SacRT to Improve Light Rail System

SacRT News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento Regional Transit District (SacRT) was awarded $30 million in state grant funding through the Transit and Intercity Rail Capital Program (TIRCP) to help make major improvements to the Sacramento region's light rail system, reduce greenhouse gas emissions, and support jobs.

The California State Transportation Agency (CalSTA)

awarded SacRT funding to help fund three major projects. SacRT will receive $23.6 million as part of a nearly $600 million Light Rail Modernization Project an additional $5 million to support connectivity and planning at Sacramento Valley Station (SVS) to prepare for future development at the Railyards, and $1.5 million for contactless fare payment devices onboard buses and light rail vehicles.

- Light Rail Modernization Project: SacRT is currently working on modernizing the light rail system with new low-floor light rail vehicles, converting 29 light rail stations on the Gold Line to accommodate new low-floor vehicles, and adding a "passing track" at the Glenn/Robert G. Holderness Station in Folsom to provide 15-minute service, rather than the existing 30 minutes. TIRCP funding will support the purchase of eight new low-floor light rail vehicles to replace vehicles that have passed their useful life. Low-floor

California Sheriffs Issue Public Alert Following DOJ Data Breach

CSSA News Release

SUTTER COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The California State Sheriffs' Association (CSSA) is alarmed to learn of a data breach by the California Department of Justice (DOJ) that has made public the personal information of California's citizen concealed weapon (CCW) permit holders.

CSSA is issuing this alert to make CCW permit holders aware of the situation so they can take appropriate precautions.

"It is infuriating that people who have been complying with the law have been put at risk by this breach," said CSSA President and Butte County Sheriff Kory Honea. "California's sheriffs are very concerned about this data breach and the risk it poses to California's CCW permit holders."

CSSA will continue to engage with DOJ in an effort to ensure that the risk to CCW permit holders is mitigated and a breach of this nature does not happen again.

Every law enforcement agency in California that issues CCW permits is required by law to provide certain information about CCW permit holders to DOJ, which in turn is required to safeguard that information. The data breach was in conjunction with DOJ's launch of its "2022 Firearms Dashboard Portal." The breach included, but was not limited to, the names, ages, and addresses of individuals who hold CCW permits in California. It appears that before the breach was detected by DOJ, the information was copied and at least some portion of it was posted on the internet.

After learning of the breach, CSSA President and Butte County Sheriff Kory Honea contacted DOJ officials. During that conversation DOJ confirmed there was a data breach involving CCW permit holder information. DOJ advised it has deactivated the dashboard and is working to determine the scope of the breach. DOJ stated it would be contacting all CCW permit holders directly to advise them of the breach and will institute a program to mitigate any harm or damages to CCW holders that result from the breach.

DOJ has issued a statement regarding this situation that can be accessed on their website. ★

Seniors Missing Out

Some seniors and disabled people will miss out on new California state payments. Californians who don't file taxes — because they don't earn enough to owe any — won't receive the new round of state payments. That includes some seniors and disabled people, as well as some of the lowest-income adults. Photo courtesyPixabay

By Grace Gedye,

Some 23 million Californians' bank accounts will get a boost of $200 to $1,050, thanks to a new round of payments approved by state lawmakers.

But the payments, aimed at mitigating higher prices for gas and other goods, will leave out lots of low-income Californians. Among those passed over are some seniors, many living on disability benefits, and some of the lowest-income adults.

That's because the direct deposits and debit cards — expected to begin

Mom & Daughter: An Entrepreneurial Duo

Story and photos
by Cecilia Feser

RIO LINDA, CA (MPG) - It was another nice spring feeling night at this week's Farmer's Market and Craft Fair.

The weather has been unseasonably coastal. Cooler at night and comfortable during the day.

This week's featured vendor is Renewal Soaps. Mom, LeeAnn Williams and her "crew of littles," as she refers to her three kids who help make the creations.

"We also make lotions, bath bombs and shaving soaps for the men," Williams said.

