ArtBeat Festival Moves to Rusch Park

A Citrus Heights Arts District sponsored mural is located at DarkHeart Brewing as part of the mural initiative that launched in June.

Story and photos by Thomas J. Sullivan

CITRUS HEIGHTS, CA (MPG) - From noon to 4 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 25, Rusch Community Park at 7801 Auburn Blvd. in Citrus Heights will come alive in a vibrant celebration of art, music, culture, creativity and community, as the popular Citrus Heights ArtBeat festival returns for its third year.

ArtBeat, which has become one of the city's most anticipated community arts events, moves this year from the Marketplace at Birdcage to the spacious grounds of Rusch Community Park.

This year's theme, "Color on the Corridor," ties into Citrus Heights Arts' ongoing mural and public art projects which have been popping up on walls throughout the city, including new works in Rusch Community Park, Sylvan Corners and the Sylvan Community Center.

"ArtBeat isn't just an event, it's our city's creative heartbeat," said Gigi Rayford, Citrus Heights Arts executive director. "Every mural, every song, every booth represents people investing in pride of place."

The free public event, suitable for all ages, is presented by Citrus Heights Arts and the CH-40 Arts District, in partnership with the city of Citrus Heights, Stones Gambling Hall and Republic Services, along with support from state Senator Roger Niello.

The annual festival highlights the growing CH-40 Arts District now flourishing along Auburn Boulevard and brings together artists, musicians, poets, dancers, food vendors and families for a full day of immersive creativity and joyful connection, Rayford said.

Visitors will witness live paintings of public murals in Rusch Community Park, enjoy music and dance performances throughout the afternoon and explore a variety of vendor booths offering food, crafts and interactive art activities which will take place on the park grounds, according to Rayford.

Drivers Are Urged to Slow Down and Be Alert

Citrus Heights Police Department News Release

CITRUS HEIGHTS, CA (MPG) - October is National Pedestrian Safety Month and the Citrus Heights Police Department reminds drivers to always take extra precautions to help protect pedestrians.

On average, a pedestrian is killed every 72 minutes and one is injured every eight minutes in traffic crashes, according to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. In California, 1,106 pedestrians were struck and killed in 2023.

"In Citrus Heights, walking should always be an easy and safe option for getting around," Citrus Heights Police Department Sergeant Kane Kissam said. "We want to make sure that people walking are safe. We urge drivers to take the time to look out for people. Small actions like slowing down, putting away distractions and yielding at crosswalks can reduce crashes and serious injuries."

Vehicle speed impacts people walking who do not have the same protections as drivers and passengers. A difference of just 15 mph (20 mph to 35 mph) significantly increases the likelihood that a person walking will be killed if struck by a vehicle.

To promote the safety of people walking, the Citrus Heights Police Department will conduct multiple safety operations during October, focused on the most dangerous driver behaviors that put the safety of pedestrians at risk. These violations include speeding, making illegal turns, failing to yield and running stop signs or signals.

Citrus Heights Police Department offers some driving tips to keep everyone safe, listed below.

Follow the speed limit, especially around people on the street, around schools and in neighborhoods where children are present.

Use extra caution when driving in hard-to-see conditions.

Drive sober. Always stop for people in crosswalks and avoid blocking crosswalks while waiting to make a right-hand turn. Avoid distractions such as texting or eating while driving. Keep your focus on the road.

Funding for this program is provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. ★

Ruby Miller, Happy 100th!

By MPG Staff

CITRUS HEIGHTS, CA (MPG) - Ruby Miller, a long-time Citrus Heights resident, will be joined by family and friends in November to celebrate her 100th birthday.

She was born Nov. 19, 1925, in Oklahoma and lived in several homes near her birthplace until she married Charles Miller in 1945.

Along the way, Ruby Miller graduated from Meeker High School in 1943 and worked at Douglas Aircraft in a "Rosie the Riveter" type job. Charles was already in the Navy by then and moved his bride to where he was stationed in Oak Harbor, Washington.

As a Navy wife, she moved from coast to coast in the United States and spent two years in the U.S. Territory of Guam. The couple and their four children settled in Citrus Heights in 1962 after Charles Miller's 20-year career in the United States Navy.

Even after buying their home in Citrus Heights, they lived in the San Joaquin Valley, in Southern California and in Arizona for several years where Ruby Miller began her career with J.C. Penney's in 1973.

Returning to Citrus Heights in 1980, she continued with J.C. Penney's at the downtown Roseville store and transferred to the Sunrise Mall store where she worked until retiring in 1986.

Ruby Miller is still maintaining residence at her Citrus Heights home and is an active member of First Baptist Church of Fair Oaks where she has many friends.

Her husband and two sons have passed away and her two daughters, Bonnie Miller and Cande Ackler still live close to Citrus Heights.

The youngest of her great-great grandchildren, Everlee Ruby Meadows, was born in 2025, 100 years after Ruby Miller was born.

