Carmichael Park Begins Re-Vamp

Carmichael Recreation and Park District leaders, legislative representatives and construction workers dish the dirt for upgrades in Carmichael Park.

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - In the third groundbreaking this year for Carmichael Recreation and Park District projects, staffers and VIPs shoveled dirt at Carmichael Park last week.

The ceremony initiated more than $1.6 million in upgrades for the district's flagship reserve.

Upgrades include new toddler play facilities; restrooms; a shade structure for tennis players; pickleball courts and resurfaced roads. Bike racks, benches and drinking fountains will also augment amenities. The combined projects should be completed before next January.

More Carmichael Recreation and Park District projects are pending or in progress throughout the district. Glancy Oaks Park will soon have a modernized play area and an upgraded basketball. The 70-year-old La Sierra Community Center will shine with re-engineered sports fields and building infrastructure.

Enabled by the 2022 Measure G bond issue that achieved $32 million for the park district, improvements are also planned for Bird Track, Patriots, Cardinal Oaks, Jan, Del Campo and O'Donnell Heritage parks.

"We're proud to bring these projects to life with the trust and support of Carmichael," said Carmichael Recreation and Park District Administrator Stacey Yankee. "We can't wait to see how the improvements will bring the community closer."

Water Providers Warn Residents about Unauthorized Solicitations

Citrus Heights Water District News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Citrus Heights Water District, Sacramento Suburban Water District, Orange Vale Water Company and California American Water are warning residents about unauthorized solicitations targeting local households.

Reports have surfaced of individuals posing as water officials, knocking on doors and claiming your tap water might be unsafe. They offer unsolicited in-home water testing, which often leads to high-pressure sales tactics for costly and unnecessary water treatment equipment or services.

Incidents of this nature have been increasingly reported across Northern California, including in Elk Grove, Fairfield and Sacramento, where residents were pushed to purchase expensive water treatment systems following unsolicited testing claims.

Be assured: your water is safe. Drinking water served by Citrus Heights Water District, Sacramento Suburban Water District, Orange Vale Water Company and California American Water meet some of the strictest water quality standards. Water is regularly tested and follows federal and state regulations to ensure community health and safety.

Citrus Heights Water District, Sacramento Suburban Water District, Orange Vale Water Company and California American Water do not conduct in-home water testing. All necessary testing is done either at the treatment facilities, wells or through officially scheduled programs, not through door-to-door visits.

Your water provider's employees are always clearly identifiable. They wear official uniforms with agency logos, drive marked vehicles and carry agency-issued identification cards.

Verify before you engage. Call your water provider directly to confirm someone's identity. You can reach Citrus Heights Water District at 916-725-6873 or at chwd.org. Sacramento Suburban Water District can be reached at 916-972-7171 or sswd.org. Orange Vale Water Company can be reached at 916-988-1693 or orangevalewater.com. CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - The popularity contest that decides Carmichael's top businesses has kicked off.

Best of Carmichael's results for 2025 will be revealed on Nov. 7. The Carmichael Chamber of Commerce officials will announce bragging rights during a La Sierra Center gala.

Businesses in 70 categories are in contention for awards. Entities that make Carmichael a commercial hub seek support in divisions that include professional services, nonprofit organizations, markets, restaurants, fitness centers and churches.

Thanks to swing votes, new winners emerge annually.

Some incumbents nevertheless wear a trail on the red carpet. Bel Air market has consistently bagged "Best Grocery Store." Katie Pexa's Farmers agency usually has insurance-voters covered. River City Brewery pops a cork every year.

Carmichael's favorite teacher will again be decided. Nominations are open for educators from kindergarten to university level. Winner recognition includes a $400 prize, Kardell Delacruz (aka "Mr. Dell") was voted "Best Teacher" last year. The California Montessori Project staffer's victory earned him $400.

sponsored by Midas Auto Repairs.

Food categories are the hottest ticket.

"We included best bartender, best date ambiance and best tacos," said Carmichael Chamber of Commerce President Rosie Buck. "With so many local restaurants, we love highlighting great kitchens."

Entertainment is another town specialty. The Carmichael-based Wasted Space group last year rocked laurels for best concert band.

Senior categories now include fitness, residence and elder services.

Best of Carmichael is a Carmichael Times and Chamber of Commerce collaboration.

