A special thank you to Irena Roman and the students of Massachusetts College of Art and Design Senior Illustration class for their hard work illustrating our cover and Beach Map spread on page 12. Check out our Facebook to see all of the illustrations. On the cover: Illustration by Nichel Nhem. Beach Map Illustration by Allie DiGesse.

Nichel Nhem is an illustrator and concept artist from Fall River, MA, who graduated from MassArt with a BFA in Illustration in May 2022. Her illustrations were also featured in Brandeis and Columbia magazines. Her work consists of a variety of stylistic character illustrations, portraiture, and narrative art, with a focus on creating imagery full of energy and excitement.

Allie DiGesse is an illustrator, creative writer and concept artist in the Boston area. She recently graduated from Massachusetts College of Art and Design, and is now pursuing art full time. In her free time, she enjoys reading, playing games, and spending time with her family and friends. # Hot Reads for Summer

Recommended by Debra Horan,

Nothing declares "summer" better than time to relax in the sun, or shade, with a good book. Here are some great options to consider, all available at your local bookstore or library.

Start with these summer themed titles: Jennifer Weiner, "boss of the beach read", has a new release with The Summer Place, another heartfelt novel set against a backdrop of a post-pandemic wedding on the outer

Cape. A great read about the power of home, family and of course, secrets. Nancy Thayer is back with Summer Love, a novel about four friends who gather on Nantucket for a life-changing reunion involving love and self-discovery. The Newcomer, by popular southern author Mary Kay Andrews, is a perfect summer page-turner with a bit of who-done-it mystery, a big helping of emotional baggage and a spritz of romance. Speaking of romance, The Spanish Love Deception by Elena Armas will sweep you away to a wedding in Spain, or maybe not. You will have to read it to find out!

For a charming adventure, try Something Wilder by NYT best-selling author Christina Lauren (actually a pen name for a pair of writing partners & best friends Christina Hobbs and Lauren Billings), a true escape that will pull you out of everyday life, filled with wit and tenderness too. The daughter of a famed treasure hunter/absentee father guides tourists through the gorgeous landscape of Red Rock Canyon, Utah. Reconnecting with first loves and trying to buy back the ranch her father sold are interwoven into the plot, along with a chance to right the wrongs of the past. Another rivlonely strangers in a rural Oregon town, each working through an unexpected loss, who come together by happenstance at a local honeybee farm to find unexpected friendship and healing.

A summery, feminist beach book to enjoy is Blush by Jamie Brenner. A lush winery on a majestic estate and premier destination for lavish parties on Long Island is threatened by forced closure due to the loss of family fortune. Can resurrecting a "trashy" book club from the past save their livelihood? There are plenty of great books to choose from, so you may want to get a head start now. Happy Summer & Happy Reading!!

ing read is The Swallows by Lisa Lutz, a timely, imaginative tale of revenge and disruption that shows us what can happen when silence wins out over decency for too long. Highly engaging! The Music of Bees by Eileen Garvin follows three
