RIO LINDA, CA (MPG) - Located at 7200 Rio Linda Blvd. at Q Street, LifePointe Church has become a beacon of hope in the Rio Linda area through its compassionate ministry.

At the heart of this effort is the "Sisters in Christ" program, a ministry led by local resident Sandie McGouran. This program gives back to the community with a year-round Free Store that provides essential items to individuals and families in need, along with generous holiday giveaways.

This year, Sisters in Christ distributed 37 turkeys, along with "all the fixings" to families in need during Thanksgiving, according to McGouran.

"We would like to thank the community for their response to our needs this holiday season," McGouran shared. "Your donations have meant so much to us."

The Sisters in Christ ministry, which operates throughout the year, provides essential items to anyone in need, with no questions asked. It offers everything from clothing and shoes to household items, toys and personal care products.

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - The Board of Supervisors at its Dec. 3 meeting concurred with the County Executive's appointment of Shelby Boston as Child, Family and Adult Services director, effective Jan. 27.

"The County of Sacramento is truly fortunate to welcome Shelby Boston as the new director of Child, Family and Adult Services," said Chevon Kothari, Deputy County Executive for Social Services. "With her deep passion, educational foundation and wealth of expertise, Ms. Boston is not only poised to strengthen the department but also to bring meaningful, lasting change to the lives of those we serve throughout the county. Her leadership will undoubtedly inspire progress and foster a brighter future for our community."

Boston has more than 25 years of experience serving social services agencies. Her experience includes financial administration, crisis management, organizational development, change management, program planning and implementation.

Prior to her appointment, Boston served as the director/public guardian for Butte County's Department of Employment and Social Services since 2016, where she oversaw and managed operations for that county's largest department. Prior to that, Boston served as the assistant director for the same department where she oversaw Children, Adult Services and Public Guardian for five years.

During her time in Butte County, Boston served in various positions including as a senior administrative analyst and administrative analyst position in the Children's Services Division for five years. Boston began her career with the department as a social worker in the Children's Services Division for nearly 10 years.

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Hundreds of well-wishers kept the secret from guest of honor Sue Frost that she was about to have an unforgettable evening on Saturday, Nov. 23.

Colleagues, family and friends from many counties were all quietly inside the Orangevale

Community Center by 5 p.m., when shortly after, the door opened slowly. Frost entered and photographer Cathy Kurtz took eight rapid photos before Frost realized what was happening. Her husband, Jack, made a thumbs up, happy that this secret had finally been revealed and he could relax.

Santa Kicks Off Season of Giving with Charitable Vending Machines

By Gary Zavoral

GREATER SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - With a twinkle in his eye, Santa Claus cut the ceremonial red ribbon at the Light the World Giving Machines on Monday and then showed the world the joy of giving by selecting a few gifts for those in need in the Greater Sacramento Area.

This wasn't just any Santa. It was the global icon Santa J. Claus, who is a mega-influencer with 5-million followers around the world. He stopped by the Giving Machines in the Westfield Galleria at Roseville to kick off the season of giving and encourage all to give to the less fortunate.

"My mission is to light the world with giving and that's the same mission these charitable vending machines have," Santa said. "You, too, can play Santa for someone who really needs it by purchasing gifts in the Light the World Giving Machines."

Santa's visit highlighted a ribbon-cutting ceremony that also featured remarks from William Jessup University President John Jackson representing the inter-faith community, mayors from cities throughout the region, and the local charities that will benefit from the Giving Machine purchases.

This is the third year that the Giving Machines are located in the Sacramento area, where they have been some of the most successful in the world. Area residents can make purchases now through New Year's Day.

Light the World Giving Machines, sponsored by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, are part of a global effort to promote the true spirit of the holidays by giving gifts to those in need. This holiday season, the Light the World Giving Machines are located in 106 cities internationally.

In addition to the Westfield Galleria at Roseville, the machines are located in Modesto's Vintage Faire Mall. Together, they are the only ones this year in Northern California.

