Yuba County News

by Lou Binninger

On September 16th, City Limits Showgirls, a Yuba County bar and strip club conducted a car wash fundraiser at their establishment on Hammonton-Smartsville Road in Linda. The proceeds of $2565 were given to assist the families of Yuba County Sheriff Deputies Phillip Bronson and Andrew Everhart.

The two deputies were shot by a felon employed by an illegal marijuana operation when they responded for a request for service at the Rastafarian Church marijuana planting.

The car wash was planned for 11am-5pm with up to 15 topless ladies cleaning the cars.

The event was extended an hour to cope with the large response from the community and those passing through town. The ladies then returned to work their shift from 8pm-3am.

Club manager Hal Meyer said they appreciate and support law enforcement whenever they can. Meyer was raised in Orange County and was an explorer for the sheriff's department as a young man. He said he has many fond memories of his work with the harbor patrol and credited a deputy for mentoring him.

When Meyer approached the ladies with the idea there was an immediate positive response, he said. Leslie Carbah, information officer for the sheriff's department, said it was legal for Showgirls to have the event outdoors as long as there was a visual barrier.

The car wash was a complete success. However, car washes have been outlawed in Yuba County since the supervisors passed an ordinance forbidding them. An individual can wash his or her car, but cheerleaders, families seeking burial expenses and showgirls are not to be washing multiple cars in one spot. The person with a filthy car could have washed their own but cannot have it washed in a group of cars. It sounds silly because it is.

Although Community Services Director Kevin Mallen did not respond with an explanation, maybe it depends on who you are as to whether the law is enforced. The code is an example of the lunacy of federal and state environmental 'wack jobs' who want to control our every move even when any positive outcome is unmeasurable. Of course, supervisors felt compelled to rubber stamp the loss of freedom and lame thinking.

Yuba County marijuana advocates are in a panic. They think Supervisor Randy Fletcher representing the Yuba County foothills may propose a State of Emergency at the Tuesday, September 26, 9 am board meeting. The agenda says nothing of the sort. However, the growers say they received information from a reliable source on the board.

There is a movement among rural northern counties to combine their efforts to solicit state and federal help. That takes more time and organization than a single board meeting. And the sheriff needs to make the declaration.

Siskiyou County Sheriff Jon Lopey and his County Supervisors declared a State of Emergency along with State Senator Ted Gaines requesting help from the National Guard. A brother and sister attempted to bribe Lopey with a million dollars to allow their marijuana business to continue without interference.

Chi Meng Yang, 31, of Montague, and his sister, Gaosheng Laitinen, 36, made a payment to Lopey of $10,500 when the FBI arrested them. Hundreds of Hmong have moved into the area buying up parcels from a failed development and are growing marijuana.

Yuba and Siskiyou Counties have this in common. Thousands of people are growing illegally and have no intention of registering with the state on January 1. Even strong marijuana advocates like candidate for Governor Gavin Newsome see that we have become a lawless state.

This weekend, foothill resident Buck Weckman who advocates soliciting more enforcement help and money for the Yuba County Sheriff's Department and code enforcement was threatened by a grower accusing Weckman of causing the removal of the grower's plants in the middle of the night.

Weckman recently noted 'the grow' in this paper as an illegal planting. Just like thieves steal walnuts and watermelons, they also steal mature crops of marijuana. That's why the plantings and million dollar harvests are guarded with gunmen.

Sutter Co Pay Boost, Cannabix Tax and Homeless Camp

by Lou Binninger

If you ever considered attending a Sutter County Supervisor meeting the Tuesday September 26 gathering at 3pm might be interesting. The Health and Welfare Committee, Supervisors Sullenger and Flores, met last week to discuss raising supervisor pay 61.7% along with travel compensation. The concern of citizens was that the change might be voted-in with the consent agenda on September 26 like the 35% retirement increase was in 2004. As this edition went to print the word was that the item may be pulled from the agenda.

The board will also discuss a new camping ordinance addressing the lawless homeless population. "Sutter County is faced with a growing dynamic of persons who are homeless occupying, camping on, and utilizing public and private spaces for their residence," according to County Counsel Jean Jordan. Along with illegal camping homeless crime is rampant in both counties.

