Local Author Debuts Novel, 'The Palace'

Takes readers on a journey into grief, love and the human mind

By Abbey Wicks

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - A Sacramento local and former publisher of Go for It Magazine, Robert Austin Cox recently became an author with the release of his debut novel "The Palace," an exploration of the human mind and foreign policy.

The idea of writing a novel first came to Cox while discussing with his daughter Shauna the possibility of becoming a life coach to share his personal philosophies he's developed over the years.

But rather than go down the life coach path, Cox instead decided to pack his wisdom into one concise novel, which takes readers on a journey across the globe to Tibet, where political uncertainty creates a sense of anxiety and divisiveness, much like the world we live in today.

The novel's characters grapple with real life problems such as grief, domestic violence and political division.

"I've always found that when people come to me for advice or just to share something that they're struggling with it's a huge compliment," Cox said. "It says that they trust me and they respect me enough to share something that they're dealing with that's causing them some sort of pain."

While publishing his self-help magazine, Cox wrote a column each month diving into a personal experience or struggle and exploring how using one of his personal philosophies might result in tackling the problem in a new way.

Cox used a similar approach while writing "The Palace," choosing instead to create a fictional world and characters, with much of the novel's protagonist's life being based on Cox' own life and experience with

Crabby Diners Fundraise for Kids

By Susan Maxwell Skinner

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - A thousand pounds of crustacean and an ocean of cocktail sauce helped the Carmichael Kiwanis Club raise almost $40,000 at a recent crab-feed at La Sierra Center.

One of the group's biggest money-earners, the event sold out at more than 300 attendees.

Event co-chair Lynn

Jacoby-McClellan observed the appetite for crab at an all-time high. "Our volunteers worked hard to achieve smooth service," she said.

Jesuit and El Camino High School Key Clubs, plus local scout troops and San Juan High School Culinary Academy students labored to ensure no one waited for salad, pasta and Dungeness crab.

"We had no leftovers by the end of the evening," said Jacoby-McClellan. "Everybody left with a full tummy."

Kiwanis fundraising supports programs aiding children and families.

Event sponsors included: Topsy Putt miniature golf; Supervisor Rich Desmond; Carmichael Chamber of Commerce; Beas Academy; Lucid Winery and Teneral Cellars. Learn about the Kiwanis Club at www.kiwanisclubofcarmichael.com. ★ grief after the loss of his second wife Diana.

"A lot of the experiences I share in the book were things that I actually experienced in my own life," Cox said. "I wanted it to feel real. I wanted the protagonist to feel like a real person."

The novel also grapples with religion, specifically the Buddhist faith.

"The Buddhist faith has always been something that, out of all the religions that I've encountered in my life that I've learned a little bit about, that's always had the most resonating feeling with me," Cox said.

"Just the idea of God being within you, it seems to make sense," Cox said. "If we were created by God, wouldn't the DNA of God be in each one of us? When we have that opportunity to access that divine information, we can let the information come to us freely instead of overthinking it."

While Cox himself does not identify with any particular religion, he said with the novel's setting of Tibet, as well as current global events in Russia and Ukraine, and the real-life Potala Palace in Tibet, a sacred Buddhist palace which draws thousands of visitors each year, the novel organically came together.

The first one-third of the novel was written on a personal vacation, with much of the rest of the novel unfolding for Cox over the following year like episodes of a television series.

It was important for Cox not to put himself under a time constraint or attach the amount of time the project took to his success or quality of his writing, allowing weeks or even months to pass between writing sessions. This strategy was rewarding for Cox, as he said he often felt transported into the world of the novel in those epiphany moments.

As more of the novel unfolded in Cox's mind, an exciting, head-over-heels love story began to develop when Cox realized there was a shortage of female characters in the novel. The female protagonist, Amina, represents the refugee community from Kazakhstan, sharing their culture and experience of uprooting their lives in pursuit of a better situation. She also represents falling in love again after losing a life partner and struggling with grief.

Writing a love story into the novel opened Cox up to experiencing romantic connections in his own life after going through his own personal grief journey.

"I realized I really do miss a lot of the craziness of having another person in my life," Cox said.

It was Robert's son who encouraged Cox to explore dating sites. It took just one day on the site for Cox to meet his now wife Gerianne, who had intended to quit the site that month.

Cox' approach to problem solving and conflict has played a positive role in fostering his relationships, including his marriage.

"These aren't concepts he blurts out lightly. He lives what he says and I find that admirable," Gerianne shared.

