Club Studio Thanked for Opening Here

CITRUS HEIGHTS, CA (MPG) - Club Studio, a new, cutting-edge 36,000-square-foot health club, opened its doors in Citrus Heights and the Chamber of Commerce put together a noon ribbon-cutting ceremony Nov. 8 to celebrate the accomplishment.

Club Studio offers top-tier amenities, including a variety of group fitness classes such as reformer Pilates, cardio and strength training, spinning, boxing, yoga, trampoline classes and more. The club also provides wellness services, including steam rooms, dry heat saunas, a full-service spa and cutting-edge cryotherapy treatments.

The center also houses Beaming Wellness, a smoothie and protein shake bar that offers pre- and post-workout snacks, while the Kalologie Medspa brings advanced wellness services to the facility.

The parent company behind Club Studio, Fitness International, is well-known for its portfolio of fitness brands, including LA Fitness, City Sports Club and Esporta Fitness. The Citrus Heights location at 5419 Sunrise Blvd. marks one of the company's latest ventures as part of an ambitious expansion plan.

Local government representatives praised the new business for its contribution to the community during the Nov. 8 event.

"It's so exciting to see new businesses coming to Citrus Heights. I've never seen this level and volume of equipment. Congratulations on your grand opening," said a representative for Assemblymember Josh Hoover.

A representative for state Sen. Roger Niello added, "We would like to congratulate you and thank you for bringing such a state-of-the-art facility to our community. You've chosen an amazing location here."

Citrus Heights Vice-Mayor MariJane Lopez-Taff also welcomed Club Studio, stating, "I want to officially recognize Club Studio. Thank you for coming to our community and bringing vibrancy to our area."

The new facility offers an average of 120 classes per week, with an average of 20 participants per class. Garcia also announced that Club Studio is only the fifth location out of more than 90 planned clubs. In addition to the Citrus Heights' Club Studio opening, two more locations are planned to open soon, one in Elk Grove in early 2025 and another in Walnut Creek in the coming weeks. ★

District Attorney's Office Awarded Program Grant

Sacramento County District Attorney's Office News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento County District Attorney's Office received a $299,000 grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety (OTS) for the "DUI/DUID Misdemeanor Prosecution, Education and Outreach" program. The program aims to reduce driving under the influence (DUI) and driving under the influence of drugs (DUID) offenses.

Funding for this program was provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

Traffic data from 2020 to 2022 shows an increase in DUI-related crashes involving fatalities and injuries. Sacramento County experienced a 94.44% increase in DUI-related traffic fatalities from 2020 to 2022 and a 13.11% increase in DUI-related injuries during that same period.

This grant funds a specialized prosecutor who will be responsible for misdemeanor DUI/DUID cases. The prosecutor will also mentor newly-appointed deputy district attorneys on the successful prosecution of DUI/DUID cases and conduct roundtable discussions and trainings for law enforcement agencies on new DUI/DUID laws and investigation techniques.

Another grant component is community outreach on DUI/DUID prevention. The grant prosecutor will participate in several education programs for adults and youth, including the DA's Citizens Academy and Youth Academy, as well as the Real DUI Court in Schools program hosted by Arrive Alive, CA. Outreach will also include office podcasts on DUI/DUIDs and the distribution of informational materials to those charged with DUI/DUID offenses to prevent recidivism.

"Impaired driving remains a significant danger on our roads, particularly drivers suspected of operating a vehicle under the influence of both alcohol and drugs," said Office of Traffic Safety Director Barbara Rooney. "This program will help prevent the tragic consequences of impaired driving and create safer roads for everyone."

Veterans Day Service Honors Sue Frost

By Elise Spleiss

CITRUS HEIGHTS, CA (MPG) - It was a cold and rainy day which greeted the faithful 50 attendees to the Veterans Day service at Sylvan Cemetery on Nov. 11.

However, the pouring rain which they braved, for the first year in memory, did not lessen the impact the day had on their hearts and their appreciation for those being honored.

American Legion member and emcee for the day, Paul Reyes, quipped that those who braved the rain to be there “must bleed red, white and blue.”

In his greeting, Chief of Police Alex Turcotte added, “I got veterans in the room, you got concrete under you, and a roof over top of you, is it a beautiful day?” To this, he was met with a loud “yes” and loud applause.

From then on, the day took on its usual agenda of music and song by Harmony Express and speeches. As part of the traditional opening, the MIA/POW flag was displayed as a reminder that there are still many who served and are still waiting to be welcomed home.

As the Armed Forces Medley was sung, Reyes invited those in each branch of the service to stand as their song was played, and announced the 249th birthday of the Marines as their anthem was played.

Honored guests were introduced, including County Board of Supervisors member Sue Frost, Police Chief Alex Turcotte, city council members Mayor Jayne Karpinski-Costa, Tim Schaeffer, MariJane Lopez-Taff and City Manager Ash Feeney.

It was a bittersweet moment as former Citrus Heights mayor and now County Board of Supervisor Sue Frost gave her final greeting to all. She and husband Jack will soon be leaving Citrus Heights for a new life in Arkansas. Frost said it had been an honor and a privilege to have a voice at these services.

Frost gave a short history of how Veterans Day came to be a national holiday. She highlighted milestones beginning in 1919 when President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed Nov. 11 as Armistice Day, to changes in 1926, 1938, 1954, 1968, 1971 and finally 1978 when President Gerald Ford signed into law the return of the official day of observance to Nov. 11.

Speaking from her heart, Frost warned of where our country is going and that, “we cannot blindly follow government. We must be judicious and never forget that our founders created American government to protect our unalienable rights. We don’t work for the government; they work for us.”

Finally, she said, “To all veterans and their families who are here today, we salute you, we are thankful for your sacrifice to God and country. God bless all of you. God bless America and keep America safe.”

“Top cop” Turcotte said how proud he was to be chief of a city filled with such great people.

“It doesn’t matter our differences, Citrus Heights will band together, roll up their sleeves and get the job done no matter what the issue,” Turcotte said. “This happens from partnering alongside first responders, elected officials, and our area neighborhoods. This has a lot to do with natural tendency of our veterans inside of our community.”

