

It's Fair Time

77th Annual Colusa County Fair

Countdown to the 77th annual Colusa County Fair starts now. In just one short week the celebration will open for the annual four-day run of June 9-12.

Fair CEO Jonathan Howard said the excitement is really starting to build. "We've made so many changes and improvements to the grounds, added some exciting new entertainment and we are bringing back some favorites as we follow our theme; Homemade, Homegrown, History," said Howard.

"Its about recapturing our history, revisiting some of the past favorites, but at the same time, moving forward to make new memories of our own," he said.

Some of the old-time favorite rides will be at the fair including the Tilt-a-Whirl, The Hammer and the Ferris Wheel. Favorite entertainers like Keith Bear and Flo the Clown are returning.

There are Miss Colusa County, Mini Miss Colusa County and Mr. Cinderella pageants returning along with the annual crowd pleasing destruction derby.

"But add to the mix things like Sacred Fire, a dance group that mixes fire dance with multiple styles of dance and music infused with myth and fantasy to create a unique story told through movement and it is a whole new look to the fair. "There's Riccardo Alonzo; a speed painter who incorporates martial arts into his act. All military personnel will be honored with free fair admission and a concert by the United States Air Force Band of the Golden West at 6pm on Saturday, June 11," Howard said.

For the first time in many years there will be a major show at the Grandstands Stage when "Who's Bad", the ultimate Michael Jackson Experience and Prince tribute, takes stage on Saturday night, June 11. The stage is new and there is now floor seating and VIP box seats in the offering as well.

Kid's World is bigger and will have ongoing activities for families. "Plus it is now shaded and a great place for weary parents to relax while the kids have a great time," said Howard. "There will be kid's tractor races, pig races and ongoing contest with Flo and Freddie Prez.

The Kiddie Parade and Fair Parade are back on Friday evening, and the Chef's Challenge is also scheduled for Friday night. Three area restaurants will compete for a $500 prize in a timed competition similar to the television show "Chopped". This event is hosted by the Colusa Casino Resort and orchestrated by the Casino's Executive Chef Keith Erickson.

"We just can't wait for our guests to arrive. There is so much to see, and the changes to the grounds are amazing," said Howard. "If you want to take a look at some of the video's of what the Colusa County Fair has coming; visit our website at www.colusa-countyfair.com," said Howard. "We have great entertainment this year".

Yuba County Clustered Development On Hold

by Elden Fowler

Residential density and clustering in the foothills, once again, has become a hot topic as it pertains to Yuba County's Development Code for rural and agricultural areas. The Planning Commission was scheduled to hear the "Clustered Development" plan at the regularly scheduled May 16th meeting.

Residential clustering development is the grouping of residential properties in a development plan that uses the extra land as open space, or includes recreation or agriculture.

However, those plans were halted when County Council pulled the matter from the agenda after the Planning Commission received a 20 page letter from a San Francisco law firm which seemingly shreds the County's plan.

The letter states "The projects proposes a massive "up-zone" of the County's rural and agricultural areas east of the Loma Rica/Browns Valley Community Boundary." The letter continues "the project is flatly inconsistent with the General Plan policies limiting density and prohibiting clustering outside of Rural Community Boundaries.

County Council acknowledged receiving the letter from the firm Shute, Mihaly & Weinberger and, in response, decided the matter should be studied further to evaluate the claims. A decision to bring the matter before the Commission again, or not at all, will be made at a later date after a full review.

The letter raises a host of issues to be considered. Does the Project violate the California Environmental Quality Act? It states "The Initial Study/Negative Declaration's (IS/ND) description of the project is incomplete, and its characterization of the Project as merely implementing the General Plan is misleading and inaccurate." Secondly it states the "IS/ND completely ignores the Project's inconsistency with the policies protecting the rural character of the foothills and mountainous areas...." Third, the letter states the IS/ND glosses over potentially significant impacts, particularly impacts related to inconsistency with the General Plan, the loss of agricultural lands, increased wildfire risks, and groundwater supply. Lastly, the letter states "the IS/ND entirely ignores the Project's potential cumulative impacts."

The San Francisco Law Firm also expressed an opinion on Planning Commissioner Warner Phillips stating "Commissioner Phillips has a conflict and must recuse himself from participating in decision-making on this project." The letter states "The Political Reform Act prohibits public officials from "making, participating in or in any way attempting to use their official position to influence a governmental decision in which they know or have reason to know they have a financial interest."

As documented in the letter, according to the County Assessor's Office, Phillips owns

Lies and Damned Lies

– Commentary

by Lou Binninger

Most politicians are self-serving liars who spend a good amount of time deceiving their constituents. They will do anything to get elected and think far more highly of their importance than they ought.

They commonly violate the Brown Act open meeting law making deals in secret since they know there is no enforcement. Their public discourse is often mere theatrics as their deed has been done in private.

Since the government intrudes into every aspect of our lives most businesses seeking regulatory relief take care of candidates financially to succeed. So, it is no wonder why our entire government is corrupted and the precious dollars removed from hard-working citizens are wasted. Meanwhile the political party system is crippled....same cupcakes, different frosting.

Politicians like Barbara LeVake when rejected by voters are given influential committee assignments. The political class takes care of their people. Incredibly, after defeat and contrary to voters' wishes LeVake was even given her county supervisor job back by Assemblyman James Gallagher.

Whether you hate or love Trump he exposed the political Kabuki dance. Like addicts threatened with going 'cold turkey', party leaders detest life without the power, pomp and payola.

In our current election the local strategy of desperate candidates is to slander their opponent with a marijuana lie. Sutter County Supervisor Barbara LeVake alleges that challenger Liz Cervantes is pro-marijuana, a nonsensical claim. Rumors are being spread by others that Sutter County Supervisor Ron Sullenger is a marijuana supplier. However, he supported the ordinance restricting outdoor plantings.

In Yuba County, an anonymous Lindhurst High student recorded radio ads for Mary Jane Griego. He claims her opponent Doug Lofton told a civics class that he wanted to make weed easily available to everyone in the county.

Civics instructor Robert Ledford said no such statements were made. Lindhurst officials are taking cover, not being used to Griego dragging their high school into a political contest.

