Wall Honors Heros

FAIR OAKS, CA (MPG) - Gold Star families and community leaders gathered last weekend to recall fallen heroes of nation and community. The Wall of Honor ceremony is annually observed at Patriots Park, a Carmichael Park District property in Fair Oaks.

The reserve's stone monument is dedicated to 15 local men, from military, police, CHP and firefighting ranks, who died in service since the park district's establishment. Plaques recall sacrifice from Vietnam War years until more recent tragedies.

The Sacramento Sheriff's Honor Guard present colors to begin Wall of Honor observances.

"I'm proud we have such an important monument here," noted County Supervisor and former CHP officer Rich Desmond. "There is no service more meaningful that being willing to give your life for your community. It's a solemn privilege to honor these heroes."

The monument and its 15 plaques are a profound reminder of the cost of liberty, according to state Sen. Roger Niello.

"The sacrifice of these men is a testament to the power of love," Niello said. "This wall doesn't speak but it stands forever as testimony to the community's gratitude for their service."

Congressman Ami Bera's representative Matthew Ceccato (a Purple Heart recipient) quoted military slang that indicates loyal support.

"We've got your six," Ceccato said, which indicates that buddies have you covered. "We're here to prove to the men on this wall that we've got their six. Each one of them stood up and did his duty for us. We can never forget

Election Certification Can Take 28 Days

MPG Staff

CALIFORNIA (MPG) - Due to the requirements outlined in Assembly Bill 3184, the Nov. 5 General Election results cannot be certified in California until Dec. 3, at the earliest. Assembly Bill 3184 establishes specific timelines and procedures for certifying election results in California.

Certification for the Nov. 5 general election is expected to be completed Dec. 3.

While the first release of results happens just after 8 p.m. Nov. 5 (Election Day), those results are in no way final. The county Elections Office has been tabulating ballots since two weeks ago and the first release of results will only be inclusive of Vote by Mail and Vote Center ballots that are returned and processed through Nov. 4.

The second report includes results from the Vote Centers on Election Day and is issued shortly after 10 p.m. Nov. 5, after press time, with subsequent updates approximately every two hours, if needed, until all Vote Centers have reported.

California allows for 28 days after elections to certify the election, in addition to seven days after Election Day to receive a mail ballot post-marked by Nov. 5.

The second report on Nov. 5 will include results from the Vote Centers on Election Day and will be issued by 10 p.m., with subsequent updates approximately every two hours, if needed, until all Vote Centers have reported (Elections Code 15151(b)).

The first interim report will be posted by 4:15 p.m. on Nov. 8 and will contain results from Vote by Mail ballots and provisional ballots received timely. Subsequent reports will be updated every Tuesday and Friday until certification is complete, which is expected to be Dec. 3.

The Election Results Schedule is provided pursuant to Elections Code 15306(a)(3).

SacRT Receives Grant Funding

Compiled by Daniel Canfield from Sacramento Regional Transit News Releases

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Sacramento Regional Transit (SacRT) recently announced several grant awards, totaling more than $105 million, that will benefit Sacramento commuters, public transit riders and the environment.

First on Oct. 23, SacRT announced that the California State Transportation Agency has awarded SacRT $29 million in grant funding through the Transit and Intercity Rail Capital Program. The grant funding will be used for several high priority light rail projects. Funding for the program comes from the federal Greenhouse Gas Reduction Fund which was created and funded through the Inflation Reduction Act of 2022.

According to SacRT, the projects, once complete, will offer significant benefits, including a reduction of 78,032 metric tons of CO2 equivalent

"This funding will allow us to continue advancing our vision of a more connected, accessible, and sustainable transit system for all Sacramento residents," said Henry Li, SacRT General Manager/CEO. "We are excited to work with our partners to bring these projects to life, and we look forward to seeing the positive impact on our community."

Light rail projects supported through this grant funding include:

New Low-Floor Light Rail Vehicles

state-of-the-art S700 low-floor light rail vehicles from Siemens Mobility. SacRT previously ordered 45 of these new light rail cars, with the first 20 already in service on the Gold Line. This new grant funding will assist with the purchase of 10 additional new low-floor light rail vehicles, bringing our total to 55.

Light Rail Station Conversions on the Blue Line

SacRT is converting 17 of the 19 light rail stations along the Blue Line to accommodate the height requirement of the new low-floor light rail vehicles, making the system more accessible by eliminating the need to climb stairs to board the vehicles. With this new grant funding, SacRT will be able to complete station conversions at all light rail stations. Learn more about this project at sacrt.com/modernization.

and more accessible routes for bicyclists and pedestrians near the future Horn Road Station. Rancho Cordova's streetscape work and the design of a new Class IV Bike Trail will further connect the station to regional bike paths like the American River Bike Trail.

Transition to Digital Fare Technology

SacRT is transitioning to a digital fare system through the Cal-ITP Platform Validator and Smart Fare Vending Machine, in partnership with the CCJPA. This will streamline fare payments and transfers between SacRT services and Capitol Corridor trains, providing a more seamless experience for riders. SacRT plans to extend this template to other regional rail services, such as ACE and San Joaquins trains, making travel throughout Northern California easier and more efficient.

Then on Oct. 30, SacRT announced the Federal Transit Administration's award of approximately $76 million in Capital Investment funds. The federally funded Capital Investment grant program funds transit capital investments, including heavy rail, commuter rail, light rail, streetcars and bus rapid transit.

The grant award will enable SacRT to purchase new hydrogen fuel cell buses, replace aging fleet vehicles, construct a permanent hydrogen fueling station, modernize a key bus maintenance facility, and establish a workforce development program to train local workers in maintaining and operating the advanced zero-emission buses.

As part of the grant award announcement, SacRT hosted a ceremonial ribbon cutting event at the site of the new bus facility to be funded through the grant. Several local elected officials and dignitaries attended the event and shared their thoughts.

"This investment solidifies SacRT's commitment to a greener, more sustainable future," said SacRT General Manager/CEO Henry Li. "The new hydrogen fuel cell buses and modernized facilities will significantly reduce our carbon footprint while enhancing service for our riders. We are grateful for the federal partnership and the strong support from our congressional representatives."

Said SacRT Board Chair Patrick Kennedy, "This grant is not just about upgrading our fleet; it's about creating opportunities for the Sacramento community. By investing in workforce development, we're ensuring that local residents have the skills needed for tomorrow's jobs in the growing field of green transportation."

