Complete with ponies and mediaeval props, Carmichael Church of God youth stage a "Keepers of the Kingdom" battalion.

Story and photos by Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Surviving one of the hottest July 4 processions in recent history, hundreds of patriots, horses, dogs and vehicles last week made the two-mile trek down Fair Oaks Boulevard.

Though the heat (90 degrees and rising by 11 a.m.) reduced crowds, sidewalk supporters stood their ground to applaud the 64th Carmichael Elks Parade. Grand Marshal was Dave Kovar, a local business leader whose martial arts students have provided a added a clip-clop with miniature ponies in their "Keepers of the Kingdom" battalion.

VIPS included Congressman Ami Bera, Assemblyman Josh Hoover and Supervisor Rich Desmond.

Garnering even more cheers was 100-year-old Chuck Schumate, who served the Army in World War II and wore a U.S. Air Force uniform for the Korean War.

"It was my first parade and probably my last," said the centenarian. "I much prefer being in the background. But the public's

Californians Affected by Wildfire Smoke Should Take Steps to Protect Their Health

California Department of Public Health News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - With wildfire smoke and reduced air quality affecting many California communities, the California Department of Public Health (CDPH) is urging Californians to take steps to protect themselves from air pollutants. Wildfire smoke can affect anyone's health, but some people are at higher risk, including pregnant people, children, older adults, first responders, and people with chronic conditions like asthma, COPD, diabetes, kidney disease or heart disease.

"All Californians should be aware of the risks of wildfire smoke and ash inhalation and take steps to avoid breathing in pollutants, including reducing outdoor activity and staying indoors when possible," said Dr. Tomás J. Aragón, California Department of Public Health Director and State Public Health Officer. "Wildfire smoke can make anyone sick, but it's particularly unhealthy for vulnerable individuals, including children, people who are pregnant, and those with chronic health conditions."

How Californians Can Protect Their Health

To avoid possible health problems due to wildfire smoke and poor air quality, California Department of Public Health recommends taking the following steps:

Stay informed. Check the air quality and sign up for updates. Californians can check their local air quality index (AQI) at AirNow.

Stay indoors. If the air quality is bad, stay inside as much as possible and close all windows, doors and vents.

Adjust your A/C. Change the settings on your A/C unit to re-circulate or close outdoor air intakes to avoid drawing in smoky outdoor air. Running an air purifier can also help.

Wear a mask. If you must go outside, wear a well-fitting N95 mask. This is especially important for those who must work outdoors for long periods, in areas with heavy smoke.

Wildfire smoke contains fine particles which are respiratory irritants, and when inhaled deeply, can affect the lungs and the

A Humble Armenian American Bakes at Elite Bakery Cafe

Story and photos by Mitch Barber

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - A trip down Fair Oaks Boulevard in Carmichael can take you around the world with small businesses serving Chinese, Mexican and Afghan cuisine, for example. Close to the intersection with Walnut Avenue there is a bakery and café with Armenian roots that offers a variety of treats with a focus on American tastes.

The owner is Donara Matsoyan, who immigrated to the U.S. from Armenia in 1993, taking residence in a Carmichael apartment. She was born in Yerevan, the capital city, and she arrived here with her family that included her son, Tigran, who was just 30 days old.

The family car was stolen in Armenia and they took it as a sign to leave what was a chaotic nation after the Soviet Union, which Armenia was a part of, broke up.

She now lives in Rio Linda.

So why Carmichael for her business's whereabouts?

"My daughters chose the location, the business; everything was their idea," Matsoyan said.

She has five daughters, all of whom have worked at the bakery and café at some point; the business opened in 2017.

If you visit, you will most likely see Genie Pokitko, Matsoyan's most actively-involved daughter.

California State Fair Honors the State's Agricultural Industry, with Much to See and Enjoy!

By Carol Feineman

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The 170th California State Fair offers 17 days of old-fashioned fun for the whole family, from July 12 to July 28.

Lucky for us that we don't have to drive too far; the first state fair sponsored by the California State Agricultural Society, was held in San Francisco on Oct. 4, 1854, and rotated to different cities for the next six years. In 1861, however, Sacramento became the permanent location for the extravaganza.

While today's California State Fair still honors the state's agricultural industry, there is much more to see and enjoy at the annual event.