“It takes a lot of fortitude for somebody to stand up and say, ‘I will defend the Constitution. I will defend the rights of my neighbors and my brothers and sisters.’ You are an example to the rest of the community of what a real American looks like,” Turcotte added.

If there was a Veterans Dictionary, Mayor Jayna Karpinski-Costa said one of the words, duty, means “a moral obligation.” ‘Duty’ stays put even through adversity. It doesn’t disappear. It eliminates ‘self’ thus the motto, “Service before Self.” Honor, acting and living the values of respect, loyalty, selfless service, integrity and personal courage and to do everything well. Finally, ‘integrity’ means to do what is right and honest and live and act by your principles.

Recently, City Council unanimously voted to support bringing the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall That Heals to Citrus Heights. The city became a partner.

During public comment, Karpinski-Costa said she felt something special was happening.

“We would be welcoming veterans from everywhere to come to our city, and with us to give tribute to the fallen in Vietnam. All these exemplify duty, honor and integrity,” Karpinski-Costa said.

Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR), Deborah Bartlett, Second Vice Regent announced that the United States Quincentennial Commission has been established by Congress “to inspire all Americans to participate in our greatest milestone ever, the 250th anniversary of the United States.”

The commission has been charged with orchestrating “the largest and most inclusive anniversary observance in our nation’s history. On July 4, 2026, our nation will commemorate the signing of the Declaration of Independence.”

The Daughters of the American Revolution has been named an ‘America 250 National Partner’ with the US Quincentennial Commission Foundation. There will be more information ongoing.

Bartlett thanked Sue Frost, also a member of Daughters of the American Revolution, for her service to the veteran community and for her service to the Daughters of the American Revolution in introducing their chapter to American Legion Post 637 in order to be of more service to veterans. ★ restaurant was open. But when Hometown Buffet abruptly closed in 2016, the photos disappeared with it, seemingly lost to the abyss.

However, Debbie Luce, a member of the Orangevale Grange, and her mother, Marge, came to the rescue.

"My mom's picture was also on the wall. She's an 86-year-old Navy veteran who wanted to find the pictures and hopefully return them to their families," Luce said.

And find them they did.

Luce and her mother discovered that the photos had been taken in Stockton, where they were tucked away in a storage room. Luce and Marge were able to bring them back to Orangevale and are now planning ways to get the photos back to their rightful owners.

"It's a such a shame to think these photos would probably have been thrown away eventually," Luce said. "There are generations of pictures."

There are more than 50 pictures of veterans currently in Luce's possession at the Orangevale Grange.

On Nov. 10, the Orangevale Grange scheduled a Veterans Day breakfast and the photos were on display.

The Orangevale Grange is located at 5807 Walnut Ave., Orangevale.

Luce said the Grange plans to make a "traveling poster" of all the photos and take it around the area.

Amazon Fresh Opens in Citrus Heights

Story and photos by Thomas J. Sullivan

CITRUS HEIGHTS, CA (MPG) - It was an “appealing” start for Citrus Heights’ newest grocery store, Amazon Fresh, which celebrated its grand opening last Thursday, Nov. 7 in style, as complimentary free bananas distributed by Amazon “banistas” to customers who lined up early for their chance to win an Amazon.com gift card and enjoy opening day grocery savings.

Amazon Fresh is located between the newly opened Club Studio Fitness and Joanne’s Fabrics which relocated to the end of the plaza near Uplands Way.

Sunrise Village Plaza at the corner of Madison Avenue and Sunrise Boulevard in Citrus Heights is owned by the San Francisco-based Merlone-Geier investment company. The center has undergone a $15-to-20 million remodeling and expansion project, which included new landscaping and upgraded signage.

Many lined up well before the 8 a.m. opening to be among the first 100 opening day customers in line to receive an Amazon.com gift card and a free exclusive Citrus Heights themed tote bag.

Amazon has long operated a community banana stand around its Seattle corporate headquarters offering free bananas to its employees and passersby. Its banana mascot was also on hand to pose for keepsake photographs and participated in the store’s grand opening ceremony

Once inside, customers who steered their green shopping carts followed colorful overhead signage above to find meat, produce, and baked goods and to check out a selection of ready to prepare meal items.

Amazon Retail LLC, which is doing business as Amazon Fresh, is the company’s third grocery store location in the region, according to the company’s website. Online, the company also lists Amazon Fresh locations in Elk Grove and Roseville.

brands, such as Aplenty, Amazon Fresh, Amazon Saver and 365 by Whole Foods Market.

The Citrus Heights grocery store features a wide assortment of “national brands and high-quality produce, meat, and seafood,” as well as a range of prepared foods made fresh in store every day, according to the company.

In select stores where Amazon’s “Just Walk Out” shopping is available, customers who opt for Just Walk Out Shopping can enter the store in three ways: they can scan the QR code in their Amazon app, use Amazon One to scan their palm to enter or insert a credit or debit card linked to their Amazon account.

For a more traditional shopping experience, customers can enter the store through designated gates and use one of the checkout lanes staffed by Amazon store employees. When they’re ready to check out, customers then have the option to pay with cash, credit or debit card, Amazon One or the Amazon app.

Kings Korner

By V.G. Harris

What a difference a week makes, and after Sunday night's thrilling overtime win over a much-heralded Phoenix Suns team that had only one loss on their season record, Sacramento Kings fans are flying high.

After a disappointing and somewhat head scratching start, the Kings have climbed out of an 0-2 hole, to post a respectable 6-4 record after ten games.

Sunday's contest featured three Kings players with 20 points or more, with Huerter and Murray chipping in with 17 and 14 points respectively.

Well balanced is the name of the game, and in the fourth quarter, the Suns were without an answer for the mid-range game of both DeRozan and Fox. Both players drove deep into the paint time and time again, only to step back and take easy 6-to-10-foot jumpers that touched nothing but net.

It was a mid-range clinic, and DeMar DeRozan has already given Kings fans a serious dose of what to expect the rest of the season. This heady veteran has the quintessential mid-range jump shot, and he not only makes them with regularity, he has a habit of getting fouled as well.

Fouling DeRozan is probably not the best strategy for opposing teams as he is shooting a sizzling 86.4% from the charity stripe.

