

First Sutter Buttes Tea Party Scholarship Awarded to Oroville High School Student Greyson Reynolds

by Carla Virga

L-R: Treasurer Jenny Genesoto, Secretary Becky Bowen, Chairman Bill Beeler, Recipient Greyson Reynolds and his parents Chuck and Sandy Reynolds, Coordinator Carla Virga, Vice-Chair Larry Virga

Yuba City, Ca.
At their June 19, 2017, meeting at the Church of Glad Tidings in Live Oak, the Sutter Buttes Tea Party Patriots awarded their First Annual Patriot Scholarship to Greyson Reynolds, a junior attending Oroville High School, for getting the Pledge of Allegiance reinstated at Oroville High School, a school that had not recited the pledge since the 1970s.

Greyson first spoke to the Oroville High School principal and then wrote a letter to the school board proposing the Pledge of Allegiance be recited every morning. With no results, he circulated a petition. The only opposition to restoring the Pledge of Allegiance came from a few teachers, not from any student. Other students and some teachers helped circulate the petition. Enough signatures were gathered. The Pledge has been recited every day since February.

Before introducing Greyson and presenting the award to him, Tammie Rikard, a member of the Sutter Buttes Tea Party Executive Board and teacher of their biannual Institute on the Constitution's U.S. Constitution Course, addressed from where controversy to the Pledge comes:

I pledge Allegiance to the Flag... What could be wrong with pledging allegiance to your own nation? The answer is globalism, and Common Core in our public schools is seeking to transform our youngest citizens into global citizens. It targets vulnerable children that are not yet convicted to our founding principles of individual liberty and unalienable God-given rights. Our Declaration of Independence states the absolute truth, that all men are created equal, and that we are endowed by our Creator with certain unalienable rights. Contrastively, our children are being taught to deny any individual liberty in favor of the collective through this idea of globalism. So the term global citizen is being ingrained into the minds of our youth. This term refers to a godless government state citizen that places the collective above individual liberty, not an individual created by God and God-given inalienable rights.

...and to the Republic for which it stands... There are many people who grew up saying the Pledge of Allegiance over and over and yet still believe we live under a democracy. They don't even know the form of our government is a republic.

...one nation under God... We have recognized from the original formation of this great nation that we are living under the greatest jurisdiction there is. That is God's jurisdiction. He reigns supreme over this land, and He is the ultimate ruler and king of kings.

...indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. Justice for all. Liberty and justice for all, not just the social justice warriors and snowflakes and intolerant left. It means justice and liberty for all. That means I can say the Pledge of Allegiance, and I can fly my flag of the United States proudly..."

It was Greyson's patriotism which inspired the Sutter Buttes Tea Party to create what will be an annual $500 Sutter Buttes Tea Party Patriot Scholarship. His goal is to attend the U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, MD.

Videos of Mrs. Rikard's introduction and Greyson's tale and award presentation are avail-

Kate's Law Can Save Lives

by Lou Binninger

On June 29, 2017 the House passed "Kate's Law" named after Kate Steinle, 32, who was shot in the back and killed in San Francisco on July 1, 2015 by illegal alien Juan Francisco Lopez Sanchez. Her killer had 7 previous felony convictions and was deported 5 times.

The new law assesses enhanced penalties on illegals convicted of crimes, deported and then caught re-entering the United States. The law passed 257-157 with one Republican voting no and 24 Democrats voting yes. It still must now pass the Senate which previously voted it down.

Prior to Steinle's killing, Lopez-Sanchez completed a nearly four-year federal prison sentence for illegally reentering the country. He then was turned over to San Francisco (SF) officials because of an outstanding warrant for a marijuana-related charge that was immediately dismissed. SF authorities released him, despite a request from federal immigration officials to keep him in custody because of his undocumented status, according to a wrongful-death lawsuit filed by Steinle's family.

Less than three months later, authorities say, Lopez-Sanchez stole a .40-caliber pistol from the unlocked car of a U.S. Bureau of Land Management ranger, and shot Steinle at Pier 14 along the Embarcadero.

Seven months before Steinle's death, on December 7, 2014, Casey Bissell, 25, of Placerville was stabbed to death by two illegal aliens outside a restaurant in San Francisco's Mission District. Bissell and friends were celebrating his admission to U. C. Berkeley. Bissell's grandmother is longtime Yuba City resident Dottie van Eckhardt.

Bissell was a straight-A student completing junior college who hoped to study International Relations at Berkeley. He was working his way through school as a sous chef.

Casey Bissell

Bissell's attackers had been drinking before approaching and assaulting Bissell and friends outside the eatery. Andres Novelo, 27, was sentenced to 19 years to life, 6 months in county jail and pay restitution of $5,000. His partner in the assault, Josue Chan-Perez was released with a misdemeanor and time served of 220 days in county jail. The Bissell family was shocked that Chan-Perez was released.

"The nature of the crime could not have been more serious," Judge Rochelle East said, calling the murderous attack tragic, senseless and unprovoked. She said Bissell was stabbed to death at 18th and Valencia Streets "for no discernible reason."

Steinle and Bissell join thousands of other victims of illegal alien crime sprees. According to Hans von Spakovsky, Senior Legal Fellow at the Heritage Foundation, the Government Accountability Office (GAO) released two reports in 2005 on criminal aliens who are in prison for committing crimes in the United States, and issued an updated report in 2011.

The first report found that criminal aliens, both legal and illegal, make up 27 percent of

Courtney Abril Appointed as New Yuba County Counsel

Marysville, Ca.
Courtney Abril is Yuba County's new County Counsel, receiving full support of the Board of Supervisors during its June 27 meeting.

Abril served as Yuba County's Chief Deputy County Counsel for the past year, before being appointed as interim County Counsel following the departure of Angil Morris-Jones at the end of April.

In June, following an evaluation of Abril's performance, the Board decided to begin the necessary steps to appoint her to the position, with a starting date of July 1.

"Over the last year, Mrs. Abril has developed a very good relationship with county departments and elected officials," said Yuba County Administrator Robert Bendorf. "Her hard work and effective management of the County Counsel's office is evident to all who work with her."

Prior to joining Yuba County, Abril worked in the Nevada County Public Defender's Office since 2006. She received her law degree from Gonzaga Law

School in 2005 and was admitted to the California State Bar later the same year.

Beyond her professional work, Abril has been a volunteer attorney at Veteran's Stand Down for many years.

FISHIN' TALK

by Boots Johnson

Dan "Boots" Johnson has fished and hunted in California for 73 years. Anyone with questions or comments can email him at boots3@syix.com

I talked about old fishing lures last week so have decided to add a few more to the list. Fred Arbogast invented more lures, two of which were also my favorites and continually caught black bass. The Hawaiian Wiggler no. 2 was one of my favorites in the green/red color. This lure was a medium running lure consisting of a lead head, a spinner with weed less ability and the famous hula skirt. Another lure which continually caught a stringer of bass was the Sputterflux. This lure cast like a bullet due to its weight and was a surface lure which, like its name, made a heck of a lot of noise as it was retrieved. This lure, as stated above was heavy and as soon as it hit the water the pole was held as high as possible and reeling as fast as one was able to get the lure on the surface. My favorite color on this one was frog, which was painted so the frog was seen from under the water. Attached to the lure was a white skirt. Like the hula popper, the sputterflux was a kick to fish with due to the ripples one could see as the bass came from all over the pond to check out what was on the surface causing a disturbance. The lures came with an extra hook for attaching to catch short striking fish. I never used one due to the bass always devouring the lures. Besides the trailing hook always got hung up in the weeds or lily pads.