Said U.S. Representative Doris Matsui, "Sacramento is leading the way in the transition to clean energy and this investment underscores our region's commitment to sustainable transportation. The hydrogen fuel cell buses will make a tangible difference in our air quality, while creating jobs and boosting economic development in our community."

Said U.S. Representative Ami Bera, M.D., "This federal investment will have lasting benefits for Sacramento. It supports clean energy solutions while improving access to safe and reliable transit. Thanks to funding passed from the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law, I am proud to support SacRT's efforts to modernize our transportation infrastructure."

Said U.S. Representative Kevin Kiley, "This federal grant is not only a win for sustainable transit but also for job creation here in Sacramento. This will provide new employment opportunities for our community, equipping local workers with the skills needed to support innovative transportation for years to come."

Said Ray Tellis, FTA Region 9 Administrator, "The FTA is proud to support SacRT's forward-thinking vision for public transit. These funds will help reduce emissions, improve transit services and create opportunities for Sacramento's workforce, all while moving us closer to a sustainable future."

Said California State Treasurer Fiona Ma, "This project is a critical step toward achieving California's ambitious greenhouse gas reduction goals. By transitioning to hydrogen fuel cell buses and modernizing transit infrastructure, SacRT is demonstrating the kind of leadership we need to build a cleaner, more sustainable future for our state."

SacRT acknowledged the bus service improvement projects are made possible through strong partnerships with California Air Resources Board, Sacramento Area Council of Governments, Sacramento Metropolitan Air Quality Management District, Center for Transportation and the Environment, New Flyer of America, American River College, Clean Cities Coalition and the County and City of Sacramento. ★

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - From church congregants to chiropractors; from rock bands to restaurateurs. They came, they clapped and many of them were honored.

Local merchants and service professionals dressed fancy to celebrate the annual Best of Carmichael contest last Friday. Supporters still scrambled for seats as the La Sierra Center reached near-capacity. In the end, 300 revelers walked the red carpet.

Presented by the Carmichael Times and the Carmichael Chamber of Commerce, the contest is a fundraiser for the nonprofit Chamber of Commerce.

Initiated six years ago, the event has garnered more community enthusiasm every year. The 2024 contest fielded 70 categories for 527 contending entities. Voters totaled almost 20,000.

A new category this year rewarded "Favorite Teacher," California Montessori Project staffer Kardell "Mr. Dell" DeLaCruz with a $400 check.

A glittering door prize included a $1,500 pair of earrings. The donor, Aquamarine Jewelry, was voted "Best Jewelry Store."

Following dinner catered by Elena's Kitchen, a dessert auction continued fundraising with fevered bidding for decadent cakes, cookies and pies. Sacramento Supervisor Rich Desmond's table rejoiced in the supervisor's $350 bid for the nine-layer carrot cake donated by Lido Café and Bakery.

"This was truly our best Best of Carmichael, yet" reported Carmichael Chamber of Commerce President and event organizer Rosie Buck. "Enthusiasm from the community was simply amazing."

Winners in dozens of business and service categories unite at the Best of Carmichael gala. The 2024 community contest enthused more than 18,500 voters.

Sponsors included Buck Family Automotive, Carmichael Chamber of Commerce, Supervisor Rich Desmond, SMUD, A&A, Carmichael Times, Milagro Centre, Western Health Advantage, Aquamarine Jewelry and Carmichael Improvement District.

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Jesuit High School's art sale recently sold more than 80 canvases, sculptures and photographs. Garnering contributions from high-profile California artists, the event has been a Sacramento fundraising staple for more than a decade.

A VIP reception saw dozens of items exit with new owners. Sales continued online for five more days.

"We had a steady three hours of purchases on our first night," reported fundraising events director Kim Kalmbach. "There's always high energy and excitement during our reception.

One big piece, a Pat Mahoney landscape, went for $8,000 in the first hour. Several $4,000 pieces sold the same evening. Over the next five days, on-line sales continued briskly. One supporter bought $8,000 worth of canvases from the website."

The 2024 show racked up near-record results. Proceeds will be split 50/50 between the Catholic school and artists.

"It's an important event that supports local artists as well as Jesuit," Kalmbach said. "We're always grateful for artists who participate. The quality of their work astounds us, year after year. And we really appreciate the community that comes out and buys."

The initial Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is currently 6.75% for a new Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC), and is fixed for the first 5 years of the loan which is called the draw period. After the initial 5 year period, the APR can change once based on the value of an Index and Margin. The Index is the weekly average yield on U.S. Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of 10 years and the margin is 3.50%. The current APR for repayment period is 7.50%. The maximum APR that can apply any time during your HELOC is 15%. A qualifying transaction consists of the following conditions: (1) the initial APR assumes a maximum HELOC of $200,000, and a total maximum Loan-to-Value (LTV) of 70% including the new HELOC and any existing 1st Deed of Trust loan on your residence; (2) your residence securing the HELOC must be a single-family home that you occupy as your primary residence; (3) if the 1st Deed of Trust loan is with a lender other than El Dorado Savings Bank, that loan may not exceed $300,000, have a total maximum Loan to Value (LTV) of 65% and may not be a revolving line of credit. Additional property restrictions and requirements apply. All loans are subject to a current appraisal or property evaluation. This cost will be disclosed in your commitment letter and paid at loan closing. Property insurance is required and flood insurance may be required. Rates, APR, terms and conditions are subject to change without notice. Other conditions apply. A $25 early closure fee will be assessed if the line of credit is closed within three years from the date of opening. An annual fee of $85 will be assessed on the first anniversary of the HELOC and annually thereafter during the draw period. Ask for a copy of our "Fixed Rate Home Equity Line of Credit Disclosure Notice" for additional important information. Other HELOC loans are available under different terms.

Black Child Legacy Campaign Report 2024

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) -

In 2011, the Board of Supervisors received a report from the Child Death Review Team, revealing that Sacramento County’s African American children were dying at twice, and sometimes closer to three times the rate of other races and ethnicities for over two decades. The Board and key community partners realized something had to be done to save these young lives. As a then-freshman County Supervisor, Phil Serna convened the Blue Ribbon Commission on Disproportionate African American Child Deaths as part of a community-driven movement to save young lives.

