Ann Bannon to speak at Central Library

The Sacramento Public Library will continue its Enter the Chat speaker series, with its latest presentation, an evening with Ann Bannon.

This event will be held at the Central Library's Library Galleria, 828 I St., on June 22, from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

Bannon, a Sacramento-based, award-winning author and pioneer in gay and lesbian fiction, will chat about LGBTQIA literature, how her work has endured for more than 60 years, and her thoughts on recent censorship challenges in schools and libraries.

For additional information about this speaker series, visit www.SacLibrary.org/EntersTheChat.

SUMATRAN ORANGUTAN BORN AT SACRAMENTO ZOO

The Sacramento Zoo announced on May 8 that a critically endangered Sumatran orangutan was born at the zoo – the first orangutan birth at this zoo since 1981.

Indah, the zoo's 19-year-old Sumatran orangutan, gave birth to a healthy male infant on the evening of May 1. Both mother and infant are doing well.

McKinley Park Farmers' Market to open June 25

By Brittany O'Neal

A farmers' market similar to the one shown above will open at McKinley Park on June 25.

Have you been looking for freshly picked, seasonal, local produce and healthy, delicious food from dedicated hardworking farmers and small businesses in East Sacramento? Then you will be in luck come Sunday, June 25 when a new farmers' market will open at McKinley Park.

On that day, this new market will set up shop at the park along H street, right next to the rose garden.

The McKinley Park Farmers' Market will be open year-round every week on Sundays, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Attendees will have the opportunity to shop amongst the finest vendors in town.

On your trip to the market, you will see the vibrant colors of fresh, seasonal fruits and vegetables, smell the ready-to-order pizza, hear sweet, acoustic sounds of live music, and feel good vibes from the vendors.

This market will have nearly 40 vendors with a plethora of items to choose from. Take a moment to warm up your brain for the lineup of produce, products and vendors.

The farm vendors will be ready to sell, peaches, cherries, nectarines, strawberries, tomatoes, beets, a variety of lettuce, cabbage, broccoli, carrots, garlic, onions, herbs, nuts, plants and succulents, just to name a few.

Get your taste buds ready for the variety of food vendor options: baked goods, sourdough bread, jams and jellies, honey, eggs, meat, fish, smoothies, juices, spices, yogurt, teas, vegan options and much more.

Along the street, food trucks will await your arrival to feed you Mexican food and aguas frescas (authentic fruity drinks), and hot, out-of-the-oven pizza.

If you need to buy a gift for a loved one, our craft vendors have handmade jewelry, garden glass art, CBD products, wire tree wall hangings, unique woodworking art, soaps, candles and paintings.

Some farms that will grace your presence at the market will be Esquivel Farms, Rodriguez Bros. Ranch LLC, Villanueva Farms, EcoFriendly Greens, Ramos Farms LLC, K&D Freitas Farms, and Cherry Hill Farms.

These farms are sprinkled throughout the Central Valley, from as far as Watsonville and Fresno to a stone's throw away in Fair Oaks and Orangevale.

All of these farms will come together through this market for one purpose: to sell what their hardworking hands have grown.

The market has a mixture of farmers who grow their produce naturally, are certified organic or grow conventionally. If you have questions about farming practices, the farmers will be happy to explain their processes.

To get high-quality produce into your home, these farmers wake up in the wee hours of the morning and drive long distances down the highways to get their produce to you.

Ramos Farms LLC is known for their sweetest, juiciest peaches, and their workers will drive three hours and five minutes to get those peaches to McKinley Park. Yes, that time traveled was fact-checked on Google Maps.

Hugo, one of the sons working for this family business, explained his journey.

"I wake up at 2 a.m. and leave around 5 a.m. to get to the markets and arrive back home around 6 p.m. I like to listen to podcasts on my drive. Some of my favorites are 'The Joe Rogan Experience' and 'Tha Boxing Voice.'"

Many food vendors jumped at the chance to be a part of the McKinley Park market to show off their products to the community.

Businesses choose to sell at farmers' markets, because it is a great place to connect with customers on a personal level and talk more in depth about their products.

Some of these food vendors you might recognize from other markets in the surrounding areas. Local food vendor favorites that will be at the McKinley Park market are Grateful Bread, Green Smoothie Co., Naan Tikka, Sour & Soul Baking Co., Spiced Up, The Frenchy Gourmet, 1837 Vegan, The Chefs' Olive Mix, and The Slush Shack.

FreshWay Fish, a Roseville-based business that sells seafood products at more than 50 market locations throughout California and Nevada, is fitting the McKinley Park Farmers' Market onto its list, as well.

Sarah, one of the sibling owners of FreshWay Fish, spoke about the personal meaning of this market location.

"We are very excited about this new market at McKinley Park," she said. "Matt and I went to Sutter Middle School and grew up playing at McKinley (Park). The employee we (chose) to staff the booth is a local of (the) McKinley Park (area), as well."