Most of her seven grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and nine great-great grandchildren (and one more coming in spring 2026), along with other relatives and many friends will be at Ruby Miller's 100th-year celebration in November. ★

A mural at Sylvan Corners is visible to drivers traveling along Auburn Boulevard. The artist who created the mural is planned to be announced soon.

Leading up to ArtBeat 2025, Citrus Heights Arts launched a new arts district in June, transforming Auburn Boulevard corridor with vibrant, colorful murals on multiple commercial storefronts.

A virtual walking tour of more than 11 of the murals which have been completed along Auburn Boulevard will be available to the community. The murals are visible to drivers traveling along Auburn Boulevard from Sylvan Corners heading north and each of the artists who created them is planned to be announced soon Rayford said.

Completed thematic murals adorn the exterior walls of Mr. Pickle's Deli, Ciro's Pizza, DarkHeart Brewing, the Bearpaw Outlet Store, Whatsupstairs thrift store, Dollar General and Elite Bicycles, with more in the works.

A mural at Sylvan Corners in Citrus Heights is one of the featured murals in the CH-40 Arts District's virtual walking tour of more than 11 different murals in Citrus Heights.

Aside from murals along Auburn Boulevard, other mural projects have taken place throughout the city, including two recent murals painted at the Stones Gambling Hall.

In recent months, Citrus Heights Arts also partnered with the Sunrise Recreation and Park District to paint murals at Walerga Park outside of Citrus Heights.

Citrus Heights ArtBeat

will be held from noon to 4 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 25 in Rusch Community Park, 7801 Auburn Blvd. in Citrus Heights. For more information, visit: <https://citrusheightsarts.org/artbeat>.

Lost, Found and Returned

Local Kayaker behind 'American River Lost & Found'

By Idaly Valencia

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Going to the river to beat the heat is a summertime tradition for many Sacramento-area residents. Whether rafting, canoeing or swimming, local waterways attract crowds looking to have a fun way to cool off.

But losing a wallet, phone or any personal belonging to the river can quickly end the fun.

For Sacramento native Karl Bly, recovering those lost items has become a mission that is part compassion, part hobby. He takes requests from individuals searching for belongings and posts daily online in hopes of reuniting items to the owners.

"It's such a fun addiction to find things out in the river, and then it just adds so much more when you continue to search and find the owners," Bly said. "It's a whole new level of adventure."

Bly's connection to the American River goes back to 1972, when his family moved to Carmichael. He was 5 years old, Bly said, when he started kayaking and snorkeling.

"My dad would get our whole family out on the river," Bly said. "He would go scuba diving in the river looking for things and I would follow his air bubbles around in a canoe."

At 10, Bly found a pair of cut-off shorts with a wallet and a California Highway Patrol badge inside.

"I still remember his name, Blaine Pectol," Bly recalled.

Without social media, Bly relied on the yellow pages to track down the officer. After a few calls, Bly reached the right family.

"It was exciting for me to go through that whole process as a young kid and ultimately returning a wallet to a CHP officer made me feel I was an important part of the community," Bly said.

From then on, Bly said, he made it a point to return anything with a name attached that he found while diving. When Bly joined social media in 2010, it gave him a way to share his discoveries with friends and he gained a reputation for finding lost items in the river.

One day, friends alerted him to a lost kayak posted in a community group. The next morning, Bly said, he went out and located it in just 10 minutes. That moment became the turning point for launching the American River Lost & Found Facebook page in 2018.

The page has since grown to more than 36,000 followers, with members who actively help by sharing posts and commenting.

The most common finds, Bly said, are sunglasses with hundreds, if not thousands, each year. Phones are the most valuable frequent recovery, with 178 phones returned so far in 2025.

Bly has also retrieved unusual items, such as three prosthetic legs.

"Social media is just invaluable to get something like that returned," Bly said.

Some of Bly's finds are more whimsical. A recent request led Bly to recover a lost mermaid tail, which he successfully returned to its owner.

But other items that seem ordinary often hold deep personal meaning, a part of Bly's work that stands out to him.

He recalled returning a sticker-covered water bottle that had been lost for a year. Each sticker represented a trip that the owner and his girlfriend had taken together, starting with the one where he first told her he loved her.

"Every place they went all over the world, they put these stickers on it; it was kind of a history of their relationship," Bly said. "Little stories like that are so common. People thought their things were gone forever, things very meaningful to them and not worth much to anyone else."

Bly holds onto items that might take longer to claim but clothing left unclaimed after about a week is washed and donated.

Summer is Bly's busiest season, when he receives requests daily. In the winter, Bly explained, far fewer people are out on the water, so there are fewer items to be lost. Most of his work is along the American River and Lake Natoma, where Bly has even had other local divers assist.

"It's just a fun hobby to go out and find things," Bly said. "And it's so much better when you can hand something back to somebody and have them in tears, 'Oh my God, I can't believe I got this back.'"

Outside of diving and kayaking, Bly manages rental properties, which gives him more free time after a more than 20-year career in various entrepreneurial ventures. In his later years, Bly joked, he has been "flexing his time," allowing him to dedicate more hours to the hobby.