Coping with the legalization and growing of marijuana for medical use has been a gnarly task for council members and supervisors. There have been code misfires and the average citizen is blurry-eyed trying to make sense of what is fair, right and legal. So, using the marijuana controversy has been perfect for the unscrupulous to shellac an opponent to sway public opinion.

Last election, Griego tagged her challenger Veronica Ramos with suggestions of being a drug dealer, welfare deadbeat and stripper. Griego kept the Appeal Democrat (AD) reporters busy chasing Ramos rumors. The AD's own public relations agency represented Griego while across the building the news staff highlighted articles in her favor. It worked.

However, Griego's political Oscar performance was the character assassination of the popular doctor of the Yuba County Jail and Bi-County Juvenile Hall, Joe Cassady. She accused him of receiving financial kickbacks from Medi-Mart Pharmacy for medicines delivered for inmates and that he improperly prescribed medications and dealt drugs in the jail.

Sheriff Virginia Black was also implicated in accusations to Attorney General Bill Lockyer. According to depositions, Griego encouraged two inmate addicts to sue Cassady. Anonymous letters were sent to state medical boards asking that Cassady's medical license be revoked.

Bullying a doctor out of public service wasn't enough, Griego wanted his livelihood.

A Bureau of Narcotics Enforcement investigation found nothing to the accusations. Lawsuits were dismissed against the doctor. Griego's groupies, county employees Mike Noda, Bev Craig and Carolyn Williams were fired over their part in the scheme. County computers and time were also being used for personal and political purposes by Griego's cohorts.

The entire debacle cost the county more than a million dollars to defend and lose personnel lawsuits. Griego's fellow supervisors, a spineless bunch, did nothing to support their state award-receiving medical provider.

While county clerks lament poor voter turn-out, the reasons are obvious. Most politicians look more like perpetrators than patriots.

What is needed is a complete system revolution at the state and federal levels. Casting a vote there is like offering an aspirin for a cancer cure.

There is some hope for cities and counties, but voters need to discover some 'Spaldings.'

Because Your Money Matters!

Marc Cuniberti hosts "Money Matters" on KVMR 89.5 FM Thursdays at noon. His website is www.moneymanagementradio.com

Do you know where your money is?

The War on Cash is a term used by many analysts detailing the progressive regulations being enacted by monetary authorities to slowly reduce then (it is rumored) eliminate cash entirely from society. The reason given for the addition of each new regulation is to reign in tax dodgers and cut off terrorism money. The real reason assumed by many people however may be to garner complete control over every citizen on the globe by the monetary elites.

The regulations are far reaching and many. Tracking cash deposits in bank accounts, asking for identification when purchasing money orders, requiring monies over a certain amount be declared when crossing borders, reducing the size of cash transactions, requiring the reporting of cash transactions, eliminating large denomination bills along with a host of other new and onerous rules are increasing.

Many countries are doing away with large denomination bills such as Europe which just did with the 500 Euro bill. The US did away with ten, five and one thousand dollar bills years ago. Our largest bill is now the one hundred. (Considering inflation, just imagine for a moment when decades ago you could get a $10,000.00 bill!)

Go to your bank and try paying a bill with cash. Prepare to show your ID.

Buy a prepaid visa at your local grocery store and prepare to have your driver's license scanned and in many cases be required to give your social security number and name on a website before the card is activated. The largest unregistered prepaid Visa went from $100 to $25.00 just last week.

Credit card and other electronic methods of payment are being encouraged and the variety of methods being increased (think Apple pay). Social security numbers which once were promised never to be used as identification are now usually required for everything. Check in at an airport and scan a credit card, ANY credit card and your personal information, ticket and boarding pass pops up regardless of whether you used that card to buy the ticket. Obviously they are all tied together! Check into a number of major theme parks and you are asked to be fingerprinted upon entry.

Cell phones are tracked, your purchases are tracked, your habits and haunts are tracked. Your electronic trail is marked and easily read. Cash is the only thing that is not trackable and THAT is the purported reason somebody wants it gone entirely.

Not that there is one person in control of everything, but the implications are frightening. If cash is eliminated, your footprint is unavoidable, your paths easily monitored. Taxes will be easy to garner, they just debit it from your accounts. Bailout a bank or public fund? Easy, they push a button and you pay. No need to adjust public interest rates, they just charge more interest on your balances. Avoiding income taxes will be impossible and if the government needs additional funding, they just take it "for the good of the country".

Although currently we can still use cash and the no one or entity can debit are accounts without our consent, the wheels could be argued to be in motion for a cashless society. The elimination of cash would make the "Big Brother-1984" scenarios from the George Orwell's then futuristic novel that much easier to implement.

Although funding for terrorism and tax evasion certainly uses cash and cash like products to move and acquire off the grid funding, the vast majority of cash transactions by far are by law abiding citizens. Many argue that as the wheels of possible tyranny progress ever so steadily, our basic freedoms, and now possibly our freedom to use cash that was rightly earned, is slowly being taken away. The implications are frightening.

Yuba-Sutter Special Olympics

Whether you are young or old amateur or professional! YOU ARE NEEDED!

The Yuba Sutter Special Olympics is holding a golf tournament which will be held on July 30, 2016 at the Plumas Lake Golf Course. Entry fee of $125 per person includes golf cart, lunch and the chance to win a brand new car. A shotgun start will be at 9 AM. 100% of the money raised will be going to our local Special Olympics Program. We are also looking for sponsors to help support the cost of running this tournament. Sponsorship deadline is June 15th. For more information, registration forms, or sponsorship forms contact J. Park @ 916-849-7275 or e-mail us at Yuba-SutterSpecialOlympics@gmail.com.

"Let me win, but if I cannot win let me be brave in the attempt." This one phrase, recited at all opening ceremonies, is the heart of Special Olympics. Everyone is a winner.

The purpose of Special Olympics is to contribute to the physical, social, and psychological development of the mentally disabled. Through positive successful experiences in sports, they can gain confidence and self-mastery and start to build a self-image associated with success rather than failure. Success on the playing field often has a carry-over value into the classroom, the home, and the workshop.

Special Olympics competition begins at 8 years of age. There is no maximum age limit. All participants including the physically handicapped must be mentally disabled. There is an Application for participation which includes a medical form that must be filled out to make the person eligible for three years from the date the doctor signs the form. These forms are available by calling T. J. Feters, the Area Director, at 673-2961.

