Women's Empowerment to Hold Holiday Gift Drive for Unhoused Women and Children

By Kristin Thébaud, Thébaud Communications

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Local residents can provide joy and winter items to Sacramento women and children who have experienced homelessness by contributing to Women's Empowerment's annual Holiday Gift Drive. The nonprofit is seeking winter hats, socks and gloves for all ages from infant to adult, as well as teen gifts, $25 Target and Walmart gift cards, holiday candy, and empty medium and large gift bags. For those who prefer to make a financial donation, the average cost of a gift package is $40, but any amount is helpful. Women's Empowerment especially needs gift cards, gifts for teens, and winter hats for teens and adults. Items are needed at Women's Empowerment, 1590 North A Street in Sacramento, by Dec. 11.

Women's Empowerment graduates create gifts for their loved ones at last year's Holiday Craft Party where they received gifts from the nonprofit's Holiday Gift Drive. Women's Empowerment is now seeking items for its 2023 Holiday Gift Drive. Photo courtesy of Thébaud Communications

For more information, visit www.womens-empowerment.org. "The holidays can be especially challenging for the women and children we serve who are working to overcome homelessness," said Lisa Culp, executive director, Women's Empowerment. "We want the women and children in our program to experience joy this holiday season, as well as warmth in the face of a cold, wet winter. Our annual Holiday Gift Drive not only gives people the chance to provide care and hope for those who have been unhoused, it tells each woman and child in our program that

Winterdance Celtic Christmas Celebration

Stuart Mason Music
News Release

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - A joyful and cherished holiday tradition will return this year, as the 17th Annual Winterdance Celtic Christmas Celebration once again crisscrosses the Golden State for the Yuletide season. Over the years, previous iterations of the show have highlighted Scottish bagpipes and Swedish polskas, but this year the show will spotlight the mandolin and banjo skills of young prodigy Tyler Weed. The band will include his father John Weed on fiddle, Stuart Mason on guitar and bouzouki, Amelia Hogan on vocals and bodhran, and Marisa Gilman once again on Irish dance. This will be a fun and lively evening full of holiday music and youthful energy, led by two veteran members of the west coast Celtic music scene.

dozens of years as 2/3 of the highly regarded Celtic band Molly's Revenge, as well as New World String Project, Little Black Train, and other ensembles. Amelia Hogan is an impeccably authentic singer of Celtic music, and her heart comes through in honeyed tones on Irish, Scottish, British, and American-styled vocals. Tyler Weed was raised in a musical family, hearing his mother and father playing fiddle since birth. He was taught guitar and banjo licks from "Uncle" Stuart

Mason since his first days strumming a guitar. Marisa Gilman will bring her lively brand of traditional Irish dance to the show, as in previous years. ★

they are important to their community."

Items will be distributed to families at Women's Empowerment's upcoming Holiday Craft Party in mid-December where women and children will create gifts for family and friends. At the event, mothers also will have the opportunity to choose gifts for their children, thanks to a toy drive being held by California State Assemblymember Kevin McCarty, District 6.

"At Women's Empowerment, we believe there is dignity in giving," Culp said. "So often unhoused women and children do not have the resources to give gifts to their loved ones. We are grateful that this community helps us ensure they have that joyful and proud experience of giving."

Women's Empowerment provides a two-month employment-readiness and empowerment program, paid job training, childcare and support services so women and their children can break the generational cycle of homelessness. Women's Empowerment offers the most comprehensive job-readiness program in the Sacramento area designed specifically for women experiencing homelessness and their children. Last year, 121 graduates secured employment or enrolled in paid training or education. Since 2001, 1,837 women have graduated from the program with their 3,894 children. Women's Empowerment is funded through private donations from the community and grants. To make a donation: Womens-Empowerment.org ★ and coffee bar courtesy of New Brew Cafe. The Grinch and Cindy Lou Who will also be making an appearance, and a local artist will be providing free Grinchy caricatures on a first-come, first-served basis. All of this will take place against a backdrop of live Christmas music provided by Thomas Seaton on his saxophone.

According to Kayla Thayer, Recreation Supervisor for North Highlands Park and Recreation District, “The most magical part of this event is at 7 p.m., when the community gathers around the tree and counts down to turn on the lights. Right as the tree lights up, snow begins to fall and you can hear all the cheers from the kids that are gathered around.”

Friday night serves as an appetizer to the main course of events taking place Saturday, December 9th. Saturday morning those who signed up in time can join Santa for breakfast from 9-11 a.m., again at the Kay F. Dahill Community Center at 6040 Watt Ave. For $8.00, breakfast will include pancakes and other treats, fresh coffee, juice, and pictures with Santa. Children will have the opportunity to write and send their letter to Santa, and take part in a holiday craft. New for this year, children can also shop the Highlands Holiday Market, where gifts for their friends and family can be purchased for under a dollar. Guests are welcome to arrive in their pajamas.

