A New Farm with Familiar Roots

WHEATLAND, CA (MPG) - “Remember your dream.” Those were the three simple words Sandy Bishop scrawled onto a note accompanying a collection of flower seeds for her granddaughter-in-law, Alanna Bishop. It was Christmas 2023, and Alanna’s dream of opening her own U-pick flower farm still seemed a long way off. But Sandy knew a thing or two about turning farming dreams into reality.

More than 50 years earlier, she and her husband, Bill Bishop, had started a modest pumpkin farm in Wheatland that would eventually grow into one of Northern California’s most recognizable fall destinations: Bishop’s Pumpkin Farm. Now, another generation of Bishops is starting to bloom. In June, Sandy’s grandson, Joe Bishop, and his wife, Alanna, welcomed their first visitors to Bishop & Company Farm, a small U-pick flower and pumpkin operation on approximately 4 acres of leased land in Wheatland. Despite the familiar name and family ties, the new venture is entirely separate from Bishop’s Pumpkin Farm, now operated by Joe’s uncle, Wayne Bishop, and other family members. But the similarities between the two farms’ humble beginnings are difficult to ignore.

“(Sandy) swears they started just the way we did. Without two pennies to rub together and a dream,” Alanna said. “Turns out, you’ll need some grit too.”

For Joe, farming has been a life-long pursuit. He spent years growing hay and other crops alongside his father under the Bishop & Sons name, even using his hay earnings to purchase Alanna’s wedding ring.

“I look at my ring daily and know the sacrifice that it took to give me

Marysville Council Approves Repairs, Reviews Chinatown Plans

By Shaunna Boyd

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) - The Marysville City Council unanimously approved a $647,710 contract for downtown road repairs during its Oct. 20 meeting. The council also received an update on plans to improve and enhance the city’s historic Chinatown district.

The council awarded the pavement rehabilitation contract to All-American Construction Inc. for streets near the post office, courthouse and City Hall, as well as areas west of D Street.

Public Works Director Jeremy Chapdelaine said the contract includes a 10% contingency of $64,771. Design, construction management and inspection costs are estimated at $58,683, bringing the total project cost to approximately $771,165.

Funding includes $600,000 through Senate Bill 1, the Road Repair and Accountability Act, and $174,000 from Yuba County.

In other business, the council received an update on the development of a Marysville Chinatown blueprint intended to guide future improvements and cultural enhancements to the area.

The planning project is funded by a $350,000 Engage, Empower, Implement grant awarded to the Marysville Chinese community by the Sacramento Area Council of Governments.

During recent stakeholder meetings, residents and business owners identified the general boundaries of Chinatown as extending from Third and B streets to beyond First Street.

Participants discussed ways to recognize Marysville’s Chinese history through improvements to landscaping, public spaces, streets and transportation infrastructure.

Proposed features include lanterns suspended over streets, bilingual street signs, Chinese architectural elements in future developments and an arch or gateway marking the entrance to Chinatown.

Potential improvements to Plaza Park include additional benches, a water feature for children and families, and

Sikh Festival Brings Extra Treats to Halloween Weekend

By MPG Staff

YUBA CITY, CA (MPG) - The Halloween weekend promises an extra helping of treats this year as Yuba City’s annual Sikh Festival and Parade returns Oct. 30 through Nov. 1.

After filling their candy buckets on Halloween night, local trick-or-treaters can continue indulging their appetites Sunday, Nov. 1, when thousands of visitors gather for a celebration known for its generosity and abundance of free food. Traditional Indian dishes, freshly brewed chai, savory snacks, sweets and candy are among the offerings visitors can expect along the parade route, all provided free of charge by volunteers and members of the Sikh community.

The three-day celebration, centered at the Sikh Temple Gurdwara, 2468 Tierra Buena Road, culminates in the annual Nagar Kirtan, a 4.5-mile religious procession through Yuba

City that attracts visitors from across the country and around the world. First held in 1980, the parade has grown into one of the largest Sikh gatherings outside India, with annual attendance estimated at 100,000 to 200,000 people.

Although the abundance of food has become one of the festival’s most anticipated attractions, the tradition carries a deeper meaning rooted in Sikh teachings. Known as langar, the practice of serving free meals to everyone, regardless of faith or background, reflects the Sikh principles of equality, generosity and selfless service.

Visitors can expect colorful floats, devotional music, traditional clothing and a lively atmosphere throughout the weekend. At the heart of the procession is the Sri Guru Granth Sahib, the sacred scripture and eternal Guru of the Sikh faith, carried aboard a decorated float.

something so precious,” Alanna said.

Those years on the hay farm sparked an idea. Alanna wanted others to experience the same connection to agriculture that she had discovered.

“I would tell Joe, if only we could bring people out here. People have to experience the farm,” she recalled.

But purchasing their own farmland proved financially out of reach. After selling their first home in Lincoln in 2023, the couple hoped the proceeds might be enough to purchase a farm. Instead, they discovered that realizing their dream would require a different approach. Not surprisingly, it was Sandy’s advice that helped set their plans in motion.

“Just start, the pieces fall into place once you get going,” Sandy told them.

Alanna started creating floral arrangements for weddings and holidays before expanding into pumpkin porch decorations. She started planting flowers in her yard, eventually expanding to rows of flowers and pumpkins at her in-laws’ property.

“We learned you do not need a lot of land to produce a lot of flowers!” she said.

Eventually, the couple secured approximately 4 acres of leased land along Forty Mile Road in Wheatland. In June, they opened their gates or, as Alanna jokingly described it, their driveway, to the public.

