Bridging the Language Gap

SACRAMENTO AREA, CA (MPG) - Communicating with school staff can be challenging for families who are new to the country or have limited English proficiency. But a new tool introduced across San Juan Unified School District is helping to break down some of those barriers.

During the 2024-25 school year, the San Juan Unified District began rotating Pocketalk devices at select school sites, initially focusing on campuses that serve large populations of multilingual students and families.

The handheld translation device resembles a smartphone and supports more than 160 languages, providing real-time voice and text translation. It's designed to help families and staff hold two-way conversations when a live interpreter isn't available.

"It's not a replacement for our translation employees who provide a vital service; it's a tool to support them," said Peter Skibitzki, senior director of technology services for San Juan Unified. "It helps ensure staff and families can still connect when a live interpreter isn't available."

During a demo at Arcade Middle School, Skibitzki said he got to see the device in action. A Dari-speaking parent walked into the office and he used the Pocketalk to speak to her in English. The device translated his words aloud in Dari and the parent responded right away.

"I was able to give her the device and show her and she was actually able to say something and have it be translated back in real time in English," he said.

Originally, the district purchased 20 devices to test them and rotate them among school front offices. However, after receiving positive feedback, some schools decided to purchase Pocketalk devices for teachers to use in the classroom, especially at sites with high

Promoting Independence for All

Sacramento County Health and Social Services News Release

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Sacramento County is celebrating local achievements to create a disability-friendly community. One exciting achievement is the Local Age and Disability-Friendly Action Plan (LADAP).

By 2030, one-fourth of Sacramento County's population will be 60 or older, and currently, approximately 200,000 residents live with a disability.

In response to these growing needs, the Department of Child, Family and Adult Services launched the Local Age and Disability-Friendly Action Plan, a comprehensive initiative shaped by years of advocacy and community input. The Sacramento County Board of Supervisors voted to adopt the plan in February and the county celebrated the launch in March.

One partner of the Local Age and Disability-Friendly Action Plan is Sacramento County's Resources for Independent Living, which has been serving people in the county for nearly 50 years.

Resources for Independent Living promotes the independence of people with disabilities by providing independent living services and advocacy. It is part of a national network of more than 400 Independent Living Centers and is one of 28 centers in California.

While the Local Age and Disability-Friendly Action Plan was being shaped, Resources for Independent Living and its partners coordinated efforts to make sure the plan would reflect the lived experiences and priorities of people with disabilities.

"At the core of the Independent Living Movement is the conviction that all individuals, regardless of disability, have a fundamental civil right to make their own choices and to live independently within their communities," said Resources for Independent Living program manager Rebekah Reynolds.

Through partnerships, such as the one with Resources for Independent Living, Sacramento County is helping lift up the voices and the needs of people with disabilities.

Celtic Cross HART Lunch Café Program Launches

By Thomas J. Sullivan

CITRUS HEIGHTS, CA (MPG) - Celtic Cross Presbyterian Church in Citrus Heights is partnering with the Citrus Heights Homeless Assistance Resource Team (HART) to launch a new lunch café ministry.

A nutritious warm meal of hot soup and a deli-style sandwich will be served from 3 to 4 p.m. every Thursday, starting Aug. 14, at the church's Runquist Hall at 5839 Dewey Drive.

Celtic Cross has participated in the Homeless Assistance Resource Team's annual Winter Sanctuary program for many years, serving as a "host church" for multiple weeks on behalf of other faith-based groups that lacked the space to serve as weekly hosts.

"The idea to start this lunch cafe program grew from Celtic Cross's long-time annual participation in HART's Winter Sanctuary program each year," said church member Joy Lineback.

overnight shelter program for Citrus Heights residents operated by the Homeless Assistance Resource Team in partnership with the local faith-based community and other volunteers. The program runs from December to the end of February.

"We wanted to help do more to help the unhoused and this is a simple step to nourish our community one meal at a time," Lineback said.

Lineback said that Celtic Cross members wanted to do more for the unhoused than "just offer a week of shelter" during the winter months.

"A proposal to start a weekly lunch café ministry for the unhoused was considered and then approved by the Session of Celtic Cross, the church governing body of the minister and ruling elders which are elected by the congregation. The church then applied for a grant from the North Central California Presbytery in Carmichael to start the program," Lineback said.

Celtic Cross Pastor Sam Jun said that the North Central California Presbytery in Carmichael approved $2,500 in initial funding to start the new weekly Thursday lunch program.