There are plenty of activities for all ages. That includes eating funnel cakes, waffles to sliders; listening to top musicians; riding Butler Amusements' thrilling Zipper to the classic and calmer Crown Merry Go Round; and checking out competitions and exhibits that feature our neighbors' talents and skills.

Besides the nightly concerts, entertainment is ongoing each day. For starters, there's the Tanzanite African Acrobats, the Stilt Circus and the Salsa Steel Band.

What would a fair be like without going on rides at the carnival? There are rides for the thrill-seekers as well as for those who want a tamer but just as fun experience. Photo courtesy of California State Fair

The many competitions include the Open Livestock Show with beef cattle, sheep, Boer goats, dairy cattle, dairy goats, Nigerian dwarf goats, pygmy goats, angora and fiber goats, longhorn cattle, llamas and alpaca.

And the always popular Junior Livestock competition spotlights the dedicated youth FFA members with their beef cattle, sheep, swine, goats, dairy cattle and dairy goats.

Exhibits range from a Candy Maze Selfie Exhibit, a Student Showcase & CA Crafts Exhibit, Animation

Academy to a fine art and photography exhibit.

The California State Fair is open different hours of the week.

Main Gate and Blue Gate hours are from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Friday through Sunday.

Green Gate opens at 2 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and at 11 a.m. Tuesday, Saturday and Sunday.

Carnival and Skyride hours are from 2 to 11 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Tuesday, Saturday and Sunday. Kids Park hours are 1 to 11 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Tuesday, Saturday and Sunday.

Exhibit Building hours are 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday; and from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Friday through Sunday.

The Monorail opens at 11 a.m. Monday through Thursday, and at 10 a.m. Friday through Sunday.

Tickets can be bought online at <https://calexpostatefair.com/tickets> or at the fair's box office. Several ticket prices and packages are offered. Daily tickets to the fair and food festival start at $16 for adults ($14 in advance), $12 ($10 in advance) and seniors 62 and older and $10 ($8 in advance) for children ages 5 to 12. Fair admission is free for children 4 and under.

In addition, a Family Fun Pack is $49.99 and includes four single-day general admissions, four ride tickets (each good for one ride in the Carnival or on the Monorail), and a parking pass.

The Toyota Concert Series is free with fair admission ticket in the area behind the General Admission seating area to the first 700 concert-goers. Seats can also be reserved, starting at $25.

Parking is $15 a day or three days for $30.

There are also different prices for the carnival rides, starting at $1 per ticket and carnival fast passes from $10 to $15. An Unlimited Ride Wristband bought at the Carnival is $39 Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, and $44 Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays.

Cal Expo is at 1600 Exposition Blvd. in Sacramento, northeast of the American River.

“I had water in the car, but by the time I got to the Elks Lodge, I was ready for something even cooler,” Schumate added.

Announcing participants at the review stand was Elk Jim Warrick (75), whose family has run the behemoth procession for all of its 64 years.

“I was in my first parade at 10 years old,” Warrick said. “I still feel the same excitement about it every year. I love to see the community together, celebrating American liberty.”

“We’ve made a big comeback since COVID closed us down for two years,” Warrick noted. “We’re already planning for 2025: we’ve got a Grand Marshal (ARC football coach John Osterhout) lined up and we’re hoping to add more bands. Despite the heatwave, I was pleased with the number of people who came out last Thursday. We hope Mother Nature will be kinder to us next year.”

In advance of the Glorious Fourth, La Sierra Community Center hosted a “Red White and Blue Celebration” that exploded a 20-minute fireworks display. More than 3,000 supporters applauded the pyrotechnics.

Red, White and Blue sponsors included Carmichael and Mission Oaks Park Districts;

MEMORIAL

LARRY DUNBAR • 10/19/1947 – 01/18/2024

Larry Dunbar was laid to rest at Sierra View Mortuary & Memorial Park in Olivehurst on Thursday, June 13, 2024. In attendance were his wife of 55 years, Jane (Filter) Dunbar, and his three children and their families: Melissa and Joe Antony (of Davis), Matthew and Meredith Dunbar (of Canal Winchester, OH), and Melanie and Mike Powers (of Carmichael). Also present were Larry's five beloved grandchildren, Gwyneth and Grayson Dunbar, Joby Antony, and Maximus and Jackson Powers.

Larry was preceded in death by his mother, Hazel Barkley (nee Coppin, Dunbar) and his younger brother, Allen.

