

Dann Spear 1955-2018 “no regrets.”

Marysville, Ca. — Dann C. Spear, 63 years old, a 40 year resident of Yuba County, passed away unexpectedly surrounded by family on February 22nd, 2018 following a short illness.

Dann was born to William C. "Doc" and Margie Spear in Ventura, California in 1954. He is survived by his wife Roberta, his two sons Carson and Brandon, his daughters in law Erin and Cotie, his mother, Margie Burnett and her husband John Burnett, his sister Darla Pumphrey (Wayne) and many other family members.

He grew up around horses and livestock, and worked at the family business at the Ojai Valley Inn Riding Stables and Matalija Ranch in his youth. He graduated from Nordhoff H.S. in 1972, and while attending Cal Poly S.L.O. he competed in college Rodeo and went on to compete successfully in Professional Rodeo in the Team Roping Event.

He married the love of his life Roberta Eskew Spear in 1974. After attending Cal Poly they moved back to Ojai where Dann began working in the construction industry. After two years they realized their dream of owning a small ranch and moved to Marysville, CA where Dann continued to compete in Professional Rodeo and continued his construction career. Dann worked in the Public Works department of Sutter County for 30 years where he loved helping the people of Sutter County. Dann also had a strong faith and love for the Lord in a quiet way and always treated people like family. He was known for being fair, honest, kind and had an amazing sense of humor with a smile on his face.

Dann and Roberta had two sons, Carson and Brandon Spear. As a family they were involved in 4-H, little league, and High School Rodeo. They were avid fans of Wheatland Pirates football where they never missed a game, and were able to watch Carson's team make the playoffs for the first time in history in 1996 and Brandon's team in 1998 won the only section championship. Wheatland has ever won in football. Dann's boys grew up to become a Captain in the Army and Iraq War Veteran and a Sergeant in the Yuba County Sheriff's Department. Dann dearly loved his daughters in law Erin who is an Estate Planning Attorney at Guth & Changaris and Cotie who is the Nursing Administrator for Yuba County Corrections.

While raising his family, Dann founded the Museum of the Forgotten Warriors in 1983. Dann had always been interested in Military history, and after meeting several WW2 Flying Tigers Veterans it inspired the start of his Military memorabilia collecting. Dann's collection and passion for telling Veterans' stories continued to grow each year into what the Museum is today.

If you have not yet visited the museum take a look at the website: www.museumoftheforgottenwarriors.org or stop by any Saturday from 10-3pm, or call 530-742-3090 to arrange a private tour, and admission is always free. Dann always said the Museum is not about war, it's about people, and he was interested in everyone's story.

Dann enjoyed every minute of life, he lived it to the fullest and had no regrets about anything! There will be a celebration of his life on March 17, 2018 at 10am at Adventure Church in Yuba City at 1100 Garden Highway followed by food and memories at the Museum / Spear home.

Whiteaker Served With Recall Papers

by Lou Binninger

Sutter County 4th District Supervisor Jim Whiteaker was served with a Notice of Intention to Recall on Sunday February 25.

Recall proponents believe Whiteaker's history of improper behavior with Yuba City High School students including accusations going back as far as 1996 make him unfit to serve as county supervisor. He was elected to that position in November, 2002 and is employed as a physical education teacher at the school.

So far, two lawsuits have been filed on behalf of students against Whiteaker and Yuba City Unified School District. After the latest incident in January school trustees placed the teacher on administrative leave and initiated termination actions against him.

A second teacher was thought to have been disciplined regarding the latest Whiteaker incident, but the administration said it did not place another teacher on leave. Whether a lesser form of disciplinary action was utilized is unknown.

The second teacher was accused of refusing to report a student's accusation of abuse against Whiteaker to the administration. If true, it is a crime punishable by a fine and incarceration. Teachers at the high school received emails from the administration instructing them not to discuss developments with the Whiteaker case.

Recall proponents now have 7-days to file the original Notice of Intention along with an affidavit of the time and manner of service with Sutter County Elections Clerk Donna Johnston.

Then, Supervisor Whiteaker has 7-days to respond to the Notice with an answer of not more than 200 words. If a response is forthcoming then Johnston has 7-days to legally inform one of the recall signatories.

Once petitions are drafted and approved by the Clerk then recall proponents have 90-days to submit enough valid signatures of registered voters from the 4th District to qualify the recall for the ballot. At least 25% of the registered voters in the 4th District will have to sign the petition. The exact number has yet to be determined from Clerk Johnston.

Judge Persky Recall to Voters

by Lou Binninger

On Jan. 11, the campaign to recall Santa Clara Superior Court Judge Aaron Persky turned in nearly 95,000 signatures. Only 58,634 valid signatures were needed to qualify for the June 5, 2018 ballot.

"This historic campaign is part of a national social movement to end impunity for athletes and other privileged perpetrators of sexual assault and violence against women," said Stanford Law School Professor Michele Dauber, the leader of the recall campaign. Dauber has received death threats for her recall efforts.

If Persky loses, it will be the first time a California judge has been removed by a recall election in 85 years.

The recall campaign was sparked by the Brock Turner case. Brock Turner, a 20-year-old student and elite swimmer at Stanford University, served only three months for sexual assault due to Judge Persky's light sentence and a state law aimed at reducing jail overcrowding.

Following Turner's release on September 2, 2016 he returned to his hometown in Ohio. California law requires Turner to register as a sex offender for the rest of his life.

Turner sexually assaulted an unconscious woman and was convicted of three felony sex offenses, including assault with intent to commit rape. The victim, still anonymous and not a Stanford student, was found half-naked behind a dumpster.

She attended a fraternity party with her sister earlier that night. The victim woke-up with no memory of events and learned the details of her assault from the media. Two bicyclists pulled Turner off of the victim.

Judge Persky sentenced Turner to six months in county jail with three years of probation. Persky ignored the statutory minimum sen-

Christian Sachs New MPD Chief

Marysville, Ca. — Effective March 1, 2018, Christian Sachs will become Marysville's next Police Chief. As a member of the Police Department for the past 17 years, Chief Sachs has more than earned the community's respect and enthusiastic support, as well as that of his colleagues, the City Council and the City Manager.

