Rideout Board Approves Affiliation with Adventist Health

Rideout Health is the largest medical provider serving Yuba and Sutter counties, with more than 100,000 inpatient and outpatient visits a year to Rideout Regional Medical Center, Rideout Clinics, Rideout Cancer Center and Rideout Senior Living facilities.

Today, Rideout Health announces the next big step to ensure modern, efficient, compassionate, and affordable health care remains available to everyone in our community.

The Board of Directors of Rideout Health is pleased to announce it has formally approved an affiliation agreement with Adventist Health, one of the leading health systems in California, serving more than 75 communities in our state, Oregon, Washington, and Hawaii.

This affiliation, which is subject to the approval of the government regulators, will be good for our community's health and well-being. It will provide the organizational depth and experience necessary to meet patient needs and improve health outcomes here at home as America's health care landscape rapidly changes around us.

This affiliation will benefit our patients, because, like Rideout Health, Adventist Health's core principles are to provide health care for all, regardless of a person's backgrounds or beliefs. In addition, Adventist Health's long history of promoting whole person health and wellness will help our patients live longer and healthier lives.

The Rideout Health Board of Directors, comprised of men and women who live and work in this community, were determined that Rideout Health thrive and evolve. In the past five years alone, Rideout has invested millions of dollars on the new Rideout Regional Medical Center, invested heavily in information technology that improves patient care, improved quality control systems, and actively sought an affiliation with a valued and trusted health care system.

These steps have been deliberate. Our Board is confident these are the right decisions for the future of access to quality health care for all in our community. We welcome the value added to our community by this affiliation with Adventist Health.

Sutter Co Airport Homeless Village

by Lou Binninger

Sutter County Public Information Officer (PIO) Chuck Smith says, "There's a saying around here that nothing is on the agenda until the agenda is posted." That's makes sense, but Yuba and Sutter County citizens don't trust their politicians so rumors about what is being considered to be on the Supervisors' agenda. Residents have been fooled before.

Currently, people are hearing all kinds of stories about the upcoming Homeless Village planned for the Sutter County Airport that will affect a number of current and adjacent uses. PIO Smith wrote to clarify what is happening at the October 10th and 24th board meetings.

The homeless have been dictating city and county policy by their errant behavior, law breaking and ignoring county ordinances. Their acts of entitlement give them more benefits than taxpayers who pay for services.

Smith describes a County Two-Year Plan, not to resolve homelessness, but to spend millions in tax dollars on more programs for them. Mark the Plan on the calendar.

At the October 10 board meeting, supervisors will entertain the second and final reading of a new and improved camping ordinance more perfectly teasing out what is and is not acceptable. Smith says this is the only aspect regarding the homeless to be considered at this gathering.

However, the entire Homeless Village proposal will be presented by county staff for Board approval at the October 24th meeting. This will address funding for a temporary emergency shelter for up to 200 people. There will be 17 large tents on cement slabs, with 24/7 security and sanitary facilities.

The camp will be used until a 6,000 square foot structure can be constructed nearby. "Startup costs (including lighting, four acres of base rock, a concrete slab, environmental studies, potential mitigation measures, and a portable office modular building) are estimated at $250,000; the tent shelter is about $115,000 (tents, cots, fencing, animal kennels, onsite storage for personal belongings); and another $285,000 in operating costs

Government Abuse

by Lou Binninger

California's Alcohol Beverage Control (ABC) notified Kumar Kairam, owner of Washington Avenue Market in Yuba City that after nearly three years his convenience store can finally sell a single 16 oz. beer. Kairam recently applied to have the restriction removed and never understood why his business was targeted in the first place.

The bizarre aspect to this case is that the store sells all kinds of liquor including beer, wine, and hard drink. However, the City of Yuba City asked for the restriction on Kairam's liquor license in spite of the fact that his competitors can sell the product.

A Freedom of Information Act request of police responses showed his store having fewer incidents than his competitors that have the freedom to sell a 16 oz. beer.

He could sell a 6-pack or a case of beer but could not sell just one. Sound wrong? That's because there is nothing right about fascist policies ruling over citizens and businesses.

President Ronald Reagan in a television interview discussing conservatism vs. liberalism said, "If fascism ever comes to America it will come in the name of liberalism. What is fascism? Fascism is private ownership, private enterprise but total government control and regulation. Isn't this the liberal philosophy?"

Reagan concluded his thought by saying, "The conservative (way) so-called is less government, get off my back, get out of my pocket, and let me have more control of my own destiny." Some city council members may consider themselves conservative but they act like socialists.

City management arbitrarily crippled Kairam's ability to make a profit by chasing off customers wanting to buy a beer. So Kairam lost the 'privilege' to sell those customers hundreds of other merchandise items as they took their beer business elsewhere.

The single 16 oz. beer issue surfaced when Sutter Buttes Tea Party Patriots routinely frequented the store for coffee and learned of the owner being abused by the city. They attempted to intervene on behalf of Kairam to no resolve.

City Council candidate Jason Rikard drew attention to the city's bullying tactics during his campaign. Rikard noted the fact that this was neither a City Council decision nor an ordinance forbidding 16 oz. beer sales but rather the arbitrary act of a single bureaucrat Director of Development Services Darin Gale.

Kairam and his wife have three children, 2 in college and

Expert Striped Bass Angler & Pro Fishing Guide Roger George

Pro Fishing Guide, Roger George

The Rooster Tails Fishing Club monthly breakfast will be held at the Auburn Elks Lodge at 195 Pine Street in Auburn on October 20. This event is open to club members, spouses, and non-member guests. Doors to the Lodge will open at 7:00 a.m. to share fresh brewed coffee. A fantastic $13 wide-selection buffet breakfast is served at 8:00 am followed by the 9:00 am guest speaker, Pro Fishing Guide, Roger George, who will offer tips, tackle and tactics for catching Trophy Striped Bass. Recognized by the fishing community as the go-to guy for expert advice on catching trophy stripers, Roger George focuses his talents on little-known methods to catch these freshwater monsters. Over the course of 20 years he has spent literally thousands of hours fishing for these elusive fish and has become a recognized expert on big stripers having caught more than a hundred fish over 25 pounds. He landed the Millerton lake striped bass record in 1998 with an amazing trophy weighing 50.3 pounds.