Larry was a proud veteran of the United States National Guard and Army Reserves. To honor his service to his country, Larry's childhood friend, Mark Carlson, along with members of the American Legion Post No. 705 of Yuba City performed military funeral honors and presented folded American flags to Larry's family.

Larry graduated from Yuba City High School, class of 1965. He graduated from Yuba College in 1967, and Chico State in 1969 with a Bachelor of Science degree in business.

Larry worked for the State of California at State Fund as a workers compensation auditor. He retired in 2011 and spent his golden years doing the things he loved: reading, catching a game on TV, chatting with his neighbors about tools and life, complaining about the temperature, watching his children thrive, and being ever-present in the lives of his grandchildren. He almost never missed a big school event or game that his local grandchildren participated in. His loved ones will always remember him for his big smile, helping hand, hearty cheers, and classic chuckle, which endeared him to friends and strangers alike. We love you and miss you, Larry... Dear...Lar...Grandpa...Papa. Rest in Peace.

The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee has charmed audiences across the country with its effortless wit and humor.

An eclectic group of six mid-pubescent vie for the spelling championship of a lifetime. While candidly disclosing hilarious and touching stories from their home lives, the tweens spell their way through a series of (potentially made-up) words, hoping never to hear the soul-crushing, pout-inducing, life un-affirming "ding" of the bell that signals a spelling mistake. Six spellers enter; one speller leaves a champion! At least the losers get a juice box.

heart. Exposure to high concentrations of fine particles can cause persistent cough, runny nose, phlegm, wheezing, and difficulty breathing. Smoke from wildfires can also cause eye irritation, reduced lung function, and bronchitis. Those with asthma or another lung disease should keep at least a seven-day supply of medication on hand and call a health care provider if nearby wildfires worsen breathing issues.

In Case of Evacuation

Wildfires can also lead to emergency evacuations and it's important to follow the direction of local officials when evacuations are ordered. Current evacuation information can often be found through monitoring local news outlets as well as official social media channels of emergency responders such as a sheriff's office, police department, and fire department.

Knowing the "Ps of Preparedness" can help you react quickly if a wildfire threatens your area:

- Pets
- Papers (important documents)
- Phones
- Prescriptions (and glasses)
- Pictures
- PCs (computers) (for the information stored)
- Plastic (credit cards and cash)

That's Not Okay

Dear Dave,

My husband and I own a small business. We've been open for 12 years, and fortunately we've been very successful. We made the decision when we first opened to run the business debt-free. Along with that, we only accept cash, checks and debit cards for payment. Recently, we've had a client become very insistent that we start accepting credit cards. Our relationship with this client is becoming a little contentious over the issue. How should we address the situation?

— Debra

Dear Debra

Like we, as entrepreneurs, don't have enough things to worry about every, single day, right?

As you might imagine, I have a bunch of people who are mad at me all the time because I don't accept credit cards. But in my case, it's not just a business decision. I teach people all the time not to use credit cards, and why they shouldn't. So, I can't very well go around encouraging folks to just swipe their credit cards when they buy from my company.

For starters, that client is way out of bounds. It's not their place to tell you how to run your business. But you're lucky to only have one person getting pushy about the whole credit card deal. Everything about the credit industry today is out of control. But even though your case is a little different than mine, you have every right to not accept credit cards—especially if you have a moral or values-related issue with the product.

As time goes by, you'll probably have a few other people turn up their noses at the idea of not being able to pay with a credit card, but if you consistently offer great services or products at great prices, those experiences will only be a bump in the road. You don't want to be argumentative when things like this happen, so maybe you can just smile, and let them know you always appreciate input from your clients.

I'm sure you and your husband work hard to make your business the best it can be. The fact that you're still around over a decade after opening up shop is proof of that. You've probably realized, too, that being in business for yourself isn't all sunshine and rainbows every day. Regardless, no one has the right to get in your face over how your business is structured or try to push you into doing things differently. Listening to, and evaluating, suggestions from clients only makes sense. It's a smart thing for any business owner to do. But this one client is saying you should change a long-standing operating principle based on a whim—their whim.

And that's not okay

— Dave

Rejuvenate And Shine

How would you like to invigorate your mind, body and spirit? It's called whole body wellness, and Dr. Susan Smith-Jones can help us "Rejuvenate and Shine."

