or drive real slow, the parade may take all of 10 minutes! Its great fun, a real local event that sees thousands of participants, whether vendors or history buffs or buyers of all sorts. This year, we had the added political ambience of a wannabe county supervisor.

For a few weeks prior to the actual event, at the Forbestown entrance (population estimated at 1,500) you're greeted with a banner advertising the Forbestown Daze, among other things, as

School Has Started, Indoctrination Has Begun

I remember when I was a kid many, many, moons ago, school started right after Labor Day around the first of September... So why did it change? Well, I was talking to a student who is getting a degree in teaching, and I was told it all had to do with Mexico! Yep, you read that right... Mexico and the Illegals. You see the Migrant Cheap Labor Workers both legal and Illegal go down to Mexico around the middle of June and then come back for the harvest in August and stay for the winter holiday jobs. Then a week or so before Christmas they go back to Mexico and come back a week or so after the New Year so their kids can go to school for free and they can collect welfare. That is why the kids get 3 weeks for Christmas break now instead of 2 like it use to be. The Illegal kids also are sadly not as intelligent as American kids and need a lot more time to learn. Then factor in all the other new holidays and teacher days off and summer isn't as long as a use to be for the kids. (I know mom and dad... you can't wait for them to go back, hahaha) Then you have to factor in the money.... yes the money... the money the schools get PER STUDENT legal or illegal and the money the illegals and legal Mexicans take back to Mexico to give to their families so they can buy them homes, ranches and cars and other items they would not be able to afford, because, Mexico is indeed an S-Hole Country, because of all the drug gangs and corruption in the government. That play a big role too... and when you get right down to thinking about it, you can't blame them... But, we sure as hell can blame our leftist government officials for allowing our tax dollars to fund non-citizens, and we can blame our corrupt elected officials for catering to illegals and other country's citizens over our own children and their Born in America Tax Paying Parents!

Now I know some of you will question this and say its all bunk and if it is, why would an instructor in college tell a student that? Why? Because, it was explained that All Children illegal and legal are to be educated in California under laws that were passed by the Leftist so they can milk the Federal Government for more education money. Since the Mexicans, legal and illegal, go home to Mexico each year and stay during the times mentioned, the liberal bleeding hearts who desperately need new Sheeple Voters, have changed the School Year to suit their needs and the leftist's Agenda. They know most of you American Citizens are run by the state governments, imagine that. Few private doctors accept Medi-CAL so clinics are set up. Appointments take months to get .The Medi-CAL clinics line up like the DMV. Quality of healthcare would be disappointing to say the least. That would be socialized medicine that would be required for almost everyone. But you can bet these senators along with the rest will be exempt from these requirements.

palling. Alton Wright was present throughout this year's Forbestown Daze and refused to address the very present issue of illegal pot smoking that was so offensive to so many families. Alton Wright is no supervisor! Many families will rethink taking their loved ones to an event plagued with excessive drinking and pervasive pot smoking.

Each previous Forbestown Daze since 2007, included family fun, coupled with supervision, and was an event we really looked to attending. Now, not so much! Please consider whom you cast your supervisor vote for this coming November!

zens will believe whatever bogus excuses they tell you. ..And I am sure some of them will comment on this column and try and say its bunk and come up with other reasons.... So you need to think about this very carefully! The Schools no longer recite the Pledge of Allegiance, they are teaching your kids that they can be whatever gender they choose to be, or they can be an "IT" if they want... They teach the leftist agenda and will torment and even expel anyone who they believe is an American Patriot who believes in our Constitutional Republic, and who does not spew the notion that America is a Democratic Democracy... which it is NOT!

I purposely never mentioned whom the student is and never will, because they would most likely surely be flunked for being a Christian American Patriot who is getting a teaching degree to Make America Great Again! If we don't start infiltrating the Socialist, Communist, Liberal Leftists who have seized control of our Schools and Universities to indoctrinate our children and brainwash them in the communist manifesto, ... America and Our Republic will be Destroyed Forever! Time to Revolt and MAGA!

THINK

About It!

By Charlie McNiff

Over 300,000 Illegals (Sure, they're Undocumented, they're ILLEGAL) were detained in 2017 by border patrol agents coming across the southern border...and 700,000 came into the country through visas. Those 700,000 overstayed their visas...and they are not U.S. citizens...so, they too, should be called illegal.

That's right at ONE MILLION illegals last year. Sounds like Open Borders to me.

George Soros, the Multi-Mega Billionaire, that gave 18 BILLION (that's Eighteen Thousand Million) Dollars to his Open Society Foundation on October 17, 2017 (a scant 9 months ago) to spread bookoo monies around to 199 “directly funded” and 7 “indirectly funded” left-wing organizations (that include some really hard lefties that practice anarchy practically on a daily basis).

You can do a heckuva lot of mischief with that kind of money...and Georgie still had a net worth of EIGHT BILLION $$$.