Roger has been the weekly fishing columnist for the Fresno Bee, "Roger's Remarks" for 9 years. He is also the editor of a full-page weekly fishing report in the Fresno and Modesto Bees, was a 3-time NCAA All American Decathlete and served as the 1976 US Olympic Decathlon Team alternate to Bruce Jenner. He has been the host and speaker for seminars, sports show demonstrations, radio shows, TV shows and video blogs. Roger grew up in the '60's on the west side of the San Joaquin Valley and says that "Guiding folks who are looking to become better anglers or just wanting to have some fun is natural for me".

The 30 year old, 200+ members Rooster Tails Fishing Club of Northern California, Inc. is a non-profit organization that meets the third Friday of each month to educate, entertain, and enhance fishing experience. Unlike many bass and fly fishing clubs that concentrate on very specific types of fishing, the Rooster Tails Fishing Club provides a balanced mix of fishing techniques presented by fishing experts targeting a variety of fish species on multiple types of waters. For more information contact Jim, Club Chairman, at 530-887-0479 or visit the club's web site at www.roostertailsfishing-club.org.

Sutter Co Airport Homeless Village

(including sleeping bags, toiletries, meals, services provided by Hands of Hope non-profit, and private security)." This comes to $650,000 plus county staff costs.

Then, the county will apply to the state and federal governments for permission to use up to $720,000 in Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds for the construction of the permanent long-term emergency shelter housing up to 60 people.

Smith says if the plan is approved, the Tent Village would only be utilized until the permanent structure is up and occupied in a year, 18 months or so. As the Village is erected the revised camping ordinance will be enforced to remove the homeless population from the river bottom property between Shanghai Bend and the Yuba City Boat Dock. The assumption is that the squatters will migrate to the Tent Village but no one can be forced to locate there.

The PIO's email says the county will offer paths to self-sufficiency, including job training and affordable housing. Weren't these already available? Health and Human Services and local service providers for the poor will be enlisted to do what they were already supposed to be doing. Right? Is there anything new offered here other than living facilities?

Since government has a horrible record teaching self-sufficiency, job training and being in the housing business, this could get interesting. One thing for sure, a lot of money will be spent, approaching $2 million to launch.

For years, welfare workers were forbidden to even offer budgeting help to aid recipients. Now, are they becoming self-sufficiency mentors? Where have they been?

According to a county official the welfare department has not filed a fraud case in years and doesn't even confirm residence addresses to hand-out aid. The agency refused to file a welfare fraud case against former District Attorney Carl Adams' escort Sarah Garibay though she was collecting county benefits while living on thousands of dollars a month from male clients.

As the October 24th meeting agenda is not finalized additional items may appear or points above may change. Watch for the agenda posting on the Sutter County website.

A number of current uses along Second Street will be eliminated or negatively affected by the homeless development. Those uses include the airport itself, Little League Parks, the Sheriff's Posse Arena, Twin Cities Road and Gun Club shooting range, and the Sheriff's Training Center and Range.

Colusa River Clean Up Proving to be Successful

Colusa, Ca. Colusa County volunteers joined in the 6th annual effort to clean up the banks of the Sacramento River in Colusa. This year they fanned out to include areas along the State Park, the area on the opposite side of the Bridge Street Bridge and also at Colusa Weir.

Denise Carter and Kevin Foley

The event, held on September 30, and sponsored by Premier Mushrooms Inc., Central Valley Gas Storage, Colusa Industrial Properties, River Partners and Recology is held each year in conjunction with the annual California Coastal Clean-up Day.

About 40 volunteers joined the effort in Colusa this year. "We cleared less trash and recyclables this year, but that means our efforts in past years are paying off," said Premier Mushroom's sustainability manager Kevin Foley who organizes the event each year.

Colusa County Supervisor Denise Carter, who has participated with the clean up annually, spoke briefly prior to the start of the effort. She reminded the volunteers that Foley has made the effort to make sure this happens each year.

She also commented that last year the clean up included a flooded out homeless encampment. "The massive amounts of rain last year had demolished the camp. The volunteers made a great effort to clear it, but the probation department also followed up two weekends after the event to finish the job," she said. The river clean up group hauled out five truckloads of debris which resulted in Recology who had brought two trash bins for the clean-up to bring in a third bin.

Carter and fellow supervisor John Loudon and his wife Nancy always show up to help out with this event.

"I think it is wonderful that our supervisors show an enthusiasm for community by always helping out," said Jennifer Diaz, publicist for Premier Mushrooms Inc.

"This has become a great event in Colusa County," said Foley. "We have a lot of people who return year after year to help with this effort," he said. "We appreciate the continued support," he added.

Following the clean up, a continental breakfast prepared by Caffeinated and sponsored by Colusa Industrial Properties was served onsite.

Photographer's Work Featured in Ranger District Office

Quincy, Ca. The works of photographer and Forest Service employee Susan Jacks are currently featured in the Mt. Hough Ranger District office lobby. The collection of black and white photos captures outdoor scenery of California and Nevada, spanning 32 years of Susan's federal employment.

Susan moved to Yosemite National Park with her family in 1979, where she lived and worked for the National Park Service for 17 years. While there, Susan says she was fortunate enough to attend workshops given by Ansel Adams, William O'Neil and Lewis Kemper, which is where her love of photography began. Susan is currently stationed at the Lake Tahoe Basin Management Unit (Forest Service) in South Lake Tahoe, California.

Susan personally develops and prints her own photographs, and is currently working exclusively with 35mm black and white film. Her artwork may be viewed Monday through Friday, from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Mt. Hough Ranger District Office, 39696 Hwy 70, Quincy, CA. For more information

You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. ### Toys "R" Us Files Chapter 11

Toys "R" Us became another in a long line of companies succumbing to one illness or another by filing reorganization and protection under Chapter 11 of the bankruptcy code late last week.

The toy retailer, which started back in 1948 with a single Washington D.C. store issued a statement by CEO David Brandon which summed up the move: "Today marks the dawn of a new era at Toys "R" Us where we expect financial constraints that have held us back will be addressed in a lasting and effective way".