Starting in 2013, the Steering Committee created the Black Child Legacy Campaign (BCLC) to bring community members, Sacramento County departments and community partners together to reduce Black/African American child deaths in Sacramento County. There has been an 18% reduction in Black/African American child deaths since the start of the Black Child Legacy Campaign.

Key partners in the effort include the Sacramento County

Department of Child, Family, and Adult Services (DCFAS), the Sacramento County Department of Human Assistance, the Sacramento County Probation Department, the Sacramento County Health Services Department, First 5 Sacramento Commission (Chaired by Supervisor Serna) and Sierra Health Foundation.

“There is no one person who can do this work alone. It is a collaborative system,” said Department of Child, Family, and Adult Services Division Manager Kim Pearson.

The Black Child Legacy Campaign has identified four leading causes of African American child deaths: perinatal conditions, infant sleep-related deaths, child abuse and neglect homicides, and third-party homicides.

On Tuesday, Oct. 22, multiple departments of Sacramento County presented the annual report on the Black Child Legacy Campaign to the Board of Supervisors. The report summarized what the campaign accomplished in Fiscal Year 2022 – 2023. The Black Child Legacy Campaign met three of its goals in reducing African American child deaths. There have been reductions in infant sleep-related deaths, deaths due to perinatal conditions and deaths caused by child abuse and neglect. However, in third-party homicides, there has been a 38 percent increase overall.

“Each of these numbers represents the death of a child and the parents that had to go on living after their child died,” said Sacramento County First 5 Director Julie Gallelo.

As a partner in this effort since 2011, the First 5 Sacramento Commission has funded education campaigns and direct services for the last decade. The Commission’s Black Mother’s United (BMU) program, operated through Her Health First, provides pregnant people with a pregnancy coach to provide one-on-one peer support, education and service navigation. The data shows the program’s efforts are lifesaving. Of the 149 mothers they served in the last fiscal year, 91% were a healthy weight at birth, 94% were delivered at full-term and there were no stillbirths. This is the fourth year in a row where no infant deaths occurred. All of those babies got to celebrate their first birthday.

Also helping new and expecting parents, the Safe Sleep Baby initiative teaches parents and guardians how to safely sleep their baby. Safe Sleep Baby is not limited to parents and guardians; grandparents, aunts and uncles and other caregivers can get involved to learn how to safely sleep a baby. Recently, Safe Sleep Baby provided 546 cribs to families in need and trained 832 parents.

Child deaths are down 18% overall from 2012-2014 and there is a 10% reduction in the disparity gap.

As part of the Black Child Legacy Campaign, partners are also focused on keeping families together, reuniting them and helping them navigate the child welfare system. The Department of Child, Family, and Adult Services uses a Cultural Broker Program that utilizes trained community liaisons to help families understand, navigate and advocate in the Child Protective Services system. Cultural brokers are embedded in the communities they serve.

Cultural brokers undergo extensive training so they understand how Child Protective Services works and what parents need to do to reunify with their children. During Tuesday’s presentation, the Department of Child, Family, and Adult Services workers shared how impactful keeping families together can be.

“I appreciate everything and am grateful. Having my kids back took a lot of stress off in my life,” said one father who was reunified with his child.

While reviewing the collective efforts of Black Child Legacy Campaign gave Sacramento County leaders a chance to reflect on the great work that has been done in the community, it also showed them that there is still more action needed.

“There is always going to be work to do and we can’t rest,” said Sacramento County Supervisor Phil Serna.

You can view this year’s report at the Sacramento County website at saccounty.gov, then under the menu options, hit “Live/Visit,” click “Board of Supervisors” under “Public Meetings.” Once there, click “Board of Supervisors – Agendas & Action Summaries” and then select the Oct. 22 Board of Supervisors Meeting, where you can see the agenda, agenda packet and the action summary.

Women’s Empowerment Receives $50,000 To Provide for Unhoused Sac Women

Kristin Thebaud, Kristin Thebaud Communications News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Women’s Empowerment has received a grant of $50,000 from the Yocha Dehe Community Fund to provide transitional workforce housing for Sacramento women experiencing homelessness with their families.

“We are so grateful for the generosity of the Yocha Dehe Wintun Nation and their commitment to ensuring women who are working and have children also have safe, affordable housing as they work to increase their salaries and afford market-rate rent during Sacramento’s housing crisis,” said Lisa Culp, executive director, Women’s Empowerment.

Women’s Empowerment created its Trellis Gardens transitional workforce housing community at an existing development in Sacramento this past year, subleasing 16 cottages to graduates of the program who have families and have secured employment but cannot afford market-rate housing. The gated community is just one mile from four schools, two parks and a grocery store, and close to public transportation. Children in the cottages receive developmental assessments, and local financial institutions provide financial education for residents so they can prepare to move into permanent housing when they are finished at Trellis Gardens.

“Taking care of others and helping them thrive is how we honor our values as a native community,” said Mia Durham, Yocha Dehe tribal secretary and community fund chair. “Yocha Dehe Wintun Nation truly understands the struggle and stigma of being unhoused, and the detrimental impact it can have on women and children. We are grateful for the opportunity to partner with Women’s Empowerment to support this critical effort to provide local women and children with a safe place to live.”

Women’s Empowerment provides a two-month employment-readiness and empowerment program, paid job training, childcare and support services so women and their children can break the generational cycle of homelessness. Women’s Empowerment offers the most comprehensive job-readiness program in the Sacramento area designed specifically for women experiencing homelessness and their children. In 2023, 165 jobs were secured by graduates, and 189 women either secured or maintained housing. Since 2001, 1,903 women have graduated from the program with more than 4,000 children. Women’s Empowerment is funded through private donations from the community and grants. To make a donation: Womens-Empowerment.org.

The Yocha Dehe Wintun Nation is committed to building strong communities and helping those in need, establishing the Community Fund to advance this mission. The Community Fund has established partnerships with more than 400 organizations throughout Yolo County, the state and nation, and granted nearly $40 million in philanthropic aid to support programs and initiatives dedicated to assisting people in need. The Community Fund prioritizes grants that help people help themselves in critical areas: education, Native arts and culture, environmental protection, Native rights and tribal sovereignty, and health and wellness. Innovative Homeless Service Center Ready to Build

The Watt Service Center and Safe Stay, if open for at least 15 years, will serve about 18,000 unsheltered people. Photo courtesy of Sacramento County

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) -

Sacramento County has long envisioned a large-scale project that can serve the unhoused population with diverse offerings to help people in various stages of homelessness. In 2022, the county purchased a 13-acre property on Watt Ave. near Roseville Road that also has a 130,000 square-foot warehouse on site.