After the warm breakfast with Santa, there is the 3rd Annual Christmas Bazaar taking place at Rio Linda High School. Organizers LeeAnn Williams of Renewal Soaps, and her sister Tonia Silva of Silva Bookkeeper & Tax Preparer, started the event after having success at smaller craft fairs at Silva’s business.

“She was the one with the vision to do events and she had faith in me to coordinate the events,” Williams says of her sister.

The sisters are thrilled with how the event has grown from 17 vendors in 2021 to more than 80 for this year. With so many vendors in attendance, guests can get all of their holiday shopping done in one place. Shoppers can expect to find handcrafted jewelry and accessories, soaps, artwork, wreaths, woodwork, dog treats, ornaments, house décor, personalized totes, and more. The event is scheduled to take place from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. and will not only include goods from vendors (and kid entrepreneurs) but also a 50/50 raffle, a $500 cash-prize raffle, and free crafts for the kiddos. For those that have already paid a visit to Santa, then it’s only fair to grab a free picture with the Grinch at this event, who will be posing with families for free. For those that work up an appetite while shopping, there will be plenty of vendors serving up sweet treats, and Phat Jerry’s Phillies will be serving up tasty cheesesteaks.

Saturday night is the infamous 8th Annual Rio Linda Elverta Christmas Light Parade, put on by the dedicated volunteers at RLE Country Faire. The parade has become a much-loved local tradition featuring trucks, trailers, horses, and the one and only Santa Claus. It will once again kick off with the lighting of the Christmas tree at Troy Graham Park. The parade will then follow its typical route beginning at W 2nd Street and then traveling along M Street to Curved Bridge Road. This year, visitors can grab a warm bite to eat at any of the food trucks and stop by Meg’s Creamery for a free cup of hot chocolate! The light parade starts at 6 p.m. sharp. ★

Sheriff Jim Cooper’s Open Letter Regarding Retail Theft and the CRA

Sheriff Jim Cooper

Dear Constituents,

The California Retailers Association (CRA) has made several misleading and inconsistent statements regarding a pending ballot initiative to address California’s retail theft crisis.

CLAIM: On August 22, 2023, the CRA president, joined prosecutors in filing a ballot measure to address retail theft. Details of the proposed ballot measure can be found at

<https://www.action.goldenstatecommunities.com/pages/prop47>

The CRA president was an officer of the committee supporting the ballot measure and has repeatedly stated her support for this initiative. As recently as November 10, 2023, she told local media that she has been working “so hard” to fix Proposition 47 and put this initiative on the ballot.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SRciIB5JLsQ>

FACT: In direct contradiction of this claim, in a November 15th Sacramento Bee article, the CRA president stated, “passing a ballot initiative isn’t the solution,” suggesting that the crisis can be cured by simply making retail theft misdemeanors subject to a mandatory appearance in court.

<https://www.sacbee.com/news/local/crime/article281796698.html>

Anyone with experience in this realm should know that a misdemeanor approach will solve nothing. Existing law already requires individuals to appear in court when cited or arrested for misdemeanor crimes. In fact, thousands of individuals in jurisdictions across California fail to appear on misdemeanor crimes following the issuance of a citation, arrest, or even court order. In Sacramento County alone, we have over 33,000 outstanding misdemeanor warrants. The volume of misdemeanor warrants issued for those who fail to appear is enormous and already unmanageable for law enforcement.

As a result of Proposition 47 (“Safe Neighborhoods and Schools Act”), individuals who repeatedly commit theft and drug crimes suffer no consequences. People with drug and mental health issues, therefore, have no incentive to get treatment. Proposition 47 clearly states that any effort to increase penalties related to theft or drug crimes requires voter approval.

https://repository.uclawsf.edu/cgi/viewcontent.cgi?article=2328&context=ca_ballot_props

Per Proposition 47, the legislature has no power to make any meaningful change to address the retail theft crisis California faces. Given the extraordinary losses suffered by the retail industry and the significant impact it has on the consumer, I express my deepest concerns about California Retail Association President Rachel Michelin’s willingness to misrepresent to the public the facts on these critical matters.

While I still have my reservations because of their past history, I am hopeful we can find some common ground with the big box retailers and work together to resolve the crisis of retail theft.

