SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - As the nation faces a critical shortage of medical professionals, Health and Human Services Secretary Xavier Becerra and U.S. Rep. Ami Bera met with local educators and students in Rio Americano High School's medical careers program on April 8 to hear concerns and promote medical education, especially at the secondary level.

The event, "Training the Next Generation of Health Workers," welcomed Becerra and Bera, a Democrat whose district includes Rio Americano in Sacramento County. San Juan Unified School District Superintendent Melissa Bassanelli and school board President Pam Costa were also in attendance.

The visit's purpose was to showcase "how San Juan Unified is leading in developing a healthcare workforce and to discuss the importance of ongoing federal support for similar programs," San Juan Unified communications native whose wife is a doctor still practicing in the area, called attention to the industry shortage and discussed Biden administration programs to ease the crunch, including supporting career education.

Becerra, Bera Discuss Healthcare Worker Shortage at Rio Americano

U.S. Rep Ami Bera, left, and Health and Human Services Secretary Xavier Becerra speak to students April 8 at Rio Americano High School.

Continued from page 1 future leaders," Becerra said. "There is no shortage of opportunity, so when you see an opportunity to support a program that is bringing young folks in quickly (to medical careers), you want to be here."

Facing the shortage

The country will face a shortage of 195,400 nurses by 2031, according to estimates by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Openings for home health aides and personal health aides will increase 37 percent by 2028.

According to projections published last month by the Association of American Medical Colleges, the U.S. will face a physician shortage of up to 86,000 doctors by 2036.

Across the country, Health and Human Services and hospitals are trying to fill medical residency slots, including at 1,400 federally-certified health service clinics.

"More and more, people are finding access through community health clinics," Becerra said.

The American Rescue Plan, passed in 2021, contained funding for 1,000 additional residency slots.

More than $100 billion in federal funding has been approved under President Joe Biden to grow the healthcare workforce. The administration also wants to subsidize universities to help retain faculty members and increase the salaries of nursing professors so that they don't leave the classroom for more lucrative hospital jobs.

Two weeks ago, the Biden administration announced additional investments in primary care medical education and more residency programs in rural areas

Becerra also touted Health and Human Services' scholarship and loan forgiveness programs that help students get through college if they agree to work for a number of years in underserved communities. His son-in-law, now a pediatrician, was given a full four-year scholarship through the initiative.

Starting in high school

However, on the local level, the healthcare industry has emphasized high school education to kickstart medical training.

"This is such a great program because we're exposing you to career pathways in healthcare," Bera, a doctor, said. "We're creating a workforce that's going to take care of me when I'm older. There's nothing more important than investing in our young people. Our legacy is the next generation, the lives that we touch."

Principal Cliff Kelly and medical careers program teacher London Mackey promoted the success of the medical program, which boasts a 95% pass rate on the medical assistant board exam and allows students to become certified medical assistants when they graduate high school, often getting medical assistant jobs that pay $25 an hour.

Medical assistants "complete administrative and clinical tasks, such as scheduling appointments and taking patients' vital signs," according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Students also learn to draw blood and give injections.

Becerra noted the benefit of the well-paying job for students who continue studying medical careers in college.

Seniors in the program spend half their school day at a hospital participating in an externship that culminates in receiving a medical assisting license and college credit.

The importance of the medical program is to "give students hands-on training that will enable them to better transition into college or medical careers," Kelly said.

Recently, the big four Sacramento health systems came together to identify and highlight such programs, including the medical careers pathway at Rio Americano and health science academies in Natomas and Rancho Cordova. They view career education as a way to fill gaps in hiring medical assistants, nurses, X-ray techs and a variety of other medical professions.

"We invest in our students' needs in ways that will serve them far beyond graduation," Bassanelli said. "That success relies on the long-term support and investments of policymakers and key partners like those here today."

About the Rio Americano Visit

After visiting Rio Americano High School, Becerra said that "there is a real reason to hope for our future."

On April 5, crews could be seen cleaning buildings and mowing the lawns in preparation for the secretary's high-profile visit. The Secret Service was also present over the weekend conducting a sweep of the campus. Local news outlets attended the event, too.

