Fighting Fentanyl and Rockin' the House

Casper rockin' out the house while bringing attention to the fentanyl issue at the awareness event.

Michele Townsend

WEST SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Local father Rick Brazil, along with family and friends, hosted the second "Fighting Fentanyl," fentanyl awareness event on Saturday, June 3rd. From noon until about 3 PM, the event hosted a car show, featuring several cars from the Sacramento Locos Car Club, cars from Specialty Automotive and a bicycle show. Keeping the place lively and upbeat were the music of the two DJ's, Casper and Joker. The DJ booth was set up in front of Muscle Systems gym, the business that hosted the event.

Low Cost Liquor, the small liquor store that is located in the same business complex at 920 Sacramento Ave., joined in with support and donated cases of water and ice so that people could stay hydrated. The River Cats organization showed their support by setting up a table where everyone could win a prize. The prizes included River Cats hats, baseball cards, bobble heads, soft baseballs for the little ones, portable dog bowls and much more.

The event was definitely the place to be if you had stomachs to fill. Food for sale at the "Fighting Fentanyl" awareness event included Curly Q's BBQ, Chili Willy Ice Cream, a couple of small vendor carts and a local taco truck. There were balloons, and snow cones and a visit from the West Sacramento Fire Department.

After the people really started to roll in and there were lawn chairs and families lining the edge of the complex and some were still struggling to find shade, the music was turned off and the speakers began. West Sacramento's Assistant District Attorney, Preston Schaub spoke about how the problem of fentanyl is rampant. He spoke that this is not a situation that can be policed away. It is going to take everyone to talk about it. He said that the simple decision of whether or not to do drugs for the first time is one that can save, or

Valley Clean Energy Receives Award

Valley Clean Energy
News Release

DAVIS, CA (MPG) - As part of California Community Choice Association's (CalCCA) annual conference May 17-19 in San Diego, CA, Valley Clean Energy (VCE) was honored as runner-up in the Reliability category of the annual Community Impact Awards in recognition of its AgFIT Pilot Program.

Launched in 2022, VCE's AgFIT, or Agricultural Flexible Irrigation Technology pilot, supports local growers in decreasing energy usage and costs. In partnership with Polaris Energy Services and TeMix, the program provides incentives for irrigation automation and leverages software to help agricultural customers manage energy costs while providing maximum flexibility. The system gives agricultural customers visibility into energy prices a week ahead to help schedule irrigation for when energy costs (and other demands on the grid) are lowest.

"Valley Clean Energy is honored to be recognized for our work in Yolo County. Serving a large agricultural sector, it is important that we develop programs and solutions to fit the needs of our customers," said Tom Stallard, VCE's Board Chair and Woodland City Council Member. "In just a short time, the program has helped growers shift about 40% of their energy use away from summer evening critical peak hours. We plan to expand enrollment in the program and hope to see even more impact and customer savings."

The CalCCA Annual Conference featured workshops and sessions with keynote speakers from statewide agencies, and highlighted the growing CCA movement within California. During the inaugural awards ceremony, CCA programs were recognized for their outstanding and innovative projects

WEST SACRAMENTO (MPG) - The California Department of Parks and Recreation and the California Indian Heritage Center held a public workshop and idea exchange at the future site of the Heritage Center on Marina Way, in West Sacramento. Located along the river, tucked away in the trees was a big tent. In this tent, the design outreach team of Fentress Architects and Amaktoolik Studios had boards with lists of amenities and programs to give the members of the public some ideas of what they would like to see included in the future park.

The California Indian Heritage Center will be a State Park. An extensive tribal outreach began in

Elk Grove Man Sentenced to 22-Years-to-Life in Prison for DUI Murders

Yolo County DA News Release

YOLO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - On May 30, 2023, Yolo County Superior Court Judge Peter Williams sentenced 29-year-old Elk Grove man, Gabriel Poletti, to 22 years-to-life in prison with the possibility of parole. The sentence was the result of Poletti’s conviction for two counts of DUI-related second-degree murder.