They have been making soaps for the last year and a half. LeeAnn said she started doing it just to make some "usable" gifts for the holidays. Family members began to ask for more of the soaps, lotions and bath bombs. Then, that light bulb above her head lit up and she had a business.

"I create what I like. If it sells, we just make more," Williams said. "Sometimes a flavor or scent doesn't sell as well as the others. I jot it down and then discount that smell/flavor and try other smells. [It's] very exciting to create the different flavors and smells!"

Sitting next to mom was her 15-year-old daughter Janae. She too got into the spirit of creating and taught herself how to personalize cups. She also makes wood signs. You can give her a picture or a favorite saying you'd like to put onto a cup or container, almost anything. For the wood, she burns the saying into it, whatever you ask she will try to do for you. Janae said the turnaround time from order to gift can be as fast as two days.

At only 15 years old, Janae is already an entrepreneur. Great job, mom! Renewal Soaps can be contacted at (916) 256-6701, ask for LeeAnn.

It was a nice night! More people were set up since last week. Hopefully that trend continues. Remember, it is free to set up a space. Just show up on Thursday night starting at 5 p.m. and fill out your application.

arriving in late October and conclude in January 2023 – will be sent out based on tax returns.

About 3 million Californians are in families that earn little enough that they aren't required to file taxes, according to research by Public Policy Institute of California for its 2019 California Poverty Measure. The poverty rate among people who live in families that don't need to file taxes is 60%, the institute estimates. Neither the state Department of Finance nor the Franchise Tax Board, which is responsible for collecting state personal income tax in California, knew exactly how many Californians will be left out of the rebate.

The Legislature wanted to create a program to send payments to people who don't file taxes and aren't enrolled in safety net programs that received a boost in the budget. But after negotiations with the Newsom administration, that proposal didn't make it into the final budget.

H.D. Palmer, spokesperson for the Department of Finance, said that he couldn't offer specifics on why the proposal didn't make it into the final budget, but that proposals from both sides didn't make it into the compromise.

Representatives for Senate President Pro Tem Toni Atkins and Assembly Speaker Anthony Rendon said nobody could figure out how to administer such payments.

"Ultimately, the configuration of the rebate was subject to three-party negotiations as part of the final budget, and there were concerns that there wasn't an efficient and secure way of accomplishing a grant program to non-tax filers," said a statement from the office of Atkins, a San Diego Democrat.

The Legislature "really wanted to get help to these people, but ... we were not able to do it logistically," said a spokesperson for Rendon, a South Gate Democrat.

The payments will go out to Californians who filed 2020 tax returns by October 2021, according to the Franchise Tax Board, which has a tool for calculating how much you are eligible to receive based on how much you earn and other factors.

But in California, people earning less than $19,310 who don't have a child or someone else depending on them – one of many different gross income thresholds – aren't required to file income taxes. The state also doesn't count Social Security retirement or disability benefits as taxable income, meaning people who receive those benefits aren't required to pay taxes, so long as they have minimal other income.

Lawmakers tried to aid some low-earners who may not file taxes by increasing payments for people receiving CalWorks benefits, a program for needy families. They also increased benefits for people who receive Supplemental Security Income – a state-supplemented version of social security benefits for senior or disabled people who would otherwise not qualify for, or have extremely small social security payments.

The boosts for people in those two programs are good, said Trinh Phan, a senior staff attorney focused on economic security at Justice in Aging, which advocates for low-income older adults. Still, she said, the budget package still leaves out some people who are very low-income.

For example, someone getting by just on Social Security Disability Insurance could miss out on this rebate and the boosts to CalWorks and Supplemental Security Income: They might earn little enough that they don't have to file taxes, but if they don't have kids they likely won't qualify for CalWorks. And, if their disability benefits pay more than $1060.21 per month, they wouldn't qualify for Supplemental Security Income either, said Phan.

About a quarter of Americans over 65 live in households where 90% of the family income is Social Security, according to the Social Security Administration. The average retired worker benefit in California is about $1,500 per month, or $18,000 per year. The average SSDI benefit is about $1,300 per month, or $15,600 per year.

