CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Carmichael Park's summer concert season Saturday, May 23 featured a band of Outlaws & Angels from Penn Valley.

The country rock group fielded singers, percussion and pedal steel guitar. Several members have worked together for 20 years and represent more than six decades of professional performance.

Almost than 600 Carmichaelites and visitors applauded the two-hour show.

The 2026 concert series continues with June performances. There will be no public concert on the weekend of May 30.

A Symphonic Band Festival takes over on Saturday, June 6 and Sunday, June 7. Converging on Carmichael from all over Northern California, volunteer community bands will offer classical to pop selections.

On the evening of Saturday June 6, Remy7 will present a classic rock show.

All concerts are free and dancing is encouraged. Donations to sustain the series are accepted at all events. Food trucks offer refreshment.

Remaining performances are scheduled as follows with 6 p.m. start times unless otherwise stated: The Sacramento Symphonic Band Festival (June 6 from 8:30 a.m. - 3:30 pm and June 7 from 8:30 a.m. - 7:30 p.m.), Remy7 (June 6), Todd Morgan and the Emblems (June 13), Wasted Space (June 20) and Hipper than Hip (June 27).

Nearly Half of High School Students Eligible for CalKIDS Scholarships

CalKIDS News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - As high school seniors across Sacramento County make college and career decisions ahead of graduation, CalKIDS is encouraging students and families to check whether scholarship funds have already been set aside in their names.

Administered by the ScholarShare Investment Board under the California State Treasurer's Office, CalKIDS provides scholarships to eligible California public school students to help pay for college or career training including accredited colleges, universities, community colleges, trade schools and vocational programs for qualified educational expenses, including tuition and fees, books and supplies, certain room and board, and computer equipment.

"CalKIDS represents California's investment in the promise and potential of our students," said State Treasurer Fiona Ma, CPA. "These scholarships send a powerful message to families across our state: we believe in our young people, we are investing in their future, and we want every student to know that college or career training is within reach."

CalKIDS is working in partnership with the California Student Aid Commission to support more targeted outreach to eligible students. Through the WebGrants 4 Students portal, school counselors now have access to data that can identify eligible 9-12 grade students and support direct outreach.

"This innovative partnership is transforming how millions of California students access the resources that make college possible. Students can now claim their CalKIDS Account and applying for financial aid more seamlessly" said Dr. Daisy Gonzales, CSAC Executive Director.

"Having a CalKIDS Account made me feel less worried about affording college and grateful for the support," said Francisco Barragan Chavez, a CalKIDS recipient and student from the University of California, Davis.

Checking eligibility and claiming a CalKIDS Scholarship is simple and takes just a few minutes. Students only need their Statewide Student Identifier, or SSID, which can typically be found on a school report card or transcript, or by asking a school counselor. Once they have their SSID, students and families can visit CalKIDS.org to check eligibility and, if eligible, follow the steps to claim their scholarship. ★

Memorial Day Recalls Heroes

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - Fallen heroes were celebrated at the Carmichael Vietnam Monument on Monday, May 25. The 58-year community tradition continued with flags, speeches and prayers at the Earl J. Koobs Nature Area.

The preserve lies adjacent to the La Sierra Center, whose campus formerly housed La Sierra High School. Grieving 1970s students raised the monument to honor alumni killed in Vietnam War service. It is considered the first Vietnam memorial to be dedicated in California - and among the earliest in the nation.

More than 100 supporters - including Gold Star families, Kiwanis Club members and Boy Scouts - gathered for the service.

The speaker was Pat Carter, a US Army veteran and La Sierra High School graduate. Carter recalled friendships with several students named on the monument plaque and his feelings of guilt at surviving the war while they fell.

"Many of us have problems," he told fellow veterans. "Please pick up the phone and call the VA. They have people who will help. The biggest enemy we have is our pride. When we were [in Vietnam], we couldn't cry. Now we can. Ask your wives - they know we sleep better in our beds if we can cry."

At least 15 graduates of Carmichael's La Sierra High School perished in Vietnam War service. As bell chimes rang, their names were announced by veterans Doug Lindsey and Phil Germond, "It's an honor to say their names," said Lindsey. "As long as someone does this, they'll live forever. And that's what we're doing."

Carmichael rock artist Todd Morgan led the crowd in singing Woody Guthrie's 'This Land is Your Land.' A solo trumpet rendition of Taps by law enforcement chaplain Mike Koons closed the ceremony.

Heroes commemorated are: Robert D. Anderson, Mark W. Burchard, Robert S. Bynes, Jerry Cowser, Kenneth R. Escott, Gary R. Field, Herbert Frenzell, Frank Thornburg, Ralph Guarienti, Larry H. Morford, Thomas C. Pigg, Randall B. Rainville, Kim Richins, Jeffrey Tharaldson and Robert A. Willis.

The Earl J. Koobs Nature area and Vietnam Monument are located at 5325 Engle Road, Carmichael. ★

Girl Scouts Earn Highest Honors

By Omella Rossi

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG)

Before they earned medals, scholarships and standing ovations, many of the Girl Scouts recognized Saturday, May 16, at the Girl Scouts Heart of Central California Highest Awards Ceremony started their award-winning community projects with a simple question: How can I help?

By the end the answers had taken shape as STEM programs for children, deaf awareness curriculums, debate workshops and community initiatives designed to last long after the applause faded.

Girl Scouts Heart of Central California honored 167 girls during its annual Highest Awards Ceremony at Hiram Johnson High School Auditorium, recognizing recipients of the Girl Scout Gold Award, Silver Award and the council's Rose Award for projects tackling issues ranging from STEM accessibility and mental health to environmental sustainability and racial justice.

"This ceremony is a powerful reminder of why Girl Scouts matter," said Girl Scouts Heart of Central California Chief Executive Officer Linda E. Farley. "These girls didn't just complete projects, they identified real challenges in their communities and created meaningful, lasting solutions."

The morning began with a Gold Award Poster Symposium, where attendees explored presentations highlighting projects created by Award recipients. This year's honorees included 36 Gold Award recipients, 83 Silver Award recipients and 48 Rose Award recipients.

The Girl Scout Gold Award, the organization's highest honor, requires at least 80 hours of research, planning and leadership focused on creating sustainable community change.

Among those recognized was Sofia Contreras, who partnered with St. John's women's shelter to create a STEM curriculum for children staying at the facility.

"STEM has always been a really big part of my life," Contreras said. "I wanted those kids to know that it's a place for them too."

Contreras designed hands-on lessons and experiments intended to continue long after her involvement ended, leaving behind supplies and curriculum materials for future use. She said the experience taught her confidence and leadership skills she plans to carry into college and a future career in STEM.

Another Gold Award recipient developed a deaf awareness curriculum for the El Dorado Union High School District focused on communication, culture and respect for the deaf community.