Nominees must be located in Carmichael or have Chamber of Commerce membership. Anyone can cast a ballot from anywhere in the world. Organizers are still accepting candidate nominations.

Victors will celebrate during the Carmichael Chamber of Commerce's chocolate-flavored "Wonderous Sweet Soiree" on Nov. 7.

"We encourage people to strut red-carpet glam," Buck said. "Once again, the big spotlight is on Carmichael."

Women's and Children's Center Celebrates Decade of Care

More than 61,605 Babies Delivered There So Far

Sutter Health News Release

Editor's Note: The Anderson Lucchetti Women's and Children's Center's patients are from throughout Northern California and beyond, including from Sacramento, Yuba/Sutter, Yolo, Placer, El Dorado and Stanislaus counties. The center held a 10th-anniversary celebration on Aug. 21.

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - When Sutter Medical Center, Sacramento's new Anderson Lucchetti Women's and Children's Center opened in Midtown on Aug. 8, 2015, expectant mothers and new families were welcomed with the highest standard of maternity and pediatric care in Sacramento.

From beginning to end of the birth plan, parents received care in spacious suites with their newborn on the top patient floor of midtown Sacramento's tallest building with great views. Then, as their child grew up, parents knew that they could continue to receive exceptional care in the same facility.

In the past 10 years, Sutter Medical Center, Sacramento has welcomed more newborns than in any decade of its 100-year history: 61,605 babies, to be exact.

But the Anderson Lucchetti Women's and Children's Center is far more than a place to welcome new life. It houses Northern California's largest and most advanced neonatal intensive care unit and a high-risk maternity ward where mothers receive round-the-clock care to give their babies a healthy start. It also includes a comprehensive pediatric hospital within its walls, treating children facing complex, cardiac, oncological, neurological and other serious conditions.

"We're proud to provide not just advanced medical treatments but a healing environment where mothers and children feel supported, safe and truly cared for every step of their journey," said Rachael McKinney, president of Sutter Health's Greater Sacramento Division and interim CEO of Sutter Medical Center, Sacramento.

In 2005, the Anderson and Lucchetti families generously committed $18 million to Sutter Health to support the Women's and Children's Center's construction. A decade later, in August 2015, the Anderson Lucchetti Women's and Children's Center opened as a 395,241-square-foot, 242-bed acute-care hospital where patients and their families could obtain the highest level of neonatal and pediatric intensive care services, pediatric cardiac, neurological and cancer services, and high-risk and conventional maternity

The Bradley family of Manteca and their 10-year-old triplets help celebrate the 10th anniversary of Sutter Health's Anderson Lucchetti Women's and Children's Center in midtown Sacramento on Aug. 21. The triplets were born premature at Sutter Memorial Hospital in East Sacramento and were transferred on Aug. 8, 2015 to the NICU (Neonatal Intensive Care Unit) at the new Anderson Lucchetti Women's and Children's Center. In front are the triplets, from left, Carly, Ally and Sydney; holding photos of the day they were born. services, as well as other services. Construction costs totaled $821 million.

In its 100-year history, from the original Sutter Hospital to Sutter Memorial Hospital to the Anderson Lucchetti Women's and Children's Center, the number of babies born total 417,428, more than the city of Sacramento's population circa the year 2000.

In Anderson Lucchetti Women's and Children's Center's first 10 years, there have been 1,152 sets of twins, 35 sets of triplets and one set of quadruplets. The smallest baby weighed 13.6 ounces and the biggest baby weighed 15 pounds, 7.3 ounces.

"Every baby born here represents a unique story of hope, resilience and the extraordinary care that our team is dedicated to providing," said Whitney Clark, women's and children's services executive for Sutter Medical Center, Sacramento. "From the tiniest preemies to the biggest bundles of joy, we are honored to support families through every miracle and milestone."

For 50 years, Sutter Medical Center, Sacramento has been on the forefront of care for women with high-risk pregnancies and their babies, who often need the advanced care of a NICU (Neonatal Intensive Care Unit). To help ensure these babies are delivered as healthy as possible, the high-risk maternity physicians (known as perinatologists) help mothers carry their pregnancies as long as medically safe. Extended hospital stays are common for these mothers, sometimes lasting many weeks or even months, making the hospital their home away from home.