The amended ordinance prohibits squatting on properties Jordan describes above which is occurring now with no enforcement. More than one law enforcement official has stated that "we cannot arrest our way out of this problem." This is a "straw man" argument since we have been arresting people for domestic and gang violence, drug dealing and sex with children throughout history and there is still plenty of deviant behavior in the community. Should we stop arresting those perpetrators as well?

It's also been said that County Administrator Scott Mitnick instructed law enforcement to stop arresting homeless people trespassing on private and public property. Maybe we should begin paying the perpetrators to obey the law like the City of Sacramento is paying violent gang members to not kill?

We essentially have been paying street people and others through one of 127 various 'anti-poverty' hand-outs since the 1960s. The conclusion of the Sutter Co Board and Welfare Service professionals is that we haven't been paying them enough. However, have any of these 'leaders' personally worked with a homeless person to see them converted to getting off the dole, taking care of themselves and serving others?

The government has a habit of experimenting with funds extracted from the citizens.

The new ordinance authorizes the development of a permitted homeless camp along Second Street, Yuba City, next to the Sutter County Airport, the Sheriff's Training Center and Shooting Range,

Browns Valley Bear

Browns Valley, Ca.

On July 16, 2017 Michial Too of Browns Valley sent a picture to the Territorial Dispatch of a bear in a garbage can that had been roaming the area of Township and Peoria Road in Browns Valley.

Steve Duckels lives on the Duckels Ranch which is in the general vicinity of where the bear was roaming. Steve said that the bear in the picture with the garbage can is not the same one they saw four years ago. His wife's, Christine, first encounter was a couple of years ago when she heard the dogs barking; fearing that a cow had gotten out she went out to investigate. When she went to the fence she saw tan colored fur and knew immediately it was not a cow. She says she didn't stick around because her first thought was a mountain lion. Later her curiosity got the better of her and she went back out. Approaching the fence she realized to her surprise that it was a BEAR! Making noise and moving around had no affect on the bear. She decided to take some pictures because she didn't think anyone would believe her.

Christine called Fish and Game to report the sighting and was basically told to get used to it, because bears are moving down through the foothills.

It was determined to be a juvenile Cinnamon Black Bear.

Lake Oroville Spillways Construction Updates

The Department of Water Resources (DWR) provided an update on construction work on the Lake Oroville Spillways Emergency Recovery Project.

- DWR remains focused on meeting its primary objective of repairing and reconstructing the main spillway by November 1 to handle flows of 100,000 cubic feet per second (cfs).

- Work will continue well past November on both the main spillway and emergency spillway. The state's contract with Kiewit Infrastructure West is currently until January 2019.

- This year, 730 feet of main spillway leading to the radial gates will be patched, reinforced and left in place. It will be removed and reconstructed with structural concrete in 2018.

- There are 42 days left until November 1: o Placement of reinforced, structural concrete is 30 percent complete. By November 1 there will be 1,220 feet of spillway chute with structural concrete – 870 feet on the upper chute of the spillway and 350 on the lower chute of the spillway.

- o The 1,050-foot middle section of the spillway chute, including filling in the two scour holes, is now 50 percent complete, with approximately 170,000 cubic yards of roller compacted concrete placed. This year, there will be an estimated 350,000 cubic yards of RCC placed. In 2018, this middle section will be completed to final design with structural concrete.

o On September 17, crews placed 3,143 cubic yards of roller compacted concrete on the middle section of the spillway chute, a record amount for a single 12-hour shift.

- o Crews have installed 1,725 slab anchors to date in the structural concrete sections – nearly 60 percent of what is needed for 2017.

Construction at the Emergency Spillway

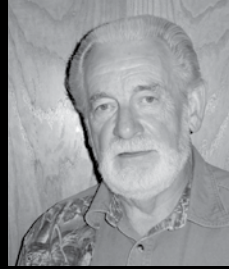

- DWR continues to make progress at the emergency spillway, and is on schedule to complete construction of the secant pile wall, or cut-off wall, in December 2017 or January 2018.

- Crews have completed 22 percent of the secant pile wall.

FISHIN' TALK

by Boots Johnson

Dan "Boots" Johnson has fished and hunted in California for 73 years. Anyone with questions or comments can email him at boots3@syix.com

We have reports of the water temperature down to the mid-seventies at Collins Lake above Marysville. This has improved the trout bite a bite but will need to drop another ten degrees or so before they start the fall trout planting. Best bet at this time is to go deep out in the middle of the lake or by the dam. Catfish are on the bite and some nice fish have been reported caught from five to eight pounds.

