CHP Welcomes Nine New Canine Teams Graduating

Officer Alexander Frazer demonstrates the training and obedience involved for certification during a ceremony at the Canine Training Facility on the CHP Academy grounds.

CHP News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The California Highway Patrol (CHP) announced on April 28, 2023, the graduation and deployment of nine new canine teams. After months of intensive training, the teams were certified during a ceremony at the Canine Training Facility on the CHP Academy grounds. "These loyal and brave public servants play a critical role in supporting the mission of the Department," said CHP Commissioner Sean Duryee. "Canines have a keen sense of smell that helps them detect items that a human officer cannot, such as narcotics and explosives. Both the canine and their handler's skills are refined during the hundreds of hours of intense training, ensuring the teams are prepared to

American River College News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Dr. Lisa Cardoza has been named as the new President of American River College. Her appointment will go to the Los Rios Board of Trustees at the May 10, 2023 meeting.

"Dr. Cardoza is exceptionally qualified for this position and brings a wealth of experience in a variety of different capacities within higher education," said Los Rios Community College District Chancellor Brian King. "Extraordinarily thoughtful and strategic, Lisa understands the vital role that community colleges play in our communities and is deeply committed to seeing our students be successful."

Most recently, Cardoza served as the Vice President for University Advancement at California State University, Sacramento and Executive Officer for The University Foundation at Sacramento State, where she led record-setting fundraising efforts for the University. Prior to her current role, Cardoza was Sacramento State President Robert Nelsen's Chief of Staff, and also as the University's Interim Vice President of Human Resources.

"Dr. Lisa Cardoza has been preparing to be the President of American River College since the first day I interviewed her to be my Chief of Staff at the University of Texas Pan American. I knew then that she would someday be a president; I just didn't know where," said Sacramento State President Robert Nelsen. "I am so pleased that it will be in Sacramento and in the Los Rios Community College District. She is an amazing force with a brilliant mind and a huge heart."

Before arriving in Sacramento, Cardoza worked at The University of Texas-Pan American (UTPA) in the areas of outreach and college access, enrollment and student services, governmental relations and as Chief of Staff.

"My life's work and passion are to help individuals - students, faculty, staff, administrators - achieve their highest potential. I

Sacramento County Named #2 Best Public Fleet

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The 2023 100 Best Fleets were announced by the National Association of Fleet Administrators (NAFA) at the end of April and Sacramento County was named the number two best public fleet!

The 100 Best Fleets in the Americas program recognizes peak-performing public and commercial fleet operations. This program identifies and encourages the ever-increasing levels of performance improvement and innovation within the fleet industry.

"Last year we were named the number three best fleet by NAFA, and this year we improved to number two," said Keith Leech, Chief of the Fleet Services Division and Parking Enterprise. "This is a testament to the hard work our talented fleet professionals have put into adapting to the challenging fleet environment by preparing for a zero emissions future while maintaining operational effectiveness.

Sacramento County has long embraced clean air initiatives. This commitment to fleet sustainability began in 1999 with the adoption of the County's Heavy Duty Low Emission Vehicle Acquisition Policy and is currently recognized as one of the most sustainable government fleets in North America. This achievement is primarily due to the county's conversion to renewable fuels.

Teacher Pension Fund Betrays Its Mission

Commentary
by Ted Gaines

If you think that CalSTRS, the behemoth pension system that supports California's retired teachers, is focused on pensions, you are wrong. The largest teacher-focused pension system in the country is abandoning its core fiduciary role to chase left-wing political goals. Its mission creep will hurt teachers, taxpayers, and students alike.

In April, CalSTRS issued an extraordinary press release stating their priorities for the companies they invest in, including corporate greenhouse gas disclosures. CalSTRS is interested in achieving a "net zero" emissions portfolio. Of course, CalSTRS is also interested in corporate diversity, and states: "CalSTRS will vote against an entire board of directors that does not include at least one woman and against a board's nominating and governance committee if at least 30% of its board members are not women. Furthermore, CalSTRS will vote against the nominating and governance committees of Russell 3000 companies that do not disclose their board members' diversity characteristics."

CalSTRS' Board has morphed into Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez with a $300-billion billy club to swing at businesses that aren't sufficiently Progressive.

If you were scouring the news for a few words about supporting corporate boards trying to grow profits, entering or creating new markets, utilizing innovation, expanding geographically, then CalSTRS is not the investment entity for you.

Who has time for the actual business of business when you can be leading a social revolution?