"I am truly honored and feel privileged to be the Chief of Police for the City of Marysville. I look forward to our continued partnership with the Marysville community, allied agencies, and the great men and women who work for the City of Marysville," Chief Sachs enthusiastically stated shortly after learning of his appointment.

Chief Sach's dedication to public safety and service is exemplified by the many service awards he has received over the years including the California Highway Patrol's Lifetime Achievement Award for Auto Theft Recovery, Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) Award for the most DUI arrests in Northern California, the 2017 Marysville Employee of the Year Award, and the Yuba County Probation Department's Victims Service Award for exemplary service with victims of violent crimes.

When asked to comment on the breaking news, Mayor Ricky Samayoa had this to say: "I congratulate Chris on his promotion. I am proud of all the intentional community policing projects our Police Department have introduced and maintained over the past few years. As evident by his dedication, professionalism, and hard work, Chief Sachs is the perfect choice to continue this important work and keep our community safe. Without a doubt, Chris will do an incredible job leading the Marysville Police Department and fulfilling its mission."

During his tenure in Marysville, Chris has also served as a Patrol Officer, Sergeant, member of the Special Enforcement Team, Division Commander, and Lieutenant. Prior to joining the City, Sachs was also a Patrol Officer in Williams for three and a half years.

"Chris will make a great Chief, because he's an experienced street cop—the epitome of the working man's Police Chief," Vice-Mayor Chris Pedigo emphatically stated.

In addition to loving his job, Chris is also passionate about community involvement and neighborhood serving projects that improve the lives of Marysville citizens and the surrounding region.

Adding to the high praise and admiration, Marti Brown, Marysville's City Manager, had this to say about Sach's appointment, "Hiring Chris was the easiest personnel decision I've ever had to make. He is innovative, dedicated, responsive, hard working, a quick problem solver and has a great sense of humor — And what's not to like and admire about that! He's a tremendous asset to the Marysville team. I look forward to our continued work together and making Marysville better than ever!"

Monday, March 5, 2018 through Monday, March 26, 2018. The existing sidewalk on the 5th street Bridge will be closed for a period of three weeks to allow for the construction of one of the future shafts for the new bridge. The work will start during the week of March 5th when construction crews will be removing a 20'x 6' portion of the existing sidewalk to allow for the construction of the new shaft of the future bridge. The City anticipates two weeks of construction for the Pier, followed by the reinstallation of the sidewalk in the third week. Dixie State's Clifford Signs with Sox

Marysville, Ca. The Yuba-Sutter Gold Sox are proud to announce the signing of outfielder, Brody Clifford. "I've heard nothing but great things about Brody and I'm excited to have him come out to Marysville this summer. They run a great program at Dixie State and are sending great, competitive guys to play. We look forward to seeing them progress both on and off the field," says VP/GM Michael Mink. The Arizona native is currently a junior majoring in Business Management at Dixie State, and has been playing baseball since he was 8 years old. He attended Bradshaw Mountain High School where he and the team finished the 2012 season with an impressive 19-9 record and a trip to the 2nd round of the Division II State Tournament. As a junior, he had a .429 AVG and led the team with 28 RBIs. As one of the top offensive and defensive players on his team, Clifford was named the 2012 All-Area Prep Baseball Player of the Year by the Daily Courier. During his time at Yavapai Community College, he distinguished himself as a player to compete with. He made the 2nd Team All-Region Player during his freshman year and had a .324 AVG, was 2nd in the Arizona Community College Athletic Conference (AC-CAC) with 21 doubles. He finished his season with a .987 fielding percentage, and helped the Roughriders make it to the Junior World Series as a Sophomore. Clifford will play ball for Dixie State this Spring and we're excited to track his progress as he prepares for this summer. Before each game, he likes to sit in the outfield and watch the opposing pitcher so he can accurately prepare. "I'm excited to come play for the Gold Sox," says Clifford, and he looks forward to meeting and getting to know all of the wonderful fans.

FISHIN' TALK by Boots Johnson Dan "Boots" Johnson has fished and hunted in California for 73 years. Anyone with questions or comments can email him at boots3@syix.com

We checked on the stream conditions in the high country. This includes rivers, creeks and streams. We found conditions now are a month ahead of schedule which means by the time the season opens the end of April we will be dealing with summer conditions with low water and all the rest which comes with not much snow for runoff and rain on the slim side. While on the subject of trout fishing in the high country it reminds me when I was introduced to stream fishing as a lad of only seven years old. I had a good teacher and my Dad had me catching limits of rainbow trout in my first year on a trout stream. Back then we used a double hook setup. You could buy the leaders with the two loops, one for each hook. My Dad taught me how to fly fish and to use the double hook setup with natural colored salmon eggs. The eggs were flesh in color and had a strong smell about them. We would fly fish from first light to around 9 A.M. and then switch to the eggs. I remember the first time I was shown how to use the double setup with only one egg and a fly or jig on the bottom. I was told this was a way to tempt the fish and I caught many trout with this method. Dad always told me that trout sometimes are not on the bite and a double offering sometimes will catch fish. Dan had a special spinner he kept in his creel. It was a copper/stainless combination blade with three red beads and a treble hook. I will never forget the day we were returning to camp, came upon the pool which completely changed the direction of the creek. Dad motioned to me to be quiet and he sneaked up about six or seven feet from the water and cast that spinner. He got no results so he tied an egg hook about 12 to 14 inches below the spinner, attaching the leader to the treble hook. On his second cast with that setup he set the hook on what turned out to be a beautiful rainbow trout which measured on the de-liar scale at 18 ¾ inches. I learned an important lesson from my Dad that morning. Use your imagination with presentation and when he released that beauty back into the water it started my positive thinking about catch and release, which I have been doing for the last 74 years. Closing thought: "Distance does not separate people, silence does."