Cox hopes readers can gain from the novel healthy mindfulness, deciding which thoughts to entertain, but also recognizing that not all negative thoughts are bad.

"There's more power behind the struggle," Cox said. To me, that's what makes life so interesting."

"The Palace" by Robert Austin Cox is available on Amazon and at Barnes and Noble. ★

February Raises Awareness of Teen Dating Violence

There are steps you can take to protect yourself. Trust your instincts — if you feel you are in danger or in an unhealthy relationship, it is important to end it. Photo courtesy of Freepik

Soroptimist International of Rancho Cordova and Gold River

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Romantic relationships between teenagers are incredibly complicated. The undertaking of a relationship, very often, requires more maturity than most teens have developed. These relationships are more likely to be riddled with problems include communication, jealousy and selflessness.

As a result, teenagers are more likely to be involved in relationships that are unhealthy, violent and/or abusive. If you are a teenager involved in a romantic relationship it is important to understand the behaviors that may point to an unhealthy and/or abusive relationship.

For Parents/Guardians: Red Flags in Teenage Relationships

Unhealthy or abusive relationships can take many forms, and there is no single behavior that automatically defines a relationship as unhealthy. However, certain behaviors should raise concern. If your teen shares that they are experiencing any of the following, or if you have noticed these warning signs, it may indicate trouble in their relationship. These behaviors include excessive jealousy or insecurity, invasions of your teen's privacy, unexpected bouts of anger or rage, unusual moodiness, pressuring a partner into unwanted sexual activity, blaming your teen for problems in the relationship while avoiding personal responsibility, controlling tendencies, an explosive temper, preventing your teen from going out or communicating with others, constantly monitoring your teen's whereabouts and checking in on their activities and companions, making false accusations, vandalizing or damaging personal property, taunting or bullying and threatening or causing physical violence.

If your partner frequently engages in these behaviors, it may be wise to speak with someone with whom you feel comfortable. Adults who have experience with relationships may be able to provide advice that can help you to determine if you are in any danger.

For Teens: "If You Think You Are in an Abusive Relationship"

If your partner exhibits any of the behaviors mentioned above, or if they have physically harmed you in any way, there are steps you can take to protect yourself. Trust your instincts — if you feel you are in danger or in an unhealthy relationship, it is important to end it. If you are afraid to confront your partner or concerned about how they might react, there are many resources available for help, guidance and counseling. If you believe you are in an abusive relationship, you should consider reaching out to a trusted friend, teacher, parent, or mentor, spending more time with people you feel comfortable with, getting involved in activities you enjoy that connect you with positive influences, seeking guidance from a school counselor or therapist, or calling the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 800-799-SAFE (7233).

Studies have found that negative or abusive behaviors in unhealthy relationships are more likely to increase over time. Abuse escalates as the relationship progresses and victims are more likely to sustain substantial injuries or harm. If you believe that you may be in an abusive or unhealthy relationship do not hesitate to ask for help. Teenage dating violence is more common than you know; you are not alone.

Where Soroptimist International Stands

"Soroptimist International is committed to end all forms of violence which affect women and girls disproportionately. Gender-based violence occurs in the family and in the general community. Whatever form it takes, gender-based violence is deeply rooted in historical inequalities, power imbalances and gender-based discrimination. Gender based violence is a violation of human rights and affects the ability of women and girls to reach their full potential and participate in society."

How Soroptimist Can Help

Soroptimists feel that awareness and education are powerful tools to stop intimate partner violence in all its forms. If your teen has an abusive partner, or if you just suspect they might, we encourage you or your teen to contact WEAVE's 24-hour hotline at 916-920-2952, the Sacramento Family Justice Center at 916-875-HOPE (4673) or by calling 2-1-1 or even 9-1-1 if your teen's immediate safety is in danger. Ensuring that women and girls have the opportunity and ability to complete school and earn a livelihood plays a significant role in reducing vulnerability.

Soroptimist is an international 501(c)3 non-profit organization who seeks to improve the lives of women and girls through programs leading to social and economic empowerment. ### California Highway Patrol News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The California Highway Patrol graduated 129 cadets from Cadet Training Class IV-25 at the CHP Academy on Feb. 6, marking the start of their service as officers protecting communities across California.

"These new officers represent the future of public safety in California," said CHP Commissioner Sean Duryee. "The badge they were given is on loan from the people of this state, and every day they must earn the right to wear it through professionalism, ethical conduct and accountability to the public they serve."