During the late hours of February 15, 2021, Poletti was driving southbound on Jefferson Avenue in West Sacramento when he crossed over the center dividing line and struck a vehicle head-on while it was stopped at a red light in the opposite turn lane. Inside that vehicle, husband and wife Rasul and Anila Afzili were killed as a result of the collision. Their three-year-old child suffered a broken arm and leg, while their 5-month-old baby miraculously suffered only cuts and abrasions. A test of Poletti’s blood revealed he had a blood alcohol content of 0.243%, over three times California’s legal limit.

Under California law, DUI drivers may be charged with murder if they are found to understand that driving under the influence is a dangerous act that may kill or injure others, yet they choose to do so regardless. Nearly all California courts require an advisement of this fact when an individual is convicted of DUI. Drivers with prior DUI convictions should understand the risks of driving under the influence. Poletti had been previously convicted of DUI on April 8, 2016, in Sacramento County, and had been arrested for another DUI in Sacramento County on February 2, 2021, a mere 13 days prior to the fatal Yolo County crash.

On May 10, 2023, Poletti pled guilty to all counts and enhancements alleged against him, including two counts of second-degree murder, vehicular manslaughter while intoxicated, and driving under the influence of alcohol causing injury. Poletti entered his plea following a promise from Judge Williams that, if Poletti entered a guilty plea to all charges, he would be sentenced to seven years in state prison plus an additional 15-years-to-life. The District Attorney’s Office supported the family of the deceased in objecting to this deal. At today’s hearing, several members of the victims’ family spoke and provided statements in opposition to the sentence.

“We are all well aware of the risks to human life of drinking and driving. And Mr. Poletti was acutely aware having been convicted of one DUI in 2016 and having been arrested for another DUI just 13 days before this tragedy,” said District Attorney Jeff Reisig. “His decisions and actions took the lives of Rasul and Anila Afzili. Nothing will bring them back but there must be accountability and we must protect the public moving forward.” ★

Climate Action and Adaptation Plan Community Workshops

Yolo County News Release

WOODLAND, CA (MPG) - The Yolo County Sustainability Program is excited to announce the first round of Community Workshops for the 2030 Climate Action and Adaptation Plan update.

In 2020, the Yolo County Board of Supervisors set the goal of meeting a carbon-negative footprint by 2030 with a focus on equity and justice. The Climate Action and Adaptation Plan is a roadmap that outlines the actions that Yolo County will take to meet this goal, reduce greenhouse gas emissions and help Yolo County be more resilient to climate impacts such as higher temperatures, more frequent wildfires and floods, and drought. Driven by public input, the plan will include recommendations for how Yolo County can lower emissions, protect natural resources, use more renewable energy, support the sustainable agricultural practices that are already thriving here in Yolo County and more. The Climate Action and Adaptation Plan is designed to benefit all community members and to promote health, equity and resilience in all processes and outcomes.

As part of the process of updating the County Climate Action and Adaptation Plan, community members are encouraged to provide their input by attending one of three upcoming community workshops where information about the plan will be discussed and members of the public will have the opportunity to share their vision for a more resilient, equitable and sustainable Yolo County. Valley Clean Energy Receives Award

WEST SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Principal Brittony Billingslea led the River City High School Class of 2023 into adulthood at Sutter Health Park on Wednesday, May 31st. With a packed house she explained how this Senior Class was a little bit different than the others. This was the first class that she saw come in as nervous and timid Freshmen and was now graduating as adults. The first class she was there for their entire high school career.