CalSTRS might want to check out the work of Bjorn Lomborg, who shows that the climate catastrophists claims about global warming deaths, costs, hurricanes, polar bears, forest fires, etc. are routinely contorted to further the policy agenda of the anti-fossil fuel crowd.

They might want to ask teachers if they themselves are willing to pay out of their own pockets for these political goals.

They might want to ask parents if they are willing to take dollars out of their children's classrooms to diversify corporate boards.

Because the problem with CalSTRS lifting its leftist political banner above all others is that the organization has an actual role, which is fiduciary. Its job isn't to be in the political vanguard but to caretake and grow its investments to meet its payout obligations.

CalSTRS pension payments are funded by payments from the state, from teachers and school districts. If investment gains fall short, contributions need to increase.

The system was already facing a serious insolvency threat in 2040, which is a blink of an eye for a pension system. In 2014, the legislature crafted a plan to stave off the problem and mandated increased contributions from all parties.

California has seen an explosion of education spending in the past decade. Parents hope and assume that their taxpayer dollars go towards classroom enrichment, student activities, training that increases student performance, and so on. Some of it surely has.

But when investments fall short, school spending will go to backfilling pension obligations. That has also been the case. What good is that increased school spending if it doesn't benefit students?

Women and minorities should, of course, be welcome on every corporate board without a discriminatory roadblock. But their presence should indicate merit, not government fiat or race-and-gender box checking. Diversity itself should not be the goal for corporate governance.

Every single California government activity should not be Progressive activism. CalSTRS should honor the teachers, parents, taxpayers and students who are all affected by its decisions and stick to its fiduciary job. ★

World-Class Canine Athletes to Perform Daily at the Sacramento County Fair

Sacramento County Fair News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County Fair is right around the corner and North America's Premier Stunt Dog Show, The Extreme Dogs, returns. Free with Fair admission, guests will be able to watch a unique extreme sports production designed to excite and amaze pet-lovers from all walks of life.

Extreme Dogs tours the nation promoting animal rescue and pet adoption. The wickedly talented canine athletes have captured the hearts of hundreds of thousands coast-to-coast including at CFL, NBA and NFL halftime shows, theme parks, performing arts venues and festivals nationwide.

The show features world champion trainers leading their adopted companions through extreme dog sports such as dock diving, freestyle frisbee disc, flyball racing, high jumping, and dog agility. Featuring multiple breeds and mixes of only dogs who have been rescued or adopted from shelters, fairgoers will not be able to look away!

"These dogs are true world-class champions. The Extreme Dogs are going bring such a fun and exciting energy to the Fair, and the fact that all these dogs have been rescued or come from shelters really promotes a positive message to our community," says Matt Cranford, CEO of the Sacramento County Fair.

"We usually look for dogs nobody wants," said dog rescuer and trainer Deirani Collazo. "The annoying, high energy, couch chewing, won't leave me alone dogs and then we just take all that energy and channel it into all these sports. These dogs go from a brutal, homeless life to best canine lives ever since all they do every day is run, jump and swim all day. Plus, have a lot treats.

More than just the entertainment value of the show, attendees also get "people tips" on what to do with their rescue dogs. Trainer Calazzo hopes families attending the Fair take away valuable knowledge. "If people come out and see you can have this kind of relationship and interaction with your dogs, it inspires people to go out and adopt a dog and turn their life around," she adds.

Calazzo and the other trainers mix it up for every show. "We have different dogs doing different behaviors," she says. "We change up the games we're playing and the things that we're showcasing, so you can see two or three shows a day and see something different every time."

If you want to watch how the best of the best do it, this high-energy stunt dog show is one that you can't miss! The Extreme Dogs have multiple performances every day of the Fair and fairgoers can attend as often as they like all included with their daily Fair admission.

Established in 1937, the Sacramento County Fair is dedicated to the safe and fun education of the greater Sacramento community and its youth in agriculture, business, and technology. A value-driven family event, Fair guests enjoy the friendly atmosphere, traditional county fair competitions, agricultural displays, hands-on activities, carnival, specialty food and festival-style entertainment. Close to 10,000 school children take advantage of free educational school tours and over 5,000 compete for awards in the livestock and competitive exhibit programs. The theme of 2023 Fair is: Where Tradition Meets Tomorrow.

serve throughout the state."

The graduates consist of six Patrol and Narcotics Detection Canine teams and three Explosives Detection Canine teams, all of which meet the guidelines set by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training. The newest team members include four Belgian Malinois, two Dutch Shepherds, and three German Shepherd dogs. Once graduated, the CHP will have a total of 51 teams deployed throughout the state.