Going into the Nov. 10 game against the Suns, remarkably, the cellar dweller Sacramento Kings in 2023/2024 in free throw shooting, were leading the entire league with an 84% success rate. All but one player on the team is averaging 80% or better from the line, and this represents one of the most dramatic turnarounds in many years.

Only bench player Alex Len, shooting a dismal 50% from the line, is struggling, and if this trend continues the Kings will add significantly to their season win total.

Among the most notable contributors are stalwarts DeAaron Fox and Domantas Sabonis, who after averaging a paltry 71% last season, have raised their averages to 86% and 83% respectively. This is a dramatic improvement, and it begs the question, what happened during the off season to contribute to such a remarkable improvement?

I have noticed that DeAaron is taking just a split second longer before releasing the ball, and some wrist action has been eliminated. His shot has more push and less wrist, which will undoubtedly lead to more made free throws.

Sabonis' shot looks the same, but his concentration looks better, and he's putting more arc on his shot than in seasons before.

All said, we will gladly applaud these early season results and say going from last to first in the NBA in anything deserves noteworthy credit.

After the season's first two games, both losses, pundits and fans alike were wondering how long it would take for 6-time all-star DeMar DeRozan to fit in with his Kings teammates.

The next eight games have answered that question, and with the exception of the Kings 107-98 loss to the Los Angeles Clippers, the Sac Town boys have been in every game this season. The current 6-4 record could easily be 8-2, but without question, the ranks of Sacramento Kings fans are filling every game with excited basketball fans that are ready for a historic season. My prediction of 50 plus wins, barring injury, will not only happen, it will propel this team beyond the first round of the playoffs.

Many fans are hoping and predicting that Monte McNair will make an in-season trade or acquisition that will strengthen the bench.

The win on Sunday, Nov. 10 saw bench superstar Malik Monk go down with an ankle injury and will reportedly miss the Nov. 11 game against the San Antonio Spurs (after press time). If there is one player the Kings can ill afford to miss its spark plug Malik Monk, and we all wish Malik a speedy recovery.

Stay tuned Kings fans, because these hardwood gladiators that have suddenly discovered the mystery of making free throws, are in action this week against the Spurs, Sun's again, Timberwolves, and the Utah Jazz.

If you haven't been out to a game, don't miss the chance. This group loves playing together and they are a pleasure to watch!

Why Trump Won and Won Big! The Issue is Liberty!

Commentary by Harold Pease Ph. D.

November 5 was the most important election in our nation's political history. American flags were everywhere so patriotism was strong, and the people felt they needed to get back to freedom basics. The silent majority came forward. Donald Trump's 900-plus rallies were attended in numbers never seen before. Kamala Harris rallies had to have a concert with someone famous, or have a previous president, Bill Clinton or Barack Obama, with her to break a thousand attending; worse, or have rally goers paid to attend. As anticipated, the people came out for Donald Trump.

In a truly fair election without electronic cheating, illegals voting, voter rolls cleaned up, ballot harvesting, totally uncensored information, media not weaponized and etc. Trump would have won by at least 70%, maybe 75% as we have indicated before. But cheating was off the charts the last two years, more especially the last month, with hundreds of examples, even so, he won with THEIR electronic voting system but not by these percentages. This makes his victory much more profound. No one in American history has experienced more election opposition.

Why this profound victory? Several reasons can be identified. The vast majority of Americans know now that Joe Biden did not win in 2020, Trump did. That Covid-19 was mostly used for mail-in-balloting, which is, and always has been, prone to cheating. That Hunter Biden's laptop was real and held back from exposure by America's intelligence community until after the 2020 presidential election. A fourth of Biden voters would have chosen Trump had they known this. That the laptop revealed 459 crimes, most of which should have put the president's son in jail for many years—but didn't. That Biden was personally corrupt, had over 20 shell companies extracting millions from foreign countries, some potential enemies, with Hunter selling state secrets. Classified documents were in Joe's possession as a U.S. Senator and Vice President in several different places that should have given him a lengthy prison sentence even before he ran for president in 2020, Americans now know that the CIA was corrupted decades ago—at least since the Kennedy Assassination. That the FBI has turned rogue even leading the January 6 insurrection while dressed as MAGA. That it is the lead suspect for many in the assassination attempts on Trump both at Butler, Pennsylvania and Trump's Florida Golf Club—it yet suppresses the telephone conversations on several of the phones of both would be assassins that likely would have exposed accomplices, even themselves, as aiding. That the DOJ was weaponized to go after parents at school board meetings, MAGA, and everyone else exposing Deep State corruption.

Most now believe that the Deep State is real. It has been around since the McKinley presidency preceding the Spanish American War and was in both major political parties thereafter. It was a movement of monopoly tycoons, principally

John D. Rockefeller and JP Morgan, seeking first power over the nation, then world economic dominance. It came out of the shadows and organized publicly in 1921 as the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), anyone of major importance thereafter, in either major political party, was CFR connected. The Deep State maintained control over both major political parties through George W. Bush. Its two principal opponents during those years were John F. Kennedy and Barry Goldwater, both destroyed by the Deep State, Kennedy by assassination and Goldwater by election annihilation. The Tea Party movement rose in 2009 against both political parties and Trump, an outgrowth of that movement although not a part of it, opposed the Deep State entirely. MAGA people rejected their control. Today Deep State control is embedded with the Democrat Party and RINO faction of the Republican Party who both see extinction of themselves if Trump wins.

In this digital war MAGA are the patriots and the Dems and RINOS the globalists. Only the most ill-informed are unaware of this reality. As Democrats flee to MAGA for freedom from the Deep State, most notably Elon Musk, Robert F Kennedy Jr. and Tulsi Gabbard, they are replaced by illegal immigrants who are immersed with gifting for their loyalty: healthcare, food stamps, social security, placement and housing in cities and promised citizenship. These are the invisible army Barack Obama promised should be created—as big as the armed forces. These are likely to rise with chaos never seen before in America if enough cheating fails and Trump wins.

LibertyUnderFire.org has published on all of these topics over many years—793 columns. Trump has slowly, but successfully, awakened the public to this awful condition. It had to be this way to prevent a very bloody civil war in 2020. Trump had to vacate the White House so that Biden and the Deep State could rule to be exposed. Everyone is at a different place on the exposure trail. Not everything we have written above is believed by all but enough is that in an election without corruption which November 5 was not, Trump would have won by at least 70%. This 9 years of awakening, with Trump the principle victim, has prevented a bloody civil war.

