

This may be one of the most powerful displays in the museum. Each dog tag represents a military person who was killed in Iraq or Afghanistan. One visitor after observing the display noted the reflections on the ground (the white spots are reflections from tags) represented the souls of the lost military heroes; I believe he was right.

Museum of the Forgotten Warriors

Will not close!

by John Mistler

Linda, Ca.
With the recent death of Dann Spear, founder of the "Museum of the Forgotten Warriors". many in the community are concerned that the "Museum of the Forgotten Warriors" will close. Nothing could be farther from the truth. With the help of Don Schrader, the Board members and volunteers Roberta Spear is committed to continuing in Dann's Legacy.

Roberta Spear commented, "Dann passed in February, it was a huge loss to our family and the community. He left big shoes to fill. Dann served this community, veterans and their families since we moved from SoCal in 1978. The Museum was his passion and he loved hearing and preserving everyone's stories. As Dann always said, " the Museum is not about war, it is about people".

We, at the Museum are committed to continuing in Dann's footsteps, and will continue to carry on as he would expect. So come visit us at the Museum. Our website is: museumoftheforgottenwarriors.org . We would love for everyone in our area to visit. It is a special place.

We are always open on Saturdays, from June to October 9 am to 1 pm, October to June 10 am to 3 pm. Always on Memorial Day and Veteran's Day and by special appointment. Call us at 530-742-3090 or 530-682-0674 and we will do our best to accommodate your needs.

On a personal note, I would like to thank all the local veterans who have jumped in to help me during this difficult time. You are a blessing!"

Yuba County Decisions

by Lou Binninger

When longtime Yuba County foothill resident Buck Weckman began complaining about massive grows of marijuana, illegal construction, pollution from ag chemicals and pesticides, and dangerous people with weapons, supervisors rolled their eyes.

Then, Weckman asked for Supervisors to declare a State of Emergency to solicit state and federal law enforcement to stop lawlessness involving marijuana grows and trafficking. Other counties like Siskiyou had done so with success.

Supervisors' spokesperson Randy Fletcher from the 5th District hill area proclaimed his territory safe in spite of Weckman's concerns. However, residents were not feeling that way with many giving-up even reporting incidents due to no response from the county.

Then, on August 1, 2017 two Yuba County deputies, Phillip Bronson, a 14-year veteran, and Andrew Everhart, a 10-year veteran, were shot at a grow near Oregon House by felon Mark Sanchez, 32, of Gilroy. They survived, but have not returned to work. Sanchez died.

Following the shooting, law enforcement agencies began to step-up raids on marijuana grow-operations. They were successful but are barely getting started with some people estimating 1,000 illegal sites.

Finally, in December 2017 Supervisors relented and declared the State of Emergency. Federal agencies now claim that three Yuba County properties involved in marijuana raids in 2017 are connected to an international Chinese crime network.

Agents from the DOJ, FBI, DEA, Homeland Security, IRS and other agencies along with local law enforcement have now seized

Rogues and Thieves

A local employer wondered whether he should still complete an I-9 form when hiring a new worker. The US Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS) I-9 is for Employment Eligibility Verification. The USCIS website says "All U.S. employers must ensure proper completion of Form I-9 for each individual they hire for employment in the United States. This includes citizens and noncitizens."

Certain noncitizens have permission to work but not illegal aliens. An I-9 completed honestly by an illegal could bring ICE calling.

However, this employer is in California, a rogue state that is now picking and choosing which federal laws to obey. Is it still illegal to hire an illegal in California? Politicians are ordering law enforcement to release border busters and ignore requests from Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) to detain the lawbreakers.

The state college system including nearby Yuba College ordered staff to pay the $495 fee for DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals) students. And, DACA student out of state tuition fees have been waived. They would qualify for hardship benefits.

Campus personnel were told not to cooperate with immigration authorities. All this may create resentment among hard working overregulated and taxed parents who pay their property taxes, college bonds and the cost of tuition and books for their children.

While the state endorses and advocates lawlessness, a politically bipolar Attorney General Xavier Becerra announced legislation to root out the state's underground economy and bring it to justice. According to a 2013 University of California Los Angeles (UCLA) Labor Center report, the state's black market is estimated at $60 to $140 billion annually, depriving the state of $8.5 billion in corporate, personal, and sales and use taxes each year.

A study with findings that general sounds contrived, bought and paid for or just plain trash talk. However, you don't need to be an illegal alien to be someone willing to work "under the table" in the once Golden State. The egregious and burdensome regulations together with fees, taxes, surcharges and fines are creating criminals out of honest folk. The state has passed the tipping point where people are bothered by a conscience that says they need to pay more for these "wonderful" benefits.

Fishing Extraordinaire with Jack Naves

The Rooster Tails Fishing Club monthly breakfast will be held at the Auburn Elks Lodge at 195 Pine Street in Auburn on April 20th. This free event is open to club members, spouses, and non-member guests. Doors to the Lodge open at 7:00 a.m. to share fresh brewed coffee. A fantastic $15 wide-selection buffet breakfast is served at 8:00 am followed at 9:00 am with guest speaker, Jack Naves, whose seminar will provide breakfast attendees with practical instructions on spring time fishing strategies, tackle, and locations for taking limits.

Jack is well known and respected by the fishing community for his expertise as a third generation fishing prodigy with over thirty-five years of fishing experience for a variety of species. Jack is not a fishing guide and is not selling anything other than sharing his love and knowledge of fishing. His moniker is 'Bass Jack' for his reputation as an expert striped bass angler; however he is a noted winner of various fishing tournaments including Kokanee, trout, and land-locked salmon. Even experienced anglers will find Jack's special spring fishing seminar informative and will add to their fishing skills. His presentation will be streamed-live onto a huge wide screen television with multiple audio speakers throughout the room so seminar attendees will be able to see and hear the information.

Reservations for the meeting and seminar are not required, however breakfast attendees are encouraged to arrive early for a good seat and to speak to Jack one-on-one. In addition to hearing about fishing from Jack, Rooster Tail members will be sharing valuable, current, fishing condition information.

The 30 year old, 200+ members Rooster Tails Fishing Club of Northern California, Inc. is a non-profit organization that meets the third Friday of each month to educate, entertain, and enhance fishing experience. Unlike many bass and fly fishing clubs that concentrate on very specific types of fishing, the Rooster Tails Fishing Club provides a balanced mix of fishing techniques presented by fishing experts targeting a variety of fish species on multiple types of waters. For more information contact Jim, Club Chairman, 530-887-0479, or visit the club's web site at www.roostertailsfishingclub.org.