During more than six months of academy training, cadets completed intensive instruction in traffic enforcement, collision investigation, defensive tactics, firearms proficiency, emergency vehicle operations and community policing. The curriculum also emphasized legal authority, ethical decision-making, effective communication and cultural awareness to prepare officers for the complex demands of modern policing.

As sworn California Highway Patrol officers, members of CTC IV-25 will serve throughout the state and may pursue specialized assignments beyond patrol, including K-9 handling, air operations, investigative services, motorcycle enforcement, public affairs and emergency response. California Highway Patrol officers routinely provide lifesaving aid at crash scenes, support evacuations during wildfires and investigate serious and complex crimes.

The graduation of CTC IV-25 underscores California Highway Patrol's commitment to developing highly trained professionals dedicated to serve with integrity, compassion and excellence. The new officers will report to their field training assignments on Feb. 16, continuing the department's mission to deliver the highest level of Safety, Service, and Security to the people of California.

Heartspace Valentine

Ladies and Gentlemen, did anyone teach you about him or her before you got into a relationship? Most likely not! But Susan Allan says we really need some tips if you are tired of imploding and exploding partners. And here's a real reality check. Most relationship pain is not caused by lack of love. So what does cause that pain?

Susan says it's the work that is the foundation of Heartspace, and boils down to a live trilogy which teaches what most of us were never taught about dating, partnership, and intimacy. She gets into it all in "Three Essential Guides of Lifelong Love." With her 25 years as a coach, I'm sure she has probably heard it all or most of it. She has taught Heartspace to thousands of people, and told me on POPPTALK that it's clear that relationships don't fail because of a lack of love. They fall apart when couples don't understand what is required...SKILLS! So she shared these Top Ten Heartspace Tips for Creating Lifelong Love.

1. Consciously Choose Your Partner. Love thrives with someone whose values and goals align with yours. Never settle for a mismatch.
2. Discuss These Heartspace 19 Domains Of A Successful Marriage And Agree On Specifics. A. Sex B. Monogamy. C. Morality D. Love E. Health F. Money G. Investments H. Appearance I. Home J. Careers K. Fun L. Family M. Meals N. Children O. Child-raising P. Lifestyle and Hobbies Q. Religion and Spirituality R. Chores S. Retirement.
3. Attraction Is Not Compatibility. Great chemistry cannot be altered. Find that someone and build compatibility that sustains love.
4. Study Your Partner's World View

And Motivate Instead Of Arguing Or Ignoring.

5. Use The Language Of Feelings And Needs Developed By Nonviolent Communication. Love grows when partners express needs instead of judgments.

6. Always Calm Yourself Before You Communicate. Brain-Breathing is the gateway to peaceful, productive conversations throughout marriage.

7. Master Your Conversation To Prevent Conflict By Transforming Conversations Into Peaceful Solutions.

8. Recommit Yourself To Mastering Marriage Daily, So It Keeps Evolving.

9. Create Intimacy On All Levels. That includes emotional safety, thrilling touch, and sacred sexuality.

10. Practice Loving Your Partner Every Day. Lifelong love means choosing empathy, honesty, and cooperation, especially during challenges.

According to Susan, When love is approached consciously, relationships don't just survive, they evolve, deepen, and become more fulfilling every day and decade, so that vow of two into one is fulfilled. I can attest to that conscious relationship. My dear Rick and I were married 53 years when he passed, but that spirit of his being with me continues to this day over two years after his passing. Love is a building process and every day a new brick is added so that that relationship I call it your construction of love. If you need more information, check out "Three Essential Guides of Lifelong Love" and discover what Susan Allan calls her Heartspace LOVE Trilogy. ★

AND ALL YEAR LONG LOVE!

Dave Ramsey

Dave Ramsey Says They Represent Security to Her

Dear Dave,

My wife and I have paid off all of our credit card debt, but she doesn't want to follow your suggestion to cut up the cards and close the accounts. She wants us to keep the cards in a safe deposit box at the bank, and use them for nothing but emergencies. I think this has something to do with the fact she grew up in a poor family. We're doing okay, but it makes me wonder if some part of her is afraid of being poor again. We both know this isn't what you recommend, but what can I do to convince her we should get rid of the credit cards once and for all?

- Geoff

Dear Geoff,

Honestly, I'm not sure I'd approach this with the idea of convincing her of something. Under the circumstances, maybe it'd be a better idea to start off by having a gentle, understanding conversation, and talking things through.