Principal Billingslea gave her heartfelt remarks about the students and how proud she is of them. She reminded them about everything that they have accomplished, and how well they did it. She reminded them of struggles that they had faced, about fears and about recovering from the confusing time of the pandemic. Then she reminded them that in spite of it all, they were all graduating. When you looked at the sea of dark blue gowns and decorated caps, you saw big and proud smiles. You could see the students scanning the crowd to find their families, and some extra excitement when many of them saw surprise guests there to see them on their big day. The excitement was contagious and filled the stadium. According to Principal Billingslea, 470 students received their diplomas before the ceremonies ended that day. Congratulations to each and every one of you! You have worked hard for this goal and reached it. The next goal that you set for yourself may be long and difficult as well, but now you know that you can persevere and achieve it as well. ★

Graduation caps were decorated to show a piece of the personality and style of the graduate.

Graduating senior beaming with pride when returning to her seat after receiving diploma.

across three categories: Equity, Reliability, and Decarbonization.

“There was an incredible energy among CCA staff, board and CCA support - we are a truly collaborative group with a passion for helping sister agencies succeed. Our team was humbled to have been named a runner-up in the Reliability category for the Impact Awards,” said Rebeca Boyles, Director of Customer Care and Marketing at VCE.

CalCCA has 25 CCA members and six affiliates serving over 11 million customers and 200+ cities and counties throughout California. As a collection of public agencies, CalCCA represents its members in the legislature and at state regulatory agencies to support the long-term sustainability of their members and advocate with a collective voice, education, and technical and regulatory guidance.

The continued growth of Community Choice Aggregators throughout California gives communities and customers the opportunity to choose their energy source and create a positive lasting impact.

Valley Clean Energy - or VCE - is the official electricity provider for residential and commercial customers in the cities of Woodland, Winters, and Davis, and unincorporated Yolo County. We’re a not-for-profit public agency, which means that we’re working 100% for our customers. VCE offers a choice in electricity suppliers for the first time ever. It also keeps program control and revenues right here at home, where we can create jobs and build local clean energy installations—as many other programs just like ours have already done. We’ll reinvest dollars to boost our local economy while taking control of our clean energy future. More information is available at <https://valleycleanenergy.org/>.

Launched in 2016, the California Community Choice Association (CalCCA) represents California’s community choice electricity providers before the state legislature and at regulatory agencies. There are 25 operational CCA programs in California serving more than 11 million customers—about one-quarter of the state’s population—in 200+ cities and counties throughout the state. partner with tribal communities, regional cultural centers and museums to create a statewide perspective on California’s diverse Indian cultural legacy. Once complete, the CIHC will draw visitors from across California, the nation and the world to this center of statewide significance for cultural preservation, learning and exchange, land stewardship based on Native American values and a place to engage all visitors in celebrating the living cultures of California’s tribe communities.

The center will sit on a 51-acre site behind “The Rivers” residential development and will sit on the American and Sacramento Rivers. The public was asked what amenities they would like to see. Some of those requested included: restaurant/dining, an area for traditional tribal rituals to be performed (and discussion about whether or not the public should be allowed to attend), gift shops, outdoor picnic areas, places for Indian artifacts and Indian Art. There was discussion about the style of the building and whether the landscape should stay natural or be developed and designed.

Information about future outreach workshops is updated on the project engagement website at CaIndianHeritageCenter.org/Participation. Additional information can be found on the project website at CaIndianHeritageCenter.org. A “rough guess” for a completion date was in about 10 years. ★

It's Not A Joint Venture,
It's A Marriage

Dear Dave,

When my wife and I got married, she had about $70,000 in savings and I had a lot of debt. We bought some property from her parents to build a home on, and she made a 20% down payment on the land from her savings. We've paid off some debt, and she has more in savings now. But I feel guilty and it seems unfair to ask her to pay on our debt with her savings since most of it is debt I brought into the marriage. How do you feel about this?

— Sonny

Dear Sonny,

This question tells me you're a good guy with a good heart. But let me ask you a thing or two. When your wife gets sick, is it unfair for you to take care of her? You didn't cause it. It's not your fault. Of course, it's not unfair. I'm not mad at you, buddy. I'm just throwing your own logic right back at you.