FISHIN' TALK

by Boots Johnson

Dan "Boots" Johnson has fished and hunted in California for 73 years. Anyone with questions or comments can email him at boots3@syix.com Rising water in the Feather River had lots of anxious anglers dropping boats in the water at Mosquito Beach and the Yuba City Boat Dock. Last Saturday the area from Riverfront Park down to where the Yuba River enters the Feather had boats everywhere, including bank fishermen. The water level has been going up and down so much that the fish have not been cooperating.

The opener of trout for the Sierra Mountain streams, rivers and creeks is just around the corner. The best time to score on trout is in the last hour of light. Evening fishing has always been a favorite with veteran trout anglers. This is the chance to catch a big fish and is usually not crowded due to most all anglers being back in camp sipping suds or cooking dinner. This special hour will have the wind slow down, the heat of the day disappears and as stated above, the area is not crowded.

Thousands of trout will be planted throughout the spring, summer and fall. Trout plants are done for anglers to catch the fish, but there is always some that do not get caught. These holdover trout will learn very quickly about hiding, feeding and everything else a wild trout does. These fish will also firm up and be much more difficult to catch. This is why it is a good idea to target these trout after all the anglers go home. Some people feel the streams, rivers and lakes are fished out, but there is still fish there for taking and they make it a challenge because they are no longer stupid planted fish but experienced, wary trout that have learned how to stay away from the angler's creel.

Closing thought: "Vegetarian is an old Indian name for bad hunting."

Organist, Dr. Ryan Enright, to Perform in Yuba City

Marysville, Ca. Yuba Sutter Arts is proud to announce the second in the new series of community organ concerts in collaboration with Marian Metson and First Lutheran Church in Yuba City. The featured organist will be internationally acclaimed musician, Dr. Ryan Enright. The concert will be held on Friday, April 20th at 7:30pm at First Lutheran Church, 850 Cooper Avenue in Yuba City. The concert is Free, but donations will be accepted for the upkeep of the organ. Dr. Ryan Enright is widely recognized for his talent at improvisation and as an accompanist and has performed organ recitals throughout Canada and the United States. A native, of Montreal, Quebec, he holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees from McGill University and a Doctor of Musical Arts from the Eastman School of Music. He has won numerous awards in international competitions including first prizes in the Canadian Music Competition (1997), Quebec Organ Competition (2004), and National Organ Playing Competition of the Royal Canadian College of Organists (2007). Dr. Enright relocated to Sacramento in 2011 to become organist of St. John's Lutheran Church and accompanist for the Sacramento Choral Society and Orchestra, the CSUS University Chorus and the Schola Cantorum of Sacred Heart Church.

Dr. Enright's program will include music of Vivaldi, J. S. Bach, contemporary composers and an example of his brilliant improvisation. You can see Dr. Enright "in action" in this video; <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gz9qauZaWvY>.

Marian Metson, coordinator of the concert series, was the organist at First Lutheran from 1994-2010. During her tenure at the Church, there was a successful concert series that included top organists from around the country. Due to a generous anonymous gift, she has been asked by the church to reinstate the series.

"We were able to collaborate with Chico State where the organ builder had built his first instrument and attract some of the finest organists available," said Marian. "So now we have an opportunity for our community to once again hear a world class organist playing on a world class instrument right here in Yuba-Sutter," she added.

The First Lutheran organ was built by Munetaka Yokota, who went on to build organs at universities in Sweden and in Rochester and Ithaca, New York in addition to Chico State. Yokota is revered in esoteric organ circles.

more than 100 homes and searched 74 properties in the Sacramento area. The network received nearly $100 million in electronic transfers from China to purchase properties and set-up grows.

Maybe this will confirm the board's decision to declare the State of Emergency. Hill deputies have done their best and Neighborhood Watches are great but all fall short of curbing organized crime.

Now, Supervisors are mulling over what to do about cooperating with Sanctuary California policies undermining the work of the Border Patrol and the Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). Yuba County jail is one of ten ICE facilities in California holding detainees until the court adjudicates their immigration cases.

Inmates are fighting deportation after committing crimes in the U.S. and completing their sentences. ICE employees are embedded in the local jail and buses come and go moving new inmates to the jail and back and forth to Sacramento and San Francisco for hearings.

If you ever thought that illegal immigrants think like American citizens or have similar values, think again. That is why there is an immigration process to vet people.

Mexico's Tijuana (TJ) just across the border to the south of San Diego is a shocking contrast to one of America's top tourist destinations. There were 549 TJ homicides in the first quarter of 2018 and most will not be solved according to the Baja government. Of the first 132 homicides this year only five resulted in arrests with a total of 11 suspects detained.

In Mexico, the drug cartels control and if not control then kill politicians, judges, journalists and anyone else that hinders them. Their manner of killing can be eccentric. They utilize public shoot-outs and decapitate and dismember folks to make a memory.

Mexico, ala Trump, sent 400 of its Army troops to the border city not to deal with lawless Americans but to stop their own murder-mania. It rages on.

San Diego has a population of 1.4 million compared to Tijuana's 1.8 million. In 2016 and 2017, TJ finished with 910 and 1,734 homicides while San Diego accounted for 50 and 34 for each year.

Many illegals from Mexico and Central American do not share the importance of obeying the law, respecting life or the innocence of underage females. Three teen illegals shot an Olivehurst boy that they never even knew in the face. Sexual assaults of underage girls are common.

Many illegals in Yuba Co jail have multiple driving under the influence crimes along with hit and runs. Substance abuse and addiction are a huge problem. Their attitude is that if deported they will simply illegally return.

Unfenced open borders welcome the mayhem into America's lap. The current fence along the border has helped immensely in curtailing rampant crime that once flooded into San Diego and other California border cities.

Supervisors and new sheriffs-to-be in Nevada, Yuba and Sutter Counties will have some gnarly decisions to make as to whether they plan to honor their oaths to defend the Constitution or will bow to the demands of rulers in Sacramento.

Stop Yuba County Corruption

Yuba County Supervisors Randy Fletcher and Andy Vasquez voted to deny voters the right to vote on an initiative two years ago.

The people of California have a right to the initiative process! That's the law. Only the courts can decide if an initiative is legal. Vasquez and Fletcher illegally killed an initiative that would have allowed the people to share in the proceeds from ground water transfers. The other four members of the Yuba County Water Agency were voted out two years ago.

If the initiative is back on the ballot this year, John Mistler will vote to support the people's vote. If Fletcher and Vasquez win, and the initiative is approved by the voters, they will vote to stop the decision.

CRITIC'S CORNER

by Matt Woolery

Pacific Rim: Uprising

Starring: John Boyega, Scott Eastwood and Cailee Spaeny. Rated: PG-13, Runtime: 118 minutes.