The Anderson Lucchetti Women's and Children's Center was built with a special unit designed especially for them. The 21 all-private, spacious rooms allow mothers to relax comfortably, welcome visits from family and even personalize the space to feel like home.

"Our goal is to support both mother and baby through every step of their high-risk pregnancy, giving them the best chance for a healthy delivery," said Dr. William Gilbert, Sutter Health's longtime perinatologist and women's service line medical director. "The private, comfortable rooms at Anderson Lucchetti provide a nurturing environment that helps reduce stress and promote healing, making a challenging time a little easier for families."

When planning the new hospital, leadership was adamant that a helistop for medical emergency helicopters be included. The Anderson Lucchetti Women's and Children's Center helistop has been a lifesaver for hundreds of families. To date, more than 1,500 babies and expectant mothers with complicated pregnancies have been transported by medical helicopter to the facility.

"Having the helistop right on the roof means we can get critically-ill babies and moms the care they need faster than ever before," said Dr. Gustavo Sosa, neonatologist and medical director of the NICU. "It's made a huge impact on how quickly we can respond in emergencies and that speed can be life-changing. For families facing high-risk situations, this facility offers hope and reassurance when every second matters."

The Sutter NICU began 51 years ago to provide high-quality care to fragile infants. But as more babies needed the advanced services offered at Sutter Memorial Hospital, the NICU outgrew its location. The Anderson Lucchetti Women's and Children's Center's NICU has 61 beds, each in an area that provides privacy for families.

Even after 10 years, Wendy and Todd Bradley of Manteca, who had triplets, talk glowingly about the center's NICU.

"We were really impressed by the cutting-edge technology and the family-friendly atmosphere at the Anderson Lucchetti Women's and Children's Center," Wendy Bradley said. "The new NICU's modern design and spacious rooms gave our family so much more comfort and privacy, which made a world of difference during a stressful time. It truly felt like a place built with families like ours in mind."

The new NICU was the first in Northern California to be outfitted with Angel Eye, a camera system that allows parents to check in on their little ones remotely via smartphone or computer and was a game changer during the COVID-19 pandemic. The system was made possible through donations to a nonprofit organization started by a Sutter NICU family.

The facility made national headlines when its pediatric heart program successfully performed the first minimally-invasive surgeries on little patients. Instead of opening the chest and cracking the sternum, heart surgeons use a pioneering technique that accesses the heart through a small port underneath the armpit. This method helps children grow up without a long chest scar and recover much faster.

It is one of the many innovative approaches that pediatric interventional cardiologists and heart surgeons have been using at the new Anderson Lucchetti Women's and Children's Center.

Kristal Imbrie's daughter, Ariel, who has Down syndrome and has appeared in several advertisements, was the first in the nation to undergo the minimally-invasive surgery.

"That approach avoided so many complications during recovery: no need to stay still as long, no ribs being cut," Imbrie said. "Especially for a child with special needs, it meant she could bounce back faster. It was like she was on espresso."

The pediatric intensive care unit is equipped to handle a wide range of complex medical conditions, including respiratory failure, sepsis, trauma and complications from chronic illnesses. This specialized unit ensures that children receive the highest level of care during critical times, which includes 20 beds and an additional 10 beds dedicated to pediatric cardiovascular care.

The pediatric ICU also collaborates closely with other specialized departments within Sutter Children's Center, such as pediatric neurology and oncology.

"At our pediatric ICU, we focus on giving each child the care and attention they need when it matters most," said Pediatric Critical Care Director Dr. Daniel Falco. "From breathing problems to complex conditions like cancer or neurological issues, our team works closely together to make sure every child gets the right treatment. By teaming up across specialties, we're able to provide seamless care that supports the whole child and their family through tough times."

Sutter Medical Center, Sacramento, which consists of the Ose Adams Medical Pavilion and Anderson Lucchetti Women's and Children's Center, is Sutter Health's flagship hospital and includes nationally-renowned institutes for cardiac, neurosciences and oncology care. Sutter Health is a not-for-profit healthcare system. Learn more at sutterhealth.org and vitals.sutterhealth.org. ★

Sign Up for School Pesticide Notifications

California Safe Schools News Release

CALIFORNIA STATE (MPG) - California Safe Schools, a nonprofit organization dedicated to children's environmental health and safety, reminds parents, guardians, teachers and school staff at all California K-12 public schools and childcare centers to file the Right to Know Pesticide Use Notification form at the start of the school year.