There was one thing about the rubber hula skirts. In hot weather the skirt would sort of soften up and then if it got hot enough they would semi-melt which made a mess of whatever they were in or next to.

We have good news for those who fish for trout in local rivers, streams and lakes in the North State. The Department of Fish and Wildlife has its trout planting program in full swing. The bad news is most of the fish are being released in the Southern part of the state. Plants were placed in the following Northern California waters last week: BUTTE COUNTY: Big Butte Creek; EL DORADO COUNTY: Upper Echo Lake, Icehouse Reservoir, Loon Lake and Sawmill Pond; GLENN COUNTY: Plaskett Meadows Pond; LASSEN COUNTY: Clear Creek, Goodrich Creek and the lower Susan River; NAPA COUNTY: Lake Berryessa; NEVADA COUNTY: Donner Lake; PLUMAS COUNTY: North Fork of the Feather River near Lake Almanor; TEHAMA COUNTY: South Fork of Battle Creek, Deer Creek and Gurnsey Creek.

Boots fishing tip for the week: "Keep your shadow off the water when fishing for trout in streams."

all federal prisoners. Yet the group comprises only about nine percent of the nation's adult population. Therefore, judging by federal prisons numbers, non-citizens commit federal crimes at three times the rate of citizens.

Spakovsky says, "The findings in the second report are even more disturbing. It reviewed the criminal histories of 55,322 aliens in federal or state prisons and local jails who entered the country illegally. Those illegal aliens were arrested 459,614 times, an average of 8.3 arrests per illegal alien, and committed almost 700,000 criminal offenses, an average of roughly 12.7 offenses per illegal alien."

"The 2011 GAO report is more of the same. The criminal histories of 251,000 criminal aliens showed that they had committed close to three million criminal offenses. Sixty-eight percent of those in federal prison and 66 percent of those in state prison were from Mexico. Their offenses included homicide, kidnapping, drugs, rape, burglary, and larceny."

Once again, these statistics are not fully representative of crimes committed by illegal aliens. The report only reflects the criminal histories of aliens in prison. If there were a way to count all crimes committed by criminal aliens, the numbers would likely be higher since prosecutors often drop criminal charges against an illegal alien if immigration authorities will deport the alien.

The GAO reports also highlight the fact that criminal aliens from Mexico disproportionately make up incarcerations and that most arrests are made in the three border states of California, Texas, and Arizona.

Enforcing immigration laws saves lives, protects citizens and may have prevented Kate and Casey's violent and senseless deaths.

FCS Players Set to "Move It!" with MADASCAR

The street address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: 2603 LAGO RD, LINDA, CA 95901 The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. Said sale will be made without covenant or warranty, express or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to pay the remaining principal sum of the Note(s) secured by said Deed of Trust, with interest thereon, as provided in said Note(s), advances if any, under the terms of the Deed of Trust, estimated fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligations secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of this Notice of Trustee's Sale is estimated to be $264,551.96 (Estimated). However, prepayment premiums, accrued interest and advances will increase this figure prior to sale. Beneficiary's bid at said sale may include all or part of said amount. In addition to cash, the Trustee will accept a cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the California Financial Code and authorized to do business in California, or other such funds as may be acceptable to the Trustee. In the event tender other than cash is accepted, the Trustee may withhold the issuance of the Trustee's Deed Upon Sale until funds become available to the payee or endorsee as a matter of right. The property offered for sale excludes all funds held on account by the property receiver, if applicable. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. Notice to Potential Bidders If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a Trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a Trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. Notice to Property Owner The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about Trustee Sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. The sale will be made, but without covenant or warranty, expressed or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to pay the accrued principal sum of the note(s) secured by the Deed of Trust, with interest and late charges thereon, as provided in the note(s), advances, under the terms of the Deed of Trust, interest thereon, fees, charges and expenses of the trustee for the total amount (at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale) reasonably estimated to be set forth below. The amount may be greater on the day of sale. BENEFICIARY MAY BID LESS THAN THE TOTAL AMOUNT DUE. Trustor (s): BEVERLY NORRIS, AN UNMARRIED WOMAN Recorded: 12/1/2005 as Instrument No. 2005R-029851 of Official Records in the office of the Recorder of YUBA County, California; Date of Sale: 8/4/2017 at 3:00PM Place of Sale: At the front entrance to the County Courthouse, 215 5th St., Marysville, CA 95901 Amount of accrued balance and other charges: $205,470.83 The purported property address is: 229 18TH ST, MARYSVILLE, CA 95901 Assessor's Parcel No.: 009-015-008-000 NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 916-939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this Internet Web site http://www.qualityloan.com, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the trustee: CA-17-761630-HL. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. The undersigned trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. If the trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the trustee, and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. If the sale is set aside for any reason, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the deposit paid. The Purchaser shall have no further recourse against the mortgagor, the mortgagee, or the mortgagee's attorney. If you have previously been discharged through bankruptcy, you may have been released of personal liability for this loan in which case this letter is intended to exercise the note holders right's against the real property only. COLLISION AT SEA

The collision last month between the destroyer, USS Fitzgerald and the container ship ACX Crystal was an unbelievable occurrence. In the modern era when we have great radar, sonar and satellite technologies and are cognizant of possible terrorist attacks on our ships, the collision should not have happened. My time in the Navy goes back to the final years of the Vietnam War. I served two years sea duty from 1971 to 1973 aboard an ammunition ship and an aircraft carrier. My aircraft carrier, the USS Oriskany was involved in a collision with an ammunition ship, the USS Nitro, in June of 1972. During the underway transference of bombs and ammunition the two ships ground together and one of the carrier's aircraft elevators was damaged. Sparks flew down upon 240 five hundred pound bombs that were ready to be transferred. Fortunately there was no explosion or injuries but 4,000 sailors held their breaths for several minutes while the ships untangled themselves. You can imagine that an ammunition ship slamming into an aircraft carrier could cause quite a bit of concern. A far worse accident occurred in June of 1969 when the destroyer USS Frank E. Evans was performing plane guard duties for the Australian aircraft carrier HMAS Melbourne. The Melbourne was launching planes at 3:10 AM in the South China Sea between the Philippines and South Vietnam. The Melbourne ordered the Evans to move to a position behind the carrier. But the Evans, instead of turning left, turned right into the path of the carrier. The carrier cut the destroyer in half. The front half of the destroyer immediately sank, taking 74 crew members with her. The aft section stayed afloat and 199 of the crew survived. So now we have a similar incident; a collision in the middle of the night when most of the crew is asleep in their berthing areas. But in the case of the Evans, the tragic mistake was simple to understand; it was a crew member's error. The reason for the collision that caused the deaths of seven sailors and those injured aboard the USS Fitzgerald will be determined. But there will be no good excuse. How could our modern technology have missed seeing a ship that is, at 730 feet, almost as long as a World War II Essex class aircraft carrier? If it was seen prior to the collision, why was it allowed to get so close? Was it a technical failure or were the watchstanders not paying attention? Our military has been an all-volunteer force since January 27, 1973. Many Americans take the military for granted, especially if they don't have a friend or relative in the service. But I won't. After all, they are risking their lives for us every day. A loss of one of them is a loss to us all.