Ten years after closing off an alien portal in the middle of the Pacific Ocean the world finds itself under attack yet again by the nefarious Precursors, a species that is trying to colonize the planet. Little do they realize that we not only have giant suits of armor but we have an uncanny resolve to fight against alien invaders. Even our lowest street urchins can fight their monsters to great effect.

Characters are plucked from around the Pacific and put in the cockpits of the giant Yeagers, machines crafted to defend the world from the organic based Kaiju. The acting is pretty good and the effects department did a great job.

Pacific Rim: Uprising, earns three out of five, Scrapper Monkeys. This isn't a great movie, but it is entertaining and really cool to see on the big screen. Big explosions and big monsters and giant suits of armor mixed in with a few engaging characters make this a film that can be appreciated on the big screen.

A Petition for Probate has been filed by (name of petitioner): Brian Chamberlin in the Superior Court of California, County of (specify): Yuba

The Petition for Probate requests that (name): Brian Chamberlin be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows: May 21, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. in Dept. 4 located at Superior Court of California, County of Yuba, 215 5th Street Ste. 200 Marysville, CA 95901.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58 (b) of the California Probate code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California Law.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on this property.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (866)-960-8299 or visit this Internet Web site <http://www.altisource.com/MortgageServices/Default-Management/TrusteeServices.aspx> using the file number assigned to this case 2016-04079-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale.

YCWA Supports Airport Drainage Project

Marysville, Ca.

Yuba County will be better able to address drainage concerns and expand the services at the Yuba County Airport with the help of a grant from Yuba County Water Agency.

The $191,000 grant will fund the local share of a Federal Aviation Administration grant leveraging a total of $4.2 million for the project, which will repair cracks and erosion on the airport's apron, caused by inadequate drainage.

The airport apron is the area used to tie down and park aircraft for temporary storage, maintenance and refueling. Currently, inclement weather and heavy rains cause water to pool on the surface, contributing to the deterioration of the apron.

"The current drainage issues restrict access to a crucial part of the airport during and after large rain storms," said YCWA Director Doug Lofton. "These repairs are necessary so the airport can retain its current businesses and lease operations, but also to potentially attract new, additional business."

The project will replace the existing surface with concrete; install new, larger inlets and grates to better drain surface water from the pavement; and add more than 1,500 feet of new piping that will carry the water away from the area.

YCWA is able to fund the local match of this project because of the subsequent flooding caused by the drainage issues, hindering the full use of the airport.

"The Yuba County Airport is a valuable asset to the Sacramento Valley and has great potential to bring additional revenue to the county," said Yuba County Administrative Services Director Tim McCoy. "This grant allows us to fix the current drainage deficiencies inhibiting the airport from being fully functional year-round."

Food and Farm News

Water officials discuss impact of March storms

Despite rain and snow in March, water supplies for Central Valley farmers may not change much. Representatives of federal and state water systems spoke to the State Board of Food and Agriculture Tuesday. Most farmers on both systems have been told to expect 20 percent of contract water supplies. The State Water Project may increase its allocation slightly, but operators of the federal Central Valley Project said they're analyzing data to see if it will follow suit.

Work in Riverside labs helps protect citrus trees

As California citrus farmers work to fend off a tree-killing disease, a key part of the effort takes place in laboratories in Riverside. There, experts check citrus plant material to assure that newly planted trees don't spread the fatal tree disease HLB. The disease, carried by an insect called the Asian citrus psyllid, has ravaged citrus groves in Florida and elsewhere, but has been kept out of California groves so far.

Strawberry consumption sets record

Americans eat more strawberries than ever, according to new figures from the U.S. Department of Agriculture. USDA reports that Americans ate about 10.3 pounds of strawberries per person last year--a record. About 80 percent of those were fresh strawberries, and the rest frozen. California farmers produce more than three-quarters of U.S.-grown strawberries, and harvest will intensify through the spring and summer.

Online, published resources aim to cut food waste

A new effort to reduce food waste features online tips and a published "bookazine." The American Farm Bureau and its partners announced Tuesday the launch of a "No Taste for Waste" campaign. A website and social media feeds provide resources and recipes intended to help reduce household food waste, and to describe how farmers and ranchers fight food loss. The "bookazine," titled "Waste Less, Save Money," will appear on newsstands this month.

Re: Who's Waging a Secret War

I am writing in response to Scott and David Kuhnen's letter RE: Who's Waging a Secret War Against a Family Owned Business." No one questions the value of recycling or is challenging Recycle Industries (RI) right to exist. What is disputed is their claim "The quality of life for our neighbors will not change as a result of our modest expansion."

Everyone knows business does not "expand" to maintain the status quo; it expands to increase capacity. RI's so-called "Modest" expansion will transform a small-scale business into a big-time operation capable of servicing the entire Recyclable waste stream of Yuba City. If RI's location was not in such close proximity to my home I'd be RI's number one supporter.

RI operates in an industrial area on Epley Drive off Garden Highway and is surrounded by residential areas. The only way to get there is to drive on two-lane streets through residential areas. Along the way are Public and School bus stops, small businesses and thousands of residents all sharing the same roads. When the Transfer Station becomes operational, expect to see a large fleet of Garbage collection trucks traveling on Bridge, Franklin, Lincoln, Teesdale and Bogue Roads to and from RI on a daily basis. Our residential streets are going to take a severe beating.

Garbage Trucks are the heaviest vehicles on the road, routinely weighing more than 25 tons each. According to an Engineering Analysis cited by the Bay Area Metropolitan Transportation Commission, "A Garbage Truck puts more strain on a street than just about anything else." As a matter of fact, "Garbage Trucks stress the pavement more than 9,300 times as much as an SUV does" according to Clark Mason of the Press Democrat (May 15, 2011). Countless municipalities struggle with road repair costs caused by these massive vehicles, and Yuba City will be no exception. Collection trucks are only half of the logistics footprint.

Once the "Collectors" DUMP their loads at the transfer station, larger and heavier trucks will transport the compacted materials back over the same roads and residential areas to their final destination. These outbound trucks will weigh about 80,000 pounds (fully loaded). Daily operation of these massive vehicles in residential areas gives rise to legitimate concern for public safety and the unavoidable destruction of public roads that will lower quality of life and property values.

Recyclable waste streams are not 100% pure; if everyone cooperated they would be, but we all know that when the little gray bins fill up things get tossed in the Big Blue Bins that shouldn't be there. The inconvenient truth is any Transfer Station will also have to process some solid waste in addition to recyclables.

RI's "Modest expansion" is not yet a done deal. The Public must have a say in this matter. For the record, I do not represent anyone other than myself and my family. I really do not care who gets a contract with the City as long as we are not adversely impacted.