Some low-income Californians won't receive the rebate, Department of Finance spokesperson H.D. Palmer said. But he pointed out that many people who aren't required to file taxes still choose to do so, sometimes to receive other benefits distributed through the system. In 2020, an additional 500,000 low-income tax returns were filed in California, Palmer said in a statement, "presumably to qualify for a Golden State Stimulus payment or perhaps even a federal relief payment." Palmer also pointed to other forms of financial assistance in the budget, such as $1.4 billion in aid for people with unpaid utility bills.

People who don't pay taxes and aren't in a benefits program run by California are hard for the state to reach quickly with aid. Social security benefits are administered by the federal government, and the state doesn't have data on recipients, said Jesse Rothenstein, a professor of public policy and economics at University of California, Berkeley, and faculty director of the California Policy Lab.

"It's obviously not great that we're missing people, and many of them are some of the most vulnerable people in the economy," said Rothenstein. But, he said, "It's not as if there's a mechanism available that reaches everybody." Given a set of imperfect options, using the tax system was the best choice, Rothenstein said.

It's also the choice lawmakers made when distributing two rounds of Golden State Stimulus payments in 2021. After that move, they faced criticism from disability advocates, and seniors who were left out.

"To see that they have done it again this year is just further proof that nobody's paying attention to people who need the most help," said Charis Hill, a disability advocate who lives in Sacramento.

California's government doesn't know much about the people who don't file taxes. The Franchise Tax Board doesn't track the number of residents who aren't required to file taxes, or what share of those people live in poverty, according to statements in response to CalMatters' questions. A spokesperson for the board said that no state agencies appear to track that information.

The difficulty of reaching people with this payment exposes a weakness in the state's system "that needs to be addressed on a longer-term basis," said Chris Hoene, executive director of the California Budget and Policy Center, which advocates for targeting aid to lower-income people. Part of the solution would be better data sharing between the federal government and the states, he said.

But, given the options policymakers were considering – including giving money to car owners, as Gov. Newsom proposed, and cutting the gas tax – he thinks the payments based on income are a good outcome. ★

Kings find needed sharpshooters in Huerter and Monk

By Shaun Holkko, sports editor

LAS VEGAS, NV (MPG) - Live from the strip in Las Vegas, Sacramento Kings general manager Monte McNair formally introduced two of the team's newest sharpshooters to the media on July 8.

The Kings welcomed Kevin Huerter and Malik Monk to the team Friday afternoon at a press conference held at the Thomas and Mack Center. Both players bring much-needed shooting depth and floor-spacing to Sacramento.

"We had goals going in [to the offseason] about what we wanted to accomplish," McNair said. "Certainly, adding shooting, size, versatility, defense, depth, as well as a coach. We don't think we're done, but we never feel we're done. With these two guys, [they are] two pieces that are going to fit great with the rest of our guys and give us a lot of those things that we were looking for."

Huerter is a 6-foot-7 shooting guard going into his fifth season in the NBA. He was acquired July 1 by the Kings in a trade with the Atlanta Hawks in exchange for Maurice Harkless, Justin Holiday and a future first round pick, according to ESPN. In 74 games with 60 as a starter, Huerter averaged 12.1 points, 3.4 rebounds and 2.7 assists in just under 30 minutes per game for the Hawks last season.

Monk is a 6-foot-3 shooting guard entering his sixth year in the league. He signed with Sacramento as a free agent June 30 for 2-years and $19 million, according to ESPN 1320 Sacramento. In 76 games with 37 as a starter for the Los Angeles Lakers last season, Monk averaged 13.8 points, 3.4 rebounds and 2.9 assists in just over 28 minutes per game.

Huerter, 23, had spent his entire career with Atlanta until being dealt to the Kings.