Sports are offered all year. The sports schedule conducted in the Yuba-Sutter area are Basketball- January to March, Athletics, Aquatics, Bocce: April to June, Softball- June to September, Soccer-September to October.

Most of the monies taken in by Yuba-Sutter Special Olympics stay right here in the local area. There are no paid positions. Everyone is a volunteer, coaches, chaperons, organizers, fund raisers, publicists, entertainers, and sports officials are just a few of the many volunteer jobs in Special Olympics.

Autism Fundraiser a Success!

Entrants displayed their vintage cars at the May 21st benefit for the Autism Speaks event in Brownsville. Cold temperatures and clouds did not scare away a jovial crowd who, in addition to admiring the cars, enjoyed music, food, craft booths and a chance to win thirty different raffle prizes. Event organizer, Linda Wooldridge and her team of volunteers were pleased that their efforts garnered a generous check for Autism Speaks.

The goal of Autism Speaks is to change the future for all who struggle with an autism spectrum disorder. Autism Speaks, a non-profit organization is dedicated to funding global biomedical research into the causes, prevention, treatments and a possible cure for autism. In addition the group strives to raise public awareness about autism and its effects on individuals, families, and society and they work to bring hope to all who deal with the hardships of this disorder. CRITIC'S CORNER
by Matt Woolery
The Nice Guys
Starring: Russell Crowe, Ryan Gosling, and Angourie Rice. Rated: R, Runtime: 116 minutes.

This story is set in the late seventies. With wild clothes and funky music it reminds me of kindergarten. A tough guy that seeks to do the right thing teams up with an alcoholic detective to solve a case involving catalytic converters, porn stars, and a profusion of dead bodies. The story is absurdly convoluted it weaves through dysfunction and pure luck to further the plot. There are moments of comedy that save this film as well as an undercurrent of struggling morality. The acting is really good. Young Angourie Rice is much like Elle Fanning. Her ability to act is refreshing and promising to see. The production value is good. The Nice Guys, earns four out of five, Indestructible Falling Monkeys. I am rounding up from three and a half, swimming with mermaid monkeys on the advice of my friend Nick. He knows math and also that half monkeys are a bit messy and not funny at all. Happy Birthday Nick.

This film is not a waste of money to see on the big screen. Being that it is based in the seventies there are naked folk all over the movie so be aware of that. There are also more than a few inappropriate scenes that should make you feel squeamish.

VOTE NO ON MEASURE C NO NEW TAXES

Please Read Before Voting on June 7th

THIS COSTS YOU

- Measure C adds 1% sales tax to the 7.5% you pay on purchases in Marysville.
- Vehicles purchased anywhere by Marysville residents will cost an extra 1% - a $15,000 car=an extra $150 tax; $25,000 car=an extra $250 tax and so on.
- Vehicle taxes are assessed by where you live not where you buy.
- This is a 10-year tax increase that will likely be extended.
- Marysville residents already pays 300% more for water than surrounding communities (2011 increase 53%, 2014 increase 11%, Jan 2017 25%); plus 5 school bonds and a sewer bond.

MARYSVILLE MERCHANTS OPPOSE THE TAX

- Everything in Marysville will cost more. Sales lost to Linda and Yuba City stores will force more Marysville businesses to close.

MONEY FROM THE TAX

- The City Council can spend the extra tax dollars on anything they wish.
- They are not legally bound to use funds on police/fire, parks, infrastructure or debt.

THE PROBLEM

- The City cannot afford the $650,000 bond payments on the B Street vacant property. Payments continue until 2037 on land worth $2 million. Residents never wanted this.
- The City runs businesses out of town and is hard to work with.
- City Management is incompetent, wasting thousands of dollars each month.

ANSWERS

- Hundreds of California cities use the County Sheriff for policing.
- City Hall refuses to ask the sheriff for a cost to police the City. The City is dishonest about this option. It could cut policing costs in half.
- MPD jobs are a duplication of the Sheriff's Department.
- The City's one station Fire Department could merge with another department.

Brownsville Certified Farmers Market Opening June 11th

The Brownsville Certified Farmers Market is happy to announce that our opening day is set for Saturday, June 11. We will observe our normal hours of 9:00am to Noon and will again be located in the Foothill Volunteer Fire Department parking lot at 16796 Willow Glen Road, across from the Gold Eagle Market. Those of you who have shopped with us in the past will remember the friendly community feeling of our market as well as the tremendous array of products. Local farmers and vendors will offer fresh fruits and vegetables, culinary herbs, cut flowers, fresh country eggs, specialty breads, country jams and jellies, lavender products, local honey, hand-made soaps, and much more! This is the place to be on Saturday morning this summer! You will love the morning market and the fresh produce.

Listening to our customers has been the secret of our success. We think that customers know better than anyone what they want to buy and make a part of their family meals. In 2013, and with over 9 local farms participating, we became a Certified Farmers Market. In addition, many of the local farms have participated with us over the winter months in our school lunch program organized by North Yuba Grown. We are serving fresh local fruits and vegetables to the children attending the Yuba Environmental Science Charter Academy in our area.

As a highlight of our market, we will feature the Whitehorse Ranch and Feed Lounge. Pull up a hay bale and have a rest! Take a moment to chat with a neighbor during your shopping experience. It's the old fashioned way of shopping. Thanks to Alan of Whitehorse Ranch and Feed for sponsoring our rest area.

New vendors call 530-692-9006 to arrange for your booth space. The booth fee is $12 each week. We have a big parking lot, so there is plenty of room. Vendors usually appear at about 8:15 for setup.

The Brownsville Farmers Market benefits the Brownsville Ponderosa Community Center and other programs of Yuba Feather Communities Services. We are especially grateful to the Foothill Volunteer Fire Department for allowing us to use their generous space for this fun and worthwhile community market.