Soros, at a recent convention of international business leaders in Switzerland, called President Trump “a clear danger to civilization.” That's probably true in the eyes of Soros, who believes in the elitist One World Government with “Citizens of the World” being able to cross borders with impunity... Absolute Chaos.

Open Society Foundation...that sure sounds like Open Borders to me... and there are 16 of those groups counted in the 199 he shovels money to.

One of the 16 that is most familiar to the peasantry is the ACLU... (American Civil Liberties Union) that opposes virtually all post 911 national security measures enacted by the U.S. government. It supports open borders, has rushed to the defense of suspected terrorists and their abettors, and appointed former New Left terrorist Bernardine Dohrn to its Advisory Board.

You remember Bernardine...she and Bill Ayers were in the founding group of Weather Underground, became a close pair and eventually married.

Weather Underground, a militant radical group, was responsible for bombings of the United States Capitol, the Pentagon, and several police stations in New York. Dohrn became the first law student organizer for the National Lawyers Guild.

Bill Ayers is a social justice activist, teacher, distinguished professor education (retired) at the University of Illinois at Chicago, and author of two memoirs, Fugitive Days and Public Enemy...and former leader in Weather Underground.

Both Dohrn and Ayers enjoyed tenure at the University of Illinois at Chicago.

Ayers and Dohrn, early in their activist career, made the FBI's Most Wanted list. S'matter of fact, they were on the run from the FBI for 11 years. Neither of them did any jail time???

The Weather Underground's political goal was to create a revolutionary party to overthrow U.S. imperialism. The bombings, through the 1970's, targeted mostly government buildings, along with several banks. The group stated that the United States government had been exploiting other nations by waging war as a means of solidifying America as a greater nation.

Quite a pair to draw from...especially Bernardine being on the national

BofS: About that Safety Tax

There are several, serious deficiencies in Yuba County government - The absence of a tangible, measurable, 20-25 year-out vision, the lack of an updated strategic plan to get there and scant success metrics to keep us on the right path.

The absence of a vision, planning and metrics are the driving factors why we have reached this troublesome decision. Without these business principles, long ago decisions were made in a reactive, fuzzy manner. They were not proactive, comprehensive or transparent. You are unable to govern strategically, rather you are governing with bandages.

The Safety Tax is yet another bandage. The wound that it's trying to protect should have never been allowed to fester. Now, the County's lack of action places resident's in a dangerous situation.

If the County had vision and an eye towards planning, other sources of revenue would already be online, like the taxes growing in the Foothills. Other monetary and organizational solutions would already be implemented. The County waited too long to deal with budget realities, burnt through cash on the wrong endeavors and borrowed money to bail out an unsustainable situation. More critically, these deficiencies are what jeopardize the future of our public safety, not the potential defeat of the Safety Tax at the ballot box.

You were alerted many months ago that public dissent was bubbling. Instead, you plodded forward with faulty research, a $135,000 investment that yielded only 1,500 biased responses, a sample of less than 2% of the YC population, costing the taxpayers nearly $92 per response.

Your consulting firm drove a maligned strategy, chopping out public input that could have assured a fairer, passable tax. Citizen input should have happened well before the first reading. The poorly attended, “scarehalls” are not a substitute for direct public input on the tax.

You were offered ideas how to make the tax fairer. You rejected them. You were encouraged to shift board of a “civil rights” organization.

Allan Dershowitz, an acclaimed Civil Libertarian and notable law professor at Harvard is appalled about the doings of the ACLU and believes Robert Mueller's “Russian Collusion” investigation was totally tarnished from the get-go. And, furthermore, President Trump should definitely not be questioned in an interview by Mueller and his minions. This says volumes coming from a constitutional lawyer questioning the intent of Mueller, a former Director of the FBI.

Dershowitz, by his stand, has taken a lot of flak from liberal friends in his neighborhood of Martha's Vineyard!!!!...and the world turns.

Back to Open Borders...15 of the “Borderless” organizations include America's Voice, American Friends Service Committee, American Immigration Council, Center For Constitutional Rights, Fair Immigration Reform Movement, Four Freedoms Fund, Human Rights First, Human Rights Watch, Immigrant Workers Citizen Project, Immigration Policy Center, League of United Latin American Citizens, Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund, Migration Policy Institute, National Immigration Forum and National Immigration Guild (...where Bernardine Dohrn started her fledgling activist years as a first law student organizer for the Guild)...ring up the aforementioned websites... Verrry Interesting.

more funds towards fire protection. You didn't. You were asked about the future increases in head count and trained personnel. No firm answers. After all the months of working on this ordinance why isn't the County able to quickly and precisely give the public answers to something as simple as head count resulting from the Safety Tax?

Do we want to maintain and increase our public safety? Undeniably, yes. However, the sum of all of these missteps leaves many believing that the County doesn't have the taxpayer's best interests in mind or assurances the tax will be used appropriately. Thus, I have no other option but to oppose the Safety Tax in its current form and within its current landscape. This isn't simply a personal position, rather it's the majority sentiment coming from my fast growing supporter base.