Recology's Contract

Before we begin I would just like to say that I met with the Recology community relations manager Jackie Sillman, who has been working at Recology for 18 years, in order to ensure everything I say is correct. Now, this is a topic I believe would affect not only all Yuba City residents but also our surrounding communities. The Yuba City Council is trying to end Recology's contract with Yuba City. You're probably thinking, so what, but if this were to happen, Yuba City would be thrown into turmoil. Here are just some of the things that would happen: Recology currently employs 145 people of whom at least 40% would need to be laid off, meaning 54 hard working men and women from our community would be unemployed. The company that would likely take over Yuba City, Republic Waste Services, instead of hiring Yuba City residents, would likely hire Sacramento residents instead, due to the company being stationed in Sacramento. Recology provides $190,000 to the Yuba City area per year in donations and fund raisers. Now, if Recology stopped servicing Yuba City, it would continue to provide donation, but not nearly as much as before. Recology even provides to non-profits like schools.

If Republic Waste Services takes over Yuba City a new dump would be built right in the middle of a group of neighborhoods on Epley Drive. This could hurt our economy in a big way. Those who live there will be trapped, because no one will buy their homes, since no one wants to have a solid waste dump as a next door neighbor. This dump will bring odor, litter, rats, cockroaches etc. And besides that, it's extremely dangerous to wildlife because it's right next to a river. They said it would be done by 2019, but it will most likely not be since they didn't even finish writing out the application until 3/16/18. You're probably wondering well maybe Recology is just too expensive. If so, you're wrong. Twice, Yuba City Council has paid Sloan Vazquez McAfee, owner of Sloan McAfee, $73,227 to come in and do a financial assessment on whether to renew the Recology contract or open Yuba City up for bids. Both times, McAfee said to keep Recology, yet Yuba City has still been opened for bids. On the second assessment they said this was because the rates between Republic Services and Recology were "essentially a tie". Although they didn't take into account the amount of charities and donations Recology does for the community.

If Yuba City were to get $190,000 less per year in donations and charities for the next 10 years that would be $1,900,000 and I really think the city will feel this loss.

During the past 20 months the people of Yuba City have tried to have their voices heard. During the meetings, when the public is invited, the overwhelming majority of residents and business owners tell city council that they would like to keep Recology, yet so far, they have been ignored. Ask yourself why this is happening, who caused this and I can assure you that someone caused this. So this someone decided to try and remove Recology and put many men and women out of a job, and have Republic Waste Services start with Yuba City, despite the Yuba City residents saying they want to keep Recology. I highly suggest that first, you find out who this man is. Then, call the council members and tell them that this is wrong, and that Yuba City needs to keep Recology.

Priorities

I was interested in the news story of the plight of senior citizens getting their monthly food allotment. The AD said they had to wait hours to be served. But homeless people get food brought to the if they need a place to live the county bends over backwards to find them a place or build them a place.

These seniors are residences of the county's they paid their taxes to keep the city's and county's running a hell of a long time before the homeless showed up. All services for senior citizens need help. But our City's and county's are too busy to look after our own Seniors looking for a home, meals on wheels, need help, food for seniors need help, But the city's and county's are too busy throwing money at the homeless,

We are Losing Free Speech

Last weekend I was tuned to a college community-type radio station with the typical slow talking type C personality disc jockey (you know the type, smoked too much something) rambling on about how he was leaving the station due to an incident that transpired at the station weeks earlier. Not being too critical here but being on radio air myself since 1999 and having over 65 radio stations carry my thousands of shows and newscasts, I know a little bit about the radio business.

Anyway this twerp was making the egregious radio sin of airing his dirty laundry about the station and its management while on the air at this very same station. A bad no-no in the radio business and a good way to insure you never see another radio mic close up for a great many years. These transgressions have a habit of making it around the block, like a banker who embezzles money, it's a foregone conclusion that remaining employed even near a bank is highly unlikely after such malfeasance.

So as I listened intently to what this DJ was saying, and it went something like this: he had been on the air for nary a decade and seemed to think that elevated him to a god-like status at the station. I guess he wasn't aware of my dad's old saying that anybody is replaceable, especially if you start trashing the management that hired you while still being employed there. Not the sharpest tool in the shed no doubt.

The DJ was spinning records of dissonant jazz which few people like and even fewer people understand (no doubt sometimes even the people playing it). For those going to look up the word "dissonance" just picture three kids in a basement with little musical talent and even less musical training playing together for the first time. It could be said that their resulting cacophony of noise is dissonant. Anyway you get the picture. It's hard to listen to even for me who has been playing music since age 6, but some people like it and apparently this guy did.

Between the noise (opps I mean music) he was ranting about how this was his last broadcast (there is a God!) and that he was never going to raise money for the station again (obviously this guy can do advanced math as well) because he was leaving the station (like I said, a whiz this guy was).

Apparently the station management had interviewed a well-known ah*le who supported the idiotic stance that racism had a place in the world. Barred from entering 26 countries worldwide so it was said, I don't need to illustrate to you dear reader, you have to be a pretty bad dude with a pretty bad philosophy to get your passport cancelled in that many places.

Don't get me wrong. Racism is akin to the worst evil on the planet and speaking from experience, my wife is Asian as are my kids obviously and my adopted half-brother is African-American. That said, my beef with this DJ was that he believed as many do: that silencing opposing views is a necessary evil in certain cases.

I beg to differ.

Much like an oppressive regime, disallowing free speech is the proverbial foot in the door for tyranny. Regardless of how bad the opposing view might be, when we start down the slippery slope of deciding who can speak and who can't, we then must decide WHO decides and on WHAT they decide on. Hence the first amendment, as in FIRST.

Lord help the poor DJ if someone ever decides against what he perceives as just and silences him. Apparently the management was practicing the first amendment as they did in allowing the controversial guest. Illustrating its consistency, something this DJ can't apply in his own thinking, management allowed this spud to trash them in the studio while they sat in the front office 50 feet away. Not something many program directors would do but I guess the management was truly allowing the concept of free speech, something this DJ was espousing against yet practicing hypocritically himself. No doubt had the management exercised the very gag order he was babbling about, he would have been locked out of the station after his first criticism and then taken up protesting out front about freedom of speech. Oh the irony.

With a gag concept fully enforced (and therefore trashing the first amendment in the process), the precedent of silence for all who disagree then falls solely on those who wield the power of the soapbox and isn't that why people protest and should be allowed to?

Additionally assuming your audience is that stupid to somehow be swayed by a call to a stance so outlandish that it's beyond comprehension is hubris on the part of anyone thinking they have to "protect" our innocent, virgin ears from hearing such rubbish. It also assumes and wrongly so that the populace is so mealy and without sufficient grey matter that a great many people might lean into the absurdity such as this guest was espousing to.

