

Find the Love

Our mission at the Journal is to celebrate life in San Clemente. Recently inspired by a photo of Kelly Narey's, we asked our readers to send photos of the things they loved about the village. We received well over 100 entries. Some pictures were taken by visiting travelers, some by life long villagers.

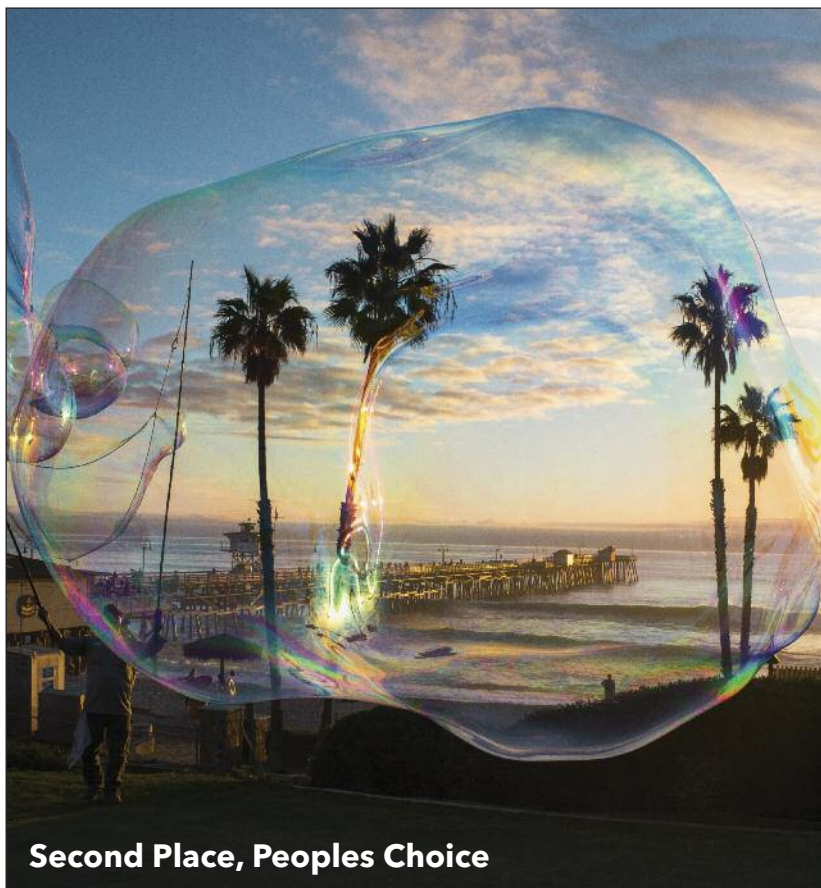

We would like to thank those who shared. Collectively, the images paint an impressive portrait of a beautiful community.