"These vending machines offer a unique and memorable way to light the world with love by serving and caring for others both locally and globally," said Bruce Anderson, director of the local effort. "For many parents, it offers an effective way to teach children about giving to good causes and the joy there is by helping others."

Each of the machines in Roseville contain 30 opportunities to give: 25 opportunities from local charities and five opportunities from global nonprofit organizations.

Among the many items that can be purchased are a winter coat for a homeless person in the region, a suicide prevention therapy session for a local youth and newborn essentials for a local young mother in need. Shoppers can even purchase two piglets for a family in an economically challenged country to help them start a business and become self-reliant.

The global Giving Machines initiative first launched in a few U.S. locations in 2017. Since then, more than $32-million worth of goods for those in need has been donated. The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints covers all program operational expenses. This ensures that participating nonprofits receive 100% of the collected funds.

The local charities with items in the Westfield Galleria at Roseville Giving Machines are Al-Misbaah, Catholic Charities – Diocese of Sacramento, Rancho Cordova Food Locker, First Step Communities of Sacramento and Lighthouse Counseling & Family Resource Center in Placer County.

Helena Madera-Silmi with Al-Misbaah said many families want to give to local charities that make a difference in the lives of those who are under-privileged but they don't know how to do it. The Giving Machines, she said, give them this opportunity while at the same time teaching children the importance of charity.

"A lot of youth love shopping at the mall and you're teaching them how to be empathetic, you're teaching them how to give back," Madera-Silmi said. "It's just an amazing way to give back."

Carrie Johnson, executive director of the Rancho Cordova Food Locker, is impressed with the Giving Machines concept and hopes they will help to stock the charity's pantries.

"This is the most incredible way to give people the opportunity to give back to their communities," Johnson said. "We're all familiar with vending machines. What a fun way to give a donation to someone in need."

Among the items that shoppers can purchase for Lighthouse Counseling and Family Resource Center of Placer County are gifts of counseling for those experiencing abuse, domestic violence and suicidal thoughts.

"The Giving Machines give an opportunity to take the greed out of Christmas and bring Christ back into the holiday," said Gary McDonald, Lighthouse's executive director. "It really is about service and giving to people in need. It's really touched my heart. It really gives people an opportunity to think about other people besides their own families during this holiday season."

Sue Frost Honored by Hundreds at Party

Honoring Sue Frost: A Celebration of Leadership and Dedication

county supervisor, Frost was elected to the Citrus Heights City Council in 2012, served as Vice-Mayor in 2014 and eventually served as Mayor in 2015. In 2017, Frost assumed the role of District 4 County Supervisor, being reelected in 2020 with her term ending Jan. 6, 2025.

The well-planned and well-executed event on every front was managed and produced by All Events Management Group, Lisa Montes. "Milestones," one of their specialties, was achieved in every way this night.

The program began with a video, asking friends and colleagues to say one word about Frost and other memories. Part of the video prompted a standing ovation by the Sacramento Taxpayers Association as it began with the slow, unfolding text with the works of Frost, set to the music of "Star Wars."

Words attributed to Frost by many included grace under fire, grass roots, community, authentic, determined, genuine, common sense, calm and collected, dedicated, tenacious, true to your word, principled and much, much more. One speaker recognized Frost as being best known for listening and helping people.

One description that got much applause and agreement was that Frost is the "most nonpolitical politician."

Others described how Frost thinks carefully about each issue, analyzing it carefully, and does research before making her decision. She also has no qualms about explaining her decision, no matter how it will be taken and sticking to that decision.

Examples given were being instrumental in helping make major changes across the board and across the state to combat the negative effects that Covid was producing, such as keeping children out of school and closing down businesses.

Frost also helped save the Rancho Murieta Hotel and other small businesses by fighting county bureaucracy.

A large part of the evening was taken up by many proclamations and awards given out, along with many more stories and memories by speakers from the audience, adding their experiences and appreciation for Frost's work.