"I think raising awareness is important because many students don't know about deaf culture," the Girl Scout said. "This gives them the opportunity to learn how to respect deaf individuals."

awareness program for elementary and middle school students in the Sacramento area after realizing many younger students viewed debate as intimidating. "It's really a great way to practice your public speaking," Yee said. "I wanted to break people's stereotypes of what debate looks like."

Working with local educators, libraries and the Sacramento Urban Debate League, Yee developed curriculum materials and hosted a summer debate program that will continue beyond her involvement.

Nora Latif focused her project on increasing representation in STEM by creating a library program highlighting women of color working in science, technology, engineering and math fields.

"For me and a lot of my friends, we didn't always see people like ourselves represented when people talked about women in STEM," Latif said.

Throughout the ceremony, mentors and family members joined recipients on stage during a pinning ceremony celebrating not only the girls' achievements, but also the support systems behind them.

Madison Kosh said the projects reflect the organization's mission of helping girls discover their voice and leadership potential.

"They're learning how to build relationships within their communities, solve problems and create lasting change," Kosh said. "Those are life skills they'll carry with them forever."

In addition to the awards, Girl Scouts Heart of Central California also recognized scholarship recipients for continued leadership and academic achievement, including Contreras, Yee and Isabella Passerini. ★

All You Need is Pets

The Spirit of Fallen Hero Shines On at Animal Care Faire

Story and photos by Chris Ching

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - "It's the biggest event we've ever had!"

Those words belonged to a delighted Brittani Peterson as the Bradshaw Animal Shelter's Public Information Officer surveyed the hub of activity generated by the fourth Annual Roy C. Marcum Animal Care Faire.

Held Saturday, May 16 from 11 a.m. - 3 p.m. the four-hour event on the expansive shelter grounds featured animal-centric vendors, free adoptions, dog yoga, pet training demos, food truck and more for attendees to enjoy.

Designed as a celebration of community, protecting animals and supporting pet owners, the Faire honors the memory of a man who Peterson said loved nothing more - the event's namesake Roy C. Marcum, an Animal Control Officer, who in 2012 was shot and killed in the line of duty.

The Bradshaw Animal Shelter, where Marcum worked, is Sacramento's main shelter for lost and homeless animals and one of the largest in Northern California. It serves the public reuniting pets with owners, offering adoptions, responding to reports of animal cruelty and providing healthcare and licensing. Proceeds from the Faire through the sponsorships and vendor donations help these services continue.

The Faire focused primarily on dogs and cats, but the shelter itself deals with practically all animals including horses, goats, pigs, snakes, rabbits, pigeons and more. "We see it all," said Peterson.

She roughly estimated attendance at well over a 1,000. Parking itself was at a premium with attendees having to utilize overflow lots which left many having to trek some distance to the event. Shelter employees and volunteers worked together to ensure the Faire ran as smoothly as possible.

Sentire K9 certified pet trainers Jill Andrews and Allie Young with team dog Fetch gave lives demos at the Animal Care Faire.

Faire attendee Leia Gardner embraces one of the Dog Yoga adoptable shelter animals.

The majority of Faire activity took place inside the large bark park, named also after Marcum, where the enthusiastic 100 plus vendors offered apparel, food, accessories and other pet goods. A highland cow petting zoo charmed both young and old as did Sacramento River Cats mascot Dinger. As many attendees brought along their own dogs, the bark park saw plenty of playful interactions between people and dogs.

At a pug rescue booth, attendee Kris Smith found herself smitten by a pack of the popular small breed. "I want to bring them all home with me," laughed Smith.

Also within the bark park, certified professional trainers from Sentire K9 demonstrated their training methods. Trainer Jill Patterson and her dog Fetch captivated the audience with a detection drill where the black lab found alcohol amongst four possible hiding places. Sentire K9 founder and trainer Allie Young, partnered with bernedoodle Georgie, followed with a series of informative training drills showcasing the important bond between owner and pet necessary for effective training.

"We had so many great questions during our demonstrations, and we enjoyed sharing what dogs are capable of doing," said Young.

During the yoga sessions, downward dog poses were met with literal downward dogs as adoptable shelter animals led by volunteer handlers warmly interacted with participants. The practice of yoga was made even more relaxing than usual due to the inquisitive, love-seeking dogs, and participants happily found it difficult to hold poses under the onslaught of canine kisses and cuddles.

"I love giving back to my community which is what yoga is all about" said Wood-Miller, a Rancho Cordova resident well known for her yoga practice and animal volunteer work.

Over at the shelter's main building just past the food truck area, animal adoptions were offered free resulting in a higher number of the public than usual going home with a new pet. Peterson said they had 34 adoptions whereas a typical weekend day usually sees only around 20.

In the days after the event, Peterson said the Bradshaw Animal Shelter is looking to add attractions to the Faire next time such as "a live band, more entertainment and continue to make it bigger and better year after year."

Peterson also noted the strong positive response to this year's event and in particular the review of a special group of attendees - the family of Roy C. Markum.

"They were really excited about this last one. They said it is exactly what they envisioned for Roy."

Symphonic Fest Returns June 6-7

The Community Band Festival returns to Carmichael Park next month with scores of volunteers playing in 19 ensembles.

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - The annual Community Band Festival will return to Carmichael Park on June 6 and 7.

For nearly three decades, the tradition has united hundreds of musicians in a brass and woodwind blow-out. June's first weekend offers non-stop band concerts, convened by the Sacramento Valley Symphonic Band Association.

Roseville, Carmichael, Citrus Heights and Rancho Cordova musicians will horn in. Music will be further swelled by Solano, Yolo, Amador and Bay Area players.

An anchor for the event, the Sacramento Symphonic Winds is scheduled for 11:30 am, June 7. The ensemble has played every festival since the tradition began. The 2026 event is dedicated to its founder, band director Les Lehr, who died in April.

Another highlight is a performance by the Sounds of Freedom military concert band, at 4:30 pm, Sunday.

Festival participants range from teens to

Senior Fair Offers Health, Help and Fun

By MPG Staff

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - The 12th annual Senior Health and Resource Fair will return Saturday, June 20, at the Wyndham Sacramento Northeast Hotel, offering older adults and caregivers access to health information, community services and live entertainment.

The free event will run from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 5321 Date Ave., near Highway 80 and Madison Avenue. Admission and parking are free.

Attendees will have an opportunity to connect with organizations and businesses focused on senior health, financial planning, disability resources and aging services. Information on Medicare, Medicaid and Social Security will be available, along with tips on avoiding scams that commonly target older adults.

Walgreens representatives are expected to provide convenient vaccinations during the event. Additional exhibitors will offer information on hearing services, mobility assistance, no-cost telephones for seniors and other support programs.

Live entertainment will include performances by the Spare Parts Band, featuring classic rock, blues and country music, and Elvis tribute artist Johnny Reno, who will perform songs made famous by Elvis Presley.

Organizers said the event is designed to help seniors and their families learn about available resources while enjoying a day of entertainment and community connection.