Farmers' Market

Sarah further explained why FreshWay Fish sells primarily at farmers' markets.

"Small businesses are the lifeblood of a community," she said. "Selling at markets keeps business in the community, so everyone can thrive."

Who created this wonderful farmers' market, you may ask? None other than Marga Brunner.

Marga is a native Dutch farmer who transplanted to the Orangevale area in 2009 to raise a family with her husband, Matt.

She moved to the area with a vision of connecting the community one fruit and vegetable at a time.

Growing up in the Netherlands, Marga could see the impact farmers' markets had on the community, and she wanted to bring that spirit to her new home.

Walk by Esquivel Farms and try their strawberries. This farm uses natural farming practices to grow produce.

Owner of Esquivel Farms, Jonathan is regularly at the markets to connect with his customers. Who wouldn't want to be around all those strawberries?

Being a farmer herself, she understands the hard work and dedication it takes to run a farm and small business.

Marga has been excited to create these markets for the benefit of other farmers and small businesses.

With that intention, Marga took on and transformed farmers' markets in Orangevale and Carmichael, and she later created a farmers' market in Fair Oaks.

Using this drive and momentum, Marga cultivated a search for a new location. The aha moment happened when she was having a picnic with her family at McKinley Park.

Brunner described that moment.

"We were walking around the rose garden and it suddenly hit me," she said. "This is the perfect place to have a farmers' market. I noticed so many people already walking around the park, and felt a farmers' market would thrive in this location. This moment started the one year journey of connecting with the right people, getting the permits and finding the extra parking to get this market up and running."

Marga is the definition of a hardworking individual who truly believes in the work she is doing. She is a force of nature, maintaining her own farm in Orangevale, raising four children and running two businesses.

Through her efforts to make this community better, she created jobs for locals, spaces for small businesses to thrive, and lasting connections among fellow vendors. There is no telling what Marga has up her sleeve next.

The McKinley Park Farmers' Market will be accepting EBT and WIC Farmers' Market Nutrition Program payments. The market's address is 601 Alhambra Blvd.

Rodriguez Bros. Ranch LLC is a family-owned and operated certified organic farm from Watsonville. They have been farming for more than 30 years.

For more information about the McKinley Park Farmers' Market, including how to become a vendor, visit the website, www.McKinleyParkFarmersMarket.com, or call (916) 215-7713.

Carnitas the dog seeks new home

“Hello, my name is Carnitas. I am a male, brown-and-white pit bull who was brought to the Front Street Animal Shelter as a stray on Feb. 28. I am about 3 and a half years old and I weigh about 62 pounds.

Previously, I lived in a foster home for a little while, and my foster parents said that I was the smartest boy and appeared to be potty trained and crate trained.

Although I love people, I don’t always get along with other dogs. However, with patience, I may be able to live with other dogs.

Perhaps I might whine a little at first, but I will sleep through the night and I will stay in a crate without issue when left alone.

Carnitas is a brown-and-white pit bull. His animal identification number is A658196.

I know the ‘sit’ command, and my foster family is sure that I could learn a bunch of other tricks, because I love food.

A community member has paid for my adoption fee, so it would be free to adopt me.

To meet me, make sure I’m still available at www.FrontStreetShelter.org, then ask for me at the shelter from noon to 5 p.m. seven days a week. My animal identification number is A658196.”

EQUAL HOUSING LENDER

The initial Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is currently 6.00% for a new Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC), and is fixed for the first 5 years of the loan which is called the draw period. After the initial 5 year period, the APR can change once based on the value of an Index and Margin. The Index is the weekly average yield on U.S. Treasury Securities adjusted to a constant maturity of 10 years and the margin is 3.50%. The current APR for the repayment period is 7.125%. The maximum APR that can apply any time during your HELOC is 12%. A qualifying transaction consists of the following conditions: (1) the initial APR assumes a maximum HELOC of $200,000 and a total maximum Loan-to-Value (LTV) of 70% including the new HELOC and any existing 1st Deed of Trust loan on your residence; (2) your residence securing the HELOC must be a single-family home that you occupy as your primary residence; (3) if the 1st Deed of Trust loan is with a lender other than El Dorado Savings Bank, that loan may not exceed $300,000, have a total maximum Loan-to-Value(LTV) of 65% and may not be a revolving line of credit. Additional property restrictions and requirements apply. All loans are subject to a current appraisal. Property insurance is required and flood insurance may be required. Rates, APR, terms and conditions are subject to change without notice. Other conditions apply. A $525 early closure fee will be assessed if the line of credit is closed within three years from the date of opening. An annual fee of $85 will be assessed on the first anniversary of the HELOC and annually thereafter during the draw period. Ask for a copy of our “Fixed Rate Home Equity Line of Credit Disclosure Notice” for additional important information. Other HELOC loans are available under different terms. 20