I say this because one of the things you mentioned is that she grew up poor. In my mind, this could mean that the credit cards represent security for her. But, if you had $10,000 or so set aside for emergencies, you'd have the security of knowing that a transmission repair, or a new water heater wouldn't really be an emergency—it'd be reduced to a minor inconvenience. On top of that, having an actual cash emergency fund sitting there would mean you wouldn't have to go right back into debt again when something goes wrong.

There are lots of deep emotions involved in this situation, Geoff. Let her know you understand her concerns, and that you respect and sympathize with everything she has experienced. But also explain how financial security wouldn't be disappearing by doing this. The credit cards would be replaced by your very own money. In addition, you'd also be substituting what the credit cards do with a debit card.

After this, ask her if there's a reasonable amount you two could have in the bank that would make her feel comfortable, and take away the worry and stress. Talk it out, see if you can settle on an amount, and then agree that when you've saved and hit that number, the cards get cut up and you close the account.

You'll have to be patient and understanding. Above all, you'll have to communicate and work together as a team on this. But trust me, it'll be worth it!

SacSewer Earns National Recognition

Sacramento Area Sewer District News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Sacramento Area Sewer District (SacSewer) has been awarded a 2026 National Environmental Achievement Award (NEAA) by the National Association of Clean Water Agencies (NACWA), recognizing its Septic to Sewer Projects in the Operations & Environmental Performance category. The national honor highlights SacSewer's leadership in protecting public health, improving water quality and delivering innovative infrastructure solutions that produce measurable environmental results.

SacSewer's Septic to Sewer Projects focus on replacing aging and failing septic systems with modern sewer infrastructure in environmentally sensitive and historically underserved areas. By expanding access to reliable sewer service, the projects reduce environmental risks posed by aging septic systems, improve long-term system reliability and help protect groundwater and overall water quality.

"This award reflects SacSewer's commitment to delivering reliable, affordable sewer service through operational excellence and environmental protection," said General Manager Christoph Dobson. "Our Septic to Sewer Projects demonstrate how targeted infrastructure investments can protect public health and water quality while bringing long overdue, dependable service to historically underserved and disadvantaged communities"

compliance to achieve superior environmental outcomes through innovation, efficiency and leadership. SacSewer's approach integrates strategic planning, community coordination and data-driven decision-making to address long standing challenges while strengthening system resilience.

Three NEAA Awards in Two Years

This latest recognition marks SacSewer's third National Environmental Achievement Award in two consecutive years, underscoring the agency's consistent national leadership across operations, community partnership and public education.

In 2025, SacSewer was honored for its Confluence Regional Partnership Program, a unique grant initiative that leverages non-rate revenues to support regional environmental restoration, education, rate assistance and economic vitality through collaborative partnerships. Additionally, the agency received a National Environmental Achievement Award for its Stop the Clog Campaign, a public education initiative that uses engaging content and clear calls to action to reduce sewer blockages caused by fats, oils, grease and improperly flushed items.

Collectively, these awards reflect SacSewer's holistic approach to clean water stewardship – pairing strong operations with innovative programs that engage the public, support partners and protect critical infrastructure.

For more than 50 years, the National Association of Clean Water Agencies has recognized outstanding achievements in environmental protection, sustainability and water sector innovation through its National Environmental Achievement Award program. SacSewer's continued recognition at the national level reinforces its role as a forward-thinking utility committed to safeguarding water resources today and for future generations.

*The Sacramento Area Sewer District (SacSewer) is the Sacramento region's largest sewage collection, treatment, and resource recovery utility – providing service to more than 1.6 million people. We are the second largest sewage collection utility in California, and we own and operate the second largest water resource recovery facility of its kind in the nation – the EchoWater Resource Recovery Facility located near Elk Grove. # SCOE Holds Ceremony for Fall Graduates

Achievements Demonstrate "A Foundation No One Can Take Away"

Sacramento County Office of Education News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The new year got off to an inspirational start as 145 students from Sacramento County Office of Education (SCOPE) schools and student programs received diplomas at a ceremony on Jan. 6 at the Scottish Rite Masonic Center.

In his keynote address, Pastor Timothy Raymond Jemmott of the HAWK Institute ("Pastor Tim" to students) praised the graduates for continuing to strive despite significant difficulties.

"You did not quit," he said. "Some of you came through things that no one knows about. Late nights. Early mornings. Heartbreaks. Losses. Heavy responsibilities. And still, you continued."

The pastor also commended the "village" of teachers, staff, administrators, counselors, and family members who helped students get to this moment.