For river-goers, Bly's top tip is simple: "Number one, if you're bringing something valuable in water, make sure it floats." He also recommends phone protectors, securing bags in kayaks or canoes and straps for prescription glasses.

Bly documents his days on the river with photos and videos, focusing on wholesome or funny interactions for his social media page.

But his work goes beyond returning lost items. He regularly picks up trash, helps stranded rafters and identifies safety hazards.

"Since I'm getting these messages daily during summer of where people are wiping out and losing their stuff, I also have kind of an overview of where the dangerous spots are," Bly said.

About two years ago, Bly noticed a pipe crossing the river that was causing wipeouts. He posted about it online, and after a local news outlet published a story, the pipe was removed.

"Found out it was a decommissioned pipe. A few months later, I got a message from the lawyers saying, 'We want to let you know that we will be removing that pipe because of your activism,'" Bly said.

At times, Bly's work can take a more serious turn.

"I spend so much time on the river, I wind up helping people in one way, shape or form or another almost every time I'm out there," Bly said. "I've been in those situations many, many times."

Bly noted that he and other divers have occasionally assisted in recovery efforts for drowning victims.

"We've actually attached buoys to drowning victims in the river so the Sac Metro Fire Department can come in, pull up the buoy to the rope and continue recovery," Bly said. "Since we know the river so well and know where all these little spots are, knowledge and skill come in handy sometimes when it's needed."

Despite the dangers, Bly keeps his page positive. Bly said his efforts have had a "radiating effect," inspiring others to hand him lost items or join in the search, creating a sense of comradery along the American River.

Kings Korner

By V.G. Harris

Well Kings fans, the preseason is behind us, and there is one difference between last year's results and this year. Thanks to a stirring 117-116 win over the Los Angeles Lakers Friday night the Kings will enter the regular season on a winning note.

Fans will remember that one year ago with Mike Brown at the helm, the Kings ran through the preseason without a single win and finished the first 20 games of the regular season with a sorry win/loss record. That tepid beginning would be a catalyst that would eventually lead to the dismissal of coach Brown and bring on Doug Christie as the interim head coach.

Now one win certainly doesn't portend a definite turnaround, but winning never hurts, and what came out of the win over L.A. was very telling.

After a less than stellar beginning for newly acquired point guard Dennis Schroder, the much-traveled guard broke out of a scoring slump with a rousing 25 points to lead all scorers on the Kings team. Moreover, Schroder looked like the veteran NBA point guard he is, and was impressive the way he managed the game and distributed the ball.

Certainly, it's a huge relief for Doug Christie in light of losing forward Keegan Murray for probably the next 6 weeks, and Domantas Sabonis pulling a hamstring that will limit his action entering the upcoming season.

Fortunately, the injury to Sabonis does not appear to be severe, so there is optimism that he will be back sooner rather than later.

The prevailing question going into the Laker game was who will fill the vacated minutes of Keegan Murray, and can the Kings find any kind of a flow as it relates to their offensive schemes? Although the Kings competed from start to finish, that question wasn't completely answered in the one-point win over the hometown Lakers, but we at least got a glimpse of what might be going through the coaches' mind.

Isaac Jones finally got some quality minutes logging 23, and played solidly with 10 points, 3 rebounds, and 2 assists off the bench.

Dario Saric added 10 points of his own and 6 rebounds. Dario played 25 minutes and while not sterling, was solid on both ends of the floor.

Keon Ellis returned to form with a stirring 20 points in 26 minutes of action, and it appears likely that these 3 players will be called upon to fill in for the largest portion of minutes replacing Keegan Murray.

The key question is whether Doug Christie can turn the injury to Keegan Murray into something positive, and that would be using these minutes wisely to bring on players that have the most to give.

I continue to be an advocate of Isaac Jones, largely because he has never been given enough court time to see his full repertoire, and given his size and length, Isaac is difficult for opposing teams to guard around the rim. He is particularly adept at finishing lobbs and has a soft touch in the low post.

Dario Saric has been around longer, and I think the Kings know what they can expect from him, but let's use this time wisely to find out who else we have that can be a key contributor.

Another bright spot was the play of 2nd round draft choice Max Raynaud, who added 9 points and 2 boards in only 16 minutes, and is appearing to be more and more comfortable with every game.

Not be overlooked is the stellar play of Nique Clifford who has become the bastion of consistency. Nique played 33 minutes giving the Kings a much needed 13 points, 5 boards, and 7 big assists. Clifford has played the preseason as a standout on both ends of the floor and is giving everyone notice that this rookie is NBA ready.

Can Kings fans get excited with only one win to show for their preseason endeavors? You bet they can!

Friday night's game was a win over a quality team led by svelte Luca Doncic, and it was accomplished with Sabonis, Murray, and Malik Monk on the sidelines!

Don't underestimate the contribution that this future hall-of-famer, Russell Westbrook, has to offer, and if he can fit in with his new teammates, Westbrook could be the unforeseen x-factor that the Kings so badly need.