The statement illustrates both the positive and negatives in typical CEO fashion, politely indicating the company will continue on by somehow not meeting its financial obligations as originally promised. After all, that's what chapter 11 is: re-negotiating a company's debt while renegeing on its original promises.

The company owes about 5 billion and said all of its 1600 stores would remain open going into the lucrative time of year, the holiday season, where toys under the tree boost most retailer's balance sheets, especially the toy and gaming businesses.

The bankruptcy could indicate the rapidly changing retail landscape brought about by online competition. It wasn't so long ago when Toys "R" Us bought out competitors FAO Schwartz and KB Toys, only to succumb to its debt load which obviously increased by such acquisitions.

Commentary from Forbes and new965.com indicate the obvious: pressure from online retailers are causing tsunamis in traditional retail company balance sheets as consumers elect to buy from the comfort of their home instead of taking an arduous trip to the mall.

Other companies who have suffered similar fates include shoe store Payless and Gymboree, the children's clothing outlet.

Highlighted in previous Money Matters articles entitled "Online Retail Wipe Out"

11/2017, "Another Retail Wipe Out" 12/2017 and Money Matters Show #138 entitled Retail Wipe Out, 2/2012, the pressure from other methods of shopping becoming available with the advent of the internet is becoming prevalent and mainstream. Toys "R" Us said as much in a comment at the time of filing which said it had to improve its online services and enhance the store experience (new965) which is a fancy way of saying they have to get better in the online market place while adding more value and therefore a reason for shoppers to get out of their chairs and drive to a store.

Meanwhile online goliath Amazon continues to cause havoc in the retail environment by making the shopping environment of a comfy chair at home with credit card in hand in front of a computer more desirable and less hassle then getting into a car only to spend hours parking, fighting crowds, and struggling with shopping bags. Added features such as free shipping programs and hassle free returns make a strong case for the staying home with a cup of coffee and comparing hundreds of prices in microseconds. Online reviews further enhance the experience.

Although Toys "R" Us will survive for now, the reverberations from its reorganization could cause additional damage to related sectors as 5 billion in debts are restructured. No doubt Toys "R" Us won't be last retailer to hoist the white flag and cry uncle under the weight of a rapidly changing environment caused by a shift in shopping methodology brought on by an expanding internet.

John Paris, American Jazz Pianist and Composer in Concert

Marysville, Ca. Over the decades, pianist and composer John Paris has become one of the Northern California's most beloved and busiest jazz piano mainstays. Yuba Sutter Arts is proud to welcome John back to its Burrows Theater stage for a concert on Saturday October 14th at 7pm. John's original compositions continue an exemplary musical journey in which physical and emotional landscapes provide inspiration and self-awareness.

This concert is the first in Yuba Sutter Arts Fall Music Series. Next up will be the Mariachi Guadalajara Kings on Sunday October 15, followed by a concert featuring singer/songwriters, the Galvins & Friends, on Saturday October 21st. Devin Kosloff, a classical guitarist from Portland, Oregon will join us on Sunday October 22nd at 2pm followed by "Applause – The Bewitching Season" on Friday October 27th through Sunday October 29th. The Yuba Sutter Youth Choir will conclude its fall session with a performance on Wednesday, November 15th to close out the Fall Music Series.

"It's great to have John kicking things off for us since he is an internationally recognized jazz and New Age piano soloist and composer," said David Read, YSA Executive Director. "In addition to his work as a music educator, John is an award winning composer and pianist and you ought to hear him play accordion!," he added.

The concert will be held on Saturday, October 14th at 7pm at The Burrows Theatre at Yuba Sutter Arts, 624 E Street in Marysville. Plenty of free parking is available on the side streets and in the adjacent Umpqua Bank and Bank of America parking lots. General admission tickets are $10 and $8 for students, seniors and military.

John is a beloved instrumental and choral music instructor at several local schools and has enjoyed an extensive musical career working with the likes of Merv Griffin, Jerry Lewis, the Minneapolis Symphony and the Moody Blues. While jazz runs through his veins, John has managed to combine this passion with original new age music on his moving solo piano excursions.

In a review of John's CD, "Piano Jazz My Way," a reviewer wrote, "I cannot speak highly enough about the degree of virtuosity in John's playing and the many jaw-dropping moments experienced while listening to this album. The reviewer went on, "I'm sure people who attended John's concert at Carnegie Hall in New York where he was awarded the 'Best Jazz Album of the Year' by Enlightened Piano Radio will agree that John Paris is a true master at the top of his game."

Fletcher Just Gotta Go

Another election is upon us, and some important decisions have to be made. I am particularly concerned about the position of supervisor of the Yuba County's Fifth District now held by Randy Fletcher, who, according to prevailing sentiment, has just gotta go!

During the last 3 1/2 years in office he has done next to nothing for the county. He has refused to vote on many important county issues, saying, weirdly, Yuba County residents are his potential (or actual) insurance customers, thus his voting would create a conflict of interest. (So, he should have thought of that before he took the job.) It looks to me like he collects a juicy unearned salary just sitting on his hands.... Initially, in his campaign, he outlined 6-7 projects that he would take care of, just like that (such as building a dam on New York Flat Road (impossible) and eliminating all county building and planning fees (fat chance.) (I reported on these shenanigans in the Territorial Dispatch, on Feb.1, 2017.)

Going back to 2012, there was a disgraceful episode in Fletcher's past, that the public was (and is) little aware of, i.e. his involvement and promotion of the Anti-Measure-T campaign, fall of 2012.

The purpose of Measure-T was to give the people of Yuba County more power over development by giving them the final vote automatically over subdivisions in Natural Resource areas (farm land, foothills, mining land).

Similar ballot measures have worked well in protecting Ventura County against the population onslaught of the Los Angeles area and Napa County against the population onslaught from the Bay Area.

Apparently, the idea of making it routine for people to vote on important subdivisions freaked out realtor Tib Belza and buddy Randy Fletcher. Both names were on the face sheets of 460 forms for Anti-Measure-T campaign, (lists of donor's names) The pro-Measure -T campaign was going well until the California Association of Realtors, based in Los Angeles, donated an astounding $30, 000, no doubt on the urging of Belza and Fletcher, to the Anti-Measure-T campaign. With such maneuvers, we have Fletcher and Belza going all out, using sleazy tactics, against dedicated Yuba County citizens and in favor of those who would split up prime farm land (in areas zoned for farming) and even activate the huge Spring Valley Project hated by 88% of its neighbors.