"You are standing here today because a community surrounded you, they lifted you, they pushed you – and they believed that you were worth the investment."

Deputy Superintendent Nancy

Herota also congratulated the graduates for their hard work and resilience in the face of unusual obstacles. She reminded them that their future may be brighter given all they've been through, quoting American writer and civil rights activist James Baldwin: "If you know whence you came, there is really no limit to where you can go."

Among the graduates was Alicia Rositas, who earned her diploma through SCOPE's Senior Extension Program. Despite significant personal hardship, Alicia finished her coursework while welcoming her daughter, displaying resilience and perseverance to complete her studies.

Daniel Hernandez, principal of Ethel Phillips Elementary School and president of Capitol Charter, has nominated Alicia for regional recognition through Association of California School Administrators (ACSA) Region 3. She is now enrolled in college and aspires to a career in healthcare.

For Alicia and each of her fellow graduates, a diploma represents the culmination of one chapter and the promise of more successful chapters ahead.

"Today we are here to honor not just your completion," Pastor Jemmott said. "We are here to honor your continuation."

"This achievement is now a part of you, a foundation no one can take away," concluded Deputy Superintendent Herota. ★

Children's Oral Health Matters

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - Sacramento County Public Health (SCPH) remains committed to reducing preventable dental disease and expanding access to care during National Children's Dental Health Month and throughout the year.

Nearly one in four California children aged 5 to 11 have untreated tooth decay, a rate higher than the national average, and it remains the most common chronic disease among children. Tooth decay causes pain, infections, missed school days, learning setbacks and costly emergency visits.

Sacramento County has nearly 287,000 children aged 14 and under, representing more than 18 percent of the county's population. SCPH Oral Health Program data shows many children continue to face barriers to routine dental care, particularly in communities with limited access to providers.

The good news is Sacramento County Public Health offers education and service resources for families to better care for their children's oral health.

How Families Can Protect a Child's Oral Health

Brush children's teeth twice a day with fluoridated toothpaste. Daily habits reduce the risk of cavities and support long-term oral health.

Schedule a child's first dental visit by age one.

Limit sugary foods and drinks.

Use preventive treatments such as fluoride varnish and dental sealants when recommended. Fluoride varnish and sealants reduce cavity risk when used early.

Oral Health Resources for Children and Families

Sacramento County Public Health Oral Program: Call (916) 875-5869 or email oral-health@saccounty.gov to get connected to dental care and for additional resources.

Sacramento Covered: Call (916) 414-4833 or visit <https://cohevo.org/> to find a dentist or insurance. Assistance is available in many languages.

Early Smiles Sacramento: Call (916) 245-1674 or visit www.centerfororalhealth.org/early-smiles-sacramento/. The Center for Oral Health program assists with connecting underserved children with the dental care they need.

It's a true team effort to improve children's oral health in Sacramento County. It requires action from local governments, families, schools, healthcare providers and community partners.

McDaniel Named Women's Transportation Seminar Member of the Year

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The Women's Transportation Seminar (WTS) Sacramento Chapter has named Sacramento County Department of Transportation (SacDOT) Principal Planner, Mikki McDaniel, the organization's member of the year at the annual Women's Transportation Seminar Scholarship and Awards Program in Sacramento on Jan. 28.

McDaniel first joined SacDOT as an assistant civil engineer in 2019, after moving over from the Department of Regional Parks. At SacDOT, she has led the development of the Sacramento County Active Transportation Plan. The plan is a guide for county staff, public officials, residents and developers to build a balanced transportation system that supports and encourages active modes of travel.

McDaniel sees herself as a public servant whose mission is to get people where they need to go by bus, bicycle, walking and rolling. Several of her projects at SacDOT highlight her drive to improve alternative forms of transportation around unincorporated Sacramento County. They include the County's Zero Emission Bus Plan, Safe Routes to School Program, Bell Streets Safe Routes to the School, Stockton Boulevard Complete Streets and the Whitney Avenue Road Diet and Multimodal Improvements Project.

"It wasn't a natural fit – Women's Transportation Seminar (WTS) Receptions Chair, but I learned a lot from being the gatherer. We need joyful spaces to meet with our colleagues from other agencies – to learn and connect – it all translates into better projects for Sacramento County in the end," said McDaniel.

With degrees in engineering and city and regional planning, McDaniel was promoted to her current role as principal planner where she is now spearheading a unique project that will provide safer pedestrian travel and better accessibility for the elderly and members of the disability community.