This form is mandated under California legislation, the Healthy Schools Act.

Filing this form with your school office ensures that you receive advance notification of any pesticide applications in or around the school site. It is a critical safeguard and part of each school's commitment to maintaining a safe and healthy learning environment.

Under the Healthy Schools Act, a "school site" is defined as any facility used for public day care, kindergarten, elementary or secondary school purposes. The term includes the buildings or structures, playgrounds, athletic fields, school vehicles or any other area of school property visited or used by pupils. "School site" does not include postsecondary educational facilities attended by secondary pupils or private day care or school facilities.

The Right to Know Notification requires schools to provide at least 72 hours' advance notice before any pesticide application on a campus.

In rare cases when pesticides must be used immediately to address a health or safety emergency, schools can apply them without the standard 72-hour advance notice.

However, the Healthy Schools Act requires that the school district designee make every effort to provide the required notification, even under emergency conditions.

Filing the Right to Know Pesticide Use Notification with your school's Main Office ensures that you will receive alerts before applications occur. This allows parents, guardians or teachers to make informed decisions on application days. Notification can be requested for any reason, not solely for known health concerns.

The Right to Know Pesticide Use Notification program began with the Los Angeles Unified School District's groundbreaking Integrated Pest Management (IPM) Policy in 1999. This policy embraces the precautionary principle, the idea that if an action or policy has a suspected risk of causing harm to the public or environment, precautionary measures should be taken, even without conclusive scientific evidence. As part of this approach,

Los Angeles Unified School District has not used Roundup for more than 20 years, setting an important precedent in protecting children's health. The success of the Los Angeles Unified School District's Integrated Pest Management policy led directly to the passage of the California Healthy Schools Act of 2000.

The "Right to Know" notifications are a critical tool that ensure parents, guardians, teachers and staff remain informed, connected and empowered within their school community.

"For more information about pesticide application policies at your school, visit your school's website or contact the school or school district directly," said Robina Suwol, founder and executive director of California Safe Schools.

Learn more about the California Healthy Schools Act at https://www.cdpr.ca.gov/wp-content/uploads/2024/10/hsa_factsheet.pdf and see the full text at http://www.leginfo.ca.gov/pub/99-00/bill/asm/ab_2251_2300/ab_2260_bill_20000927_chaptered.pdf.

The California Safe Schools website is <https://www.calisafe.org/> and the California Department of Pesticide Regulation's website is <https://www.cdpr.ca.gov/>.

California Safe Schools is dedicated to protecting the health and safety of students, teachers, and school staff through education, advocacy, and policy initiatives that promote safe learning environments across California. California Safe Schools spearheaded the effort to create the Los Angeles Unified School District's celebrated Integrated Pest Management Policy in 1999 that led to California legislation such as the Healthy Schools Act. ★

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - A classic car show, cheerleader routines and band performances are among nostalgic attractions planned for Mira Loma High School's 65th anniversary celebrations on Saturday, Sept. 27.

All alumni from 1963 through 2025 are invited. Campus festivities are also open to the public.

Famed for innovative science programs, the school will host tours of its new science wing. Children's activities are offered. Food trucks will provide refreshments. Musical interludes are planned to spotlight student, teacher and alumni musicians. Visitors are invited to join the school's rousing fight song, "Mira Loma Alma Mater Hail."

Built in 1960, the San Juan District facility marked a half-century in 2010. Three years later, the first graduating class (1963) staged a 50th reunion. Among prominent graduates are free-climber Alex Honnold, country singer James House, actor Sam L. Jones, military historian Peter Mansoor, Olympic discus winner John Powell and author Shawna Yang Ryan.

The Mira Loma Alumni and Friends Association will host the reunion. Since its formation, the nonprofit has given over $90,000 to teacher and coach grants. A further $23,000 in member donations has boosted senior scholarships.

Sept. 27 celebrations run from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. The school is located at 4000 Edison Ave., Sacramento.

From This Tragedy, More Voices Must Rise

Silencing one voice cannot end the conversation. It must awaken a chorus of many

By Hector Barajas, California Globe

Charlie Kirk's death on September 10 was more than a personal tragedy; it struck at the very heart of free speech in America. For years, he had become a modern symbol of debate culture, a figure willing to put himself in front of hostile audiences and say, "Let's talk."