All the best!

Social Security Matters

How Do I Navigate the Social Security Maze?

By Russell Gloor,
AMAC Certified Social Security Advisor

Dear Rusty: I am a woman, turning 65 this October (2025). It seems that deciding when to claim Social Security is complicated. I would like more information to navigate through this maze. Thank you.

Signed: Ready to Claim
Dear Ready: Deciding when to claim Social Security can be challenging, but we hope to make it a bit easier for you. You can, of course, call us at any time to speak to one of our certified Social Security Advisors, but I'll share some pertinent information here as well.

Be aware that at age 65, you have not yet reached your Social Security (SS) full retirement age (FRA). Born in 1960, your FRA is age 67, and that is when you can get 100% of the SS benefit you've earned from a lifetime of working. If you claim SS at age 65, your monthly amount will be reduced by about 13.3% from your age 67 entitlement (a permanent reduction). If you wait a bit more and claim at age 66 the reduction would be about 6.7%. To get 100% of your "primary insurance amount" you should wait until age 67 to claim. Note you can also wait longer than your FRA and earn Delayed Retirement Credits up to age 70, when your monthly amount would be about 24% more than your FRA entitlement.

If you are still working, at age 65 you will also be subject to Social Security's Annual Earnings Test (AET) which limits how much you can earn when collecting SS benefits before your full retirement age. The earnings limit for 2025 is $23,400 (changes annually) and if you earn more than that, SS will take away $1 in benefits for every $2 you are over the limit. There is also a special rule for the first calendar year you are collecting early benefits, which will result in you not getting benefits for any month your work earnings are more than $1950 after your early benefits start. So, if you claim SS at age 65 and continue to work, you won't get any SS benefits in any 2025 month thereafter that you earn more than the monthly limit (unless your total annual; 2025 earnings are less than the annual limit). FYI, the earnings limit no longer applies once you attain your full retirement age.

In the end, deciding when you should claim Social Security should consider your need for Social Security money, your life expectancy, your plans for working, and your marital status. If you are (or were) married, you might be eligible for a spousal (or ex-spouse) benefit. You may also want to peruse the Social Security Q&A section at our website www.SocialSecurityReport.org. So, as you have already discerned, deciding when to claim Social Security can be confusing, but we are always here to assist you as needed. You can either call us directly at 1.888.750.2622 or email your specific Social Security questions to us at ssadviser@amacfoundation.org. In either case, we will be most happy to help you decide when to claim, based on your unique personal circumstances.

Still No Progress After Newsom's Housing Pledge

By Dan Walters,
CALMatters.org

Eight years ago, as he began his campaign for governor, Gavin Newsom described housing shortage as a moral imperative.

"This is a question of who we are," Newsom wrote in 2017. "Housing is a fundamental human need — let's not forget the human face behind the dire statistics.

"Housing instability can cause genuine mental and physical adversity," he added, "and lead to insufferable decisions: no one should have to choose between paying rent or buying groceries. Knowing that too many Californians face this kind of anxiety breaks my heart."

Newsom pledged that as governor he would lead the effort to develop 3.5 million new housing units by 2025, "because our solutions must be as bold as the problem is big.

"I realize building 3.5 million new housing units is an audacious goal," Newsom continued, "but it's achievable. There is no silver bullet to solve this crisis. We need to attack the problem on multiple fronts by generating more funding for affordable housing, implementing regulatory reform and creating new financial incentives for local jurisdictions that produce housing while penalizing those that fall short."

The 3.5 million-unit goal was never anywhere near realistic. It would have required increasing construction from about 100,000 units a year when he made the pledge to more than 400,000, doubling peak production in this century.

That said, Newsom has over the almost seven years of his governorship, pretty much, done what he said he'd do to increase housing. He has signed multiple bills meant to speed up housing permits by eliminating state and local legal impediments, capped by two major measures this year.

Newsom signed Assembly Bill 130, which makes it more difficult to use the California Environmental Quality Act as a tool to block housing projects, and Senate Bill 79, which overrides local government land use authority to authorize multi-family, multi-story housing projects near transit stops.

Meanwhile Newsom's Department of Housing and Community Development has set statewide goals of 180,000 new units a year and 2.5 million units over eight years. It also imposed ambitious quotas on local governments to designate land for residential development and cracked down on communities that impede multi-family projects for low- and moderate-income families.

The latter effort responds to the most acute aspect of California's shortage — housing the nearly 35% of Californians who are living in poverty or near-poverty, mostly due to housing costs that are among the nation's highest.

With the enactment of AB 130 and SB 79, the looming conclusion of Newsom's governorship and the likelihood that he will run for president, it's time to appraise results.

Has the production of housing in California substantially increased? Unfortunately, no.

At the time Newsom made his pledge, about 100,000 units were being built each year, with the net increase substantially lower due to losses by fire or destruction. Eight years later, it's virtually unchanged, no matter which authority one consults.