The vision is to have a mixed-use service center with shelter, respite, safe parking, Behavioral Health services co-located on-site with case management, storage, pet respite, laundry services, showers, bathrooms, job training and more.

With the board’s action on Oct. 22 to approve the staff recommendation to move forward with the construction bid, the Department of Homeless Service and Housing can make this vision a reality.

The Watt Service Center and Safe Stay (Center) provides the space and opportunity to make all of these visions a reality. While the initial price tag feels hefty – at a purchase price of $22 million for the parcel and an estimated cost of $42 million for construction of the full vision for the campus – the reality is that this center will serve thousands of people – not just the 350 it can serve at any given time.

The Service Center will have capacity to host (at any given time): 225 beds in Safe Stay cabins, 50-person capacity in Safe Parking and 75-person capacity for emergency/weather respite beds.

Conservative estimates, based off the data from other county sheltering and respite projects, show that over 15 years the Service Center will serve 18,000 people – which lowers the cost to less than $3,600 per person.

With the expectation of this center operating longer than 15 years, those costs continue to shrink as the impact on homelessness across Sacramento County grows.

In 2017, Sacramento looked at the cost born by the public systems (county jail, shelters, behavioral health and City Fire), and found the average cost for an unsheltered individual to be $45,000 annually for the top 250 users of these systems. It costs far more to leave people unhoused than it does to stabilize them, address the issues keeping them in homelessness and doing whatever it takes to get them housed.

The Service Center’s size and configuration offers a unique opportunity to serve folks immediately exiting homelessness in the emergency/weather respite center, as well as those more stabilized and working towards permanent housing in the Safe Stay cabins. Additionally, it will allow staff to serve people living in vehicles, which includes working poor and those who are only recently homeless.

While having the space to serve folks at these different stages of their homeless experience, the site will allow for a myriad of community-based supports – behavioral health, physical health, employment services, treatment services (and many more) – to co-locate at the site and support clients towards a permanent exit from homelessness.

Watt will be the county’s fourth Safe Stay Community, with locations in south Sacramento at Florin, East Parkway and on Stockton Blvd. In addition to these shelters, the county also has scattered site shelter homes across the county, as well as several other sheltering programs. This will be the county’s first year-round weather respite and its first Safe Parking program.

The county continues to pursue new and innovative programs and services to address homelessness, stretch limited funding and partner with its cities, community-based organizations and local non-profits in the mission to end homelessness.

Residential Wood-Burning Restrictions Begin Nov. 1

Sacramento Metropolitan Air Quality Management District News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Sac Metro Air District launched its “Check Before You Burn” season on Nov. 1. The program, which continues through the end of February, requires residents and businesses in Sacramento County, including those in the cities of Citrus Heights, Elk Grove, Folsom, Galt, Isleton, Rancho Cordova and Sacramento, to check the daily burn status before using a wood-burning fireplace or other wood-burning device.

When fine particle pollution (PM2.5) is forecast to be high, the Sac Metro Air District restricts burning of solid fuels, including wood, pellets and manufactured fire logs. This program helps reduce the harmful health effects of air pollution caused by wood smoke.

Wood burning in the winter is responsible for more than 50 percent of the fine particle pollution in Sacramento County. Wood smoke, much like wildfire smoke, contains tiny toxic particles that, when inhaled, can enter the bloodstream, presenting serious health risks. Children, older adults, and anyone with a pre-existing heart or lung condition are especially vulnerable. Exposure to wood smoke can increase the risk of asthma, heart attack, stroke and other health issues.

Three easy ways to Check Before You Burn:

Follow @AQMD on X (Formerly Twitter).

Call the burn status hotline at 1-877-NO-BURN-5 (1-877-662-8765).

For more information, visit Sac Metro Air District’s Check Before You Burn webpage at www.airquality.org and click on Check Before You Burn at the bottom of the website. ★

Doctors Say Bacterial Pneumonia Increasing, Especially Among Children

UC Davis Health News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Cases of pneumonia caused by the bacteria Mycoplasma, also known as “walking pneumonia,” have been on the rise this year in the United States, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

The agency reports an increase among all age groups across the United States from March 31 to Oct. 5 of this year, with the peak in August, and levels remaining high. The data come from the National Syndromic Surveillance Program and bioMérieux BIOFIRE Syndromic Trends.

Young children, particularly those ages 2 to 4, have been most affected this year, with an increase from 1% to 7.2% among children ages 2 to 4. Children ages 5 to 17 also saw an increase from 3.6% to 7.4%.

Dean Blumberg, chief of pediatric infectious diseases at UC Davis Children’s Hospital, answered some questions about walking pneumonia and what parents and families can do to keep their children healthy. His comments follow below.

What is Mycoplasma Pneumoniae?

“Pneumonia from Mycoplasma, also known by the nonmedical term ‘walking pneumonia,’ is caused by the bacteria Mycoplasma pneumoniae, which causes a respiratory tract infection. These can be mild infections which, most often, do not require hospitalization, but for some, they can be severe and

Do you have fever, sore throat and cough? It could be “walking pneumonia, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, which is on the rise. Photo courtesy of UC Davis Health require antibiotics to get better. Both children and adults can get pneumonia from Mycoplasma.”

What are the Common Symptoms of Pneumonia Caused by Mycoplasma?

“Common symptoms can include fever, cough, sore throat, headache and feeling tired.

It’s often called ‘walking pneumonia’ since some people don’t feel sick enough to stay home but they are still contagious and can spread the disease to others. Complications can occur that require hospital care, including new or worsening asthma, severe pneumonia and encephalitis (inflammation of the brain).

Children under 5 often have different symptoms, including diarrhea, sneezing, sore throat, stuffy or runny nose, vomiting, watery eyes and wheezing Symptoms typically last for several weeks.

Some infected people may have no symptoms but it can still damage the lining of the respiratory tract, including the throat, windpipe and lungs.”

How is it Spread?

“It can spread person-to-person through the respiratory route, particularly when people are coughing or sneezing. People who live or work in crowded settings are at an increased risk for outbreaks.

It can take one to four weeks for symptoms to appear after someone has been exposed to the bacteria.”