In a time when disagreement often leads to shouting, shaming, or silencing, Kirk chose dialogue — once so common it wasn't even considered special in America, but now it seems like a lost art.

Kirk built his career not by hiding from critics but by meeting them head-on. In person, not from the safety of an online echo chamber. On college campuses across the country, he welcomed tough questions from students who often opposed everything he represented. He listened, he argued, and he stood his ground with facts, critical thinking, and a depth of knowledge rare for any citizen, especially someone his age.

It was not about demanding agreement but about proving that open dialogue matters more than uniformity of thought. He even sat with California Governor Gavin Newsom; while the two disagreed on most issues, they still managed to show millions of viewers what respectful debate could look like.

That choice to engage with opponents was no small act. In today's culture, it is easier to cancel, shame, or attack than to have a real conversation. Too many people treat disagreement as something to shut down and silence. Kirk refused to play that game. He believed the only way to sharpen your own argument was to test it against the strongest case from the other side. In that way, he upheld the older American tradition of free speech, where ideas meet head-on and the best argument stands.

His assassination is therefore not only the silencing of one man, but also an assault on the heart and soul of America. When violence is used to end debate, free speech itself becomes the casualty. We cannot accept a future where the price of speaking out is fear for your life.

There is also a broader warning in this tragedy. Political violence doesn't stop with one person. Once it becomes acceptable to kill or threaten a voice because you disagree with it, the door opens to silence anyone.

Today it was Charlie Kirk. Tomorrow it could be an elected official, a professor, a journalist, a union organizer, or a student. Free speech is not a partisan value. It is the foundation of democracy, and without it, every other right grows weaker.

Charlie Kirk forced people to think, respond, and defend their beliefs. He showed that disagreement doesn't have to lead to dehumanization. He showed that you can argue passionately and still see the humanity in the person you're debating.

Perhaps even more troubling than the cancer consuming the art of civil discourse is that Charlie Kirk's underlying message was essentially one of love and respect for our country, our fellow citizens, our values, our history, and our future generations.

There is a poignant video clip circulating online of George Carlin, the sardonic comedian and social critic, who framed assassination this way:

"It's interesting to notice who it is we assassinate. You know who it is — it's always people who told us to live together in harmony and try to love one another. Jesus. Gandhi. Lincoln. John Kennedy. Bobby Kennedy. Martin Luther King. Medgar Evers. Malcolm X. John Lennon. They all said try to live together peacefully . . ."

Sadly, we've experienced too many of these tragic moments in American life. Kirk's assassination is yet another.

But like other moments in history, this tragedy can be a turning point. The best way to honor Kirk's legacy is to refuse silence. We must keep speaking, listening, and debating, even when it is uncomfortable. Fear cannot be allowed to dictate our voices. The future of free speech, and the restoration of respect and love for this nation and for our fellow countrymen, depends on it.

Please, Conversation Not Assassination

By Dr. Glenn Mollette

Charlie Kirk was a man who had opinions and vocalized them. He believed in free speech. He also believed in the right of free speech for those who disagreed with him. In his Turning Point rallies, he gave untold numbers of people the opportunity to express their opinions and to debate him. He respectfully gave each person the time to state their case on whatever the subject. Charlie was adamant, profound and articulated strong convictions.

Sadly, a deranged 22-year-old man from Utah took Charlie's life. It has been reported that the gunman had previously stated at a family dinner that he thought Kirk was filled with hate. When Kirk spoke at a university rally in Utah, the gunman plotted and positioned himself to shoot a single long-range rifle shot that took Kirk's life. The man ran back to his home where he later had no choice but to confess to his father that he was indeed the man who had been videotaped at the rally who took Charlie Kirk's life. The lone assassin is an evil coward who silenced one of America's star voices. At least he thought he did. Charlie Kirk has become more known, and his sound clips have been heard more in the last few days than in his entire ministry/career. Kirk has been propelled by the assassin to a status in American culture that will never be forgotten. Instead of silencing Kirk he magnified Kirk's voice and message a hundred or more times. Kirk is now being remembered around the world.