Medical careers program teacher Mackey welcomed Becerra and Bera to the med wing to speak directly with her sophomore students.

"I love having speakers that the students can interact with," Mackey said.

Rio Americano High School's medical careers students shared their interest in pursuing careers in radiology, pediatrics and sports medicine, among others.

"It's good not just for Rio but for all pathways," Principal Kelly said. "It's the first time we've ever had a cabinet-level person show up to a San Juan school."

The medical facility at Rio Americano was originally funded by federal money that trickled down to San Juan and by bond measures local voters approved.

"We have a number of programs where we help establish the pipeline," Becerra said of his department's work with youth. "We provide a dollar to the state of California. The state then gets it down to school districts, and then the schools get to use it the way they think best."

In their meeting with first-period med program students, Becerra and Bera spoke about the growing importance of mental health services, including increased funding for 988, the new national number for the Suicide and Crisis Lifeline for mental health services.

The secretary, asked by a med student what he saw as the most important up-and-coming developments in federal healthcare, told students about the Advanced Research Project Agency for Health (ARPA-H), whose goal is to "catalyze the next generation of treatments to improve the health of all Americans."

Becerra spent time in Southern California as part of his latest Latino health tour before coming to Sacramento.

Becerra was born and raised in Sacramento and graduated from nearby McClatchy High School.

He also served in Congress, representing Los Angeles, for more than two decades, and as chairman of the House Democratic Caucus at the end of his congressional tenure.

As Health and Human Services secretary, Becerra has helped protect and expand the Affordable Care Act and assist in overseeing the U.S. response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

"At HHS, we want in," Becerra said.

Becerra joked that "as much as there is conflict and controversy going on throughout the world, when a CK McClatchy Lion will come visit Rio Americano. things are pretty good in the world."

Food Truck Mania

Park Food Events Keep on Truckin'

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Carmichael Park District recently celebrated the 12-year anniversary of an event whose success once seemed a long shot. Food Truck Mania has proven one of the district's most popular programs.

Staged on the first Thursday of each month, the culinary meet is here to stay.

"It's a big draw for the community," confirms Park recreation Services Manager, Alaina Loftus. "People bring chairs and just camp out for a night of friendly time and great food."

Upwards of 400 people regularly queue to dine a la park beside Fair Oaks Boulevard. The next Food Truck Thursday is May 2.

Menus have expanded since the mobile kitchens' 2012 debut. Food peddlers now vie to provide gourmet specialties. Burger and sandwich hybrids; Southern and Cajun cooking; Thai and Laotian dishes - all are available as meals on wheels. Desserts include cream and fruit-smothered waffles and ice cream sandwiches. Brewing cappuccinos and chic tea infusions, hawkers give nearby Starbucks a run for its mocha.

Carmichael was the first local park district to provide a venue for food truck events. Since, many others have jumped to the plate and the clientele is now as mobile as the eateries.

Gourmet burgers and desserts are among food truck menus during Carmichael's "Park Rec and Eat It" nights out, on first Thursdays of every month. Enjoying festive fare are Carmichaelites Tyletta Campbell, Sharon Reneau and Jen Reneau.

The district partners with the Food in the Hood 916 to rally vendors. Some foodies follow their favorite trucks from markets to college campuses and festivals all over Sacramento County.

On May 2, five trucks will provide menus ranging from Hawaiian fried chicken, Pilipino specialties, sandwiches, burgers, crepes, ice cream and shaved ice.

For the record, truck dining is not roach-coach cheap. Its popularity nevertheless reflects a rage to combine eating with hanging out in cool places. No one gripes about waiting – lining up is part of the social experience. Circling wagons at sunset in Carmichael Park, trucks serve from 5 p.m.

The boulevard's frontage guarantees advertising. Tempted by a party atmosphere, homeward-bound workers and families park, queue, and saunter.

"It's like a carnival," enthuses a regular customer. "Great company, a bunch of different food to try."

Truck-events are planned through summer and fall.

and October) will include trucks. The vendors are also a pungent part of Sunday Farmers Markets in Carmichael.