Yuba County Clustered Development On Hold

170 acres north of the Brownsville/Challenge Community which under current development code can now be divided into eight parcels. However, the letter states "under the proposed Project, the same property would be subject to development at a much higher density." The letter continues "the proposed revisions to the Clustered Development provisions would allow development on this agricultural/residential property of up to one dwelling unit per five acres. This density, which would allow for 34 units, would represent a four-fold increase in the property's development potential, thereby increasing the development potential of his property and making it more valuable." The lawyers expressed their opinion "Commissioner Phillips must publicly disclose his interest, recuse himself from all deliberations and decisions concerning the Project, and leave the room when the Board discusses and votes on any decision concerning the Project..." A review indicates Phillips disclosed his interest in the referenced property when filling out the 2016 Fair Political Practices Commission Form 700 which requires a disclosure of Investments, interests in real property, and business positions held on the date of assuming office Phillips was appointed to the Planning Commission in 2015 by 5th District Supervisor Randy Fletcher. Former 5th District Supervisor Hal Stocker has retained Shute, Mihaly & Weinberger and commissioned the letter to the Planning Commission. Stocker is well known for his long-standing position of controlling development in the foothills. For now, pending the outcome of the review by County Council, clustered development outside of a community boundary does not appear to be in the County's immediate future.

This Month In Your Garden

BALD MOUNTAIN NURSERY

6195 BALD MOUNTAIN ROAD • BROWNS VALLEY, CA • 530-743-4856

We greet June knowing that the hot weather will soon be upon us – June 20 is the first day of summer. It also brings the end of the school year, graduations at all levels from kindergarten (in some schools) and on up to college. Summer vacations are anticipated along with the feeling of freedom from the daily routines. And it is still an okay time for gardening if there is time to care for the new plantings. Because we usually have very hot weather during our summer months maintaining adequate moisture to the newly planted additions is a must. Every year at this time of vacations, I try to emphasize the importance of having a good understanding between you and the person you rely on to care for your yard – so if you have heard all this before, forgive me. It is just that every year we seem to hear a sad story of what happened to some plants while some folks were away on vacation. The person chosen should come to see the yard and be made aware of any special care needed, how any watering system you might have works, and all those quirky little things that might be encountered by that person. If you write or type it so that no important details are missed, there should be no reason for mishaps. If you can laminate the instructions, all the better – they are not as likely to get wet or torn, etc., and all should end well.

The most frequent cause of loss of plants sold by our nursery during the warmer weather is inadequate water. Most of us have learned quite a bit about watering adequately with care during these drought years which have been challenging. We have had nice rains this year that have relaxed the fears of "another drought year". We are still being cautioned to not be wasteful with our water; the water tables haven't yet recovered, and we certainly don't hear anyone saying that the drought is over. Deep watering and mulching garden beds and around plants certainly helps – actually in other ways, too. Watering can be done less frequently because about two inches of mulch when dampened while watering will help retain the moisture in the ground much longer. It also helps to discourage weeds. Of course, drip systems have long been known to save water and discourage weeds by delivering the water just to the base of the plant and not all of the surrounding area. The emitters require some checking and maintenance occasionally.

Vegetable gardens got off to an early start this year because we had a lovely warm February. There were no surprise freezes in March which often come along and undo all that February planting. In April there was a flurry of vegetables being sold, so I would guess that there some very nice vegetable gardens out there with those folks beginning to enjoy all of the tasty fresh bounty! Home grown fruits and vegetables that ripen on the plant have such wonderful flavor. Tomatoes have to be the favorite. Keep watch for tomato worms – they like those tomatoes as well as we do and can be controlled with Bacillus Thuringiensis, better known as B.T., or Caterpillar Killer.

Roses have been spectacular this spring. The blooms have been large and beautifully shaped. When the hot weather comes, they will still be lovely, but the blooms usually shrink in size. Take care of any fungal or insect infestation quickly when noticed. Dead head them frequently and fertilize them every 4 to 6 weeks to encourage more blooms and keep them green and healthy. It is recommended that fertilizing be done three times a year – February or March, June and September. The early months are getting them off to a good start, June is maintenance, and September is preparing them for fall and the coming dormancy of winter. These are guidelines and reminders that plants in our area will do much better with occasional feedings, especially in areas with the heavy clay soil that many of us deal with. Using organic fertilizer is generally a bit more expensive but much better for building the soil. Some use a soluble fertilizer frequently all season. You can see that there is no one definite right or wrong way – just listen to a group of gardeners. Each thinks his or her way is the best way – but whatever methods they use, they are all fertilizing their gardens!

Two especially nice plants that love the hot weather and bloom happily bloom all summer are Crape Myrtles and Rose of Sharon. They both are available in several different colors. Both can be found in either bush or tree form, and they are not excessively thirsty. A pretty tree that is a summer bloomer is a desert willow, or Chilopsis linearis. It is a fast growing deciduous tree that will eventually reach about twenty five feet. One variety has pink to lavender flowers and another variety has lavender to purple flowers. Both are quite drought tolerant once they are established.

We hope you all have an enjoyable summer and pleasant summer mornings tending your gardens.

Her first surgery and blood transfusions took place at Enloe Medical Center in Chico. After a total of nine surgeries, many blood transfusions and great medical care, Brennah returned to full health. Now a college student, Brennah encourages blood donation whenever she can.

Sierra Nevada Memorial Hospital Honored

environmental sustainability at CleanMed2016

Grass Valley, Ca. Dignity Health Sierra Nevada Memorial Hospital was recently awarded the "Greenhealth Partner for Change" Award from Practice Greenhealth, the nation's leading health care community dedicated to reducing the environmental footprint of health care organizations worldwide. Erin Berquist, RN, BSN, Wound Care and Ecology Lead at SNMH accepted the award on behalf of the hospital on May 19 in Dallas, Texas at the CleanMed Conference & Exhibition, the premier national environmental conference for leaders in health care sustainability. The award recognizes health care facilities that continuously improve and expand upon key environmental programs including mercury elimination, waste reduction, recycling, and source reduction programs. At a minimum, facilities receiving this award must recycle 15 percent of their total waste, have reduced regulated medical waste and mercury elimination, and have developed other successful pollution prevention programs. Sierra Nevada Memorial Hospital's environmental stewardship program, known as the Green Team, meets monthly to orchestrate projects and monitor progress. In addition to meeting the award standards noted above, the team recently helped implement a new "Farm to Hospital" Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) program providing easy access to organic produce for hospital staff. Future projects include creating a community demonstration garden and collaborating with local farmers to bring organic produce to the hospitals' café. "Our community is very conscious of its impact on the environment, and this is one way we are listening to our employees and our patients," Berquist said. "The Green Team allows us to inspire and connect with each other for a common purpose." Dignity Health is recognized for its sustainability programs and efforts to reduce waste and implement pollution prevention programs. In 2005, Dignity Health became the first health care organization of its size to use IV bags, solutions, and tubing that are free of PVC and DEHP. The health system has pledged to increase its use of renewable energy to 35 percent and to reduce its greenhouse gas emissions by 40 percent by 2020 – a goal that the organization is already on track to surpass.