The Census Bureau reports that between 2019, when Newsom took office, and 2024 new housing permits in California ranged from a high of 120,780 units in 2022 to a low of 101,546 last year. Newsom's own budget agrees with the Census Bureau's data for the same period and projects future construction through 2028 at 100,000 to 104,000 units a year.

Clearly, even though systemic barriers to housing construction have been eased, many developers have been unable to see housing in California as a good investment. The COVID-19 pandemic, which had massive economic impacts, and increases in interest rates to battle inflation also have had an effect.

Housing is far more complicated than Newsom depicted it when he made his promises. He gets a 'B' for effort — and an 'F' for results.

The Gonzo Brilliance of Trump's Gaza Diplomacy

As for Israel, it needed to find a way out of a conflict that had become a PR disaster. Getting the hostages back is an important national goal, even if the exchange is lopsided (these swaps always are). Meanwhile, Israel will pull back to an agreed-upon line, but still hold an estimated 53% of Gaza as a security buffer. Even if things eventually go south again, Israel has bought time by decimating Hamas and significantly diminishing the threats from Iran and Hezbollah.

It is certainly true that Phase 2 of the deal, which is supposed to disarm Hamas and establish a technocratic Palestinian government in Gaza, will be much more difficult to pull off. If it were to come to fruition, though, it would be transformative for Israel's security and for the lives of Gazans.

There will presumably be no speeches at Hollywood awards ceremonies crediting Trump for his peace-making. Among other things, there's too much cognitive dissonance in saying, "I think President Trump is a dangerous fascist -- but appreciate how bound and determined he is to end conflicts around the world."

Trump is a gonzo version of standard U.S. foreign policy. All American presidents want to make peace in the Middle East, and all want, whether they say it or not, to win the Nobel Peace Prize. What's different about Trump is his methods, and his openness about seeking a call from the Nobel committee.

A hallmark of his policymaking at its best is an unwillingness to take "no" for an answer, an unremitting sense of urgency and a creativity that is considered unrealistic or reckless by conventional metrics. We saw it during his first term with his success in securing the border, with the historic achievement of Operation Warp Speed and with the Abraham Accords.

"The reasonable man adapts himself to the world," George Bernard Shaw maintained, "the unreasonable one persists in trying to adapt the world to himself. Therefore, all progress depends on the unreasonable man."

In this sense, Trump is usually unreasonable. Everyone around the world needs to be a little afraid of him, while he is willing to talk to anyone or consider anything. His optimism can be misplaced (the Ukraine war was a tougher nut than he thought) and his highly personalized diplomacy can misfire (he got unnecessarily crosswise with Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi), but he can also prove all his doubters wrong.

The Washington cliché is that there is no limit to the good you can do if you don't care who gets the credit. Trump shows, to the contrary, that sometimes there is no limit to the good you can do if you want all the credit.

New Home Sales Dip in September

North State Building Industry Association News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - As many prospective homebuyers waited to see what happened with mortgage interest rates, new home sales in the Sacramento region dipped in September but remained above the average number of sales for the month, according to the North State Building Industry Association.

North State Building Industry Association-member homebuilders reported selling 430 homes, 5 percent above the average 409 sales during September dating back to 1997. Sales were down 13 percent from August and 19 percent below September 2024. Building Industry Association President and CEO Tim Murphy said that many buyers are hoping that interest rates drop further before pulling the trigger.

"While mortgage rates have dropped to below 6.5 percent, many potential buyers are betting that they will fall even further in the near future," Murphy said. "It is also possible that buyers are waiting to see how soon the government shutdown is resolved. Markets like certainty and homebuyers are no different."

Murphy said that many area builders continue to offer generous incentives to help make home buying more attainable and there is a wide selection of styles and locations in the 197 active new home communities from Yuba City to Galt. And Murphy again called on area governments to streamline the permitting process and reduce the fees that now average more than $100,000 per home.

"Too often, the permitting process takes years between when a new development is proposed and when construction actually begins, and along with high fees and other costs, builders can't meet the demand for housing. Until this gridlock is broken, demand will continue to outstrip supply and housing costs will remain challenging," Murphy said.

In September, Roseville recorded the most sales with 98, followed by 75 in Rancho Cordova, 51 in Sacramento, 50 in Plumas Lake and 36 in Elk Grove. Natomas was sixth with 29 sales, followed by Lincoln (25), Folsom (13), Rocklin (11) and El Dorado Hills (10).

North State Building Industry Association statistics covered 197 new home communities reported by members in Amador, El Dorado, Nevada, Placer, Sacramento, Sutter, Yolo and Yuba counties. ★

Fixing Sacramento County's Roads

A Straightforward Plan that Works

By Sacramento County Supervisor Rosario Rodriguez

If you've driven anywhere in Sacramento County lately, you've probably noticed the same thing I have: our roads are in rough shape. Potholes, cracks and worn pavement have become the norm instead of the exception. The truth is that the condition of our county's road network has continued to decline and unless we act, it's only going to get worse.