Jack Frost, thinking he would get the last word in after 12 years, realized that was yet to happen. He did thank God and all who have helped them. He also thanked Rosario Rodriguez, who owns a taqueria in Folsom, "for the wonderful dinner." Rodriguez will be installed as District 4 Supervisor, filling Frost's spot.

Jack Frost also thanked sponsors Sacramento County Probation, Sacramento Taxpayers Association, Howard Jarvis Tax Association, American Legion Post 637 and Stones Casino. The dessert was provided by the Orangevale Chamber of Commerce. Carlos Verette acted as emcee and as deejay, filling the room with music.

This evening was one to remember. A prayer was said, thanking Jack and Sue Frost for all they have accomplished in the last 12 years and hoping they find ways to continue to make a difference in the new chapter of their lives. ★

By MaryAnne Povey

Friends, colleagues, and supporters of Sue Frost gathered together in a surprise celebration at the Orangevale Community Center to honor her eight years of dedicated service as Sacramento County Supervisor.

The evening was a true reflection of Sue's broad impact, with guests spanning the communities she served and including elected officials at every level—local, state and federal. The diversity of the crowd highlighted Sue's ability to connect with people from all walks of life and her dedication to addressing issues that matter most to her constituents.

Sue, who was genuinely surprised, was visibly moved by the outpouring of gratitude and appreciation. Throughout the evening, personal stories were shared, emphasizing her tireless advocacy for local issues and her ability to ensure everyone felt heard. Her leadership and commitment have left a lasting legacy in the communities she served.

A special thanks goes to all who contributed to making the event a success. Her husband, Jack, played a key role in orchestrating the surprise. All Events Management handled the event logistics seamlessly, while Anthony Garcia, Chamber President, impressed with gourmet desserts. Cathy Kurtz captured the evening beautifully through her photography, ensuring every moment was documented.

Sue Frost's retirement marks the conclusion of a remarkable chapter of public service. Her contributions to our communities have been invaluable, and she will be greatly missed. We wish her the very best as she moves into this next stage of life and thank her for her years of dedication and leadership. ★

Chaplain's Wife Misinterprets Dying Breath

BY NORRIS BURKES

This week, I'm very happy to announce the 65th birthday of my good friend Dale Swan. Yes, he's still alive, despite the wishes of his wife Jill.

No, wait. That sounds bad. Jill and Dale are a very fit and happy couple, so allow me to start this story again.

Dale Swan, a Sutter Hospice chaplain in Roseville, has always been clear with his wife, Jill, about how he wants to die.

"If I get sick and can't feed myself or make my own decisions, please don't let them put in a breathing or feeding tube. Let me go peacefully."

Jill, 62, is a CPA who is used to calculating the options, responded in the way many families do: "But I don't want you to starve to death."

Dale reassured his wife of 40 years that his hospice colleagues would be there for her and wouldn't let him suffer.

Dale is an avid cyclist who showed no signs of impending problems until one summer evening in 2018. He was watching TV from his recliner, eating a veggie burger and sipping a beer, when he was hit with troubling stomach pains.

He took some antacid and told his wife he was going to lie down. When Jill checked on him an hour later, she found his pain intensifying. She suggested a doctor, but Dale declined, instead making a restroom visit that brought only mild improvement.

An hour later, Jill heard Dale moaning with extreme pain. She insisted on taking him to the ER, but Dale countered by asking her to call 911. When paramedics arrived, they began assessing pain even as they were speculating it was a heart attack.

Within a few minutes, EMTs placed him on a gurney and loaded him in their ambulance. Beside him, they hung an IV drip of Fentanyl, a strong opiate for pain control.

Once inside the ER, the doctor ordered blood tests, a CT scan and a sonogram. Dale was suffering from pancreatitis, but staff could find no cause. They ruled out stomach blockage, gallbladder problems and even alcohol abuse.

Dale's pain level was rising to alarming levels, with no apparent diagnosis. Nurses admitted Dale to a room, ordered that he have no food for four days, and administered Dilaudid.