The initial Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is currently 6.75% for a new Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC), and is fixed for the first 5 years of the loan which is called the draw period. After the initial 5 year period, the APR can change once based on the value of an Index and Margin. The Index is the weekly average yield on U.S. Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of 10 years and the margin is 3.50%. The current APR for repayment period is 8.0%. The maximum APR that can apply any time during your HELOC is 15%. A qualifying transaction consists of the following conditions: (1) the initial APR assumes a maximum HELOC of $200,000, and a total maximum Loan-to-Value (LTV) of 70% including the new HELOC and any existing 1st Deed of Trust loan on your residence; (2) your residence securing the HELOC must be a single-family home that you occupy as your primary residence; (3) if the 1st Deed of Trust loan is with a lender other than El Dorado Savings Bank, that loan may not exceed $300,000, have a total maximum Loan to Value (LTV) of 65% and may not be a revolving line of credit. Additional property restrictions and requirements apply. All loans are subject to a current appraisal or property evaluation, which typically range from $100 to $1,000. This cost will be disclosed in your commitment letter and paid at loan closing. Property insurance is required and flood insurance may be required. Rates, APR, terms and conditions are subject to change without notice. Other conditions apply. A $525 early closure fee will be assessed if the line of credit is closed within three years from the date of opening. An annual fee of $85 will be assessed on the first anniversary of the HELOC and annually thereafter during the draw period. Ask for a copy of our "Fixed Rate Home Equity Line of Credit Disclosure Notice" for additional important information. Other HELOC loans are available under different terms.

Gran Dia for Little School

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG) - When Christian Tonatiuh González Jiménez recently visited Nature's Lab School in Carmichael, pupils got their first taste of international diplomacy.

They might not have expected the Mexican Consul General for Sacramento to talk about movies or to crouch kid-level to relace a student's tiny shoe. But that's what this spritely Consul General did.

"It was the first time he'd visited a school as a diplomat," noted Nature's Lab founder Silvia Anderson. "The children absolutely adored him. They're too young to understand what a Consul General is, but they knew he was important - and he was really nice to them."

"The families loved how he talked about important topics, in a child-friendly way. Our school's core values are community, kindness, respect, understanding and curiosity - and we teach the importance of being bilingual. The Consul General connected all these values so well. He shared why his job supported relationships with neighboring countries."

The school's 33 pupils accessorized for the visit with flag hats. The visitor greeted everyone with "Hola, como estas? I am Christian."

He then sat on a stage floor, facing the curiosity of little people in little chairs.

Children: "What is your favorite color?"

Consul: "It's blue."

Children: "What is the best part of your job?"

Consul: "I get to meet so many great people - like you!"

A former United Nations

representative for Mexico, Consul General González exhibited seasoned diplomacy. "The most interesting thing about people is their diversity," he told students. "It doesn't matter if a child wears a red dress, or another prefers a green tee-shirt. You are all beautiful. It's important to be kind and respectful, and to help others."

The Consul General admired home-made Mexican flags but said he also loved America's Stars and Stripes "Mexico and America are great Amigos," he said. "We are neighbors and friends. We work together."

Nature's Lab was chosen as a consular destination because campus founder Silvia Anderson is a Mexican Columbian American. Staffers share Latin roots and lessons are in English and Spanish. Consul General González gave this policy his thumbs-up. "Being bi-lingual is going to be so important to your careers," he predicted. "I am still working on my English - maybe you can help me improve it?"

Consul General González's stopover coincided with Mexico's Dia del Maestro (Teacher Appreciation Day). He presented certificates of recognition and hugs to nine educators. "We love our teachers," enthused the dignitary.

Scheduled for 30 minutes, his stopover stretched to more than an hour. After lemonade and many more hugs, the visitor bid adios to dozens of new friends.

"An experience like this can shape children's and community interests," considered school founder Silvia Anderson. "Our students, their families and the teachers were honored to have our values recognized in such a meaningful way, by such a fine visitor."

Board Votes to Sit Two on Homelessness Task Force

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - At its May 19 meeting, the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors appointed two supervisors to an ad hoc Planning Task Force that will formally advance a new regional homelessness governance structure after months of collaboration with partners in the community, presentations and briefings that ultimately aligned the County, the City of Sacramento and the region's Continuum of Care (CoC) around a single framework.

The action marks a significant turning point in a long-running debate over how homelessness policy should be organized in the region given there is no mandate from the state or federal government.

For more than two years, Sacramento County, city governments and Sacramento Steps Forward, the nonprofit organization that administers the CoC, have been discussing how to better coordinate responses to homelessness amid rising unhoused populations, increasingly complicated and reduced funding streams and mounting pressure from state leaders for regional cooperation. In July 2025, Senator Ashby introduced legislation, SB 802, to formally create a mandated Joint Powers Authority (JPA) that attempts to require the County and its incorporated cities to pool funding and spending authority into a separate entity.

On Dec. 9, 2025, the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors approved the staff recommendation for a new homeless partnership model intended to create a more unified regional governance structure, while maintaining local control of critical land use and budgetary decisions for locally generated funding. The proposal creates a single governing board that would serve dual roles: acting as the federally required CoC Board while also functioning as an advisory body to local jurisdictions on homelessness issues outside the scope of the CoC, including shelter operations, encampment response, housing coordination and related policy matters.

County leaders propose the structure would improve regional coordination, strengthen accountability and position Sacramento County and its cities more competitively for state and federal homelessness funding opportunities.

After a significant amount of shared staff work to more closely align what the Board of Supervisors approved to what the city council requested, the Sacramento City Council ultimately adopted a governance framework closely aligned with the County's original recommended structure rather than pursuing a separate JPA structure. Shortly afterward, the CoC Board also agreed to participate in the framework. With the County, City of Sacramento and CoC now aligned around the same governance model as well as support from other cities in the County throughout this process, the region can move forward with meaningful discussions of next steps.

Next steps include amending the CoC bylaws and determining the size and distribution of seats on the future governing board. That process will be handled by a newly created Planning Task Force.

Under the proposed structure, the task force will include two representatives from the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors, two representatives from the Sacramento City Council, one representative from each of the County's other incorporated city councils, and one or two representatives from the CoC Board. The Board of Supervisors' action Tuesday specifically focused on appointing the County's two representatives to participate in the task force.

The Board voted to seat Supervisors Patrick Kennedy and Rich Desmond to the task force – both whom currently sit on the existing CoC Board. Once the bylaws are developed for the new Governing Body, the Board of Supervisors will appoint permanent members to that body. Existing staff from the Department of Homeless Services and Housing will provide administrative and policy support for the planning process as participating jurisdictions work through the details of the new governance model.

Once implemented, the newly created structure will represent one of the most significant reorganizations of homelessness governance in Sacramento County in recent years. Supporters are hopeful the unified framework will create a more coordinated regional response by consolidating leadership, aligning policy priorities across jurisdictions and incorporating both elected officials and community stakeholders into a single collaborative structure focused on addressing homelessness across the County.