“We look forward to sharing the successful results of our efforts with the North Central California Presbytery so the Thursday lunch meal can continue,” Jun said.

Getting the word out to the public about the new lunch café to the unhoused will be a task jointly handled by volunteers of Celtic Cross and the Homeless Assistance Resource Team through public outreach.

Citrus Heights Homeless Assistance Resource Team board Chair Irene Hronicek provided recent training to about 20 Celtic Cross volunteers and provided a comprehensive brochure of available resources that they can give the unhoused they meet.

“We (Homeless Assistance Resource Team) are delighted that Celtic Cross is joining us to provide a meal program for all those in need each week,” Hronicek said. “We encourage other faith-based community groups and churches to help, offering their sponsorship and locations on Tuesday and Friday each week.”

Meals are offered by Living Water on 7605 Lauppe Lane in Citrus Heights from 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Mondays. Holy Family Catholic Church at 7817 Old Auburn Road offers a community dinner meal at 5 p.m. Wednesdays.

“It will take time to let the unhoused in this area know that the new Thursday lunch program at Celtic Cross is available,” Hronicek said. “Just invite them and make them feel welcome.”

The new program could initially attract 20 to 30 people at Celtic Cross and that amount could grow as more learn about it, Hronicek said.

Hronicek also introduced Gabriella Yost, the city of Citrus Heights’ Navigator, a community health worker who acts as the main outreach specialist in Sacramento County’s coordinated system that assesses and provides connections and services for the unhoused.

Yost has more than seven years of field experience in Citrus Heights, Orangevale and Fair Oaks, according to Hronicek, and is directly assigned to Celtic Cross for the Thursday meal to offer more comprehensive outreach assistance.

the unhoused who are less than a mile from the church in and around the busy corner of Dewey and Madison Avenue, where the Safeway grocery store and Starbucks Coffee are located.

“We sense the difference this much-needed program can make to help care for and humbly serve our neighbors.

It creates a very special shared sense of community in our ministry,” Pastor Jun said. “And we also welcome those from the public who may be able to join us to volunteer to serve a meal one Thursday each month.”

numbers of multilingual learners.

At Encina High School, teacher Jessica Anderson expressed excitement about the prospect of Pocketalk devices being made available to all staff at her site.

“We’d been looking for translation options that support Pashto and Dari, and they’re really hard to find,” said Anderson.

Anderson uses the device to help students understand instructions, especially those who are not literate in their native language. For some of her students, traditional written translations may not be enough.

“The voice feature is huge,” she said. “Some of my students can’t read in their language, so being able to speak into the device and have it read aloud to them is essential.”

For Anderson, the biggest impact is seeing the moment of understanding on her students’ faces.

“I’ve definitely noticed that when I translate something for a kid and I play the audio and they listen, I can see that ‘aha’ moment of understanding. I think students finally feel that they know they can communicate with me easier than they did before,” she said.

As more schools explore the use of Pocketalk, district leaders say it’s just one of many ways they’re working to create more inclusive, accessible experiences for students and families. In 2023, the district introduced TalkingPoints, a two-way messaging platform that enables teachers and school staff to communicate with families in their native language via text message.

With continued investments in tools such as Pocketalk and TalkingPoints, San Juan Unified is taking steps to ensure students and families, no matter what language they speak, feel welcomed, informed and connected. ★

Snake, Rattle and Rescue

By Susan Maxwell Skinner

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - In what the Chinese zodiac calls the Year of the Snake; reptiles are keeping wildlife capture specialists busy. Though many people fear snakes, they are as vulnerable to human ignorance as any wild animal. “They get a bum rap,” said Ben Nuckolls, who operates the Fair Oaks-based California Wildlife Encounters organization. “In fact, they’re shy creatures. They’re as frightened of us as we are of them. People don’t realize their value.” The animal capture specialist counts many snake rescues among hundreds of missions that he has undertaken for wildlife safety since spring. “Snakes get more active in hot weather,” Nuckolls said. “A Fair Oaks couple recently called me. They’d discovered a five-foot Northern Pacific rattlesnake in their garden near the American River. Thankfully, their instinct was not to kill it. Instead, they called me.

Five foot long, the Northern Pacific rattlesnake visitor has a 14-button rattle. Photo courtesy of Ben Nuckolls.

It was the biggest rattlesnake I’ve seen. He was at least six inches in diameter and his rattle had 14 buttons. I’m guessing he was seven or more years old. I found him coiled under a cluster of bamboo shoots. The guy was so heavy, I bent my metal snake tongs lifting him. We carefully put him in a large container while we figured out where to move him. My concern was to get him to out of harm’s way.