Dr. Jones has made extraordinary contributions in the fields of holistic health, anti-aging, optimum nutrition and balanced living. I love having her on my POPPTALK Radio Show. She has authored some thirty books with the goal of making our lives better. So get ready for ten tips that can change your life.

1. REJUVENATE AND REFRESH. Make sure to build breaks into your day. From sunrise to bedtime—reset and refresh. It's okay to unplug now and then, or at least press the "reset" button.

2. EXERCISE FOR VITALITY. Everyone is different when it comes to the time of day that's best to exercise. Henry David Thoreau wrote: "An early morning walk is a blessing for the whole day."

3. JOIN THE BREAKFAST CLUB. The word "breakfast" literally means breaking the fast from the night before. It jumpstarts metabolism. Your body needs to be refueled for the tasks ahead of it.

4. UTILIZE NATURE'S HEALING POWER. Go outside to play and pray. The more time we get outdoors into nature and appreciate the beauty and blessings of God's splendor, the more compassionate, forgiving and kind we become.

5. VISUALIZE YOUR DAY AHEAD. Albert Einstein said: Your imagination is a preview of your life's coming attractions." Visualizing success and positive outcomes can help prepare us for the real thing.

6. EAT MORE FRUITS AND VEGGIES. The fiber in these foods helps your digestive tract keep humming along the way it was designed. Eating your fruits and veggies has the added bonus of beautifying skin, boosting metabolism, and elevating mood.

7. NOURISH YOUR OVERALL WELL-BEING WITH AMPLE SLEEP. Too little sleep makes you hungry, especially for calorie-dense foods (It's harder to pass up that cupcake or order of fries) and primes your body to hold on to all the calories you eat.

8. ADJUST YOUR ATTITUDE TO INCLUDE PLENTY OF ATTITUDE. Those who catalog the positive things in their lives are healthier, happier, more motivated, less stressed, and more well-rested.

9. TAKE TIME TO PRAY, MEDITATE AND BREATHE DEEPLY. This simple, cost-free practice has been scientifically proven to heal the body, boost immunity, reverse aging, and lift your mood from negative to positive. It's a salve for the mind, body, and spirit.

10. ENJOY DAILY LAUGHTER AND TICKLE YOUR FUNNYBONE. Laughter releases endorphins into your body that act as natural stress busters. It helps relieve pain, counteracts fear, anger, and depression, all of which are linked to depression, and linked to illness and stress.

You can find these ten tips and so much more in her latest book "A Hug in a Mug." And don't forget to sign up for her free monthly newsletter. All you have to do is go to her website www.susansmithjones.com and look up in the right corner. One click on subscribe and you're in for a real treat with tons of great information and inspiration. STAY WELL! ★ for example. When asked what the bakery and café's busiest day is, Matsoyan mentioned Christmas and Thanksgiving. She said they baked "all the pies, like pumpkin pie and cherry pie" for Thanksgiving.

Even on normal days, baking and cutting start at 5 a.m. and the doors open at 8 a.m. They serve Temple Coffee to get customers started: the Dharma Espresso Blend for their espresso, which is somewhat dark-roasted, at just $3, and the Three Pillars Blend for their drip coffee, which is sold for $3.50 and $4, depending on the size.

You might detect a cherry tasting note in the espresso if you reflect on its flavor.

In addition to baked goods and drinks, Elite serves salads, breakfast dishes with eggs, sandwiches, savory and sweet crepes, and borscht soup with an Armenian spin: a type of beef stew for $12.50 a bowl.

And what of the Armenian-born son who was just a baby when he arrived in the U.S.?

Matsoyan said of Tigran, her now-adult son, "He is our biggest critic. He always comes.

Now Matsoyan has some 10 grandchildren. Say hi to Pokitko's 11-year-old son, Roman, if you see him hanging out and lending a helping hand. They'll consider you part of the family. ★

Matsoyan said of the baking process, "Some of the recipes I had, like old-time recipes. Genie just perfected them, like making them and changing them. She's a recipe changer all the time. She plays with the cookies."

The oatmeal raisin cookies are shareable at $4 a piece.

As for Matsoyan's start in baking, it was a family affair.

"I had a big family. We were always baking. My mother-in-law was a baker." Pokitko added. "So we have baking on both sides of the family."

Matsoyan still has family in Armenia, which she visits every five years. She has two sisters and a brother there.

Of her customers, Matsoyan said, "They're very happy with us: like a family. They know everything about my daughters."