However, once inside the room, the pain medication slowed his respiration to six breaths per minute. Dale was rapidly losing consciousness.

Hospital staff grew concerned they'd overdosed him and instructed Jill to keep her husband awake or they'd have to give him Narcan, a drug that reverses opioid effects. "If that doesn't work," they grimly warned, "we'll have to insert a breathing tube down his throat."

Jill remembered Dale's instructions and shocked the staff by saying, "Oh no, he doesn't want that! He's always said to let him die peacefully."

Jill felt prepared. She and Dale had discussed many of the crucial questions involving the end of life and placed those answers into an advance directive, (often called a Living Will). The Advance Healthcare Directive is a document that we should all have.

The directive instructs doctors what we want done if we become incapacitated. Without the directive, doctors are obligated to do everything possible to save our life — even if "everything" means a painful delay of our inevitable death.

Fortunately, the medical staff knew this wasn't a moment to give up on a healthy and strong patient.

They helped Jill understand that Dale's document didn't apply to situations where a full recovery could be logically anticipated.

While Dale has fully recovered and returned to work, the happy couple is taking no more chances. Dale's given Jill more detailed instructions. And Jill, ever the logical number cruncher, has reviewed their life insurance policies — just in case.

More information on state-specific advance directives is available at www.caringinfo.org. ★

Farm Groups Work to expand Outreach on Groundwater Law

As implementation of California's Sustainable Groundwater Management Act ramped up during the past couple years, farmers who learned late about the far-reaching law have encountered additional challenges. In 2017, Madera County farmer Makhhan Singh borrowed money to purchase farmland and plant almond trees, long-term investments he may be unable to recoup due to the law's restrictions on groundwater pumping. As groundwater management tightens under SGMA in the coming years, some groups are expanding their efforts to educate farmers about the law.

Farmers Need Plan to Keep Employees Safe from Avian Flu

To protect employees who work with dairy cows and poultry from H5N1 bird flu, farmers should have a basic plan in place, even if their animals are not infected. Such advice and other guidelines were shared during a webinar last month hosted by the California Farm Bureau-affiliated Farm Employers Labor Service, or FELS. As of Dec. 2, 31 human cases of H5N1 bird flu had been confirmed in California, according to the California Department of Public Health. All but one have been Central Valley dairy workers who had direct contact with infected cattle. The workers have all experienced mild symptoms, primarily eye infections, with no hospitalizations.

Farm Bureau Celebrates Success as Organization Prepares for 106th Annual Meeting

California Farm Bureau President Shannon Douglass reflected on the organization's successes this year as it prepares to hold its annual meeting Dec. 7-10 in Monterey. "These are indeed challenging times for farmers and ranchers in California, yet it's in moments like these that the importance of celebrating our accomplishments shines even brighter," Douglass said. "With Annual Meeting just days after Thanksgiving, it's a perfect time to pause and count our blessings—not just as individuals, but as part of this amazing organization we call Farm Bureau."

Farm Income Declines in 2024 Amid Challenges for Producers

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's farm income forecast for 2024 revealed a difficult year for the nation's agricultural producers. USDA projected net farm income at $140.7 billion for 2024, down $6 billion from 2023 and $41.2 billion from $181.9 billion in 2022 when net farm income reached its peak. "USDA's December report underscores the volatility of the U.S. farm economy as farmers face their second consecutive year of declining income," the American Farm Bureau Federation said in an analysis of the forecast. "Crop producers, in particular, face dramatic declines in cash receipts, with little hope for immediate relief as global supply chain disruptions continue and prices for key commodities remain depressed." ★

Social Security Matters

Was Your IRMAA Article Incorrect?