Anglers who are putting up with lots of bank anglers and boats at the outlet on the Feather River are scoring big on salmon. We have been told the fish are bright and clean. Salmon are also being taken downstream all the way to Verona. Patience is the name of the game and those who sit tight and wait are doing so with some success.

We have reports from the barge hole on the Sacramento River. It appears the crowds are not there at this time. Apparently most guides and anglers are concentration on the Feather River. We have been told limits of salmon in the eight to twelve pound range are common.

Some anglers who are not fishing Englebright Reservoir above Marysville might just be missing a good show of trout on their stringer. Reports tell us the lake is quiet with hardly any boats on the water. If we were not heading to Texas to my Grandson's Wedding we would more than likely take a break from the rivers and hit this reservoir.

Closing thought: "Never ask a barber if he thinks you need a haircut."

Weather Station at Local Environmental Science Charter School

by Leanan Lorenz and Phoenix Reyes

7th and 8th Graders gathered around their school's weather station and computer screens excitedly noting a drop in temperature and increase in wind speed.

Charles Lorenz, school weather station specialist, showed students how to access weather station data on line. Students monitored temperature and wind speed in real time as the eclipse unfolded. They observed the temperature dropping and the wind speed picking up.

Besides wind speed and surface temperature, the school's weather station measures humidity, precipitation, dew point, pressure and UV. This data is available to the public on line at the school's website www.yescharteracademy.org under the programs tab and at www.wunderground.com/us/ca/oregon-house/95962 cycle. Students brought their creative perspective to describing the effects of the moon on the sun. According to one 8th Grader the sun looked like a cookie with a bite taken out of it, then changed to a Pac-man shape, then changed again into a semi-circle, then shifted a final time into a crescent before going backwards through the

Yuba-Sutter Art Teacher Converge for a Faculty Art Show

Marysville, Ca. Yuba Sutter Arts is proud to host a community-wide art teachers' faculty show in its main gallery in Marysville. Twenty high school and Yuba College instructors have come together to display a wide variety of their artistic creations.

The exhibition is open to the public Wednesday through Saturday from 11-4. The gallery address is Yuba Sutter Arts, 624 E Street in Marysville.

Exhibition curator and legendary Yuba College Art Instructor, Sara Sealander, said, "The only down side of [teaching] is the lack of time that most studio teachers have for the creation of their own art. That fact makes this exhibit especially beautiful to me, because I know what a struggle it can be to give good energy to our students and still—somehow—maintain our own artistic practice."

"It's so much fun to see the variety of works in the show and to realize that those participating include teachers at the very beginning of their careers, folks who are mid-career and those (like me!) who are mostly retired and continue to teach just a little bit," Sara added.

A wide variety of artistic media will be on display including ceramics, fabrics, acrylic on wood, photography, illustrations, digital art, charcoal, oil on canvas, oil and wax on canvas, hand blown glass, colored pencil, lithographs and monotypes.

Exhibiting instructors include Pam Nowak, Athena Randolph-Garner, Dianka Milanowski, Carob Bradlyn and Michael Stevenson from Yuba City High School, Alexandra Sprowls, Whitney Still and Laura Lush from River Valley High

School, Elizabeth Dolbec-Oliveras from Live Oak High School, Tara Calderon from Marysville High School and Glen Weisgerber from Marysville Charter Academy for the Arts. Yuba College is represented by Sara Sealander, Glenn Husted, Gay Huntley, Joanna Kidd, James McConnell and Eric Baral.

For additional information about this exhibition, contact Yuba Sutter Arts at 530-742-ARTS or david@yubasutterarts.org

Local artist STONEY MEAGHER moved to Marysville in June from Milpitas, California. After having spent many years working in the technology industry, now he prefers a more relaxed tempo of life with considerably less stress. Intrigued by cameras all his life, Stoney has done wedding, portrait, and real estate photography, as well as shooting images of nature and sporting events. He is multi-talented, having just finished portraiture of local veterans for Yuba Sutter Arts. Stoney especially enjoys "creative photography," making distinctive images and transforming them into art. His goal is to create something unique that not everybody has. Be sure to indulge in this eclectic show and awaken your senses!