They have many customers who started coming in when the business was founded more than six years ago, Matsoyan said, and they keep coming and saying encouraging things.

Some customers ask for special orders. "Some of the things I made for the first time. But I like challenges; I like when they come say, 'Can you make this?'" Matsoyan said.

Environmental Opposition to Vital Sacramento Area Highway Project is Ridiculous

By Dan Walters, CALMatters.org

Some things are just so ridiculous that they demand critical attention. One of them is the opposition from environmental groups to widening the Interstate 80 freeway between Sacramento and Davis.

For years, motorists have complained about what has been dubbed the “Davis bottleneck” that often backs up traffic for miles. What should be no more than a 10- or 15-minute drive can often take 45 minutes or more.

The state Department of Transportation wants to convert median strips into new traffic lanes that would require a toll payment to traverse. Environmentalists, who are trying to block the project in court, contend that it would merely encourage more drivers to use the stretch of freeway and therefore relief from congestion would be only temporary.

Opponents also complain that Caltrans and local officials are using the subterfuge of improving pavement to widen the freeway, and that the project runs counter to official state policy of reducing vehicular traffic as a way to reduce greenhouse gasses.

“These projects are being oversold to the public as a way to reduce congestion; they are not,” Susan Handy, director of the National Center for Sustainable Transportation, told the Los Angeles Times. “A court decision is going to be very important.”

Ironically, Handy’s organization is housed in the UC Davis campus, where the chronic congestion spills over.

The complaints might have some validity if this stretch was merely another local commuter route, but it isn’t. Interstate 80 is one of the nation’s most important transcontinental arteries, running 2,901 from San Francisco to the New York City metropolitan area with much of its route in western states following 19th-century immigrant trails.

The only other east-west interstates are either hundreds of miles to the north or hundreds to the south. That makes I-80 an extremely important route for interstate cargo, a fact evident to anyone who shares the freeway with an endless stream of large trucks.

Moreover, there are no alternative routes because the eastern portion of the freeway is a causeway over a marshy area that’s home to wildlife and is often flooded during winter and spring months. Water is diverted into the “Yolo Bypass” from the Sacramento River as an important element of the Sacramento region’s flood protection system.

Simply put, trucks and cars must either use I-80 between Sacramento and the Bay Area or not move at all. The notion that widening will increase traffic is ludicrous: The traffic will be there regardless because it has nowhere else to go.

“We experience some of the most severe congestion in California seven days a week,” Autumn Bernstein, executive director of the Yolo Transportation District, told the LA Times. “We have more than five hours of congested traffic in the eastbound direction and (in) Davis every afternoon.”

The ultimate fate of the project is not certain. The California Transportation Commission gave its approval in May and allocated money to begin work, but the environmental groups are suing, characterizing it as a showdown over the state’s official policy of avoiding projects that increase carrying capacity and lead to more traffic.

It’s unfortunate that Caltrans officials decided they needed to hide expansion of the freeway as a pavement improvement project and make it a joint project with local officials — with some token funding for mass transit — to sidestep a direct confrontation over environmental impacts.

In a more rational world, the need would be obvious, and officialdom would be criticized for waiting so long to do something about a bottleneck.

Social Security Matters

Will IRA Withdrawals Affect My Medicare Premiums?

By Russell Gloor, AMAC Certified Social Security Advisor

Dear Rusty: I am a member of AMAC and learn so much from the Ask Rusty column. I hope you can give me some information about a question that has come up in my family. My husband is retired and has reached full retirement age. He is considering withdrawing money from an IRA to pay off our mortgage. We are wondering what, if any, penalties may be incurred on Social Security, Medicare, and income tax. Thank you for your help in this matter. Signed: Concerned Taxpayer

Dear Concerned: Thank you for contacting the AMAC Foundation Social Security Advisory Service. Regarding your question on the impact of withdrawing IRA funds, there is no impact to your husband’s gross Social Security benefit. The amount withdrawn, of course, is considered ordinary income for federal income tax purposes, and will need to be included as such on your federal income tax return and will therefore affect your federal income tax liability when you file the return.

Depending on the amount withdrawn, there could be an impact to the Medicare premium due to the Income-Related Monthly Adjustment Amount (IRMAA) provision. Assuming you file jointly, you will pay a higher Medicare Part B premium if your modified adjusted gross income is above certain thresholds (i.e., more than $103,000 for an individual and $206,000 for a married couple). Please note that Medicare’s procedures will not note this income change for two years, so if you make the withdrawal in 2024 it will not trigger the increases until your 2026 Medicare premiums. A change to your Medicare premium might also result in a change to your net Social Security payment at that time (since Medicare is automatically deducted from your Social Security payment).