Abraham Lincoln gave his life

reuniting our country and abolishing slavery. A cowardly assassin took Lincoln's life as he leisurely watched a play at Ford's Theatre in Washington, D.C. John F. Kennedy used his voice to excite the American people and to bring about a positive attitude in the country but was gunned down by an assassin from a hidden window in downtown Dallas, Texas. Martin Luther King, Jr. was a man with a great voice who stirred the hearts of millions of Americans and brought about liberating change for black Americans. An assassin who disagreed with King cowardly hid and took King's life with a bullet. Malcom X and Bobby Kennedy were orators for positive change in America but someone who disagreed with their views killed them.

The greatest voice of hope, love, change and forgiveness, who ever lived, was Jesus Christ. A cowardly crowd yelled for him to be executed.

These mentioned voices were not silenced by hideous crowds or hidden gunmen. Each of their voices have rung loudly and clearly. Their legacies have only grown bolder and stronger.

It is sad that Charlie Kirk's assassin did not go down to the rally, stand up like a man and challenge Kirk in a debate. He could have told Kirk what he thought about him and given Kirk a chance to respond. But no, he was a weak, spineless man filled with more hate than probably anyone in America at that given moment. It's one thing to have a hateful, negative thought, but it's another to allow hate to act itself out in such a way.

Violence is never the answer. Let's keep America free. Free to speak, free to debate, free to practice and express our religion. Let's have peaceful and strong conversation, not assassination. ★ never backed down from his beliefs, his faith, or his love of this country.

Charlie brought light into dark places. On campuses where free speech is under attack, he stood strong and gave others the courage to speak up. As the founder of Turning Point USA, he organized a movement that will shape generations.

He was bold in his faith, clear in his convictions, and fully embraced his conservative values.

Charlie is now with the Lord — but the work he started isn't finished." ★

From coast to coast, sports teams and organizations paused this week to commemorate the legacy of Charlie Kirk. The White House recognizes these profound tributes that celebrate Kirk's enduring legacy as a champion for faith and patriotism and honor the remarkable impact he had on millions of Americans.

all held moments of silence or special recognitions.

In baseball, the Chicago Cubs and New York Yankees paid tribute. College football teams, such as the South Carolina Gamecocks, LSU Tigers, and the Wyoming Cowboys, joined in — as did the UFC and NASCAR, showcasing the broad reach of Kirk's influence.

These tributes reflect the widespread admiration for Kirk's dedication to inspiring the next generation of American Patriots. We commend these organizations for honoring a figure who championed the values that unite us all, and we join the nation in celebrating his legacy. ★

Bera Condemns the Killing of Charlie Kirk

Office of U.S. Representative Ami Bera, M.D. News Release

WASHINGTON, D.C. (MPG) - Representative Ami Bera, M.D. (CA-06) released a statement after conservative activist Charlie Kirk was shot and killed at an event at Utah Valley University on Sept. 10:

"This is a dark day for America. The killing of Charlie Kirk is a horrific and deeply disturbing act of political violence. I condemn it in the strongest possible terms.

"Political violence is a cancer on our nation. We don't have to agree with one another's beliefs — in fact, we may find some views deeply offensive or wrong — but we must reject violence as a means of resolving disputes. It corrodes the very foundation of our democracy and threatens the freedoms we all cherish. Democracy demands that we resolve our differences peacefully through debate, civic engagement, and at the ballot box.

"I urge law enforcement to use every available resource to bring the perpetrator of this act to justice. There must be accountability. We cannot allow violence to take root as a tool of political expression in America.

"In moments like these, we must rise above partisanship and reaffirm a simple truth: violence against anyone — Republican or Democrat, liberal or conservative — has no place in our society. No person or political party is immune to this disturbing and growing trend. Above all else, we are Americans.

"My thoughts and prayers are with Mr. Kirk's family, loved ones, and all those impacted by this heinous act of violence." ★

One Hundred Years Young

Marine Stuart McIntyre Celebrates His Birthday Among Friends

Story and photos
by Elise Spleiss

SACRAMENTO REGION (MPG)

-Gunnery Sergeant Stuart McIntyre, as he was known 85 years ago, celebrated his 100th birthday on Aug. 20 at the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Post 6158 in Fair Oaks.

It all started with a call from a friend of his, leading to a contact at VFW Post 6158 in Fair Oaks, asking if they could have a surprise birthday party to celebrate the 100th birthday of a Marine who had served in World War II and Korea. This was met with a resounding "yes" and the planning began.