By Russell Gloor, AMAC Certified Social Security Advisor

Dear Rusty: In a recent article about Medicare's "Income-Related Monthly Adjustment Amount" (IRMAA) and how IRMAA affects Social Security taxes, you described which income gets included in the IRMAA calculation. You said it is "your combined income from all sources, including 50 % of the SS benefits you receive." That 50% number might be true in some cases, but I think a more accurate, general answer is that "your taxable SS benefit is what gets added to IRMAA." For example, we have enough income every year that we are always taxed at 85% of our SS benefit, so 85% of our SS values get added to our IRMAA. The way your answer reads, a reader of the article might think everyone has 50% of their SS benefit added to IRMAA. Signed: IRMAA Victim

Dear IRMAA Victim: I think you may have confused two terms I used when describing Medicare's "Income-Related Monthly Adjustment Amount" or "IRMAA." I also used the term "MAGI" (Modified Adjusted Gross Income), and it's important to distinguish between those two terms.

MAGI is what determines if the IRMAA provision applies, and IRMAA will affect how much your Medicare premium is. But MAGI is also used for another purpose - to see if your SS benefits are taxable. Your MAGI consists of your Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) from your income tax return, plus any non-taxable interest you may have had, plus 50% of the SS benefits you received during the tax year.

IRMAA is a factor which will increase your monthly Medicare premium if your MAGI is over certain thresholds for your tax filing status. MAGI is used to determine if a higher Medicare premium applies, and it is also used to see if your SS benefits are subject to income tax.

Your MAGI does, indeed, always use only 50% of the SS benefits you received during the tax year (not 85% in some cases). That's because the SS contributions included in MAGI relate to SS contributions your employer paid on your behalf. Only half of your received SS benefits are used to determine MAGI because that's the amount of your SS benefits attributable to your employer's contributions. Said another way, the SS payroll tax you personally paid while working was from your taxable income, so it is not included in MAGI. But the amount your employer contributed was not taxable by the IRS and, thus, is included in MAGI. So, it's the portion of your SS benefits attributable to your employer which is included in MAGI. Thus, the terminology that MAGI is "your combined income from all sources, including 50% of the SS benefits you received during the tax year" is correct. MAGI is what determines how much of your SS benefits are taxable, but your MAGI also determines if IRMAA applies to your Medicare premiums.

Your benefits are taxable if, as a married couple filing jointly, your total MAGI exceeds $32,000. If your MAGI is over the first threshold but less than the 2nd threshold ($44,000 for married filers) then 50% of the SS benefits you received during the tax year are included as part of your income taxable by the IRS. But if your MAGI goes over the 2nd threshold ($44,000 for married filers) then up to 85% of the SS benefits you received during the tax year will be included as part of your income taxable by the IRS.

In short, MAGI determines how much of your income is subject to taxation. But MAGI is also used to determine if IRMAA applies. And how much your MAGI exceeds the separate IRMAA thresholds determines what your Medicare premium will be.

So, the article correctly states that IRMAA only counts 50% of the SS benefits received because that is what is included in MAGI (which is what determines if IRMAA applies). But the amount of SS which may be taxable income by the IRS could be up to 85% of benefits received during the tax year if your MAGI is high enough.

Kings Korner

By V.G. Harris

Will coach Brown find coal in his stocking this Christmas? It was certainly looking that way after an abysmal 4-game losing streak. After consecutive losses to the Hawks, Clippers, Nets, and Thunder, the spiraling Kings stemmed the tide with a rousing win over the Minnesota Timberwolves.

Sadly, Sacramento returned to their losing ways, with a 115-106 loss to the Trailblazers, followed up by another heartbreaking performance against the Spurs, losing 127-125.

In sore need of a win, the Kings gave Sacramento a reason for hope outperforming the Houston Rockets 120-111. The Rockets are young and talented, headed for the playoffs, and a convincing win over a talented team was just what the doctor ordered.

The Houston win seemed to do something to our hardwood gladiators, akin to a wake-up call. The following game the Kings gave one back, losing to the Grizzlies 115-110 in a game that they certainly could have won.

Demonstrating that the Houston win was no fluke, the Kings put up back-to-back wins over the San Antonio Spurs and the Utah Jazz by a combined winning margin of 71 points over the 2-game span.