Who is at Highest Risk for This?

“Anyone is susceptible but those recovering from a respiratory illness are at an increased risk for serious infection. Anyone with a weakened immune system or with preexisting lung conditions such as asthma or reactive airway disease are also at greater risk for serious infection.”

Is there a Vaccine Available for Mycoplasma Pneumoniae?

“No, unfortunately there is no vaccine.”

How is it Diagnosed?
“Testing is available through a nose or throat swab PCR test at your doctor’s office.”

How is this Treated?
“Macrolides (such as azithromycin) are a class of antibiotics used commonly to treat bacterial pneumonia including infections caused by Mycoplasma pneumoniae. Make sure to take the full course of antibiotics and don’t stop when you start feeling better.”

What are some ways to keep Families Safe?

“I think a lot of families may not have heard of Mycoplasma pneumoniae or know that it is going around. I would advise families to follow these common-sense strategies:

Stay home when you are feeling sick. Keep your children away from others if they are not feeling well.

Cover your cough and sneeze and teach your kids to use their batwing to cover their cough or sneeze.

Wear a well-fitted KN95 or N95 mask if you feel sick and need to be out in public or if you are in crowded settings with others. According to the American Academy of Pediatrics, children ages 2 and older can safely wear a mask. But the exception is for anyone who cannot easily remove their own mask or who has trouble breathing.

Those who get worsening symptoms, have difficulty breathing or are unable to keep liquids down, should seek medical attention immediately.” ★

UC Davis Children's Hospital Named Among Best For 2024-2025

UC Davis News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - UC Davis Children's Hospital has been recognized as a 2024-2025 Best Children's Hospital by U.S. News & World Report.

The annual Best Children's Hospitals rankings, now in its 18th year, assist parents and caregivers, along with their physicians, in how to choose the best possible care for children with serious illnesses or complex medical needs.

UC Davis Children's Hospital is nationally ranked among the nation's 50 best in five specialty care areas: 23rd in nephrology, 26th in neonatology; 32nd in pediatric orthopedics, which was awarded in collaboration with Shriners Children's – Northern California, UC Davis Children's Hospital's longstanding partner in caring for children with burns, spinal cord injuries, orthopedic disorders and urological issues; 36th nationally in pediatric pulmonology and lung surgery; and Top 50 in pediatric and adolescent behavioral health.

Regionally, UC Davis Children's Hospital was ranked seventh in California and eighth in the Pacific Region, which includes Alaska, California, Hawaii, Oregon and Washington.

“Our physicians, nurses and health care teams deliver world-class pediatric specialty care to patients from Sacramento and beyond,” said Satyan Lakshminrusimha, chair of pediatrics and physician-in-chief of UC Davis Children's Hospital. “These awards recognize the expertise of our staff and their commitment to the care of children. I'm so pleased we get to celebrate that today. It is an honor to be recognized nationally in the U.S. News' Best Children's Hospitals rankings.”

U.S. News, together with RTI International, a North Carolina-based research and consulting firm, collected and analyzed data from 108 children's hospitals and surveyed thousands of pediatric specialists. Children's hospitals awarded a “Best” designation excelled at factors such as clinical outcomes, level and quality of hospital resources directly related to patient care and expert opinion among pediatric specialists.

“U.S. News & World Report's annual Best Children's Hospitals evaluation empowers parents and caregivers with a data-driven guide to help them find the best pediatric hospital to treat their child,” said Ben Harder, chief of health analysis and managing editor at U.S. News.

The full rankings for the 2024-2025 Best Children's Hospitals Honor Roll, regional and specialty rankings can be found at USNews.com. ★

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County Department of Health Services (DHS) recently recognized Bullying Prevention Month by increasing its outreach and engagement efforts, with an emphasis on reaching communities in high-need areas across the county.

This year, the department highlighted its partnership with HeartLand Child and Family Services, the county's 16th Flexible Integrated Treatment (FIT) site, to expand the county's outreach to more children, youth and families through enhanced mental health support.

With the new HeartLand Flexible Integrated Treatment site, the Department of Health Services brings vital services to areas with high child-poverty rates, CPS involvement and mental health needs. By tapping into HeartLand's strong community ties, the county strengthens its grassroots efforts, ensuring trusted mental health resources are accessible and readily available.

This month, the HeartLand team participated in community events to promote anti-bullying messages, share resources and support local families. Their outreach focused on fostering kindness, empathy and open communication to build a countywide culture of zero tolerance for bullying.

“Seeing the impact of our partnership with Sacramento County, especially during Bullying Prevention Month, brings joy to our team and communities,” said HeartLand Child and Family Services, Director of Clinical Services Todd Palumbo. “We’re dedicated to making a real difference in the lives of youth by helping create safe spaces, fostering kindness and strengthening family support. It’s incredibly fulfilling to be part of building a community where every young person feels valued and empowered.”

Some of the efforts included Dudley Elementary Fall Festival, where families received resources on addressing bullying in schools, emphasizing kindness; Community Collaborative Charter School, where parents were encouraged to adopt anti-bullying practices and reduce mental health stigma; Walk ‘N’ Roll Disability Resource Fair, offering resources to community members while promoting disability awareness and empathy; and Salvation Army Youth Basketball League Celebration (95817) on Oct. 19, offering mentorship programs and support to foster anti-bullying attitudes among youth.

Hunger in Sacramento Continues to Rise

California Association of Food Banks News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - In California, one in four households with children are estimated to be food insecure — that’s more than 1 million households with children that have unreliable access to adequate food.

The data, recently released by the California Association of Food Banks, reveals that food insecurity today is similar to that seen in the early months of the COVID-19 pandemic. Right here in Sacramento County, 28% — more than 448,000 people — are at risk of hunger.

Through the “Jars of Hope” initiative, two organizations are joining to help that number. Riviana Foods Inc. (“Riviana”), America’s leading rice company, and the California Association of Food Banks (CAFB) are teaming up to provide crucial funds to food banks across California.