Thanks to Stacy with the VFW and other contacts, emails began to get the word out throughout the area.

As the word got out, members of VFW Post 6158, American Legion Post 383 and American Legion Auxiliary 383, the Orangevale community and others got busy and, on that Wednesday, more than 100 friends, family, fellow veterans and the Patriot Guard Riders gathered for a surprise birthday party.

The venue was ready as McIntyre arrived by car, planning on attending his usual lunch date with a longtime friend. It took a few minutes before he realized the formal flag line created by the Riders, along with other veterans and the community were all there for him.

True to his love of poetry, McIntyre paused before entering the post to recite Rudyard Kipling's entire poem, "Mandalay." A fire truck and its company from Metro Fire Station 32 in Fair Oaks was also present to honor

Representative Lane Gonick with Josh Hoover's office presents Stuart McIntyre with a certificate of recognition.

McIntyre.

McIntyre was born in 1925 in Missoula, Montana. His family relocated to Washington and eventually to Walla Walla for his father's job. He joined the Marines on Dec. 16, 1941, at the beginning of World War II. After being rejected by the Army because of his age, a Marine recruiter enlisted McIntyre, despite his age of 16. McIntyre arrived at Pearl Harbor shortly after it was bombed and was on the east coast preparing for the invasion of Japan when the atomic bombs were dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki ending the war. McIntyre was discharged on Dec. 31, 1945.

He rejoined the Marines at the start of the Korean War in 1950 and was stationed in Germany for three years and then Hawaii. McIntyre said that he retired as a gunny sergeant, working his way up in the ranks during the 20 years of his enlistment.

In Germany, McIntyre was sent to serve with the High Commissioner as the United States was beginning to occupy Germany. Later, being an expert shot, McIntyre was assigned as a bodyguard to the Counsel General.

McIntyre commented that he would have stayed in the Marines longer after World War II but his wife died from cancer and he had to take care of their two-year-old son, Scott.

Remarrying, McIntyre, and the family moved to Sacramento in 1969 and to Arden Park 1972, where his son Scott lives with him, making his life much easier.

A friend with whom he lunches every day, shared that despite low vision, McIntyre is always busy. He memorizes many poems, writes stories and taught himself French, which he speaks fluently.

Starting off the presentation of Certificates of Recognition, Povey introduced Kosim Latipov with Senator Roger Niello's State Senate office; Lane Gonick from Assemblyman Josh Hoover's office and Forrest Johnson representing County Supervisor Rosario Rodriguez. A certificate of recognition from the office of Congressman Kevin Kiley was also delivered to McIntyre.

Finally, all veterans stood at attention as McIntyre was presented with a special Certificate of Appreciation from the California Capitol Region Patriot Guard Riders. All saluted him, followed by many loud "Oorahs."

Toward the end of the party, a lively bagpipe rendition of "Happy Birthday" was performed by David Canady, followed by all 100 attendees singing "Happy Birthday" to the Marine. He received birthday cards, his favorite See's Candy and a bottle of fine wine.

At the end of the day, McIntyre said, "It was a tremendous tribute to me, I was surprised. Everybody was very gracious."

Throughout the day, many had commented on how the world has changed so much over the span of Stu's, (as he is known among friends) life, all he has seen and experienced, and how his service in the Marines has helped to make our lives all the better.

When asked what his secret is for longevity is, McIntyre said simply "to breathe." ★

Kings Korner By V.G. Harris

The Oklahoma City Thunder are the well-deserving champions of the NBA, and there is much to like about this team. Without question they play a high tempo, energetic defense, and that same energy resonates throughout the entire team.

Their starting five are a good group, but the Thunder would never have hoisted the Larry Obrien trophy had it not been for their amazing bench.

As we turn our attention to the hometown Kings, I'll stack up our starting five against anyone in the league, but the real question mark is the Sacramento Kings bench.

I'm still in shock that new G.M. Scott Perry did not value what he had in Jonas Valanciunas, who in my humble opinion represented the best backup center in the NBA. A more than capable starting center, Valanciunas publicly stated that he was content to do whatever the team asked of him, and that he would happily back up Domantas Sabonis and be proud to do so.