"You have demonstrated your support for local public safety and have taken the time to understand the critical issues facing first responders."

Sutter County Firefighters

May 1, 2016

Dear Ms. Espindola,

It gives us great pleasure to announce our endorsement and support of your campaign to become Supervisor for Sutter County's District 1.

You have demonstrated your support for local public safety and have taken the time to understand the critical issues facing first responders. When we arrive on the scene of an emergency and are forced to work with equipment that is more than a quarter century old, it can be difficult to be as effective as we could be in a more ideal situation.

While the population of the communities we serve has doubled in some areas (and growing), our staffing has been reduced, making seemingly routine medical aids a challenge.

We're confident that you understand the obstacles facing our first responders that put the public at greater risk.

Climate Change Advocates Are Banning Books

Author, Chuck Frank

Even though most of California's lakes and reservoirs are full to the brim and to the point that even water must be released to prevent the dams from spilling over and possibly flooding, directives coming from Washington D.C.'s oligarchic regime are steadfast on not giving farmers in the Sacramento Valley and further south, their regular allotment of water. Whether it be saving the smelt fish at the Delta or insisting that climate change is still a major threat to the planet, there are billions of gallons of water every week that will flow to the ocean no matter what day it is, what month it is, or what year it is. Is this the year of the Dragon?

Though Dianne Feinstein wrote a letter to Washington D.C. requesting that water in a few counties in the valley be restored it was not nearly enough. And so far, Neptune is insisting that all of the water coming out of the Sierra Nevada Mountains must flow to the sea. Whatever happened to states rights? What year were they tossed into the dumpster? And how many mandates from the feds are the states subject too? Will the feds finally end up telling every last person in America what day they will have to lay down and die? Is there any resistance or backbone left from the people of California or are those who depend upon their own water rights too wimpy to tell Washington D.C. where to go? What about Governor Brown? He is a huge part of the problem.

Ok, so now we know the endgame. Washington is set on controlling our water, our land and our air. So what else is new? What next, will states begin banning books that do not suit their fancy? Yes. It's already happening. It is common knowledge that all of the Common Core school textbooks are saturated with Climate Change theory, namely, propaganda. And so much so that books in school libraries that have content that counters the shaky theory are already being banned in Portland Oregon. (Foxnews.com May 22, 2016.) But then, the Portland Tribune story responded to the news, by saying, "I have never seen a case for homeschooling more clearly put forward. This is further proof that public schools are not interested in education, only political indoctrination." Might as well throw in the transgender bathroom ordeal while we're at it.

"A petition, meanwhile, circulated by the Oregon Institute of Science and Medicine (OISM) currently lists nearly 32,000 signers, including 9,000 Ph.D.'s, who say, "there is no convincing scientific evidence that human release of carbon dioxide, methane, or other greenhouse gases is causing or will, in the foreseeable future, cause catastrophic heating of the Earth's atmosphere and disruption of the Earth's climate." Yes, the people have spoken and the consensus about Climate Change being a threat is presently eroding at light speed. Yale University announced its climate change research program will close at the end of June.

Even so, the people continue to be steered towards water restrictions while snow packs are in place and reservoirs are full, but all the while the climate changers cry out from the rooftops, that the end of the world is about to happen and the sky is falling.

In summary, I would just like to say this. With regard to the Climate Change theory and the tweaking of the statistics, I already know who is behind it and I don't have to look very far to find an answer. It is all of those enviros who fabricate agendas that attempt to collectivize and gather all of the people to believe in certain untruths, while government players and their corporate friends will cash in on a climate and sustainable development scheme and make billions, with the likes of Monsanto, Big Pharma, G.E., Raytheon, United Technologies, 3M, and Halliburton.

So the next time someone starts talking about putting in a wind farm on top of their mountain to save energy and the planet, be sure to tell them to place the windmills in the right position so that they can capture a lot more of their own hot air.

Girls In Science

Each year the Marysville-Yuba City branch of American Association of University Women sends 4 to 6 girls to Tech Trek, and over the years they have sent more than 60 girls from the Yuba-Sutter area to the week long science camp. Most AAUW branches throughout California also select and send girls each summer to AAUW Tech Trek camps housed in 8 California universities. The program is run by AAUW and encourages girls who show interest in the sciences to continue on this course towards successful careers. Girls are nominated for Tech Trek by their 7th grade math and science teachers, and they go through a competitive written and interview selection process. If you have any questions please contact Bonnie Curtis, Tech Trek Chair for Marysville-Yuba City branch of AAUW. Her phone number is 673-2979.

No On Measure C

Respect is needed for the Taxpayer and their Money

by John Mistler

By now we all know that the City of Marysville is in great financial trouble. The problem stems from a past city council gambling with taxpayer money and losing.

The newer city council has a great challenge, almost insurmountable. If the complexity of the issue were not enough, you have a council that has little to no business experience, so their first thought out of the gate is tax the people. The first thing to do should be to cut the budget wherever you can, nothing is sacred. Second how can we work with local business to improve their income which generates more taxes for the city (this is a major problem with the current administration). Helping to bring events to town will generate more business, especially if the city government works in partnership with the businesses. If you cut fees or reduce them to allow events to come to town you will generate more taxes, if done correctly in a partnership the tax revenues will be greater than the cuts in fees. Third, the local government needs to be transparent; through press releases and Op/Ed's, the Marysville City Council can let the people know what they are doing to save taxpayer money and even show the projected saving by the dollar amounts saved.

Only when the people are confident that the city council is doing all they can should a tax increase be discussed. A tax discussion should have an understanding of the negative effect on business and thus a downturn in future tax revenues, it should also be clear what safeguards are in place to insure that an increase is spent where it is said to be spent. Measure C allows the city manager and the council to spend the money any way they choose.