5 Over 50 Award Winners Named

Sacramento County News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Whether it's raising money for families in need, helping travelers navigate the airport, or building new homes, there are dozens of ways volunteers in Sacramento County make a difference in our community.

This year, Sacramento County's Adult and Aging Commission is celebrating five compassionate individuals who, instead of slowing down as they aged, decided to get involved and make a difference where they live. To celebrate these individuals, the commission is awarding them with the 2026 5 Over 50 Award. To win, each volunteer must be over the age of 50 and must be nominated by at least two people who see the standout work they are doing.

Thank you to this year's winners.

The winner representing district one is Antonia Lopez. When Antonia's mom was diagnosed with Alzheimer's Disease, she decided to educate herself about the illness and find ways to help older adults. She learned about the Hart Senior Center and began taking her mother. Antonia herself soon became a volunteer at the Hart Center, helping develop programs and activities for Spanish-speaking older adults.

Antonia stays busy finding ways to help and educate others. She has spent more than 15 years advancing the health, independence and quality of life of older adults in Sacramento County, coordinating quarterly health education programs in partnership with the UC Davis Alzheimer's Research Center and the POINTER Study, while also reducing barriers to care through screenings, adaptive equipment, and Paratransit passes for 24 members.

Antonia says she's especially

grateful to the Hart Center and UC Davis for the compassion they show for seniors like herself.

"I do it as a service for others, but really, it's a service for me. It keeps me able to do the kind of things that I can do to contribute," Antonia said of her volunteer work.

The winner representing district two is Shirley Fong. Shirley has been one of Habitat for Humanity of Greater Sacramento's most passionate volunteers - contributing nearly 5,000 hours in support of affordable homeownership, housing stability and community revitalization.

Shirley remembers seeing Jimmy Carter commercials about volunteering for Habitat for Humanity. She'd never done home renovation projects, but that didn't stop her. She's now learned more about landscaping and painting and even installed flooring in new homes.

"I like working with the homeowners; they're really fun and interesting, and we get to know each other pretty well," said Shirley.

Lately, Shirley is helping families in Citrus Heights build new homes, but she has helped construct homes all across the County.

The winner in district three is Jodi Sato-King. Jodi led the effort to help create a more accessible space at Sailor Bar while protecting the nature that calls the American River home.

Through her collaboration with Regional Parks staff and Supervisor Rich Desmond, Friends of Sailor Bar raised more than $30,000 to install 19 accessible benches and tables, mobilized volunteers to restore vegetation at the Turtle Pond, and partnered with state and regional agencies to remove a rock dam to improve salmon migration. Jodi is especially grateful to the parks staff and Parks Department Director Liz Bellas for collaborating with Friends of Sailor Bar to create a more welcoming space for community members to enjoy.

"When we come together and we use our skills and our passion, to be able to enrich this community – especially at Sailor Bar – by making it more accessible and educating people to respect and enjoy nature, that is so rewarding," said Jodi.

Jodi says the friends she's made through her volunteer work keep her going and make her feel connected to the community. Jodi continues to collaborate with Sacramento County's Parks Department and hopes to find ways to keep improving our parks through the partnership with the department.

Ed Valencia is the winner for district four. Ed, a lifelong Rio Linda resident, has dedicated more than four decades to community service, beginning in the 1970's when he joined the Lions Club of Rio Linda. He has since served in numerous leadership roles—including President and Secretary—while leading long-standing projects such as Ruby's Baskets Christmas Program to support families in need.

Ed believes in pouring love back into the community he grew up in. All the money raised by the Lions Club of Rio Linda helps residents in Rio Linda.

"Any money we raise in the community, has to go back into the community so we try to help out however we can," said Ed.

In district five, Dave King took home the award. Dave, has served as a dedicated Sacramento International Airport (SMF) Ambassador since 2017, becoming a standout veteran volunteer known for his calm personality, reliability and exceptional ability to welcome and assist travelers at both Terminal A and Terminal B. Since becoming an ambassador, Dave has encouraged several people he knows to join the program.

"It looked like it would be fun [to be an SMF Ambassador] and it has turned out to be a whole lot of fun. My friends who come and join enjoy it for the same reason I do – because it's a positive environment," said Dave.

Dave finds other ways to give back outside of helping travelers. He also regularly donates blood. Dave says he enjoys helping others now that's he retired because it's a rewarding way to use his time.

Sacramento County's 5 Over 50 Volunteer Award winners represent the importance of staying active, finding your passion and helping others. Each winner helps make Sacramento County a great place to live.

The winners also remind us that we can all work together to make a difference in our community. You don't have to be over the age of 50 or retired to give back – learn how you can get involved and volunteer in a variety of ways at sccounty.gov.

Drivers Encouraged to Embrace Safe Driving This Summer

AAA Mountain West Group News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Memorial Day marks the beginning of the summer driving season, a time when teens gain more independence behind the wheel, families hit the road for vacations and celebrations bring more drivers onto the nation's roadways. To encourage safer choices during this high-travel period, AAA is urging drivers to commit to "100 Days of Safe Driving" between Memorial Day and Labor Day.

This message comes at a critical time as an AAA review of national crash data shows that more than 30% of fatal crashes involving teen drivers and nearly one-third of all impaired-driving fatalities occur between Memorial Day and Labor Day. By making smart choices behind the wheel, drivers can help make summer roads safer for everyone.

In 2024 alone, the most recent year of complete crash data, 2,636 people were killed in crashes involving a teen driver. One-third of those deaths, 825, happened in the 100 days between Memorial Day and Labor Day.

"The '100 Days of Safe Driving' campaign is about encouraging drivers to make simple choices behind the wheel that can help save lives," said Doug Johnson, spokesperson for AAA Mountain West Group. "By staying focused, slowing down, wearing your seatbelt, and making plans for a safe ride home, every driver can ensure all road users make it home safe this summer."

AAA encourages teens to use the summer months as an opportunity to build safe driving habits through the following actions:

Limiting distractions. Put away cellphones, keep your eyes on the road, limit the number of passengers in your vehicle.

Obey posted speed limits. Speeding is the leading factor in fatal teen crashes during the summer.

Wear Your Seatbelt. Ensure you and your passengers are fastened before driving.

Never drive impaired or drowsy. Alcohol, illegal and prescription substances seriously impair someone's ability to drive. Drowsy driving is nearly as dangerous as driving under the influence.

Slow down, move over. With a record number of travelers on the road this holiday weekend, AAA reminds drivers to put safety first, Slow Down Move Over for all stopped vehicles on the roadside.

Parents also play an important role by setting expectations early and modeling safe behavior behind the wheel.

Take advantage of AAA Driver Training Resources for essential tools teen drivers need to safely prepare for navigating the road.