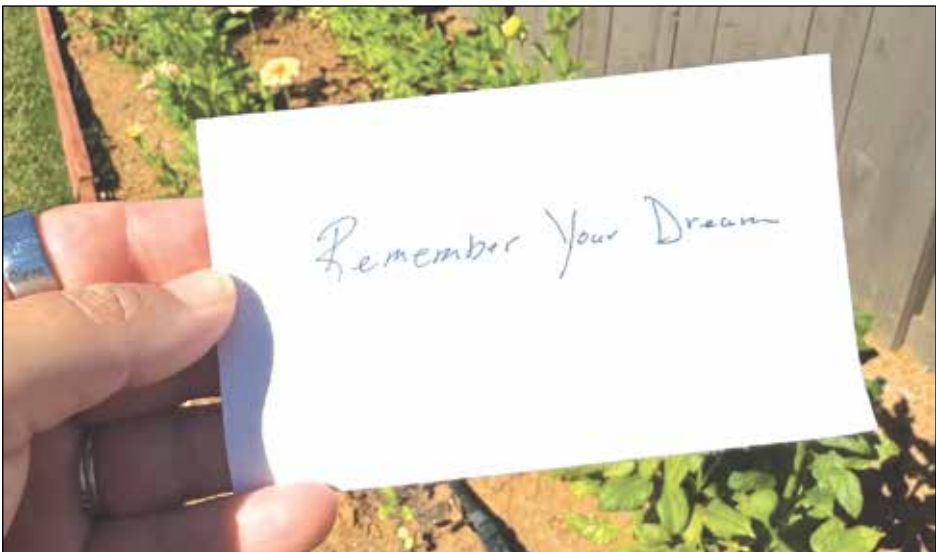

“It feels like we are doing exactly what we are supposed to be doing,” Alanna said. “I knew the farm was healing from back in our hay days. I am so beyond grateful that we have the opportunity to share our farm.”

While the original Bishop’s Pumpkin Farm has grown into a sprawling attraction with train rides, hayrides, a bakery and other seasonal entertainment, Bishop & Company Farm offers a smaller, more intimate experience centered around the fields themselves.

Visitors can pick flowers including dahlias, zinnias, sunflowers, cosmos, marigolds and chrysanthemums. The farm also offers seasonal vegetables, melons, pumpkins and decorative porch arrangements.

For younger visitors, the couple introduced “Little Farmers” workshops for children ages 3 to 7, encouraging families to spend time outdoors while learning about agriculture. The response has exceeded Alanna’s expectations, with many first-time visitors becoming repeat customers.

“We know times are hard; flowers and pumpkins are a luxury when gas is $7 a gallon,” she said. “It is not lost on us the sacrifice people make to support us and that means a lot.”

Like most farming ventures, the Bishops’ inaugural season has not been without challenges. Persistent winds and unpredictable weather tested the couple’s patience, prompting plans to improve their planting schedules and pest management practices next year.

Meanwhile, both Joe and Alanna continue working full-time jobs while personally tending the fields and welcoming guests. Their young son has also become part of the endeavor, learning firsthand about customer service, dedication and the work required to run a family business.

“I look at my husband often and think geez we either are building something that one day will benefit our family substantially or we are completely wasting our time and resources,” Alanna said, laughing at the uncertainty.

Still, she said she would rather risk failure than never pursue the dream at all. With their inaugural season coming to a close, the couple is already planning for the future. They recently purchased 50 peony roots, which will take approximately three years to reach harvest, and invested in additional dahlia tubers in response to customer requests. Plans for next season also include expanded flower selections, designated photography areas and monthly Little Farmers workshops.

As they look ahead, Alanna hopes their small farm can someday establish a legacy of its own, much like the one Sandy and Bill began more than five decades ago.

“We hope to contribute just as positively to our community and maybe we too will have 54 harvests one day.”

Bishop & Company Farm is located at 1234 Forty Mile Road in Wheatland. The farm’s inaugural season concludes Saturday, Oct. 31, with U-pick hours from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. For more information, visit <http://bishopcofarm.com>. ★

Shakespeare Meets the Beatles in Marysville

By MPG Staff

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) - Marysville Charter Academy for the Arts will bring a 1960s twist to William Shakespeare’s romantic comedy “Twelfth Night,” featuring live Beatles music performed by students during five performances in November.

The academy’s drama department will present the production Nov. 5, 6, 12, 13 and 14 at 7 p.m. on the outdoor stage behind the school. Proceeds from ticket sales will support the department’s theater program and its efforts to secure a permanent performance facility.

Drama teacher and arts director Matthew DeMeritt will direct the production, with MCAA senior Nicole Podolskaya serving as assistant director.

The adaptation moves Shakespeare’s comedy into the 1960s, incorporating the music and cultural influences of the era. A student singing ensemble, The Bards, will perform Beatles songs throughout the production, including “Lucy in the Sky with Diamonds,” “She Loves You” and “All You Need Is Love.”

The story follows Viola, a young woman who survives a shipwreck and disguises herself as a man while navigating an unfamiliar land. Her disguise leads to a complicated love triangle involving a duke and a countess, creating a series of mistaken identities, romantic misunderstandings and comedic situations.

Students will participate in acting, musical performances, technical production and design. Podolskaya’s role as assistant director also provides an opportunity for student leadership behind the scenes.

The performances will serve as a fundraiser for the drama department, which has operated without a dedicated indoor theater for approximately a decade.

Despite the lack of a permanent performance space, the department has continued producing theatrical performances while providing students with opportunities to develop skills in acting, stage production and technical theater.

The school hopes to establish a permanent performance facility to support its theater program and provide additional opportunities for students.

Marysville Charter Academy for the Arts serves students in grades seven through 12 within the Marysville Joint Unified School District.

General admission tickets cost $10. Admission for students, seniors, military personnel and children costs $6. Tickets are available online at <https://gofan.co/app/school/CA87468>.

All performances will take place outdoors. Organizers recommend that audience members dress warmly and bring blankets for the November evening performances. ★

Art & Oysters Returns Nov. 14

By MPG Staff

YUBA CITY, CA (MPG) - Yuba Sutter Arts & Culture and the Yuba Sutter Rotary Night Club will host their annual Art & Oysters fundraiser Saturday, Nov. 14, to support development of the 299-seat Main Stage at the Sutter Theater Center for the Arts.

The event begins at 6 p.m. at the theater, 754 Plumas St. in Yuba City. Tickets cost $75 per person, with proceeds benefiting the Main Stage project.

The planned expansion will provide additional space for student performances, theatrical productions, concerts and other cultural events. Organizers say the project will also create more opportunities for young performers and expand arts programming in the Yuba-Sutter region.

The fundraiser will feature an oyster dinner, live music, an artists’ showcase and a live auction.

Guests can choose from freshly shucked oysters on the half shell, barbecued oysters and Rockefeller-style preparations. Admission includes all-you-can-eat oysters, chicken and side dishes. A no-host bar will also be available.

THORKAT, a cover band performing music from the 1970s through today, will provide entertainment throughout the evening.

The artists’ showcase and live auction will feature works by local artists, including oyster-inspired creations.

Yuba Sutter Arts & Culture, a nonprofit organization serving Yuba and Sutter counties, provides arts education, programming and support for artists and cultural organizations. The organization has served as the region’s California Arts Council affiliate for 45 years.

Organizers encourage advance reservations because seating is limited.

