Mandated Masks Again

By Ana B. Ibarra, CALMatters

Starting Wednesday, (December 15, 2021) Californians will once again be required to wear masks indoors in public places regardless of vaccination status, state health officials announced today.

The renewed masking requirement follows a 47% increase in COVID-19 case rates since the Thanksgiving holiday and the arrival of new variant, said Dr. Mark Ghaly, the state's health secretary.

The mask mandate will run through January 15 and is specific to public settings, not private gatherings. Nevertheless, health officials recommend people get tested ahead of holiday gatherings and consider better ventilation by opening windows or convening outdoors when possible.

The mandate will mainly affect about 50% of the state population that lives in counties that currently don't have their own mask mandate, Ghaly said. Los Angeles and several Bay Area counties already have mask mandates for public settings in place.

Along with renewed mask rules, the state will also require that attendees at mega events – those of 1,000 people or more – who are unvaccinated show proof of a negative COVID-19 test taken within one day, if an antigen test, or two days for PCR tests. The state is also recommending that travelers get tested before and after trips.

The first statewide mandate was imposed in 2020 and lifted last June.

After the state's June 15 reopening, vaccinated people were allowed to return to grocery stores, retail and other public settings without a mask – at least under state rules. People who were not vaccinated still had to adhere to indoor masking. Telling the difference, however, was tricky: Ghaly acknowledged today that throughout the pandemic enforcement of these rules has been a challenge.

Inflation and California Policies are the Grinch that stole Christmas

Commentary
by Ted Gaines

Are you ready for the most expensive holiday season in forever? Hold on to your wallets, because high inflation and wrong-headed California policies are the Grinch that stole Christmas, pressuring family budgets and diminishing our quality of life.

If you've gone to the grocery store or shopping mall, you've witnessed a spike in inflation like we haven't seen in decades. The consumer price index surged 6.2 percent from a year ago in October, the highest increase since 1990. But the story is actually worse. The October monthly increase was itself 0.9 percent, which would indicate an annualized increase of nearly 11 percent.

As famously put by Nobel Prize winning economist Milton Friedman, inflation is always a monetary phenomenon. When the federal government flooded the country with stimulus dollars without accompanying goods and services, inflation was entirely predictable.

What does this mean for the average working family? It means that every item on your holiday dinner table will cost more. Gifts for your children will cost more. Heating your house will cost more. Gas, hotel rooms, movie tickets, clothing, haircuts will all cost more. Inflation robs purchasing power from each and every dollar you make.

Workers may be seeing increased wages, but when they don't keep up with price increases, people become poorer even as they earn more.

As ugly as the picture is nationally, California is worse. Our state isn't responsible for the flood of dollars driving inflation, but it's stacking bad state policies on top of bad federal policies and making it tougher for families to make ends meet.

For example, so called "green energy" policies drive our residential electricity costs more than

Donations Needed for Sacramento Life Center's Baskets4babies Drive

By Kristin Thébaud, Thébaud Communications

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Local residents can help low-income new moms in Sacramento this holiday season through the Sacramento Life Center's annual Baskets4Babies drive running through Dec. 31. The drive stocks the Sacramento Life Center's baby needs center so the nonprofit can provide a basket of needed items to every patient who gives birth in 2022. Donations can be made in any increment, but $50 guarantees a new mother has everything she needs to bring her baby home from the hospital, including diapers, clothing, bottles, formula, homemade blankets, bibs, bathing supplies and more. A pledge of $50 per month guarantees a mother can return each month to the baby needs center for additional necessities until her child is 2 years old. Donations can be made online at www.saclife.org.

year for everyone, but especially for pregnant women and new moms in need," said Marie Leatherby, executive director, Sacramento Life Center. "Having supportive people surrounding them makes all the difference. Our baby baskets give pregnant mothers practical and necessary items and show them they have a community of support."

The Sacramento Life Center's mission is to offer compassion, support, resources and free medical care to women and couples facing an unplanned or unsupported pregnancy. The Sacramento Life Center's licensed Sac Valley Pregnancy Clinic includes a primary clinic and mobile clinic that provide all services for free, including pregnancy tests, STD tests, ultrasounds, patient advocacy for men and women, education and resource referrals. Board Adopts Final District Map

By Kim Nava,
Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Board of Supervisors, at its Dec. 7 meeting, voted to adopt the Final Supervisorial District Map.