Dresses for Africa

Grass Valley, Ca. Soroptimists of Grass Valley (SIGV) was joined by over one hundred area women in producing handmade dresses for young girls in Uganda, Africa. It has been found that sex-traffickers are discouraged from kidnapping young girls in vulnerable countries or any area when they see the girls dressed in a garment that someone has lovingly sewn for them. It signifies that someone watches over and cares for them according to news reports.

This project was the brainchild of "Hope For Women International", dedicated to empowering and educating women. One activity of the group is creating simple dresses for the "Dress A Girl Around The World" (DAG) project. The Soroptimists International, one of the world's largest women's service organizations, with clubs in almost every country across the globe, has in California adopted the "Dress A Girl" campaign as a major project. The local club headed by Judy East and Jenni Johnson, co-presidents, appointed member Lynn Mehren Costa to organize a local movement to gather materials, make patterns, to make sewing kits and make dresses to be taken to Uganda by local volunteers.

This past Fall, Soroptimist of Grass Valley gathered over four hundred dresses sewn by people who answered a public call to sew to protect children from kidnapping. Three hundred dresses were taken to Central Uganda and handed out to young girls in three different villages by Lynn Costa and volunteers from local churches.

The success of this venture has encouraged the women's service club to continue their endeavors to dress girls in sex trafficking danger zones. Two more events are scheduled sewing to ready materials and to make more dresses at an old fashion sewing bee on two Saturdays in March, the 10th and the 24th, from 1 PM to 5 PM at Twin Cities Church. The church is located at 11726 Rough and Ready Hwy, Grass Valley. The public is invited to join in the effort to produce a batch of dresses which will be sent to several non-profits with connections in parts of the world where girls and women in need are being served. For those interested in helping who may have extra pieces of 100% cotton fabric (even scraps) they can drop supplies off from 4-6 PM at Twin Cities church. Many volunteers will continue to sew the year round and can use any and all materials donated, states Lynn Costa.

Mrs. Costa added that being in the group who visited three villages in Uganda to deliver the dresses was a highlight of her life, not to be forgotten. The villagers were most grateful for the clothes and even asked her to teach them to sew, she said.

She added that both Soroptimist International and the "Dress a Girl" campaign appreciate how so many women in Nevada County, and elsewhere, stepped forward to donate materials and then cut, trim and sew the first 400 dresses. Costa also thanks Twin Cities Church for allowing the use of their facility for the sewing events and for helping to distribute dresses while on the church's Uganda Missions trip.

For more information or to volunteer or donate, please email sigrassvalley@gmail.com or contact Lynn Mehren-Costa at classiccosta@yahoo.com.

Whiteaker Served With Recall Papers

After enough recall signatures are submitted and certified by the Clerk then the Board of Supervisors has 14-days to order the Clerk to set a date for an election. If the Board does not act then the Clerk shall do so.

A ballot question would ask whether Supervisor Whiteaker should be recalled. The ballot would also include candidates interested in replacing Whiteaker should he lose the election.

If the recall qualifies for the ballot it has an historic Whiteaker family twist.

Supervisor Whiteaker's father and 20-year incumbent Sheriff Roy Whiteaker was upset by Yuba City Police Captain Art Brandwood in the 1990 Sutter County Sheriff's race. However, after less than 90-days in office Sheriff Brandwood was served with recall papers by defeated Sheriff Whiteaker's shocked and disgruntled supporters.

Their complaint was that Sheriff Brandwood was cracking down on issuing concealed weapons permits. Brandwood argued that Sutter County had issued the highest number of gun permits per capita in the state (one permit for every 48 Sutter County residents). LA

County Sheriff issued one weapons permit for every 24,216 residents that year.

Brandwood turned back the recall by capturing 59% of the vote and served two four-year-terms before retiring.

In other Yuba City High School personnel actions Varsity Basketball Coach Mamo Rafiq was fired last week. Rafiq had been the head coach since May 2013. He was not a teacher and can be terminated at will. The reason for his dismissal is unknown, but he had been the target of complaints from parents and others at the school.

Rafiq had been exonerated in 2016 after being placed on leave due to accusations of mismanaging school athletic funds. He was reinstated in September 2016 following an audit costing an estimated $27,000. Auditors criticized the district's training and policies regarding handling of student funds.

This Month In Your Garden

March is usually a favorite month for gardeners – the cold weather is behind us and the hot weather hasn't made its debut yet. The first day of spring officially happens on March 20. Spring is a beautiful time of the year with beautiful weather for all kinds of pleasant activities, gardening being a favorite for many. Other noteworthy days in March are on March 11 we start Daylight Saving Time, and on the 17th it is St. Patrick's Day. Palm Sunday and Good Friday follow. An eventful month, and getting out in the garden can add more pleasure and activity.

Vegetable gardens and flower gardens are high on the list of things to do for many. Select a spot with lots of sunlight for your vegetable garden, and some intermittent shade as the sun moves across the area is alright. The soil will probably need to be spaded or roto-tilled to loosen it. If you have heavy clay soil, it will likely take several rounds of turning the soil and adding compost to lighten it and make it more porous. Try to use organic soil additives that will build your soil rather than chemical products that tend to deplete the soil of needed nutrients. The decomposition of organic matter such as crushed leaves and grass clippings can be interspersed into heavy clay soil to help lighten it as well as create spaces to help with drainage which is a problem with very dense clay. Many of our customers in the foothills are very familiar with the clay soil, and maintain a compost pile - an effective way to always have soil additive ready when you need it. A compost pile is not especially attractive and might be offensive to some neighbors in town, but there are containers available that work well and will break-down trimmings into compost. It is not a fast process, but it is still a good way to dispose of trimmings and weeds, and make good use of them.

It is important to keep weeds and brush under control – they both grow rapidly and can be an invasive problem. Control can be accomplished in several different ways, some of them can be quite labor intensive – such as pulling them by hand. They can be controlled mechanically and they can be sprayed with an herbicide. Because we had so much warm weather in February, I doubt that pre-emergent can be used effectively now to deter the weeds – most of them have likely sprouted already. With pre-emergent, one must be careful not to apply it where you planted flower seeds for spring color – it is not fussy about what it works its magic on! Congratulations to anyone who had the foresight to use it early enough to be effective. A combination of all those things seem to work for most people, depending on the areas to be done, the kind of weeds, etc. All methods require that some caution be used in order not to harm something else in the process.