As families start their holiday food shopping, Walmart, Ralphs, Food 4 Less, and Foods Co. stores have made it easy for Sacramentans help their neighbors in need. Starting this week, Riviana will donate $1 to the California Association of Food Banks for every RiceSelect® jar sold at participating stores between Oct. 14 and Nov. 10. In addition, Riviana will donate rice to California food banks. Money raised through the “Jars of Hope” campaign will support the California Association of Food Banks’ Farm to Family program and the organization’s mission to end hunger. Last year, the California Association of Food Banks’ Farm to Family program delivered more than 250 million pounds of fresh fruits and vegetables to food banks, providing quality and nutritious food to communities while reducing food waste. This food helps support Sacramento Food Bank & Family Services, along with 40 partner food banks in the California Association of Food Banks, who collectively serve more than 6 million Californians each month. ★ of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both, of Mary E. Fernandez, aka Mary Ellen Fernandez, aka Mary Ellen Magayac Fernandez. A Petition for Probate has been filed by Justin D. Alcee, in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting Justin D. Alcee be appointed as personal representative(s) to administer the estate of the decedent.

The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows November 21, 2024, 9:00 a.m. in Dept 129; Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, William R. Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse, 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Dave Ramsey

Dear Dave,

My husband and I began your plan a few months ago. We love the process of living on a budget, and how it has helped us gain control of our finances. Our kids are 14 and 13 now. Do you think it's a good idea to include teenagers in budget meetings and financial discussions?

– Paula

Dear Paula,

This is a great question! As long as you're not in an extreme situation, like you're looking at foreclosure or bankruptcy, or you're on the opposite end of the spectrum sitting on a pile of wealth, I think it's a wonderful idea. Teaching kids about money with a standard, regular, monthly budget is one thing. But as a parent, you don't want to put your kids into situations they aren't emotionally equipped to handle.

As long as mom and dad are having a discussion and making decisions—not fighting—it's good for kids to hear the give and take where handling money is concerned. Parents who never let their kids handle money, and never teach them proper money management techniques, run a high risk of turning financially irresponsible adults loose in the world.

Dave Ramsey Says They Handle It? Hang Around for Benefits?

And that's no good for anyone.

But walking through a typical, normal budget will show them how much money is coming in and how much things cost. They'll see on paper exactly how much groceries or the electric bill costs. Then, when it's right there in front of their eyes, they'll begin to realize why mom and dad always tell them not to waste food, and to turn off the lights when they leave a room!

– Dave

Hang Around for Benefits?

Dear Dave,

I am currently serving in the military, and I'm not sure I like the life, or what I'm doing, as much as I did a few years ago. Recently, I was approached with some exciting opportunities outside the military in a different field. I'm not sure what to do. Do you think I should make plans to take advantage of these new opportunities, or should I stick with the military and receive full benefits when I'm eligible to retire in 10 years?

– William

Dear William,

There are people who absolutely love the military. It makes a great career for some folks, and I think that's awesome. God bles them—and you—for serving their country that way. But whether you're in the military or a civilian, I think you should do what you love doing.

If you were just a few months away from retirement, I'd probably tell you to bear down and tough it out. That way, it wouldn't be too long before you could explore the new opportunities and have a nice pension coming in. But 10 years is a long time to do anything when your heart's not in it.

Long story short? If you love it, stay. If you don't, get out. Serving in the armed forces is voluntary, and in a sense, that makes it a little like other jobs. Regardless, hanging around for a decade in a job where you're miserable just to collect benefits? That's not a good plan.

Social Security Matters Why Does the Government Raid Social Security?

By Russell Gloor, AMAC Certified Social Security Advisor

Dear Rusty: The Social Security program is funded by employees and their employers. The federal government does not contribute to the program, right? So why does the federal government feel they have the right to raid the fund? All the money sent to Ukraine and other unnecessary programs could have been used to pay back what they owe to Social Security. Signed: Disgruntled Senior

Dear Disgruntled Senior: You are correct that the Social Security program is mainly funded by payroll taxes on employee earnings and by employers who match those employee contributions. FYI, some additional SS revenue is received from income tax on Social Security benefits, as well as from interest on the special issue government bonds held in the Social Security Trust Fund. But the assertion that the Federal Government used (raided) the Social Security Trust Fund for any other purpose is a myth. All Social Security revenue received since the program began in 1937 has been accounted for, and all excess funds are contained in a special Trust Fund in the form of interest-bearing government bonds, reserved to pay future benefits. FYI, the interest on those bonds contributed about $67 billion to the Trust Fund reserves in 2023.

Social Security revenue, today, is not adequate to pay all benefit obligations, and the extra money needed to pay full SS benefits for everyone is obtained by redeeming Trust Fund reserves. Redemption of those Trust Fund bonds is how the federal government "pays back" the cash loaned to it by Social Security. The excess SS money received from contributions was loaned to the Federal Treasury by the SS Trust Funds, interest-bearing bonds were issued by the government in return for the cash received, and the bonds issued are redeemable as needed by Social Security to pay benefits. FYI, the average interest on the 2023 bonds in the Trust Funds was about 4.125%, whereas the average rate of return on all bonds held in reserve was about 2.387%. This transaction is the same as for any other investment vehicle, except the bonds in the Trust Funds are redeemable at any time without penalty. Said another way, all excess money ever received by Social Security is/was invested in special-issue government bonds, and resides in reserve to pay future benefits, as needed.

"Paying back" the money represented by bonds held in the Trust Funds would not be a wise financial move because it would eliminate all future interest earned by those bonds (again, that interest was about $67 billion in 2023). Federal money spent for other purposes

(e.g., Ukraine) is from the general U.S. Treasury and not from the Social Security Trust Fund, which is held totally separate from the U.S. Treasury. Since inception, all money ever contributed to Social Security has been (and is) used for one purpose (and one purpose only) – to pay Social Security benefits to those eligible (which, by the way, does not include "illegal aliens" or anyone else who is not a legal resident of the United States).

For clarity, Social Security does have a future financial issue because annual benefit obligations are now greater than annual Social Security revenue, and money from the SS Trust Fund is now used to make up the difference. Unless the program is reformed soon, the Trust Fund reserves (about $2.8 trillion as of 2023) will be depleted and benefits for all Social Security recipients will be cut by about 23% starting in 2033 or 2034 (according to the Trustees of Social Security and the Congressional Budget Office).

Congress needs to act soon to enact Social Security reform to restore the program to fiscal solvency. The Association of Mature American Citizens (AMAC) is steadfastly lobbying Congress to enact the needed Social Security reform as soon as possible.

SIR Keeps Local Retired Men Active

By Jerry Westerman

Looking to stay active in retirement? I have a club for you.