The Theater Gallery is open every week, Wednesday through Saturday, from noon to 5:00 p.m. Come in and enter the drawing to win a jewelry piece each month. An Artist Reception is held from 6:00 to 8:00 pm on the first Thursday of every month, complete with complimentary wine and hors d'oeuvres. Sutter Co Pay Boost, Cannabis Tax and Homeless Camp the Posse Arena, Twin Cities Road and Gun Range and the Little League ball fields. This is the same airport where Sutter County has been out of compliance with Federal Aviation Administration rules for decades and recently decided to obey the law.

The proposed 200 person outdoor homeless camp with parking and a 6,000 square foot facility will remove the Sheriff's Posse Arena according to unhappy posse members and will affect other activities near the airport, as well. Joe Borzelleri, president of the Sutter Buttes Regional Aviation Association (SBRAA), a nonprofit that operates the airport sent an alert to association members.

"I strongly believe that this is not compatible with the airport environment. Recently, there have been aircraft and vehicle break-ins and property stolen. I am very concerned for the safety of aircraft operations and the security of the airport. If an incident should occur, it would make the airport and the county look very bad. I do not think the county realizes the liability involved with having people camping on airport property."

"I would like to have as many SBRAA members and people that are Sutter County residents, call and email the Sutter County Board of Supervisors. Once this "homeless camp" is in place, it would be nearly impossible to make it go away. It does not align with our Airport Layout Plan," writes Borzelleri.

Borzelleri's concerns are that high risk people under the influence will end up on airport property and the runway itself. Others predict that those hallucinating or with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) may shoot at the noisy planes landing with lights flashing. Last week, security people for the levee construction nearby reported that someone from the current homeless camp was shooting at the excavator.

Jordon's ordinance notes an "unknown financial impact," however the Supervisor's agenda item asks the board to authorize using up to $500,000 of CDBG (Community Development Block Grant) funds to construct the homeless camp.

Sutter County officials have a reputation of withholding the facts until they can make a stealth move to avoid scrutiny. Leaks to citizens have created a dust-up in county offices to discover the source. Maybe an honest, open approach should be utilized and there would be no need for a purge.

Also on the agenda is the possible placement of a commercial cannabis business license tax on the June 5, 2017 ballot.

THE Brownsville Bailiwick & Beyond

beautiful in the fall so check it out.

Many thanks to the "elves" who cleaned out the Paper Hut, putting all of the huge cardboard pieces into the bin. We wish there was a way to recycle everything at Brownsville Transfer Station. There could be bins or areas for plastics, glass and paper at the station where there is an attendant. What a relief it would be not to have clean up after people who dump carelessly.

Bob & Jim's Breakfast

& Burgers will be open seven days a week from 8 am to 3 pm starting Monday, September 25. Stop in and enjoy one of the many breakfast and lunch items offered. One of my favorites is the street tacos. They are a must try!

Annie's at Lake Francis will be starting their winter hours on Thursday, September 28. Their new hours will be Thursday & Friday 4 pm to 8 pm, Saturday 8 am to 8 pm, Sunday 8 am to 4 pm and closed Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday. Prime rib, stroganoff, and shrimp fettuccine are just a few of the dinners to satisfy your taste buds. Bon Appétit!

Halloween and the Foothills Trunks with Treats is right around the corner. Gold Eagle Market in Brownsville will be sponsoring the Brownsville event in their parking lot. Across the street, Books and Spooks (Books and More) will be decorated inside and ready for trick or treaters. In Forbestown, on New York Flat Rd., the Church in the Wildwood will be sponsoring Trunks with Treats also. All three of these venues depend on volunteer help to make Halloween a fun and safe night for the Foothill kids. There will be a bounce house, haunted house, food, games, candy and more. It's a night not to be missed!

Look Back in Time – In 1926, many fans gathered in the famous bar at Woodleaf Hotel to hear the Dempsey-Turney fight over a radio (now we gather around a TV for a fight or game).