Right now, Sacramento County's average Pavement Condition Index, or PCI, is just 41 out of 100. That is considered poor by engineering standards, meaning many of our roads are approaching the point where simple maintenance is no longer enough. Our backlog of deferred road repairs is now estimated at more than $1 billion, more than double what it was less than a decade ago.

In Sacramento County, we've done what we can with the tools we have. For several years, the County has dedicated about $20 million annually from its General Fund to road repair, a significant commitment that few other counties make. As I've settled into this role and spent time in our communities, I've also seen how Citrus Heights is investing its own General Fund dollars into local road improvements and taking an entrepreneurial approach that stretches every dollar further.

This commitment has delivered real, visible progress in recent years. Still, without a dedicated funding source, both the County and most cities face an uphill battle. Communities with local sales tax measures, such as Elk Grove and Rancho Cordova, are moving ahead more quickly, while others must continue stretching limited resources to keep pace.

Part of the reason we're here is because the gas tax and vehicle fees people already pay are not keeping pace with rising costs and declining state and federal funding. When the most recent state gas tax increase was passed in 2017, it was promoted as the solution that would finally fix our roads. The public messaging was convincing but the actual measure told a different story.

Even before it passed, the previous county supervisor for this district warned that it would only cover a small portion of our road maintenance needs and that our PCI would continue to decline. Unfortunately, that warning proved correct.

The revenues from that gas tax helped slow the decline for a few years but they were never enough to reverse it. Meanwhile, the state's distribution formulas have shifted funding toward statewide priorities and larger metropolitan centers, leaving counties like ours to fend for ourselves. At the same time, construction costs have skyrocketed, and as more residents switch to electric vehicles, gas tax revenues continue to fall.

That's why I've asked county staff to bring forward a proposal for the Board of Supervisors to consider: a small, time-limited sales tax that would be used only to repair existing roads in unincorporated Sacramento County — nothing else. This would likely be a half-cent or smaller increase for up to 10 years, overseen by a citizen advisory committee to ensure every dollar is spent as promised.

Unlike past proposals that spread money across unrelated projects such as buses, bike lanes or light rail, this plan would be narrow, transparent and entirely focused on the issue residents care about most: fixing the roads we already have.

People tell me all the time that they would support a tax if it actually went to fixing the roads. This proposal is exactly that. It would finally allow us to fully address the backlog and restore Sacramento County's roads to a level of quality that residents expect and deserve.

We cannot keep waiting for someone else to fix this. Either we make the investment now or we allow the problem to grow more expensive every year. I believe residents are ready for a straightforward plan they can trust — one that delivers visible, measurable results.

If you'd like to share your thoughts or learn more about this proposal, please reach out to my office at 916-874-5491 or email SupervisorRodriguez@sac-county.gov. Together, we can make sure Sacramento County's roads are safe, reliable and something we can all be proud of again.

Sacramento County Supervisor Rosario Rodriguez represents the 4th District, which includes all or part of the communities of Citrus Heights, Folsom, Orangevale, Antelope, Rio Linda, Elverta, Gold River, Rancho Murieta, North Highlands, Carmichael, Foothill Farms and Fair Oaks. ★

The initial Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is currently 6.75% for a new Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC), and is fixed for the first 5 years of the loan which is called the draw period. After the initial 5 year period, the APR can change once based on the value of an Index and Margin. The Index is the weekly average yield on U.S. Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of 10 years and the margin is 3.50%. The current APR for repayment period is 7.625%. The maximum APR that can apply any time during your HELOC is 15%. A qualifying transaction consists of the following conditions: (1) the initial APR assumes a maximum HELOC of $200,000, and a total maximum Loan-to-Value (LTV) of 70% including the new HELOC and any existing 1st Deed of Trust loan on your residence; (2) your residence securing the HELOC must be a single-family home that you occupy as your primary residence; (3) if the 1st Deed of Trust loan is with a lender other than El Dorado Savings Bank, that loan may not exceed $300,000, have a total maximum Loan to Value (LTV) of 65% and may not be a revolving line of credit. Additional property restrictions and requirements apply. All loans are subject to a current appraisal or property evaluation. This cost will be disclosed in your commitment letter and paid at loan closing. Property insurance is required and flood insurance may be required. Rates, APR, terms and conditions are subject to change without notice. Other conditions apply. A $25 early closure fee will be assessed if the line of credit is closed within three years from the date of opening. An annual fee of $85 will be assessed on the first anniversary of the HELOC and annually thereafter during the draw period. Ask for a copy of our "Fixed Rate Home Equity Line of Credit Disclosure Notice" for additional important information. Other HELOC loans are available under different terms.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF LYNNE MARIE ZAHNLEY CASE NO. 25PR003360
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, of Lynne Marie Zahnley.

A Petition for Probate has been filed by Gina M. Moller, in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting Gina M. Moller be appointed as personal representative(s) to administer the estate of the decedent.