The 2017 / 2018 Sutter Co. Grand Jury Resigns in protest of edited GJ report

Sutter Co., Ca.

The 2017/2018 17 member Sutter County Grand Jury resigned in protest of their report being edited. After a year of investigating Sutter County government the report was presented for publication. When it came back to the Grand Jury it had been edited and no longer reflected the final report. It is believed to reflect badly on the Sutter County District Attorney and the Sutter County County Counsel. It is rumored that the County Counsel had told the Grand Jury that if the report was released the county would not defend them against any libel suits. Because the Grand Jury is sworn to secrecy until the report is signed and released hard facts are not able to be obtained.

No members of the 2017/2018 Grand Jury were present for the swearing in of the 2018/2019 Grand Jury. Rebecca (Beckie) Jennings, President of the Sutter County Grand Jurors' Association pressured the Sutter County Board of Supervisors to write to the State Attorney Generals' office in an attempt to get hard facts and investigate what got us to this point.

Below are the actual correspondence that has taken place.

July 31,2018

Mr. Xavier Becerra
Attorney General
1300 I Street
Sacramento, CA 95814-2919

Dear Attorney General Becerra:

I am writing regarding the Sutter County Civil Grand Jury's 2017/18 report, and to request your assistance to ensure the proper processes and laws were followed in the Grand Jury's decision not to make their report public.

In late June, advising Judge Brian Aronson announced that the report would not be published. To date, no reason has been given as to why the Grand Jury elected not to publish their report.

It is my understanding that all members of the 2017/18 Sutter County Grand Jury resigned shortly before their term was to expire. It is also my understanding that the Board of Supervisors and some Sutter County department heads received a preliminary report, but were instructed to keep the contents confidential, since the Grand Jury elected not to publish.

The Grand Jury operated with an approximate budget of $47K. During their investigation, pursuant to Penal Code §926, they received an additional $10K for outside counsel from attorney Charles Poulus. Late in the term, Judge Brian Aronson took over as the supervising judge.

Grand juries serve an important watchdog function using public resources, and the report not being publicly released, along with the entire Grand Jury's resignation raises many questions. It is in the public interest to ensure that there was no improper influence of the decision to not publish the report or make redactions. The Sutter County Grand Jury has published a report every year since 2001, and if a report is not published, the community deserves to know the circumstances that lead to this decision and whether or not the legal process was followed accordingly.

Specifically, the following questions should be addressed and answered publicly:

1. Why was the 2017/18 Sutter County Grand Jury Report not published?
2. Did the supervising Judge require redactions? If so, did the required redactions comply with Penal Code §929?
3. What if any communications (written or oral) were made by outside parties to the grand jury prior to its decision to not publish the report? Were any of these communications unlawful or improper?
4. Was a preliminary report distributed to affected Sutter County agencies pursuant to Penal Code §933.05(f)? If so, is it required for this preliminary report to be made available to the public?

I appreciate any assistance the Department of Justice (DOJ) can offer to address these questions. I look forward to hearing from you regarding what actions may be available and appropriate for the DOJ to verify the Grand Jury process followed appropriate procedures and was free from improper influence. If you require further information or have any questions please contact my office at (916) 319-2003.

Rural Broadband Update

This week, U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Sonny Perdue announced that the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) is accepting comments on the implementation of the e-Connectivity Pilot Program created in the omnibus spending measure that was signed into law on March 23, 2018. The omnibus package appropriated $600 million for the pilot program within the Rural Utilities Service to finance broadband deployment projects in underserved rural areas.

Rural communities with a population of 20,000 or less with an internet speed of 10 megabits per second or slower will qualify for assistance from the pilot program. Comments for the program's implementation are due on September 10, 2018. In addition, the USDA announced it will invest $97 million in 12 projects across 11 states that will increase internet service for underserved or unserved rural areas. The states impacted by the program would include

Arizona, Iowa, Idaho, Maryland, Minnesota, Missouri, Nevada, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Wisconsin and Wyoming. The $97 million will come from the Telecommunications Infrastructure Loan Program and the Community Connect Grant Program at the USDA. Rural California will not benefit from this round of investment, but the USDA reiterated that such investments are the key to rural prosperity and a priority for the agency under the Trump Administration.

Re: 2017/2018 Sutter County Grand Jury

Dear Attorney General Becerra:

As you are aware the entire 2017/2018 Sutter County Grand Jury resigned and did not publish its final report. The Sutter County Board of Supervisors has received numerous requests for information from concerned constituents regarding the Grand Jury process and the unpublished report.

The Board of Supervisors has been apprised by the Sutter County Superior Court that the Grand Jury process and the report are confidential. Consequently, the Board is unable to respond to the requests for information. The Board is unaware of any wrongdoing by the Court, Grand Jurors, County staff, or anyone else associated with this process. The purpose of this communication is to make you aware of the issues raised by our concerned citizens. If appropriate we request a review of the 2017/2018 Sutter County Grand Jury process.