Summer celebrations and travel can also increase the risk of impaired driving. According to AAA crash data analysis, nearly one in three summertime traffic deaths involves an impaired driver. AAA, in partnership with Mothers Against Drunk Driving, reminds everyone to arrange a safe ride home before going out. ★

Kings Korner

Consider the Talent

Well Kings fans, the playoff world of basketball goes on whether the Sacramento Kings are a part of the conversation or not. The vast majority of the supposed basketball experts have been predicting an OKC repeat and with Shai Gilgeous-Alexander recently garnishing the MVP award for last season, I imagine most people believe the same thing.

As it turns out, the San Antonio Spurs may have something to say about that outcome, as their series is knotted at two-games apiece, and in the last contest they held the potent offensive of OKC to an amazing 82 points for the game.

A stifling defense swarmed the Thunder for 48 minutes and never allowed the defending champions a chance to ever make this game a contest.

But given the overwhelming prediction that OKC would virtually boat race any and all competition to the finish, how did this happen.

Obviously, 7-foot-4 Victor Wembanyama hasn't been listening to ESPN or reading the papers, because he is completely unaware that the Spurs were supposed to be nothing but be a good tune up for the championship series.

Wembanyama has given the Thunder plenty to be concerned about, and at this juncture this seven-game series could go either way.

The New York Knicks have the east coast on fire with enthusiasm as going back to the regular season they have won 16 of their last 20 games, and a surprising eight games in a row in the playoffs.

A shut down defense simply took Cleveland out of their recent series and put an exclamation mark on a 130-93 thrashing of the Cavaliers to complete a 4-0 series sweep.

Experts have been emphatically saying that teams with small guards are a thing of the past and should not be considered a serious threat to the longer teams like the Thunder others that count on expansive wing spans to shut down opposing threats.

Apparently that news never got to Jalen Brunson who generously listed at six-foot-two has been a one-man wrecking crew and virtually unstoppable since the playoffs began.

Two things should be of great interest to Sacramento Kings fans that are waiting patiently for the 2026 draft to begin.

Number one, the dominance of the population heavy cities such as Los Angeles, San Francisco and others has finally come into question, as San Antonio, Oklahoma City, Memphis, Indianapolis and others have given rise to the notion that smaller cities can compete and bring championships to their cities as well.

Number two, as stated teams with a smaller back court are not precluded from championship contention, and both of these truisms should make Sacramento Kings fans sit up and take notice.

The outcome of this year's championship series may play a part in which direction the Sacramento Kings go, and who they decide to draft.

I have long been a proponent of building this team around Domantas Sabonis, and I haven't changed my mind. Take stock in what you already have on a team laden with talent and make the necessary tweaks without putting a team together that no one recognizes.

The city of Sacramento is about to find out the true identity of GM Scott Perry, and whether he has the ability to recognize talent when he sees it.

Too many years have passed that left quality players undrafted or simply went to other teams because the Kings passed them by. This needs to stop and I can think of no better time than right now.

Whether the New York Knicks face San Antonio or the Oklahoma City Thunder, the Sacramento fan base will have an opportunity to see how a team with a smaller back court can stand the test of a bigger and longer one.

There is considerable interest in this off season for the Kings, and I've heard virtually every opinion imaginable from fans that have followed the Kings for years.

This fan base has passion, and now they need the front office to demonstrate the ability to draft and make trades that will fill Golden One Arena every night.

Every reason for optimism, so renew those season tickets Kings fans and let's keep the support high!

All the best! ★

Education is Vital and Costs California Billions, So Why Aren't Candidates Talking About It?

By Dan Walters, CALMatters.org

The single largest item in Gov. Gavin Newsom's recently proposed budget — and arguably its most important — is the $91 billion (plus $60 billion in local and federal funds) it would spend to educate the state's nearly 6 million students, from transitional kindergarten through high school.

How well they are educated, prepared for higher education or the job market, will be a big factor determining whether California's economy, and thus its socio-economic whole, succeeds or fails.

Not surprisingly, given the amounts spent on education and its importance, it ranks very high in the Capitol's annual give-and-take over the budget. That's certainly true this year, as Newsom's last budget shorts the state constitution's mandatory allocation for schools by a few billion dollars, with a promise to make it up later, which drew opposition from school officials throughout the state.

Education perennially ranks very high in surveys of voters' priorities. The school lobbies, including the very powerful California Teachers Association, will use that as they press the Legislature to raise their share of the revenue stream. With the high stakes of education financing and its place in Californians' hopes for a prosperous future, one might think that those who aspire to succeed Newsom would happily volunteer their intentions.

That would be especially helpful given that Newsom, as a parting gesture, wants to all but eliminate the elective office of state superintendent of public instruction and vest nearly all education oversight in the governor's office.

If that rearrangement of duties is enacted, the next governor would be a virtual czar of the nation's largest public education system.

However, the silence about this among the leading candidates for governor is deafening. They are more than happy to exchange personal insults during debates and in campaign ads, and to hold forth on such issues as gas prices, housing and homelessness. But they leave a vacuum when it comes to how, or if, they would change the school system.

Only one candidate, San Jose Mayor Matt Mahan, repeatedly brings up this issue during debates, noting that he is a former teacher. The other candidates' blackout is compounded by the eagerness of debate mediators to interrogate the candidates on other issues while failing to bring up education.

A new study by Stanford University's Educational Opportunity Project verifies other data indicating that California's public schools are falling well short of the academic achievement needed for the state's future.

The study catalogued 2025 reading and math test scores throughout the nation and found that, almost everywhere, achievement is lower than it was 10 years earlier — reading is down in 83% of local school systems and math is lower in 70%.

Most disturbingly, not only is California not immune from the trend but it is one of the states with the greatest declines. Only eight states and the District of Columbia experienced deeper declines in reading than California.

The New York Times, in reporting on the study, created a website that allows readers to find out specific results in individual school systems.

It reveals, for instance, that while Los Angeles Unified, the nation's second largest system, showed fractional gains in reading and math, Oakland Unified experienced declines in both and San Diego fell in reading and gained in math.

After years, even decades, of ignoring its deficiencies in those foundational skills, California has lately done something that it should have done long ago — embracing phonics in teaching reading. Also, legislation to diagnose and treat deficiencies in math is moving in the Capitol.

The next governor needs to build on those and other efforts to restore California's public schools to their former glory. The people vying for that job should tell us if and how they intend to do what's necessary.

Dan Walters is one of the most decorated and widely syndicated columnists in California history, authoring a column four times a week that offers his view and analysis of the state's political, economic, social and demographic trends. ★

Social Security Matters Help! SSA Says I'm Not Eligible for Benefits

By Russell Gloor, AMAC Certified Social Security Advisor

Dear Rusty: Help!! The Social Security Administration says I didn't pay enough into my Social Security account, despite being a business owner and paying taxes. What can I do? Signed: Self-employed American

Dear Self-employed: For all potential SS beneficiaries, it is very important to know how Social Security determines if you are eligible for retirement benefits: Everyone (including the self-employed) must have earned at least 40 "quarter credits" contributing to the SS program, which is usually about 10 years' worth of earnings.