Not only did Belza and Fletcher get the California realtors to put in big money against Yuba County voters, but they engineered a nasty campaign like I had never seen before (e.g. stealing signs in the middle of the night all over the county, etc.)... completely distorting the facts and dispersing nonsense in their campaign literature (telling the people "Measure-T mandates a county-wide election to obtain any kind of permit on rural land.)" (ridiculous, and they knew it). so, the Anti-T folks got the big money and thus the campaign experts to make a farce of our democratic process...and simply rig the campaign. It's really sad when California realtors over-power a small rural county at the polls. Measure-T lost by less than 1%. P.S. I've known Tib Belza many years, and I have always liked him, but things changed when he came out particularly in such a way, against Measure T. What was going on? Did Tib see Measure-T as a threat to the still-alive Spring Valley project, or to some other project?

And Randy could really do us all a big favor by resigning as supervisor to avoid his "conflict of interest."

Government Contracts Should Go To Bid

Yuba City has every right and in fact an obligation to its citizens to put contracts out to bid. Government contracts should always go out to bid at regular intervals. Competitive bidding helps keep the process more transparent and honest (hopefully anyway). Remember these contracts are paid for with our tax dollars in most cases. If a company (and its employees) are doing a bang up job and at a reasonable rate there is no reason they can't win the bid once again. Monopoly's in contacts are a breeding ground for corruption and influence peddling. Any contractor dealing with the government should be well aware that contracts turn over, contracts come and go. Employees often follow the contract, changing companies when contractors change. I don't appreciate the attempt to pull on the communities heart strings to keep a government contract. Please chime in on how you the people feel about this...

A Sad Tragedy That May Have Been A Terrorist Attack

The Vegas Shooting is, sadly, being silenced. From what I have investigated. The government entities don't want to call this a terrorist attack, because they don't want to fuel the divide that is already at a boiling over point. So the "facts" or propaganda coming from supposed experts is basically a "Soft Ops" cover-up. But little truths keep being told by officials. The Sheriff made the comment that he wanted to know ...who or what group radicalized the shooter. That speaks volumes, since there are inside reports coming from what seem to be credible sources that were involved, that claim the shooter had radical leftist propaganda in the room he was shooting from. The Shooter was also a former Government IRS employee. Also from the actual police frequencies recorded, an officer in the parking lot of the hotel where the shooting took place, reported to dispatch that a Black Dually Truck he believed to be a Chevy, tore out of the parking lot with an undetermined amount of passengers, and for other patrols to check it out if spotted. This was observed 5 minutes after the Gunman stopped firing on the crowds.

Sadly this cover-up will be useful to the communists agenda of disarming the American People so they cannot protect themselves against threats... so we will have no protection from tyranny.

Other telling signs that this was "hopefully by Leftist thinking" a "Terrorist Attack" is the numerous hate filled statements by the left. A CBS Legal Executive had this to say; "If they wouldn't do anything when children were murdered I have no hope that Repugs will ever do the right thing. I'm actually not even sympathetic because country music fans often are Republican gun toters," said Geftman-Gold. This sparked outrage from Americans and shows how hateful the Left is against America. Hailey Geftman-Gold was fired from CBS, but other Leftists on CNN, CBS, ABC, NSBC and other Communist Networks think killing all Trump Supports is OK. So they are responsible for Aiding and Abetting these whack-jobs that go on these Terrorist Attacks, because they plant the notion that killing Trump Supports or anyone who supports the Constitution and the American Flag is OK. We may never know the true facts in this case, but maybe it is time we all arm ourselves, we do seem to be in the sights "Literally" of the Leftist Communists.

Wake Up Yuba County

We need more transparency in the contract process in Yuba County! I know that most of us do not have the time or experience to monitor all that goes on between our local elected officials and services they contract for us, but it still should be available for review and input.

Yuba City is taking a lot of heat for their backbone in insisting that the garbage service contract go out for bid. I applaud them for doing the right thing. Competition is good for all of us. I wish Yuba County would do the same, but rumor has it that they are "negotiating" behind closed doors and not allowing competition.

Granted, allowing for an open bidding process is risky. After all, the current contractor owns the dump, not the county. They could and have forced other company's out by making it impossible to use their facilities. Beale AFB once had it's own garbage provider and it's own dump on the base. The base dump site was closed and competition ended when the privately owned dumpsite for the county made it too expensive for any other company. A sad day for all of us, and it's been going on for years.

The company has changed names over the years, and yes allowed employees to become small owners, but I believe they are still the same company based out of San Francisco that threaten another garbage provider with legal action in 1986, when they tried to provide free cleanup service to Olivehurst after the flood.

The current company has good points and bad. To the good, they have provided excellent service for me and are very responsive when called, and they provided community services liking free annual cleanups to a few areas. That is good. To the bad, I don't want outside garbage coming into my community! I want to know more about the fines they received for environmental issues. I'd like to see my rates lower. I don't like the dumpsite being in the path of Beale AFB's flight path, and I don't like a company playing on community empathy for it's employee's or trying to negotiate behind closed doors.

We need to know and have a say in what our elected and county officials are doing and that's not happening! All contracts need to go out for bid, in a public, transparent process!

Enough is Enough

Making California a sanctuary state will propel California into economic despair that will take years to reverse. The long-term effect will be devastating to our schools, healthcare and welfare systems.

Ask the question "If you are intent on crossing the U.S. border illegally, why even consider crossing into Texas, New Mexico or Arizona, where if caught you will be immediately deported. Whereas crossing into California you will be welcomed with open arms?"

By declaring California, a sanctuary state, we may as well hang a sign on our border that says "All are welcome". Border guards, knowing that their efforts are in vain, will eventually stop enforcing the law. The legislators in Sacramento want so badly to be seen as compassionate, caring souls that they neglect to see the long-term effect this would have on the economy.

Some resolution needs to be considered for the Dreamers that we have already educated and given health care to, but it should be understood that there is a difference between compassion and stupidity.