Shepherd to Talk on Why Everyone is Needed

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Carmichael and Fifth Church of Christ, Scientist, Sacramento News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - James Shepherd, a Christian Science healing practitioner and international speaker, will talk on "Why everyone is needed" at 2 p.m. May 5 at Fifth Church of Christ, Scientist, 3250 Cottage Way, Sacramento.

The talk will focus on universal healing precepts found in the Holy Bible, especially in Christ Jesus' life and teachings, showing how they are available for anyone to understand and experience through the lens of Christian Science. The talk is free, open to the public and sponsored by First Church of Christ, Scientist, Carmichael and Fifth Church of Christ, Scientist, Sacramento. "I love exploring the nature of God, infinite Love, as the only cause and our unbreakable connection to God as God's offspring," Shepherd said. "This connection gives us our purpose and worth by seeing everyone from a more God-like, or spiritual, point of view. I've experienced how this has an impact on my life and on the lives of others."

Sharing examples of his own healing and professional practice of Christian Science, Shepherd will explain why Christian Science is both Christian and scientific, meaning that anyone can prove its effectiveness for themselves, as described in the book "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," written by Christian Science movement founder Mary Baker Eddy.

Shepherd will also touch on the life of Eddy, who taught what she said was original Christian healing. Eddy has said that she was especially inspired by Jesus' demand: "He that believes on me, the works that I do will he do also; and greater works than these will he do, because I go unto my Father" (found in the Gospel of John 14:12 in the Bible).

Shepherd has been a Christian Science practitioner for many years, helping others daily through this scientific approach to prayer. He travels from his home base in Eugene, Oregon, to speak to audiences as a Christian Science Board of Lectureship member.

The Sanix World Rugby Youth Tournament brings together top-tier high school rugby teams worldwide, including nations such as South Korea, England, New Zealand, South Africa, Australia, Fiji, China, and, for the first time, the United States. The tournament is held during the Japanese national holiday known as Golden Week.

Jesuit Rugby's invitation to the Sanix Tournament is a testament to its exceptional performance and rich sports history. With a commendable second-place finish at the national tournament last year, USA Rugby recognized Jesuit's outstanding achievements and contributions to the sport and nominated the team to represent the United States in this event.

"We are honored by this invitation and it would be our Marauders first overseas tour," head coach Andrew Acosta said. "Last year's team, which placed second in the U.S. National Invitational Tournament, was seniorheavy with 20 players graduating in 2023. However, I am extremely impressed with our current team; this talented young group is learning fast. This will be a tremendous experience for our team and a great way for the rugby world to see Jesuit in action."

The annual tournament at the Global Arena Complex in Fukuoka will feature eight Japanese and eight international high school teams. Jesuit Rugby looks forward to showcasing its talent on the global stage.

"Jesuit Rugby is part of a rich tradition of athletic excellence at Jesuit High School. This group of student-athletes and coaches are excited and humbled to represent not only their families and school but also the Sacramento region and the United States," said the school's President Chris Alling.

Social Security Matters Older Husband and Working Wife Seek Guidance

The earnings limit for

By Russell Gloor, AMAC Certified Social Security Advisor

Dear Rusty: I am 74 years old, retired and receiving Social Security. My wife will be 65 in January of 2025. Our hope was to start paying off some credit card expense by her receiving SS when she turns 65, however it appears there would be a substantial reduction to her benefits. Her work income is $37,500 a vear, and she wasn't planning on retiring from work at age 65. Because I am 11 years older, we felt it makes sense to use her Social Security as a means to lower our debt. We have $27,000 in credit card debt, and I don't really want to use my 401(k) funds due to taxes. We pretty much live on my Social Security and pension. Signed: Seeking Suggestions Dear Seeking: Your wife's full retirement age (FRA) for Social Security purposes is age 67. Because she will not yet have reached her FRA in January 2025 (when she is 65), if she claims SS to start at that time, not only will her monthly amount be reduced, but she will be subject to Social Security's annual earnings test. The earnings test sets a limit for how much can be earned by beneficiaries who claim SS before FRA.