You can earn up to four "quarter credits" per year, depending on your earnings, including your net earnings from self-employment. For example, this year (2026) you will get one "quarter credit" for each $1,890 of earnings, up to four credits maximum for the year. As a self-employed business owner, only your net earnings are counted (e.g., after all your reported business deductions are taken). The SSA gets your earnings information from the IRS, so SSA goes by whatever information you submitted in the self-employment income tax returns you submitted to the IRS over the years. If you don't have at least 40 "quarter credits" over your lifetime, you won't be eligible for Social Security retirement benefits.

The best way to further investigate this is to create your personal "my Social Security" online account at www.ssa.gov/myaccount. When you have done that, you will be able to see how many quarter credits you currently have (apparently less than 40) and determine how much more you must earn to be eligible for SS retirement benefits. For example, if you have 36 or more credits now, you could likely work just another year, or part of a year, to be eligible for SS benefits next year. Knowing how many "credits" you now have will tell you how much more in annual net earnings from self-employment you must have to become eligible for SS benefits.

When you create your online SS account, you will also be able to see your entire lifetime record of your earnings reported to Social Security, and you should review that record to make sure that your lifetime earnings have been correctly reported to Social Security. If there are any discrepancies in your lifetime earnings record, they can be corrected by using form SSA-7008. You can find additional guidance on this at the following SSA web link: www.ssa.gov/pubs/EN-05-10081.pdf

Our Screen Culture Increasingly Can't Read

ten how to teach them. We decided to jettison a common-sensical, tried-and-true method of reading instruction -- phonics -- for faddish theories that haven't worked. It is notable that states showing improvement between 2022-2025 embraced phonics, which now goes under the rubric "the science of reading."

It also can't be a coincidence that these harrowing trends are playing out against the backdrop of ubiquitous screens in schools. Schools are starting to ban mobile phones, but the screen that they take away with one hand, they give with the other. According to a New York Times survey, 80% of teachers say that students at their schools have a device assigned to them; it was only a third in 2019. More than 80% said that kids get devices ... by kindergarten.

It would have been comparable recklessness if schools had decided at the outset of the television age that every schoolchild needed a personal TV. Parents struggle to get their kids off devices at home, and then send them to school, where they read "To Kill a Mockingbird" on an iPad.

Now, books haven't disappeared from classrooms, but they aren't nearly as prevalent as they should be. A new study by the Rand Corporation found that most English teachers assigned at least one full book during the school year, although 9% didn't assign any, and roughly two-thirds assigned between only one to four.

Engaging with a whole book in print is so important because not all reading is equal. One analysis found that "digital reading does improve comprehension skills, but the beneficial effect is between six and seven times smaller than that of print reading." So, too, reading a book is better than reading a series of extended passages; it requires more attention and greater immersion.

As education expert Robert Pondiscio of the American Enterprise Institute points out, it's a mistake to think of reading as solely a technical skill, since reading comprehension also depends on what the great educational theorist E.D. Hirsch called "cultural literacy," the basic facts about history, civics, art and the like that form our common knowledge. To our great detriment, schools have downgraded this, too.

The worst-case scenario is that we have become a screen culture that is only capable of producing screen kids. A report last year in the journal iScience found that reading for pleasure steadily declined from 2003 to 2023. On top of evidence that reading also fell from the 1940s to 2003, this makes for an 80-year decline.

The poet and essayist Joseph Brodsky said, "There are worse crimes than burning books. One of them is not reading them." And not being capable of reading them is even worse than that.

Advertising Works!

NOTICE TO READERS

California law requires that contractors taking jobs that total $500 or more (labor and/or materials) be licensed by the Contractors State License Board. State law also requires that contractors include their license numbers on all advertising. Check your contractor's status at www.cslb.ca.gov or 800-321-CSLB (2752). Unlicensed persons taking jobs that total less than $500 must state in their advertisements that they are not licensed by the Contractors State License Board.

DISCLAIMER

Be wary of out of area companies. Check with the local Better Business Bureau before you send any money for fees or services. Read and understand any contracts before you sign. Shop around for rates.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF SUSAN ANN RICKARD CASE NO. 26PPR001182

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, and contingent creditors of and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both, of Susan Ann Rickard.
A Petition for Probate has been filed by Duane Rickard, in the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, requesting Duane Rickard be appointed as personal representative(s) to administer the estate of the decedent.
The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the executor to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the executor will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or have consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.
A hearing on the petition will be held in this court as follows June 16, 2026, 9:00 a.m. in Dept 129; Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, William R. Ridgeway Family Relations Courthouse, 3341 Power Inn Road, Sacramento, CA 95826.
IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.
IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.
YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Delta Counties Coalition Responds to Newsom's Remarks at Association of California Water Agencies Conference

Delta Counties Coalition News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - The Delta Counties Coalition issued the following statement in response to remarks made May 7 by Gavin Newsom at the Association of California Water Agencies conference:

"Governor Newsom offered a sweeping reflection on California's water history during his tenure in office, but in doing so, he largely glossed over the very real and immediate concerns of the communities that would be most impacted by the Delta Tunnel Conveyance Project.

For those who live, work and depend on the Delta for local water supplies, this is not an abstract policy debate or a continuation of past proposals — it is about the future of our homes, our farms and one of the most important estuaries in the country. Local governments, residents and environmental experts have consistently pointed out the project's unacceptable impacts on communities, water quality, ecosystems and the regional economy — and these concerns remain unresolved.

While the Governor points to "breaking through" on the tunnel by reducing it to one rather than two, the reality is that all of the significant problems remain, including no source of funding for the $20 billion-plus project, nor avoidance of the environmental harm, and a low probability of delivering the benefits being promised. Recent state actions have acknowledged these gaps by requiring additional review of key issues before the project proceeds. More importantly, the California Supreme Court recently denied review of an appellate court decision rejecting the State's attempt to finance the proposed Delta Tunnel project.

Delta Counties Coalition

"Working together on water and Delta issues"

Perhaps most concerning is the continued focus on a single, decades-old conveyance proposal, rather than investing in a broader portfolio of solutions that would capture, store and create new water supplies for California. Regional water self-reliance, storage, recycling and groundwater recharge, coupled with continued maintenance of our Delta levee system to guard against floods and seismic activity, offer more sustainable and less disruptive paths forward.

California can meet its water challenges without sacrificing the Delta and the communities that depend on it. We urge the Administration to work collaboratively with local leaders to pursue solutions that are more balanced, more resilient, and more reflective of today's water realities — not continue to promote a divisive tunnel proposal that could negatively impact many Californians." ★

Sacramento's Own Lawsuit Machine Shows Why SB 84 Can't Wait

By Victor Gomez and Sen. Roger Niello

If you want to understand why California's Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) lawsuit crisis has gone on so long without a fix, look no further than your own backyard. For years, one of the state's most prolific serial lawsuit filers operated his litigation empire out of a home office right here in Carmichael.