With the weather warming and plants eager to grow, it is also time to fertilize just about everything to give them all a good start. An all purpose fertilizer is fine for most plants, but try to use the proper fertilizer on those things that need it, such as citrus food and acid based fertilizer. I have a few words of caution, though. should you have any plant that has buds that should open several weeks later than your date of fertilizing, skip those plants until they have finished blooming. Fertilizing while the buds are not mature might cause the plant to start putting on vigorous new growth that could push the unopened buds off. Just wait until it has finished blooming, and fertilize it then. It is natural for spring blooming plants to put out new growth following their bloom period. This caution refers to those plants that bloom only once a year in the spring. Some times, for instance, some rhododendrons are later blooming. Enjoy all of their beautiful blooms, and fertilize them after they have finished. Another cautionary statement on rhodies – be sure to break off the flower trusses left following the petals falling, to reduce seed formation which will reduce next year's bloom.

We are not the only ones happy to see spring, slugs, snails, earwigs, aphids all welcome the warmer weather. Aphids multiply exponentially and ants farm them by moving them from one place to another because they like the sticky honeydew that they leave behind. Aphids can be controlled by hosing the off frequently, and there are insecticides that will control them for longer time. Controlling the ants helps to control the aphids.

This an excellent time to plant most anything - ground covers, lawns, annuals, etc. Perennials can also be dug and divided and possibly shared with other gardener friends. They can become well established more easily in the cooler spring temperatures and thus, withstand the heat of the summer. Enjoy the beauty of the spring season.

Food and Farm News

Farmers work to protect crops from freeze damage

Cold overnight temperatures across much of California come at a time when some crops will be vulnerable to freeze damage. For example, Central Valley almond trees are in bloom, so farmers have been irrigating orchards in hopes of raising temperatures enough to stave off damage. It's a similar story in citrus groves, where concern focuses on the blossoms for next year's crop. On the Central Coast, new growth on strawberry plants could be affected.

CVP announces initial water allocation

Below-average rain and snow this winter mean reduced water supplies for the federal Central Valley Project. The U.S. Bureau of Reclamation, which operates the CVP, said Tuesday it expects to deliver 20 percent of contract supplies to its farm customers south of the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta, and 30 percent to customers of its Friant unit. The bureau said the current situation underscores the need for more storage to capture water in wet winters.

California Farm Bureau seeks immigration solution

As Congress discusses immigration reform, the California Farm Bureau Federation says any solution must recognize the current immigrant employees on whom farms and ranches depend. California Farm Bureau President Jamie Johansson says legislation currently before Congress "just wouldn't work" for the state's farms and ranches. He says CFBF and other organizations will press for a more practical and flexible agricultural-visa program.

Californian wins national Collegiate Discussion Meet

A Fresno State University student has won a national contest aimed at simulating discussion of agricultural issues at a committee meeting. Tim Truax, an agricultural education major from Turlock, won the national Collegiate Discussion Meet sponsored by the American Farm Bureau Federation. In the final round of the competition, Truax and other college students discussed trade policy. He competed in a field of 59 contestants from around the country.

Crazy Trends

With the market continuing to hit new highs almost daily, investors are wondering just how high it can go and when might we see a correction. We saw one nasty one a few weeks back but memories are short and so it may be off to the races again.

Obviously at some point the markets will again give back some of what it has gained but the question is when and by how much it will correct by.

Markets never go straight up forever obviously but looking at the last year or so and indeed since 2009 the trajectory has been mostly straight up and that in itself can be unnerving to some.

There is an old saying that "markets can stay irrational longer than you can stay liquid" which is to say a markets future direction is an enigma to all with no exceptions. Markets can stay flat, rise or fall longer than expected and by how much is anyone's guess. Rule nothing out and you will be less surprised when crazy trends continue farther than expected.

No one can say what markets will do and when they will do it but like the proverbial approaching train, something is going to happen at some point that will likely be a tad unpleasant for the average mom and pop investor.

Although preparing for the uncertain is certainly difficult, there are things one can do to at least prepare for what most agree is bound to happen at some point and that is an unwelcomed correction to the downside.

For those investors finding their nerves being tested by the relentless upward direction of recent markets, looking at gains and not wanting to see those gains disappear, the usual steps to take is lightening up on stock holdings and moving a higher percentage to cash or cash equivalents.

Taking some gains off the table is a prudent practice and if markets do correct, at least that portion of the portfolio will remain intact.

If markets continue up however the remaining holdings will likely participate, taking at least some of the regret out of the prudent decision to lighten up and pull some chips off the table.

There are areas of investing that tend to move opposite of markets. What most people don't realize is that when stocks are sold in a correction some of that money is redeployed in other and often predictable areas.

Although nothing is certain in the investing arena, many areas are regarded as offering some sort of protection when markets catch a cold and some asset classes may even rise when the general market sells off.

Knowing what rises and falls when other things fall and rise may require the knowledge of a financial professional but can also be learned by those willing to spend some time gaining investment knowledge and comparing historical data.

This type of education can be learned by reviewing some of the fine investing resources available in print by many qualified and knowledgeable professionals. One may also search the web for all the material one would want on markets and investing.

Should an investment professional not be used however and the investor doesn't want to spend the time to learn the ins and outs of market dynamics, although not an ideal situation, simply moving a higher percentage of the portfolio into cash will take some of the ups and downs out of play. The more cash one holds, the less the portfolio balances will move up or down.

Gains are great and rising markets tend to manufacturer them but keeping those gains is yet another hurdle investors must overcome. Too many investors gained much in the infamously rising tsunamis that were the dot-com and housing boom only to see those gains evaporate when those markets returned to normal by correcting quite horrendously.