Enough of the NFL

I am sick and tired of the NFL when the NFL players started kneeling I said I was not watching NFL football I would watch college and if they start kneeling I will boycott them. I am already part of the 8 to 10% of people not going to games or not watching them on T.V.

I saw on T.V. that the average ticket cost was $98.00 to just get into the game. Do the millionaire players and owners care? No they don't, all they care about everything they do build a new field or get a raise, raise ticket prices. A family of 4 can't afford to see a game. This is a chance for the public to show our contempt for this boycott. We pay their salary & their large new stadiums Oakland taxpayers said no. Sand Diego said no. This is time for all tax payers to say no by not watching or going to games.

I went online to see 49ers tickets prices $866 dollars for 50 yard line seats. But for us average fans top deck seats and the field looks like a postage stamp & the players look like ants are only $19.00 the choice is yours.

Your One Minute News Digest

by Don Rae

• We have been hit in the solar plexus too many times in the past few weeks. But as Americans we rise to the challenge with courage and compassion. Keep in mind our Country's real character, as the voices of discord howl. Bless all who hurt in all the ways that we, as humans, can hurt and suffer.

• Do employees have an unfettered right to free speech in the workplace? If such were true then employees could cuss out customers, berate supervisors, suppliers and co-workers with impunity. Where do the lefties (and the NFL) come up with such divisive ideas?

• Remember when Tim Tebow took a knee after touchdowns to honor God? The NFL and the players flipped out because the field wasn't the place for divisive behavior.

• Our Democratic Senator Kamala Harris, only hours after the tragedy in Las Vegas, took the opportunity to politicize the event: "That's why as we pray for those recovering, we also must commit ourselves to action. Another moment of silence won't suffice. Ninety Americans are killed, on average, every day by guns. We cannot simply throw up our hands or continue to justify the presence of weapons of war whose primary purpose is to kill the largest numbers of human beings in the shortest amount of time possible. We must honestly acknowledge the epidemic of violence and work together, now, to curb it." Yes, Kamala, how about you do something constructive about the problem of Blacks killing Blacks in Chicago (under the leadership of another Democrat)? Are you aware that fully-automatic weapons – such as used in Las Vegas – are already illegal to possess? Why didn't you go full-out to keep illegal weapons off the streets while you were California's Attorney General? How about demanding that current laws be enforced? Oh, and while you are at it, give us some details about what specific "actions" you propose that will "curb" the epidemic of violence. We are listening with open ears because we too want to end the epidemic of violence.... but no politicians seem to have any concrete, workable ideas as to how to do it. (Hint: more gun laws don't seem to solve the problem.)

• A Massachusetts school librarian returned books donated to the school by Melania Trump, with a vicious letter telling Melania that she is ignorant. This librarian doesn't have the right to accept or reject donations – she should be fired. Disgraceful behavior.

• San Fran Pelosi said the suggested tax reform plan is a "tax giveaway." Huh? Who is giving away the taxes? The only folks that do so are politicians who take our money and give it to their supporters. Maybe Pelosi is worried she'll have to take a pay cut when the government gets less of our hard-earned money. It is difficult to understand her logic.

• There are more than 5,000 public agencies in California. Many of them contract with CalPERS for employee retirement programs. Ever since Grey Davis promoted a 3% at 50 retirement formula for public safety employees, without providing any funding for the 50% increase in pensions, public entities in CalPERS have been slowly going broke. It is like a flesh-eating bacteria infection. The solution is to eliminate the formula which provides nearly full salary for retirees. This action will require the public employee unions and elected officials to do the right thing. Will that happen? No. It can't happen with a symbiotic relationship between unions and elected officials.

• It is side-splitting laughter time when you hear Progressives in San Francisco extol how wonderful the City is. In San Fran a 1,000 ft. apartment is renting for $3,700 a month. Amazing how these progressives support low-income housing. Maybe they mean a cardboard box on a Market Street sidewalk.

• Our good friend Stephen Frank informs us that the Feds are spending $429,000 to look at the "eyes" of Latinos. San Diego State University is using "eye-tracking technology" to determine how overweight people decide what to buy at the grocery. Researchers hope to identify strategies to cause people to choose what the researchers have decided are healthier options. Frank comments "This is racial profiling, invasion of privacy and an effort to finance marketing studies for private companies. Another example of why we need to Drain the Swamp. Why should I pay government to profile people in a racist manner?"

• Want a prime example of how blinded by biases some "climate change" advocates are? Mahmoud Bekri of the Egyptian publication al-Ushu wrote that "tsunamis were caused by Zionist nuclear testing." Heard of any such testing by Israel?

• The Associated Press continues on its leftist bias. In a recent "news" article printed in the mainstream media, the AP calls a conservative speaker "a right wing firebrand" and another a "right wing provocateur." Have you ever seen the AP refer to the far-left Socialist Bernie Sanders as a "left-wing firebrand" or "left wing provocateur?" The AP does not write news stories. It editorializes for the left. Why does the mainstream media buy this trash and print faux journalism?

• Now coffee is leading to cancer, according to a 7-year lawsuit "grinding" through the courts. The lawsuit contends a chemical known as acryl amide is found in coffee. Studies in animals show that acryl amide causes cancer when eaten. However, the doses given to animals have been 1000–100,000 times larger than the amounts humans are exposed to through coffee. You'd have to drink coffee virtually non stop 24/7 to ingest these amounts. Additionally, humans metabolize acryl amide differently, resulting in less exposure. What few human studies have been done are inconsistent. But don't let that stop the "dogooders" for demanding warning labels. Who wins here? The lawyers, who stand to make a bundle, and manufacturers who sell labels to coffee sellers. Who loses? The rest of us who will have to pay more for a Cuppa Joe.

• Elizabeth Harrington, Washington Free Beacon, writes: "The National Park Service is spending roughly $100,000 for a research project seeking to "honor the legacy" of the Marxist revolutionary group the Black Panther Party." The FBI labels the Black Panther Party as advocates for "the use of violence and guerilla tactics to overthrow the U.S. government." Why is the National Park Service at odds with the FBI? Why is the National Park Service wanting to spend our tax money on this? This needs to be stopped now.