There is yet another reason for Trump's victory — tyranny, that most believed eventually would have come to all had he not won! Those who visibly oppose are punished. The DOJ and FBI are Deep State assets now. This last week, the week before November 5 election, nearly four years after the J6 event "suspects are still being arrested, convicted and jailed. This week alone:[a] Father and son from New Jersey [were] arrested — West Virginia man arrested—Illinois man pleads guilty — Texas man found guilty, —2 men from Virginia found guilty—Colorado man sentenced to 3 years —California man sentenced to one year" (Ep. 3489b, Nov. 1, 2024, 34:10).

This, after the Supreme Court ruling June 28, 2024, in Fischer v. United States, on Section 1512(c)(2), that overturned most J6 convictions (about 350 persons). This SCOTUS decision has been mostly ignored by the Biden/Harris Admin. as they have most other court decisions and the Constitution. The real issue as to why Trump won so big is liberty!

Trump Wins BIG and America Self-Corrects

The border is about to be closed and Mexico may be paying for it

Commentary by Katy Grimes, California Globe

The American people just sent a big message to the left:

Men pretending to be women will no longer play in girls' sports.

Trans-women are men, and can't get pregnant, by the way.

The border is about to be closed — and Mexico may be paying for it.

Haitians eating the cats and dogs and Venezuelan gangs will be deported.

The spigot spending money on illegal aliens will be shut off.

Abortion is not the "right" stupid ghoulish leftist women think it is.

Pornographic books in our children's schools should be burned. Trump said he will cut federal funding for any school pushing critical race theory, racial gender ideology, and DEI.

Sex-trafficking children will be stopped and a lot of prominent people will be prosecuted.

America will become energy independent once again.

Inflation will be reduced and America will be affordable again.

World War III will be halted.

America's military will be rebuilt.

A recent Gallup poll showed that an overwhelming majority of U.S. voters want new voter integrity laws:

84% want to require all voters to provide photo ID in order to vote; 83% want to require people who are registering to vote to provide proof of citizenship.

Trump promised he will secure our elections, including same day voting, voter ID, paper ballots and proof of citizenship.

The Democrat talking point was "Trump is Hitler." Republicans are not fascists, and Trump isn't Hitler. In fact, the American people just showed the left how much we love America — the America the founders created.

Notably, whenever your debate devolves to "you are Hitler," you have lost the argument as well as the battle.

Equally, Kamala calling Trump a "fascist" when her polling was sinking was heinous — especially after three assassination attempts on the former President.

The middle class the left always calls the "white working class" is actually black working class, Hispanic working class, Asian working class and white.

Trump even won young people. Identity politics is dead.

Voters want tougher criminal penalties and are about to get them. In fact, California voters are so exhausted from the state's escalating violent crime and business-killing retail theft, as well as the dismissive response from Democrats, California voters overwhelmingly just passed Proposition 36, which will make significant reforms to California drug and theft laws. This is big.

Notably, Gov. Gavin Newsom and most legislative Democrats oppose tougher criminal penalties and have unbridled disregard for crime victims.

Trump will make the expiring individual income tax cuts from the 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act permanent. We all win.

On Business Taxes, Donald Trump will lower the corporate income tax rate from 21 percent to 20 percent, and lower the corporate income tax rate to 15 percent for companies that make their products in the U.S.

The attacks on Elon Musk for his purchasing Twitter in order to allow free speech on the internet are now toothless.

Free speech is a critical issue for most Americans, and that mattered in the 2024 presidential election.

The 2024 Presidential Election may have been the most corrupt, immoral scandalous election ever, and with the weakest presidential candidate in recent history — Kamala Harris.

Trump's win is why they tried to bankrupt him, why they tried to impeach him, why they tried to imprison him, why they tried to kill him. The corrupt left knew that when given a choice and fair elections, the American people would re-elect Donald Trump.

Sacramento County Republicans Celebrate Election Victory

Sacramento County Republican Party News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The voters have spoken. They do want change in the USA, and they want President-Elect Donald Trump and Vice President-Elect J.D. Vance to lead our country back to prosperity, sovereignty, safety and strength.

"After two attempted impeachments, a weaponized Department of Justice trying to jail the former President, two attempts on his life, and a non-stop barrage of vitriolic name-calling and lies, Donald J. Trump has demonstrated he is not only a survivor, but the leader our country needs to reverse the course of the new Democrat Party and their foreign influencers," said Sacramento County Republican Party Chair Betsy Mahan.

Now that Vice-President Harris has conceded, and President Biden has called for Democrats to "bring down the temperature", it's up to the current Administration to get through the remainder of their term mindful that Americans don't want them to impose any changes that would create roadblocks to the incoming Administration's agenda. "President Biden said the will of the people should prevail," said Mahan, "and we hold him to that promise."

President Trump and Congress have a mandate from the People to bring back our economy and stop the suffering.

"We still need to confirm that the House will remain in Republican control, but indicators are that we have won the trifecta and will be able to let Americans see how common-sense Republican policies can improve their lives," said Mahan. "I am so optimistic about our national leaders, and those who have been elected or re-elected at the local and state levels. Our local school boards will have better transparency and a focus on academics, and more Republicans will be represented in the State Legislature, bringing needed balance to the Democrat supermajority that now rules. The incredible support for Prop 36, and the loss of several Newsom Administration staffers who ran for office, is also an indication that the Governor has no future in politics. His hypocrisy and his anti-business policies have been exposed as detrimental to the needs of Californians."

The Sacramento County Republican Party is confident we now have a new way forward, unburdened by what has been for the past four years. ★

Thompson Releases Statement on President-Elect Donald Trump

Office of Congressman
Mike Thompson News Release

NAPA, CA (MPG) - Congressman Mike Thompson (CA-04) has released the following statement on President-Elect Donald Trump:

"The voters have spoken. While half of our country is deeply disappointed — including myself and many community members in the Fourth District — the most important step now is that we start to pick up the pieces so we can continue to make the United States a better place to live.