Colusa County was established in 1850 as one of the original 27 counties in California created by the first State Legislature. Early settlers in the north end of the county included Dr. Almon Lull, a native of Vermont, and J.W. Pratt who arrived in the area in 1852. Both took up residence in 1853 near a settlement named Ket-tee, located 14 miles north of Colusa. During that year, Dr. Lull established the first ferry across the Sacramento River. On November 2, 1855 a third-class post office was established and Ket-tee was renamed Princeton by Dr. Lull. Some accounts indicate that Dr. Lull had attended Princeton University, but there has never been substantial proof that claim. Soon after, Dr. Lull, along with Will S. Green, laid out the first road on the east side of the Sacramento River. Robert Arnett was the first postmaster. Born in Tennessee in 1816, Arnett crossed the plains to California in 1853. Upon his arrival, he settled in Princeton where he continued his farming pursuits. In 1857, Arnett moved to Mendocino County whereby Henry Vansycle took over the duties of postmaster. Vansycle, credited as opening the first store in Princeton, continued as postmaster until 1862 when Dr. Lull took over the position. Over the years, wheat became the major produce in the area. At one time, more wheat was shipped from Princeton than from any other point and became the "heart" of this prosperous agricultural region. Due to Princeton's location, there was also a daily stage route from Norman to Butte City. The ferry also afforded communication with the east side of the Sacramento River. In addition, the community continue to grow and included such businesses as a general merchandise store, a large warehouse, a lumberyard, a saddlery, two blacksmith shops, a saloon and a harness shop. There was also a meat market, the Princeton Hotel, and a steam operated flouring mill. Rounding out the community was an M.E. Church and a schoolhouse.

On May 5, 1873, the San Francisco Bulletin announced that "the Princeton, Colusa and Grand Island Telegraph Company has opened an office at Boggs' ranch and at Princeton today". "There is great rejoicing and jolly time over the event here", it stated. In 1891, the community of Princeton was moved into Glenn County. During that time, the counties of Glenn and Colusa were split and Glenn County was created from the northern part of Colusa County. However, on July 5, 1893, Princeton was removed from Glenn County by an Act of the California Legislature and was once again in Colusa County due to a boundary line change. And although this situation occurred for only two years, it must have caused confusion for the residents of Princeton. However, in all probability, the hard-working citizens persevered. The community of Colusa will be featured in August. Note: Those who remember the late Wilson Dillard (journalist, editor, etc.) may recall the story he often told about an incident while he was attending a gathering. It appears each person was asked to stand and tell the audience which school he or she attended. Dillard simply answered "Princeton" when it was his turn. After all, he was a graduate of Princeton High School, wasn't he? I can still recall his smile.

THE Brownsville Bailiwick & Beyond

The calendar committee of Yuba Feather Historical Assn. really got on the ball this year. The new 2018 calendars are out and for sale at Books & More and at the Y. F. Museum in Forbestown. Each calendar has a dozen great pictures from our past as well as interesting facts from local history. The calendar costs $10 and helps support the museum; they make great gifts. The museum is open on weekend afternoons from noon to 4 and docents there are very happy to see visitors. The two ice cream socials to be held there this month are July 16 and 29.

Happy Independence Day! As you celebrate today, please be safe. Be aware of the fire danger and the scores of people on the road. We'll see you at the Foothill firehouse for the BBQ, raffle and fireworks.

Look Back in Time – In 1905 W. C. Ruff and the Devol brothers of Rack-erby were delivering berries, fruits and vegetables with their teams (please buy from a local farmers market, either Brownsville or Oregon House/Dobbins on Saturday mornings).

We hope to see you in Brownsville soon.

Food and Farm News

Heat wave impacts will take time to assess

It will be weeks, if not months, before California farmers can fully assess the impacts of the recent heat wave that hit many parts of the state. Harvest time will tell the story for most crops. Growers of processing tomatoes, for example, anticipate possible reduced yields. One farm advisor noted a positive outcome of the extreme temperatures: It could help tomato-plant breeders refine their efforts to develop heat-tolerant varieties.

Sweet-corn harvest accelerates to meet holiday demand

If you plan on enjoying corn on the cob this Fourth of July, California farmers have you covered. Sweet-corn harvest is going full speed, as retailers promote it ahead of the holiday. Some growers see sales volume quadruple during this time. Sweet corn is mostly harvested by hand and often at night when temperatures are lower. Once out of the field, the ears are kept cool so the kernels stay sweet and tender.

Food-price survey shows cookout cost drops slightly

Your Fourth of July cookout will cost less this year, according to an informal survey. The American Farm Bureau Federation checked the cost of hot dogs, cheeseburgers, pork spare ribs, potato salad, chocolate milk, watermelon and other cookout favorites, and found prices overall had dropped slightly from a year ago. Farm Bureau attributes the reduction mostly to lower on-farm prices for meat and dairy products.

Report labels California's rural roads as deficient, dangerous

California's rural roads rank among the worst in the U.S., according to a national report. The report finds California the third-worst in the nation for the condition of rural road – and that the rate of traffic fatalities on rural roads is the nation's second-highest. California Farm Bureau President Paul Wenger called for making transportation-system upgrades a priority, saying "the whole nation depends on rural California for food and farm products."

Is the Market Up or Down?

The markets go up, the markets do down. One expert says we are in the midst of a strong recovery while another expert says we are days away from financial Armageddon.

Who is right and why is there always so much disagreement?

It is human nature to disagree and with each opinion comes yet another.

The real question most investors are concerned with is not if there is an actual recovery but which way the markets may go.

For only in an up market do most investors make money. We could be in a recovery yet the markets could plummet, or we could be headed straight off a financial cliff and the markets could still be rallying. The truth lies in the fact most investors only really want to know which way the markets will go and if their stocks will go up in value.

I have always said the stock markets of the world will reflect reality eventually but that their day to day movements are only the result of the perception of all the millions of players in it on any given day and at any given moment.

For instance, while the housing market was starting to turn down in a big way in 2007, housing stocks were still going up, as most investors didn't see the coming crash and bought housing stocks right up until we were in the midst of the storm. The perception was that the real estate market was fine even though the statistics were starting to turn negative.

Housing stocks eventually reflected the reality of the bust and subsequently crashed and burned. One could draw the conclusion perception first kept housing stocks up then reality brought them down.

With that thought in mind, how do we know how much the markets of today are reflecting reality or just mirroring investor perception?

I like to parallel markets and economics with your personal finances except on a grander scale. By drawing certain comparisons to your daily financial challenges one might more correctly assess the macro economic picture in global stock markets and give us clues as to where we are actually headed.

Think of it this way. Imagine a neighbor who had new cars in his driveway and seemed to go on vacation every other month. His kitchen was recently remodeled and he wore the best clothes. Would you assume he was wealthy or would a part of you wonder whether he just was up to his eyeballs in debt? Your perception might be quite different than his actual financial reality.

Now fast forward to what you think you know as to the degree of consumer and government debt that exists today. What conclusions might you draw as to how healthy our economy really is? Are we running on the fumes of excessive debt or is the economic engine of America firing on all cylinders? Is the stock market running on perception or reflecting reality?

Answer these questions and you might be one step closer to assessing the financial health of our economy and therefore have a better indication which way the stock market will go in the near and far future.