• Here is something to digest over your morning coffee. Republicans voted more than 15 times in the past 7 years to repeal and replace Obamacare. But that was when they knew Obama would veto the effort. Now, when they know the President will sign such a bill, they balk. Where are honest legislators with principles?

• On average last year, private health insurance policies went up 3%. ObamaCare policies went up 20%.

• "The National Institutes of Health has approved $200,000 for a study that seeks to improve older women's sex lives through "mindfulness meditation." The University of Pittsburgh got the dough. Mindfulness, a technique of thinking about thoughts, is thought to be a good intervention to get older women to be more active in the bedroom. Is this the way you want your tax money spent?

• Recently, the elected Republican Contra Costa County District Attorney Mark Peterson was forced to resign. The County Board of Supervisors is looking for someone to fill out the remainder of his term, so the BOS asked for recommendations from a so called "non partisan group of community organizations." What groups were invited to give recommendations? The ACLU, Labor Council, NAACP, CCC Racial Justice Center, and the Democratic Party. No one in this "impartial" group was middle of the road let alone a conservative or Republican. What kind of recommendation do you think will be made?

• One way to help the country to come together is to repeal and replace "Celebrate Diversity." Diversity breaks people into different "diverse" competing groups instead of bringing them together in one united group as in, "out of many, one". Let's return to E Pluribus Unum".

Who is Funding the Violent Left excerpts from the Daily Caller

Major left-wing foundations have given millions of dollars to a leading anti-Trump "resistance" group, a new report reveals.

The W.K. Kellogg Foundation, The Ford Foundation and the Open Society Foundation have channeled millions of dollars to the Center for Community Change, according to 2015 tax documents obtained by The Washington Free Beacon.

The documents provide a rare glimpse into the relationship between big progressive donors and the left-wing activists who have mobilized against President Trump and other Republican lawmakers. As a 501(c)3 organization, the center isn't required to publicly disclose the source and nature of its donations.

Center for Community Change -- 2015 Donors on Scribd" Center for Community Change — 2015 Donors by Joe Schoffstall on Scribd

The W.K. Kellogg Foundation gave $3 million to the Center for Community Change. The Ford Foundation gave another $2.3 million to the center, while the Open Society Foundation provided another $1,750,000 to the center, as revealed by the documents.

The Open Society Foundation is the personal project of left-wing mega donor George Soros, who has previously backed other anti-Trump "resistance" groups.

several groups launched as a direct response to Trump's election, is a project of the Advocacy Fund, a progressive advocacy group that funded by Soros' Open Society Policy Center, as The Daily Caller first reported.

Resistance group Refuse Fascism, which has consistently organized mass demonstrations in Berkeley and elsewhere that have turned into riots, is similarly backed by left-wing donor networks

As TheDC's Chuck Ross first reported, Refuse Fascism is backed by a progressive charity that is in turn funded by left-wing financier George Soros, a major labor union and several large companies.

Sutter Buttes Tea Party Patriots Meeting Presentation from Sutter Butte's Flood Control Agency

Yuba City, Ca.

The Sutter Buttes Tea Party Patriots announces their October 16th meeting will feature a presentation from the Sutter Butte Flood Control Agency to provide an update on the progress of repairs underway to improve the integrity of the levees that protect the Yuba City region.

The Sutter Butte Flood Control Agency (SBFCA) is undertaking an aggressive series of projects to improve flood protection in the Sutter Butte Basin, to include repairs to levees spanning 44 miles along the west bank of the Feather River, from Thermalito Afterbay south to the Sutter Bypass. Challenges abound, including securing federal permits for construction, acquiring right-of-way for construction and maintenance, finalizing agreements with the state for construction funding, and racing against the clock to complete repairs before the Federal Emergency Management Agency re-maps large portions of the community into high-hazard flood zones.

Some lucky member will be the winner of a drawing to cut our Chairman's (Bill Beeler) hair. After 7 years of growth that never gets any longer, Bill has decided it's time! Come and savor the goodness.

The Sutter Buttes Tea Party meetings begin promptly at 6:30, on the 1st and 3rd Monday of every month at The Church of Glad Tidings at 1179 Eager Road, Live Oak; Highway 99 and Eager Road.

Everyone is welcome to join us as we continue to move forward with a renewed enthusiasm in recognition of our achieved success in the White House! As we continue to promote the principles of constitutionally limited government, fiscal responsibility and free markets – we will also acknowledge our progress in those areas and bring attention to the victories for liberty, truth, justice and faith in God, that do not make the headlines. There is no membership requirement and no cost to attend. Doors open at 6:00 pm with lively music and videos to get you motivated and keep up that "winning" mindset. Come early to socialize with fellow patriots and get a good seat.

State moves to improve weather forecasts

As a new "water year" begins, state officials say they want to be better able to predict when atmospheric-river systems will drench California with heavy precipitation. The state Department of Water Resources said Tuesday it will work with government and academic researchers to improve long-range weather forecasts. DWR said current seven-day forecasts are 70 percent accurate, but 14-day forecasts have only 7 percent accuracy.

Farmers respond to Medfly quarantine

For any fruit or vegetable farmer, the nearby discovery of Mediterranean fruit flies threatens severe disruptions. Quarantines meant to keep the pest from spreading can prevent farmers from selling their crops. A Medfly quarantine has been imposed in Solano County in recent days. But one Fairfield-area farmer says he'll be able to sell his persimmons outside the zone, because he treated them pre-emptively on the assumption a quarantine would be enacted.

Baby lima beans fulfill Japanese markets

While they finish their harvest of baby lima beans, California farmers will be keeping their eyes on Japan. That's because most of the beans they produce will ultimately be sold there. Japanese manufacturers use California-grown baby lima beans to make a sweet bean paste that's a key ingredient in traditional confections. In any given year, half to three-quarters of California baby lima beans will be exported to Japan.

Study shows how wine benefits economy

Growing grapes and making and marketing wine add nearly $220 billion to the U.S. economy, according to a study from a vintners association. The group WineAmerica says the wine business supports 1.7 million jobs around the nation. As the leading grape-growing and wine-making state, California sees the highest economic benefit from wine. But the study says there are winery facilities in all 50 states.