Tickets are available at yubasutterarts.org or through the Sutter Theater box office. For more information, call 530-742-2787. ★

Yuba County Library Prepares to Return Home

By Shamaya Sutton

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) - After nearly two years at the Yuba County Government Center, the Yuba County Library is preparing to return to its renovated home at 303 Second St. in Marysville. The library announced that Friday, Oct. 30, will be its final day of service at the temporary location, 915 Eighth St., concluding with a trick-or-treat event.

The library has operated out of the Government

Center since Nov. 5, 2024, while its original building has undergone its first major renovation since opening in the 1970s. The project includes expanded children’s and teen areas, additional study and meeting spaces, accessibility improvements, updated technology, new furnishings and upgraded safety systems.

Library officials said the temporary closure will allow staff to move materials, install computers and workstations and prepare the renovated facility for the public. However, a reopening date has not yet been determined.

“We won’t be able to say until after we start putting the library back together,” library representatives told the Territorial Dispatch in an Oct. 21 email. “As soon as we have a firm reopening date, we will share it with the community.”

Additional updates will be available through the Yuba County Library. ★

Sikh Festival Brings Extra Treats to Halloween Weekend

Three Days of Celebration

Festivities begin Friday, Oct. 30, at 8 p.m. with Kirtan Darbar, featuring hymns from the Guru Granth Sahib, followed by a fireworks display.

On Halloween, Saturday, Oct. 31, the raising of the Nishan Sahib, the Sikh religious flag, takes place at 9 a.m., followed by devotional singing. An open house and tour of the gurdwara grounds begins at 10 a.m., offering visitors an opportunity to learn more about Sikh traditions and the temple. Evening services continue with Rain Sabae Kirtan, scheduled from 6 p.m. to midnight.

The celebration culminates Sunday, Nov. 1, with the Nagar Kirtan beginning at 10 a.m.

The procession follows a 4.5-mile route beginning at the temple, traveling along Tierra Buena Road, Butte House Road, Civic Center Boulevard, Poole Boulevard and Tharp Road before returning to the temple.

The festival and its food offerings are free and open to everyone.

Road Closures and Parking

With thousands of visitors expected throughout the weekend, local officials are preparing extensive traffic restrictions and parking arrangements.

Road closures begin Friday, Oct. 30, from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. and continue Saturday, Oct. 31, from 6 a.m. to 11 p.m., affecting residential streets near the temple, including portions of Hooper Road, True Road, Pepperwood Drive, Delle Drive and Redding Avenue. Southbound Tierra Buena Road will also be restricted from 5 p.m. to midnight on both days.

On Sunday, Nov. 1, some parade-related road closures will begin as early as 7 a.m., with True Road closing around 9:30 a.m.

Many closures are expected to remain in effect until approximately 6 p.m., depending on when the procession ends and streets can safely reopen.

Parking will be available at several designated locations, including 658 El Margarita Road, River Valley High School’s west lot, Redding Avenue and areas near True and Tierra Buena roads.

Officials caution that vehicles parked in the Redding Avenue parking lot Sunday will not be permitted to leave until the parade has concluded. Residents in neighborhoods affected by the road closures are encouraged to obtain resident access passes from the Yuba City Police Department, 1545 Poole Blvd., during regular business hours before Friday, Oct. 30.

Attendees are encouraged to allow extra travel time, follow posted signage and instructions from law enforcement, and familiarize themselves with designated parking areas before arriving.

Detailed road closure maps, parking instructions and safety information are available through Sutter County’s official Sikh Parade information page at <http://BePreparedSutter.org/SikhParade>. ★

Yuba City Postmaster Receives Patriot Award

By Lloyd Green Jr.

YUBA CITY, CA (MPG) -

Yuba City Postmaster Claire Stanley received the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve Patriot Award for her commitment to supporting employees who serve in the National Guard and Reserve.

The award recognizes civilian supervisors who accommodate military obligations, support service members and their families and help employees balance their military and civilian careers.

Jessica Escobar, a Yuba City postal retail associate and recently retired Air Force veteran, nominated Stanley for the award citing her leadership, understanding and willingness to support employees beyond their daily responsibilities.

“The reason I nominated Claire is for exceeding any expectations I have ever had personally for a supervisor, leader or boss,” Escobar said. “I have had a wide range of supervisors. Even in the military, I never met a leader like [Claire]. She is the type of person you would like to be.”

Stanley became Yuba City’s postmaster in October 2024, bringing more than three decades of Postal Service experience to the position.

She began her postal career in 1993 as a letter sorting machine clerk and continued working as a clerk until 2018, when she became an administrative assistant for the Postal Service’s California 2 District.

Since taking charge of the Yuba City office, Stanley has focused on listening to employees, addressing workplace concerns and providing support when personal or professional obligations arise.

For employees with military commitments, that support includes accommodating training schedules, extended assignments and the transition back to civilian employment.

Escobar, who served more than 20 years in the Air Force and Air National Guard, credited Stanley with helping her meet those obligations without unnecessary workplace difficulties.

During the California wildfires in 2025, Escobar received military orders to assist with the response. She said Stanley supported her assignment and helped ensure her return to postal duties went smoothly.

Stanley’s understanding of military service comes in part from her family.

Her father, James Lujan, and late brother-in-law, Sonny San Nicolas, both served in the Air Force. Growing up in a military family gave Stanley an understanding of the responsibilities military personnel carry and the importance of employer support.

“I knew what it meant,”

Stanley said. “When you are in the service, you need to be able to leave and it is important to have that support.”

The Patriot Award is part of the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve recognition program, which honors civilian employers and supervisors who support National Guard and Reserve members.

The program recognizes measures such as flexible scheduling, military leave, time off before and after deployments and assistance to military families.

Escobar submitted Stanley’s nomination in December 2025 and learned in March that her postmaster had been selected for the honor. She kept it a surprise until Sept. 13, when she arrived at the Yuba City Post Office in her Air Force uniform and presented Stanley with a framed certificate and pin.

“I was shocked and very humbled to receive such an award,” Stanley said.

Beyond accommodating military obligations, Escobar said Stanley takes time to recognize employees’ accomplishments, encourage teamwork and provide personal support when employees face difficulties.

She described Stanley as a supervisor who regularly checks on employees, listens to their concerns and encourages them to take pride in their work.