Great player with a team spirit, and yet the short-sighted Kings turned a blind eye and let him walk out the door. Mistake, oh yes it was a herculean mistake, so now the Kings will be rolling the dice with a combination of Drew Eubanks, Darion Saric, and rookie Maxime Raynaud. Only time will tell if Scott Perry made the right decision, but the question remains, who will comprise the primary players from the bench starting the season.

The Kings waived little used Terence Davis last week, making room for potentially Russell Westbrook, and if in fact that happens, I give it my hearty support.

Westbrook has been much traveled, but his on court presence could be a real difference maker for the Kings. Russell is in the twilight of his hall of fame career, but still has some gas in the tank. The NBA's all-time leader in triple doubles, Westbrook has an all-round game, and I believe is a player that would fit in with the Kings in a big way.

More importantly, Westbrook strengthens the Kings bench and can be counted on to play important minutes.

Unfortunately, like Jonas Valanciunas, Trey Lyles is no longer with the team, so the forward position for the Kings remains their weakest spot. A glaring week spot for the Kings since the days of Chris Webber, Sacramento needs to consummate a trade and work with the youngsters that are already on the roster.

In my opinion that means it's time to pay some real attention to Issac Jones. This athletic big man needs to get his share of minutes every game and becomes a consistent player that can be counted on night in and night out.

Jones is a late bloomer, entering high school at 5'5" and graduating at 6'4". He played for Wenatchee Valley College for 3 years before transferring to Idaho, and eventually to division one Washington State, where he averaged 15 points and 8 rebounds per game.

Going undrafted in the 2024 draft, the Kings offered Jones a 2-way contract which has since been converted to a standard NBA contract.

Isaac is signed only through the upcoming season and will become a free agent in 2026 if the Kings don't offer him an extension.

Jones had an opportunity to strut his stuff in the NBA summer league and acquitted himself admirably. At 6'9 "and with an undeniable degree of athleticism Jones has a nice touch for a big man around the rim and is a capable shot blocker that looks to be a nice compliment to Domantas Sabonis.

Without question Jones can help Sabonis on the boards, and he loves to dunk the basketball. I can see a of offensive rebounds turning into two points for the Kings if Jones gets his hands on the ball.

The question of Isaac Jones and how good he can be, will be an ongoing debate until Doug Christie makes a commitment to playing him on a regular basis, and for Jones's sake and fans alike, I hope this season is when it happens!

Yes, Kings fans, let's sign Russell Westbrook because there is no downside, and Westbrook needs a home. Likewise, don't give up on the possibility that Jonathan Kuminga may join the Kings family as well.

Blink, and the preseason will be here, so it's time to get excited Kings fans. Say your prayers and buy your tickets, because with just a little luck, this season could surprise you!

All the best!

ARC has Strong Start at USF Invite

American River College Athletics News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The American River College (ARC) men's cross-country team kicked off their season Aug. 29 in Golden Gate Park with determination at the University of San Francisco Invite, an event hosting top collegiate programs across California.

American River finished 10th out of a highly competitive field, posting an average time of 26:17 for the 8,000-meter course and a team score of 283.

American River College athletes delivered solid performances against a strong field.

Following is how the top five men fared. Cameron Mobley (freshman) led the team, placing 23rd, crossing the finish line in 25:15.7. Cyrus Justiniani (sophomore) had a strong showcase with a 25:44.9 and a 55th place. Owen Wiseley (freshman) clocked a 26:32.3, finishing 82nd. Tyler Farnworth (sophomore) came in at 26:55.5, earning 101st. Edwin Hooey (freshman) crossed the line in 26:59.6, placing 105th. Their combined efforts built a competitive pack. For the freshman, this was their first 8,000-meter race. With Mobley, Wiseley, Hooey,

Pringle, Guernsey, Laverty, Martinez and Pesce all freshmen, the team looks to have strong upcoming depth. Justiniani, a sophomore, anchored the team with a sub-26-minute effort, offering strong leadership heading into the season.

While the team placed mid-pack amid powerhouse programs, the results offer a solid benchmark. With improving fitness and race experience, American River College has clear potential to tighten up team scoring in future meets.

American River College's 10th-place finish at the University of San Francisco Invite marks a solid season opener, underpinned by consistent performances from both returning runners and newcomers.

As the season unfolds, attention now turns to improving team cohesion, pushing key runners deeper into the pack and building on the promise shown at Golden Gate Park. ★