Kings Korner

By VG Harris

Welcome to the first ever edition of Kings Korner. For those of you faithful sports fans, and in particular Sacramento Kings fans who still find eating breakfast on a Sunday morning with a paper in your hand a salubrious experience, I welcome you one and all. Can it be just seven short years since the Kings were rescued from the Siberia called Seattle, and placed inexorably in the fabulous confines of technical wonder, Golden 1 Center? True, we suffered through several losing seasons and more than one questionable draft choice, but memories of past bad experiences fade quickly when your team transforms into a kaleidoscope of positivity. Last season's 48 wins did more than just get our attention. It ignited an energy that has awakened the base and brought with it new fans that had only an anemic interest in the past. Recent years brought new faces and crowd favorites such as De'Aaron Fox, Malik Monk, Keegan Murray, and the acquisition of All-Star Domantas Sabonis was the missing piece the Kings have been looking for, for years. Trading fan favorite Tyrese Haliburton for Domantas Sabonis was controversial, and at the time shocking for many Kings fans, but leading the NBA in rebounds and double-double's convinced many that the organization had finally made a trade that would elevate the Kings to the next level. Whether your favorite player is Domantas Sabonis, De'Aaron Fox, or Sasha Vezenkov, or Davion Mitchell, there is plenty to be happy about with the team we have today. In years gone by, we would be jumping for joy with a 9-6 record, but Kings fans know with a little luck it could easily be 12-3. Losing back-to-back games in both Houston and New Orleans wasn't on anyone's radar, and if Clay Thompson hadn't hit a last second bucket our Kings record would be the envy of the league. I remember as a young Kings fan in 1989 feeling lucky just to get a ticket. Those hopeful of becoming a season ticket holder could expect to wait 3-5 years before such an opportunity would arise. For the past 20 years season tickets have been in abundance, but no more. The number of wins accumulated this year will no doubt correlate with the depth of the waiting list for season tickets, and many believe the Kings could surpass the 50-win mark for the first time in over 20 years. Yes, Kings fans, it's fun again to take your family or sweetheart to a game, and with the advent of the high-tempo, high-scoring game the Kings play today, it's by far the hottest ticket in town. Mike Brown in his first full season of coaching with the Kings brought a winning style of basketball, and by season's end the Kings had amassed the highest point total in the entire NBA. Sending not one, but two All-Stars to the All-Star game was a highlight of last year's season, and it wouldn't surprise anyone if De'Aaron Fox and Domantas Sabonis did it again. There remains question marks though, and we will sort them out as the season progresses.

second bucket our Kings record would be the envy of the league. Mike Brown's use of his bench has had many scratching their heads, as crowd favorite Davion Mitchell rode the pine for more than one game before finding himself in the rotation again. Davion, while a streaky scorer, is perhaps the most dependable defensive player on the team, and without a doubt stirs the crowd whenever he enters the game. Keegan Murray has struggled at times this season to find a consistent 3-point shot, but coach Brown remains committed to Keegan, and it appears to have had a positive effect on his defensive play as well. De'Aaron Fox may go down as the greatest first-round draft choice in the history of the Kings before his playing days are over, but for the moment we will just be consistently amazed at his lightning speed and acrobatic shot making! Truly a gem, De'Aaron has become an All-Star right before our eyes, and many fans believed his All-Star appearance last season was overdue. Gear up Kings fans! This is going to be a wild ride, and supplanting the Golden State Warriors as the Northern California #1 team is the first test we will have to face. Point Reyes Dairy Farmers Fear for Livelihoods Amid Legal Battles Over Elk

In the 1960s, dairy farmers along the Marin County coast agreed to sell ranches to the federal government to facilitate creation of the Point Reyes National Seashore. That sales accord created a partnership enabling 27 working ranches to continue operating—scattered between public beaches, hiking trails, campgrounds and, later, a reserve for native tule elk. But now farmers say their livelihoods are threatened by lawsuits over the U.S. National Park Service’s management of ranching, as well by a recent proposal by park officials to remove fencing that separates elk from livestock.

In Nation’s Artichoke Capital, Growing Acreage is Shrinking

California produces 97% of the nation’s fresh artichokes, and 75% of those are grown in Monterey County. The artichoke is the county’s official vegetable, and tourists flock to restaurants and farm stands along the Artichoke Trail, which opened in 1957. Yet artichoke production on California’s Central Coast has steadily fallen over the past three decades. This is partly due to a transition from perennial artichoke plants to an annual or seeded variety in the 1990s, after a lengthy cold snap killed acres of perennial artichokes in the county.

Water Year is Off to a Slow Start, but High Reservoir Levels Give Farmers Hope

As California’s weather swings from droughts to floods, farmers say they are planning for either extreme but remain confident knowing the water supply in state reservoirs is well above the historical average for this time of year. The currently abundant surface water stored in reservoirs across the state is the result of an El Niño weather pattern that brought soaking atmospheric river storms and flooding early this year. But since the 2024 water year began on Oct. 1, the state has received little precipitation and snow.