“She is just a genuine, kindhearted, one-of-a-kind leader,” Escobar said. ★

This Month In Your Garden

by Jeff Rice

BALD MOUNTAIN NURSERY

6195 BALD MOUNTAIN ROAD • BROWNS VALLEY, CA • 530-743-4856

Fall is the best season of the year. Fall color. Cool days. Rain starting off and on. Perfect time of year for gardening. Super El Nino is the forecast for this winter so it looks like we should have a good rain year. That’s what they keep saying.

Regardless of all the predictions, fall is the best time of the year for planting trees and shrubs. The cool fall weather and the soon to be moist soil are perfect for planting. Fall plantings get established over the cooler fall and winter months and then are ready to take off and grow next spring. They will be well established before their first summer and will out perform their spring planted counterparts their first summer in the ground. Do your fall planting now.

Dormant spraying of fruit trees will need to be done three times starting in late November. Use a combination of Copper and Horticultural Oil, or Copper and Neem oil for the spraying. Three easy dates to remember for the spraying, are Thanksgiving or late fall, Christmas or late December, and Valentine’s Day or mid February. Referring to the holidays makes the timing a bit easier to remember. The November spraying usually has to wait a little later because the leaves need to be off the tree. Dormant spraying is done to prevent some fungal infestations that are prevalent at that time of the year. If all the leaves have not fallen off the trees, they can probably be knocked off, or blown off, although some varieties hang on to leaves pretty late into the year. Any debris that might have collected under the trees should be cleared away. Do the spraying on a day that is dry – no rain or thick fog to dilute the spray. Be sure to have at least 24 hours after spraying before any rain or heavy fog is forecast. Spray them as thoroughly as possible, including the cleaned up soil at the base of the trees. Sometimes it is a little harder to find a good day due to the winter weather, but for sure there will be enough breaks in the weather to get it done. It is important to get three sprayings done through the winter or dormant season, or you will end up with leaf curl on your peaches and nectarines. It will also help to prevent other disease and pest problems on your fruit trees. Citrus are not included in the dormant spraying routine.

If you made basins around the base of the trees to provide deep soaking of irrigation water during the hot summer, cut an opening on a side of the basin as soon as we start getting rain. That will allow the rain water to drain, preventing a slow draining puddle that remains and could possibly cause root rot should we have a very wet winter.

Consider where you needed a shade tree last summer. Now is the best time of year to plant trees. And if you are looking for fall color, trees in the nursery will soon be in color so it is nice to see the color you will get in the fall on the tree you choose. The best time to plant a tree was twenty years ago. The next best time to plant a tree is in the fall.

Now is also a good time to plant wildflower and poppy seeds for blooms next spring as well.

Weather pattern is changing to fall like weather. It’s the best time of the year for planting.

Enjoy the cooler weather.

New Homes Face Higher Fire Fees

By Susan Meeker

MARYSVILLE, CA (MPG) -

Building a home in the Loma Rica/Browns Valley area will cost more following an Oct. 13 vote by the Yuba County Board of Supervisors.

The board approved new fire impact fees of $1.84 per square foot for single-family residences, replacing rates of 99 cents for houses without sprinklers and 49 cents for those equipped with them. Multifamily dwellings will be charged $2.87 per square foot.

Yuba County Chief Building Official Dave Maddux said the district’s previous assessments were based on a 2008 study that classified structures according to their use and whether they had fire sprinklers.

“The purpose of the fire impact fee ensures new development contributes to the facilities and equipment necessary to accommodate the additional demand,”

Maddux said.

The revised schedule also establishes charges of $1.66 per square foot for commercial construction and $1.57 for agricultural and industrial buildings. The program includes a 3% administrative fee.

The updated system replaces the previous classifications with charges based on land use. Accessory dwelling units of 750 square feet or less are exempt, along with small garages, carports, barns and similar structures that meet the size limitation.

During the public hearing, a supervisor questioned how nonhabitable buildings would be classified and whether future increases would require additional approval.

Maddux explained that the program includes annual inflation adjustments, while state law requires supporting studies to be updated at least every eight years.

The revenue can be used to expand fire stations, purchase apparatus and equipment, or reimburse the district for qualifying improvements. County officials said the money cannot pay for routine operations, maintenance or existing deficiencies that do not increase service capacity.

Although the Loma Rica/Browns Valley Community Services District provides fire protection, it cannot independently impose development impact fees. Yuba County must approve the assessments on its behalf and will collect them through the building permit process.

No members of the public spoke during the hearing. Supervisors approved the resolution with one opposing vote.

Maddux said Yuba County has eight fire protection districts, and additional fee revisions could come before supervisors as other districts update their assessments. ★

Yuba City Extends Software Support Contract

By Susan Meeker

YUBA CITY, CA (MPG) - A major overhaul of Yuba City’s financial and payroll operations is taking longer than planned, requiring another $101,750 in consulting services to complete the conversion.

The Yuba City City Council approved an amendment to its agreement with SDI Presence LLC of Los Angeles earlier this month as part of the consent calendar.

The additional expense covers $92,500 in professional services and a $9,250 contingency, officials said. The project involves replacing the city’s existing financial management and human resources software with an integrated system intended to improve accounting, payroll processing, reporting and daily operations.

The city began the modernization effort in October 2022, when the council hired SDI Presence to assist with selecting a new software provider and overseeing implementation. In July 2024,

The council awarded the software contract to Tyler Technologies Inc. and authorized SDI Presence to provide implementation support. The council allocated $2,037,827 for the project, including $1.5 million in federal American Rescue Plan Act funding.

The original timeline called for implementation over two years, with approximately 12 months devoted to financial operations and another year for human resources and payroll. Both portions have been extended to allow additional testing and ensure the software functions properly before being placed into everyday use, officials said.

Information Technology Manager Brian Hansen identified the need for another 500 hours of consulting assistance to complete the project. SDI Presence agreed to continue providing those services at its original rate of $185 per hour rather than its current $210 hourly charge.

The consultant’s responsibilities include coordinating work between the city and Tyler Technologies, managing project timelines and ensuring that necessary tasks are completed.

City officials said the additional assistance is intended to keep the conversion moving while addressing remaining implementation requirements.

Funding for the amendment is available within the city’s existing technology modernization budget, which officials said has sufficient money remaining to cover the additional expense.

The council could have directed city employees to handle the remaining work internally but instead approved continuing the consulting agreement. ★

There She Blows

(Bloomberg) – “Billionaire Ray Dalio warned that artificial intelligence (AI) is a "classic bubble" that is nearing a bursting point thanks to rising interest rates and the need to turn wealth into cash.”