The Final Map is a result of the Board of Supervisors' direction on revisions to the earlier draft maps presented at its Nov. 2, 16 and 17 Board meetings, as well as public input.

Following the Nov. 17 Board meeting, at which the Board approved the Final Draft Map, Sacramento County's Geographic Information System (GIS) team worked with National Demographics Corporation (NDC), the County's redistricting consultant, to proof the district lines suggested by the Board. They also compared it to the district lines, Census blocks and legal boundary descriptions for all jurisdictions in Sacramento County, including cities.

NDC and the County's GIS team made minor adjustments to the Final Draft Map to address miscoding of census blocks, to avoid sliver precincts and new ballot types, and to adhere to the Board's recommendations on Nov. 16-17. Geographic descriptions of each supervisorial district boundary are also available.

County residents can utilize the interactive map titled, "Final Supervisorial District Map" to view the new lines and see where they reside within them.

Additionally, the County offers several district lookup tools and online maps. Because those tools use different source data, the County is coordinating the update to the tools simultaneously in order to provide consistency among the tools. The update will be completed in January 2022.

The public submitted more than 200 written comments containing suggestions for redistricting and supervisorial boundary lines. The public also submitted their own maps for consideration, either hand-drawn or drawn using the mapping tools available.

Every ten years, following the Census count, the resulting census data is used to geographically define electoral districts, at all levels of government, through a process called redistricting. Redistricting ensures that each of the electoral district boundaries have about the same number of people and comply with the Federal Voting Rights Act of 1965.

Visit Sacramento County's redistricting webpage for information about redistricting, including the redistricting process, written public testimony, meetings and workshops, public comment, and draft and final maps.

Sacramento County Supervisors are Phil Serna, District 1; Patrick Kennedy, District 2; Rich Desmond, District 3; Sue Frost, District 4; and Don Nottoli, District 5. ★

50-percent higher than the national average. A California specific gasoline blend, cap-and-trade charges for transportation fuels, and the highest gas taxes in the nation add up to five-dollar gas all over the state. That spells poverty for working families, commuters, rural drivers, and energy intensive businesses.

It's no surprise that California, a state that's turned shoplifting into an unpunished hobby, pushes policies that rob families and businesses every time they turn on the heat or fill their tanks.

Inflation is a stealth tax, making every dollar worth less. California residents are punished again by a policy-driven cost of living that strains our citizens to the brink.

Our governments should open their eyes and see the damage they cause to the very people they claim to help. This year, they are leaving a lump of poverty in working-class stockings. I hope for wiser policy in 2022, but that would indeed take a Christmas miracle.

Senator Ted Gaines (Ret.) was elected to represent the Board of Equalization's First District. He is a leading taxpayer advocate and is committed to providing trustworthy and transparent representation for nearly ten million constituents in 30 counties of northern, eastern, and southern California. President Emeritus Donald R. Gerth Has Passed Away

It is with extreme personal sadness that I share that Sacramento State President Emeritus Donald R. Gerth passed away. Dr. Gerth was Sac State’s longest-serving President, holding the position from 1984 to 2003. His impressive 45 years of service to the California State University began in 1958, when he joined San Francisco State as an associate dean. After serving in both administrative and faculty positions across several CSU universities, he became President of CSU Dominguez Hills in 1974, where he served until coming to Sacramento to lead our campus. With the loving support of his wife, Beverly (Bev), who served actively alongside her husband, the Gerths transformed Sacramento State. Under Dr. Gerth’s leadership, enrollment grew from 22,000 to 28,000 students, doubling its number of Asian and Hispanic students. He led the establishment of the School of Arts and the Office of Research, Graduate, and Extended Studies. He oversaw nearly $100 million in modernization of campus buildings and facilities, and added 1.2 million square feet of building to campus, including two parking structures. Dr. Gerth also established The Center for California Studies, which positioned Sac State prominently in state government and ensured that we are the Capital’s University. After four-and-a-half decades of service,

Dr. Gerth continued to be a champion of Sac State and the CSU system during his retirement. In 2010, he published The People’s University: A History of the California State University. In 2018, the University renamed the special collections as the Donald and Beverly Gerth Special Collections and University Archives in recognition of their service and support of the Sac State and the CSU. That support included a gift of $300,000 for the collections, which helped to modernize the archives, making them more accessible and useful. President Emeritus Gerth loved Sacramento State and the CSU. His impact on our campus and the system as a whole is remarkable. It was my honor to call him a friend, and I will miss his wise council. Now is the time for the entire Hornet Family to rally behind and support his beloved wife, Bev. I have spoken to Bev Gerth, who has asked that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the President Emeritus Donald R. Gerth Memorial Scholarship Fund. Bev has asked that we wait until early next year to hold a celebration of life for Don. Details will be forthcoming.