As always, consult a financial professional when making investment decisions and do your own research when investing. Investing involves risk and you can lose money. CRITIC'S CORNER

The Black Panther

Starring: Chadwick Boseman, Michael B. Jordan and Lupita Nyong'o.

Rated: PG-13, Runtime: 134 minutes.

A Prince rises to the station of King and must lead his hidden country into the new modern world. The impetus of this journey is the recovery of the kingdoms precious metal Vibranium and the return of an unknown prince that challenges for the throne.

The flow of the film is unhurried and solid. The movie glides along with the confidence and surety of a panther. Every scene introduces us to this hidden world and builds upon the wonders it holds.

The performances of the actors fit into the high standards that we have come to expect from Marvel. The costumes and special effects are perfectly done.

The Black Panther, earns five out of five, Charging Rhino Monkeys. Anticipation and expectation set the standard for most films. My anticipation of this film was like I was a child again, waiting for Christmas. My expectations of this film were higher than any film I can remember. My favorite comic book character in a live action movie. I was jazzed to say the least about the release of this movie.

My expectations were exceeded and my anticipation was well founded. The story that is laid out is one of hopes and harsh realities, of conflicts and hard truths.

There has been some controversy about this movie. Our media is trying to use racial divide to get clicks to sell to advertisers. This movie addresses some of this issue. In a mature and intelligent way, race dissolves and we feel the struggle, between the easy path and the right path, of strength for destruction and strength to heal. The Black Panther is another great movie in a long line of great Marvel movies. Go see it and enjoy.

OPINION

“Key Hole” Residents
Vote June 5 on Annexation

by Bob Renton

The vote is finally coming to the residents near Yuba City often called the “Key Hole” area.

Yuba City council authorized a ballot that will appear as part of the June 5, 2018 primary election.

This was approved Feb 20 and authorized another $40K of YC taxpayer money for County Elections costs and public outreach.

If the annexation is successful the new YC residents within the annexed area will have some wonderful new privileges. They will get to see their taxes go to pay for unfunded pension liabilities for city employees. That liability has risen to $71 million dollars from only $59 Million a year ago. A 20% increase in spite of the YC reserve funds used to pay down some of the debt. By the way the previous $59 Million debt was an increase of 19% from its prior year. The city finance director has called the demands made by Cal

Pers on the YC budget as “unsustainable”. The poor performance of Cal Pers is a big part of the problem. Still, Yuba City taxpayers are obligated to guarantee any pension fund shortfall. A fair question to ask is this: Who guarantees your Keogh plan for your retirement if the investments produce less than you need to retire? Does Yuba City guarantee your retirement? Yet you get to guarantee theirs.

Another new privilege of YC residents if annexed is required ownership of a permit from Yuba City for your burglar alarm. In a grand gesture they are waiving the $42 cost of just the first permit. But not the requirement that your alarm must be connected to a monitoring service. Cost another $30 per month! You still need to pay $42 every 3 years for the next permit. The city requirements covering permits are mind boggling. NO requirements at all for alarms for residents outside city limits. No permits needed.

Oh, let us not forget the new privilege of paying for a city business license if you operate from your home. And pay a tax on the gross income of that business. No net profit? Too bad! You will pay a tax on the gross income anyhow. This will include a person owning several houses for rent in the city. But you say there is not much net profit from the rental units because it mostly goes out in expenses. Again, so sorry! You will pay a tax on the gross rents received. Yuba City is entitled by ordinance to demand your tax payment on the gross income.

Residents may request an “absentee” ballot well in advance so it can be mailed to them. You then vote in the comfort of your own home. Perfectly legal. Feel free to contact BobRenton91@GMail.com

THINK About It!

By Charlie McNiff

We don’t hear much about ISIS anymore. When President Trump took office there were over 45,000 terrorists creating havoc by cutting people’s heads off and murdering thousands others that didn’t subscribe to their radical religious thinkings...and after one year there are less than 1.000 terrorists scattered hither, thither and yon. (President Obama said it would take generations to defeat them).

How’d Trump Do Dat in only One year?...Very Simple, rather than control the “war” from Washington, D.C. he gave commanders in the field more control, like General Eisenhower did in World War 2, and Rules of Engagement were changed to untie the hands of the troops in the field and “rout the enemy.”

Don’t forget, Obama created the problem by keeping a campaign promise of taking all the troops out of Iraq that created the vacuum that the religious fanatics filled very quickly.

On the homefront, Devan Nunes, House Intelligence Committee Chairman last week sent out a formal “Questionnaire” letter to high ranking Obama officials regarding the Russian Dossier’s FISA warrant referencing What Did You Know, When Did You Know It, etc., etc... and a deadline date on when he wanted the form returned to the committee.

In 2014 and 2015 there were no FISA warrants issued. In 2016 there were 1752 issued. Hmmm... that was under the Obama administration...Hmmm!

On Feb.13 during an interview with Fox’s Sean

Hannity, former FBI Assistant Director James Kallstrom commented, “I was involved in many FISA warrants as an agent and at the executive level and never ever had a warrant that we didn’t know who paid for it.”

On the contrary, the Clinton campaign and the DNC (Democrat National Committee) paid $12 MILLION DOLLARS to Fusion GPS who, in turn, shoveled millions to different people that developed the fake Russian Dossier.

Who should be investigated? Certainly not Trump...think about that!

Now, let’s talk about BILLIONS of DOLLARS... that are being shared by millions of working people because of over 350 companies that have given bonuses to their employees in the ranges of $1,000 to $2,000 each.

That’s Corporate America’s monies being shared with workers because of President Trump’s Tax Plan being recently implemented.

Now, let’s hit on a few of President Trump’s accomplishments last February....

In February 2017

Finance reform: The administration ordered review of the 2010 Dodd-Frank financial oversight law in February while urging Congress to remove the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau’s authority to supervise banks and financial companies, returning that power to other federal and state regulators.

Russia: The administration countered Russian propaganda by launching two government-run media outlets in February broadcasting in Russian.