A particular stance or belief, whatever it may be, should be open to interpretation and debate in whatever the topic and by whoever the audience. After all, if it's so ludicrous such as the stance this guest postured himself in, it will easily fall under the wheels of just debate and truth and therefore be declared dead and buried at the onset.

By silencing the discussion under the guise of protectionism of the constituency, not only is a dangerous precedent set as to who decides what is and what isn't appropriate, but showing fear about such discussions gives them the weight its proponents need to further the cause. Truth and justice bask in the light. In contrast injustice and lies hate the light and fall under its illumination. If whatever the argument is sound, it will stand up to opposing views and spirited debate while the falsehood will fall in contrast.

Only when you shut off the light of discussion do you keep both the just and unjust in the dark. That then gives way to opportunity of the absurd to shine a spotlight on their position, giving light to an otherwise dark room.

THINK About It!

By Charlie McNiff

This weekly commentary was started last January 31st because of the local daily newspaper’s almost complete lack of publishing the accomplishments of the Trump Administration over their first 11 months of governance through December 21st, 2017.

After working nine years in advertising at the Appeal-Democrat during my early years... it is truly sad, in a political vein, to see a Watch Dog become a lap dog in recent years.

But, sometimes that’s the way the wind blows so we will do our best to inform people about what is REALLY happening between the liberal yap-yapping of the Associated Press wire service and the Fake News media

Sooo...for President Trump’s first 11 month’s of shepherding our country’s business, we are publishing a two-parter of his administration’s outstanding achievements...Here's Part ONE!

Jobs and the economy

- Passage of the tax reform bill providing $5.5 billion in cuts and repealing the Obamacare mandate...Remember that one...if you didn’t sign up for Obamacare you would be fined and the IRS would be used to pounce on you to collect.
- Increase of the GDP above 3 percent.
- Creation of 1.7 million new jobs, cutting unemployment to 4.1 percent.
- Saw the Dow Jones reach record highs from 20,000 to over 24,000+.
- A rebound in economic confidence to a 17-year high.
- A new executive order to boost apprenticeships.
- A move to boost computer sciences in Education Department programs.
- Prioritizing women-owned businesses for some $500 million in SBA loans.

Killing job-stifling regulations

- Signed an Executive Order demanding that two regulations be killed for every new one creates. He beat that big and cut 16 rules and regulations for every one created, saving $8.1 billion.
- Signed 15 congressional regulatory cuts.
- Withdrew from the Obama-era Paris Climate Agreement, ending the threat of environmental regulations.

Correction?

In the March 28 issue Lou Binniger continued an oft repeated lie, to wit, that sanctuary laws are illegal. This is not true. No court has held such laws unconstitutional, and unless and until they do, such laws are legal and in effect. No doubt Mr Binniger wishes they were illegal, but sadly for his fantasy, they are not. He should refine his research before spreading his version of alternative facts. G. Michael Paine Marysville, Ca.

- Signed an Executive Order cutting the time for infrastructure permit approvals.
- Eliminated an Obama rule on streams that Trump felt unfairly targeted the coal industry.

Fair trade

- Made good on his campaign promise to withdraw from the Trans-Pacific Partnership.
- Opened up the North American Free Trade Agreement for talks to better the deal for the U.S.
- Worked to bring companies back to the U.S., and companies like Toyota, Mazda, Broadcom Limited, and Foxconn announced plans to open U.S. plants.
- Worked to promote the sale of U.S products abroad.
- Made enforcement of U.S. trade laws, especially those that involve national security, a priority.
- Ended Obama’s deal with Cuba.

Boosting U.S. energy dominance

- The Department of Interior, which has led the way in cutting regulations, opened plans to lease 77 million acres in the Gulf of Mexico for oil and gas drilling..
- Working with Congress to open up ANWAR for oil exploration.
- Trump traveled the world to promote the sale and use of U.S. energy.
- Expanded energy infrastructure projects like the Keystone XL Pipeline snubbed by Obama.
- Ordered the Environmental Protection Agency to kill Obama’s Clean Power Plan.
- EPA is reconsidering Obama rules on methane emissions.

Protecting the U.S. homeland

- Laid out new principles for reforming immigration and announced plan to end "chain migration," which lets one legal immigrant to bring in dozens of family members.
- Made progress to build the border wall with Mexico.
- Ended the Obama-era “catch and release” of illegal immigrants.
- Boosted the arrests of illegals inside the U.S.
- Doubled the number of counties participating with Immigration and Customs Enforcement charged with deporting illegals.
- Removed 36 percent more criminal gang members than in fiscal 2016.
- Started the end of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrival program.

- Ditto for other amnesty programs like Deferred Action for Parents of Americans.
- Cracking down on some 300 sanctuary cities that defy ICE but still get federal dollars.
- Added some 100 new immigration judges.

Protecting communities

- Justice announced grants of $98 million to fund 802 new cops.
- Justice worked with Central American nations to arrest and charge 4,000 MS-13 members.
- Homeland rounded up nearly 800 MS-13 members, an 83 percent one-year increase.
- Signed three executive orders aimed at cracking down on international criminal organizations.
- Attorney General Jeff Sessions created new National Public Safety Partnership, a co-operative initiative with cities to reduce violent crimes.

Accountability

- Trump has nominated 73 federal judges and won his nomination of Neil Gorsuch to the Supreme Court.
- Ordered ethical standards including a lobbying ban.
- Called for a comprehensive plan to reorganize the executive branch.
- Ordered an overhaul to modernize the digital government.
- Called for a full audit of the Pentagon and its spending.

Fact ONE: The board never met at a NYWD meeting to discuss the Irrigation Season and vote to not deliver water.

Fact TWO: North Yuba Grown should have not been the vessel to deliver the decision made by Mr. Maupin (the manager of NYWD).

Fact THREE: I have talked to several people that are irrigation customers that did not receive a letter from North Yuba Grown or several that said they tore up the letter since they did not want mail from North Yuba Grown.

I want to relay a plan that will work to deliver our water.

RE: Big T’s Trees in Live Oak

Big T's Trees applied for a use permit to consolidate their business (i.e., tree trimming and wood milling) operation at 10777 Live Oak Blvd in Live Oak. The property is located on the northern entrance to the city and adjoins an existing residential community called Premier Meadows. The property purchase was to be contingent upon the granting of a use permit. The LO planning staff was recommending approval to the Planning Commission until the residents of Premier Meadows objected and presented facts that showed several city codes prevented such property use. The Planning Commission meeting was subsequently cancelled.