More On ... The 2017 / 2018 Sutter Co. Grand Jury

Rebecca Jennings
President Sutter County Grand Jurors' Association

August 6, 2018

Sutter County Board of Supervisors
1160 Civic Center Blvd. # A
Yuba City, California 95993

Dear Sutter County Board of Supervisors:

Due to the resignation of the 17 Grand Jurists, and the subsequent absence of a Grand Jury report for the 2017/2018 Grand Jury term, questions have surfaced that need to be addressed. Our Grand Jury Association is comprised of former Forepersons and previous Grand Jury members; we strongly fear the Grand Jury process has failed.

There are many checks and balances in the system to protect and guard against inappropriate managing of this process. There are several areas where it appears this year's Grand Jury may have not been allowed to be independent as prescribed by law.

We are hearing many strong allegations surrounding the 2017/2018 Grand Jury, one of the allegations is that they were threatened they would be sued for libel and told they would not be protected by County Counsel if they released the report.

In People v Superior Court (1973 Grand Jury) (Santa Barbara County) (1975) 13 Cal. 3d 430 states: The grand jury is a judicial body, an instrumentality of the court. However, subject to the court's general supervision, the grand jury has full independence of action when performing its watchdog functions and the court has no authority to impose its own views on the grand jury or suppress a report simply because it considers it ill-advised, insufficiently documented, or even libelous.

We made an inquiry of County Administration office to confirm two things:

1. Does the county have a policy in place to guide County Counsel in the event County Counsel needs to recuse themselves when they believe they have a conflict? We have been told there are no such policies. In our research into other counties we have found if lead County Counsel has a conflict in most counties the grand jury advisory role is assigned to another attorney in the County Counsel office and the jury is protected by the client attorney privilege.
2. We also checked to see if our County Board of Supervisors was consulted in this decision

Free Waste Tire Disposal Coupons Available

Yuba and Sutter Counties, Ca.

Beginning July 1st, the Regional Waste Management Authority has a new allotment of coupons available for the free disposal of residentially-generated waste tires – even if you participated in the program that ended June 30th. Yuba and Sutter County residents can now request a coupon for the free drop-off of up to 20 residentially-generated passenger car and light truck tires per household (rims up to 17 inches in diameter – no truck or tractor tires).

The free tire disposal coupons are issued on a first come, first served basis while supplies last. They will expire 30 days from the date issued and a valid coupon must be presented when the waste tires are delivered to the drop-off location. Tires do not need to be removed from the rims.

Call the Regional Waste

Management Authority during weekday business hours at (530) 634-6890 to request a coupon or for more information on the program. Please be prepared when you call to provide the number of tires that you have for disposal. This program is for residential use only – no businesses – as commercially generated waste tires are not eligible for this program.

If hauling more than nine tires at one time, the Local Enforcement Agency conditions on the reverse side of the coupon must be completed. This program is funded by a grant from the Department of Resources Recycling and Recovery (CalRecycle).

and we were told they were not. The attorney general in the decision listed below explains the protection counties are required to provide to the grand jury.

Indemnification/defense for defamation suits 81 Ops.Cal.Atty.Gen. 199 (1998)

A county must indemnify (pay a settlement or judgment) and pay for the defense of grand jurors sued for defamation for statements made within a final report that is within the jury's jurisdiction. Jurors are considered to be county employees for this purpose.

The decision does not say support can be withdrawn due to concerns of liable. It does however state, the only time a county can withdraw legal counsel is if the jury went outside their jurisdiction. For example a jury decided to investigate an agency outside of their own county.

Grand Jurys provide an important watch dog function which has been built into our state constitution in order to help protect and proclaim the importance of the Civil Grand Jury process. California is currently the only state in the United States with a functioning civil grand jury system. Grand juries were established throughout California during the early years of statehood. As constituted today, the Grand Jury is a part of the Judicial Branch of government, an arm of the Court.

It is very disturbing that the entire 2017/2018 Civil Grand Jurors resigned 4 days prior to the end of their term and made the decision to not release a final report. It raises the question, "What could have possibly happened that this jury felt they had no other recourse but to resign and not release a final report?"

Our citizens have a right to know whether or not our Grand Jury system was compromised and to discover if there was in fact improper pressure placed on the jury to redact information from their report or too not publish their findings. We know they produced a report because it was delivered to various department heads as well as the Board of Supervisors, City Officials and Elected Officials as stated in a letter from the Honorable Judge Heckman. "On June 14, 2018 you were mailed a preliminary copy of the 2017-2018 Grand Jury Report section(s) that pertains to your department. After those copies were mailed, the Grand Jury elected to not publish an authorized final report. Therefore, there is no report to respond to." The penal code that explains this process states: The grand jury must give the relevant parts of the report to the official or entity it investigated two business days in advance of the report's public release and after its approval by the judge. (PC §933.05(f)).