Hope to see you in Brownsville soon. Christine and Yvonne

Understanding the President

As I watch the news today that the President Trump used the Democrats to get funding passed for the American people not the government. What President Trump needs is acting lessons and voice lessons. What you see is what you get and what you voted for. Not a Republican or Democrat when he is acting as your President. He is passing laws or doing other things that affect the people. Trump lacks the voice lessons and the acting lessons the President Obama had so he could lie to you with a straight face and not even worry about it. What you see is what you get from President Trump.

He is honest and the real deal and we have not had this in the past. The trouble with most with this is most people don't like the truth. They have been lied to for so long they don't know what to do with the truth.

Let's start to clean up our own town.

The Hollywood Brain Dead

I watched in amazement as several stuck-up starlets told Americans who support our President not to watch the Academy Awards or their Movies. I wasn't amazed they would say something like that, but was amazed that they think America needs to watch anything they do. All that comes out of Hollywood is remakes of remakes of movies I saw 50 years ago. I mean, how many times can you remake King Kong, or how many shows can you make out of the "Night or the living dead"? I haven't really seen anything creatively new come out of that leftist bastion of communism for at least 30 years. Oh there have been a few flicks I enjoyed watching but those are very few and far between. So for those starlets to think they are God's gift to the world is laughable to say the very least.

I didn't watch the Awards, I never do, but from the news reports about it, there was little to do with awards and much to do with President Trump bashing by the communist left... And there in lies the problem, the communist agenda, you are not allowed to think for yourselves and satin forbid you think outside the communist box. So because of that, the Hollywood brain dead can't think of anything new to create. All they can do is remake old ideas and put a leftist communist spin on it. Most of which shows queers and lezbos, in damn near X rated scenes, swearing every other word, to indoctrinate the little kids watching into believing that is the normal natural way. This was never tolerated when the Country had a little moral fiber, but now the communist left teaches this to kindergartners in school! Sorry, but I am old or old school and still get agitated when I see people necking in public... Especially when little kids are watching. Yea, I'm the guy who will yell out "Get a Room" when I see that.

And it really agitates me when I hear little kids playing in the school yard while school is in session dropping the F word like a low life... Man, when I was in School, if a kid used that word and a teacher heard them, whack up side the head and to the Principal's office they'd go, where their parents were called and the kid would probably be suspended for a couple of days. Oh, and once you got home you were really in for it...Big Time!

Now I realize there are genetic anomalies created in life, and people can do whatever they want to or be Bi whom ever they want to, as long as they don't shove it in my face or little kids faces! That is all Hollywood and the brain dead stars of the left have done for past 30 years. So not watching them or their perverted, communist spun movies won't be a problem for some of us.

Food and Farm News

Rice harvest gains momentum

It's a race against time and weather in California rice fields, as farmers work to harvest their crops before the onset of autumn rains. That prospect is more urgent than usual this year, because spring storms delayed rice planting. Hot summer weather helped the crop catch up a bit, but may also reduce yields from rice fields. The rice harvest will build momentum to a peak in early to mid-October.

Prune harvest shows significant recovery

In California prune orchards, farmers report a much-improved crop. The California Dried Plum Board says the harvest is winding down, with volumes recovering from weather-related challenges that cut production in recent years. The 2017 prune crop, at 105,000 tons, would be roughly twice what farmers harvested last year. California farms produce virtually all U.S.-grown prunes and about 40 percent of the world supply.

Experts study how wild bees affect pollination

Wild bees can help managed honeybees be more efficient at crop pollination, according to a University of California researcher. A UC Davis professor and team compared orchards that had wild bees with orchards that didn't. They found the presence of wild bees helped honeybees to pollinate more flowers, leading to an improved crop set. They say that's because native bees encourage honeybees to move more among rows of trees.

Kern becomes nation's top agricultural county

The United States has a new No. 1 agricultural county, in terms of value of crops and commodities. Kern County reported its crop production for 2016 at more than $7.1 billion. It surpassed the previous top farm county, Tulare County, which reported its crop values Tuesday at nearly $6.4 billion. Top commodities in Kern County include grapes, almonds, citrus fruit, pistachios and milk.

Bad Year for Prunes in Sutter County

Devastated By Rain And High Winds, Prune Losses Contribute To Overall Drop In 2016 Sutter County Crop Values

A tough year for prunes led to a 4.4 percent drop in Sutter County's crop values from 2015 to 2016, according to Sutter County Agricultural Commissioner Lisa Herbert.