Pirates of the Caribbean Dead Men Tell No Tales

Starring: Johnny Depp, Geoffrey Rush and Javier Bardem.

Rated: PG-13, Runtime: 129 minutes.

This is somewhere between the forth and thirty-eighth Pirates of the Caribbean movie. All of them starring Johnny Depp, who by now may actually be Jack Sparrow. In this film, Sparrow, and his crew are mere steps ahead of certain and outlandishly costumed death as they seek to free themselves from many of the myriad of curses that tend to afflict those that make a life of raping and pillaging on the high seas. Many new characters and a few of the old show up, as well as a surprisingly cohesive and entertaining story line.

The story rolls along with some of the longest action sequences I have seen in some time. The acting is pleasant to watch and the jokes are decently indecent. The special effects are just plain freaky good.

Pirates of the Caribbean: Dead Men Tell No Tales, earns four out of five, Compass Toting Monkeys.

This is a fun movie to sit through even if you are not a fan of the franchise and especially fun if you are a fan. One fan next to me was vibrating with excitement at end she was so happy how it turned out. That, is a reason to go to the movies. To see others enjoy this life and to share that experience even with strangers is truly something special.

Trash Clean-up Day

This is Louise Dunn correcting the MIS-INFORMATION that was given to us about Olivehurst trash clean-up day. We called Recology, who told US we had to get paperwork, fill it out and send it back in before elderly or disabled could get "curbside trash" picked up.

We called them back the next day and were told that they didn't know who gave us that information and that it was incorrect.

We were then told Recology does NOT actually handle this, they only receive the trash, and that you have to call your supervisor's office. We called. They said there is NO paperwork involved, you only have to itemize everything you put out on the curb, have a disabled placard and be elderly. (What if you are elderly and don't have a placard?)

The point is Nobody advertised or put out information on this event so that people could prepare. You only had 3 days to call if you wanted this service. When a short article finally appeared in the paper, one of those days had already passed.

If there is help out there, for the people who need it, WHY isn't the information made available, and in a timely manner?

Are Firefighters to Blame for SRA Fees?

by Rick Nolle a Broker-Associate with Century 21 Cornerstone Realty in Penn Valley, California.

He had a career in the high technology industry before moving to the Sierra Foothills, is a former Director for the Penn Valley Fire Protection District and is currently Chairman of the Fire Safe Council of Nevada County.

Why do some people blame firefighters for something they didn't do?

For some odd reason, there a mistaken belief by some property owners that firefighters are responsible for the State Responsibility Area (SRA) Fire Fee of $117.33. Homeowners are required to pay the SRA Fire Fee annually to assist with fire mitigation around their homes and properties in our rural areas.

In fact, in June 2011, it was California lawmakers that approved the fee to avoid a budget cut for firefighting by the State Agency, CAL FIRE. As to whether the amount being levied is legally a fee or a tax is the subject of an ongoing debate and legal wrangling in the courts. If it is a fee, according to Proposition 26, which was passed in 2010, the law requires that any fee collected must be used directly for the benefit of those paying it.

Regardless of the legalities involved, it significantly contributes to the essential fire prevention work that must be done to keep people, property, and natural resources safer from wildfire. Not only in Nevada County, but throughout the State of California outside of city limits in State Responsibility Areas.

In order to help the people of Nevada County receive the benefits of the money raised by this fee, the Fire Safe Council of Nevada County, among other organizations, applies for grants to obtain funds to assist low-income seniors, the elderly, and the disabled. In addition to helping those who can't do the fire prevention work themselves, the Fire Safe Council also provides Defensible Space Advisory visits completely free to homeowners.

The grants received by the Fire Safe Council in recent years have enabled it to do a lot of other valuable wildfire mitigation work as well. The chipping program, community scale fire-breaks, felling of dead trees, and so on.

Unfortunately, there is not enough money available for the Fire Safe Council to be able to provide all the assistance it would like to. But thanks to the generosity of local donors, and the work of volunteers, they continue to offer many free services to help homeowners to protect themselves and their homes in the event of wildfire.

So, the next time you see firefighters, please remember to thank them for the extraordinary job they do to help us when we're most in need. With these additional resources, they can continue to work to prevent fires or make them easier to extinguish when they are ignited.

Be Safe From Dogs

In light of the pit bull dog attacks that have made front page news, and it seems people still want to own these killers.

I am 76 years old and ride around on an electric power chair. I was surfing the web looking for some protection from dogs. I was thinking about 22 pistol loaded with bird shot but I found something safer called a dog mace. It comes in an aerosol can and has a range of 18 feet. It is called Muzzle and it is made to repel dogs.

Now I have never used it on a pit bull but it should even slow them down. Since the law won't protect us we must protect ourselves.

Fourth of July Leftovers

by Lou Binninger

In Southern California street-side interviews most people could not answer basic questions about the origin of the July 4th holiday. What happened and in what year? From what nation was independence declared? Why? Their answers were wrong, way wrong.

There is much skepticism as to whether government schools even place significant value on informing students about the Declaration of Independence and the harrowing times encompassing the drafting and signing of our founding document. Some on the left would rather it be forgotten and discarded. Fortunately early Americans saw it differently.

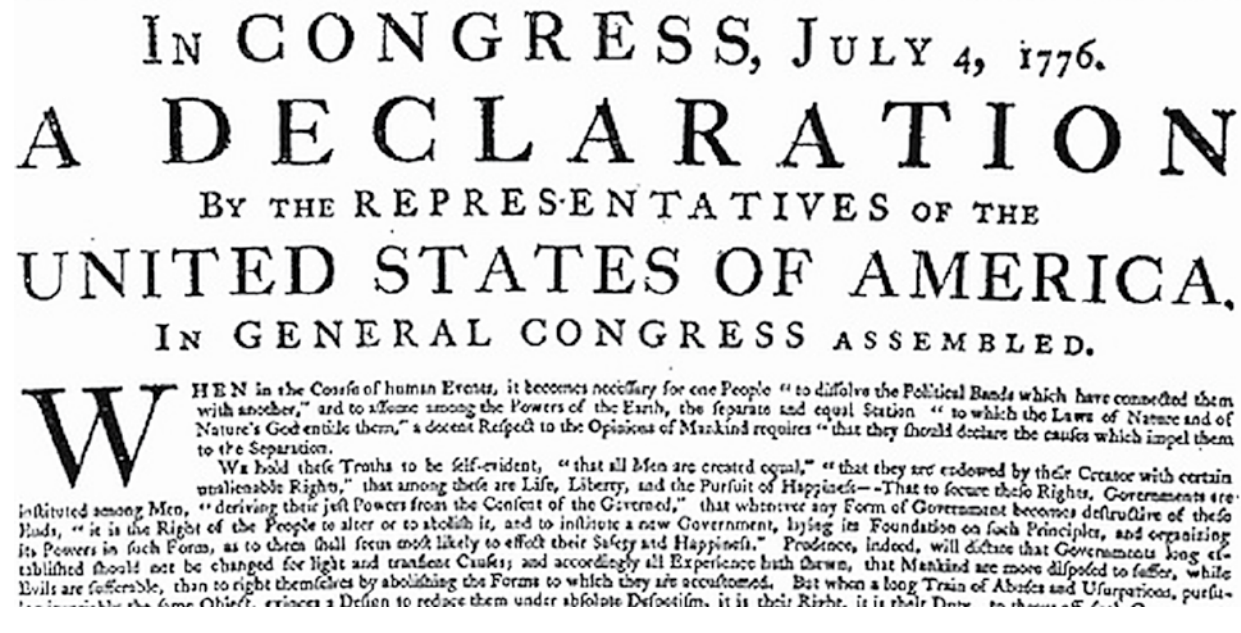

After the adoption of the Declaration of Independence, the "Committee of Five"—Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, Roger Sherman and Robert R. Livingston—was charged with overseeing the reproduction of the approved text. This was completed at the shop of Philadelphia printer John Dunlap.