The date stamped as received by the county on the letter from the courts show the letter was received by the county on July 9th twenty-seven days after they had received their copy of the unauthorized report. Why?

Judge Heckman goes onto say, "Please be advised that any physical or electronic copies of the preliminary report continue to be confidential unless it is ultimately included in an authorized final report. Los Angeles Times v. Superior Court (2003) 114Cal. App.4th247." The Sutter County Grand Jurors' Association has been involved in training and educating on the Civil Grand Jury process since 2011. We were honored to have the opportunity to meet the 2017/2018 Civil Grand Jury and to provide additional training on such topics as how to conduct a proper investigation as well as congeniality and committee formation. During our training for the 2017/2018 Sutter County Civil Grand we found these jury members to be dedicated, intelligent and civically minded. The question we should be asking is why after working 365 days the entire Grand Jury would resign without releasing their report allowing their efforts to go for naught.

We respectfully request the Sutter County Board of Supervisors look into the allegations surrounding the legal advice provided or not provided by County Counsel to the 2017/2018 Grand Jury and report the findings to the citizens of Sutter County.

We further request, as a board that is responsible for the governance of our county, that you draft a letter to the Department of Justice (DOJ) addressed to the Attorney General requesting their office conduct a thorough investigation into this matter.

THE Brownsville Bailiwick & Beyond

Our paper recycle project has to be moved. The bin just kept getting over-filled. We are hoping that our fire chief, Bill Shaw, will arrange to have paper recycle handled up at our transfer station. If not, I guess we will have to add it to our garbage. We sure wish there was another answer to the problem, but probably not.

There will be another community yard sale on September 1and Next Step will be selling a tamale lunch. Clean out closets, garage, kids room, etc. and bring the unneeded treasures to the Brownsville Mercantile and Books & More parking lots to sell.

The kiddies will return to school on the 15th. Summer vacation sure seemed to fly by, well, maybe not for the parents. Be on the look out again for the school buses.

Look back in time – In 1909 Dennis LaPlant made a rich strike of quartz gold on his claim on Rabbit Creek (such good luck).

Hope to see you in Brownsville soon.

The Spy Who Dumped Me
Starring: Mila Kunis, Kate McKinnon, and Sam Heughan. Rated: R, Runtime: 117 minutes.

Things get out of hand when a young lady and her friend decide to burn her Ex-boyfriends belongings. He comes back and a whirlwind of international intrigue ensues. With insane gymnasts and overzealous spies, things go from odd to weird and settle into a roll of entertaining.

The Spy Who Dumped Me, earns Three out of five, Blinker Using Monkeys. This is a funny movie full of well timed jokes as well as, well choreographed action scenes. The acting is great and Kate McKinnon steals the show. Her style is fearless and just plain funny. For those of you that are squeamish about the naked human form, beware there is naked human form in this film. I must note that it is a funnier depiction than similar bits that have been used in the past.

TOPICS OF INTEREST

Kitten season is upon us! If you find very young kittens (feral) without their mother, leave them alone; their mother may be taking a break. If the mother does not come back, consider fostering them rather than flooding the shelter with kittens, since the shelter cannot handle them. Check out maddiesfund.org to learn how to foster kittens. Fostering can be a very rewarding experience.

STARS Volunteers: Volunteers are needed for the animal shelter. If you have time on your hands and would like to help out, become a STARS volunteer. Contact Deneen Barnhill at the shelter to find out how.

Donations: The STARS help support the ACS Shelter. Donations are used to help offset spay and neutering costs, feed costs, and other costs associated with the care of the animals. If you would like to donate, you may send donations/checks to YCACS STARS at the Animal care address: 5245 Feather River Blvd. Olivehurst, CA 95961. You can also donate via our Facebook page. Wildfires damage crops, rangeland

In areas of Northern California burned by wildfires, farmers and ranchers continue to assess the impact of flames and smoke on crops and rangeland. In the area of the Mendocino Complex fires, farmers say they're aware of some damage to vineyards and pear orchards in Lake County, and aren't certain whether smoke might affect ripening winegrapes. Mendocino County ranchers say fires have scorched timber and rangeland, and some livestock remains unaccounted-for.

Salvaged trees help fund restoration projects

Trees that burned in a fire a year ago are being salvaged in an operation in Northeast California--with proceeds from timber sales used to help pay for ecological-restoration work. The Modoc National Forest says dead-standing trees that burned during the Parker 2 Fire are being milled, providing more than 3 million board-feet of timber. Forest officials say the project will improve safety for road travel and recreation, while helping the local economy.

Peach production accelerates in California, nation

Peach harvest across the country is in full swing, and California farmers say they're seeing more competition in the market this year. That's because peach orchards in Georgia and South Carolina have recovered after frost reduced their harvests a year ago. Cold weather this year in the Central Valley took a toll on some early peach varieties, but growers say harvests of midseason peaches have returned to typical levels. California leads the nation in peach production.