The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows November 13, 2025, 9:00 a.m. in Dept 129; Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, William R. Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse, 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. The name, address and telephone number of the Attorney for Petitioner is: Michael Yee, Yee Law Group, 4010 S Land Park Drive, Suite B, Sacramento, CA 95822; 916-927-9001

American River College Athletics News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Joseph "Pey" Brito, a former Beaver infielder from Delta High School, died two weeks ago. Pey redshirted at American River College in 2000 and then played second base for the Beavers baseball team in 2001 and 2002.

In 2002, he helped lead the Beavers to a second-place finish in the Bay Valley East Conference, as he hit .300 with five doubles and 14 RBI (runs batted in) while playing rock solid defense.

"Pey was a really good human being, a great father, friend and teammate," said current American River College head coach Doug Jumelet. "He played the game hard and with passion and had the respect of all of his teammates and coaches. He was a leader on the field and off. He was full of energy and we will all miss that, especially his family."

Former head coach Kevin Higgins when Brito was at American River College, said that he saw Brito at the gym a couple of months ago and Brito was very upbeat and spiritual, although he wasn't in great health due to cancer.

UC Davis Athletics News Release

DAVIS, CA (MPG) - Caden Pinnick racks up weekly awards following a performance against No. 14 Northern Arizona that earned No. 6 UC Davis football a victory on homecoming. The red-shirt freshman quarterback added to his weekly awards being named the FCS Nation Radio National Offensive Player of the Week.

Pinnick was also named the Big Sky Offensive Player of the Week following the win against Northern Arizona, his third-straight such honor which tied a conference record.

The Aggie signal caller became the first Big Sky honoree to earn three-straight offensive player of the week honors since Dalton Sneed (Montana) earned the honor three times in a row in 2019. The difference between the two is that Pinnick has done it against three conference opponents, while Sneed played two conference opponents with his streak starting in the non-conference portion of Montana's 2019 schedule.

Pinnick shined in another Aggie victory throwing for a career-high, 348 passing yards while throwing five touchdowns, the most by an Aggie since 2018. Pinnick was also lights out going 25-for-29 to finish with a completion percentage of 86.2 percent. Over three games, Pinnick has gone 62-for-82, thrown for 949 yards, tossed 10 touchdowns and thrown no interceptions to lead the Aggies to 3-0 start in Big Sky play for the second-straight season.

As of Oct. 15, it was the fifth time this season that Pinnick earned weekly honors and the second time he earned national honors. He was named the Stats Perform National Freshman Player of the Week back in week one and he earned Big Sky Offensive Player of the Week honors after the Aggies knocked off Weber State, following the road win at Cal Poly and after the recent victory on homecoming over Northern Arizona.

Donor Impact – Willett Family

The Willett family's bond with UC Davis Athletics runs deep, rooted in both tradition and personal legacy. Genia Willett, daughter of long-time legendary UC Davis head coach Woody Wilson, and her husband, Jim, were recently recognized as the Champion Aggies Club Donors of the Game during UC Davis football's Big Sky opener against Weber State alongside their daughter and son-in-law, Tom and Kim Windall.

"We support athletics because of the high caliber of the program and the student-athletes," Genia said. "We also like to support athletics to honor my father, Woody Wilson, who put his heart and soul into the track and field program."

Their philanthropy has helped fuel scholarships, facility upgrades, and opportunities that empower student-athletes to excel both on the field and in the classroom. For the Willetts, each donation is a way to celebrate excellence and remember a man who gave everything to elevate the program.

Today, the Willett family's involvement is visible across campus, from the stands at Aggie football and basketball games to the track that bears the late Woody Wilson's name. Their passion continues to inspire others in the Aggie community, exemplifying how one family's loyalty and love for a university can shape its legacy for generations.

Staff Spotlight – Jason Grace

If something runs smoothly at UC Davis athletics, chances are Jason Grace had a hand in it. As manager of Facilities and Operations, he's the steady presence making sure every field, court and locker room is ready to go, no matter what the day brings.

"My day can consist of stringing a lacrosse goal, setting up for a home game, fixing a locker or hanging a TV in a coach's office," Grace said. "I like not always knowing what my day is going to look like. Game days are the things I take the most pride in. It's not just the game but also the prep before and after the game."

After more than 20 years as a coach, Grace brings that same mindset into his work.

"Even though I'm not the coach, I still want everything set up the way I'd want it to be on game day," he said. "It's also helped me notice when something looks off and make sure it gets fixed so our coaches don't have to worry about it."

"Jason is one of those people who makes everyone around him better," said Director of Athletics Rocko DeLuca. "His commitment, reliability and pride in his work embody what UC Davis athletics stands for. We're incredibly grateful for the difference he makes every day across our department."

Team Spotlight – Volleyball

With wins over UC San Diego and Long Beach State two weekends ago, UC Davis women's volleyball is off to a historic start to their season.

"I think the team is playing with a ton of tenacity and courage, and it's been a ton of fun to watch them play over the start of the season," said head coach Dan Conners. "We're still early in the season and there are a lot of things to grow and get better at but I really like the way we are approaching growth and change and the way we compete."