Sacramento County Grand Jury Recruiting for 2022-23

Sacramento County Superior Court Press Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Sacramento County’s Superior Court announced today that it has officially opened its application process seeking new jurors to serve on the 2022-23 Sacramento County Grand Jury. Nineteen Sacramento County residents, and 11 alternates, will be selected from among the qualified applicants to volunteer for the term which runs from July 1, 2022, to June 30, 2023. The Grand Jury is the independent watchdog over the county’s government agencies and services. Jurors investigate the performance of county, city, and local governing entities ranging from school districts to the criminal justice system to health and welfare agencies. Additionally, the Sacramento County Grand Jury is authorized to hear criminal indictments, and jurors have the rare opportunity to visit detention facilities throughout the region. “The Grand Jury is entrusted by the public to investigate and report on local government operations and to ensure responsibilities are being fulfilled honestly and with integrity,” explains Grand Jury Foreperson Deanna Hanson. “It is also our duty to make certain the public understands our work and has the opportunity to be involved.” The current Grand Jury recently issued a report on COVID-19 vaccine mandates for K-12 public schools. It also received significant news media coverage earlier this month on its report regarding the serious safety concerns facing the Del Paso Manor Water District. Anyone may file a complaint against a county government entity with the Grand Jury for review and investigative consideration. All Grand Jury activities are conducted in secrecy. Jurors act as volunteers and receive a small stipend for their work. To be considered as a Grand Juror, applications must be received by January 28, 2022. Anyone applying must be a Sacramento County resident over the age of 18. Further qualification requirements are available on the Grand Jury website. Those who initially qualify will be interviewed, with the final Grand Jury empanelment taking place on June 3, 2022. To apply, visit the Grand Jury website at: www.sacgrandjury.org. ★

Board Approves Budget Priorities Based on Survey

By Kim Nava,
Sacramento County

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County Board of Supervisors, at its Dec. 8 meeting, approved the recommended budget priorities to be used in the development of the FY 2022-23 budget. The budget priorities were a result of the County’s Community Engagement Plan to develop priorities for the budget based on public input and the results of a survey of adult residents of Sacramento County. The recommended priorities for the use of General Fund discretionary funds in the FY 2022-23 budget are: Complying with the County’s legal, financial, regulatory and policy obligations, including providing mandated services, ensuring collection of revenues, and complying with the General Reserves policy; Maintaining existing service levels budgeted for County programs, improving effectiveness and efficiency where possible and limiting the extent to which reductions in categorical revenue are backfilled with discretionary resources; Funding new or enhanced programs that focus on the most critical and urgent needs, with the following priority focus areas identified in a survey of County residents: A Countywide focus area of addressing homelessness and its impacts, including housing, mental health and substance use; An unincorporated focus area of improving the condition of streets and roads. In order to inform the development of survey questions, County departments conducted outreach with the County’s Advisory Boards and Commissions. All told, 59 boards and commissions provided responses, with key themes including affordable housing, homelessness, health and human services, safety, and parks and road infrastructure. After a competitive bid process, the Board approved a contract award to FM3 Research (FM3) to develop a survey instrument and administer the public opinion survey. FM3 conducted the survey of adult residents of Sacramento County from Oct. 27 through Nov. 8, 2021. Surveys were conducted through telephone and online interviews with 1,153 respondents, compared to the target of 800 respondents, with a margin of sampling error of ±3.5 percent at the 95 percent confidence level. The survey was available in 10 languages, including English. Of the 1,153 respondents surveyed, residents were drawn from communities in proportion to the population, represented the County’s adult population demographics by age and gender, and came from a mix of educational backgrounds and household income. More than half of the respondents identified with a race or ethnicity other than white, and more than one-quarter indicated they speak a language other than English at home regularly. More than two in five respondents personally experienced homelessness or knew someone who had, and more than half have lived in the County for more than 20 years. Survey results highlights include: County Context: The top concern the survey respondents want the County to address, by far, is homelessness. Of the respondents identified, 53 percent reported homelessness as the most important problem. The second and third categories, affordable housing/rent and crime/public safety/drugs/violence, were far behind at 13 percent each. Roads/infrastructure was the fourth category at 8 percent, and COVID-19/pandemic/mandates was fifth at 7 percent. Homelessness and housing costs are the top issues across racial and ethnic groups, and street and road conditions are especially concerning for residents in District 3. In homes where a language other than English is spoken, jobs are a slightly bigger concern. Resident Priorities for County Budget: Low levels of homelessness and crime, child abuse prevention and reliable water are seen as key to quality of life. Residents also strongly value affordable housing and disaster preparation. Residents were broadly satisfied with waste disposal, clean water, parks and libraries. A majority of residents were dissatisfied with maintenance of County streets and roads. Fully four in five residents are dissatisfied with the County’s efforts to prevent homelessness, and a number of key items that are more important to quality of life also have lower satisfaction ratings, including affordable housing, mental health services, child abuse prevention, job creation, planning for growth and drug use treatment. Allocating the County Budget: Residents were asked to imagine they are in charge of the Sacramento County budget, and were asked how they would prioritize County spending in six broad areas. On average, residents allocated more funding to public safety and homelessness than other areas. Residents in Districts 3, 4 and 5 assigned more of their funding to public safety, and white and Latino residents assigned greater shares to public safety as well. Notably, those with and without ties to homelessness assign about the same amount to that priority. ★