Larry and Jim. A few ideas came together and he decided what he needed to do was to get a car, so he could make a "strip down" and take off all the parts. Lew Clift helped, as he had had lots of experience! Larry also assisted. Then Doug called Don Meakin in Arizona and Ron Colbert in Washington, as both of them had also owned strip downs. And so the ideas behind the sections of film came together, after filming hundreds of hours. Gary had worked at Warner Brothers in LA in the Post-Production Department, so he assisted with the filming, writing and editing. Much of the documentary was filmed at Hammonton and Marigold, Happy Way, and other places, including my living room and dining room! I am proud of my boys for honoring their father in this special way. I think it is a pretty good representation of how life used to be at the goldfields. Enjoy!

Like most people that were blessed to grow up in Hammonton they have many happy memories about living there. This DVD wakes up those memories and makes one smile. It walks one through the workings of a dredger and how they were built with detailed information on how the gold was gathered. It tours Hammonton looking at places of importance, school, baseball field, store, post office, garage and much more. It shows the building of Strip-down cars made by local male teenagers and the lifelong bonding of several young men that are still friends to this day. To order this DVD call Ruth Criddle at (530) 743-6929 or e-mail rcriddle1@comcast.net. Bob Criddle's books Vol. 1, 2 and 4 on Hammonton & Marigold can also be purchased at the same address.

Yuba Sutter Indo American business Association is happy to announce that Sonia Aery, Insurance Agent for Allstate Insurance Company, is a candidate for state assembly District-3. She became a Yuba Sutter IABA Member.

Yuba Sutter IABA came into existence in 2010 with five members now we are 24 members. Association runs programs for kids in the Yuba & Sutter counties. First program for kids we run is the reading program through Yuba & Sutter Counties Libraries. We join Hands with with Foster Kids Agency In Gridley. We help kids with various things like bicycles at Christmas time help them getting a Driver License, so that they can get into the main stream of the society. Now we plan to donate Duffel bags to foster kids. We felt that when kids come into the foster system they bring their belongings in a Garbage Bag & same thing when they leave the program. In civilized society this doesn't look good.

So we think with the help of Sonia Aery more Good things will happen for kids in Yuba & Sutter Counties

Yuba Water Agency Rebrand-Explanation

If you haven't already heard, Yuba County Water Agency is rebranding, changing our name to Yuba Water Agency, providing an easy-to-identify moniker and logo, as we strive to develop a stronger relationship with the people of Yuba County - the people we serve.

For those who know us, our decision to rebrand may seem confusing, as we've been around for a long time and are well-established in the community. But what we have found is that the majority of our residents don't have any idea who we are, and that needs to change.

Since our establishment in 1959, we have actively worked to reduce flood risk and provide a sustainable water supply for the people who live and work in the county. And while we've been quite successful, we've flown under the radar and our vast accomplishments have gone largely unnoticed by the public.

We began this rebranding process by surveying local residents and found that many people had not heard of us, or were unclear about the water agency's roles and responsibilities and the many improvements we've made for the people of Yuba County. Many believed we were a department within the government Yuba County or the people they pay their residential water bill to. We are not. We are a stand-alone government agency.

As a result, we decided to make our image one that people can easily connect with and identify out of the sea of government agencies and organizations that they come into contact with on a daily basis.

Now as Yuba Water Agency, we are committing to a more proactive effort to educate the public about who we are and what we do, and how the foresight of our founders all those years ago has led to a transformational time for Yuba County.

In 2016, our world changed. Our contract with PG&E that enabled the construction of our dams and powerhouses, known as the Yuba River Development Project, came to an end. That contract gave PG&E all of the power revenues for 50 years, in exchange for paying all the costs to build, operate and maintain the project. Now the cost of running the project and revenues come to Yuba Water Agency, so we can reinvest the profits in Yuba County. We are now in a position to make an even bigger impact in the lives of the people of Yuba County by further reducing flood risk, maintaining water supply reliability and other investments related to our mission areas, at a much faster pace, and I believe things in Yuba County are going to get much better in the coming years.

We've already made a huge impact on water supply reliability, and public safety by significantly lessening the flood risk in Yuba County, which is going to have a big impact for economics, but the next phase is finding ways to partner with foundations and industry to bring more jobs to the area.

It's more than just our tagline. Yuba Water Agency is truly investing in Yuba County's future. And our future looks bright.

Brent Hastey, Yuba Water Agency board chairman

Your One Minute News Digest

by Don Rae

• Moonbeam is asking Trump for help with the wildfires. That'schutzpah.

• As is the case with almost any subject, the mainstream media has a problem with common sense, reality and balanced news. The wildfires are more likely to be caused by government land use policies than climate change. A very high probability is that government policy and environmental activism contributed mightily to the terrible consequences. Don't build homes in the forest and clean up the dead trees and forest litter to mitigate potential destruction.