And welcome to Wayne’s world. Well, actually my world. And Ray Dalios’.

I have, on more than a few occasions, have said to beware of AI stock prices, only to be right for a few days, then see AI stocks hit more all-time highs.

Seriously now, cautious investing is warranted when stock prices are anywhere near the multiples resembling the early days of the Dot.com bubble. Back then, stocks like Pets.com went ballistic only to crash and burn as early “investors” bailed out to massive profits.

AI stocks have been on a tear for close to two years. Not straight up mind you. There have been scary price vortexes from time to time, sucking back billions of profits.

Sell-offs shake out what they call the “weak hands”.

But those weak hands are usually not mom and pop investors. Mom and Pop don’t have the good sense to take profits when things start to wither.

The weak hands they speak of are nervous traders that see any downtick as the beginning for a massive sell-off. Usually not the case, but selling at the first sign of trouble can save the proverbial bacon at times.

More often than not, mom and pop just sit there and think things will return to normal. The normal of straight up that is, which is anything but normal.

In any case, I always tell investors the markets can stay illogical longer than you can stay liquid. The saying applies to professional option traders. Options are high powered investing (gambling) tools that magnify up and down moves by 100 times or more.

As a result, it’s rare that an option trader will ride a security to zero. Heck, they seldom ride an option position down more than a few percentages before ejecting the position. That’s because the 100-1 (or more) leverage can wipe out an option trader’s entire net worth in minutes if moves are violent enough. Leverage works wonders on the upside but also can bring the wrecking ball when things go south.

No such discipline exists in most retail

(mom and pop) investors nor their advisors. They go by, and often repeat, the mantra, “stocks always go up in the long run.”

Professional traders who use their own money don’t listen to such nonsense. Option traders especially don’t live long enough using that strategy to even say the phrase.

For mom-and-pop investors, many have had success using that belief, but it can be stressful in severe market sell-offs.

That said, the current AI trade has all the classic signs of a bubble.

Keep in mind, however, those in early on such manias and who have the guts to stay a while can make buco bucks. Keeping those profits is the trick and many amateurs give it all back and then some as the greed DNA takes over the commonsense sector of the brain.

I don’t know, nor does anyone else, when the AI trade will hit the skids. When super-hot sectors deflate, they can do so surprisingly fast.

I also liken it to an “everybody in, everybody out” moment. When vast profits are made quickly, and by a large number of investors, many are of the “tag-along” variety that just bought because everybody else was buying. Fundamentals go out the window early and it’s a pile on moment.

When the air comes out, just imagine somebody yelling shark on a crowded beach. It’s everybody out, all at once, and many get trampled underfoot in the resulting melee.

In conclusion, when I avoid such hot sectors, as I often do, I might end up losing out on all the fast money being made. But there is something in me that just won’t bite on prices that seem to go straight up forever and a day.

I would love the high, true. But it’s the hangover I won’t miss. And often, the hangover is much worse than the party that preceded it.

We are very thankful that Joyce’s pace-maker procedure went well. Sorry we had to close early a couple of times, but some things just cannot be helped. Hope all is well for the next few months, anyway.

Tomorrow there will be a Plant/Seed swap at Books & More. We will meet rain or shine, we have a meeting room we can use. Now is a time to begin to plan for winter foods like broccoli, chard and more. It is a good time to put in some bulbs or rhizomes like iris. Come on by and check it out. We will be open for Trick or Treaters, but not too late. Come by fairly early and get your treat.

Books and More will be closed next week as Joyce and I drive to Tuscan to “help” Tania Rameriz get married. If all goes as planned, we will reopen the next Wednesday, Nov. 11, Veteran’s Day. And that is Myla’s, my first great granddaughter’s birthday. She never went to school on her birthday as it was a holiday.

Look Back in Time -Earlier this month Mount Lassen erupted again in 1920. It was heavier than the week before with a huge black plume of ash over the crater (we have had a couple of earthquakes, too) Good old Ring of Fire stays active.

Hope to see you in Brownsville soon.

The Summary will be provided to Trustor(s) and/or vested owner(s) only, pursuant to CA Civil Code Section 2923.3(d)(2).) YOU ARE IN DEFAULT UNDER A DEED OF TRUST DATED December 10, 2020. UNLESS YOU TAKE ACTION TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY, IT MAY BE SOLD AT A PUBLIC SALE. IF YOU NEED AN EXPLANATION OF THE NATURE OF THE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST YOU, YOU SHOULD CONTACT A LAWYER. On December 10, 2026 at 01:30 PM, at the front entrance to the County Courthouse, 215 5th St., Marysville, CA 95901, MTC Financial Inc. dba Trustee Corps, as the duly Appointed Trustee, under and pursuant to the power of sale contained in that certain Deed of Trust recorded on December 15, 2020 as Instrument No. 2020-021113, of official records in the Office of the Recorder of Yuba County, California, executed by GLORIA OSBORNE, AN UNMARRIED WOMAN, as Trustor(s), in favor of MORTGAGE ELECTRONIC REGIS-TRATION SYSTEMS, INC., as Beneficiary, as nominee for ALL REVERSE MORTGAGE, INC. as Beneficiary, WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER, in lawful money of the United States, all payable at the time of sale, that certain property situated in said County, California describing the land therein as: AS MORE FULLY DESCRIBED IN SAID DEED OF TRUST The property heretofore described is being sold "as is". The street address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is reported to be: 14872 QUEENAN LANE, DOBBINS, CA 95935 The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. Said sale will be made without covenant or warranty, express or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to pay the remaining principal sum of the Note(s) secured by said Deed of Trust, with interest thereon, as provided in said Note(s), advances if any, under the terms of the Deed of Trust, estimated fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligations secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of this Notice of Trustee's Sale is estimated to be $318,858.43 (Estimated). However, prepayment premiums, accrued interest and advances will increase this figure prior to sale. Beneficiary's bid at said sale may include all or part of said amount. In addition to cash, the Trustee will accept a cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the California Financial Code and authorized to do business in California, or other such funds as may be acceptable to the Trustee. In the event tender other than cash is accepted, the Trustee may withhold the issuance of the Trustee's Deed Upon Sale until funds become available to the payee or endorsee as a matter of right. The property offered for sale excludes all funds held on account by the property receiver, if applicable. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. Notice to Potential Bidders If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a Trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a Trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. Notice to Property Owner The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code.