Each canine's partner, or handler, is an experienced CHP officer with experience ranging from five to 22 years. The officers represent six of the CHP's eight geographic regions, including: Valley, Golden Gate, Southern, Border, Coastal, and Inland Division. Once deployed, the handlers will spend a minimum of eight hours every week completing scenario-based training with their canines to ensure the highest level of peak performance in the field.

The CHP uses canines to perform a variety of tasks, including detecting human scent, contraband, and explosives. The CHP canines are also used to assist allied agencies in apprehending criminals, detecting explosives or drugs, and in locating at-risk missing persons.

The mission of the CHP is to provide the highest level of Safety, Service, and Security. ★

Non-profit HomeShare American River Celebrates Dozens of Happy Housemates

HomeShare American River News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG)

In July 2021, inter-faith non-profit Placer People of Faith Together (ppoft.org) launched a powerful, versatile tool to unlock both rental income and naturally-affordable housing throughout the Greater Sacramento live-work area. More than 50 such non-profit supported homesharing programs have been valuably serving their communities throughout the US, some for as long as 50 years. But there was no such service in our region until PPOFT decided to start HomeShare American River.

Almost two years later, non-profit housemate-matching and -support service HomeShare American River (HSAR) has matched up dozens of happy housemates across the region into safe, fair, valuable, and durable arrangements. HSAR makes matches in homes (whether owned or rented) located within an hour's drive of Roseville, including Nevada City, Placerville, Lodi, Dixon, Yuba City, and Marysville. HSAR provides help for potential “Hosts” and “Guests” throughout the entire arrangement: screening, matchmaking (including facilitating exchanges of household services for lowered rent), and active support/trouble-shooting. And while Hosts set the rents they charge, HSAR doesn't charge them or their Guests anything for its service, including the background checks. Instead, HSAR is entirely funded by the Agency on Aging/Area 4 and a generous private donor, meaning that HSAR is beholden to neither Host nor Guest... just to its social mission to serve both of them equally for as long as they live together.

Since launching, HSAR has made 24 matches from Nevada City to Elk Grove. Matched Hosts and Guests vary widely in age (22-84), rents paid ($550-900, including utilities), income, and walks of life, but all have the most important thing in common: they make “great neighbors down the hall” to each other. And that also means HSAR has effectively created many new units of housing, without hammering a single nail!

As Executive Director and Co-Founder Justin Ellerby says, “Two things tell me that this service can make a dent in a lot of big problems. One: The gratitude and relief I hear from our happily-matched clients. Two: Almost everyone I tell about this service reacts with almost the exact same words: ‘This is SO needed!’”

Potential Hosts and Guests can learn more about HSAR at homeshareamericanriver.org/apply or by calling (916) 360-0074. Partners and supporters will find much more information at homeshareamericanriver.org/collaborate. ★

Share Your Corner of America

Make a difference in the life of an international exchange student!

ACIE Special News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG)

Have you ever felt like the world needs more understanding, peace, and connection? Open your heart and your home to an exchange student! American Councils is a non-profit public diplomacy organization funded (in part) by the US Department of State. They are searching for loving host families for the 2023-24 high school academic year. All American Councils students are recipients of merit-based scholarships. Selection is based on English language proficiency, academics, teacher recommendations, leadership qualities, maturity, and adaptability. On program, students develop global leadership skills and understanding of civic responsibility, diversity, and cross-cultural competency.

Who are these students? Fayzali, 17, is from a small town in Tajikistan. He is fascinated with all things cars, especially sports cars! He has even designed his own car brand and recently worked as a part-time mechanic. Fayzali's other hobbies include soccer and basketball, mixed martial arts, reading, and learning new languages. He hopes for a future career in the aviation industry. An only child, Fayzali happily does household chores to support his mom and extended family. He is eager to share his Tajik culture: “a sunny country with friendly and kind people on the other side of the earth!”

Ilyass, 15, is from Morocco. He describes himself as “sociable and energetic and the type of person that can make you laugh when you're sad.” He adores time with family: “My parents encourage me and give me all the love I need. We sometimes go to the movies, picnics, walks, or watch soccer together.” At home, Ilyass is responsible for his pet cat Blanche. He is passionate about track and field, particularly discus and javelin. He has a dream “to represent [his] country” in international sporting events one day! When he is not training or competing, he reads self-help books and volunteers. Ilyass is excited to experience new activities and appreciates that a host family would “make [him] a part of their household” and hopes to cook them traditional Moroccan dishes! A common misconception is that a student needs a traditional family experience with customary holidays and foods. The rich diversity of our country is for many students, uniquely American! Anyone who has a desire to open their home could be a potential host, including military families, retirees, single parents, and LGBT+.