As many of us approach retirement age, we may find that our activity level and social interactions start to ebb. Like myself, many may feel a sense of vacuum or void in our lives when we retire that needs to be filled. We realize that staying active physically, mentally and socially improves our health, vigor and hopefully longevity.

Becoming a member of a club or organization is often just the thing to get out and enjoy some activities with other men in my age group. I joined one such group eight years ago. There are several branches in the Sacramento area called SIR (formerly Sons in Retirement).

SIR's mission is to enhance the lives of its members through fun activities and events while making friends for life. SIR has over 100 branches in California from Bakersfield to the Oregon border. The branch I belong to, SIR Branch 23, has nearly 200 members and meets monthly at the Dante Event Center located on Fair Oaks Boulevard just past Howe Avenue behind Pavilions Car Wash.

Members of the branch reside in surrounding neighborhoods such as River Park, East Sacramento, Arden Arcade, Carmichael and Fair Oaks, although many live in farther-flung parts of the Sacramento region.

Our monthly luncheons provide an opportunity for members to socialize, enjoy a great meal and hear from interesting speakers from our community on a variety of subjects.

Our branch has many organized activities including an outstanding golf program with weekly 18-hole and 9-hole tournaments at courses around the Sacramento area (during spring, summer and fall); bowling at Country Club Lanes (weekly league play fall and winter); bocce ball at Carmichael Park, hiking, fishing trips, a free library, a book club, poker and bridge. Annual events include the "Ladies Day" luncheon during the holiday season and the Spring Family Picnic, also at Carmichael Park. While membership in most SIR branches is limited to men, spouses/partners are welcome to participate in many activities.

Our branch is always looking for new members. Many new members were friends, family, neighbors or former co-workers of our current members. But many joined after hearing about our great program and activities.

Annual dues are very low (currently $25), since SIR is a nonprofit social organization and joining is easy.

If you are interested, call our friendly Branch 23 membership chairman, Ray Zelinski, at 916-961-4222, and for more information, visit SIR at <https://sirinc2.org/branch23>. Or feel free to call me, Jerry Westerman, at 916-801-7879. I live right here in Fair Oaks and would be happy to share more information with you. ★

California's Transition Off Carbon Fuels Could Upset Gasoline Supply, Prices

By Dan Walters, CALMatters.org

California motorists buy and consume a billion gallons of gasoline each month and are very sensitive about pump prices, which are markedly higher than those in other states. Naturally, they are a political football.

Gov. Gavin Newsom has repeatedly characterized refiners as price gougers, even though most of the differences are caused by taxes, fees and regulatory mandates. Recently, he persuaded the Legislature to pass a watered-down version of his proposal requiring refiners to maintain higher reserves to avoid price spikes.

However the gasoline situation is far more complicated than Newsom's approach, and California may be facing a period of volatility on both supply and price as it attempts to wean itself from combustion-powered transportation, its largest single source of greenhouse gas emissions.

The California Air Resources Board is on the verge of expanding its program of reducing the amount of carbon in the current gasoline recipe, regarded as an interim step before completely converting vehicles to electricity or some other non-polluting power.

Last year, CARB published an analysis of the proposed Low Carbon Fuel

Standard to provide "the economic incentives to produce cleaner fuels like electricity, hydrogen and biofuels that are needed to displace fossil fuels and reduce transportation sector emissions."

The report estimated that adoption could immediately increase gas prices by 47 cents a gallon and then, "on average, from 2031 through 2046 the proposed amendments are projected to potentially increase the price of gasoline by $1.15 per gallon, the price of diesel by $1.50 per gallon and fossil jet fuel by $1.21 per gallon."

The cost estimate generated a storm of media and political attention and CARB backed off, continuing the adoption process but refusing to put a number on the potential pump price. Last week, the board's top official conducted an electronic press conference in which he stressed positive impacts, but continued to sidestep questions about consumer impacts.

"It's a win-win," executive officer Steven Cliff insisted. "We get public health benefits, we reduce health costs, we see lower costs of driving and we help turbocharge those investments in clean energy infrastructure that helps drive our zero emissions future."

CARB now intends to act on the policy three days after Election Day, without offering any estimate of consumer costs — a potential signal that those costs will be hefty.

While Newsom wants to be remembered as someone who tried to reduce gasoline prices, his governorship probably will be one that substantially increased them.

The other uncertainty is whether California will have enough gasoline, even a variety with less carbon, over the next two decades as it transitions away from carbon fuels altogether.

California once had dozens of refineries producing the state's unique fuel blend, but in recent years just nine. After the Legislature gave Newsom the new laws on gasoline reserves, one refiner, Phillips 66, announced that it would shutter its plant in Southern California that's no longer profitable. The company said the closure had nothing to do with politics.

Very quickly, Valero, which has two refineries in the state, hinted that it may follow suit. CEO Lane Riggs said during a conference call that "all options are on the table" for the company's two California refineries, one in Benicia and the other in Wilmington, because of increasing state regulation of operations.

"Clearly the California regulatory environment is putting pressure on operators out there and how they might think about going forward with their operations," Riggs said.

Transitioning transportation to non-carbon power — while maintaining sufficient and reasonably priced supplies for gas-powered cars until they're replaced — was destined to be a fraught process.

If poorly managed, it could be a monumental disaster.

Kings Korner

By V.G. Harris

What a difference a week makes. Entering last week, the Sacramento Kings had lost all of their preseason games, and the first two games of the regular season.

Enter the Portland Trailblazers on Oct. 28 and the home crowd was treated to what everyone had envisioned the new and improved Sacramento Kings would look like.

DeMar DeRozan carved up the defensive of the Trailblazers along with point guard DeAaron Fox for 23 and 24 points respectively, but the real key was the way DeRozan got to his spots and made his mid-range game look easy.

Combined with the lightning quickness of Fox, this tandem poses a threat to opposing defenses every night, and other teams had better bring their "A" game when they come to Sac Town.

Finally breaking into the win column and lighting the beam for the first time in the 2024/2025 campaign, lifted a heavy weight off the shoulders of the Kings players and fans alike, but the week was not over. Convincing victories on the road over Utah and the Atlanta Hawks gave the Kings a three-game winning streak and lifted the team over 500.

DeRozan looked like a natural fit as the Kings made victories over the Jazz and Hawks look pedestrian, and had the Kings been able to shoot a little better from the charity stripe, it's entirely possible the overtime loss to the Toronto Raptors could have been the Kings 4th win in a row.