The Agricultural Commissioner issued the 2016 Sutter County Agricultural Report to County Supervisors on Tuesday, reporting agricultural production at $514 million, down 4.4 percent from the $544 million reported in 2015.

Rice remains the top ranking crop in 2016 with a total value of $127 million. Though still in a drought, water allocations increased in 2016 attributing to a rise in acreage by 27 percent. The total value of walnuts increased 53% in 2016 due to higher acreage and yields, rising to $118 million after crashing to $77 million in 2015.

Prunes were hit the hardest by inclement weather in March. The prune crop was devastated, leading to a 54% loss in production and 55% loss of total value. At a total production value of $24 million for 2016, prunes dropped from third to seventh place after a total production value of $54 million in 2015, Herbert said.

Processing peaches ($56 million), nursery products ($35 million) and processing tomatoes ($34 million), and almonds ($31 million) rounded out the top crops.

Wendell Anderson Will Run For Yuba County Sheriff in 2018 Endorsed by Sheriff Durfor

Yuba County Sheriff, Steve Durfor, announced last week that he will not seek re-election next year and has endorsed Lieutenant Wendell Anderson for Yuba County Sheriff/Coroner in 2018. Anderson is a lifelong Yuba County resident and 21-year veteran of the Yuba County Sheriff's Department.

"I thank the people of Yuba County for allowing me to serve them," said Durfor. "I would not make this transition if I didn't feel I was leaving our community in strong hands. I've seen Wendell's work on numerous projects and high-profile cases. I've seen his determination. I've seen his passion and commitment to this office time and time again over the two decades we've served together. I fully endorse him as your next Yuba County Sheriff."

Anderson, 48, currently holds the rank of Lieutenant and is Chief of the Detective Bureau, managing 6 detectives and administrative staff. Anderson also serves as Yuba County's SWAT Commander. He is the current President of Yuba County's Management/Supervisor Association and has held that position for the past several years.

"Over 20 years in Yuba County law enforcement, I've worked everything from the patrol beat in Olivehurst and Linda, to resident Hill Sergeant in the foothills," said Anderson. "I know the landscape, the people and the challenges of Yuba County firsthand."

Anderson is a graduate of Lindhurst High School and a graduate of the Yuba College Police Academy, where he now serves as an instructor. He earned an AS in Criminal Justice at Yuba College and has received specialized training during his Law Enforcement career. He is a graduate of the Sherman Block Leadership Institute, management and leadership development courses and other advanced training.

If elected, Anderson's priorities will be to fill vacant deputy positions, increase rural patrols and marijuana abatement, and lower the amount of mandatory overtime current deputies work.

"All this takes money we don't currently have," said Anderson. "My plan is to begin tackling this well before I take office. I'll work with Sheriff Durfor, the County and the community to prioritize law enforcement funding in the budget, collect the maximum amount from illegal marijuana growers, and learn to be an expert at doing more with less."

I have tremendous respect for Sheriff Durfor. He has always put people and public safety ahead of politics. I'm truly honored to have his endorsement."

Anderson was named Peace Officer of the Year in 2007 and Victim Advocate of the Year in 2014 by the Yuba County Victim Witness Services.

He has been involved in youth sports for decades, serving as a North Yuba Little League coach and board member, competitive softball coach, and as a volunteer football and softball coach for Marysville High School for many years.

Wendell and Tammy have been married for 26 years. They have two children, Mikayla, 19, a college student, and Zachary, 23, who currently serves in the US Air Force.

• Hillary has blamed everyone for her loss, but she has not yet blamed the Territorial Dispatch for her election loss. How disappointing.

• She went on to say that white women didn't vote for her because their husbands told them not to. How droll.

• Moonbeam is doing anything he can to get his huge water tunnels built. Next thing we know he'll be stealing children's piggy banks, all to leave a monument bigger than anything his father built. Sick.

• Moonbeam has been caught illegally using federal Interior Department tax dollars to fund his tunnel project. Surprised? Now some of the largest land holders in California – the farmers in the lower San Joaquin valley – have bailed out of providing funds for Moonbeam's giant tunnels. To help understand California water policy read "Cadillac Desert" by Marc Reisner, 1993 update. Fascinating.