We found a safer place for him.” Large and small, venomous or harmless, snakes play an important part in rodent control, said Nuckolls. “When people kill these creatures, they’re doing the community a disservice,” said Nuckolls. “Without them, our rodent population would not be in check. 2025 certainly has been the Year of the Snake for me. Not just for rattlesnakes. I’ve been called to remove gopher and king snakes from danger in several counties. They’re not venomous but they’re just as misunderstood as rattlesnakes. And they’re just as important for the ecosystem.” Residents who find snakes that seem in danger are advised to call their county’s licensed rehabilitation facility. In Sacramento County, the number is 916-965-9453.★

UC Davis Medical Center Ranked as Top Hospital in the Sacramento Region

UC Davis Health News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - UC Davis Medical Center has been ranked the No. 1 hospital in the Sacramento region, according to the 2025-2026 U.S. News & World Report prestigious Best Hospitals ranking.

This marks the 14th consecutive year that UC Davis Medical Center has earned the top spot locally. The medical center was also named the No. 7 hospital in California, continuing an 11-year streak of being ranked in the state’s Top 10.

“This year’s rankings are a testament to our unwavering commitment to delivering the highest quality care across California, transforming lives and strengthening communities,” said Michael Condryn, interim chief executive officer for UC Davis Health. “Our success is driven by the exceptional dedication of the entire UC Davis Health team, who consistently go above and beyond to provide patient-centered care without parallel.”

UC Davis Medical Center is at 4301 X St, Sacramento.

UC Davis Medical Center ranked among the Top 50 hospitals nationwide in six specialties: Ear, Nose and Throat (number 27), Geriatrics (number 27), Neurology and Neurosurgery (number 27), Pulmonology and Lung Surgery (number 27), Cardiology, Heart and Vascular Surgery (number 46) and Diabetes and Endocrinology (number 48).

U.S. News also rated the medical center’s services in Cancer, Gastroenterology and GI Surgery, Orthopedics and Urology as “high performing.” That means the hospital scored in the Top 10 percent of all hospitals rated for those specialty areas.

UC Davis Medical Center was rated as “high performing,” the highest rating possible, for its quality of care in 16 common adult procedures and conditions: acute kidney failure; aortic valve surgery; back surgery (spinal fusion); chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD); colon cancer surgery; diabetes;

Last year, U.S. News & World Report introduced a “Community Access” badge to recognize hospitals that serve vulnerable and historically underserved populations, particularly those facing socioeconomic challenges.

This year, UC Davis Medical Center was one of only 76 hospitals nationwide to receive recognition as a best regional hospital for community access.

“We believe the ability to live a healthy life should be a right enjoyed by every person. That’s why we’re committed to inspiring better health for all,” said Condryn. “Research shows that health is shaped by more than medical care; it’s influenced by access to jobs, housing, healthy food and clean air. We’re working to address these factors and move our community closer to true health equity.”

California Sees 13% Reduction in Stolen Vehicles Statewide

From the Office of Governor Gavin Newsom

SACRAMENTO - California continues to lead the way out of the COVID-induced crime surge, as the number of vehicles stolen statewide has dropped by 13% from 2023 to 2024 – the first year-over-year decrease since 2019.

Of those vehicles stolen, nearly 92% of cars, trucks and SUVs successfully recovered.

“We continue to put the safety of California communities first. Through strategic funding and partnerships with local and state law enforcement partners, we are putting a brake on lawlessness and criminals disrupting our way of life,”

Governor Gavin Newsom said. Of the stolen vehicles in California, nearly 94% cars and 90% personal trucks and SUVs were recovered.

Through expanded regional efforts with the California Highway Patrol and local law enforcement agencies, Governor Newsom sought to strengthen efforts to fight vehicle theft through crime suppression operations in key areas, including Oakland, Bakersfield and San Bernardino.

These ongoing regional operations have shown positive results throughout the broader communities in Alameda, Kern and San Bernardino counties. Working closely with local law enforcement agencies, auto thieves, repeat offenders and organized crime groups have been disrupted, and their activities have been thwarted.

As a result of these public safety collaborations, each of these counties saw a significant drop in vehicle thefts in 2024. Alameda:

the number of vehicles stolen statewide has dropped by 13% from 2023 to 2024 – the first year-over-year decrease since 2019. Image by Dayron Villaverde from Pixabay down 18% from 2023, Kern: down 28% from 2023 and San Bernardino: down 11% from 2023.