This week Yuba County Animal Care Services would like you to meet our featured pet "Tiki" (A166116), a two year old Lab mix. This is a beautiful dog with a wonderful personality. Tiki is very quiet, loves to go on walks, and loves children. Tiki was brought to us because her former family wasn't able to give her the time and attention she needs. Tiki is a sweet gentle girl who needs a home to call her own, could that home be yours! This girl is ready to go home today; she is up-to-date on her shots and already spayed. Yuba County Animal Care Services is open Monday – Friday 10am – 3:30pm and Saturday 10am – 2pm. Our shelter is located at 5245 Feather River Blvd. in Olivehurst, 530-741-6478. # Government Abuse one working for an anti-human trafficking organization in Sacramento. The hard working immigrant who never completed high school confesses to not understanding the myriad of rules governing business here. Kairam thought he just needed to pay someone money like he would in his former homeland. Kairam has also gotten sideways with the complex city sign rules.

Again, he sees the rules being stifling and applied inconsistently among similar stores. And, he wonders why the State Lottery sign can be on the curb but he cannot have his own curb advertisement. Why the favoritism?

Currently none of the five city council members are small business owners. If politicians were required to successfully operate a small business for 10-years prior to ruling over enterprises, maybe they would make fewer rules and regulations and quit jerking hard-working citizens around.

Politicians and bureaucrats have removed the 'freedom' from free enterprise. The city's 16 oz. beer nonsense is symbolic of the government's routine abuse of business people.

Yuba Sutter United Veterans Council Announces the Annual Veteran of the Year

Annual Grimes Ladies Aid Dinner and Bazaar 2017

The Grimes Ladies Aid Society will hold its annual dinner and bazaar on Saturday, November 4th, at the Grand Island Elementary School, beginning at 5:00p.m. We will be serving our delicious turkey and ham dinner with all the trimmings, dessert and beverage. Dinner is $12.00 for adults, $5.00 for children aged 5-12 and free for children under the age of 5. All the ladies aiders and many Grimes friends work hard to make this a delightful evening.

Bazaar booths will begin selling at 5:00 p.m., and will include linens, crafts - which include many Christmas items, mystery packages for all ages, a country store with local produce, baked goods, candies and jellies. The Grimes Civic Association will also sponsor a raffle table which helps us to maintain our scout cabin, a popular meeting place since the 1930's. Most exciting is always the awarding of a gorgeous hand-made quilt!

The Grimes ladies aid was organized in 1901. This annual dinner and bazaar is a wonderful small town celebration shared by the entire community of Grimes and our neighbors. The public is cordially included to attend this once a year fundraiser. This helps us to maintain the beautiful Grimes community church (which was built in 1875), as well as supporting our school and various community needs.

We hope you all will join us for the great food, fun and fellowship on Saturday, November 4th, beginning at 5:00 p.m.

Lake Oroville Spillways Construction Updates

Sacramento, Ca. The Department of Water Resources (DWR) provided an update on construction work on the Lake Oroville Spillways Emergency Recovery Project.

Construction on the Main Spillway

DWR remains focused on meeting the primary objective of the Lake Oroville Spillways Emergency Recovery Project to repair and reconstruct the 3,000-foot gated flood control spillway, also known as the main spillway, to handle flows of 100,000 cubic feet per second by November 1.

There are 28 days left on the construction timeline to reconstruct 2,270 feet of main spillway this year: o Placement of reinforced, structural concrete in the upper and lower chutes is 60 percent complete. By November 1 structural concrete will be placed on 870 feet of the upper chute of the spillway and 350 feet on the lower chute of the spillway.

Crews have installed more than 2,500 slab anchors to date in the upper and lower chutes - 80 percent of what is required for 2017.

The 1,050-foot middle section of the spillway chute, including filling in the two scour holes, is now 70 percent complete, with approximately 230,000 cubic yards of roller compacted concrete placed. This middle section will be completed to final design with a top layer of structural concrete in 2018.

The 730 feet of main spillway leading to the radial gates will be patched, reinforced and left in place this year. It will be removed and reconstructed with structural concrete in 2018.

Construction at the Emergency Spillway

Work at the emergency spillway is also on schedule to complete construction of the secant pile wall, or cut-off wall, in late December 2017 or early January 2018.

Crews have completed 30 percent of the secant pile wall.

CHP "START SMART" PROGRAM

California has the second highest fatality rate nationwide, involving drivers between the ages of 15-20. To help combat this growing problem, the California Highway Patrol (CHP) is conducting classes for teens and their parents. This is a program specifically geared toward reducing collisions and injuries involving teen drivers. This innovative program is called "Start Smart," Driving Smart to Stay Safe.

WHO: Teens age 15-20 and their parents.

WHAT: To raise awareness regarding the consequences of a poor choice when mixed with the decision to drive a motor vehicle. Attendees will hear personal testimony from someone directly affected by a tragic collision.

WHEN: 6:30 p.m., November 1, 2017. Please call to reserve a seat.

WHERE: Yuba Sutter CHP office
1619 Poole Boulevard, Yuba City, CA 95993

WHY: To save the lives and prevent injuries to teen drivers.

This class has been held bi-monthly for the past 12 years at the Yuba Sutter CHP Office. We are reaching out to the community and encouraging anyone interested in participating to call the Yuba Sutter CHP office and enroll. The class is free, takes 2 hours, and is guaranteed to leave a lasting impression on everyone in attendance. It has been said many times, this is the most important 2 hours a teen and parent can spend together to learn about the dangers of driving.

Cannabis Wild West

by Lou Binninger

As state voters twice approved the usage of marijuana few considered what that would look like in terms of growing, sales, distribution and use. Well, the devil is in the details.

Sacramento authorized up to thirty dispensaries with abundant rules to keep the city leaders happy. However, a recent audit concluded that the dispensaries may be under reporting revenue and receipts, not paying enough taxes and are essentially running rogue.

Of the six dispensaries whose finances were targeted for audit, four did not cooperate. The city auditor asked the dispensaries for information in 8 categories including monthly receipt records, financial statements, tax returns, member names and vendor list.

Five of six audited did not provide gross receipts, finance statements or member names. None offered a list of vendors (providers of their merchandise).