In Sunday's win over the Jazz, the Kings shot the lights out, hitting a season high 22 3-pointers, while Kevin Huerter broke out of a prolonged slump, contributing 26 points in the victory. Huerter was equally good on the defensive end adding five boards, four assists, and a block in just 22 minutes of action.

The Kings shot a season best 50% from beyond the arc, and dominated both ends of the court from the jump.

Winners of three out of the last four games something appears to have changed, and the team is playing with more ferocity on defense, while finally connecting on both mid-range and 3-point shots with regularity.

Granted, the Jazz are at present not a good team, but there's no denying the Kings are beginning to look more like the team we've grown used to over the past two seasons.

So, what's changed?

Well, I can tell you from this writer's perspective, Malik Monk has added some much-needed firepower to the starting lineup, and many basketball fans are asking the question, why did it take so long for Monk to break into starting lineup.

Malik has long wanted to be a starter, and his college teammate DeAaron Fox makes it clear when asked that Malik makes the starting lineup much tougher on opposing teams.

Without question, the scoring has seen an immediate improvement, and Huerter looks more comfortable coming off the bench. Kevin is beginning to look like his old self again, and it couldn't have happened at a better time.

Strangely, Keon Ellis has suddenly found himself in coach Brown's doghouse, being summarily benched, ostensibly for a poor performance three games ago. Against the Rockets, Isaac Jones, Alex Len, Doug McDermott, and Jae McLaughlin all saw court action, but former Kings starter Keon Ellis rode the pines.

I have praised coach Brown in the past for seeing something in this former G-league player that others did not, and working with Keon over the past two years has seen incredible improvement to the point where he became a starter on the team.

Word has it that after an off night against the San Antonio Spurs in which Ellis scored eight points and grabbed just three boards, Brown was upset with his overall performance, and he sat the bench the following game in a win over the Rockets.

This is the same tactic used last season with Davion Mitchell when coach Brown suddenly benched the Kings defensive wizard for three straight games. Davion's confidence took a hit, and it showed in his eventual return to the court.

I would hate to see the same thing happen to Keon Ellis, at a time when the Kings are looking for anything positive, and in particular defensive help. There are ways to inspire better play, without punishing a player and simply relegating him to the end of the bench.

Stay tuned Kings fans, because the Sactown Ballers have just won three out of the last four, and just maybe Santa Claus is coming to town!

All the best and Merry Christmas to one and all!

Sac Republic FC Re-Signs Rodrigo Lopez for 2025

Sacramento Republic Football Club News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - On Dec. 3, Republic FC announced the club has re-signed Rodrigo Lopez for the 2025 season. The veteran midfielder will be added to the club's roster, pending league and federation approval. Per club policy, the terms of the contract were not disclosed.

"RoRo is a special player and we're thrilled to have him back in Sacramento for another season," said Republic FC President and General Manager Todd Dunivant. "We know how much winning another championship means to him, and we are looking forward to his continued leadership, both on and off the field."

"My injury last season was just a setback and it doesn't define me," said Lopez. "I'm ready to respond with everything I've got. I'm back and there is only one thing on my mind – to win another championship for this club and the city of Sacramento."

Lopez has been a fixture in the club's record books. He is currently the club's all-time assist leader (41), while also ranking second all-time in appearances (136), minutes

(10,108) and goals (41). In six seasons, Lopez earned several accolades including 2014 USL Championship Final MVP and two USL Championship All-League First Team selections

(2014, 2022). He was a standout player in Sacramento's historic run to the Open Cup Final in 2022 and became the first player to be named both the Player of the Tournament and Lower-Division Player of the Tournament (TheCup.US) after leading all players with four goals and four assists.

In 2024, he was honored when U.S. Soccer renamed the Northern California Round of 32 & Quarterfinal to the "Lopez Division" – the only division to be named after an active player, the Modern Era Open Cup assist leader.

In an injury-shortened 2024 campaign, he made 9 appearances, with two goals and one assist, and earned two Team of the Week selections before suffering a torn ACL on May 21.