Also depending on the amount withdrawn, you may have to pay an additional amount on top of your Medicare Part D premium. The Part D adjustment amount is calculated based on a percentage of the Part D national base beneficiary premium, not on a percentage of the plan premium.

The Social Security Administration mails letters to beneficiaries who currently pay a Part B Income-Related Monthly Adjustment Amount (IRMAA) and, according to the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), are in a Part D plan. The letter explains the additional Part D amount, and how exactly Social Security will collect it. You can contact SSA at 1-800-772-1213 or your local SSA agency if you have any further questions about your Part D IRMAA premium.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF

BRUCE MICHAEL LAMBERT, AKA BRUCE LAMBERT CASE NO. 24PR001933

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both, of Bruce Michael Lambert, aka Bruce Lambert. A Petition for Probate has been filed by Emma Victoria La Torre, in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting Emma Victoria La Torre be appointed as personal representative(s) to administer the estate of the decedent. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows August 8, 2024, 9:00 a.m. in Dept 129; Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, William R. Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse, 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826. IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Arcade Creek Little League Wins Again!

Intermediate 50/70 Team Goes to NorCal State Championship

By Mike Powers

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - The 50/70 team from Arcade Creek Little League is something special!

With the District 5 Championship already in hand, Arcade Creek kept their momentum going by winning the Section 4 Intermediate Championship on July 1, defeating Nevada City/Grass Valley Little League 12-9 at Capeheart field in Antelope. With the win Arcade Creek advanced to the Northern California State Championship Tournament for the first time in the history of the young league.

While Arcade Creek Little League is a relatively new name in local Little League Baseball and Softball, its history runs deep. The league was created by the 2020 merger of Eastern Little League (formerly Del Paso-Eastern Little League) and Whitney Little League. Both Eastern and Whitney trace their roots to the early days of District 5, which was one of the original 33 Little League Districts formed in California in 1958.

Not since the Whitney Majors team made the 1993 NorCal State tournament has a team from Carmichael made it this far. Now, Arcade Creek 50/70 has an opportunity to do something unprecedented in league history...win State!

What does 50/70 mean? 50/70 is shorthand for the Intermediate League Baseball division of Little League, and the numbers refer to specific distances on the playing field: 50 feet pitching distance and 70 feet basepaths. It's a larger field than the traditional Little League Majors field, which is 45 feet and 60 feet, respectively. Little League created the 50/70 Division in 2013 for players aged 11-13 as an intermediate step before making the jump to full-size fields in Juniors and high school.

Arcade Creek Little League's 50/70 team has mastered the larger field.

"Their seamless transition to the bigger field demonstrates adaptability and skill. Embracing the finer details that come with playing on a larger stage is commendable," coach Bryan Deyo said.

The team's skill was on display as they went undefeated in the Section 4 Tournament.

In their first game on June 28 Arcade Creek beat North Natomas Little League (District 6) 13-3 in 5 innings. Highlights included home runs by Rex Laird and Jathen Howard, and excellent relief pitching by Jackson Waltrip.

The next day, Arcade Creek faced off against Maidu Little League (District 54), with the winner advancing to the championship game. Maidu struck early with two runs in the bottom of the first, but the Arcade Creek bats came alive with six hits and two walks in the third and fourth innings, including a big home run by Colton Nickols. Arcade Creek led 6-3 in a close game, and then got two insurance runs in the top of the sixth. Meanwhile, Jackson Powers kept Maidu off-balance at the plate, pitching 4.1 innings of scoreless relief while his teammates played stellar defense to seal the 8-3 victory in 7 full innings.

The semifinal win earned Arcade Creek an important day to rest from the hot summer sun while they awaited their opponent for the championship game on July 1. Nevada City/Grass Valley (District 11) beat a depleted Maidu squad 17-7 on June 30 to advance to the championship.

The championship game was set, Arcade Creek versus Nevada City/Grass Valley. Throughout the tournament, both teams exhibited depth at pitching, excellent contact hitting and fun loving, never-say-die attitudes. All these traits were on display in the game. Arcade Creek's Colton Nickols threw the first pitch as the temperatures soared well over 100 degrees. 15 pitches later Nickols had struck out the side.