We compete at a really high level and I really appreciate the team and their effort in that. ★

Judge Dismisses Grand Jury Indictment Against Egghead Vandals

Yolo County District Attorney News Release

YOLO COUNTY, CA (MPG) - Judge Sonia Cortés of the Yolo County Superior Court dismissed a grand jury indictment against defendants Nathan Orr, (32), Lysandra Dasilva (32) and Cheyenne Xiong (22), all from Davis, on Oct. 14.

The indictment alleged that on May 24, 2024, conspirators Orr, Dasilva and Xiong spray painted University of California, Davis' famed Egghead statues, as well as many other buildings and signs, as part of a coordinated vandalism attack across the campus. The vandals' messages criticized the Israel-Palestine conflict and UC Davis leadership.

UC Davis Police Department officers captured Dasilva and Xiong fleeing the scene of the crime, according to the District Attorney's office, and the crimes resulted in more than $4,200 in damages. UC Davis police forwarded the case to the District Attorney's Office and requested formal charges.

On July 19, 2024, a criminal Grand Jury of Yolo County citizens indicted Orr, Dasilva and Xiong on charges of felony vandalism and felony conspiracy; both Dasilva and Xiong were additionally indicted on misdemeanor charges of resisting, obstructing or delaying a peace officer.

On Oct. 14, Cortes dismissed the indictment against all defendants, over the objections of the D.A., citing their willingness to pay restitution, their lack of criminal record and 12 hours of community service they had each voluntarily completed.

In addition, an official representative from UC Davis indicated that community service that included an understanding of efforts undertaken to maintain the statutes would be beneficial and that the university did not object to a resolution to the case that fell outside the criminal justice system.

The District Attorney's Office consistently opposed the judge's decision to dismiss the case, arguing that it was an illegal court diversion.

"The judge's decision to entirely dismiss the felony indictment of the grand jury was unprecedented in my experience," District Attorney Jeff Reisig said. "Judges are not generally authorized to unilaterally divert criminals indicted by the grand jury. We believe that Judge Cortes' decision was improper. "Moreover, the decision by the official UC Davis representative to recommend against a criminal conviction flies in the face of their original request and referral for criminal prosecution and creates a dangerous precedent for future cases of such conduct, suggesting similar criminal behavior at UC Davis will be treated with kid gloves. This outcome is not good for public safety in our communities."

Voting in California's 2025 Special Election

How to Make Sure Your Ballot is Secure and Counted

By Shirley N. Weber, Ph.D. California Secretary of State

As voters across the state prepare to make their voices heard on Prop 50 — arguably one of the most important elections in California's history — it's essential their ballots are cast with confidence that their vote will be counted securely and on time.

There has been some misinformation surrounding ballots leading up to the Statewide Special Election on Nov. 4, and voters must understand the safeguards put in place to protect every ballot.

California ballots are designed with multiple layers of security. It is against the law to tamper with a ballot. Whether a voter chooses to vote by mail, drop off a ballot at a secure location, or vote in person, rules and regulations ensure ballots are not tampered with.

How to Vote Securely by Mail

Mail ballots are sent to every registered voter in the state. Each envelope is carefully tracked from the moment it's issued, and every ballot returned undergoes signature verification and inspection. Election officials check for any irregularities, such as damage to the envelope, or other signs it was compromised, before the ballot envelope is opened. If there's a red flag, the voter will be notified and corrective action taken.

To make sure a mail ballot is counted, it must be postmarked on or before Election Day, Nov. 4. In some areas, the U.S. Postal Service may not postmark mail until the following day, so it's recommended to send ballots early. If mailing on Election Day, ask a postal employee at your local post office for a manual postmark to confirm it was mailed on time.

Secure Ballot Drop-Off

When returning a ballot in person, use only official, county-operated locations. Secure ballot drop boxes are constructed with tamper-resistant materials, locked, and anchored in place. Each box is regularly emptied by trained, bipartisan election staff following strict chain-of-custody procedures. Ballots can also be returned at any vote center, polling place, or county elections office, where election workers directly accept and track them through the county's system.

Voting Safely at Polling Places and Voting Centers

Voting in person is another secure and reliable option for California voters. Polling places and vote centers are staffed by trained election workers who follow strict procedures to verify each voter, issue the correct ballot, and ensure every vote is properly recorded.

Ballots cast in person are immediately placed into secure ballot boxes or scanned using approved voting equipment that is tested and certified before every election.

These locations also provide language assistance, replacement ballots if one was lost or damaged, and same-day voter registration when needed.

Still have Questions and Concerns?

Voters who have questions about their ballots or the security of voting should go to a trusted source such as the Secretary of State's office, which offers voter hotlines in multiple languages including Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Spanish, Thai, and more. Another option is to visit your county elections office. A complete list can be found at sos.ca.gov/elections.

Additionally, the state provides tools to check when your ballot is received and counted, giving voters peace of mind and reinforcing the transparency of the process.

By taking the time to plan your vote, verify your registration, and use official information sources, you strengthen both your voice and the integrity of our elections. Make sure your voice is heard on Nov. 4. ★