Scott Johnson, a quadriplegic attorney who eventually pleaded guilty to federal tax evasion, filed thousands of ADA lawsuits across the state — naming himself as the plaintiff and collecting over $1.3 million in 2013 lawsuit settlements alone.

Johnson's targeting of Fair Oaks Boulevard and the Sacramento corridor became so aggressive that a local Carmichael attorney felt compelled to issue a public warning to businesses in the area.

Johnson is a known name now, but the business model he pioneered is still being utilized daily in Carmichael the Sacramento region and across the state.

Serial ADA litigation has morphed from a few nefarious actors focused on lawsuit profiteering to what has now become a multi-million-dollar litigation mechanism in California. Sacramento-area small businesses remain prime targets.

California small businesses have no recourse

Senator Roger Niello

when it comes to battling ADA suits. That's why Senator Roger Niello's Senate Bill 84 is our best answer and is long overdue.

Senate Bill 84 will give small businesses 120 days to fix the problem after receiving notice before a lawsuit can proceed. If the business fails to act, full legal recourse remains available. The only thing SB 84 eliminates is the financial incentive to sue before a business has a chance to comply.

Recently, it was reported that a single plaintiff has filed 47 lawsuits against Sacramento businesses in three years. These lawsuits targeted restaurants, local cafes, and neighborhood shops for minor technical violations that could have been fixed and resolved quickly had anyone simply notified the owners of these issues. The pattern is always the same: file first, notify never, settle for thousands.

California filed the most ADA lawsuits in the country for the second consecutive year in 2025 — with cases targeting bathroom mirrors hung ¼ inch too high, wrongly shaped handicap signs, and websites image descriptions. The average ADA settlement runs $14,000, and litigation costs can reach into the hundreds of thousands.

This is a tax on every neighborhood in California. The Perryman Group's economic analysis for Citizens Against Lawsuit Abuse found that lawsuit abuse costs every Californian $2,567 per year through higher prices and reduced wages and contributes to the loss of more than 850,000 jobs statewide. When a family restaurant in Carmichael our neighborhood settles a shakedown suit for $12,000 rather than risk $100,000 in legal fees, that money doesn't come back. And many times, the restaurant doesn't either.

ADA lawsuit reform legislation, like SB 84, is not about limiting protections for individuals with disabilities. SB 84 is a bill that would ensure the law works as intended for all Californians. SB 84 would give businesses a chance to come into compliance while preserving full legal recourse for those who need accessibility standards in place.

In 2025, SB 84 cleared the Senate floor with a resounding 34-2 vote. This outcome is a very rare display of lawmakers on both sides of the aisle coming together to work towards a solution. However, the bill sits idle, waiting for a hearing to be scheduled in the Assembly Judiciary Committee. In a state that ranked dead last in Chief Executive Magazine's Best and Worst States for Business 2025, that's not neutrality. It is a choice to protect a broken system that only benefits plaintiffs' lawyers.

Californians are not the only Americans plagued with the pitfalls of lawsuit abuse. Others across the country are faced with the same ADA abuse challenges. Missouri is another prime example, like California, of bearing the brunt of this legal abuse. The main difference between our state and the Show-Me state: Missouri lawmakers just took action. The House recently voted unanimously to pass their own ADA reform bill and send it to the governor's desk for signature. Missouri lawmakers are working to protect their constituents from lawsuit abuse while preserving meaningful disability access. We need to make sure we're doing the same in California.

Carmichael Sacramento-area small business owners and Sacramento families pay the hidden costs of lawsuit abuse on every receipt. We are asking the Assembly Judiciary Committee to hear this bill and asking our neighbors to make that demand heard.

The ADA was written to open doors. It's time to stop letting trial lawyers use it to close them. ★

Solaita Selected to Play for American Samoa National Volleyball Team

Sacramento State Athletics News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Sophomore outside hitter Keonahi'ilani Solaita has been selected to play for the American Samoa National Volleyball Team.

Solaita and the ASA National Team will compete in the South Pacific Games Qualifiers in Guam from Aug. 3-9. Should the team qualify, participation will continue at the 2027 South Pacific Games in Tahiti in the summer of 2027. In preparation for the international tournament, the team will train this June and July.

Solaita competed with the ASA National Team in July of 2025, where she helped the team win gold at the Pacific Mini Games in Palau. She was a six-rotation outside hitter for the team at every match during the tournament.

Last season with the Hornets, Solaita was named the Big Sky

Conference Freshman of the Year, becoming just the fourth Sacramento State player in the program's 30-year history in the league to earn the honor. A six-rotation outside hitter, the Hesperia, Calif., native started each of the final 23 matches of the season.

She averaged 2.06 kills, 1.81 digs and 2.46 points per set. In conference play, she lifted those numbers to 2.44 kills, 2.12 digs and 2.88 points per set. Solaita registered double figures in kills on eight occasions, including 14 in a Big Sky Tournament quarterfinal win over Portland State.

Solaita played a major role in Sacramento State finishing last season with a 20-10 overall record and 12-4 in league play. The team opens the 2026 season Aug. 28-30 when it competes at a three-day tournament hosted by Pepperdine in Malibu, Calif.

Solaita is one of three Hornets to play for an American Samoa National Team. She joins Lafulafu Malepeai (softball) and alum Ali Fuamatu-Ma'afala (soccer). ★

Connors Named 10th Best Returning Lineback

UC Davis Athletics News Release

DAVIS, CA (MPG) - Hero Sports has named UC Davis football linebacker Porter Connors the 10th-best returning linebacker among this year's batch in the Football Championship Subdivision, placing one of the best defenders in the nation squarely in the middle of a deep and talented Aggie defensive unit.

Already a three-time preseason All-American, Connors' 2025 campaign was cut short by injury after just four games, but in that short stretch he recorded 25 tackles (15 solo), two tackles for loss and the Aggie linebacker recovered one fumble. Against Utah Tech he made 10 total tackles, in what would be the first official game of the season, and he made eight tackles in the Aggie win over Southern Utah.

2024 acted as a breakout year for Connors, finishing that season with 86 total tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss, one sack, three interceptions, four passes defended, one fumble recovery and a defensive touchdown. Over his career Connors has amassed 163 total tackles, he's snagged five interceptions, made 11.5 tackles for loss and he has recovered three fumbles.

UC Davis opens 2026 fall camp on July 29 and will kick off the 2026 season on

Aug. 29 in a Big Sky showdown at Portland State. The Aggies will open UC Davis Health Stadium on Sept. 19 when Stetson makes the cross-country trip to Davis.

Baseball Trio Lands on WAC Postseason Honor Roll

Sacramento State Athletics News Release

SACRAMENTO REGION, CA (MPG) - Sacramento State senior right-hander Ethan Lay and junior outfielder Erick Dessens were named to the first team while freshman outfielder Sam Harry picked up second-team honors on May 19 as the Western Athletic Conference released its 2026 postseason honor roll according to a vote of the league's head coaches prior to first pitch of this year's league tournament.