Sacramento City Auditor Jorge Oseguera led the investigation and said his staff went to dispensaries to keep track of purchases. Based on what they observed, they were able to estimate how much the dispensaries should be reporting in revenue and paying in taxes. In one case, a dispensary was more than $100,000 short in taxes paid.

Dispensaries have trouble finding a bank to take their money so there is no 'paper trail' via deposits and bank statements. It is an all cash operation with plenty of opportunities to beat the government out of payola.

One dispensary, All About Wellness, refused to allow auditors inside, much to the frustration of Oseguera. "This is critical for the city to be able to do if we're going to allow these dispensaries within the city," Oseguera said. "And to the extent that (the audits were) contested, well perhaps they shouldn't be operating in the city."

Dispensaries also failed to meet city code during surprise on-site inspections. Violations included not posting the required signs, not securing doors, selling medical marijuana to people other than qualified patients and allowing the on-site consumption of marijuana.

Last year, Sacramento collected $4.5 million in taxes from the dispensaries.

Yuba County prohibits dispensaries but the City of Marysville has authorized two outlets in spite of voters' opposition. Local dispensary rules are many and detailed, but will the city face the same lawlessness as Sacramento?

In Yuba County some have estimated more than 1,000 people are growing illegally. While many rural residents concluded that local government had given up enforcing the law, there has been a change since two deputies were shot at a marijuana grow-site on August 1.

Since then, scores of grows and thousands of plants have been eradicated, honey oil labs removed, hundreds of thousands of dollars and many guns confiscated, and dozens of suspects arrested. Toxic chemicals have been discovered at the sites.

A recent sweep saw 18 apprehended. The interesting aspect is that most all of the accused are from elsewhere - Jamaica, New York, Maryland, Illinois, Mississippi, Georgia and Alabama. Chances are none of them were checking the quality of schools here to enroll their kids.

Those arrested were charged with 182PC/Conspiracy, 11358 H&S/Illegal Cultivation of Marijuana, and 11359H&S/Possession of Marijuana for Sale. There were also additional environmental and water violations for perpetrators associated with some locations.

No State of Emergency has been declared, but there is certainly a multi-agency effort to make a statement about what the will of county leaders is. It will take many more raids to alter the attraction for lawless profiteers to Yuba County. Great weather and soils combined with a poorly crafted growing ordinance and feeble enforcement created a perfect environment for a criminal element to thrive here.

Residents are firmly behind law enforcement restoring order and peace before the county has completely lost control. Marijuana industry entrepreneurs consider themselves exempt from the law and their responsibility to their neighbors.

THE WAY IT USED TO BE

By Larry R. Matthews

THE MADNESS

It was the stuff that Grade B horror movies are based upon. But this was real.

The madness began with the animals. A cat yowled in agony, rolled, writhed, twisted, shook, and ran screaming toward a wall. It then fell into convulsions and died.

Ducks waddled like penguins, quacked loudly, wandered in circles and fell over dead.

A dog ran in a wide circle and growled at unseen visions. It seized a rock and gnawed on it. It also soon died.

Were these animals poisoned or did they just die of fright?

For people it started out with stomach problems, chills and a low temperature. Their attitudes would shift from euphoria to deep depression. Shortly thereafter the hallucinations would begin.

A man had been sitting quietly. Suddenly he jumped out of bed and tried to run away from the house, acting like a wild man. He shrieked in utter terror and then tried to hide under his blanket. This went on for weeks.

Hundreds of people in the little village were affected by the madness. Some stood on street corners speaking in a speeded up and frivolous manner. Most hardly slept for at least three weeks.

A five year old girl lay in her bed with body spasms with her fingers and toes clenching. She screamed that there were tigers trying to eat her and that there was blood dripping from the ceiling.

Two people, thinking they could fly, jumped from the clock tower. They were both lucky enough to only come away with broken legs.

One woman kept seeing the Death Doctor; a black figure with a skull head holding a black medical bag. He would not go away even when she threw an iron pot at him.

Others went berserk and barricaded themselves in their houses thinking that demons were after them. They fought the demons by shrieking and throwing dishes and furniture at the unreal creatures in their minds.

One man said "Stand Back! I am dead. My head is made of copper and I have snakes in my stomach!"

Most of the hundreds of villagers had hallucinations from one time or the other and some, the violent ones, were put into mental wards.

The illness began to subside after 21 days but many retained some of their physical and psychological damage for the rest of their lives.

The 300 sick included 7 dead. The dozens hospitalized were so greatly affected that they were never quite the same again.

Did this plague of madness occur during the dark ages? No, it occurred in August of 1951 in Pont-St.-Esprit, France.

What caused this plague? I believe this to be the most likely theory: The French love their bread. They even feed it to their animals.

The bread distribution center for the village was in the town of Bagnols-sur-Ceze. At that center some rye grain had been mixed in with the normal batch of wheat flour mix. During periods of high humidity a fungus called Ergot can form and ferment on rye grain. One of the alkaloids that may be produced by the fermentation of Ergot is Lysergic Acid Diethylamide.

The dose of LSD that was served to the residents of Pont-St.-Esprit was massive compared to the relatively small doses of LSD-25 that were regularly dispensed in the United States in the 1960's.

It is conjectured that Ergot may also have been the cause of many of the mass hysteria events that have occurred throughout history. One instance may have been the "possession" that fueled the Salem Witch Trials.

CRITIC'S CORNER
by Matt Woolery
American Made
Starring: Tom Cruise, Domhnall Gleeson, and Sarah Wright. Rated: R, Runtime: 115 minutes.

In 1983 an airline pilot is recruited by the CIA to run guns to Nicaragua. Then the new CIA pilot is recruited to run cocaine back to the United States. The CIA turns a blind eye to the drugs so long as the contras have their weapons. As can be expected the life of the pilot spirals out of control as business demands expand and his life jeopardized when his cover is blown and his assets seized.

The story rolls along at a good clip as it is being narrated by Tom Cruise. The acting is good and the production value is nicely done. Domhnall Gleeson is a busy actor lately seeming to turn up everywhere, from Harry Potter, Star Wars, and the Revenant. He is showing promising range and versatility in his roles, that I hope becomes the new trend in show business.

American Made, earns three out of five, Car Starting Monkeys. Not an amazing film, however it is an entertaining film. I expect its run in the movie house to be short as other films move in.