"I remain committed to protecting the rights and livelihoods of the American people while also working with the President-elect and my colleagues on both sides of the aisle on issues where we can find common ground. I will continue to work to lower costs, improve community safety, fight climate change, and protect Americans' fundamental rights and freedoms."

Congressman Mike Thompson is proud to represent California's 4th Congressional District, which includes all or part of Lake, Napa, Solano, Sonoma and Yolo Counties. He is a senior member of the House Committee on Ways and Means. Rep. Thompson is Chairman of the House Gun Violence Prevention Task Force. He is also Co-Chair of the bipartisan, bicameral Congressional Wine Caucus and a member of the fiscally-responsible Blue Dog Coalition. ★

Social Security Matters

Working Septuagenarian Asks About Disability Benefits

By Russell Gloor, AMAC Certified Social Security Advisor

Dear Rusty: I retired at my full retirement age, am now 79 and will be 80 in December. I have been working consistently since. I get a meager Social Security benefit, only about $800 due to my federal retirement offset. Most jobs I have held since filing and collecting SS have involved very labor-intensive work, to include my current position. This has taken a toll.

My question: is there any provision in Social Security that permits re-evaluation of Social Security benefits for disability after one has collected and paid into the system for some 15 years? I suspect not but thought I would ask, since at my not so tender age, I am faced with having to cease employment that generates needed income. Signed: Working Still at 79.

Dear Still Working: I'm afraid that Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) benefits are no longer available once you reach your SS "full retirement age," or "FRA," which for you was age 66. Indeed, anyone collecting SSDI at full retirement age is automatically converted to their regular SS retirement benefits at the same amount they were previously receiving on SSDI. That's because SSDI benefits are intended to sustain workers up to their SS full retirement age, but SSDI goes away once FRA is attained.

Thus, the provision to apply for SS disability allows only those who have not yet reached their full retirement age to seek disability benefits. Once FRA is reached, SSDI benefits are no longer available. Simply for your awareness, there would be no financial advantage for you to receive SS disability benefits anyway, because the most you can get on SSDI is your full retirement age amount. Thus, since you retired and claimed SS at your full retirement age, no additional disability amount would be available anyway.

FYI, I admire, at your "tender age," that you are still actively working, but I'm afraid you cannot claim more now on Social Security disability because you've already reached your FRA. However, from what you've written, your SS retirement benefit has been affected by the so-called Windfall Elimination Provision (WEP) which affects those with a separate pension earned without contributing to Social Security.

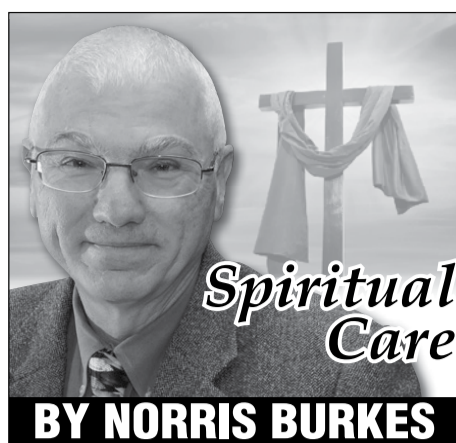

If you've been separately working (and contributing to Social Security) since you left government service, and you now have more than 20 years contributing to SS from other non-government "substantial earnings," it's possible that you can request a reevaluation of your WEP penalty. WEP provides relief for those who have more than 20 years contributing to Social Security. So, if you have more than that over your lifetime, you could ask that your WEP reduction be reevaluated to consider your additional years contributing to Social Security. If that is the case, your monthly amount would be increased to consider those additional years contributing to SS since you first claimed.

I suggest, if you now have more than 20 years of contributions to Social Security from your non-government work over your lifetime, that you call Social Security to request reevaluation of your WEP retirement amount. FYI, you can see exactly how many years of SS-covered work you have by requesting an "Earnings Statement" from Social Security. You can get this Statement by calling 1.800.772.1213, or you can also get it at your personal "my Social Security" online account at www.ssa.gov/myaccount (Social Security will also be able to tell you this directly when you call). In any case, I wish you good fortune, and hope that reevaluating the WEP reduction to your SS benefit may offer some small financial relief as you go forward.

Say more than, "Thank for your Service."

BY NORRIS BURKES

This Veterans Day, I want you to do more than just thank a veteran for his or her service.

As a veteran of 28 years, I want to challenge you to go beyond patriotic rhetoric by asking some specific questions of the veterans you encounter.

First, ask us what we did in military service. Don't worry; our stories aren't just about bombs and bullets and boats.

For instance, most of us would love to tell you about how we deployed on more than a few humanitarian missions.

If you ask, we'll tell about operations like "New Horizon," where we built schools, clinics and playgrounds all over South America.

Some of us can tell you about cleaning up New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina, while others will tell you about flying into countries devastated from earthquakes or tsunamis.

Ask us what we did, and we might recollect building runways in the desert, pitching tents in the jungle, hot-loading a plane, setting up communications links in the Australian outback and launching a satellite that gave you the cable TV you enjoy.

Get us talking and we'll tell you about fixing planes, loading planes, flying planes, jumping from planes, fueling planes in flight.

As a chaplain, I can tell you about the blessings I prayed over planes as well as the blessing I had of walking away from a plane crash.

This generation of service members might lose you in their technical talk, but I assure you they are proud to talk about the satellites they control, the drones they fly and the cyber warfare they engage.

After you ask them about what they did, ask them where they've been.

They'll likely share their version of Johnny Cash's song, "I've Been Everywhere."

They've filled passports doing temporary duty in places like Antigua, Ukraine and Djibouti on the Horn of Africa.

They've flown planes over the North Pole, landed them on the South Pole and navigated submarines under both.

And yes, they've even spent some time in "dark sites" that don't exist.

They shivered with their families on assignment in Minot, N.D., and spent a few sweltering years in Fort Huachuca, Ariz.

My family loved the two years they spent in Izmir, Turkey, while other military families enjoyed the island seclusion of Guam or the Azores.

A few lucky ducks will regale you with stories of embassy duty in Paris, London or Madrid.

But if you want to go deep, ask them what it means to have served.

If you listen well and they think you're interested, they just might tell you.

