Chagall for Children: Where Kids Can Touch The Art

The Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage announces the highly anticipated Cleveland premiere of Chagall for Children, which explores the work of one of the best-known and most-loved artists of the 20th century, Marc Chagall. Hands-on and interactive, 14 multi-sensory exploration stations have been designed to specifically engage children ages 2–12. Each station features a high-quality reproduction of one of Marc Chagall's works and encourages exploration of art principles such as color, composition, light, and texture.

Chagall for Children is a unique exhibition created by Kohl Children's Museum and features over a dozen Chagall masterpieces, all accompanied by hands-on interactive elements that allow children to express their own creativity. "Chagall was such a whimsical artist," said KCM President & CEO Sheridan Turner. "Young children immediately pick up on the fanciful and unusual aspects of his work. He really appeals to children's senses of wonder and fantasy."

Each piece of artwork includes an audio recording that gives guests information about the piece. After learning some background information about the work, they can take part in a hands-on activity related to the artwork.

These imaginative activities are as varied as Chagall's works. For example, a fabric rendition of Chagall's "The Rooster" lets children rearrange the bird's colorful tail feathers. A bas-relief of "The Birthday" allows guests to make rubbings of the artwork to take home. "The Poultry Yard" offers various soft-sculpture animal parts that children can mix and match to create their own fantastical animals.

At different stations throughout the exhibition, guests can create mosaics, weave tapestries, use touch screens to digitally alter Chagall's masterpieces, conduct symphonies, and—through the magic of video—even insert themselves into one his paintings. After these hands-on experiences, guests can curl up in a reading nook stocked with children's books about Chagall's life and work.

Hours & pricing: Visitors can explore the Chagall for Children exhibition at the Maltz Museum, Tuesday through Sunday, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. through timed ticketing which must be purchased in advance at www.maltzmuseum.org or by phone at 216-593-0575. General: $12, students & seniors: $10, children 5–11: $5, children under 5 and Maltz Museum members are free.

Public Programs: This summer, to accompany the special exhibition, the Maltz Museum will be hosting unique programming for all ages. Monthly family-fun programs on Sundays, will cost just $5 per person. Plus, guests can join the Maltz Museum and its partners for a weekly storytime

An estimated 350 guests of all ages and backgrounds joined together for the Chagall for Children kickoff event on May 15, 2022 to enjoy featured guests: Mandel Jewish Community Center's Playmakers Youth Theater, Rock and Roll Hall of Fame's Mike Abbadini, and master magician Scott Shuller.

every Thursday morning, then stay and play in the hands-on exhibition, designed for kids to touch the art! Adult audiences can enjoy a series of lectures examining Marc Chagall's art in the context of 20th century history and, with partner Spirit of Clay Art Studio, three art workshops will be offered off site, for ages 12–112.

Summer of Kindness Challenge

Win great prizes with an excellent summer family activity!

Recent history has shown us that just as easily as our country can come together in a time of crisis, it can be torn apart by meanness, intolerance, and hatred. Fortunately, there is a local organization that focuses on how kindness can continue to be the inspiring link and the bridge that brings our region together as we work to find solutions and common ground.

Started in 1994 as Project Love, Values-in-Action has been providing social-emotional and character education programs to schools in northeast Ohio for 28 years. Through student workshops and seminars, the organization has trained over 1,000,000 students and 4,100 educators to lead with kindness, caring and respect.

To take kindness to the next level, Values-in-Action is currently presenting a movement aimed at bringing together communities, businesses, organizations, and schools by recognizing and sharing the acts of kindness around us in an effort to inspire a ground swell of positivity and goodness that will solidify northeast Ohio as the kindest place in the nation. Known as "Kindland," the movement relies on the power of the people to do, recognize, report, and share the acts of kindness happening everyday.

Kindland is a part of Values-in-Action's broader "Just Be Kind" campaign that aims to make kindness the overriding and embedded value in communities across the United States.

Ways to engage with the Kindland movement

- Spread the Kindland message: Take the Kindland pledge at www.BeKindland.com. It's an easy way for anyone to show their commitment to kindness. Share the link and encourage others to take the pledge.
- Follow Kindland on social media @BeKindland and share news about Kindland with your friends, family, and neighbors. Share kind stories and tag @BeKindland and include #Kindland.
- Post signage in your window or yard to show that you are a part of the movement that encourages kindness in northeast Ohio. Email amanda@viafdn.org to request signage.

Summer of Kindness Challenge

Values-in-Action is kicking off a new promotion called the "Summer of Kindness Challenge" where participants can win great prizes including a vacation, Browns tickets, Cavs tickets, grocery gift cards and more.

Entering is easy. On the back page of this issue of Today's Family there are 20 challenges of kindness. Challenges include volunteering at a local animal shelter, supporting a lemonade stand, leave a kind message with sidewalk chalk, giving blood and more.

Between now and August 19, 2022, complete as many of the challenges that you can and mark them off as you go. When you are finished, scan the form and email it to Amanda Guarnieri at amanda@projectlove.org or mail your form to Values In Action, Summer of Kindness, 6700 Beta Drive, Ste. 120, Mayfield, Ohio 44143.

You will receive one raffle form for every square you have marked off. One form and 20 raffle tickets are the maximum you can earn. The raffle will take place on Friday, August 26, 2022.

If you have any questions you may email Amanda Guarnieri or call her at 440-463-6205.

Good luck and here's hoping for a truly great summer of kindness in northeast Ohio and around the world!

Greater Cleveland Aquarium celebrates 10 years of educating & entertaining families

Greater Cleveland Aquarium first opened its doors in January of 2012. Today the Aquarium is home to 3,600 animals representing 250 fresh and saltwater species, including some rare weedy seadragon hatchlings.

“The weedy seadragon birth is a major accomplishment and we’re excited to document and share what we learn from the process with others focused on the care and conservation of this delicate species,” says curator Ray Popik.

Exhibit design has everything to do with the Aquarium’s success—both rearing seadragons and in terms of the destination’s unique appeal—but retrofitting a historic brick powerhouse for an aquarium was not without its challenges, explains Mike Gorek, senior maintenance technician and exhibit diver. “Finding opportunities in the limitations and figuring out how to create viable, one-of-a-kind habitats from scratch is a fun and rewarding part of my job.” Guests who have not visited the Aquarium since it opened will discover that all of its galleries have been re-themed to be immersive.

Species diversity, immersive décor, child’s eye-level exhibits and 360-degree views have solidified the downtown Cleveland attraction as a family-friendly tourist destination and contributed to the growing vibrancy of the community, asserts Neda Spears, office assistant. When Spears began as an aquarium guest experience associate back in 2012, there wasn’t nearly as much activity in The Flats and the adjacent Gordon Square, Hingetown and Ohio City neighborhoods. “Now there are any number of terrific eateries, breweries, shops, performance venues and trails for our team, guests and 15,000 passholders to enjoy.”

Halle Minshall, dive safety coordinator, heads up a team of scuba divers responsible for underwater cleaning, husbandry maintenance and guest engagement. She loves seeing visitors connect with the aquatic world. “We encourage everyone to consider how their actions can impact waterways and the natural habitats of some pretty amazing animals,” says Minshall. “I hope some guests are inspired to learn more about biology and marine science—and maybe even learn to scuba dive!”

Greater Cleveland Aquarium is celebrating its 10th birthday all year long with giveaways, videos and programs. Learn more and plan a visit at greaterclevelandaquarium.com.