Requests for a Special Council Meeting or Study Session have not been granted, so in the last two City Council meetings, residents have complained that Big T Trees tree dump in Yuba City is a preview of what it plans for Live Oak. This business presents a visual disparity with the planned multimillion dollar Highway 99 streetscape improvement project. Rats, mice, snakes, termites, and other pests will reside in the tree dump and migrate to the adjoining businesses and residences. Saws, diesel trucks, and unloading cranes are common tools used in this business. The noise and dust from this 24/7 business is not an appropriate use of this property.

In order to justify the property use by Big T's Trees, the city manager's description has morphed from a milling/lumber

RE: Big T’s Trees Proposed Use in Live Oak

Big T's Trees, a tree service currently based in Yuba City, proposes to site its business in Live Oak on a property fronting Highway 99 to the southwest and adjacent to a newer residential subdivision to the east. If Big T's current location on Garden Highway is any indication, and not to put too fine a point on it, the property will essentially be a tree dump. A building across the street is plagued by rats, presumably that migrate from Big T's yard.

The City of Live Oak has changed the project's use description three times. It was originally described as a milling operation and wood storage lot until we brought certain facts regarding that use to the city's attention. The recommendation to approve the original use was inappropriate because, among other things, a noise study had not been commissioned. The city has now settled on defining the business as a firewood lot. This mischaracterization is handy because a firewood lot is an allowed use in the zoning district, thus not requiring a public hearing and eliminating the opportunity for the public to provide input at such a hearing. Big T's website does not advertise firewood for sale. The city also told us that Big T's will not use any noise-generating equipment on the property, which seems highly unlikely given the nature of the business. We contend that the use as currently operating is different from an allowable use in the Employment zone in Live Oak.

The city appears committed to approving this impactful use directly abutting our neighborhood, even though the project is clearly incompatible with surrounding uses and is inconsistent with the city's General Plan. This type of use on the parcel is also contrary to the city's goals for beautification of the Highway 99 corridor through town, for which Live Oak was awarded a multimillion-dollar grant.

yard to a firewood yard. Big T's Trees website does not list firewood sales as a business. With this changed property use description comes the information that the subject property is now in escrow. Apparently, Big T's Trees decided to purchase the property based on information provided by the city.

The result is the city manager is not listening to the residents. Sixty-seven people have signed a petition protesting Big T's Trees property use. The city manager has advised the residents that our only recourse, once Big T's occupies the property, is to make a code enforcement complaint. The city manager is the chief code enforcement officer.

Jerry Stewart
Live Oak, CA

Residents of our adjoining neighborhood are united in thinking a tree service yard in the proposed location is a terrible idea and a use incompatible with the surroundings. Sixty-seven residents have signed letters opposing Big T's Trees' use of the property and listing numerous specific objections. We have sent emails and letters to city staff, the Planning Commission, and the City Council, and have visited city hall on numerous occasions to express our concerns. A group of neighbors attended the City Council meeting last week to voice opposition. All of these efforts have been to no avail.

Rather than focusing on improving the appearance of other neighborhoods in Live Oak, the city has determined that diminishing a well-kept subdivision and dismissing existing residents' concerns is preferable. The question everyone asks is: Why?

No Irrigation Water This Year

NYWD employee and it is fact. Last year, several customers did not take their water. If that can be repeated this year, Dry Creek can be used to deliver our water until there is not enough to service everyone.

2: In the meantime, Mr. Maupin should be talking to South Feather and Power(SFWP). In 2016, I met with Mr. Glaze(SFWP) and their board to request a pardon from the contractual agreement that says NYWD must deliver 11 CFS to SFWP via the Forbestown Ditch.. Actually, SFWP had not been using their entire allotment for several years. They have been only using 7 CFS, This would allow an additional 4.0CSF room in the Forbestown Canal for NYWD.

3. Before Dry Creek runs low, NYWD should begin to run water from SF14 down the Forbestown Ditch to the Irrigation Customers. Since 2011, NYWD has received over $30,000,000.00 from the power revenues from the South Feather Power Project. Last year, 2017, NYWD received over 3,000,000.00. Power revenues are paid for the previous year in June. This June, 2018, NYWD will receive close to 4,000,000.00 from the water year of January 2017-December 2017. Remember, 2017 was a historically wet year with record snow pack. The power turbines were chachinging.

If NYWD needs to lose some power revenue to deliver to their customer so be it. NYWD was founded as an irrigation district in 1952 to SERVE its customers WATER. Or the other argument is that we are wasting water and it is not going to beneficial use. Any water that goes to WASTE, is being absorbed into the environment and recharging our wells and ground water. We(Dobbins and Oregon House pay over $270,000.00 in property taxes that NYWD receives each year from the approximately 110 irrigation customers and the remaining over 1500 annexed parcels in Dobbins and Oregon House that pay and don't receive any water. These annexed parcels should also have a say in having water in the ditches of D/OH in the summer for fire protection. If you would like to find out if you are annexed into NYWD, please call the North Yuba Water District(530-675-2567). You will need your APN number from your tax statement.

Please call your Irrigation Representatives-Gary Hawthorne-Division 3 (530-692-9006) or Donnie Ferguson-Division 4 (530-692-2992). Donnie resides in Division 3 and has for over 3 years. Terry Brown-Division 2 (530-675-2733) Jenny Cavaliere Oregon House, Ca

Two Weeks or Two Months We Need Water

Two weeks or two months of irrigation water means so much more to the Dobbins/Oregon House community than no water.

It has been proposed that the supply of irrigation water, normally beginning April 15th, not be delivered to irrigation customers because there may not be enough to deliver the whole season.

Irrigation customers in the surrounding community are being asked to do without two weeks or two months of water; asked to watch water pass us by that could be of beneficial use in providing water to farm animals, keeping their homesteads green, ponds full, orchards irrigated - instead watch their water flow by and given to BVID.

Two weeks or eight weeks of water, any amount would help. Two weeks or eight weeks less of fire danger, it's that simple and that beneficial. Providing the water allows customers to irrigate, keeping land green. Providing water keeps ponds full, providing water for fire, even if only for two months. Two months of water in the ditch is a source for fire crews, a benefit for the entire community.

The NYWD received approximately $3,000,000 of revenue from power generation this past year. That revenue belongs to all the people of the district, not just the domestic water population. The tax revenue received from Dobbins/Oregon House is upwards of $250,000 per year. This money should be used to facilitate service to all customers and to benefit the entire district.

The board of directors of NYWD should call an emergency session. They should instruct the general manager to start the service to the irrigation system immediately. The board should instruct the general manager to request South Feather to agree to forgo a similar amount of water that they have agreed to in the recent past. It is unthinkable, unconscionable, unbelievable that water will be given free to others. It would be of great beneficial use to our community whether it be for two weeks or two months.