2024 is $22,320. The limit for next year is not yet published (it's based on changes to the national wage index) but will be a bit higher likely about $23,500. Thus, I can't provide the exact impact, but if your wife's 2025 earnings exceed next year's limit, Social Security will take back $1 in benefits for every $2 over the limit (half of the amount over the limit). So, if your wife earns $37,500 per year, that will likely be about $14,000 over the limit and Social Security will take back half of that ($7,000). They "take back" by withholding future benefits, or you can repay them in a lump sum. So, you will have a choice – repay Social Security from your other assets, or they will withhold your wife's SS benefits for the number of months needed to offset her penalty for exceeding the earnings limit. The number of months they will withhold depends on how much is owed and what your wife's monthly SS benefit is. For example, if your wife's age-65 SS benefit is about average ($1,900) and her penalty for exceeding the limit is $7,000, Social Security would withhold your wife's benefit for 4 months to recover the penalty, but she

of the year. Unless your wife tells them in advance that she will exceed the limit, Social Security will find out the following year (after you file your income taxes). But, in any case, your wife cannot avoid the annual earnings test would receive her full benefit for the remaining 8 months

for working before reaching her full retirement age. The earnings test goes away when your wife reaches her FRA of 67. Until that time, if she continues working she will have a choice to have her benefits withheld for a portion of the year, or simply repay Social Security in a lump sum (in which case her benefits would continue uninterrupted).

FYI, there is a silver lining in this, because if your wife has benefits withheld because she exceeds the earnings limit before her FRA, after she reaches her full retirement age Social Security will give her time credit for the months when benefits were withheld, which will result in her monthly Social Security payment amount increasing somewhat at her full retirement age. Thus, over time, your wife may recover the benefits which were withheld for exceeding the annual earnings limit. But to get 100% of the benefit she's earned from a lifetime of working, and be exempt from Social Security's earnings limit, she would need to wait until she reaches her FRA to claim.

Kings Korner By V.G. Harris

The Sacramento Kings are officially out of the playoffs, and the 2023/2024 season

The question that everyone should be asking is, is there reason for optimism? I say unequivocally, yes!

Kings center, and indefatigable big man Domantas Sabonis, has now completed two consecutive seasons as the NBA's number one rebounder, outproducing every other player in the entire league. Add to that herculean feat the fact that he led the league for the first time in his career in triple doubles with 26, and you have the picture of an indispensable player.

If there was an iron man award given in the NBA, no doubt Domantas would receive this award as well. Playing in all 82 games, the Kings center led by example all season, undoubtedly playing through numerous nagging injuries, just as he did last year when he played the bulk of the season with a broken thumb.

So, with the fastest point guard in the NBA in De'Aaron Fox, and a center like Domantas Sabonis leading the way, why are the Sacramento Kings sitting on the sidelines, watching the playoffs from afar once again?

Because no one player, or even two, can do it alone.

Whether a healthy Malik Monk would have been enough to give the Kings the extra fuel they needed to finally defeat the New Orleans Pelicans after suffering through five straight defeats in the regular season is anyone's guess.

Make no doubt about it, Malik Monk is magic to this team, and if Monte McNair does nothing else, he must sign Malik to a long-term deal.

Domantas needs someone with girth next to him, and if either coach Brown can figure out how to effectively use Alex Len, or it becomes necessary to draft or acquire a free agent, by next season Domantas can't be the only player capable of averaging a double-double.

By all rights this team should be meeting the Oklahoma City Thunder, and were it not for our own implosion caused by missing free throws, or games taken away by way of atrocious officiating, the Kings would undoubtedly be in the first round for the second straight year.

That is not the case, and we all must shake away the cobwebs and buckle down to reason with a remedy that is realistic.

First acknowledge there is no first-round pick, so focus on the second round and scour the NCAA, Europe, and beyond to find the Kings a legitimate player capable of not just making the team, but able to make a significant contribution.

I like overall what I see in the growth of Keon Ellis, but there will need to be an expansion of his playing skills if he is to be a starter on this team.