Other notable drops by county in stolen vehicles from 2023 include Imperial: down 13%, Orange: down 16%, Riverside: down 24%, Sacramento: down 23%, San Diego: down 11%, San Francisco: down 17%, Santa Barbara: down 29%, Tulare: down 22% and Yolo: down 24%.

“We are proud to see fewer vehicles being stolen across the state,” said CHP Commissioner Sean Duryee. “The CHP and our law enforcement partners are working hard every day to stop these crimes, protect California’s communities and hold criminals responsible.”

Automobiles are a vital part of daily life for work, school and family. When a vehicle is stolen, it impacts more than just property—it can take away a person’s freedom and sense of security. View the 2024 report on stolen vehicles and their recoveries at <https://www.chp.ca.gov/siteassets/forms/recruiting/2024-ca-vehicle-theft-facts.pdf>.

Stronger enforcement. Serious penalties. Real consequences.

California has invested $1.6 billion since 2019 to fight crime, help local governments hire more police, and improve public safety. In 2023, as part of California’s Public Safety Plan, the governor announced the largest-ever investment to combat organized retail crime in state history, an annual 310% increase in proactive operations targeting organized retail crime, and special operations across the state to fight crime and improve public safety.

Last August, Newsom signed into law the most significant bipartisan legislation to crack down on property crime in modern California history. Building on the state’s robust laws and record public safety funding, these bipartisan bills offer new tools to bolster ongoing efforts to hold criminals accountable for smash-and-grab robberies, property crime, retail theft, and auto burglaries. While California’s crime rate remains near historic lows, these laws help California adapt to evolving criminal tactics to ensure perpetrators are effectively held accountable. ★

Dave Ramsey

Dear Dave,

I'm 22, working my way through college and I've already been able to start setting money for life after graduation. I had a talk with my parents recently about my plans once I get a real job and get out on my own. They seem to think I'll be okay, but sometimes things can seem so overwhelming. How do people manage and prioritize more adult responsibilities like investing, marriage, having kids and everything else?

— Kieran

Dear Kieran,

You're right, it can be overwhelming if you look at all these things as if they have to be done right now. But I'll tell you something you already know: You don't have to do everything right now. It's great to look toward the future, and have a plan, but you're only 22. You've got plenty of time to decide what's important to you. For now, let's just say you've done a great job so far. Take a deep breath and relax. You're way ahead of the game compared to most young people your age, and you should be proud of your accomplishments.

Now, all the things you mentioned are great goals. Some of them are kind of intimidating, but those aren't what you're facing right now. In my mind, finishing college is your number one priority. Then, after you graduate and begin life on your own, you can begin looking at the other things you mentioned—one at a time. Once you find a good job, you can begin setting aside for retirement. If your car is about to roll over and die, that first step may be a better vehicle. If there's a special lady in your life, you might begin focusing on marriage somewhere down the road.

Don't be too intimidated, Kieran. Things are often easier to deal with when you break them down into smaller pieces and address them individually. There's a funny old adage that goes something like this: How do you eat an elephant? One bite at a time. Do you get what I'm saying? Nobody can do four or five big things at once and do them all to the very best of their abilities. Decide what matters most, put it at the top, and list everything else in descending order of importance. Once you've done this, go down the list, focus and knock them out one after the other.

You're a smart and determined young man, who has accomplished a lot already. Something tells me you can do just about anything you set your mind to!

Two Sacramento Residents Sentenced to Prison

U.S. Department of Justice, U.S. Attorney's Office, Eastern District of California News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Dominic Davis, 40, and Sharitia Wright, 61, both of Sacramento, were sentenced July 28 to federal prison for conspiring to file false claims, Acting U.S. Attorney Kimberly A. Sanchez announced.

Davis received a sentence of three years and four months in prison, and Wright received a sentence of one year and three months in prison.

According to court documents, between March 2019 and April 2022, Davis and Wright caused at least nine fraudulent income-tax returns to be filed with the IRS claiming more than $2 million of income tax refunds.

The returns were filed in the names of Davis, Wright and family members and listed wages that the taxpayers had not received. They often listed the taxpayers' employer as one of the various LLCs created by Davis, Wright and their family members.

Many of the returns also falsely claimed charitable contributions that were not actually made. Davis prepared and filed the false tax returns.

Wright provided him information and contacted the IRS to check on the status of the refunds claimed in the false tax returns.

Davis and Wright were ordered to pay restitution for the fraudulent income tax refunds that they received.