• The mainstream media must be having a cow. The latest shooting was done by a Muslim woman using a handgun, who is a vegan and animal rights activist. Therefore little or no coverage because it was not a male, not an NRA member, not a white supremacist, and no AR-15 was used.

• Hillary is complaining that the media did not help her win the presidency. How incredibly insane is she? The mainstream press did everything against Trump including throwing the kitchen sink at him.

• Why have so many potential judges been denied confirmation? The answer is simple. The Democrats know those judges would be honest. Ain't it so, Garamendi?

• Caravans of people (pictures showed strong, strapping young men in their 20's) were moving through Mexico from Honduras. Another group of "unaccompanied minors" ready to enter the United States illegally and vote Democratic? Why else would Democrats be so vocal about letting them in? This time Trump said to Mexico, "stop them". This time Mexico got the message.

• Consider that already we support 1/3 of all living Salvadorians since they reside in the US. Enough is enough.

• Well, Garamendi, do you support the Democrats leaning toward abolishing the 2nd Amendment? What say you?

• The Center for Disease Control reports that 4,600 kids a year commit suicide because of bullying. How about dealing with that preventable problem instead of obsessing about gun control?

• In August of last year, Judicial Watch sent a notice-of-violation letter to the State of California and 11 of its counties threatening to sue if it does not clean its voter registration lists. Judicial Watch noted that accounts from various county agencies show 11 California counties have more registered voters than voting-age citizens: Imperial (102%), Lassen (102%), Los Angeles (112%), Monterey (104%), San Diego (138%), San Francisco (114%), San Mateo (111%), Santa Cruz (109%), Solano (111%), Stanislaus (102%), and Yolo (110%). From that moment on, all the Democratic officials in California have been "pooh-pahing" the whole idea that there may be voter fraud possibilities in the State. It would be better if these officials would actually check out the records and give the public an accurate assessment. Get with it.

• Cathy Areu of Catalina Magazine told Tucker Carlson recently that people in the US in the 17th century voted, so everyone today should be allowed to vote. 17th century? That was before the US was a country. And England didn't let the colonists vote. That fact was one reason for the American Revolution. Another immature, uneducated youngster who thinks they know it all and wants to run the Country.

• Executives of the high speed-rail project are demanding more money. What else is new? Any government project is touted at one cost and then the overruns begin. Especially if those who are employed in the work see the handwriting on the wall – that the entire project is a fiasco and about to crash in flames. We should kill the project. Put our money into infrastructure and roads. Maybe these "executives" can wield a shovel.

• Has there ever been a second, a minute or an hour in the last millennia when there hasn't been a huge auto sale?

• Investing in the Black community is the latest mantra. Such investment has been going on for decades, or more. The result? The Black community is worse off than it has ever been. Perhaps a change in approach is in order.

• How many marchers actually showed up for the various "march for our lives rally?" No one wants to say. Except of course the march organizers who kept telling the mainstream media, 850,000. The problem is that two separate "expert" analyses, with the help of aerial imaging and photographs, put the crowd around 200,000. A third estimate by Manchester Metropolitan University in England, pegged the number of protesters at about 180,000. The US Park Service hasn't said a word because they don't want the hassle of dealing with the activists who will dispute the count.

• The politicians are looking to dig deeper in your pocket. Alameda and San Francisco counties want a tax to fund child-care programs. And this is only a $140 million grab. On the State level, they want more than $269 Billion including a sales tax on business services of $49 Billion and a $14.4 billion tax on business profits over $1 million. Then each of California's 5000 or so other public jurisdictions will tap us for bond measures, local and county taxes and school district parcel taxes and bonds. Where will all this money go? Not to roads, other infrastructure and water storage, that's a certainty. Consider voting "no" on any spending plan put on your ballot.

• Then consider Stockton's brilliant idea to take your tax money and give it to low-income residents as a no-strings attached gift.

• "The University of California-Davis LGBTQIA Resource Center has a new pronoun guide that adds "yo," "xie," "ey," "en," and "ve" to the list of gender-neutral pronouns. Don't these snowflakes have anything better to do with their time than to reinvent language to the point of ridiculousness? Get a life, "y'all". South erners solved the problem a long time ago with one word.

• The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration measures U.S. temperatures. Unfortunately their data is fraudulent. NOAA has made repeated "adjustments" to its data, supposedly to make the data more accurate. Accuracy is a good idea but NOAA's changes are all lowering previously measured levels and raising all current temperatures. Obviously this manipulation creates the illusion of global warming and plays into the false narrative that CO2 is causing the earth to warm up rapidly until we all die of sun-stroke. Reality is this: There have been hot years and hot decades since the last century; colder years and colder decades. But there is no clear trend suggesting runaway warming.

• Let's look at "experts" in an interesting way. Folks get a PhD for knowing lots of stuff in an ever narrowing field. That continues until they know everything about nothing.

• Were you aware that coffee merchants have been in court for more than 6 years dealing with a requirement under Proposition 65 concerning warning labels. There is no scientific data at all suggesting that coffee will cause cancer. But if the coffee sellers lose, a cup of java will have to contain huge lawyer-written warning labels on every cup. More cost to the small guy. Fines can be $2,500 for each cup sold without a warning. Look at what has occurred since the adoption of Proposition 65. 760 suits settled for $30.2 million, according to data from the California attorney general. Out of those settlements, $21.6 million, or 72 percent, went to lawyer's fees and costs.

• Remember the Kennedy grandson who gave the Democratic response to Trump's State of the Union? Haven't heard from him since. Total embarrassment.

• Finally a good word to say about California Universities. It has been reported that several California schools rejected David Hogg's application for admission. Super. We don't need him here.

Driving Lessons for Foster Kids

Yuba City, CA, March, 2018 – The Yuba Sutter Indo American Business Association, (YSIABA) a non-profit organization in Yuba City, whose purpose is to help children in the Yuba City and surrounding areas, recently partnered with Children's Hope Foster Family Agency, a local non-profit agency in Gridley, CA.

The mission of the agency is to provide resource parents and families with a professional level of care, compassion, understanding and services, and to commit themselves to the resource children to support and guide them to attain and live a normal, loving, balanced lifestyle in today's society.

On March 28th, the YSIABA gave a donation to the Children's Hope Foster Family Agency to help five transitioning teens in foster care by paying for their driving lessons. Transitioning teens are still in foster care, but are old enough to start working and to take care of themselves outside of the foster care system. The driving scholarships will help these teens be able to move out and find jobs.