California’s ‘Tort Wars’ Heating Up Again

By Dan Walters
CALMatters

One of the Capitol’s most enduring conflicts pits personal injury attorneys and their allies in consumer advocacy groups against corporate interests and their insurers.

The two factions clash incessantly over what events are deemed wrongful acts (torts), who can sue over those acts and what monetary damages can be awarded.

Dubbed “tort wars,” the conflict has raged for decades in the Legislature, in the courts and occasionally via ballot measures, each side depicting itself as the good guys and the other as rapaciously evil. Millions of dollars are spent each year on lobbyists, media strategists, political campaign advisors and other tools of the political trade.

The intensity of the war varies from year to year, and 2022 is shaping up as one its hotter periods as the factions propose dueling ballot measures. One would effectively undo a 1975 law that limits damages for “pain and suffering” in medical malpractice cases, while another would place a new limit on the fees that personal injury attorneys can claim.

That 1975 law, entitled the Medical Injury

Compensation Reform Act (MICRA) and signed by Jerry Brown during his first year as governor, limits non-economic damages for malpractice to $250,000. Its passage was not only a big win for medical providers and their insurers but the opening salvo of the war.

The attorneys not only have tried — very unsuccessfully so far — to repeal or modify MICRA but have sought to expand opportunities to sue and collect damages and fees, such as allowing them to intervene in cases that ordinarily would be handled by local or state legal authorities.

Business groups and insurers, meanwhile, have not only attempted to blunt the attorneys’ expansive ambition but to carry the MICRA model of damage limits into other potential injury cases.

In 1987, 12 years after MICRA was enacted, the speaker of the state Assembly, Willie Brown, mediated extensive negotiations between the warring factions on a truce, culminating in the infamous “napkin deal” worked out in Frank Fat’s restaurant near the Capitol with Brown hopping from table to table.

Quickly ratified by the Legislature, it gave lobbyists for every interest involved something to take back to their clients, including a slight modification of MICRA and new protections for the tobacco industry from lawsuits by smokers for cancer and other illnesses.

The napkin deal truce lasted for a few years, but tort wars resumed in the 1990s and have been waged ever since on specific issues, including several unsuccessful efforts to change MICRA. One subset of the conflict, involving roughly the same interests, has been perennial jousting over workers’ compensation, the employer-financed, multi-billion-dollar system that covers job-related injuries and illnesses.

A ballot measure that would indirectly but effectively repeal MICRA is already qualified for the 2022 ballot even though the anti-MICRA coalition has failed repeatedly in the past to undo what the Legislature and Jerry Brown wrought 46 years ago.