Shame on the proponents of Measure C to insinuate that police may not be able to respond if the tax is not passed! Measure C will not produce even one more cop. Measure C has no safeguards, the money will go to the general fund to be spent however the winds blow.

The discussion of raising taxes should be the last thing politicians discuss; not the first.

Supports Belza

There is a critical election coming up for the people of Yuba County on June 7. Tib Belza is seeking re-election to the Yuba County Water Agency. I have known Tib for over 30 years and have served with him on several Boards over that time period. I have watched him conduct himself with a level of professionalism and skill set that is second to none. He has served the people of Yuba County first as a County Supervisor and then as a Director on the Yuba County Water Agency. I do not know of a single elected official in Yuba or Sutter County that has spent more time, is more knowledgeable, or is more effective when it comes to water issues. His opponent Charlie Mathews is making some promises he simply cannot keep. As the former Yuba County Treasurer for over thirty years, I am well aware of the financial condition of the water agency. I also know the Yuba Agency Act, and that is not possible for them to lower your property taxes or subsidize your electric bill. I have been around politicians my entire adult life and have heard the same type of empty promises over and over. Those are empty promises being made by Charlie Mathews. The next four years will be critical as we move into this new phase of relicensing. It is time to stay the course and continue with a proven leader that has stellar record of excellence. For the reasons stated above, I am voting for Tib Belza, Yuba County Water Agency Director.

Pot Lawsuit

Once again, the Appeal-Democrat does nothing to veil their contempt for the marijuana growers of Yuba-Sutter-Butte. Not only do they print known lies by Buck Weckman, they give an article literally written by him front-page space. Shame on them and I only hope that they get pulled into the lawsuit against him for libel and for knowingly promoting (under the guise of reporting) "facts" that even one of their janitors could verify to be false and malicious in content.

I'm at a complete loss of understanding how residents of this county are so willing to let an absolute bully be their voice in government and for government to allow Weckman to continue to spread their "party line". This is reckless conduct and everyone who promotes this should spend a moment of self-reflection and ponder where they went so wrong with their lives that they'd rather wish harm than harmony...lies over truth...

Quite frankly, this county isn't going to pot, it's going to sh---. No jobs...no new businesses...no new anything except pay raises for the few at the top. It seems the only people that care about this directionless, malicious, litigious government are the marijuana growers...and the county is doing all they can to run them out so they can have their sand box back and continue to run rough-shod over the sheeple.

Thanks

Periodically, several local businesses have helped the Foothill Food Pantry with various needs. Whether it was with food/material supplies, or donations towards raffle prizes for fundraisers, many have been glad to help the community, and to see us succeed in that.

Many thanks to Oregon House Grocery, Foothill Ace Hardware, Gold Eagle Market, Yuba Harvest, Brownsville Mercantile, Mayflour Bakery, the Grange Farmers Market, YES Charter Academy, Collins Lake, Olson House Coffee, and North Yuba Bakery for their continued support! The Lake Francis Grange (Dobbins) is also a longtime supporter. Their continued donation of space keeps us going.

And, thank you to our residents for the food donations for our pantry through the recent USPS food drive, and to the participating local post offices for collecting them.

NYWD Needs A Revolution!

North Yuba Water District needs new blood.

The male majority of the NYWD Board is:

Dysfunctional
Uniformed
Misguided
Bumbling

They've over-stayed their welcome and they need to step aside. It's time for new leadership.

We need leaders with vision, transparency, intelligence, motivation, fairness and incomparable service and dedication to the customers and community.

This November, we have the opportunity to radically change the face and focus of NYWD. There are four board seats up for election. NYWD has the opportunity to be a model district if the right leadership and management are at the helm. Let's do this right and create an agency that we're all proud of!

Who's willing to be a part of the revolution?

Ref: How We Got Here

The article by Jack Beecham "How We Got Here, Measure A & B. This article contains inaccurate information.

Mr. Beecham states under the Ordinance 1542 "they can produce enough marijuana to meet their personal needs."

The amount of cannabis needed per person varies. If a person uses cannabis for edibles then the amount needed increases; also the amount each plant produces varies.

He also states that cannabis farmers are "about padding your wallet". Then wouldn't it make sense to legalize cannabis and then there would be no profit.

The rules about compliance checks on Measure A, if a written complaint was not required the law enforcement would be overwhelmed with fictitious complaints that would take time away from important issues that require their attention. This would waste the Sheriff's departments time and be a cost passed on to the taxpayers.

Mr. Beecham goes on to state that Measure B "does not require background checks on dispensary worker."

This is not true, it clearly states online regarding Measure B: that background checks are required on the owner and employees of a dispensary.

As to the claim that you state that "cancer causing chemicals which are many more times more concentrated in marijuana smoke."

Is it the right of an adult to choose what we do or do not do. This is considered freedom.

There are a lot of harmful things in our lives everyday, from water that contains lead to prescription medications with deadly side effects.

Both Mr. Beecham and Mr. Buck Weckman refer to the University of California Davis Study on cannabis use. Perhaps you could go a little further and search Dr. Sanjay Gupta.

Dr. Gupta has three documentaries about the use of cannabis and the benefits of its use for numerous medical conditions need 1 2 and 3.

Dr. Sanjay Gupta has been on CNN and HLN he is a neurosurgeon; also Dr. Gupta was considered by President Barack Obama for the position of Surgeon General.

I believe that we all need to ask ourselves if you were a person that has tried numerous medical procedures and uncountable medications that did not help your medical problem; then should this person have the right to use and grow their own cannabis for treatment? Should their ability to grow the cannabis be made impossible due to regulations that cost the patient more money than is affordable.

Yes, they should be able to use cannabis and it should not be with so many regulations that the person is unable to pay the prices to grow their medication.

Know All The Marijuana Facts Before Voting

Beyond the propaganda provided by the Commercial Marijuana Industry in their campaign messages, it is important to know who is financing their efforts. If we examine the Fair Political Practices Commission Statements from January 1, 2016 through April 23, 2016, we find some interesting contributions. The pro-marijuana campaign for Measure A received almost 68% of their contributions from sources outside of Yuba County. But wait! The contributions for the pro marijuana Measure B was 100% financed by big city sources from Sacramento and the bay area. In a further check of contributions prior to 2016, we find multiple contributions from out-of-state sources in another pro marijuana Political Action Committee. So you must ask the question, what is the reason for this non-local involvement?