Maybe these next lines will sound familiar: for richer or for poorer, in sickness and in health. The old "Book of Common Prayer" continues the vows and says, "Unto thee, all my worldly goods I pledge." This is called oneness. It's called unity. And it's what a good marriage should be about.

Do you get what I'm saying, Sonny? The two of you are in this together. This is not a business partnership or joint venture. It's a man and a woman pledging themselves, and all they have and are, to each other. I understand your feelings, but if you're not careful, that kind of guilt will stand in the way of you two creating a successful marriage—both financially and emotionally.

When you got married, the "me" and "mine" became "we" and "ours." You got all her stuff, the good and bad, and she got all of yours. Now it's time for you to work as a team to make the bad stuff go away and the good things even better. What's fair (and what's right) is to combine all of your income, all of your assets and all of your liabilities.

I know it's uncomfortable, but you've got to choose courage. Ask her to go all in on this with you and attack your debt together. Work toward making your dreams come true together as one.

That's what's fair, and that's what's best when you're married.

— Dave

T.S. No. 107700-CA APN: 014-341-012-000 NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE IMPORTANT NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: YOU ARE IN DEFAULT UNDER A DEED OF TRUST, DATED 3/11/2013. UNLESS YOU TAKE ACTION TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY, IT MAY BE SOLD AT A PUBLIC SALE. IF YOU NEED AN EXPLANATION OF THE NATURE OF THE PROCEEDING AGAINST YOU, YOU SHOULD CONTACT A LAWYER On 6/15/2023 at 12:45 PM, CLEAR RECON CORP, as duly appointed trustee under and pursuant to Deed of Trust recorded 3/25/2013 as Instrument No. 2013-0009371-00 of Official Records in the office of the County Recorder of Yolo County, State of CALIFORNIA executed by: YASH-VIR CHAND, AN UNMARRIED MAN. WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION TO HIGHEST BIDDER FOR CASH, CASHIER'S CHECK DRAWN ON A STATE OR NATIONAL BANK, A CHECK DRAWN BY A STATE OR FEDERAL CREDIT UNION, OR A CHECK DRAWN BY A STATE OR FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, SAVINGS ASSOCIATION, OR SAVINGS BANK SPECIFIED IN SECTION 5102 OF THE FINANCIAL CODE AND

AUTHORIZED TO DO BUSINESS IN THIS STATE; OUTSIDE THE REAR (NORTH) ENTRANCE TO THE CITY HALL 1110 WEST CAPITOL AVENUE, WEST SACRAMENTO, CA 95691 all right, title and interest conveyed to and now held by it under said Deed of Trust in the property situated in said County and State described as: MORE FULLY DESCRIBED ON SAID DEED OF TRUST The street address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: 602 ARTHUR DRIVE, WEST SACRAMENTO, CA 95605 The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. Said sale will be held, but without covenant or warranty, express or implied, regarding title, possession, condition, or encumbrances, including fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust, to pay the remaining principal sums of the note(s) secured by said Deed of Trust. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale is: $134,913.06 If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee, and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. The beneficiary under said Deed of Trust heretofore executed and delivered to the undersigned a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale, and a written Notice of Default and Election to Sell. The undersigned or its predecessor caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (844) 477-7869 or visit this Internet Web site WWW.STOXPOSTING.COM, using the file number assigned to this case 107700-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: Effective January 1, 2021, you may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call

(855) 313-3319, or visit this internet website www.clear-reconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 107700-CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (844) 477-7869, or visit this Internet Web site WWW.STOX-POSTING.COM for information,

NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (844) 477-7869, or visit this Internet Web site WWW.STOXPOSTING.COM for information, using the file number assigned to this case: 22-10518 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. Revisiting A Book for the Generations “Are You There God? It’s Me, Margaret”
by Judy Blume

If you were a young child in the ‘70s, ‘80s, or even the ‘90s, chances are you have heard of Judy Blume and most likely read a few of her coming-of-age books. Are You There, God? It’s me, Margaret has spanned decades and generations, giving a voice to young girls’ inner thoughts, fears, and wishes as they enter the scary new stages of life and their changing bodies. Now a major motion film, this book is the perfect summer reading book to bond readers of the past with a new generation.