Meanwhile, the Civil Justice Association of California, an umbrella organization of business and insurance interests, has unveiled its own initiative measure that would limit lawyers’ contingency fees in personal injury cases to 20% of monetary judgments, sharply lower than the traditional one-third or more. The goal, obviously, is to make attorneys less willing to take on cases.

The stage is set, therefore, for the competing factions to spend tens of millions of dollars to persuade voters, which would be a tiny fraction of the many billions of dollars at stake in the outcome. And regardless of what happens next year, the immense stakes mean tort wars will continue to rage indefinitely.

Dan Walters has been a journalist for nearly 60 years, spending all but a few of those years working for California newspapers. ★

Suspect Arrested for Serial Sexual Assaults

By Sergeant Rod Grassmann,
Sacramento County Sheriff’s
Department

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County District Attorney’s Office and the Sacramento County Sheriff’s Office announce the arrest of JD Wallace Simien (40) of Sacramento County for a series of violent sexual assaults. The assaults occurred between 2013 and 2014 in northern Sacramento County.

Despite investigative efforts at the time of the sexual assaults, no suspects were ever identified and the cases went cold. The suspect was referred to as the “Cloverleaf Rapist” over the years due to the proximity of the crime scenes to freeway entrances and exits, which resemble a cloverleaf pattern.

The cases remained unsolved until recently. Investigators from the Sacramento County District Attorney’s Office and detectives from the Sacramento County Sheriff’s Office used Investigative Genetic Genealogy (IGG) to develop fact-finding leads which led them to JD Wallace Simien. This is the same investigative tool used to identify Joseph James DeAngelo (Golden State Killer and East Area Rapist) and Roy Waller (Nor Cal Rapist), who were both prosecuted for their crimes in Sacramento County. The arrest of Simien marks the sixth IGG case prosecuted in Sacramento County.

JD Wallace Simien is currently being held in the Sacramento County Main Jail without bail. He will be arraigned on Monday, November 8, 2021, in Sacramento County Superior Court. No further arrests are anticipated in this case. No additional information or booking photo is available at this time.

This is an active and ongoing criminal investigation. Any community members with information regarding this investigation are urged to contact Sacramento County Sheriff’s Sexual Assaults Office at (916) 874-3918 or email: SEAB@sacsheriff.com ★

Ghaly said state officials are not considering any further restrictions or capacity limits on businesses at this time. “Is this the first step along the course we’re familiar with... including closures? Absolutely not.”

That’s because, he said, despite concerns of the new Omicron variant and rising case rates, the state has effective tools at hand: vaccines and masks.

To date, 74,685 Californians have died from COVID-19.

ASK THE DMV

Check Some Stress Off Your List And Utilize Some Of DMV's Most Convenient Services.

'Tis the season to...wait in line! Whether it's at the grocery store, the post office or the mall, we've all been there – but don't let the DMV be one of those places. Now you can add DMV to the "nice list" for not having to wait in line for some online services.

Q: I saw a DMV Now kiosk at my local grocery store. What is used for and how can I use it? Can I use it if I can't make it to the DMV office before the holidays?

A: Yes! If you are unable to make it to the DMV before the holiday season, you can use one of the hundreds of DMV Now kiosks located throughout the state to help complete your vehicle registration renewal, submit proof of insurance, receive a driver or vehicle record, and more. DMV Now kiosks are convenient and allow you to conduct transactions quickly and efficiently. Simply scan your document, pay the fees using a card or cash (where available) and then print your registration card and sticker, planned non-operation acknowledgment, and more, right on the spot.

DMV kiosks are freestanding self-service touchscreen devices that guide you through various DMV transactions, from registration renewal and payment to submitting proof of insurance.

Q: My car registration is out of date and I don't have time to visit the DMV before the holidays. Can I renew my registration online?

A: Yes! Skip the line this holiday season and renew your vehicle registration online. The DMV offers a variety of online services that make completing your DMV business easy and efficient, from renewing vehicle registration to changing your address, or driver's license renewal – and much more! Find a list of online services, you guessed it, online!

In addition to online services, the DMV offers other methods for completing select transactions to help reduce your trips to the DMV and save you time this holiday season, including DMV kiosks and Business Partner Automation (BPA) locations:

Our Business Partner Automation (BPA) program authorizes qualified partners to process vehicle related transactions, including vehicle registration and titling, from their remote locations. Learn more about our BPA program and what transactions can be processed.