Lopez's professional career began in 2005 with MLS-side Chivas USA. After three seasons with the southern California club, he would move on to compete in USL PDL, MLS Reserve League, and Mexico's top leagues – Ascenso MX and Liga MX. In addition to his stints with Republic FC, he also featured in USL Championship for Rio Grande Valley FC, helping the team reach the 2021 Western Conference Semifinals. ★

Hornet Football Inks 10 Players on National Signing Day

Sacramento State Athletics News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento State football team added the first pieces towards the future with the addition of 10 student-athletes on National Signing Day, it was announced on Dec. 4. The group is made up of eight defensive players and three offensive players.

The defensive side consists of three players who play on the line, including a pair of junior college transfers. Mario Savala III comes from Modesto JC and Eduardo Vega from Reedley JC. Both have helped their teams reach the postseason this year and will add a veteran presence to a defensive front which saw four players graduate from the 2024 roster. The unit will be boosted by freshman Micah Mosley who comes from Valley Christian HS in San Jose. Mosley was a three-star recruit from 247Sports and tallied nine tackles-for-loss as a senior.

The other four defensive signees will play in the secondary. Caleb Casa Roble High School senior tight end Elijah Huddle has signed on to play football at the next level with the Sacramento State Hornets.

Reese is a cornerback from San Marcos HS in Oceanside, Calif., who had over 100 tackles and five interceptions during his career. Jojo Solis prepped at Aquinas HS in San Bernardino, Calif., where he starred on both sides of the ball. Solis rushed for over 4,700 yards and had 89 offensive touchdowns and had 102 career tackles and four interceptions as a safety.

The Hornets will also bring in a pair of nickel-backs. Jaron Hodson will see his prep career continue with Folsom HS in the NorCal Playoffs this weekend. Hodson has tallied a tackle in every game for the Bulldogs this season, raising his career total of 95. He also has recovered three fumbles and had an interception over the last two seasons. Nash Burkart is the lone out-of-state member of the class. Burkart recently helped Kapa'a HS in Lihue, Hawaii win the state Div. I title and was named all-Kauai Interscholastic Federation as a defensive back and as a kick returner.

On the offensive front, Graysen Lee and Jaxon Moore will come to the Hornets with college-ready frames. Lee stands at 6-foot-6, 280 pounds and prepped at Frontier HS in Bakersfield. The team will play in the CIF Div. 3-AA Southern Championship this weekend. Jaxon Moore guided West Park HS in Roseville, Calif., to the Sac-Joaquin Section Div. II semifinals as a senior. The 6-foot-6, 305-pounder has been named first team all-section and all-league.

Tight end Elijah Huddle of Casa Roble HS completes the day's signees. Huddle earned a three-star grade from 247Sports despite being limited to five games as a senior. In that span, he still managed to catch 18 passes for 294 yards and four touchdowns. That included eight receptions for 127 yards in the section playoffs against Union Mine HS.

The early signing period will remain open until Dec. 6 for high school recruits. Junior college recruits may sign until Jan. 15, 2025. The regular period opens on Feb. 5 and runs through Apr. 1. ★

Pioneer League Champion High Wheelers Have a New Home

High Wheelers News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The Marysville City Council has approved a new lease agreement to bring the reigning Pioneer Baseball League Champion High Wheelers to historic Bryant Field. This decision comes on the heels of a successful inaugural season, where the High Wheelers won the championship in the Pioneer League while playing at Dobbins Field on the UC Davis campus. Despite on-field dominance, the team struggled to establish a sustainable presence in Davis due to several logistical challenges.

The High Wheelers are the latest addition to the Pioneer Baseball League (PBL), a Major League Baseball (MLB) partner league established in 1939, and the second team in the league's west coast expansion, following the Oakland Ballers. The league has a strong history of player development, sending multiple players to the MLB teams each season. As a part of the team's relocation the High Wheelers will be renamed the Yuba-Sutter High Wheelers. In an effort to honor the Davis fans, team founders and staff will be hosting an open forum to speak directly with people who have questions about the move.