But it's just as likely they won't be able to tell you. It's just as likely that there will be a hitch in their voice, a mist will form in their eyes, and they'll turn away from that question.

Don't get me wrong. They're proud of the things they've done and they want to share them with you.

But I caution you: There are some things they won't share.

Taking an oath to obey the legal orders of those appointed over them meant that they also did the unimaginable and for some the unspeakable.

I know because they told their chaplain.

They told me about the lives they couldn't save and the lives they had to take. They've shown me their physical wounds and they've bared their moral wounds.

Thankfully, the stories of most servicemembers run the course of everyday life; albeit a life of transfers every two or three years, endless inspections and exercises, family separations, and making ends meet on military pay.

It was a life of long ago, but it was life from only yesterday.

Ask us and we'll tell you. ★

SIR Keeps Local Retired Men Active

By Jerry Westerman

Looking to stay active in retirement? I have a club for you.

As many of us approach retirement age, we may find that our activity level and social interactions start to ebb. Like myself, many may feel a sense of vacuum or void in our lives when we retire that needs to be filled. We realize that staying active physically, mentally and socially improves our health, vigor and hopefully longevity.

Becoming a member of a club or organization is often just the thing to get out and enjoy some activities with other men in my age group. I joined one such group eight years ago. There are several branches in the Sacramento area called SIR (formerly Sons in Retirement).

SIR's mission is to enhance the lives of its members through fun activities and events while making friends for life. SIR has over 100 branches in California from Bakersfield to the Oregon border. The branch I belong to, SIR Branch 23, has nearly 200 members and meets monthly at the Dante Event Center located on Fair Oaks Boulevard just past Howe Avenue behind Pavilions Car Wash.

Members of the branch reside in surrounding neighborhoods such as River Park, East Sacramento, Arden Arcade, Carmichael and Fair Oaks, although many live in farther-flung parts of the Sacramento region.

Our monthly luncheons provide an opportunity for members to socialize, enjoy a great meal and hear from interesting speakers from our community on a variety of subjects.

Our branch has many organized activities including an outstanding golf program with weekly 18-hole and 9-hole tournaments at courses around the Sacramento area (during spring, summer and fall); bowling at Country Club Lanes (weekly league play fall and winter); bocce ball at Carmichael Park, hiking, fishing trips, a free library, a book club, poker and bridge. Annual events include the "Ladies Day" luncheon during the holiday season and the Spring Family Picnic, also at Carmichael Park. While membership in most SIR branches is limited to men, spouses/partners are welcome to participate in many activities.

Our branch is always looking for new members. Many new members were friends, family, neighbors or former co-workers of our current members. But many joined after hearing about our great program and activities.

Annual dues are very low (currently $25), since SIR is a nonprofit social organization and joining is easy.

If you are interested, call our friendly Branch 23 membership chairman, Ray Zelinski, at 916-961-4222, and for more information, visit SIR at <https://sirinc2.org/branch23>. Or feel free to call me, Jerry Westerman, at 916-801-7879. I live right here in Fair Oaks and would be happy to share more information with you. ★

One Issue Trump and Newsom Agree On? Homeless Encampments

By Marisa Kendall
CALMatters.org

When President-elect Donald Trump moves into the White House in January, he will become a key figure in California's homelessness crisis, holding the federal purse strings and setting policy at the national level.

So what will this change of power mean for the state as it tries to move its nearly 186,000 homeless residents — the most in the nation — indoors?

Housing and homeless services experts in California worry the Trump administration will cut federal funding in those areas, while also doing away with policies deemed too "progressive."

But surprisingly, based on what he's said so far about one of the key issues regarding homelessness, Trump's agenda isn't much different from Gov. Gavin Newsom's. Trump pledged to tackle the encampments that have made cities "unlivable" by working with states to ban urban camping and arrest those who don't comply — something many cities in California started doing before Election Day, as Newsom encouraged them to clear camps.

"The homeless have no right to turn every park and sidewalk into a place for them to squat and do drugs," Trump said in a campaign video posted online in April 2023. The video appears to be the last time he revealed specific homelessness policy intentions.

"There is nothing compassionate about letting these individuals live in filth and squalor rather than getting them the help that they need," Trump said.

Newsom, who in most other arenas is one of Trump's biggest foes, has said nearly the exact same thing.

"There is no compassion in allowing people to suffer the indignity of living in an encampment

Gov. Gavin Newsom has endorsed the sweeping of homeless encampments. Photo by Jules Hotz for CalMatters for years and years," Newsom said in September before signing a package of housing bills. In July, Newsom ordered state agencies to ramp up encampment sweeps, and he threatened to withhold state funding from cities that fail to do the same.

More than two-dozen California cities and counties already have introduced or passed new ordinances cracking down on camps (or updated existing ones to make them more punitive), after the Supreme Court gave them the green light to do so in June.

Trump also said he would move unhoused people to tent cities staffed with doctors and social workers.

That plan alarmed Alex

Visotzky, senior California policy fellow for the National Alliance to End Homelessness.

"We need to remember that involuntary carceral approaches don't work and just delay our efforts to end homelessness," he said.

If Trump pushes these policies at the national level, especially if he offers federal funding for sweeps and tent cities, it could spur California cities to further crack down, Visotzky said.

As the Trump administration gets to work replacing the heads of federal agencies such as the U.S. Interagency Council on Homelessness, there's a good chance California will get tossed out along the way, said Sharon Rapport, director of California state policy for the Corporation for Supportive Housing. The new guard likely will scrap at least some policies viewed as the gold standard in California, such as "housing first," which says unhoused people, even those struggling with an addiction or their mental health, should be offered housing with no strings attached, and then services to help them recover.

It's also a good bet California would see large cuts to funding for federal housing and homelessness programs — including the voucher program that subsidizes rents for hundreds of thousands of Californians, Rapport said.

That's worrying for organizations such as Abode, which provides housing and other services for homeless Californians in seven counties.

"Federal funding is the brunt of what we receive either directly or through other entities, so it could be really impactful if there's a huge reduction," said CEO Vivian Wan. "It's just going to hurt all of our communities."