"I had a vet tell me in my first two years, 'you never experience the true NBA until you get traded,'" Huerter said. "That for me was like my first true NBA-moment feeling. It's the first time you change teams and meet a whole new group of guys, new organization, so I'm really excited to be here. I feel wanted."

Monk, 24, played one season at the University of Kentucky and played alongside Sacramento's speedy sensation, De'Aaron Fox. The duo led the Wildcats to a 2017 Sweet 16 appearance and became very close.

"I talk to Fox everyday man, so it really wasn't a conversation right before I signed," Monk said. "Got a call from Sac, said they wanted to offer me, so I called Fox to see what he thought about it and made the decision after that. I'm ready to play with my teammate, my brother."

Huerter comes to Sacramento with many nicknames in tow, including K-Von, Red Velvet and Red Mamba. The 23-year-old said Kings fans can refer to him by any nickname except for K-Von, as that one was exclusive to the ATL.

"I guess that means not one has fully stuck, yet I guess if I got three or four of them," Huerter said. "I think my favorite one when I was in Atlanta was the K-Von. I think that was just something that, you know Atlanta, you know the people there, that was something that was kind of funny. They took Kevin and made me Atlanta's version of Kevin which was K-Von. So, I think that one can stay there."

"But past that, it's really whatever you guys like or feel comfortable with."

Monk played the first four years of his career with the Charlotte Hornets under the guidance of team owner, Michael Jordan, arguably one of the greatest basketball players of all-time. Last season, he played for the Lakers and alongside LeBron James, another one of the all-time greats.

"Life changing experiences from both aspects," Monk said. "With Jordan being the owner, I seen things from that side. With LeBron being a player, I seen things from his side. So, I got a lot of life changing experiences with those guys."

Huerter, Monk and the rest of the Kings will now attempt to halt the longest playoff drought in NBA history at 16 seasons beginning in October. ★

California's Chronic Technology Woes Will Be Probed

By Dan Walters CALMatters.org

Last month's primary election was the latest test for a state computer system that is supposed to provide timely and complete data on campaign contributions, lobbying expenditures and other financial aspects of the political process.

Cal-Access, as it's known, struggled to do what it was supposed to do, which surprises exactly no one who tries to use the system.

It's not a new problem. The shortcomings of the 23-year-old political reporting system have been known for years. The former secretary of state, Alex Padilla, once described Cal-Access as "a Frankenstein's monster of code" that is in need of "a complete rebuild" and sponsored 2016 legislation to create a replacement.

Then-Gov. Jerry Brown, himself a former secretary of state, agreed that the system needed an overhaul and signed the legislation. A successor system was supposed to be ready within a few years, but it wasn't.

Last year, Padilla was appointed to the U.S. Senate. Shirley Weber, a Democratic assemblywoman from San Diego, was named as his successor and she more or less scrapped what Padilla had done on the Cal-Access Replacement System or CARS, as it's called.

"To ensure that the CARS project can fully meet its statutory obligations, the scheduled June 30, 2021, rollout of the project will be postponed," Weber said. "Moving forward, the secretary of state's office will assess the project's state of readiness so that on the date it goes live it will meet the expectations of the public, stakeholders and the regulated community."

It's another example of a syndrome that has plagued state government for years. While California's Silicon Valley and other technology hubs may be global leaders in the development of information technology, its state government has been chronically incapable of implementing IT systems that work as promised.

One of the most spectacular IT failures was a meltdown in the Employment Development Department's handling of claims for unemployment insurance benefits from hundreds of thousands of California workers who lost their jobs due to pandemic-related shutdowns, compounded by approving billions of dollars in payments to fraudsters.

The long list of IT systems that have failed, incurred huge cost overruns and/or were delayed for years is, or at least should be, especially embarrassing to Gov. Gavin Newsom. In 2013, he published a book, "Citizenville: How to Take the Town Square Digital and Reinvent Government," predicting that technology would transform American democracy and end political gridlock.

California's sorry record of IT failure raises the obvious question of "why?" Is it bureaucratic sclerosis? Is it an inability to define missions precisely enough for software engineers to design solutions? Do vendors overpromise results to pad their bills?