On July 5, Dunlap's copies were dispatched across the 13 colonies to newspapers, local officials and the commanders of the Continental troops. These now rare documents, known as "Dunlap Broad-sides," predate the engrossed version signed by all the delegates. Of the hundreds thought to have been printed on the night of July 4, only 26 copies survive. Most are held in museum and library collections, but three are privately owned.

Dunlap's Broadside included the signatures of just 2 of the eventual 56 signers, John Hancock and Charles Thomson. The later Goddard Broadside printed by Mary Katherine Goddard in 1777 showed all the signatures.

In 1989, a Philadelphia man found an original Dunlap Broadside of the Declaration hidden in the back of a picture frame he bought at a flea market for $4. One of the few surviving copies from Dunlap's official first printing it was in excellent condition and sold for $8.1 million in 2000. A 26th known Dunlap Broadside emerged at the British National Archives in 2009, hidden for centuries in a box of papers captured from American colonists during the Revolutionary War.

On July 9, 1776, when Dunlap's Broadside reached New York City it caused a riot. As hundreds of British naval ships occupied New York Harbor, revolutionary and military tensions were running high. George Washington, commander of the Continental forces in New York, read the document aloud in front of City Hall.

A raucous crowd cheered the inspiring words, and later that day tore down a nearby statue of King George III. The statue was then melted and turned into more than 42,000 musket balls to equip the American army.

Although the document arrived in New York City to be proclaimed, the New York (NY) delegation to the Second Continental Congress was the lone hold-out among the 13 colonies to give their agreement to the Declaration. NY representatives had yet to receive permission from the New York Provincial Congress. However, after the Broadside arrived and the resulting impact they voted to embrace the cause and add the names of New Yorkers.

Opponents to independence and / or elements of the Declaration produced and circulated their own pamphlets. Some questioned how American slaveholders in the Continental Congress could agree that "all men are created equal" and still own slaves.

William Whipple, of New Hampshire, a signer who fought in the war, freed his slave, Prince Whipple, because of his revolutionary ideals. He concluded that no man could fight for freedom while holding another in bondage.

In the postwar decades, other slaveholders also freed their slaves; from 1790 to 1810, the percentage of free blacks in the Upper South increased to 8.3 percent from less than one percent of the black population. All Northern states abolished slavery by 1804.

However, as other "slave states" applied to join the union, slavery continued to be bitterly contested. Abolitionist legislators wanted to reject admission of any states permitting the practice.

In the 19th century, the Declaration took on a special significance for the abolitionist movement. Abolitionists tended to interpret the Declaration of Independence as a theological as well as a political document.

For radical abolitionists like William Lloyd Garrison, the most important part of the Declaration was its assertion of the right of revolution. Garrison called for the destruction of the government under the Constitution, and the creation of a new state dedicated to the principles of the Declaration.

For those who think the 4th is about barbecue, beer and bud it's a shame if they missed the bravery, wisdom and provocative times that shaped who we are.

Your One Minute News Digest

by Don Rae

presidential candidate Pocahontas claims the Republicans are going to kill off the middle class. How this so-called intelligent Senator is blind to the fact that socialist policies have kick-started the country down the road to ruin. Millions are not even looking for jobs, health care policy premiums are unaffordable and thousands in deductibles are required before insurance kicks in, illegal aliens are roaming the country committing crimes against citizens, and on and on. Warren is from Massachusetts and should know the unhappy history of the Pilgrim's 1620 colony to impose socialism by Governor William Bradford. Failed miserably. Doesn't she know her own state's history?

- How Democrats think (?) is evident in the Georgia 6 race. First it was a referendum on Trump and the Republicans will go down in flames. But as the results came in, they said "Oh, it really doesn't matter, it's only a local result." Sort of like the left's climate change stupidity. The Ice Age is coming in the 70s; global warming only a few short years ago. Now it is climate change caused by people. They can't keep their stories straight.

• Of course the mainstream lamebrains went into a tizzy-fit over Trump's cabinet meeting recently. Some said it was like a Communist country where subordinates lavishly praise their leader. The press forgot, conveniently, that Obama did the same with his early focus groups in his first month in office. Even earlier Clinton got his cabinet together to tell him that all the reporting on Lewinsky was a lie and the cabinet members lavishly praised him and excoriated the press. Well, that didn't work so well, did it?

- Over 60 years ago, President Harry Truman obliquely referred to the problem of the Deep State. Contemplating the election of Dwight (Ike) Eisenhower as president in 1952, Truman said: “Poor, Ike — it won’t be a bit like the Army. He’ll sit here and he’ll say, ‘Do this! Do that!’ And nothing will happen.” Sound like what is happening today?

- The only haters are those who continually call others haters.

- “The University of California, Riverside may become one of the first universities in the country to implement a mandatory gender studies program on campus. (Calfornia has created by fiat, what the Lord did not in seven days a new gender—male, female and undecided.) To train our tender young that this fantasy world is real, is more important than biological facts and history.

• It matters not what the weather conditions are, scientists – or at least those who call themselves scientists – blame it on “climate change.” Remember, climate change is the new term for “global warming.” This time a Canadian scientist cancelled an Arctic expedition due to thick ice conditions. “We’re doing a large-scale climate change study and before we can even get going on it, climate change is conspiring to force us to cancel that study,” David Barber, told The Guardian.

• George Runner issued a statement in response to Moonbeam's budget that would strip the Board of Equalization of nearly all its current functions. "Taxpayers must be warned: the so-called 'Transparency and Fairness' legislation announced today by the very politicians who just voted to raise your gas tax, is neither transparent nor fair. This last-minute budget power grab would strip California taxpayers of their right to bring their tax appeals before their elected peers. In its place the bill would establish yet another unelected and costly tax bureaucracy." Just a note, Runner is a Republican who has been vocally critical of Moonbeam since his election to the Board.

• 7.5 years and $2 million to build a 400 sq. ft. bathroom? In New York it does. Oh, the Empire State building took less than one year to build—but that was before the socialist takeover of the city. Think about the years of work and millions it is taking the Bullards Bar dam to be “recertified.” Bureaucratic claptrap.

- Is she really this stupid? Hillary is reported to have said: the best means of fighting against terrorism is to “reach out to the world” and “understand” foreign people, their culture, their religion and their food. “Getting to know one another. Learning about the experiences, the lives, the cultures, the religions, the food,” she said.

- A California court dismissed almost all of the criminal charges Attorney General Xavier Becerra filed against the pro-life advocates who recorded undercover videos exposing Planned Parenthood selling the body parts from aborted babies. Will Becerra be held accountable for his bringing false charges against conservatives?