California Will Likely Feel the Consequences of Donald Trump's Decisive Victory

By Dan Walters,
CALMatters.org

Elections have consequences, as California is likely to learn when Donald Trump once again moves into the White House.

The state has been a bastion of anti-Trump sentiment ever since the bombastic billionaire real estate tycoon first ventured into politics nearly a decade ago.

Its political figures — particularly Gov. Gavin Newsom, former House Speaker Nancy Pelosi and U.S. Senator-elect Adam Schiff — have sought and achieved notoriety for their public denunciations of Trump.

Trump has responded in kind. As president, he attempted to thwart some California policies, such as its reductions of farmers' supplies, and as a candidate portraying Vice President Kamala Harris's home state as a hellhole of crime and social decay.

There's no reason to believe that Trump, despite election night promises to bridge the nation's stark conflicts, will not continue using California as a punching bag during his second stint as president.

The agricultural water conflict is likely to resurface because the state is still trying to reduce farmers' share. Trump's promised crack-down on undocumented immigrants would likely have its greatest impact on California. The state's aggressive crusade to reduce reliance on carbon-based fuels will conflict with Trump's pledge to ramp up oil and gas production.

That's just three points of friction between California and Trump's second presidency, and many more are out there such as gun control and transgender participation in women's sports.

California officialdom appears ready for four years of confrontation. On election night, Assembly Speaker Robert Rivas told Politico, "California will do everything we can to protect America from Donald Trump." Attorney General Rob Bonta promised to wage legal battles against Trump on gun control and abortion rights, telling the political news outlet, "We have gone down to the detail of what court do we file in."

Positioning as a Trump foe is a slam dunk tactic for California politicians, especially those, such as Bonta, who may aspire to succeed Newsom as governor two years hence.

But, one might wonder, what does Harris's defeat and Trump's victory bode for Newsom? He will no doubt lead the opposition if Trump tries to punish the state, as he anticipated in a recent interview.

"They're not going to wait to wind up. It's ready, fire, aim — not ready, aim, fire," Newsom said. "And that is going to create a dynamic that will be profound in two senses — from a governing perspective and also from a political attack perspective."

However, would he take the next step of joining what will be a clutch of Democratic politicians angling to succeed Trump in 2028?

While laboriously building a national political profile in the last two years, Newsom repeatedly denied any ambition of becoming a presidential candidate, saying at one point he has "sub-zero interest."

National political media never bought the line and continued to portray him as a potential aspirant for the White House. However, whatever ambition Newsom may have had if Joe Biden bowed out this year was dashed when Democratic leaders immediately anointed Harris as the substitute.

Her decisive defeat probably means that she has hit the political ceiling, particularly since initial election night finger-pointing dwelled on her shortcomings as a candidate, as well as the Democratic Party. The door is now open for Newsom to run, unless he truly intends to finish out his second term as governor and return to life as a restaurateur and wine merchant.

Newsom has spent half of his 57 years climbing up the political ladder, one rung at a time. Is he really willing to give it up? What he does in the coming months, either entering the Democratic Party's forthcoming battle royale or exiting the national political arena, will answer the question.

Dave Ramsey

Dear Dave,

My wife and I have paid off all our consumer debt, and we're in Baby Step 3 building up our emergency fund to six months of expenses. When do you recommend buying a new car in the process? Do we have to wait until we've finished all the Baby Steps?

— Aaron

Dear Aaron,

Congratulations! You two are taking really positive steps forward in gaining control of your finances. I'm proud of you!

Ok, I'm not sure if you're talking about buying a newer car—like a great two- or three-year-old model—or an actual new car. I don't advise buying a brand new car, unless you have a net worth of at least $1 million. Why? Because at that point, you've got enough assets that you won't get rocked by the crazy depreciation that comes with buying a brand new vehicle.

Don't get all down after hearing this. I'm not saying you should drive a junker until you pay off your house. I recommend that people drive the minimum they can in terms of a car until they complete the first three Baby Steps. As you already know, Baby Step 1 is a beginner emergency fund of $1,000. Baby Step 2 is paying off all debt except for your home, and Baby

Dave Ramsey Says Imitate Successful Behavior This Isn't Just a Dispute

Step 3 is fully funding your emergency fund with three to six months of expenses.

After you've accomplished the first three steps, then you can move up to a nicer car. Notice I didn't say move up to a new car. I want you to save up cash, and get a really nice, slightly used car—one that someone else has taken the big hit in depreciation on. That's what the typical millionaire does.

And I want you to model your financial behavior after people who are in the position you want to be in one day!

— Dave

This Isn't Just a Dispute

Dear Dave,

Recently, my husband and I discovered that his ex-wife used his Social Security number to open three or four credit card accounts. We've called the credit card companies, and we've disputed the charges and explained the situation. Is there anything else we can do?

— Kendra

Dear Kendra,

File a police report immediately, and if possible, have this woman arrested. That may sound harsh, but the fact is she has committed criminal fraud. That's not something you, or anyone else, should take lightly. If you haven't already, make sure you both also put fraud victim alerts on your credit reports immediately.

I'm very serious about this, Kendra. Don't stop with just alerting the credit card companies. You should be speaking with, and communicating via email—plus snail mail—directly with the fraud victim division at every credit card company involved. And here's the really important part. Make sure they understand that this is a denial of responsibility on your part—not simply a dispute.

Try to be nice, and let them know you're sorry this happened. But clearly explain that all these charges are the result of a criminal act perpetrated against you. You may have to stand your ground with some of the credit card companies, because they might try to lay a guilt trip on you—or outright lie—to get you to pay the bills. Don't do it. These charges are not your responsibility. I'm really sorry this happened to you folks.

Veteran Art Institute Hosts Veterans Day Show

By Thomas J. Sullivan

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Veteran Art Institute (VAI) has brought veterans from all military branches together into a special digital space at veteranartinstitute.org where their works of artistic creativity and imagination can be shared.

Veteran Art Institute, an Eldorado Hills-based nonprofit organization, hosts a physical gallery exhibit, "Veterans Day 2024," which ran from Nov. 8 to Nov. 11 at the Ri-Nu Gallery in Sacramento.

The exhibit showcased the diverse and powerful works of veteran artists from Northern California, highlighting the unique perspectives and experiences of those who have served in the armed forces, said founder and President Kathleen Ellertson.