Military: In February the administration reached a tentative deal with Lockheed Martin to purchase 90 F-35 jets at the lowest price in the program’s history. The first 90 planes were about $725 million below budget, with billions of dollars in additional savings expected. The deal saved at least one U.S. ally, Japan, $100 million.

Government reform: In February, the president announced he did not plan on filling numerous government positions he considered unnecessary.

Law enforcement: In February, President Trump signed three executive orders to strengthen law enforcement. The first strengthens the law against international crime organizations. The second combats anti-law-enforcement crimes. The third seeks a strategy for reducing crime in general, including, in particular, illegal immigration, drug trafficking and violent crime.

School bathrooms: Trump, in February, reversed Obama’s executive order requiring public schools to allow students to use bathrooms and locker rooms according to their preferred “gender identity.”

Second Amendment: President Trump signed a bill into law in February repealing an Obama-era Social Security Administration rule adding mental disability determinations to the background check registry. The Obama regulation potentially allowed the denial of Second Amendment rights to many competent, mentally healthy citizens.

Fire in the Foothills – The Next Phase

It’s heartwarming to hear about organizations like Islamic Relief USA and Rural County Representatives of California donating to those whose homes were destroyed in the Cascade and La Porte fires. We can only hope that this stream of support continues.

We also need to hope for new ideas to lessen these disasters in the future. As it’s currently shaping up, the lack of rain and high temps, will bring another worrisome summer. Besides the obvious concerns over the loss of property or life, we think about the brave firefighters and first responders who will once again put their lives at risk. We also worry about rising insurance premiums (or loss of coverage), property value depreciation, the inability to sell one’s home and the overall image of the foothills as a safe and prosperous place to raise one’s family or to spend one’s retirement.

While there are great efforts to increase fuel reduction and improve forest management, there are several things that Yuba County should consider to become even more fire safe:

1. Our emergency warning system needs bolstering. We should consider a siren warning system placed throughout the community;

2. We need to locate more water within the populated areas to help firefighting efforts - The county might consider locating a large number of easy-to-access water tanks and cisterns along roadways and under intersections. Camptonville may be the model to follow. YCWA set up several tanks in the area to help fight fire;

3. We need better protection of the hard-wired communication system and our scant mobile technology. During the fires, many outside the fire zone, were unable to call out of their exchange. This was a critical safety issue.

Many ask, “how will we pay for this?” The proposed 1% sales tax might be better spent for more of these types of tangible, community safety assets. Or, how about asking insurance companies to invest in the effort? In return they receive great PR about improving safety in a fire prone area, as well as reducing their huge payouts from future fires. Hey, it’s always worth a try.

Red Flags

I have been saying we must clean the swamp at home for many months. The same failures that happened in Florida could happen here. The people who failed to see all the red flags are being paid a wage to act upon them to protect the general public. Its common sense to attach a Name to these people and hold them responsible for it. Teachers should be trained for it, mental workers , Police officers , Judges , they should all be held responsible They all demand more money let them earn it. This not holding them responsible it would never fly in the private world you would be fired. People die lives are ruined and all we do is say oh well someone dropped the ball I for one want names. Not the Gov. its ours we pay the bills hold some one responsible.

Opens in Marysville

For the first time in years, Marysville will have its own movie series--if not a full-fledged cinema--as the newly-opened "D Street Destination" sets out to show a variety of films at its downtown location.

"For years, Marysville residents had to drive over to Yuba City if they wanted to see a new film on the big screen," says co-founder Adam Cantrell. "We're hoping that we can, if not compete with the regular commercial theatres, to at least offer a nice low-cost supplement to them."

The owners are aiming to showcase films that are more eclectic and artistic than the usual big-budget, shoot-em-up Hollywood blockbusters. For example, screening this weekend (March 2-4) is the new English romantic comedy-drama "Hampstead," starring Diane Keaton as an American widow living in the posh London neighborhood of Hampstead, who finds herself attracted to a scruffy Irish hippie/anarchist (Brendon Gleeson) living in a handmade cabin in the woods of nearby Hampstead Heath. Based on a true story, "Hampstead" (rated PG) was hailed by the Guardian newspaper as "a charming and funny life-affirming tale about how love can be found in the most unexpected places."

Newer films like "Hampstead" will routinely screen on Fridays, Saturday and Sundays, Cantrell notes, and will expand into other days of the week if audience demand supports it.

The Destination will balance out its contemporary art-house selections with a special ongoing Thursday night Classics series, where admission is free. The first entry in that series, on March 8 at 7:30 pm, is the acclaimed 1951 social drama "The Well." Nominated for two Academy Awards (including Best Screenplay), "The Well" stars a youthful Harry Morgan (of M*A*S*H fame) as a mysterious stranger whose unexpected arrival in a small rural town is the catalyst for a series of racial incidents that threaten to set the town ablaze. "The Well" was filmed entirely on location in Marysville and Yuba City and offers a rare time-capsule look at the communities as they appeared over six decades ago.

The D Street Destination is located at 423 D Street, directly across from the Training Zone. Ticket information and showtimes can be obtained by calling 530-755-6677.

Your One Minute News Digest

by Don Rae

• Once in a while we get a law enforcement official to put his finger on the issues we need to address regarding violence perpetrated by young people. Spokane County Sheriff Ozzie Knezovich blamed a breakdown of society, the media and problems with the mental health system for the shooting at Spokane County's Freeman High School. "I can tell you, folks, I carried a gun all my life. I hunted, I shot. My friends and I, when it's hunting season back home, when I was in high school, every one of those rigs had a gun in the gun rack. Why? We went hunting on the way home. None of those guns ever walked into a school. None of those guns ever shot anybody." He went on to say bluntly guns haven't changed over the years, and aren't to blame in shootings - society is. "You started glorifying cultures of violence. You glorified the gang culture," he said. "You glorified games that are actually giving you points for raping and killing people. A gun did not change, we changed."

• The usual suspects believe whales are highly intelligent. Then explain why they didn't crawl up the beach and eventually evolve. Now it is too late. They are too fat to perform the evolutionary crawl.