The agency and the organization started working together in 2017, to provide various needs to foster children in the area. During Christmas, the YSIABA gave approximately 20 bikes to foster kids of all ages through the agency.

The future of the YSIABA will be to also give to schools in the area by providing necessities like pencils, notebooks, backpacks and more. The organization's goals are to partner with more local non-profits to benefit children in the area.

If you or your business or organization is interested in achieving the same goals or would like to support or sponsor the Yuba Sutter Indo American Business Association, please contact our sponsorship director at (530) 301-2758 or call the organization at 530-870-4564. YCWA Helps Foothill Fire Protection District

The Foothill Fire Protection District will be able to better treat sudden cardiac arrest in the Yuba County foothills and areas near New Colgate Powerhouse and New Bullards Bar Reservoir with the help of a grant from Yuba County Water Agency.

The $5,000 grant, approved today by YCWA as a part of the Bill Shaw Rescue Equipment and Training Grant Program, will help the Foothill Fire Protection District purchase three new automated external defibrillator kits, also known as AEDs.

"The Foothill Fire Protection District provides critical, life-saving services to the areas around New Bullards Bar and New Colgate Powerhouse," said YCWA Board Vice-Chairman Randy Fletcher. "We are so appreciative for their quick response capability and we are happy to support them by funding this new equipment."

An AED is a portable device that delivers an electric shock through the chest to the heart, and can potentially stop an irregular heartbeat and allow a normal rhythm to resume following a sudden cardiac arrest.

The Foothill Fire Protection District is a completely volunteer department that provides emergency medical, fire and rescue services in the Yuba County foothills. The volunteer fire chief is also the YCWA employee for whom the grant is named.

"I am so honored that I could be a part of this grant program that puts much-needed equipment and training in the hands of Yuba County's first responders," said Foothill Fire Protection District Chief Bill Shaw. "We are very thankful to receive this grant that will allow us to replace our old AEDs."

This is the second agency to benefit from YCWA's Bill Shaw Rescue Equipment and Training Grant Program, which was created in January, 2018. These grants are designed for first responder agencies in Yuba County and will cover the one-time costs of up to $5,000 per applicant annually, associated with the purchase of rescue equipment or specialized personnel training. Grant funding requests must be connected to YCWA's missions of flood risk reduction, water supply reliability, hydropower generation, groundwater management, fisheries enhancement and recreation in and around New Bullards Bar Reservoir.

United Way Citizen Review Team Forming Now

Volunteers Needed! United Way of Nevada County's annual Community Impact Process for calendar year 2018 has begun. During this process, current United Way of Nevada County (UWNC) partners may request funding. As part of the annual Community Impact Process, UWNC forms teams of Nevada County volunteers who visit local partner agencies for a review of the agency funding requests and an evaluation of how the agency is addressing the needs of our community. This is part of the due diligence UWNC does for their donors.

This project is a fun, learning experience for all who participate! The commitment isn't a large one; including a short training meeting on April 17th and a two week period of agency visits (April 23rd through May 4th). All in all, you're looking at a small commitment to UWNC (about 6-10 hours) with a large payoff to Nevada County!

UWNC's mission is to improve lives by mobilizing the caring power of our community. UWNC will be concentrating on the Basic Needs of those in our community which include Food, Emergency Shelter and access to Health Care. Any community member that is interested in volunteering to be on a Citizens Review Team should contact UWNC at 274-8111.

Rogues and Thieves

State infrastructure is approaching Third World quality and the service is horrid. Agencies are over-staffed, overpaid and underperforming. State law-breakers pass 1,000 new laws annually to control, manipulate and force their social agenda.

Becerra's Senate Bill 1272 would permanently establish the Tax Recovery and Criminal Enforcement (TRaCE) Task Force within the California Department of Justice, and add a permanent Task Force across the State: Sacramento, Los Angeles, San Diego, the Bay Area, and Fresno. The question is will Becerra's "people" be arrested along with other ethnic groups? And, will those here illegally be arrested?

In other thieves and predators news from Sacramento the state purposely ignored Medicaid rules by enrolling hundreds of thousands of ineligible adults according to the U.S. Health and Human Services Office of Inspector General (OIG). The OIG says the state bilked the federal government out of more than $1 billion in funding. And, these figures probably understate the amount that California officials have stolen from taxpayers. The OIG used a six month sample, from October 1, 2014 through March 31, 2015, to arrive at its conclusions.

Like the doctors who defraud Medicaid, California asked for and received funds to which it wasn't entitled — only big time. States are required to ensure that new enrollees are eligible. The steps to qualify are clearly noted by HHS: The state must verify that applicants meet citizenship and residency requirements, have a household income at or below 138 percent of the FPL (Federal Poverty Level), be from 19 to 64 years of age, not be eligible for any other mandatory coverage group, not be pregnant, not be entitled to Medicare benefits, and furnish a Social Security

California officials made no serious effort to verify any of these data. The OIG sample revealed that 18 percent of enrollees were clearly ineligible, and that another 9 percent are most likely in violation. All of these enrollees failed one or more of the above-noted requirements.

So, how did this happen? Obamacare removed the incentive to be thorough and honest. At present, 1 in 3 Californians are on Medicaid. As long as the "Affordable Care Act (Obamacare)" remains in place, the federal government will pay a minimum of 90 percent of California's Medicaid costs for new enrollees. Thus, state officials don't want to get it right.

If a doctor cashes-in on unallowable Medicaid reimbursements he goes to jail for fraud. In California, rulers can break the law at will with no consequences. Remember, this is a rogue state for those in charge.

Yuba County Pet of the Week

Meet Willow (A171257), an 8 month old female Queensland Heeler mix puppy. This cute girl is very energetic, and very sweet at the same time. She likes to play, but will quiet down and be a lap dog if need be. She will most likely be on the small side when fully grown, but she has a big heart. Don't miss out on such a pretty and sweet girl. Come soon, she won't last long!

Monday — Friday 10am — 3:30 pm and Saturdays 10 am — 2 pm. You can also go to www.petharbor.com or www.petfinder.com to see all of our adoptable animals and look for your lost family pets, or check out our Facebook page, Yuba County Animal Care Services@yubacountyACS. TOPICS OF INTEREST

Kitten season is upon us! If you find very young kittens (feral) without their mother, leave them alone; their mother may be taking a break. If the mother does not come back, consider fostering them rather than flooding the shelter with kittens, since the shelter cannot handle them. Check out maddiesfund.org to learn how to foster kittens. Fostering can be a very rewarding experience.

STARS Volunteers:

Volunteers are needed for the animal shelter. If you have time on your hands and would like to help out, become a a STARS volunteer. Contact Deneen Barnhill at the shelter to find out how.