Governor Brown signed a record setting budget - $183 billion - that Sacramento Democrats packed with pork and pet projects. Senate Budget Vice Chairman, Senator Jim Nielsen (R-Tehama), issued the following statement:

“Negotiated behind closed doors, this budget shows the Democrats’ priorities, and clearly, the taxpayers of California are not high on that list.

“Money promised to voters to improve health-care and increase access to doctors is being diverted to fund other priorities.

“The California state budget, funded by hard-working taxpayers, commits $50 million to pay

Take Back America Campaign

by Roger Morgan Chairman/Founder, Take Back America Campaign

OPEN LETTER TO REPUBLICANS AND ROGER STONE

Californians have had enough! Because our government has gone rogue and become the largest cartel in existence, supplying 60 to 70% of the entire US market with marijuana, we have had an influx of druggies from all over the world. Now, Republican lobbyist Roger Stone plans to create his own pot farm called “Tricky Dick”, and lobby congress and the President to make it legal. One more drug dealer seeking fortunes on the backs of our youth. Since even conspiring to violate federal CSA laws is a crime, perhaps Stone should be fitted for an orange jumpsuit, along with a few others.

If you don't understand the problem, you can't fix it. So, let's talk candidly about the problem.

The march to legalize this dangerous drug really got underway during the Clinton years. The plan was orchestrated in 1996 and subsequently funded for 20 years by America's Drug Lord, George Soros. Working, in his words, as a team with Bill and Hillary, he crafted and helped fund the propaganda campaign that duped California voters into passing Prop 215, "The Compassionate Use Act." In reality, it had nothing to do with compassion. President Clinton could have, and should have, stopped its implementation. But then, Clintons were part of the "team."

Working together, Soros, Hillary and Harold Ekes, formed the Shadow Party. By using the IRS 527 loophole, they found a way to invest significant funds into organizations that backed their political purposes, without directly financing politicians. According to The Shadow Party writ-for free legal services to individuals who are in the United States illegally, including those who have committed violent felonies.

“This budget is filled with broken promises made by Sacramento Democrats when they passed the massive new $52 BILLION gas and car tax; it takes gas and car tax money that they promised would go to roads, highways and bridges and uses it to fund lifeguard and park ranger recruitment, state park maintenance, and local park operations, to name just a few examples.

"Nowhere in this budget is any money to repair our levees that were damaged as a result of the Oroville Dam spillway failure. Our people and economy depend on reliable water infrastructure; we must have continuous funding in the state budget."

*Senate Budget Vice Chairman, Senator Jim

ten by David Horowitz and Richard Poe, in 2003. Eli Pariser, Executive Director of Soros' MOVEON.ORG, proclaimed "We bought the Democratic Party. We own it." And so it seems. To the detriment of citizens of both parties, the Democratic party has made legalization of marijuana a party plank. Except for a few Republicans defectors like Rorhabacher and McClintock, the Democratic Party owns the drug problem. The question is, where are the Republicans?

One third of American families (85 million people) are directly impacted by a family member who has a mental illness or is addicted. Gang members outpace law enforcement two to one. America is last (24th) among industrialized nations academically, with a one-third dropout rate. According to UC Santa Barbara research, the life time cost of one high school dropout is $392,000. Multiply that by 1.3 million dropouts, and the annual cost is about $500 billion. Add public sector costs for physical and mental health care, the justice system, traffic deaths at $1.4 million each, homelessness, incarceration et al, and the economic cost is well over $1 trillion a year ... for a preventable disease. Nothing in modern history compares in terms of death, destruction, pain, suffering and economic cost; and nothing offers a greater opportunity to save lives and tax dollars. Yet, it isn't even on the Republican radar. Why not?

Marijuana causes physical changes in the developing brain for anyone under 25. It causes psychotic breaks leading to horrific crimes and suicide, mental illness, addiction, suicide, birth defects, cancer, and traffic deaths. Over 50% of arrestees test positive for pot. It is a gateway to crime, homelessness, academic failure, lost productivity and other drugs. It is tied directly to the pandemic of 144 overdose deaths every day from heroin and opioids. But overdose isn't the only cause of death, nor the only adverse outcome. Today's nuclear powered pot is very dangerous and can be lethal.

As to the State's rights for "medical marijuana", I challenge anyone, including the President, to define what is meant by the term. Marijuana is a fat-soluble complex drug with somewhere between 500 and 750 chemicals and cannabinoids. The potency (i.e. THC content) today ranges from 25% (+/-) in smoked form, 50 to 80% in edibles and almost 100% in oils and waxes used for dabbing and vaping.

CBD (cannabidiol), often called “medical marijuana”, is a non-psychoactive component that has medical benefits for some, but not all. Calling CBD “medical marijuana” is analogous to calling penicillin “medical moss”. To allow states to call pot “medicine” and consumers “patients” so the federal government won’t enforce the law is an outrage.

California doesn't want or need any more out-of-state drug dealers. What we do need is for the Republican Party to step up and support AG Sessions and enforce the law. If neither party is going to protect the people, it begs the question why do we need government at all?

Brownsville Classic Car Show Benefitting Autism Speaks

A classic car show, presented in a country fair atmosphere along with raffles, food, craft vendors and DJ, is scheduled for July 15, 2017 in the Historic Chestnut Grove, 8979 La Porte Road, Brownsville, 95919, 10:00 AM - 3:00 PM.

Admission is free. Approximately 50 classic cars owners are proud to show off their beautiful and lovingly restored autos.

Food vendors will include General Jim's Burgers, Red Wagon, Baker's Choice Kettle Corn, Sawyers Sweet Spot and Lion's Club of Loma Rica.

Craft Vendors will feature lawn art, Tupperware and Paparazzi Jewelry.

A Gas and Charcoal Hybrid BBQ Grill is just one of many raffle items generously donated by local businesses.

Anyone needing additional information may contact Linda Wooldridge, 530-675-9060, or by email, leadreclady@yahoo.com. No Pre-registration. Fee to show a car is $15.00. Registration is between 8 and 9:30 AM. All proceeds will be donated to Autism Speaks.

The goal of Autism Speaks is to change the future for all who struggle with an autism spectrum disorder. The non-profit group is dedicated to funding global biomedical research into the causes, prevention, treatments and a possible cure for autism. In addition, Autism Speaks strives to raise public awareness about autism and its effects on individuals, families and society; and they work to bring hope to all who deal with the hardships of this disorder. What Matters Most?

Submitted by Nancy Silva Nevada County Association of REALTORS

According to a study by Volunteering in America, volunteering is the perfect way to feel connected to your community and may hold the key to happiness. One of the major factors that tends to encourage high volunteer rates is attachment to a community by way of residence and home ownership. This is precisely what the Nevada County Association of Realtors® advocates. In fact, it is the tag line which is the inspiration printed on their community outreach tee shirts...

What Matters Most... "Family, Friends, Community and a sense of Home."

Not only an inspiration, but a commitment to their community and why Realtors® show up in mass to many civic events. It's not just about selling homes for the Realtors®, they also provide enormous social and economic value for our community as evidenced by their dedication with the "Round About Cleanup" on Saturday June 24th.