Another question a voter might ask is: why the pro-marijuana campaign signs and billboards don't even mention the word marijuana or cannabis? Even their handout material maintains a low profile on explicit product description. Are they trying to pull the wool over your eyes, by using the words Health and regulation? Come on; let's be honest on what they are trying to sell!

Lastly, the Commercial Marijuana Industry claims their Measures A and B will be a financial windfall to Yuba County and resolve any law enforcement problems. More nonsense! Our Sheriff and District Attorney have come out against both Measures A and B; they have been joined in this opposition by educators, health officials, and the Yuba Sutter Farm Bureau. This fact can be confirmed by reading your ballot arguments in the Yuba County Voter Pamphlet or the official records of these same organizations.

So, before voting, ask yourself: what notable Yuba County organizations or residents support Measures A and B? The absence of any listing is telling.

Fairness Needs to be Revised

The Initiative entitled "Ordinance for the Redistribution of Revenue Resulting from the Sale of Local Water" which The Marysville City Council supports does not include Cordua Water District. Cordua Water District chooses not to join the Accord, however they do sell Yuba County Water.

In addition, the author of the Initiative is Chairman of the Cordua Water District who owns and farms land with wells and pumps in the Cordua Water District who will not only share in monies the District earns from the sale of water but who also will be able to sell water himself and not be required to share the proceeds. This is purportedly a "fairness" act but it is not so when one asks others to share but eliminates himself and his District from the Initiative. The other irrigation districts in Yuba County were not consulted in developing the proposed Initiative.

The Initiative should be revisited and revised in the name of fairness to all.

The $500 Chef’s Challenge is on again at the 77th Colusa County Fair

Three new competitors will be matching cooking skills when the 2nd annual Chef’s Challenge comes back to the Colusa County Fair. The Challenge, in the tradition of the “Chopped” television program, brings area restaurant chefs to a stiff competition for the $500 prize offered up by Colusa Casino Resort. Three chef’s and his or her assistant will meet the challenge of preparing dishes from items provided by Colusa Casino Resort Executive Chef Keith Erickson. Erickson is the coordinator of the event which is sponsored by Colusa Casino Resort. The challenge, which was a standing-room-only event last year will be held at 7 pm on Friday, June 10 in the Community Building. Judges for the challenge will be invited dignitaries and also the reigning Chef’s Challenge winner; Don Litchfield, owner/chef at Rocco’s Bar & Grill in Colusa. Litchfield said it was a great event last year, and that he is excited to return this year as a judge. “We see some great food at this challenge,” he said.

“I’m looking forward to being a part of it again,” he added. This is a one-night-only event for the Fair and there are only 3 entry spots available. To date competitors are Market Street Grill and The Refuge. There is only one space left. It will be filled on a first come-first serve basis. The Challenge is being sponsored by Colusa Casino Resort and the Colusa County Fair. Erickson will facilitate the challenge. He explained that just as in the television program, the competing chefs will be provided with a “mystery” basket containing ingredients that must be used in one or more of their dishes. Chefs will prepare a two-course meal. A list of rules and regulations and contestant applications are available online at www.colusa-countyfair.com or at the fair office. For more information contact Jonathan Howard at (530) 458-2641.

Gold Country Trail Council Poker Ride!

On June 4th horses and riders will be coming from all over the region to enjoy Gold Country Trail Council's 25th Annual Poker Ride at Skillman Campground and Upper Pioneer Trail. While this is wonderful news for horse lovers planning to enjoy a fun day it is important for local motorists to keep the increased traffic in mind as there will be a lot of trucks and horse trailers in the vicinity of Hwy 20 above Nevada City moving carefully and exiting slowly. There are over 80 riders pre-registered for this ride currently. Gold Country Trails Council holds one of the oldest and best attended Poker Rides in Northern California at the famous Skillman Horse Camp in the beautiful Tahoe National Forest 15 miles east of Nevada City. In addition to being the main fund raiser for the Trails Council, it provides a memorable event to meet old and new friends, eat wonderful home-made food, and win prizes. The Poker Ride length is usually approximately eight miles of easy to moderate difficulty on beautifully wooded and well-marked trails giving new participants an opportunity to get familiar with the trail in a safe manner. Relief for Taxpayers and Patients “Shall the ordinance that would increase the number of medical marijuana plants that may be cultivated on parcels of land greater than one acre and allow for cultivation of medical marijuana outdoors and within residences be adopted?”

WE URGE YOU TOO:

Vote YES, to REGULATE and COLLECT FEES and ENFORCE. Enforcement is paid by the medical marijuana grower NOT the Yuba County taxpayer or innocent property owners.

REGULATE:

- ✓ All cultivation sites must register, pay a registration fee and abide by all current and future county codes & state laws. (7.40.150)
- ✓ Any garden not compliant is a public nuisance and the county has any existing right or power to abate or employ any remedy authorized by law. (7.40.430b, 7.40.430f)
- ✓ All cultivation sites must NOT be accessible to minors. All gardens require a secure gate and solid fencing. (7.40.200, 7.40.320, 7.40.330)
- ✓ All California State water regulations, pesticide use, plant limits, property setbacks and garden public visibility, will be strictly monitored. Any violation of this ordinance will deem the garden non-compliant and subject removal. (7.40.200, 7.40.430)

COLLECT FEES:

- ✓ 1 acre or less up to 12 plants, only 6 outdoors, between 1-5 acres maximum of 18 plants, parcels between 5 & 20 acres no more than 36 plants, and 20 acres or larger 60 plant limit. (7.40.300d)
- ✓ Non-refundable fee paid to Yuba County’s general fund $10.00 for 6 plants or less, $120.00 for 7-12 plants, $40.00 per plant for all parcels with over 12 plants. Registration fees up to $2,400. (Section 4)
- ✓ Late registration penalties are 5 times the regular registration fee. For example the largest grow allowed is 60 plants with a fee of $2,400. If that grow is registered late the fee will be increased to $12,000. (7.40.340G)