Dairy Farmer Reaches Cattle Exhibition ‘Hall Of Fame’

After nearly 60 years of showing cattle, Tulare County dairy farmer Joey Airoso acknowledged he’s “pretty well known” in competition circles. Though he has taken home various prizes through the years, Airoso said he was “completely surprised” when he was named the 81st winner of the Klussendorf Award, widely regarded as the Hall of Fame for dairy cattle exhibitors. Airoso manages a family dairy in Pixley that milks 2,600 cows and grows 1,600 acres of alfalfa, corn, wheat and pistachios. His family also breeds and sells registered Holsteins and Jerseys.

Be Gentle, He’s Moving in the Right Direction

Dear Dave,

We’re following your Baby Steps plan, and we’ve paid off all our credit cards. But when I talked to my husband the other day about cutting up the cards and closing the accounts, he said he would rather keep the accounts open, and the cards locked away in a drawer for use as an emergency fund. He says this will help us have an emergency fund in place quicker than saving for one. I think there’s more behind his reasoning, though. He grew up in a very poor family, and I wonder if he’s not afraid of somehow ending up in that kind of situation again. What can I do to convince him to follow your advice?

– Ramona

Dave Ramsey Says

Dear Ramona,

I think you’re a very perceptive lady. You said your husband grew up in poverty, right? So, what I’m hearing is the cards represent almost a security blanket for him—a financial security blanket. I get that, but here’s the thing. If you had a fully funded emergency fund of three to six months of expenses sitting in the bank, I’m talking about hard cold cash, you’d have the security of knowing that the expense of a new air conditioning unit or transmission for the car would only be a minor inconvenience. And, you’d be able to cover it easily without going back into debt.

Instead of actively trying to convince him of something, a better route might be to sit down together and talk through the whole thing. Explain to him you think you know why he feels the way he does, and that it’s understandable. Then, ask him if there’s a reasonable amount you two could have in the bank that would help him stop worrying. Discuss it, agree on an amount and then agree to cut the cards up and close the accounts when you reach that figure. Remind him, too, you’d still have your debit cards in hand in the event of an emergency.

Above all, Ramona, make sure you work together. Be patient and understanding. If he has recognized the wisdom of getting rid of debt and taking control of your finances, he’s moving in the right direction!

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF MICHAEL LOUIS BEYERS
CASE NO. 23PR001041

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both, of Michael Louis Beyers, Mike Beyers

A Petition for Probate has been filed by Lara Beyers, in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting Jaramie Beyers be appointed as personal representative(s) to administer the estate of the decedent.

The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows December 27, 2023, 1:30 p.m. in Dept 129; Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, William R. Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse, 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826.

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - On stage, Dr. Rohan Radhakrishna began his session at the first Sacramento County Racial Equity Summit at Sacramento State University by capturing the more than 300 attendees' attention when he asked whether they had played the board game Monopoly.

As hands began to rise, he continued by asking everyone to imagine playing the game with a group of people for several hours. The game is heated, and most properties and utilities are already bought. Hotels and homes have taken over the board. However, nearby there are a couple of people who have been excluded; they were pushed away and not allowed to play, and now it's late in the game.

"As you know, a couple of hours with compound interest really change how much capital you can accumulate and just how you are feeling showing up late in the game," said Dr. Radhakrishna. "Well, that's the reality of the playing field that we are dealing with. Except it is not a few hours of being excluded from the game; it is decades and even centuries."

Verbal "woahs" could be heard in the moments between his sentences as the crowd made the connection between the board game and our current racial inequities.

He followed by acknowledging that Sacramento County's Racial and Equity Summit is about bringing County employees, community leaders, activists and residents together for two days to discuss these tough conversations. It's a time to learn what the County and its partners are doing in the form of equity work and what still needs to be done in the future.

Over the course of the summit, participants broke out into four sessions, including "Environmental Justice Element – Creating an Equitable Sacramento County" and "Cultural Broker Program – Navigating the Child Welfare System and the Critical Need for Culturally Responsive Advocacy." Here, participants could not only listen to subject-matter experts but also further the conversation with their own perspectives and questions.

"You started off the session talking about the deaths of George Floyd and Stephon Carter. Prior to the deaths of those young men, I lost my son in 2017, 16 years old, to gun violence," said one participant. "I'm wanting to know, has Sacramento County recognized that our children have post-traumatic stress disorder, and are we addressing that?"

After a first day of heavy conversations, County Executive, Ann Edwards began the final day of the inaugural event by thanking all those who have participated, shared and added to the discussions on this important occasion to advance equity work. Reminding everyone that while the County has made a good start, there is still a lot of work that needs to be done.