The state auditor's office has identified managerial shortcomings in many specific projects, such as one dubbed FISCal, supposedly a comprehensive integration of financial data. However, there's never been an analysis of what obviously is a systemic procurement failure — until now.

Last week, the Legislature's audit committee directed the auditor's office to examine the entire IT procurement system, beginning with the Department of Technology, which was created several years back to solve the chronic problem.

The audit was requested by Assemblywoman Cottie Petrie-Norris, an Irvine Democrat who chairs the Assembly Accountability and Administrative Review Committee.

"The pandemic showed us the disastrous results of state IT systems that are overloaded, antiquated, and not ready for the task ahead," Petrie-Norris said. "This audit request is a critically needed look at the technology systems Californians should be able to easily rely on every day to interact with their government and obtain vital services."

A long-overdue look.

Defendant Sentenced for 1st-Degree Murder of Natomas Library Branch Supervisor

Sac County DA News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Honorable Steve White sentenced Ronald Seay to life in prison without the possibility of parole.

On April 20, 2022, a jury convicted Seay of the first-degree murder of Amber Clark. The jury also found true a personal use of a firearm causing death allegation and the special circumstance allegation of lying-in wait.

Amber Clark was the branch supervisor for the North Natomas Library. On December 11, 2018, Ronald Seay arrived at the library parking lot, parked his car with a direct view of the library exit and waited for Amber Clark to get off work. When Ms. Clark left work, she exited the library and walked through the parking lot to her car. As she walked past Seay’s car, Seay quickly exited his car and followed her. When Ms. Clark got into her car, Seay opened her driver side door, shot her 11 times with his 9mm semi-automatic pistol and left the scene. Ms. Clark succumbed to her injuries at the scene. Sacramento police detectives quickly discovered that Seay had previously been served with a Notice of Trespass by Ms. Clark in her capacity as the branch supervisor. Ms. Clark issued the Notice of Trespass because Seay repeatedly violated the library’s rules and code of conduct, became verbally aggressive and refused to leave the library. Seay appealed the ban, and the appeal was denied.

Seay was arrested on December 12, 2018, and a search of his car revealed two 9mm semi-automatic pistols. It was later confirmed that all 11 shell cartridges found at the scene were fired from the 9mm semi-automatic pistol located in Seay’s car. ★ particularly vulnerable, Yevtukh took advantage of a position of trust and the crime involved planning or sophistication.

On January 30, 2021, the 9-year-old victim and her mother contacted the Sheriff’s Office to report that Yevtukh had sexually assaulted the victim approximately 8 months prior. The victim disclosed that Yevtukh held her down and sodomized her when she was between 6 and 7 years old. She later

Yevtukh faces a maximum sentence of 30 years to life in prison. Sentencing is set for July 8, 2022, at 9:00 a.m. in Department 33 before the Honorable Laurel White. ★

Defendant Sentenced for Sexually Assaulting Vulnerable Child

Sac County DA News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - On June 24, 2022, the Honorable James Arguelles sentenced Chue Vang to 6 years in prison.

On March 14, 2022, a jury convicted Vang of child molestation and annoying or molesting a child. The jury also found true that the victim was particularly vulnerable.

On August 25, 2020, Chue Vang repeatedly came up behind the victim and inappropriately touched her. Vang also grabbed the victim by her hips and thrust into her body.

Meet San Francisco’s Newest Giant: The Yermínator

1-on-1 exclusive with Yermín Mercedes

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - With two outs in the top of the ninth inning of a 15-4 blowout between the Chicago White Sox and Minnesota Twins, Yermín Mercedes swung on a 3-0 pitch and crushed it to left center field for a home run.

Most people would think that such a moment deserves cheers and admiration from the winning team’s manager. However, that was not the case on May 17, 2021. White Sox manager Tony La Russa, who was 76 years old at the time with more than three decades of MLB managerial experience, called the moment a “big mistake” when he spoke to the media following the 16-4 victory.