Please contact Megan Timmens: call/text 202-375-0777 or email mtimmens@gmail.com. Website: <https://inbound.americancouncils.org/mission>. Please note the deadline to enroll in SJUSD is May 15. ★

How Proposed Changes to Ballot Measures Could Affect Election Results

By Dan Walters, CALMatters.org

When Major League Baseball opened its 2023 season this month, players and managers had to contend with a raft of new rules, including time limits on pitchers and batters and limits on bunting infielders on one side of the diamond.

Whether the new rules speed up the games, as intended, is still uncertain, but it is certain that they will affect outcomes to some unknown extent. Changing the rules of any game changes outcomes, and what's true in sports is also true of politics.

The most obvious example of how changing rules affects outcomes is redistricting – the redrawing of legislative and congressional districts after each decennial census. Republicans hold a majority in Congress largely because GOP-controlled state legislatures redrew congressional districts to give the party more opportunities to win seats. For decades, Democrats have done the same thing when they had the chance.

This year's session of the California Legislature includes three major efforts to change rules governing ballot measures, all of which could affect outcomes.

One of them, Senate Bill 858 – and a companion measure, Senate Constitutional Amendment 3 – is the latest of many attempts to remove the attorney general's authority to write the official titles for statewide ballot measures. Introduced by Sen. Roger Niello, a Republican from the Sacramento suburbs, the two measures would give the task to the Legislature's budget analyst, who already provides the fiscal analysis of proposed measures.

It's a change that should be made because recent attorneys general, all Democrats, have blatantly skewed official titles, with positive slants for liberal measures such as tax increases and negative ones for proposals of conservative groups. Judges have occasionally intervened in extreme cases, but generally defer to the attorney general.

Not surprisingly, those on the left want to maintain the status quo so Niello's two-bill package is likely to join other proposed reforms in the legislative trash pile.

The other two efforts to change the rules governing ballot measures come from Democrats and thus are more likely to be enacted.

One, by Sen. Scott Wiener, a San Francisco Democrat, would as originally introduced and approved by a Senate committee would have undone two genuine ballot measure reforms that the Legislature passed and former Gov. Jerry Brown signed less than a decade ago. They require local tax and bond ballot measures to clearly state their financial impacts in the 75-word summaries that appear on the ballot and prohibit authorities from using summaries to extol the proposals' virtues.

Local government officials hate the reforms because giving voters unvarnished facts might make them less likely to pass such measures. Originally, Wiener's Senate Bill 532 would have shifted the financial data to the voters' pamphlet, thus freeing officials to once again use ballot summaries for propaganda.

Late last week, however, Wiener toned down the measure, retaining the requirement to explain tax consequences in ballot measure summaries, but allowing that information to appear without counting against the 75-word limit on summaries.

Finally, there's Assembly Bill 421, carried by Assemblyman Isaac Bryan, a Democrat from Culver City, at the behest of unions and other liberal organizations.

As the Legislature turned to the left in recent years and enacted many new business regulations, those impacted by the new laws have increasingly turned to the ballot to thwart them. AB 421 is clearly aimed at making it much more difficult – or even impossible – for business groups to overturn laws via ballot measures, either referenda or initiatives, by imposing very tight new rules on qualifying them for the ballot.

AB 421 is likely to win legislative approval, but its ultimate fate is in doubt. Both Gov. Gavin Newsom and his predecessor vetoed similar proposals in the past.

Use Caution: American River Running Cold and Swift

Sacramento County warns those wanting to get in the waters of the American Rivers that cold waters combined with swift flows are a recipe for disasters. Photo by Dave Dawson

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - With temperatures on the rise this weekend, swimming in the American River may sound like a great way to beat the heat, but, with the snowmelt causing the river to run so cold and swiftly, Sacramento County Regional Parks is advising residents to find other ways to beat the heat.

"Cold rivers are dangerous rivers, and right now the American River is running colder than most people realize," said Liz Bellas, Director of Regional Parks. "Water flowing through the American River right now is in the low 50 degrees. We typically see water in the high 50-/low 60-degree range at this time of year."

According to the National Weather

Service, "Cold water drains body heat up to four times faster than cold air. When your body hits cold water, 'cold shock' can cause dramatic changes in breathing, heart rate and blood pressure. The sudden gasp and rapid breathing alone creates a greater risk of drowning even for confident swimmers in calm waters."