Margaret Simon will proudly tell you she is almost twelve, but just before her 6th-grade year, her parents suddenly moved from New York City to the suburbs of New Jersey. Before she can unpack one box, the neighbor girl Nancy Wheeler knocks on her door, instantly letting her know that they will be friends. The presumptuous Nancy immediately takes Margaret by the reins, letting her know she must wear loafers and no socks to school (it’s the cool thing to do), and even invites her to join a secret club.

With her newfound friends Gretchen, Nancy, and Janie, Margaret can finally talk about boys, kissing, bras, periods, and even their teacher Mr. Benedict. But even they can’t help her with everything, especially her secret crush. As Margaret navigates the world of religion, her changing body, and new emotions, she knows there is always one person she can talk to, God. A coming-of-age story that sparks true feelings of angst, fear, questions, honesty, and candor in a way that only Judy Blume can do.

Whether you are 9 or 90, Are You There God? It’s me, Margaret speaks to a young girl’s heart; opening the door to honest thoughts, feelings, and emotions of young girls on the cusp of change. Judy Blume skillfully displays four young girls as they are flooded with questions about their changing bodies and new emotions and delivers a book that is an instant safe space. Follow along as Margaret gets her first bra, learns the value of not judging someone by their rumors, and even the fear of buying personal products at a store. Older generations will only be able to laugh and smile at the awkwardness of our youth, while newer generations will find solace in a young girl going through the same emotions. Left in its almost original form, new readers will be able to see how life at twelve in the late 60s was a little different, but the feelings are still the same.

The major motion film, Are You There God? It’s me, Margaret, keeps the essence of the era it was written in but breathes a new depth and life into the characters. The perfect summer book club pairing, buddy read, or just for Nostalgia.

Farm Bureau President Urges Congress to Address Fire Risks

California Farm Bureau President Jamie Johansson is calling for increasing the pace and scale of forest management, including employing livestock grazing and prescribed burns to reduce dangerous fuels and protect communities and the environment. On May 23, Johansson testified in Washington, D.C., before a federal lands subcommittee of the House Committee on Natural Resources. He told the panel, “Given the extensive number of wildfire related impacts in California, California Farm Bureau has a vested interest in quality and quantity of forest management activities.”

Winter Storms May Have Increased Risks of Tree Pathogens

Atmospheric rivers that swept across the state this year have created conditions for plant pathogens that haven’t been seen for decades in California. Florent Trouillas, a plant pathologist at the University of California, Davis, said he is getting more calls from growers and farm advisors concerned about potential crop damage. Recent tests in an orchard showed the presence of Phytophthora syringae, a pathogen that can affect almond crops but is rarely seen in California. Researchers are working to diagnose fruit and nut crop ailments that could be enhanced by wet weather.

Farm Bureau: Small Farmer Need Help After Storms

The California Farm Bureau is calling on the state to improve mechanisms for disbursing disaster relief payments for damages suffered in devastating 2023 storms. Testifying before a joint informational hearing of the California Assembly Agriculture Committee and the Assembly Emergency Management Committee, Farm Bureau Administrator Jim Houston said the storm impacts have been especially hard on small farmers, including many that may lack insurance. “There is no good mechanism for people to recover their losses,” Houston said at the May 23 hearing.