Trey Lyles' time has come, and he needs to replace Harrison Barnes in the starting

If that is a knock on Harrison, it should not be taken as such. Trey is 28 and provides more girth and rebounding potential than Barnes. Lyles has a three-point shot that is good, and with more playing time I'm convinced he can surpass the 40% mark on a consistent basis.

Coach Brown, after tinkering with his bench substitutions for the entire season, finally tightened down for the final two games, and played a total of four off the bench in the win over the Golden State Warriors. This needs to continue and should not be an aberration.

As I recede into the offseason, and turn my attention to baseball, it's the win over the Golden State Warriors that I will focus on. Yes, the win that sends a message to a team that says, "the torch has been passed," and we have not forgotten last season's humbling loss that took away our chances to advance to the second round.

As the sun sets on this roller coaster we call the NBA, let's be sure to applaud De'Aaron Fox who finished 8th in the NBA in scoring with a 26.6 ppg scoring average. De'Aaron, like his teammate Domantas Sabonis, is the epitome of bringing his lunch to work, and not a game goes by that De'Aaron doesn't leave it all on the hardwood.

Congratulations to this mighty team, to their effort, and to their commitment. We will all be back next year to root you on to even greater heights!

All the best!

Carmichael Stake of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints News Release

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - The Carmichael Stake of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints invites friends and members to its semi-annual stake conference on Saturday, May 4 and Sunday, May 5 at the Carmichael Stake Center in Fair Oaks. The conference themes will be finding joy by ministering to others and making your home more Christ-centered. Area Seventy Siegfried A. Naumann, a visiting authority from Washington, will lead the meetings. Additional speakers will be chosen from congregations throughout the stake, including members in Carmichael, Fair Oaks, Citrus Heights and Orangevale. "Stake conference is a time to gather and be uplifted by the messages of our Savior and how following Him can lead to more joy and happiness in our lives," Carmichael Stake President Todd L. Johnson said. "We invite all to come hear the inspiring talks from our neighbors and the counsel from the visiting authority, Elder Naumann."

The Saturday session for adults 18 and up will be from 6 to 8 p.m. May 4, with refreshments following. All ages and families are invited to the Sunday session from 10 a.m. to noon May 5.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF WALTER A MCCULLOUGH SR CASE NO. 24PR000551 To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both, of Walter A McCullough Sr.

A Petition for Probate

A Petition for Probate has been filed by Walter A McCullough Jr, in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting Walter A McCullough Jr be appointed as personal representative(s) to administer the estate of the decedent.

The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows May 28, 2024, 1:30 p.m. in Dept 129, Room 214; Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, William R. Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse, 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. The name, address and telephone number of the Petitioner is: Walter A McCullough Jr, 6297 Dial Way, San Jose, CA 95129;

Media Icon Joey Mitchell Leaves a Legacy of Laughter

By Mary Jane Popp

After 50 plus years on the air, an icon in radio signs off for his final journey. But I'm sure if there is a microphone in the clouds, Joey Mitchell will be at the helm with his joyous voice that always made his fans feel that he truly cared about each and every one.

What can I say about Joey that hasn't already been said... talented, dedicated, award-winning personality, a great sense of humor, total love of family and what meant so much to me was that he was genuinely a really nice guy and gentleman. He greeted everyone he met with a big smile and you felt he knew you forever.

Joey was the first on-air radio guy I worked with when I first came to Sacramento in 1977. It was at the hit country music station, KRAK Radio. I would pop in with the news updates, and truly, I never knew what to expect. There were times I would go into the studio and no Joey...until he popped up from under the board trying to scare me with that silly grin on his face. But it was always in fun. He would try to break me up on the air but little did he know I came from doing a television show in Indianapolis with a crew that did all they could to break me up with antics behind the guests so only I could see. But I loved the friendship Joey shared with everyone, including me, for all these many years.