This case was the product of an investigation by IRS Criminal Investigation. Assistant U.S. Attorney Nicholas M. Fogg prosecuted the case. ★

Trio of Hornets Taken on Day Two of Major League Baseball Draft

Sacramento State Athletics News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Three Sacramento State baseball players were selected on day two of the 2025 Major League Baseball Draft on Monday, as right-hander Carson Latimer (Cincinnati), infielder JP Smith (Minnesota), and right-hander Kade Brown (Athletics) were among the 615 players chosen overall during the league's two-day event.

This year's trio becomes the 30th, 31st, and 32nd Hornets either to be drafted or to sign a professional contract with a Major League club under Head Coach Reggie Christiansen since 2011 and marks the 19th consecutive season that a Sacramento State baseball player has been drafted or signed since 2007.

Taken with the 354th overall pick in the 12th round, Latimer became the highest drafted Hornet since Travis Adams (sixth round) and Scott Randall (seventh round) were top-10 round selections in 2021 and is the seventh Sacramento State player drafted by the Reds in program history, the first since infielder Ray Brown was selected in the 28th round in 1994.

In his first season with the Hornets, Latimer made 15 appearances on the mound and started seven games for Sacramento State, finishing 2-3 overall with 28 strikeouts in 36.2 innings of work. He struck out a season-high five in

The Hornets' three draftees this year mark the first time since 2019 that three Sacramento State players were selected in the same season when Austin Roberts was picked by Pittsburgh in the eighth round, Tanner Dalton was selected by the Chicago Cubs in the 17th round and Parker Brahm was drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 27th round. three innings against Abilene Christian on April 5 and had four more strikeouts in three innings against UT Arlington on March 22. Against California Baptist on April 18, he allowed just one hit over four shutout innings, striking out three Lancers.

Smith was selected with the 509th overall pick in the 17th round by Minnesota and became only the fourth Hornet to be drafted by the Twins in program history joining Tanner Mendonca (17th round in 2013), Tyler Beardsley (16th round in 2016), and the aforementioned Adams, who made his Major League debut earlier this month and picked up his first career victory on July 12.

A first-team All-Western Athletic Conference selection for the second time in his career in 2025, Smith finished the campaign hitting .291 while starting all 58 games, scoring 42 runs, collecting 18 doubles, and slugging 12 home runs to go along with a team-high 52 RBI. He ranked in the top 15 in the WAC in hits (t12th), RBI (t8th), doubles (6th), home runs (t9th), and total bases (10th).

Brown became the third Sacramento State player selected on Monday, taken by the Athletics in the 20th round (590th overall). It marked the second straight year that the Athletics drafted a Hornet after taking infielder Gunner Gouldsmith in the 19th round in 2024, while Brown became the ninth Sacramento State player to go from Hornet green and gold to Athletics green and gold.

A third-team All-America selection and finalist for the "Stopper of the Year" by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, Brown was a first-team All-Western Athletic Conference selection in 2025, finishing 3-2 on the mound with a 2.93 ERA, posted 49 strikeouts over 43 innings of work, and held opponents to a .204 average. A three-time All-WAC selection during his career and the school's all-time leader in home runs with 48 over his three seasons, Smith ranked in the top 15 in the WAC in hits (t12th), RBI (t8th), doubles (6th), home runs (t9th), and total bases (10th) this past year.

The Hornets' three draftees this year mark the first time since 2019 that three Sacramento State players were selected in the same season when Austin Roberts was picked by Pittsburgh in the eighth round, Tanner Dalton was selected by the Chicago Cubs in the 17th round and Parker Brahm was drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 27th round.

It also represents the first time that three Sacramento State players were drafted in the top 20 rounds since 2003 when right-hander Chris Kinsey was selected by Arizona in the fourth round, Jesse Schmidt was taken in the 10th round by San Francisco and Mikela Olsen was take in the 15th round by Florida (now Miami).

In all, 10 former Hornets have appeared in a Major League game in the history of the program with five of them currently active on MLB rosters (as of July 14): Rhys Hoskins (Milwaukee), Nathan Lukes (Toronto), Sam Long (Kansas City), James Outman (Los Angeles Dodgers), and Adams (Minnesota). ★

Five Aggies Named FCS Football Central Preseason All-Americans

UC Davis Athletics News Release

DAVIS, CA (MPG) - Rex Connors and Hunter Ridley took home first team honors to lead the way for UC Davis football's five members on the FCS Football Central Preseason All-American list, with Winston Williams, Jacob Psyk and Porter Connors earning the honors.