Along with volunteers from the Contractor's Association, City of Grass Valley, Realtor® Association Affiliates and members of the public, Realtors® donned their tee shirts, gardening gloves, and hats and while battling unseasonably high temperatures pull weeds, dug out the old, planted the new and spread ground cover. The cleanup took about 2 ½ hours and was well worth it. As 2017 Realtor® Association President, Amber Thompson said, "Volunteering is one of the ways Realtors® give back to maintain a strong, vibrant community. The roundabout cleanup was a perfect project as it is one of the entries off Hwy. 20, into our beautiful community, and a reflection our town. From the artwork that depicts the city's historic past, to the well thought out landscape design consisting of drought tolerant specimens, giving a nod to the future in promoting water conservation, it is a one of our town's jewels that requires polishing from time to time."

So, if you want to feel happy and give back to this wonderful community we live in, contact the Nevada County Association of Realtors at 530-272-2627 to join them on one of their build projects, fundraisers or community enhancement days or contact Volunteer Nevada County at <http://volunteernevadacounty.org/>. See you around and about!

MGM Troupe Brings World Music Festival to Yuba-Sutter

Featuring Guitarist and Singer, Michael Geiger Mackert & Friends

Marysville, Ca.
If you are a fan of World Music in all of its forms, you won't want to miss the MGM Troupe at Yuba Sutter Arts featuring headliner, Michael Geiger Mackert. It's all a part of Yuba Sutter Arts Summer Music Series. The musical odyssey will be held at The Burrows Theater at Yuba Sutter Arts in Marysville on July 21, 2017, beginning at 7:30 pm.

Michael is a guitarist and singer and specializes in Flamenco and Classical Spanish guitar, but also enjoys other international styles of music. He will perform popular selections of Bossa Nova, Latin Bolero, Scottish-Celtic and even some Folk, Country and Pop tunes.

Joining Michael for the concert and adding to the evening's eclectic mix will be performances by special guest artists "Oasis Musical" whose members include Mario Alonso Ospina, Maria Berenice Hoyos, and Salome' Ospina Hoyos. Each member of "Oasis Musical" is a formally trained and accomplished musician in his or her own right; Mario on tenor saxophone, Maria Berenice on cello, guitar, and vocals, and Salome' on the piano.

Collectively, this ensemble of featured musicians for the concert is being presented as "MGM Troupe."

The musical selections for the concert reflect a "world music" approach and will represent a wide variety from classical to pop to folk to indie rock and Celtic.

Michael grew up studying and performing the various styles of music of North America and then began experiencing and learning about the music and cultures of the British Isles, Colombia, Spain, and Portugal.

Michael said, "It is important for me to share this rich musical heritage with people of all ages and backgrounds and to show how the common bond of good music, in all its many different forms, can help bring greater understanding between people."
"My hope and dream

is that we will have audience members of all ages and walks of life that will relate to the music and then leave the concert with a song in their hearts and smiles on their faces, having been culturally enriched by a live music experience," added Michael.

Friday, July 21st at The Burrows Theater at Yuba Sutter Arts, 630 E Street in Marysville. Tickets are $15 for adults, $10 Military & Seniors, and free for Student. Plenty of free parking is available on the streets adjacent to the theatre and at the Umpqua Bank and Bank of America parking lots directly across the street. Come support live music in the community and enjoy these gifted musicians.

YCWA Introduces New Program

welcomes summer interns

Every day, the Yuba County Water Agency provides benefits to the Yuba County community. The agency's mission covers flood protection, water supply, fisheries protection and enhancement, hydroelectric generation, and provides recreational opportunities at New Bulbards Bar Reservoir.

YCWA also supports the community through an array of programs directly related to its mission, including the recent establishment of a college internship program for students who live or have returned to the area for the summer.

Beginning in early June, YCWA's new internship program provides an opportunity for students to gain a better understanding of YCWA's operations and responsibilities, while building their skills, and in the process, learning about job opportunities in Yuba County.

This summer, YCWA welcomes two college students who are working at the Agency.

"It is great to have our local college students come home to work with the Yuba County Water Agency," said YCWA Board Chairman Brent Hastey. "I am eager to see this program grow and give young adults the opportunity to learn about the Agency and all that it does for our community."

Alyson Zoellin, 20, attends San Diego State University. A 2015 graduate of Sutter High School, Zoellin is studying environmental science, with an emphasis in watershed management.

As an intern, she is assisting with data collection and analysis of river and canal flows, reservoir and groundwater levels, and river temperatures.

"This internship at YCWA fits right in with my coursework at San Diego State," said Zoellin. "I look forward to learning more about the watershed management field."

In her free time, Zoellin is an avid runner, and likes to spend time at the beach and exploring cities like San Francisco.

Tyler Bos, 21, attends Pennsylvania State University and is working toward a degree in electrical engineering, but is currently living in Brownsville for the summer.

During his internship, Bos is supporting YCWA's hydropower generation facilities, their operations and system performance.

"I like the variety of work that goes on at YCWA, and hydropower generation is interesting," said Bos. "I have already learned a lot about the industry and look forward to the rest of my time here."

When he is not at work or in the classroom, Bos enjoys target shooting and taking drives to Gettysburg, or anywhere he can find nice roads complemented by great views.

YCWA plans to build this program, and offer even more college students the opportunity to learn not only about YCWA, but the Yuba River and Yuba County.

If you, or anyone that you know is interested in an internship, please contact YCWA at 530-741-5000 or send an email to info@ycwa.com. And be sure to follow YCWA on Facebook and Twitter @YubaWater for news and future updates.

health in Yuba County

Health is an important factor in any community. But what are the biggest issues faced by Yuba County residents? In a recent survey conducted 48.2% of community respondents felt illegal drug use was a top concern alongside homelessness (36.5%) and obesity (25.6%). In Yuba County, 31.7% of children live in poverty and 24.8% of residents are obese. These are just a few factors that impact the health and quality of life of Yuba County residents.

A Furry, Furry Night Fundraiser

AnimalSave's fourth annual "A Furry, Furry Night" fund raising event will be held at the AnimalSave Center on Saturday, July 8. "A Furry, Furry Night" is dedicated to the dogs and cats we rescue and place in loving, forever homes.

Last year's event was a howling success, netting $30,000. Based on last year's attendance and how much folks enjoyed it, we expect the event to be sold out, so get your tickets early!

Organized by the Friends of AnimalSave Committee, "A Furry, Furry Night" will include a live and silent auction, a no-host bar and dinner catered by Christopher's. Dream and The Dreamer will provide the evening's entertainment with music for your listening and dancing enjoyment. We are pleased to have John Renwick, with Re/Max Realty, join us again this year as our Master of Ceremonies and auctioneer.

Gather a group of friends and plan for an evening of food and fun, go home with some great auction items and help AnimalSave help the animals.

Auction items include art by local artists, jewelry, tree trimming by Tim the Tree Man, gift certificates to local restaurants, theaters and stores; garden art, wine and food baskets from local wineries and grocers, a ride to the doughnut shop with Chief Gammelgard, seven-night resort condominium accommodations for four people in Cancun and Maui, an after-hours private tasting party at The Olive Groove, golf packages from Alta Sierra Country Club and the Nevada County Country Club, a Lake Tahoe adventure, professional cleaning by Encore Carpet Cleaning and many more items.

We are thankful to our generous sponsors Robert and Carol Hamilton, The Union, Diana Bailey, Brunswick Veterinary Clinic, Carolyn Niehaus, Gayle and Leo Granucci, LangeTwins Family Winery & Vineyards, Peters' Drilling and Pump Service, SPD Markets, Dennis and Linda Burbridge, Caliber Collision, Larry and Judi Hirtzel, Lagunitas Brewing Company, Clare McDowell, Sims, Lawrence & Arruti; The Canine Coach, Sperry Van Ness Highland Commercial, and Pioneer Motors.