The law requires that information about Trustee Sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may visit the Internet Website address www.nationwideposting.com or call Nationwide Posting & Publication at 916.939.0772 for information regarding the Trustee's Sale for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case, CA07001627-23-2. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Notice to Tenant NOTICE TO TENANT FOR FORECLOSURES AFTER JANUARY 1, 2021 You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 916.939.0772, or visit this internet website www.

nationwideposting.com, using the file number assigned to this case CA07001627-23-2 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. Colusa’s Ruck for Vets set Nov. 7

by Lloyd Green Jr.

COLUSA, CA (MPG) - The third annual Ruck for Vets will return to Colusa on Saturday, Nov. 7, with a 22-mile walk to support local veterans and new activities that include live music, vendors, raffles and a shorter walking option at Veterans Memorial Park.

Organizer Lauren Manor Craft, owner of The Garage Fitness & Nutrition, said this year’s event will offer more opportunities for community members to participate, even if they cannot complete the full 22-mile course.

One addition is “Ruck the Park,” an activity that allows veterans and community members to walk laps around Veterans Memorial Park at their own pace.

“With no time limit, participants can walk any number of laps throughout the day,” said Manor Craft. “I will have a whiteboard available for participants to track their progress.”

The main ruck begins at 8 a.m., following registration at 7 a.m. Participants will travel from Veterans Memorial Park through Colusa, across the Sacramento River and along Butte Slough Road toward Meridian before returning.

Participants begin the 2025 Ruck for Vets in Colusa. This year’s event returns Nov. 7 with a 22-mile walk, live music, vendors and activities benefiting the Colusa County VFW Hall.

The 22-mile distance represents the estimated 22 veterans who die by suicide each day. Participants are encouraged to carry weighted packs, 20 pounds for men and 10 pounds for women, to recognize the loads military personnel carry during service. Weights are optional, and walkers do not have to complete the entire route. The morning program will include patriotic music from an Arbuckle school band and participation by Williams High School cadets. A cadet will perform the national anthem, another will play taps and organizers will observe 22 seconds of silence. The cadets will also assist with event activities. Veterans will operate mobile water and supply vehicles along the route and provide transportation for participants who need assistance. Beginning at noon, vendor booths will offer food, crafts and other merchandise. Black Pine Revival will provide free live music from 1 to 3 p.m., followed by a raffle at 3 p.m. Raffle prizes will include gift baskets, wine, gift cards and a Traeger grill donated through local sponsorships. Participants will receive a raffle ticket with registration, while additional tickets will be available for purchase.

The event began in 2024 when Manor Craft, who comes from a military family, wanted to combine her background in fitness with support for local veterans. Her daughter now serves in the Navy. “I would do these rucks myself and really wanted to get involved with the community,” said Manor Craft. “I didn’t see anything happening to raise money for our local vets, so I decided to start one.”

Participation has grown each year. Last year’s event drew 58 participants, including seven who completed the walk remotely in El Dorado, and raised more than $3,700 for the Colusa County VFW Hall.

Manor Craft said about 30 people had registered as of Oct. 24, and she hopes to attract 60 to 80 participants this year.

The registration fee is $35, with proceeds benefiting the VFW Hall. The event will take place rain or shine.

“I welcome any community member to visit the park throughout the day to shop, listen to music, take a few laps around the park, and support our local veterans,” said Manor Craft.

Student Records Exposed in Statewide Breach

By Lloyd Green Jr.

SACRAMENTO, CA (MPG) - California students and families are receiving notifications following a data security breach involving a company contracted by the state to administer student assessments. The incident exposed student information, including names, birth dates, addresses and assessment records.

Educational Testing Service (ETS), a nonprofit organization under contract with the California Department of Education (CDE), reported that an unauthorized party accessed and copied student information from a secure file transfer site operated by the company.

The CDE began distributing breach notifications Oct. 16 and expects the process to continue through early November. The department has not disclosed how many students the incident affected or which school districts may have had student information compromised.

According to state officials, the information involved varies by student but may include names, Statewide Student Identifiers, dates of birth, addresses, demographic information, disability records, program participation information and statewide assessment results.

The breach did not involve Social Security numbers, financial account information, passwords or parent and guardian information, according to ETS.

The company reported that it took the affected file transfer site offline and built a replacement system with additional security controls. ETS also worked with law enforcement and cybersecurity experts to investigate the incident and reduce the possibility of the information becoming publicly accessible.

ETS reported that its ongoing monitoring has found no evidence that the compromised information has appeared publicly.

The CDE and State Board of Education began coordinating with state cybersecurity agencies after ETS disclosed the incident. Their response includes determining which records the breach affected and providing information and resources to students and families.

In an Oct. 2 letter to county and district superintendents and charter school administrators, Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction Mary Nicely reported that ETS had suspended normal enrollment data processing and paused certain testing activities while officials assessed the security of its systems.

“Protecting California students and their information is our top priority,” Nicely wrote. “The CDE and SBE are taking this incident extremely seriously and are working to ensure that any affected students and families are identified, notified, and provided appropriate information and support as quickly as possible.”

The department said it was working to minimize disruptions to statewide assessments. Officials have not provided a timetable for resuming the affected activities.

ETS is offering current and former students affected by the breach two years of identity protection services through Experian IdentityWorks at no cost.

The CDE has published the breach notification in 27 languages to help families understand the incident and access available services.

Students and families can review the ETS Notice of Data Breach at <https://www.cde.ca.gov/nr/in/ets-notification.asp> or visit the CDE incident information page <https://www.cde.ca.gov/ets> for updates and instructions on obtaining identity protection services. ★

Six Qualify for SJS Volleyball and Flag Football Playoffs

By YSBC Sports

YUBA-SUTTER, CA (YSBC) - The CIF Sac-Joaquin Section released their post-season brackets for girls volleyball and girls flag football on Oct. 23.

Between the two sports, there were seven total teams representing the area in the playoffs as we both had four volleyball and three flag football teams.

Volleyball Division III

Yuba City - Yuba City punched its ticket to the Division III bracket for the second-straight year after a fourth place finish in the Foothill Valley League.

The Honkers were given the No. 5 seed in the bracket as they hosted the Buhach Colony Thunder on Tuesday.

Yuba City was one of four Foothill Valley League teams that qualified in the Division III bracket.

Despite the 3-3 finish to end the regular season, the Honkers played more competitively in their second go-around of FVL competition.

If Yuba City was successful in defeating Buhach Colony, they played the winner of Roseville/Los Banos on Thursday.

River Valley - For the second-straight season, the River Valley Falcons clinched a playoff berth in the Division III and will play the same opponent from 2025.