One of the seven "Veterans Day 2024" participating artists included former Citrus Heights resident John Nesbitt, who served during the Vietnam War as an Army Green Beret.

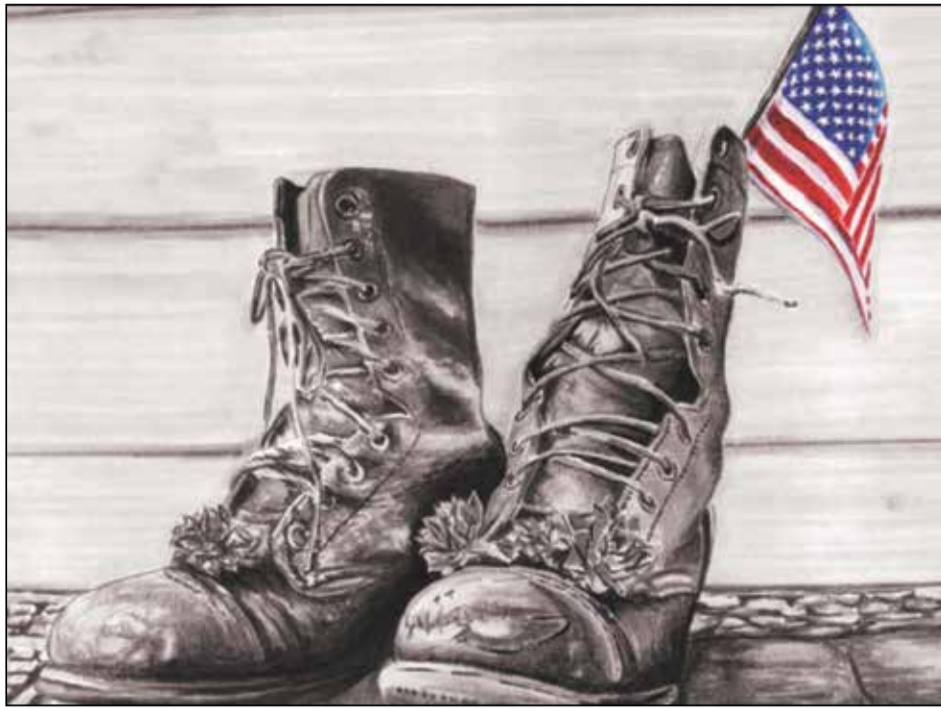

Nesbitt participated in Art Beat, a gallery showing in the MarketPlace at Birdcage this past spring. He was profiled in the Citrus Heights Messenger earlier this year and has since moved to Sacramento where he is an art instructor in a VA Mather Medical Center occupational therapy program.

George Anthes, a U.S. Air Force veteran who lives in Fair Oaks, also shared his works. Anthes started his art career with photography, capturing moments in time. Self-taught, Anthes uses both acrylic and oil paints. When he sells his art, almost all proceeds go to children's and veteran's charities. Anthes also created a charity, Little Brushes, where he connects inner-city kids with the art community.

Artist Laura Taylor, the Veteran Art Institute's acting executive director, used her pair of well-worn steel-toed Navy flight deck boots as the inspiration for her drawing, "A Long Walk Home," describing the experiences of many veterans as they make the transition to civilian life. Taylor served on active duty from 1994 to 1997 as a plane captain for F-14 and F-18 fighter jets working out of Naval Air Station Point Mugu, California.

"VAI has a deep-rooted commitment to fostering a supportive nationwide community for veteran artists," Ellertson said.

It was founded with the belief that art can be a "powerful tool for healing and communication."

Since starting in 2020, Veteran Art Institute's webpage at veteranartinstitute.org has a roster of participating registered artists that has grown to more than 488 with individual gallery webpages, with some 2,345 individual examples of their work being represented and that number is growing, Ellertson said.

Ellertson is the daughter of a decorated World War II U.S. Army Air Corps veteran who earned a Bronze Medal recipient during his wartime service, who was also an artist.

"My dad suffered from unspoken PTSD (post-traumatic stress disorder) which resulting in alcoholism and had lifelong effects on our entire family," she said.

"When he passed away, I decided to do something to honor my dad's service and help other veterans."

Ellertson helped curate many exhibits of veteran artwork, starting at the Pentagon with a year-long, 50-veteran participant art exhibit.

"In 2019, I was inspired to create my own nonprofit where veterans could collaborate and show their work in galleries (online and locally)," Ellertson said.

Individual headings on the Veteran Art Institute homepage guide the public user to view artwork by its artists and view past public exhibits. Interested veterans then can register to create their own gallery of work.

"At the Veteran Art Institute, our mission is to harness the transformative power of art to support and uplift our nation's veterans," Ellertson said.

Registrants provide their name, address and social media contact information and describe their area of artistic expression and background. The registration process usually takes between one and two hours, Ellertson said. Information about their branch of military service, current service status, military occupational skill (MOS), years of military service and combat or campaign experience is also required.

"VAI is a supportive community of veteran artists who have found a "home" for their expression and to share their stories," Ellertson said.

Kelly Hodsdon, a Marine Corps Reserve veteran who served in Desert Storm, is the founder and CEO of 123 Enterprises, the company behind Retreive™ Docs, the enterprise document management tool that powers Veteran Art Institute's online platform.

"While our system was designed for traditional 'corporate document' management, we realized digital content is digital content and were able to apply our system to support digital images, which has become the backbone of VAI," Hodsdon said.

"Our role is to ensure that the platform runs smoothly so veterans can focus on what matters most - sharing their stories and connecting through art," he said.

Taylor, an enlisted U.S. Navy veteran, serves as co-creator and volunteer for Veteran Art Institute's online gallery.

"Whether you are a seasoned artist or just picking up your first pencil or paint brush, Veteran Art Institute's training and educational portal will have something for you," Taylor said.

While the technical means to increase the number of artist participants on the Veteran Art Institute site is there, financial support is needed to help host inspiring in-person exhibits that can also showcase their incredible work, Taylor said.

"Every $10 donation allows one new veteran to join our growing community," she said.

Ellertson said she hopes to have more in-person events as funding becomes available.

"We're 100 percent volunteer-based," she said.