Proceeds from "A Furry, Furry Night" will help fund AnimalSave's animal rescue and welfare programs. AnimalSave's primary programs include the Low-Cost Spay/Neuter Clinic that has altered over 16,000 dogs and cats in the past nine years and its Foster/Adoption Program that rescues and finds homes for more than 250 dogs and cats each year.

We are very excited about unveiling Penny's Place - the soon to open old and special needs cat sanctuary that will provide longer-term housing for harder to adopt cats.

Veteran's Stand Down Poker Run

The original Stand Down for the homeless veterans was modeled after the Stand Down concept used during the Vietnam War to provide a safe retreat for units returning from combat operations. At secure base camp areas, troops were able to take care of personal hygiene, get clean uniforms, enjoy warm meals, receive medical and dental care, mail and receive letters, and enjoy the camaraderie of friends in a safe environment. Stand Down afforded battle-weary soldiers the opportunity to renew their spirit, health and overall sense of well-being. Stand Down is an intervention that was conceived from the ground up specifically for veterans. It is designed to transform the despair and immobility of homeless into the momentum necessary to get into recovery, to resolve legal issues, to seek employment, to access health and benefits, to reconnect with the community and to get off the streets...

The Veteran's Stand Down Poker Run is a fund raiser to help support the mobile kitchen used to feed veteran's breakfast, lunch and dinner for the three days of the Stand Down, August 24, 25 and 26.

To sign in for the July 15th run be at the Museum of the Forgotten Warriors. N. Beale Rd. to A Street, east of Yuba College between 9:00 to 11 a.m. The run will end at the American Legion Linda Post #807, 5477 Feather River Blvd. Olivehurst. A donation of $20 per person/$30per couple includes lunch. Again all proceeds will go to the Yuba-Sutter Stand Down Mobile Kitchen.

All bikes are welcome, for more information call: Gary 530-742-5992, Tony 530-300-6739 or Strollin 530-682-0330

Life Jacket Loaner Program

Yuba City, Ca.
The Sutter County Children & Families Commission has launched a new partnership with Sutter Deputy Sheriff's Association and the County of Sutter to provide a Life Jacket Loaner Program for infants and toddlers under the age of 5. Life jackets are available at the Live Oak and Tisdale boat launch facilities in Sutter County and can be borrowed for the day.

According to the World Health Organization, drowning is the 3rd leading cause of unintentional death worldwide. The highest drowning rates globally are among children 1-4 years of age, followed by children 5-9 years of age. "With area rivers running high and swift, our Commission and valued Partners saw an opportunity to improve the safety of Sutter County's youngest residents during these warm summer months," said Michele Blake, Executive Director for the Sutter County Children & Families Commission. "We're here to make sure our community's youngest residents are not only meeting milestones, but are as safe as possible."

A total of ten life jackets will be available for loan at each location, 5 infant (up to 30 lbs.) and 5 toddler (30-50 lbs).

To ensure the longevity of the program the Partnership is relying on the honors system. "For the program to be successful, the borrowed life jackets must be returned at the end of each use," said Blake.

The Sutter Deputy Sheriff's Association will monitor the life jackets, the sign boards where the jackets hang and will replace any damaged or missing life jackets. "Each life jacket is branded with 'Property of Sutter Deputy Sheriff's Association'" said Sutter Deputy Sheriff's Association President, Lester Eaton. "If we can help save the life of one child on the river this Summer, then we'll have accomplished our mission," said Eaton.

The signs were approved by the Sutter County Board of Supervisors in May and were installed through a partnership with Sutter County Public Works. The Commission hopes to add more Life Jacket Loaner Program locations next Spring.

64th Annual Live Oak Festival Looking for Vendors

Live Oak, Ca.
Vendors are sought for the 64th annual Live Oak Festival slated for Saturday, September 16, 2017 at Live Oak's Memorial Park. Festivities begin with a parade at 10 AM through the town's historic commercial district. Activities at the park, Pennington Rd and O

Street begin at 11 AM and conclude at 9 PM. The day includes entertainment provided by various local groups, children's entertainment, which includes a Bicycle Rodeo sponsored by County of Sutter Public Health, Craft & Food Vendors and the fabulous vintage Don Bright Memorial Car Show. These classic beauties and street rods are "100% FUN".

Special Visitors from San Francisco!

On Friday May 19th Marysville was honored to have over 20 visitors from San Francisco. PKS (Presidio Knolls School) A Mandarin spoken school, pre-school to 5th graders. Getting ready to travel with their fourth graders to China next year they felt it was important for the students to see firsthand history. Their visit to Marysville's Chinatown is part of a history project to connect the students with when the Chinese first came to California. Local groups on hand to greet the students and their escorts. The students first toured The American Chinese Museum of Northern California, Gordon Tom guided the tour and shared his experience of growing up as a child in Chinatown. The Chinese School was the next stop where the students enjoyed the school even though it is in the restoration process both Larry Bird, President of Friends of the Bok Kai and Ric Lim, President of the Chinese Community explained to the students of its history and importance to the Chinese Community, the tour ended with a visit to the Bok Kai Temple, Ric Lim took the students in and he shared the history. Sue Cejner Moyers, member of Yuba County History Resource Commission was on hand to entertain them with a puppet show. Judy Mann President of the Marysville-Peikang Sister City Group handed to each of the students "Welcome bags" filled with items donated from "The Sunsweet Grower Store", "The Candy Box" and "Visit Yuba Sutter". PKS hopes to implement this into their school program annually.

United Way Food Drive Tops 30,000 Pounds

In its sixth year, the Yuba-Sutter-Colusa United Way's Day of Action Food Drive continues to grow, achieving a record 30,708 pounds in donations during its three week drive ending on Saturday, June 24. Cash donations continued to roll in even after the official end date. The event included nearly three weeks of collections in the community, followed by a one day at three drop-off locations: SavMor in Colusa, Tracey's Diner in Marysville and Grocery Outlet in Yuba City. More than 100 volunteers were involved in the collection and sorting process. Eleven food closets in Yuba, Sutter and Colusa counties will benefit from 100% of the donations made by businesses, gov- ernment offices and individuals. Summertime is a down time for donations of cash and food products to our local food closets and the demand is greater.

Canna Delivers Tops Local Office Donations

The recent Yuba-Sutter-Colusa Day of Action food drive topped it's projected goal thanks to hundreds of area employers and individuals. Ranking as the top business donor for food donations was Canna Delivers, which generously donated 683 pounds of nutritious foods gathered recently from their customers in the local area! "Our members are deeply concerned about our community and want to roll up their sleeves and help in any way they can. This will be an ongoing effort to help those less fortunate while building a strong volunteer and charitable base in our community," said President Paul Rogers. Canna Delivers is a California mutual benefit, non-profit corporation operating under strict state laws to deliver cannabis to nearly 7000 card carrying members over the past seven years. "Our goal is to provide a ton of food for the homeless every six months. This donation will help us toward that goal," said Rogers. Rogers says Canna Delivers is looking for people who have an interest in volunteering or would like to contribute food. You can email them at: info@cannadelivers.com.