River Valley hosted Oakdale instead of traveling down to Stanislaus county this year and it was the first home-playoff game the Falcons have hosted since 2018.

River Valley went 2-4 in the second half of FVL play and has not played any opponent south of Sacramento yet.

Oakdale finished fourth in the Valley Oak League where they had teams qualify for Divisions I-IV.

If the Falcons were victorious on Tuesday against the Mustangs, they would have played the winner of the Ripon match on Tuesday as no opponent was determined yet, due to a play-in game scheduled for Monday.

Division IV Wheatland - The Wheatland Pirates hit the road for the third-straight year in the SJS postseason as they traveled to Sacramento and took on West Campus on Tuesday night.

Wheatland was given the No. 13 seed in the Division IV bracket as they finished 4-3 in the second half of Pioneer Valley League play.

Although the Pirates lost three matches in the second half of league play, including a four-set defeat to Lincoln on Oct. 21, Wheatland ended with a higher winning percentage over the Fighting Zebras that gave them the edge in the D-IV bracket instead of participating in a play-in game.

Wheatland and West Campus played one another in the CIVT Sacramento tournament on Sept. 26 where the Warriors swept straight-sets.

If the Pirates were successful against West Campus, they would have traveled and played the winner of El Dorado and Central Catholic on Thursday.

Division V Sutter - The Sutter Huskies claimed their first No. 1 seed in the SJS since crossing over from the Northern Section in 2022.

There's no question Sutter is one of the clear favorites in D-V after a dominant Golden Empire League run where they went 14-0 and only dropped one set during league.

The Huskies eclipsed the 30-win total in a season for the first time since 2010 after winning the "Battle of the Buttes" and a strong showing at the High Sierra Invitational in Reno.

Sutter has more depth than most of the rosters in the D-V bracket and they have a great opportunity to bring home a blue banner.

The Huskies met Bear River in the final last year at Cosunnes River College in Sacramento for the D-V final.

Sutter's hosted the winner of John Adams Academy (Roseville)/Westlake Charter on Tuesday.

Flag Football Division IV

Wheatland - The Wheatland program hosted its first home-playoff game in program history and there are a ton of reasons to be excited.

The Pirates finished second in the Pioneer Valley League and earned the No. 7 seed in the D-IV bracket against Hughson.

Wheatland searched for its first playoff win for the program against the Huskies on Tuesday and if they were successful, they would have played the winner of Orestima/Livingston.

The Pirates youth had momentum of winning their final-three league games to end the regular season.

Division V Sutter - The Sutter Huskies returned to the postseason this year after missing the cut in 2025.

Sutter increased their wins by 11 from 2025 so far, which was aided by a 5-2 in the second half of Golden Empire League play.

The Huskies have multiple offensive weapons they can utilize and their defense is top-notch. Sutter was given the No. 6 and hosted Foresthill on Wednesday. If the Huskies were able to pick up the

Sac-Joaquin Section

River Valley 34, Fairfield 7

The River Valley Falcons football program told everyone that things are different and they proved that after winning back-to-back games for the first time since 2019.

River Valley took care of business in a dominant 34-7 win over Fairfield.

The Falcons rushing duo of junior running backs Kobe Edwards and Uriah Madrid combined for 326 total yards on the ground as Edwards had 207 for his third 200-plus yard game of the season.

River Valley junior quarterback Oscar Hull completed five passes for 93 yards and tossed two touchdowns in the air.

Falcons' seniors Kavari Drummonds and Cesar Navarro were the recipients of the touchdown passes from Hull.

River Valley will host its final regular season game at home on Friday as the Kennedy Cougars come to town. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:15 p.m.

Yuba City 35, Placer 19

The Yuba City Honkers keep making people eat their words and believe in the brown and gold as they beat the Placer Hillmen 35-19.

Yuba City head coach Jonah Lessard expressed to Yuba Sutter Butte Colusa Sports that the Honkers defense came up big time and time again as they scored on a 99-yard fumble return for a touchdown by junior line-backer Ean Barraza.

Lessard added that senior quarterback Judah Allen had four interceptions, but three of them were 50/50 balls.

Offensively, senior Cody Haase dominated on the ground again as he rushed for 244 yards on the ground and had three touchdowns.

The Honkers host Twelve Bridges on Friday with a lot of eyes on this game as it will be presumed for the Foothill Valley League title with each team having two games remaining on their schedule.

Lindhurst 56, Esparto 0

Lindhurst handled their business trip last week with a 56-0 shutout victory over the Esparto Spartans and stayed towards the top of the Sierra Delta League standings.

The Blazers had a comfortable 35-point advantage at the half and cruised through the second half for the win.

Lindhurst junior running back Chan Hicks continued his dominance on the ground as he carried the ball seven times for 148 yards on the ground. Defensively, Hicks had five tackles and two interceptions against Esparto.

Blazers sophomore running back Antonio Clements II ran the ball four times for 88 yards and Lindhurst rushed for 347 yards on the ground and found the end zone seven times.

Lindhurst hosts Woodland Christian on Thursday for clear second place in the SDL and if the Blazers can take down the Cardinals, they should jump them in the Division VI rankings in hope for a playoff spot.

Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Sutter 40, Rio Linda 7

It was another week in the Golden Empire League and the Sutter Huskies dominated another league victory with a 40-7 beat down to the Rio Linda Knights.

Sutter senior running back Losi Asiata is now the school's record holder for most yards rushed in a game (322).

Asiata found the end zone four times on the ground and surpassed his rushing total from last season in the win as he is currently at 1765 yards rushing.

Huskies head coach Ryan Reynolds told YSBC that they only ran five offensive plays in the second half due to a running clock.

Sutter had a trio of seniors with double-digit tackles that led the way to the victory over the nights between Andrew Barker (18), Kristian Montero (12) and Deagan Parks (10).

The Huskies will hit the road to Sacramento and take on Natomas Friday with kickoff scheduled for 7:15 p.m.

Wheatland 32, Marysville 9

The Wheatland Pirates won their second-straight Pioneer Valley League game in a 32-9 victory over Marysville.

Wheatland had 321 yards of offense led by 110 rushing yards by junior running back Johnny Mcknight as he added one score on the ground.

Pirates' seniors Noah Meixner and Joseph Franklin each had a touchdown pass in the win over Marysville.

Seniors' Aiden Luckett and Deo Reed caught a touchdown pass each and combined for seven receptions and 115 yards receiving.