In the bottom of the first,

Arcade Creek took advantage of some opportunities. An error, hit-by-pitch, and dropped third strike put two runners on with one out for Nickols. He launched the first pitch that he saw for a no-doubt 3-run home run to straightaway center. A walk and then another error gave Marcos Tejada a big opportunity he wouldn't waste. He sliced a line drive single to score two more runs and Arcade Creek had an early 5-0 lead.

Nickols continued his pitching dominance with three more strikeouts in the second but Nevada City/Grass Valley scratched out a single run to get on the board. In the bottom of the second, Arcade Creek put on a fireworks display a few days early. Jackson Waltrip's single led off the inning, followed by back-to-back-to-back homers by Nathan Beebe, Tian Deyo and (once again!) Colton Nickols. Another run gave Arcade Creek a huge 10-1 run after two innings.

The two teams traded runs in the third inning and Nevada City/Grass Valley got one more, but after four innings, Arcade Creek was in control up 11-3. With their fate seemingly sealed, Nevada City/Grass Valley players got loose, sparked some joy and had some fun of their own. Taking advantage of three straight walks to open the fifth, they plated three more runs and had tilted momentum in their favor cutting the score to 11-6. Then Nevada City/Grass Valley got two more runners on and were within striking distance when Arcade Creek left fielder Marcos Tejada made the defensive play of the game, a diving catch to save two runs from scoring.

Tian Deyo answered for Arcade Creek in the bottom of the fifth with his second solo homer of the game. In the sixth, Nevada City/Grass Valley followed with a solo shot of their own, and they weren't done yet! The plucky team from Gold Country struck it rich with two more hits and excellent base-running to cut the lead to four.

Arcade Creek went quietly in the bottom of the sixth, giving Nevada City/Grass Valley one more chance to mount the ultimate comeback, down 12-8. Relief pitcher Nathan Beebe got two quick outs in the 7th inning, but another solo home run cut the deficit to three and buoyed the spirits of the undaunted Nevada City/Grass Valley players. The next batter belted a high drive, but not deep enough as centerfielder Tian Deyo gloved the final out at the fence and Arcade Creek Little League were champions once again!

After the win, the Arcade Creek family of players, coaches and supporters talked with the Carmichael Times about what this team means to them. A common theme amongst the players was that they all love playing with their friends.

"During practice and games, it's all 100% effort. We're all here to have fun and put in the work." Colton Nickols said. "Outside of baseball, I think what separates us from other teams is we're all some of the best friends, and we all know how to work together."

Added Marcos Tejada, "We all have good chemistry, and are good at communicating with each other. We don't really get down that much. If we do, we pick each other up and that keeps us in the game."

Arcade Creek's parents love what they're seeing from this team and from Little League in general. Brandon Laird, whose son, Rex, played a couple years of travel baseball before this season, emphasized how much happier his son is playing Little League.

"There's more of a friend-on-friend relationship with these boys, with them going to school and growing up together. Going this far really feels like more of an accomplishment than a weekend win with a travel team," Laird said.

Said mother Kim Nickols, "This is a truly special team. These boys love being together on and off the field. They support each other. They are picking each other up when they need to and they're cheering each other on constantly, and it's just a really special time for them to be together playing."

Asked about her favorite moment from the season so far, Nickols replied, "That last out of every game and seeing the boys' reactions and seeing them realize all of the hard work that they put in is paying off."

Up next for Section 4 Champion Arcade Creek 50/70 is an opportunity to bring that friendship and hard work to the Northern California State Tournament at Brooktree Park in Citrus Heights. There they will battle the six other NorCal Section Champions from July 6 to 13. When asked what they were most looking forward to at the state tournament, consensus among the players was a short, simple answer, "Winning...and having fun too."

Arcade Creek got the State Tournament off to a great start, winning their first game 5-3 against Sunnyvale Little League on July 7. Nathan Beebe pitched six strong relief innings and had two hits. Rex Laird shined at the plate with two clutch RBI singles. The whole team played good defense, turning two double plays.

Arcade Creek will try to keep the momentum going on July 10 versus Bollinger Canyon Little League, who (at press time) is 2-0 in the tournament and has not yet allowed a run. The winner of the game will earn an automatic bid to the championship game on July 13.

Good luck, Arcade Creek! ★