Researchers: Lab-Grown Meat May Be Worse For Environment Than Retail Beef

Researchers at the University of California, Davis, have found that lab-grown or “cultivated” meat’s environmental impact is likely to be significantly higher than retail beef. Researchers conducted a life-cycle assessment of energy needed and greenhouse gases emitted in all stages of production compared with beef. Based on current and near-term production methods, they concluded that lab-grown meat will be worse for the environment and more expensive than conventional beef production

Volunteers Celebrate World Environment Day by Cleaning Lake Berryessa’s Shoreline

Solano Resource Conservation District News Release

WINTERS, CA (MPG) - 100 volunteers assembled at Lake Berryessa Saturday, June 3 to take part in the 50th observance of World Environment Day. Participants worked hard to clean trash, plastics and recyclables from the shores of Lake Berryessa. Teams of volunteers from Anheuser-Busch joined with individuals and families of volunteers to remove debris from the areas surrounding Markley Cove to the Monticello dam. The haul this year involved more than 100 pounds of cigarette butts, bottle caps, food wrappers, glass and plastic bottles and other plastic items that eventually degrade into microplastics, including fishing line and other discards.

Plastic debris can entangle and kill fish, birds and wildlife when it is in its original form. When it breaks down with time and environmental exposure, the resulting microplastic tiny particles travel through waterways and end up in the ecosystems that serve as homes to aquatic and marine life. Microplastics are easily ingested by living things, often causing great harm. Microplastics also tend to collect other pollutants on their surfaces; further endangering the animals that eat them and everything that eats those animals as the substances accumulate in their bodies and slowly make their way up the food chain, including into the bodies of the humans who consume them. Removing plastic from our waterways is a major component of good water stewardship.

Some participants had the opportunity to plant yarrow and creeping wild rye plugs along Lake Solano and take guided kayak tours with docents from the Solano Resource Conservation District and Putah Creek Council. Genentech Green Team Lead, Emma Mendiola, helped volunteers create their own wildflower pollinator seed packets and all registered volunteers received a commemorative T-shirt. The day ended with a picnic lunch from the Upper Crust Bakery in Winters, and a meet and greet with locally famous, Bilgee, the Protector of Clean Waterways, who posed for photos. Everyone gathered for a group photo to cap the day.

“The Lake Berryessa World Environment Day Cleanup is our largest employee volunteer effort of the year,” said Christopher Garcia, Environmental

Manager at the Anheuser-Busch Fairfield Brewery. “This event helps us both protect the environment we work and live in and, since Lake Berryessa is our primary water source, helps us to make a product we’re proud of.”

World Environment Day is an annual international event building global and political awareness of environmental issues while supporting individual and community projects. Lake Solano is part of a constructed watershed delivering high quality drinking water from Lake Berryessa, the seventh largest reservoir in California, to around 500,000 Solano County residents each year. This water is also the primary source of irrigation water for growers in the region and is used by companies like Anheuser-Busch for brewing its beer.

The Solano Resource Conservation District coordinates the annual World Environment Day event in partnership with Solano County Water Agency, Anheuser-Busch Fairfield Brewery, Solano County Department of Resource Management, Center for Volunteer and Non-profit Leadership and MCE Clean Energy. Additional support for this year’s event was provided by Solano County Parks, U.S. Bureau of Reclamation and Putah Creek Council. More information about future Solano County cleanup activities can be found at cleanupsolano.org.

The next big cleanup is also a world-wide event: Coastal Cleanup Day. It’s scheduled for Saturday, September 23. To learn more, go to cleanupsolano.org, where you can find information, maps and registration forms. ★ take, your life.

“This is not a problem that we can just arrest and incarcerate our way out of. It’s going to take the community working together to take care of our young people and making sure that we fight the stigma associated with asking for and receiving mental health and substance abuse treatment,” said ADA Schaub. He further spoke about some statistics from the Sacramento Crime Lab. “The Sacramento Crime Lab has found that 98% of pills purchased on the street are counterfeit, and 98% of those fake pills contain fentanyl. The DEA estimates that 60% of counterfeit pills containing fentanyl contains a lethal dose. Here are the stats for Yolo County Fentanyl deaths. The Yolo County Fentanyl Death stats are as follows: 2018 – 0, 2019 – 1, 2020 – 8, 2021 – 13, 2022 – 28, 2023 – 10 so far. ★