Flows out of Nimbus Dam into the American River this weekend will be around 8,000 cubic feet per second (cfs), which is quite high. A typical Sacramento summer sees outflows into the American at around 2,000 cfs or less.

The cold water combined with the swift flows are a recipe for disaster. Don't be bold, the water is cold, so please stay off the river. For more water safety tips, visit LifeLooksGoodOnYou.org. ★

Social Security Matters

About Social Security Benefits for My Minor Children

By Russell Gloor, AMAC Certified Social Security Advisor

Dear Rusty: I will be 62 in 2024 and am considering starting benefits at that time. I will have two children under the age of 18. One of them will be 10 and the other 15. Will they be able to draw benefits in addition to my benefits? Signed: Father of Two

Dear Father of Two: Yes, if you claim your Social Security retirement benefits at 62, your minor children will be able to get benefits from you until they are 18 years old (or up to 19 if still in high school). You will likely be designated as Representative Payee for those benefits and will be obligated to use them only for your children's behalf (which could include simply saving the money for their future). But there's more to consider.

Normally, a minor child is eligible for 50% of the parent's full retirement age (FRA) entitlement (even if you claim at 62), but Social Security's Family Maximum will likely restrict each child's benefit to make it less than 50%. Then, once the 15 year old ages-out of eligibility at 18 (or 19), the younger child's benefit will increase to the full 50% of your FRA amount. That is - unless you are married and your wife will also be collecting a spousal benefit on your record. In that case the Family Maximum will limit payments for all of the dependents receiving payments based on your SS record (both your children and your wife). Generally, the Family Maximum is between 150% and 188% of your FRA entitlement, from which your own FRA entitlement is subtracted, leaving 50% to 88% of the Family Maximum for your dependents.

It's important to remember that by claiming your own SS retirement benefit at age 62 your monthly payment will be cut by 30% (you'll get 70% of your FRA entitlement), and that is a permanent reduction. So, you may wish to evaluate whether the money your children will get until they are 18 will offset the lifetime reduction to your own benefit payment. Your life expectancy is important when making that decision, and if you wish to estimate your potential longevity I suggest using this tool: <https://socialsecurityreport.org/tools/life-expectancy-calculator/>.

It's also important to remember that claiming benefits before your full retirement age will mean that, if you work, you'll be subject to Social Security's "earnings test" which limits how much you can earn before some of your benefits are taken away. The earnings limit changes annually (it's $21,240 for 2023) and, if the limit is exceeded, SS will withhold $1 in benefits for every $2 you are over the limit. They will withhold future benefits to recover anything you owe for exceeding the earnings limit and, if your benefits are withheld for this reason, your dependents' benefits will also be withheld for those same months. So, your plans for working should be weighed carefully in deciding whether to claim your Social Security benefits early.

To summarize: If you won't work full time after age 62 and you're comfortable with 70% of your FRA benefit entitlement for the rest of your life, then claiming at 62 will also entitle your children (and possibly your wife) to dependent benefits (restricted by the Family Maximum). But, if you continue to work full time, Social Security's earnings test will likely mean neither you nor your dependents can receive full Social Security benefits at this time. And for clarity, the earnings limit no longer applies after you reach your full retirement age.

Just Pile Up Money, And Go Do It

Dear Dave,

I plan to buy another investment property with cash in the next year or two. Currently, I have $83,000 sitting in a high-yield savings account at 4% interest. My goal is to save another $50,000 to $70,000 in the upcoming months. Right now, 4% is good, but I want to make sure I'm maximizing my returns. Should I be doing something else with the money?

– Brett

Dear Brett,

I like the way you're doing things. Right now, you're simply parking the money short term for a purchase a few months down the road. If you invest it, you might make a little more, but you're taking more risk too. If I'm you, I'm parking the cash.

Here's the deal: The money you'll have to purchase another property won't come from a return on the investment. It'll come from you putting money in the account. The investment isn't the secret sauce in this scenario — you are. If you invested the money and made 10% rather than 4% over two months, let's say, that amounts to about a 3% difference. That's nothing in your case. You're not within a couple thousand dollars of doing a deal at the moment. Your deal is a $150,000 deal. Your return on investment isn't going to make this happen, or keep it from happening. See what I'm saying?

Just keep doing what you've been doing and park the money. That's what I'd do. People who are math nerds, like us, always look for things to fix an investment. But sometimes the thing that fixes the investment is you. You are the one doing the investing. You are the one putting money in the account. So, in this case, don't try to fix it. Just pile up money and go do it.

Great question, Brett!