Sacramento will wrap up their road trip Monday night against the formidable Miami Heat (after press time), but it's obvious that some of the swagger has returned to the team.

I'm impressed with DeMar DeRozan in nearly every facet of his game, and like Malik Monk, DeRozan will be an asset and a role model as it relates to free throw shooting. An 84% career free throw shooter, DeMar has proven his reliability at the charity strip, and with the Kings coming off the 2023/2024 campaign in the cellar of the NBA in free throw shooting, adding a 6-time all-star that can shoot free throws at a consistently high level, is just what the doctor ordered for the Kings.

Big man and double-double king Domantas Sabonis, like Fox, has struggled in the past from the free throw line, but has looked better so far this season, and has raised his average. It's still early, but if both Fox and Sabonis can get to 80% or better at the line consistently, look for Sacramento to be lighting the beam with increased regularity.

At 3-3 the Kings may not have a gawdy win-loss record, but the last four games have given all the fans a positive look at what the season can look like.

Although DeRozan has already shown he can connect from long range when called upon, he consistently passes up 3-point opportunities for mid-range looks, and he is deadly from the 10 to 15-foot range. DeMar looks so comfortable in mid-range, his stroke is almost effortless, and with that kind of confidence, he poses a serious late game option to go along with Fox and Sabonis.

Shout out to Kevin Huerter who after a subpar start in game one, has returned to what fans have expected to see, and once again, Huerter has shown his acumen both beyond the 3-point line, and driving to the hoop.

Huerter's defense has taken a step forward as well, so we'll give some atta-boys to coach Brown for putting Huerter back in the starting lineup and sticking with him. If we can keep Kevin off the injury list, the 2024/2025 season could be a breakout year for a popular player with a big upside.

More than anything, the recent wins, particularly on the road, are spurring a higher volume of optimism, and look for an already loud arena to get even louder.

For any naysayers that felt it would take a long time for newcomer DeMar DeRozan to fit in, he is well ahead of schedule, and the way he and Fox are sharing the ball is a pleasure to watch.

Stay tuned Kings fans. This is what you've been waiting for, and the best is yet to come!

All the best!

SIR Keeps Retired Men Active

By Jerry Westerman

Looking to stay active in retirement? I have a club for you.

As many of us approach retirement age, we may find that our activity level and social interactions start to ebb. Like myself, many may feel a sense of vacuum or void in our lives when we retire that needs to be filled. We realize that staying active physically, mentally and socially improves our health, vigor and hopefully longevity.

Becoming a member of a club or organization is often just the thing to get out and enjoy some activities with other men in my age group. I joined one such group eight years ago. There are several branches in the Sacramento area called SIR (formerly Sons in Retirement).

SIR's mission is to enhance the lives of its members through fun activities and events while making friends for life. SIR has over 100 branches in California from Bakersfield to the Oregon border. The branch I belong to, SIR Branch 23, has nearly 200 members and meets monthly at the Dante Event Center located on Fair Oaks Boulevard just past Howe Avenue behind Pavilions Car Wash.

Members of the branch reside in surrounding neighborhoods such as River Park, East Sacramento, Arden Arcade, Carmichael and Fair Oaks, although many live in farther-flung parts of the Sacramento region.

opportunity for members to socialize, enjoy a great meal and hear from interesting speakers from our community on a variety of subjects.

Our branch has many organized activities including an outstanding golf program with weekly 18-hole and 9-hole tournaments at courses around the Sacramento area (during spring, summer and fall); bowling at Country Club Lanes (weekly league play fall and winter); bocce ball at Carmichael Park, hiking, fishing trips, a free library, a book club, poker and bridge. Annual events include the "Ladies Day" luncheon during the holiday season and the Spring Family Picnic, also at Carmichael Park. While membership in most SIR branches is limited to men, spouses/partners are welcome to participate in many activities.

Our branch is always looking for new members. Many new members were friends, family, neighbors or former co-workers of our current members. But many joined after hearing about our great program and activities.

Annual dues are very low (currently $25), since SIR is a nonprofit social organization and joining is easy.

If you are interested, call our friendly Branch 23 membership chairman, Ray Zelinski, at 916-961-4222, and for more information, visit SIR at <https://sirinc2.org/branch23>. Or feel free to call me, Jerry Westerman, at 916-801-7879. I live right here in Fair Oaks and would be happy to share more information with you. ★

Honor Them

Veteran's Day is a special tribute to all veterans who have placed their lives on the line to keep our democracy viable.

They selflessly do the job they are asked to do and do it with respect and great dignity. But let's be honest, unless you were in the military or are part of a military family, you cannot fathom what it's like to live day by day with the thought that he or she may not return. I know that happens with many other careers from police officers to firefighters and others too. But we ask these men and women to go around the world and try to understand how to get turned to me with no injuries on the outside, but what about the inside? We never really talked about all that went on for quite a few years. I felt he would share when he was ready. Perhaps it was better that he was a little older...about 24... and he took on the job of looking after some of the younger guys to keep them out of trouble. I remember the letters he sent, which I still cherish and the cassette tapes we sent back and forth just talking about stuff. No computers back then. I can still remember hearing the pouring monsoons in the background and how he tried to keep busy painting his room.

After Hawaii, it was some months before he came home. It was over the New Year holiday, and I can still feel the terror when I did not know where he was as Saigon was falling. I heard nothing for days and then the call came from him that he was in Seattle. I was at Indiana University working on my Phd, but no gift or degree could have given me such joy as when I heard his voice.

I can't even imagine what it would be like to have a chaplain and officer come to my door, or know that his wounds were so bad, he would never be whole again. My love passed last December, but Veteran's Day will always be special.

Please think of these brave souls who keep us every day. Thank them for their service! God Bless Them ALL! ★

I had a little of that experience too. Rick (my husband) and I were married about four months when he was deployed to Vietnam. It was a long time ago, but it still hits home every Veteran's Day. I can still feel the emotions he and I felt as we said goodbye at the airport, not knowing if we would ever see each other again, hoping and praying that we would. It was not a popular war as if any war is, but this one was very difficult for those who returned and the names they were called. After several months, we met for R&R in Hawaii. The joy was there, but dread too, because he had to return to Vietnam after just a few days. But we were grateful.

Thank God my First Lieutenant re-