The Yuba-Sutter High Wheelers aim to become the premier destination for family entertainment in the Yuba-Sutter region by setting a new standard for investment in player development, community engagement, and fan experience, surpassing anything previously seen from teams in the area. The High Wheelers were founded by the same ownership group that created the Oakland Ballers, a baseball team that made national headlines by bringing a new brand of fan-centered, community-driven baseball to a fanbase that was heartbroken with the departure of the A's from Oakland.

"In Oakland, we developed a successful model of radical community participation. We are confident we can continue this in Marysville, while also staying nimble enough to consistently improve the player and fan experience. We can't wait to see how our new Yuba-Sutter fans truly make the team their own." said Bryan Carmel, co-founder of the Oakland Ballers & the Yuba-Sutter High Wheelers.

Marysville, located two hours northeast of the Bay Area, is a deeply historic baseball community and offers an opportunity to re-integrate baseball into the economic and cultural fabric of the Yuba-Sutter region. The team will be playing at Bryant Field, a historic stadium built from New Deal investments. Baseball has a rich history in the community, having hosted legends such as Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, and Jackie Robinson.

About the High Wheelers

The High Wheelers joined the Pioneer League, which was founded in 1939, as its second ever West Coast franchise. The High Wheelers are committed to providing a fun, innovative and community focused baseball experience that puts families first, while providing a new model for sports franchises. The PBL, founded in 1939, features teams based in Colorado, Montana, Idaho, Utah, and California. As an independent MLB Partner League, the PBL comprises 12 teams playing a 96-game season from May to mid-September. ★

Giving the Gift of Generosity

This year, the program has made a significant impact through its Free Store, helping community members in times of financial strain, hardship or transition.

Sisters in Christ's outreach is wide-ranging, assisting individuals who are homeless or struggling to find stability. McGouran and her husband, Tom, work closely with those in need, offering practical help as well as encouragement and support.

"We serve the whole community. No questions asked, no form to fill out, just love and prayers," McGouran said.

McGouran's desire to serve others comes from her own experience of hardship.

"We were homeless. If it hadn't been for my daughter and the church, I don't know where we would be," McGouran reflected.

This personal experience motivated her to get involved with Sisters in Christ.

"I always liked the underdog," McGouran added, emphasizing her passion for helping those who are struggling or overlooked.

Most of the volunteers who assist with the Free Store and other initiatives have walked similar paths, many having been homeless themselves, according to McGouran. This shared experience fosters a deep sense of compassion and understanding in their work.

Sisters in Christ continues to make a meaningful impact on the community, especially during the holiday season. On Dec. 14, Sisters in Christ will participate in the Rio Linda Christmas Light Parade, bringing the holiday spirit to the local community.

According to McGouran, the program also has an event planned for Dec. 21 called the Lil Drummer Boy Christmas Present Giveaway, which will take place from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the church.

This marks McGouran's fourth year organizing the giveaway, and this year, more than 300 children have already been signed up to receive gifts. Each child will receive two presents, and there will be a special opportunity for attendees to draw a golden ticket for a chance to win larger prizes, including a brand-new bike. Gift-wrapping materials will be provided, as well.

Through its year-round Free Store and holiday programs, Sisters in Christ reflects LifePointe Church's dedication to serving the community and meeting the needs of those who might otherwise go overlooked. The Free Store helps provide basic household items but also practical assistance, such as providing clothing for those who need a professional outfit for a job interview.

In everything they do, Sisters in Christ is motivated by a deep love for others and a desire to share the love of Jesus, according to the church's website.

Through the generosity of donations and the work of volunteers, Sisters in Christ is able to make a lasting difference in the lives of individuals and families in the Rio Linda area, according to McGouran. Whether through the Free Store, holiday giveaways or ongoing support, McGouran and her dedicated volunteers continue to uplift and empower the community.

The Free Store is open from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. To learn more about Sisters in Christ, donate or volunteer, contact McGouran at 210-326-1806. You can also visit the church's website at www.lifepointenaz.com. ★