• It may be due to the new tax bill, but the Treasury reports collecting, during January, about $361,038,000,000 in total tax revenues, and spent a total of approximately $311,802,000,000 to run a surplus of approximately $49,236,000,000. Did you see any reporting on this positive economic news?

• More noise is polluting the air by politicians who want to divide up Proposition 13 to the detriment of business. As if they haven't screwed it to job-creators already. California is now the 14th highest in per capita property taxes in the nation. Why do we have to become number one in this category?

• The Screen Actors

Guild put out a set of guidelines to deal with the Henry Weinstein, et al problem. "This initiative gives members a clear understanding of their workplace rights and provides reliable guidance for members to navigate the unique environments of the entertainment, music and media industries," SAG president Gabrielle Carteris said. "To truly change the culture, we must be courageous and willing. At its most basic, this Code will ultimately help better define what harassment is, and what members' rights are in real world situations." Really? Does this mean no more casting couch? Wanna bet?

• John Chiang, State Treasurer, met with Republican donors, claiming he was a moderate. Oh, really? Just because Trump authored an infrastructure plan, he opposes it. Consider that he supports the "bullet train" which will be as slow as a snail costing (at the latest estimate, soon to balloon) $200 billion? He hasn't made a peep about the $100 billion Delta Tunnel plan? And to top it off, not a word has passed his lips on the $400 billion single payer health care plan. A moderate he is not. A Bernie Sanders liberal he is.

• It is a never ending mantra which even navy and marine corps officials are parroting. The sea level rise in 30 years will adversely impact shoreline marine and navy bases. Haven't we been through this again and again? Are our coastal cities under water yet? Gads, even our military has fallen for the hoax.

• Cal Poly San Luis Obispo has joined the ranks of oppressive campuses just like Berkeley. The administration chickened out and allowed a conservative speaker, Bill Whittle, to be tarred as hating people of color and Muslims and thereby not allowed on campus as part of a panel discussion. More than likely no conservatives will be ever be welcomed on the Cal Poly campus again.

• Random mass shootings have little or nothing to do with guns. It has much more to do with lack of discipline in schools and the cascading breakdown of the family, all encouraged by leftists. In addition, Hollywood has produced the most violent video games imaginable to entertain our kids. Most movies solve their scripted problems by shooting. The entire leftist agenda needs solving, not more attacks on the 2nd amendment.

• Assemblymember Wendy Carrillo (D-LA) offered up House Resolution (HR) 69 in the Assembly Committee on Judiciary. The resolution calls on Trump to reverse his decision to terminate the Temporary Protected Status (TPS) designation for El Salvadorans. Why doesn't this elected official concern herself with those constituents who are Americans? She seems more concerned about approximately 49,000 El Salvadorans who are not Americans.

• Were you aware that some 5000 California teachers are DACA? These teachers are supposed to teach our children respect for the law? Aren't our teachers, paid by our tax dollars, supposed to exemplify a moral code, abide by the law and teach how to change laws rather than wantonly ignore them? In fact, these illegal's teach that only dummies follow the law.

• The FBI hasn't acquitted itself very well lately. Unfortunately the actions of agents and supervisors in numerous cases including Boston, San Bernardino, Ft. Hood, and now Florida show an unsettling lack of professionalism. However, the agency plans to move some 2300 jobs out of Washington into fly-over country. A good move to clean out the sewer. But a clean out of the middle management and top officials is also long overdue.

• Well, kids. The do-gooders are off and running. They have convinced McDonalds that cheeseburgers and chocolate milk are no longer to be offered in its kids menu. No more saturated fats for the little tykes - even though recent real science has shown that saturated fats are actually good for us (in moderation, of course).

• The Associated Press simply can't help itself. It worries about the Russian families whose military sons were killed by US airstrikes in Syria. Wouldn't it be nice to see the AP express concern about US service members in the same way?

• Your government really looks out for you. Are you aware that the average impact fee in California for a single-family residence is $31,100? These fees are about 90% higher than the next worst state. For apartments, the average is $18,000, 289% above the average of other states. Builders add these fees to the price of the house and property taxes are based on the purchase price. Therefore the buyer, or renter, pays taxes on the fees.

tence of two years. The victim said Turner received essentially "one month for each felony."

Dan Turner, Brock Turner's father, wrote a letter to the judge during sentencing. The father wrote, "His life will never be the one that he dreamed about and worked so hard to achieve... That is a steep price to pay for 20 minutes of action out of his 20 plus years of life." The letter and Persky's actions provoked anger among those believing judges and authority figures are lenient on sexual assault when it involves connected people.

Prosecutors asked that Brock Turner be sentenced to six years in prison for the January 2015 assault. The minimum sentence for his crimes was 2 years and he could have faced a maximum of 14 years. Turner was presumptively not eligible for probation under the law.

Judge Persky found that the case was "unusual" and justified sentencing Turner to probation instead of prison based primarily on the fact that Turner was an elite athlete at a top university and that alcohol was involved. He noted that a harsher punishment would have had a "severe impact" on him. The judge had to make a special exception to hand out such a light punishment.

In June 2016, at least ten prospective jurors refused to serve in a misdemeanor trial for possession of stolen property where Persky was presiding, citing the judge's sentencing of Turner. The following week, Santa Clara County District Attorney Jeff Rosen filed a peremptory motion for recusal in a case where Persky was to preside over the criminal trial of a surgical nurse. The nurse was charged with sexual battery for allegedly touching the genitals of a patient under sedation. In August 2016, Persky requested to be transferred from criminal to civil court, citing unwanted scrutiny and attention stemming from his ruling in the Turner case.

The recall has pitted the government system of justice (judges, public defenders and the bar association that support Persky) against citizens and victims.

In 2002, Persky, a Santa Clara County deputy district attorney lost a close race for Superior Court Judge to another deputy district attorney Ron Del Pozzo. Persky then was appointed the following year by Governor Gray Davis to the Superior Court.