• The Brits have released new study which shows that Climate Change poses less of an immediate threat to the planet than previously thought because scientists got their modelling wrong. Just think what we might learn when more "scientists" come to their senses.

• Why is there now an attack on Confederate statutes and other memorabilia when the Confederacy was mainly populated by the Democratic Party? Why are Republicans being cast as racists, bigots and other unsavory epitaphs when it was the first Republican President which caused the Southern Democrats to go to war with the United States? Remember the Civil War?

• Have you noticed that whenever the mainstream media has to mention a conservative speaker, it uses the scare headlines "right wing conservative"? We never see a headline "Left wing socialist" when Bernie Sanders is the topic.

• Recent reports say 91% of mainstream media coverage of Trump is negative. Even one MSNBC anchor who apparently hates Trump says that "this is the worst time to be humans." Thinking back there are possibly a few other times which might be somewhat worse – the Black Death, World Wars I and II, the Nazi death camps; Stalin's purges, Pot Pol, just to name a few. It shows the mainstream media and their employees are an arm of the DC swamp and many celebrities are nothing more than illiterate, uninformed lemmings.

• And the problem is even worse. On any important subject – Obamacare, tax reform, immigration, defense, etc. – the Democrats have screwed the American people. And the Republicans are doing nothing except continuing the bad behavior. Where is the Tea Party?

• Moonbeam hates everyone. Now he is considering a bill to reduce the penalty for a person with HIV who does not inform a prospective partner of that life-destroying disease. Hmmm. We must ask, "Why?"

• Officials of the City of San Diego have declared a state of emergency. It appears that Hepatitis A is rampant and believed to have been caused by illegal aliens wandering around town. So far 15 have died and 400 are using beds in local hospitals.

• Emory University in Georgia, is offering free tuition to "undocumented students," with or without DACA. Moonbeam is looking hard at doing the same for all California universities. Are we to pay for college for the entire world? If you think illegal immigration has been bad, wait until these programs become widely known.

• Did you see this item in any mainstream media? The House Ethics Committee has charged Maxine Waters (D) with corruption. If she happened to a Republican, it would be front page news in banner headlines in every newspaper and the networks would be screaming to the moon demanding justice.

• California State Senate leader Kevin de Leon (D) commented that our State needs to integrate the DACA kids into our society. What he means is they will probably be Democratic voters who will help de Leon stay in power.

• The Mayor of Wilmington, Delaware said the some of the blame for 86% of the City's youth being on some form of public assistance can be traced, in part, to bussing, sending kids into rival gang neighborhoods. Democrats instigated and continue to support bussing for "social justice" reasons.

• In 1974, the US Geological Survey claimed the country only had a 10-year supply of natural gas remaining. Oops. In 2014, the US Energy Information Administration said America had some 2.47 quadrillion cubic feet, which would last more than 100 years. Do you believe what the government tells you? Like man-made climate change?

• California lawmakers demand Trump "publicly apologize to all Americans for his racist behavior." in a resolution at the last gasp of the current legislative session, Democrats decided to waste their time, and our money, debating and passing this monumental proof of idiocy and their worthlessness.

• THE DEMOCRATS WILL DO ANYTHING TO CONTINUE A FAILING PROGRAM. LOOK AT THE ELECTRIC CAR REBATE. THE DEMS WANT TO CONTINUE THIS GIVEAWAY OF OUR TAX DOLLARS AND ADD TO IT. $450 MILLION HAS BEEN ALREADY SPENT TO SUBSIDIZE "DO-GOODERS" WHO BUY ELECTRIC TRANSPORTATION. CONSIDER THIS FACT: OF THE 2 MILLION CARS SOLD IN CALIFORNIA IN 2016, ONLY 75,000 WERE ELECTRIC. LESS THAN 0.04%. PROBABLY ALL BOUGHT BY FOLKS WHO CAN EASILY AFFORD TO PAY THE FULL PRICE. WHY ARE THE REST OF US SUBSIDIZING THEM?

• Susan Rice now admits to unmasking Trump supporters. In earlier testimony she denied any such behavior. She is a liar and should be held accountable. Why hasn't Garamendi come forward with a statement decrying Rice's lies?

• "Chelsea" Manning was a speaker and honoree at a "creative thinkers" conference recently. How far into the sewer do our academics go to pick their honorees?