I think I admired Joey most for his caring about the community, especially when we would host telethons to raise money for so many worthy charities from Easter Seals to the Children's Miracle Network and more. Back in the '80s, there were eight or nine telethons on the air and they were the 24-hour ones. But Joey's energy level never waned. Always professional yes, but with a fun competitive spirit as we would compete for on-camera time, with the ultimate goal of raising as much money as we could for charity. Joey was always game for fun too, like when we were asked to host an event for, I believe, the Opera Association. So we dressed in silly opera garb, and we laughed our way through the event, always ready for anything we could do to help the community.

Stories about Joey were so many I had to limit them, or I would need several pages to tell them all. But I had to share this one from Ken Knoll who did lots of film work in Sacramento. When Joey was named Country Music D.J. of the year and hosted names such as Freddy Fender, Loretta Lynn and Merle Haggard at the Lonesome Armadillo in Roseville, he would do TV funny skits to promote his show. Ken still laughs at this one. Wait until you hear what happened. Ken and Joey came up with the idea to do a skit at the Folsom Zoo in the tiger cage, and yes, with a real tiger. The idea was for Joey to first dress up in lady garb, moustache, and all, and pretend that the tiger was going to attack her/ him. Then Joey would change back into guy clothes, and with the magic of television editing, come to her rescue. Funny, right? The trainer assured Joey that the tiger was tame and not to worry. To be honest, Joey was rather nervous and began sweating some. But being the trooper he was, Joey got into the enclosure. Ken was not sure but perhaps the tiger sensed Joey's fear and began to growl and started to get too close for comfort. It was too close for Joey and he began to shout "please get me out of here." But it was hard to hear him above the laughter of the crew. Suffice to say, Joey was not going into a wild critter space alone for a long time.

Here's one that will give you a laugh but I'm not sure Joey laughed. Ken told me about the time President Clinton came to town on Air Force One, and we don't know how Joey did it but he planted a bumper sticker on the back of Air Force One promoting the Joey Mitchell Show. Sounds funny now but the Secret Service was not amused, and he actually got arrested. Don't know if he had to spend time in the pokey but leave it to Joey to come up with this stunt and look for more to do.

Another side of Joey was always wanting to help others in the business. Jennifer Steele, executive producer of the morning news at KFBK, had fond memories of him. She worked years and knew him more than 30 years. Despite his being a celebrity, she said, he was always a real human being, a mentor, teacher and nice to all.

And Big Jim Hall worked with Joey at KRAK Radio for many years. That's where I met them both. Jim and Joey both began working at KRAK Radio together. One did the morning, and one did the afternoon, and their friendship grew over the many years. Jim said he was always fearless and always wanted to support organizations to help the community. Fondly, Jim said, Joey was an incredible co-worker and friend for 40 years, along with having a caring heart and always being super funny. Jim said he was a joy to work with and to know.

There are many stories to tell and perhaps some of the pictures can tell the Joey Mitchell life and his work, but I asked his son, Joe Jr., who sent me so many wonderful pictures to choose of his dad, if he could tell me his fondest memories of "Dad" Joey. I could not end this piece any better. Here is Joe Jr and his heartfelt thoughts about his dad in his own words.

"My dad was just my dad to me, and I never really appreciated all he had accomplished until I grew older. Many people didn't know he had severe and painful scoliosis that would keep him up nights. Getting up at 3 a.m. was a chore for anyone, but for him, it was a daily struggle to get ready for his radio show. Even though he was in pain, he always had a smile on his face and wanted to make people laugh. It wasn't an act, it was who he was. He truly was an amazing man, husband, father, friend and radio legend who will leave a huge void in our hearts. I strive to be like him. He was my HERO!"

What more can be said about this icon and truly good human being?

And so the memory of Joey Mitchell goes on and I'm sure he is wowing them up there behind the mic with his wit and big smile. We will miss you Joey, but our memories will always be with us. Rest in peace, good friend.

Editor's note: Joey Mitchell died March 24 after a battle with a lung condition and with Joey at FM 101.5 for 10 pneumonia. Photos provided by Joey's family.

Joey ready and eager for retirement.

Joey with the KRAK radio team.

Joey (far right) with Mary Jane Popp (next to him) worked together on local on-air fundraisers to raise money for local causes.

Joey always had a smile and a joke, even if it was on him.