All three players were honored by the WAC coaches for the first time in their respective careers.

The first-team awards for both Lay and Dessens gave the Hornets multiple first-team honorees for the second straight season (they had four in 2025) and the 11th time since 2012. Meanwhile, Harry becomes the first Sacramento State freshman to make the all-league team since both JP Smith and Wehiwa Aloy — who was also the WAC Freshman of the Year — in 2023.

Harry also becomes only the 10th Hornet freshman to earn all-league honors since 2006, joining first-teamers Chris Lewis (2013 Freshman of the Year), Sutter McLoughlin (2013), Parker McLums (2017), JP Smith (2023), and second-teamers Jesse Darrah (2009), Rhys Hoskins (2012 Freshman of the Year), Sam Long (2014 Freshman of the Year), Keith Torres (2018) and Aloy.

Lay enters the WAC Tournament with a 4-3 record and a 3.57 ERA in 14 starts this season having struck out 85 batters in 80.2 innings while walking only 13 and holding opponents to a .255 average. One of 43 semifinalists for the College Baseball Foundation's National Pitcher of the Year award and a two-time WAC Pitcher of the Week in 2026, Lay leads the league in innings pitched and fewest walks allowed while standing second in strikeouts and fourth in both ERA and average against.

Nationally, he also ranks No. 16 in the country in strikeout-to-walk ratio (6.54) and fewest walks per nine (1.45), while standing among the top 100 pitchers in the nation in strikeouts (No. 79) and WHIP (No. 97).

Dessens helped power the Hornet offense during the regular season to the tune of a .362 average and a .991 OPS, scoring 48 runs scored, collecting 16 doubles, and slugging 10 home runs while driving in 60. The WAC Player of the Week on April 6, Dessens has racked up 84 hits — which are two shy of breaking into the school's single-season top 10 and ranks No. 9 in the NCAA — and stands among the league's top 10 in seven different offensive categories.

His RBI total for the year has him in a tie for 10th with three other Hornet greats on the school's single-season list while his 16 doubles are three back and his 25 multi-hit games are one shy of a spot in those respective top 10's.

Harry enters the postseason ranked third on the team with a .326 average, slugging .487 on the year with a .408 on-base percentage as Sacramento State's lead-off threat atop the order. He has scored a team-high 52 runs, collected a team-high 17 doubles as part of his 73 hits this year, and driven in 34. His 52 runs are four shy of a seven-way tie for 10th on the school's single-season chart, while his 17 doubles are two back of a spot in the top 10.

He ranks among the top 10 in the WAC in doubles, hits and runs scored, entering the conference tournament on an eight-game hitting streak, batting .361 with nine runs scored, four doubles, and six RBI in that stretch. ★

Hawks Rugby Wins Norcal Title

Carmichael Rugby Football Club's Varsity Team Finishes Second at National Championship

By Mike Powers

CARMICHAEL, CA (MPG)

- Having already been invited to participate in the Boys High School Rugby National Championships, the Carmichael Hawks Varsity Rugby team had something to prove at the Rugby Norcal Gold championship. The Hawks capped their undefeated regular Norcal season with an impressive 27-12 win over rival East Palo Alto on May 9 at Stanford's Stueber Rugby Field.

Led by their quick attacks, the Hawks set the pace midway through the first half. A long run by Devin Pointes initiated a series of perfect passes, which led to a five point try by Payton Templeton.

Before the game the Carmichael Times spoke with Templeton about his love for the sport.

"It's just a very quick game. You've always got to be looking, you know, always got to be focused. That's what I like about it."

Carmichael's quick-paced teamwork continued in the second half with Rupeni Rukuvau's try capping a strong drive to put the game out of reach 22-7. East Palo Alto added a late try, but it wouldn't be enough. The Hawks lifted the Gold Cup as a team and proved that their place at Nationals was no fluke.

Ten days after winning Norcal, the Hawks soared to the Midwest to compete in the Boys HS Rugby National Championships in Elkhart, Indiana for the first time in Club history. Carmichael was placed in Tier II and given the 8th seed out of eight teams. Once again, the Hawks felt like they had something to prove.

"We took (the eighth seed) with a little disrespect and a desire to go and show them that they got it wrong," said Head Coach Sam Enochian. "It definitely was extra motivation."

The Hawks first matchup on Thursday, May 21 was against the top seeded team from Fort Hunt, Virginia. The Hawks raced out to an early lead with steady, athletic play. A powerful run and try from Ronan Curry gave Carmichael a 22-0 lead late in the first half.

In the second half Carmichael focus shifted to defense, slowing down the pace of the Fort Hunt attack. Sam Enochian, Jr., capped a long, plodding drive with a try to make it 29-5, and the Hawks never looked back. The Hawks won 36-12.

Game two on Friday saw the Hawks face off against the fourth-seeded Raptors from Williamson County, Tennessee. Once again Carmichael got off to a good start, sprinting to a 24-10 lead at halftime.

Carmichael's Joeli Karavaki opened the second half scoring with an impressive run and try, extending the Hawks' lead. The Raptors responded with three unanswered scores to cut the lead to 31-22 and momentarily stole the momentum of the game. However, Carmichael's long, grinding possession deep in Raptor territory late in the half eventually sealed the win, and earned the Hawks a place in the finals.

The Championship game on Saturday, May 23 pitted the Hawks against the sixth-seed Charlotte Tigers.

The match was a hard-fought grind from the opening kick. The Tigers kept the Hawks' speed in check, but Carmichael still led at the half 12-8 behind scores by Ronan Curry and Cash Lazard.

The Hawks came out strong after halftime. A full-team effort ended with an Isaac Gomez try, but a missed conversion kept the game close, 17-8. Charlotte's strong defense then took over, stifled Carmichael's high-flying offence and forced the Hawks into too many penalties and missed opportunities. Charlotte took advantage, scored two tries down the stretch and held on for an 18-17 Championship win.

Despite the loss, Coach Enochian remained positive. "I am extremely proud of our boys," he said. "We started the season with the goal of just making Nationals, so we were able to check that box. Although the final outcome of the final game was hard, we always talk about how rugby teaches resilience; you get knocked down and have to get back up. The boys are already talking about returning to Indiana next season and coming home with the trophy."

Big goals will require filling some big holes.

"Next season will need to be a big reload for us," said Coach Enochian. "We are losing several seniors that will be hard to replace; but we also return a core class of juniors that now have championship experience. With the success of our 2026 campaign, we are hoping to add new faces to the club and to continue developing the boys that are already committed."

The Carmichael Rugby Football Club practices and plays home games at Rio Americano High School. The club welcomes boys and girls of all ages to give rugby a try. For more information visit: <https://carmichael-rugby.com/>. ★