• Is America going psychotic? Snowflakes are shutting down speech they don't like and their action is based on "love." They riot and burn and destroy, all on the pretense of "love." They can't get their heads around the fact that what they call love is really "hate." What are their teachers telling them?

• It is a good axiom to keep your enemies close to you. Once in a while it is good to watch the network news and commentary, and read the mainstream media. You will quickly learn what good people must fight against.

• Under the recently passed AB 326, barbers and beauticians must be trained in domestic violence and report anything they think falls under that term to authorities. Think this is a good idea?

• A Rocklin School Board is nothing more than a local swamp. They approved the teaching of "transgender" to kindergartners. That is simple child abuse and those involved should be so charged.

Law Enforcement Continues to Oppose CA Sanctuary State

Senate Bill 54 passed the Senate with a party-line vote of 27 to 11 to make California a Sanctuary State

Ignoring the concerns of California's sheriffs, the Legislature approved Senate Bill SB 54, a proposal that would make California a safe haven for convicted criminals who are in the country illegally, including, but not limited to, repeat drunk drivers, those who assault peace officers, serial thieves, and animal abusers. Long-term public safety advocate and former Chairman of the Board of Prison Terms, Senator Jim Nielsen (R-Tehama) issued the following statement:

"California cannot create its own border laws.

"While some amendments have been made from the original proposal, this measure will still make California a haven for criminals.

"I cannot agree with the Sheriffs' Association more when they say, 'This bill still goes too far in cutting off communications with the federal government;' and it 'limits [their] ability to protect our communities.'"

Water Agency Informational Dinner

by Charles Sharp

About forty people showed up for a presentation by the Yuba County Water Agency in Oregon House at the Alcouffe Community Center on Wednesday, September 20th. Following a light dinner of hamburgers, potato salad, and beans, catered by Burgee Dave's at the Mayo, the presentation began in earnest.

After a brief welcome and introduction by Fifth District Supervisor Randy Fletcher, General Manger Curt Aikens took over.

Mr. Aikens began by noting that five members of the seven person Water Agency Board were also County Supervisors. Mr. Aikens then began a slide presentation illustrating the history and other interesting facts about the Water Agency. A number of times, Manager Aikens emphasized that the Bullards Bar spillway was getting much attention to keep it in good working order.

Of particular interest was a slide showing how, prior to the construction of the dam, the water table in the valley went down due to agricultural operations. After the dam was built, and with good water management by the Water Agency, the water table has been able to recover to its original height.

After the slide show presentation, a question and answer period ensued. A question was asked about the Yuba Accord. The General Manager explained how this agreement was a model setting the standard on how to balance the needs of wildlife and the demands for other water uses. Mr. Aikens related how he was able to shake Governor Schwarzenegger's hand after the accord was finalized.

All in all, this was a well received effort by the Water Agency to reach out to the people of Yuba County.

NCWA working with YCWA

We are beginning to see signs popping up throughout Yuba County that say "California Needs Sites Reservoir". "The Northern California Water Association (NCWA) is doing a big push to bring awareness of the many benefits of the concept of Sites Reservoir. The concept of the new reservoir would help create additional water supply for parts of California and would benefit the environment." said Alex Boesch Public Information Officer for the YCWA.

Yuba County Water Agency (YCWA) is erecting the signs in hopes of bringing more public awareness about the proposed reservoir to the people of Yuba County.

CRITIC'S CORNER

by Matt Woolery

American Assassin

Starring: Dylan O'Brien, Michael Keaton, and Sanaa Lathan. Rated: R, Runtime: 112 minutes.

After an assault by terrorists that took the life of Mitch Rabb's new fiancé and leaves him severely wounded. Mitch spends the next year and a half training and wheeling his way into the terrorist cell that launched the attack. This ends up getting him recruited by the CIA and leads him into one dangerous situation after another.

The plot is well laid out with a few twists and turns that are new to the spy action genre. The obligatory car chases and falls are all present. The acting is good and the action and special effects are very well done.

American Assassin, earns four out of five, Ear Eating Monkeys. Obviously there is some brutality and vicious displays of violence mixed in with a single minded purpose of accomplishing the mission. There are some really cool effects and action sequences that add to the story and are not just filler.