• When will it ever end? Now the snowflake therapists have coined the term "Trump Anxiety Disorder." What is next? Anxiety leave? Disability payments? What has happened to America?

• The New York Times has forfeited its claim to the nation's Newspaper of Record. It reached the bottom of the sewer with the hiring of Sarah Jeong as part of its editorial staff. Review her record of writings and tweets and decide for yourself whether she is a journalist or something else.

• The idea of creating city/county/water district/school district voting lines along racial lines is gaining currency. More public entities are gerrymandering voting blocs to "assure" that minorities are elected. There is no move to educate the public and challenge the voters to select sound elected official. Does this concept work? Look to the heavily Black district which elected Maxine Waters. Point made.

• Something else to ponder. John Adams, our 2nd President said: "Our Constitution was made for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate for the government of any others." Consider the morals of our nation today. No wonder the lefties want to burn our founding documents. Immorality rules in their warped world view.

• Every day in every city and hamlet in this country, babies are "torn from the arms" of their mothers when the parent is arrested for every conceivable violation of law. Not once has Adam Schiff and Chuck Schumer popped off about how horrible it is that such separation occurs. They are more concerned about illegal invaders than they are about Americans. Who elected them and who are they serving?

• And Schumer is so transparent looking at him is like looking at an ultrasound. His demand to know what Trump discussed in private with Putin is most likely based on his fear that Trump is succeeding in foreign affairs and Chucky is out of the loop. You are out of the circle, chucky. You are not a part of the solution.

• When will Marysville tear up the pavement on its downtown streets and let us drive on smoother dirt?

• All of this fuss to change the names of towns, streets and schools and to topple monuments because of association with the Confederacy is the tactic of reprehensible totalitarian governments. A prime example of the "facts" which are used to further this issue among the lefties and mainstream media is an article in Newsweek about the attempt to change the name of Austin, Texas to something else. Newsweek claims that Austin was founded by Steve Austin. Since Austin died in 1836 and the town was not founded until 1839, he was not the founder. Newsweek also claimed that Austin was associated with the Confederacy. Since he died in 1836, he could not have been associated with the Confederacy which was founded in 1861. So much for the made up facts in Newsweek. Where does fake news come from? The entire mainstream media.

• Birthright citizenship under the 14th Amendment of the Constitution was not meant to allow illegal invaders to birth their children in the US and automatically become US citizens. A review of the congressional intent shows clearly that birthright applies to children born of US citizens who are not subjects of a foreign power. The Mexican women who run across the border in San Diego while in labor are citizens of Mexico, not the US. They are subject to a foreign power. Why can't the Democrats (or some Republicans for that matter) get this straight?

• In Bath England the local university has ordered all students and faculty not to say "As you know." Why? Because such phrasing could make some people feel "inadequate" should they not "know". Another example of the left finding things for someone to be offended about.

• Virtually all the recent problems with Russia originated with the Bush/Obama administrations. A short list would include Ukraine, Crimea, Syria, Uranium One, and a red plastic reset button. The mainstream media and Democrats didn't "go to the mattresses" at the time. In fact, they drew halos over Obama's photos and claimed Hillary was the most intelligent and accomplished woman ever. Today, Trump is trying to clean up the mess these ignoramuses left behind. And the Democrats are going "ape excrement. No wonder we do not see more sane, common-sense oriented, logical Americans in political life.

• Instances like the following are a prime reason for taxpayers, to stop funding public universities it has been over a year since Professor Keith Fink filed a grievance over his being kicked out of UCLA. What is unusual about this is that Fink, after numerous requests, has never been told why he was dismissed. Of course Fink taught a class "Free Speech on Campus" and is a known conservative. Do those facts give you any idea why he was booted?

• The snowflakes are truly troubled. They have rioted repeatedly over foreign influence in elections. But they support non-citizens (illegal invaders) right to vote. Totally wacko.

• When facts don't match the climate change narrative, the story is tossed in the trash or buried deeply enough so no one reads it but the media can claim they ran it. An example is the news that the 2017 climate report showed that the year was only the third warmest on record. If climate change was a runaway locomotive, then last year not even being the warmest on record is a stake through the heart of the global warming advocates.

• San Diego is no longer the conservative bastion of the country. The City Council is going to blackball any company which helps build the border wall from any business with the City. Isn't such policy blackmail? Isn't blackmail illegal?

• Even Bloomberg is getting into the business of coddling illegal invaders. The organization has come out against adding a citizenship question to the 2020 census. One reason they gave is that leaving question in would damage the Democrats. Of course, we would find out how many illegals are running around voting. Why can't Mueller deal with that foreign interference in our elections.

that was targeted with the intimidation and interrogation noted above. Their nonprofit status was eventually improperly and arbitrarily rejected by the Lois Lerner nonprofit department of the IRS. They also were assessed and paid thousands of dollars in corporate fees eventually putting them out of business.