Defensively, senior linebacker Kai Leibrich led the way for Wheatland with 10 tackles.

The Pirates will host Northgate (Walnut Creek) in a non-league contest on Friday with kickoff set for 7:15 p.m.

Northern Section

East Nicolaus 42, Colusa 0

East Nicolaus returned home last week and dominated for their ninth-straight win of the year.

The Spartans controlled the game from the jump and led by 28 at the half.

The selflessness of the East Nicolaus program was displayed in the victory as nine different Spartans' carried the ball for 290-plus yards on the ground.

Senior running back Justin Welch led the way with 15 carries for 81 yards on the ground and found the end zone twice.

East Nicolaus junior quarterback Braden Appelt completed four passes for 79 yards and connected with junior Deegan Geer for a 20-yd touchdown pass.

The Spartans have a bye week this week and get some much needed rest before they have their regular-regular season finale at Paradise on Nov. 6.

"I'm Eric Jones. I Lived the American Dream. Now I'm Fighting to Save It."

Business Leader. Philanthropist. Husband. Father.
Not a Career Politician.

From Humble Beginnings to the American Dream.

Eric Jones grew up poor in a small rural community. His father was a disabled military veteran and his mother worked long hours, went back to school to become a nurse, and raised three sons while caring for her husband. Eric became the first in his family to attend college, with a full scholarship to Yale University.

He Built Businesses, Not a Political Career.

Eric spent more than a decade helping entrepreneurs build successful companies, create opportunities, and make essential services more accessible, including:

- Duolingo – Making language education accessible to millions.
- Chime and Nubank – Expanding access to financial services.
- Maven Clinic and Lyra Health – Improving access to healthcare and mental health services.

He Believes in Giving Back.

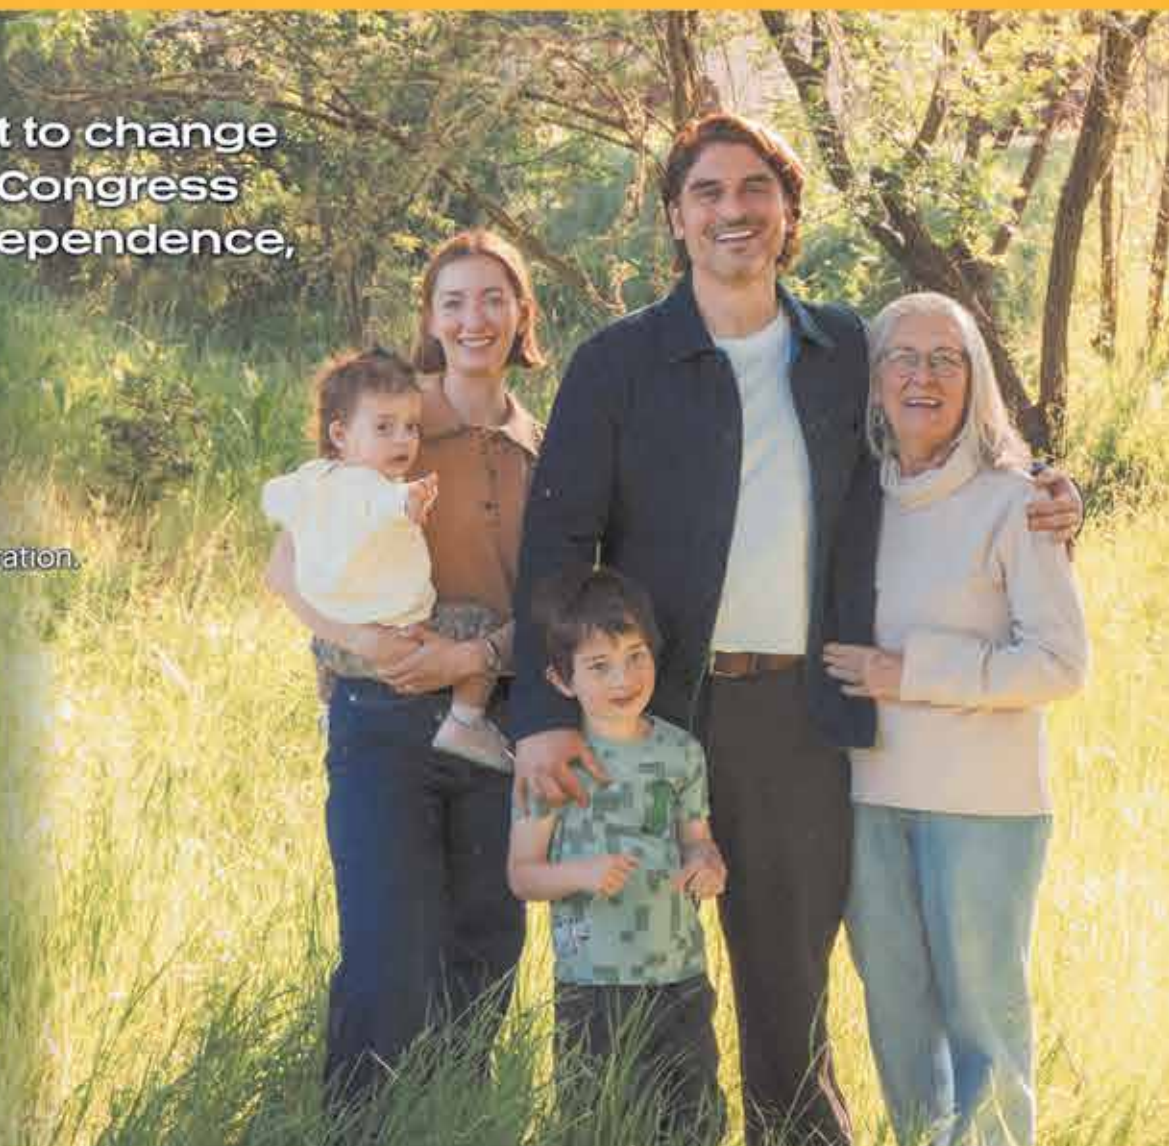

Eric and his wife, Rachel, operate a family foundation supporting communities throughout Northern California, includes providing thousands of free child car seats, supporting veterans, and expanding school reading programs. During COVID, Eric helped raise more than $10 million to provide in-person tutoring for low-income students.

"I'm Eric Jones and I want to change how Washington works. Congress needs accountability, independence, and new leadership."

I will fight for:

- Term limits for members of Congress.
- Banning congressional stock trading.
- Ending partisan gerrymandering.
- Restoring opportunity for the next generation.