Williams and Psyk were named to the second team while Porter Connors earned a third team nod. The Aggies were tied for the third-most members on the team joining fellow Big Sky Conference member Montana State, North Dakota State and South Dakota.

Rex Connors adds to a quickly filling trophy case with this being his second Preseason All-American honor this season having earned the nod from STATS Perform. The Aggie defensive back was also named the Big Sky Preseason Defensive Player of the Year (the first Aggie to earn that honor) and earned Preseason Big Sky All-Conference honors.

His 2024 All-American season was record-breaking finishing with a program record 74 solo tackles, finishing with a total tally of 115 on the season.

Ridley has had a busy summer of accolades, earning STATS Perform Second Team Preseason All-American honors along with being named Big Sky Preseason All-Conference. The Aggie primary kicker was also nominated for the 2025 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. He was named a 2024 Fred Mitchell Award finalist after going 16-for-18 in field goals and hitting 56 PATs during the 2024 campaign.

Williams, who has already earned STATS Perform Second Team Preseason All-American and Big Sky Preseason All-Conference honors was also named the second-best returning tight end in the nation by HERO Sports.

He ended the 2024 season leading all Big Sky tight ends in touchdown receptions and he finished second in the nation for most receiving touchdowns by a tight end. When the year came to an end, Williams had racked up career numbers finishing with 265 receiving yards on 34 receptions, snagging six touchdowns while averaging 19.0 yards per game.

Psyk joined the Aggies during the offseason as a transfer after four seasons at Harvard. During his senior season Psyk was named All-Ivy League first team following a year where he ranked 29th in the nation in sacks, finishing with 26 tackles, 6.5 sacks, one forced fumbled and one recovery.

Porter gained STATS Perform Third Team Preseason All-American honors to go along with a Preseason Big Sky All-Conference nod. During the 2024 season he finished with 86 total tackles, made three interceptions and scored a defensive touchdown on a scoop and score in the season opener at California. His game at Cal earned him national defensive player of the week honors as the Aggie linebacker would go on to start 13 games over the remainder of the season.

Aerospace Museum Summer Camp Gives Lasting Impact

San Juan Unified School District News Release

MCCLELLAN PARK, CA (MPG) - This summer, rising fourth-through sixth-graders from San Juan Unified School District discovered just how far their imagination could take them at the Aerospace Museum of California’s “Dream it... Build it: Design, Build and Engineer” summer camp.

The camp, which is offered annually, is available to students from select San Juan Unified schools, including Starr King K-8, Grand Oaks Elementary School, Kingswood K-8, Dyer-Kelly Elementary School, Greer Elementary School and Carmichael Elementary School. “Everything at the Aerospace Camp has some kind of hands-on element linked to education, so it’s a truly engaging partnership where the (California Teaching Fellows) are one-on-one with the students, helping them and answering their questions,” said San Juan Unified’s family engagement coordinator Natalia Aguirre-Mazzi.

This summer marks the second year that the district has also teamed up with the California Teaching Fellows Foundation to bring in nearly 20 fellows to support students throughout their time at the summer camp.

“I think this week is one of my personal favorites out of camp because you really get to see them get engaged and get really excited about building things that you would never expect they could build with,” said Cassidy Williams, lead for the Aerospace Museum’s summer camp program. “You really get to see their work come to life this week.”

Williams added that she loves “seeing students come out of their shells” in their short time there.

“A lot of the kids are really shy and quiet when they come in on Monday morning, and by the end of the day Monday, you see how excited they are to be here.

They’re so excited to come back and work on their next project,” Williams said.

For students such as Maximiliano, an incoming fourth-grader, the creativity is part of the fun.

“My favorite thing was the rocket straw paper,” Maximiliano said. “I thought, ‘Why don’t I make a straw rocket?’ It’s fun because there’s a lot of arts and crafts and activities in the area.”

Sophia, also entering fourth-grade, added, “I love summer camp. I learned a lot about airplanes and colors. My favorite part is the team leaders because they’re nice. It’s really fun.”

According to Aguirre-Mazzi,

The Aerospace Museum of California’s “Dream it... Build it: Design, Build and Engineer” summer camp helps students become engaged in engineering and math. Photo courtesy of the San Juan Unified School District the experience’s positive impact often extends beyond the camp itself.

“We’ve had families reach out the week after camp ends, asking how to sign up for next year,” said Aguirre-Mazzi. “Their kids come home excited about engineering or math, when maybe that wasn’t their experience before. They really are learning here while also having fun.” ★