Former local Tea Party secretary Ruth Cridle said that members also had their personal income taxes audited. They felt like they were under assault by one of the nation's most powerful agencies.

Another target for trouble was a conservative voter organization founded by Catherine Englebrecht called True the Vote. It was active primarily in Texas.

Engelbrecht said she and her husband and their business, Engelbrecht Manufacturing, were investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF), and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA). Englebrecht stated that she was targeted because she "worked against voter fraud."

On May 21, 2013, her organization filed a lawsuit in the District of Columbia against the IRS over claims that the agency delayed the determination process for its application for 501(c)3 tax-exempt status, claiming, "We've been waiting for three years to receive a decision from the IRS about our tax exempt status. After answering hundreds of questions and producing thousands of documents, we're done waiting. The IRS does not have the power to pocket veto our application. Federal law empowers groups like True the Vote to force a decision in court – which is precisely what we aim to do."

IRS leader Lois Lerner and Commissioner John Koskinen were not cooperative with Congressional committees investigating the wrong doing and now have nice retirements courtesy of those they abused.

Help Children Going Back to School

Sutter County Child Support Services is celebrating August Child Support Awareness Month by accepting donations of backpacks and back-to-school items for children the Child Support Services workers have become familiar with through their case work.

Last year, the community helped Child Support Services supply 65 children with backpacks full of school supplies through the Backpack and School Supply Give-A-Way program. Generous donations were made by County of Sutter employees, local attorneys, local businesses, and members of the public.

This year, the goal is to help supply the back-to-school needs of 100 children.

The program helps make a positive academic difference in the lives of children in our community. Not every family can afford to provide children what they need to succeed in school. A brand new backpack brimming with new back-to-school supplies is good for a child's self-esteem as they start a brand new school year.

You can help. Donations of backpacks and school supplies (a list of needed items is listed on the poster above) can be dropped off at the Sutter County Department of Child Support Services, 543 Garden Highway, Suite A, Yuba City. Supplies can be donated through August 6.

The power of astute observation.

Teaching baseball is one of my favorite things to do. Not that I am world's first and foremost baseball player and expert, far from it. But based on my history of parent feedback and stellar win-loss records every year I was a head coach, I can comfortably say I convey America's favorite game to my players in a manner that is both effective and enjoyable.

I think one's ability to teach something to another requires a host of talents and empathies, while leaving other attributes hidden in a drawer somewhere.

Indeed some of the best instructors and teachers were not the best do'ers per se, but they had a keen eye and ear for what was needed to be taught and knew how to teach it.

My knack for baseball and indeed many things is based on a sharp observational eye. In other words no matter what the sport, I watch it in detail and over a long period of time. As I familiarize myself with the game, certain nuances and reoccurring patterns will usually develop and finding solutions to any negative events or occurrences is the next step.

For instance, in baseball after years of playing and many more years of observation, I discovered that 90% of the strikes made were because the bat was passing UNDER the ball. Very few strikes were above the ball. I noticed many players would also dip their body when pitched to or not hit the ball very far because of a deficient hip turn.

Solutions to these problems were developed and exercises and drills were invented to address the various issues. That experienced coaches and often minor league or college players who taught baseball produced players that still did these things was perplexing. Often I found the most experienced baseball player/coaches often had sons who played but were not very good.

I thought "how could such an experienced player or coach have a son that himself had the same trouble with these common problems I had seen?"

What was the deficiency in transferring their vast knowledge to the children?

Once I moved to high school baseball, I observed similar deficiencies in coaches. A favorite of mine was watching year after year and team after team practice endless double play drills. Counting the hours spent on double plays however did not equate to the two or three double plays (if they were lucky) turned during a season all the while making the most basic of mistakes in other areas.

Those hours spent on low probability double plays would be better spent on the basics. Seldom did teams have these basics nailed down pat.

A reoccurring problem was that of reoccurring problems. A team would make the same mistake game after game yet no drill was ever practiced nor the problem addressed. The coach would sometimes get mad at the players for making the same mistake, and under my breath I would mutter "If he knew it he wouldn't do it". Simply put, if a player doesn't know something or repeatedly makes the same mistake, it's not the players fault, it's the coaches.

They say a war is won before the first bullet is fired and game is won before it begins. That seemed to ring true as I have heard several coaches tell their players before a game "nobody expects you to win so go out there and show em".

My gosh, talk about programming the mind before a game.

In conclusion, observation is tantamount to what you think you know. Some of the time what we think we know is proven wrong by observation. And if it is so proven, change your methodology and change your thinking. I know little of the game of soccer but

I have watched it a few times. I have already noted what seems like flaws in this game by young players and although I never played it, know little of its rules or how it's played, I bet anyone a dime on a dollar I could coach this sport and given equal teams and a year or two of experience, I could muster up wins against just about any seasoned coach. Some may call me crazy and too optimistic but in my opinion, observing closely is the key to many successes in areas where one might have the most experience.

This is the power of astute observation.