Feather River Tea Party Patriots

Two Speakers, Secretary of State Candidate Mark Meuser and New California State Vice-Chairman Paul Preston

Yuba City, Ca.

The Feather River Tea Party Patriots announced they will have two great Guest Speakers at their Monday, March 5, 2018 meeting. Scheduled will be conservative Republican Secretary of State candidate Mark Meuser, followed by the New California State Co-Founder and Vice-Chairman Paul Preston.

Mark Meuser, a Walnut Creek constitutional and election law attorney with Harmeet Dhillon's Law Group, is running for Secretary of State. The office, currently held by Alex Padilla, boasts a dismal national ranking of 43rd in voter turnout and is ranked almost dead last by The Pew Charitable Trust's Election Performance Index.

Mark will share his thoughts on voter integrity and offer solutions. He will discuss the concept of 1-vote for 1-person to protect fairness in elections - what a concept!

California has a Democrat Secretary of State who has decided not to participate in the Federal Election Integrity Commission study of elections. Padilla refuses to check the DMV drivers licenses list, 800,000 illegal aliens, against the voters list to determine how many illegal aliens are registered to vote. This is a Democrat that refuses to provide honest elections for Californians.

Why is no one being charged with fraud or arrested if Secretary of State is not being held accountable for not enforcing laws. The fact that there are 11 counties in California with over 100% voter registration is a major problem. The fact that Los Angeles County has over 144% voter registration should be a concern to all citizens. Secretary of State is in po-

Several volunteers have started a new program, Yuba Feather Next Step. Started by some of the workers at Stone Soup; this group donated a start up fund. It is an effort to offer help to community members who might need a boost up the ladder as they attempt to take the next step in their life. It is a multifaceted program and is just now getting under way. There will be fliers with information about the program coming soon.

What a hard thing for us – to say “Good-bye” to Mickie and Bob Miller. However, that is what we will do on March 4, Sunday, at the Ponderosa Community Center. Everybody is welcome to come by the center from 2 to 4 pm. Mickie will be sorely missed in the whole community, but especially at the Thrift Store, Books & More, Yuba Feather Museum and her churches. She has really made a difference with her many volunteer jobs. We all wish them well as they move closer to family members. Bring cookies if you would like to.

On Saturday, March 31 Brownsville will be abuzz with activity when the Spring Fling Sale is going on. Forbestown will be holding their annual Easter Bake Sale outside Gold Eagle Market. Books and More and the Brownsville Mercantile will have vendors set up outside all for your shopping pleasure. At this time, we are looking for anyone who would be interested in setting up a booth. Spaces are free. Contact 530-675-3275, Books and More, if you wish to reserve a booth space.

Look Back in Time – In 1928 Francis Bell of Challenge made a business trip to Brownsville (we wonder how long it took and what was his business).

Hope to see you in Brownsville soon.

Oscar Night Academy Awards Gala at Yuba Sutter Arts

Kickoff Event for Yuba County's Only Movie Theater

Marysville, Ca.

Are you a moviegoer? Do you have favorite actors or directors? Did you like “Darkest Hour,” “Dunkirk,” “Lady Bird,” or “The Post?” Then put on your fanciest red-carpet attire or just come as you are to the Burrows Theater for the christening and kickoff event of Yuba County’s only operational public movie theater. We will live-stream the awards ceremony in our theater while you sip sparkling wine or beer and nibble on delicious appetizers. The Academy Awards are turning 90 this year, and Yuba Sutter Arts is ready to celebrate in style! So show up ready for your big red carpet moment and we’ll make sure you feel like a movie star!

Popular late night host, Jimmy Kimmel, will again host the ceremony. Yuba Sutter Arts will air the entire Academy Awards program on Sunday March 4th starting at 3:30 pm with the Oscars pre-show that features interviews with nominees, presenters and performers, and brings viewers the best behind-the-scenes moments. The awards ceremony begins at 5 pm.

Yuba Sutter Arts chose the Academy Awards ceremony as the kickoff event to highlight its new projection system in the Burrows Theater. “We’ve wanted to share some themed film series for quite a while and now have the technical ability to do so,” said David Read, Executive Director of Yuba Sutter Arts. “With all of our county’s derelict movie theaters, we have moved to fill the void to provide the public with the opportunity to come together to view and discuss the cinematic arts,” he added.

In the coming months, Yuba Sutter Arts will host an Irish Film Series, Shakespeare Film Series and a Classic Westerns Film Series. Regardless of how anyone feels about Hollywood and all of the political turmoil of the past year, the annual Academy Awards helps to shine a light on worthy major studio productions, as well as breakthrough independent films that might not be seen otherwise. These films also feature remarkable performances by actors at the top of their craft.

Come out and join Yuba Sutter Arts for what promises to be a fun evening complete with prizes for those you can guess the winners in the major categories. The cost to attend is only $10, which includes refreshments. The screening will take place at Yuba Sutter Arts, 624 E Street in Marysville. There is plenty of free street parking and in the parking lots at Umpqua Bank and Bank of America directly adjacent to the theater.

This is a program specifically geared toward reducing collisions and injuries involving teen drivers. This innovative program is called “Start Smart,” Driving Smart to Stay Safe.

WHO: Teens age 15-20 and their parents.

WHAT: To raise awareness regarding the consequences of a poor choice when mixed with the decision to drive a motor vehicle. Attendees will hear personal testimony from someone directly affected by a tragic collision.

WHEN: 6:30 p.m., March 7, 2018.
Please call to reserve a seat.

WHERE: Yuba Sutter CHP office
1619 Poole Boulevard, Yuba City, CA 95993

WHY: To save the lives and prevent injuries to teen drivers.

This class has been held bi-monthly for the past 13 years at the Yuba Sutter CHP Office. We are reaching out to the community and encouraging anyone interested in participating to call the Yuba Sutter CHP office and enroll. The class is free, takes 2 hours, and is guaranteed to leave a lasting impression on everyone in attendance. It has been said many times, this is the most important 2 hours a teen and parent can spend together to learn about the dangers of driving.