According to Mercedes, he was surprised when he heard his manager’s comments to the media. La Russa said one thing to him privately in the locker room, and then said the opposite in his post-game press conference.

Baseball is America’s national pastime for a reason, and with that, comes an old school mentality from some people like La Russa who employ platitudes like the “unwritten rules” of baseball. La Russa’s disapproval went on to have a negative effect on the rising star and Mercedes was never as productive for Chicago statistically following that fateful day in May.

“We don’t have that rule in baseball,” Mercedes told the Messenger Publishing Group before making his debut with the Sacramento River Cats on June 21. “He’s an old manager. In that moment after the game, he came into my locker and he talked to me and said, ‘I got you, you’re okay, it’s my fault.’ Because I never saw the sign and he never gave me the sign. I think he gave it to the (base) coach, but he didn’t give it to me.

“I always go to home plate and make a swing; do the best I can do in the game for the whole team.”

The Yermínator went from leading MLB in batting average (.364) to suddenly plummeting back down to Earth (.271) near the league average. The drop in production led to him being demoted back to Triple-A. Mercedes suffered an injury during spring training this year and had surgery in March before eventually being designated for assignment on June 12.

While with Chicago, Mercedes showed flashes of greatness. The Dominican Republic native set a major league record as the first player in modern MLB history to begin a season with eight consecutive hits, earning him MLB Rookie of the Month honors in April 2021. On April 2, 2021, Mercedes made history as the only White Sox player to record five hits in his first major league start.

“Big Yerm,” as he refers to himself, said he didn’t do anything abnormal during the hot streak. He just stuck to his daily pregame routine and approached the plate during each at bat with the goal of making solid contact.

“I never imagined I [would] be 5-for-5 in my first game in 2021,” Mercedes said. “Then the next day, I go 3-for-3 so in that moment I had 8-for-8. My next at bat I just popped out to center field and said ‘Wow, it’s unbelievable.’ Because I never, never imagined I would make it 8-for-8 in that moment.”

On June 18, the San Francisco Giants claimed Mercedes off waivers, giving the excited 29-year-old a fresh start and a new home. Mercedes made his debut for the Giants’ Triple-A affiliate, the Sacramento River Cats, on June 21. Just like in his first start for Chicago, Mercedes recorded a hit in his first at bat for Sacramento, as the starting first baseman. Mercedes went 2-for-5 in his first game for the River Cats.

It didn’t take long for Mercedes to get the call to return to the big leagues as on June 26, the Giants recalled him from Sacramento to replace infielder Brandon Crawford who was placed on the 10-day injured list. Mercedes was 5-for-16 at the plate with two walks in four games for the River Cats.

Mercedes was optioned back to Sacramento three days later on June 29 after outfielder LaMonte Wade was activated off the IL. Then four days later, the Yermínator was back like he never left, returning to the Giants on July 3 to replace infielder Thairo Estrada, who was placed on the COVID-19-related IL.

“I know I can help the team out there,” Mercedes proclaimed with confidence. “I know they need me because I’m a good baseball player, I know that. I need to focus on working hard every time, every day coming to the ballpark. It doesn’t matter what the people say because when the people talk about you, it’s because you’re important. If you aren’t important, the people don’t talk about you.”

Mercedes provides the Giants with defensive versatility as he regularly plays first base, catcher and designated hitter. With highly touted prospect Joey Bart recently demoted back to Triple-A, that could open a door for Mercedes to stay in the major leagues for the long run as a catcher.

In five games so far with San Francisco, Mercedes has gone 4-for-11 at the plate with two doubles, two runs scored and two walks. Defensively, he has started once at catcher and first base, respectively, with the other three starts as the designated hitter.

“The future has not been written,” John Connor said in the 1984 film, The Terminator. “There is no fate but what we make for ourselves.”

Whether or not Mercedes remains with the Giants long term is yet to be seen. However, whenever an opportunity presents itself, the Yermínator will be ready. ★