McDaniel says the recognition from the Women's Transportation Seminar is a real surprise and hopes to continue assisting Women's Transportation Seminar in promoting the advancement of women in the transportation industry. ★

While this recognition is an honor and milestone for Sacramento County, the work is ongoing.

"This award is not a finish line, it's a very good sign that we're on the right path," said Defanti. "We will continue to improve, innovate and partner with our community to ensure Sacramento County remains the best place to build in the region." ★

Gymnastics Sweeps MPSF Weekly Awards

UC Davis Athletics News Release

DAVIS, CA (MPG) - For the first time this season UC Davis gymnastics has brought home Mountain Pacific Sports Federation weekly awards sweeping all three following the weekend with Amelia Moneymaker (Gymnast of the Week), Molly Osborne (Freshman of the Week) and Avah Reichow (Specialist of the Week) all bringing home the honors.

UC Davis used the top performances by the three Aggies to win its quad meet at Sacramento State on Saturday, Jan. 23, besting the Hornets, Western Michigan and UW-Whitewater at the Nest.

For the 18th time in her career, extending her school record, and 13th-straight time (school record) going back to last season Moneymaker broke the 39,000 threshold in the all-around, winning the title at Sacramento State with a mark of 39.275. Aggie all-rounder added a season-high mark of 9.825 for a second-place finish on bars to help power the Aggies to the quad meet victory.

Moneymaker was named the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) Gymnast of the Week four times in 2025, with this being her first of 2026.

Osborne played her part on beam, posting a career-high mark of 9.800 that gave her a fourth-place finish on that event. Osborne also had solid marks on vault (9.700) and bars (9.725) to add to the Aggie totals that eventually gave them the meet victory, sending stingers down.

With career highs on both beam and floor, Reichow brought home her first career Mountain Pacific Sports Federation weekly award after top finishes across three events. On floor, Reichow finished second just behind Moneymaker, posting a 9.850 to help UC Davis sweep the podium and win the overall floor event. While on vault her 9.750 gave her a fifth-place finish to go along with her 9.700 on beam.

General admission for all meets runs $13 while youth (3-13), UC Davis staff members and fans Seniors (65-plus) can get in the door for $10. Group outings (minimum of 10) can get their tickets at $10 apiece. The Athletics have agreed to terms with shortstop Jacob Wilson on a seven-year contract through the 2032 season. Photo courtesy of MLB

Athletics News Release

LAS VEGAS, NV (MPG) - The Athletics have agreed to terms with shortstop Jacob Wilson on a seven-year contract through the 2032 season with a club option for 2033, the club announced today.

Wilson batted .311 with 13 home runs, 63 RBI, .355 OBP and an .800 OPS in 125 games last season with the A's. He struck out just 39 times in 2025 and his 13.41 strikeouts per plate appearance were second fewest in MLB behind San Diego's Luis Arraez (32.14). His .311 batting average was tied second highest in MLB in 2025 behind New York-AL's Aaron Judge (.331) and tied with Toronto's Bo Bichette.

Wilson earned American League Rookie of the Month honors for the month of May after posting a .368/.437/.538 slashline with six doubles, four home runs, 16 RBI and just eight strikeouts in May. He was the runner-up for American League Rookie of the Year to teammate Nick Kurtz, marking the first time a team has had the first and second place finishers in American League Rookie of the Year Voting since the 1984 Mariners (Alvin Davis, Mark Langston).

Wilson was elected by the fans as starting shortstop for the American League in the 2025 All-Star Game and became the first rookie shortstop to be elected by the fans. He was also the second rookie shortstop to start an All-Star Game along with the Orioles Ron Hansen, who started both All-Star Games in 1960. He was the first Athletic to start an All-Star Game since Josh Donaldson at third base in 2014 and the first shortstop since Bert Campaneris made three straight starts from 1973-75.

Since debuting on July 19, 2024, Wilson is a career .301 hitter with 13 home runs, 66 RBI and a .772 OPS in 153 games in two seasons in the majors. He was the A's first round selection in the 2023 First-Year Player Draft out of Grand Canyon University.

Wilson is one of four players under contract through at least the 2028 season, when the A's are scheduled to open their new ballpark in Las Vegas. He joins Lawrence Butler, who inked a seven-year deal through the 2031 season with a club option for 2032 on Mar. 10, 2025, Brent Rooker, who signed a five-year contract through 2029 with a club option for 2030 on Jan. 23, 2025, and Tyler Soderstrom, who signed a seven-year contract through 2032 with a club option for 2033 on Dec. 29, 2025. ★