ENFORCE:

- ✓ Any violation of this ordinance shall be deemed a public nuisance and is subject to any enforcement process authorized by law or outlined in this code. (7.40.430 b)
- ✓ Yuba County Code Enforcement and the Yuba County Sheriff Department can verify garden registration and compliance. They are also responsible for the enforcement of this ordinance. (7.40.400 & 7.40.410)
- ✓ Any violation or additional plant(s) discovered will be charged an administrative penalty of $100.00 per day per violation, the second offense in 18 months will be charged $200.00 per day for each violation and a third occurrence in 36 months will be charged $500.00 per day for each violation. (7.40.430c)

THE Brownsville Bailiwick & Beyond

Yuba Feather Community Services is hoping that more local citizens will sign up as members of the community group. The Board of YFCS manages Ponderosa Park and Community Center. This is a real boon for our local communities and needs help in keeping it going. Groups like Hill Top Gang, Mountain Quilt Guild, Yuba Feather Historical Assn. and Stone Soup use it regularly. The facilities are available to many groups and individuals. If we want this facility to be available we each have to do our part. The board meeting is held on the second Tuesday of the month at 7 pm. There are membership forms at Books & More.

School will be out soon (June 3 locally). It always sounds like such fun at first but finding things to keep those kids busy can be challenging. Books & More is planning on having a Kids' Book Club again this summer. On Thursdays from 10 – 11 kids can meet and enjoy books. There will be three age groups with an adult leader for each (we're looking for one more volunteer leader). After that Debbie Neilson (she was an Aseltine) will meet with kids from 11 – 12 for a science group identifying native plants. Then at the community center Stone Soup lunch is available followed by games and crafts. The park is always there for the kids, too. We will start on June 9. Call (675-3275) or come by Books & More for information.

My husband and I just returned from a trip to Tucson. On our way home, we traveled up Hwy 395. If you haven't traveled on this highway you must. It weaves and winds along the eastern side of our spectacular Sierras. The road is well paved and you will see the Sierras from a whole different perspective. There are quaint, small towns to visit, historical sightseeing, camping fishing, hiking, boating and so much more.

The Brownsville Farmers Market is gearing up and will be open on June 11. Fresh fruit, vegetables, eggs, herbs, flowers, specialty breads, handmade crafts, olive oil, and honey will be available. It will be open every Saturday through September 3 from 9 am – noon. Contact Gary Hawthorne at 530-692-9006 if you are interested in a booth or have questions. See you there.

Look Back in Time – In 1913 two men robbed the sluice box a Bellevue Mine at La Porte taking about $200 in gold dust (not much changes over time).

Hope to see you in Brownsville soon.

REAL FACT:
Violent and Property crime both decreased after adoption in 2012 of outdoor medical marijuana cultivation. People are scared of what they don't understand and judgemental of each others' differences. The answer is EDUCATION and COMPASSION not LIES.

D.A.R.E. The Drug Abuse Resistance Education program, one of the largest anti-drug groups in the world, no longer lists marijuana as a so-called "gateway drug." The National Institute on Drug Abuse reports that "most people who use marijuana do not go on to use other, 'harder' substances." The program's website has specifically mentioned only tobacco and alcohol as gateway drugs since 2013.

Cannabis is ideally suited to our region's Mediterranean climate. Long, hot and dry summers lend themselves to high crop yields with relatively low water usage and a reduced need for chemical fertilizers.

Outdoor, sun-grown cannabis plants are a sustainable and carbon-sequestering crop.

A mature cannabis plant requires on average 5 gallons of water a day.
The average California family consumes 360 gallons of water a day.

Local growers welcome environmental regulations that improve farming practices. In 2015, the Central Valley Regional Water Quality Control Board applied environmental mandates for the agricultural industry to cannabis farming.

Yuba County Growers welcome industry regulation that would help undermine blackmarket and illegal farming on public lands or private property, the type of farming most often responsible for pollution and environmental destruction.

- Take the burden off the taxpayers.
- Improve the safety and rights of our citizens while protecting the environment and our natural resources.
- Support the clear delineation of lawful from unlawful operators, empowering law enforcement to be more accurate and effective in their efforts to reduce criminal behavior and enhance public safety.
- Recognize the scientific research showing the proven medical benefits of cannabis, with the intent to make local access to medical cannabis safer and more affordable for patients in Yuba County.

Local businesses help local communities

Cannabis farming is one of the country's fastest growing industries. In 2014, Cannabis sales hit $2.7 billion, half of which was in California alone. By 2019, it's projected to reach $11 billion. Harnessed effectively, the industry could be a boon to those that choose to lay effective regulatory groundwork now. Counties have a unique opportunity to support small cannabis businesses and farms, which tend to keep their spending local and keep good standing in the community.

"There's a division in this state that's developing very rapidly: counties that see the economic benefit to be reaped by regulating and allowing the cultivation of cannabis within their borders, and the counties that don't," says Sam Kornell, Inland Cannabis Farmers' Association board member. "If you do have rules ...and cannabis farmers know what to expect, they'll be happy to set up shop in your county, abide by the rules and make money for themselves and your tax coffers."

"Cannabis is one of the few industries, if not the only industry, in America that is comprised and dominated virtually entirely by smallholder farmers." Sam Kornell Inland Cannabis Farmers' Association board member

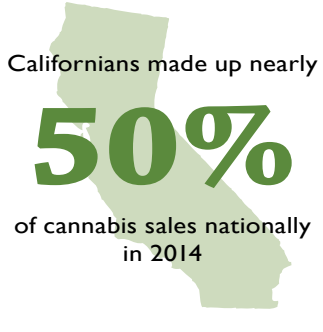

A GROWTH INDUSTRY

California has a brisk demand for medical cannabis, and our state is home to several regions, including our own, with an ideal climate for cannabis farming. Here is a look at the economic impact of this booming agricultural sector in California and nationwide.

According to ArcView Research Group, cannabis is the fastest-growing industry in the nation.

From 2013 to 2014, the national cannabis market grew from $1.5 billion to $2.7 billion - a 74% increase in one year!

In the 2015-2016 fiscal year, the state of Colorado collected more than $31.4 million in retail cannabis sales tax, up from $17.9 million in the previous year.
